The Holcad

Vol. 76 No. 12 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, January 6, 1956

Ready For 1956 Choir Tour

Members of the concert choir will tour during the between semester vacation. They are expected to leave Thursday, Jan. 26 and will return Tuesday, Jan. 31. Concerts are scheduled for churches in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia and Maryland.

Concert Choir Goes On Tour

Mr. Clarence Martin, director of the Westminster college Concert choir has announced the itinerary for the 1956 choir tour. The choir will travel during semester recess, starting Thursday, Jan. 26, and returning early Tuesday, Jan. 31.

Thirty-seven members of the choir will go by bus to First United Presbyterian church, Indiana, Pa., for the first concert on January 26, From there they will go to the United Presbyterian church, Newville, Pa. On January 28 they will perform in the Second United Presbyterian church of Philadelphia.

Sunday morning, Jan. 29, the choir will sing at the Elsmere Presbyterian church of Wilmington, Delaware, where the grandson of former Westminster college President, Dr. Robert M. Russell is minister. Sunday evening they will sing at Arlington, Va., in the Little Falls United Presbyterian church. The last stop will be Hagerstown, Md., at the St. Paul Methodist church.

The program includes "Worthy Art Thou, O Lord," by Willan; "O Magnify the Lord With Me," from the Bay State Collection, arranged by George Lynn; "Heavenly Light," by Kopylow; "Rejoice, Beloved Christians," a Cantata by Buxtehude; "Te Deum," by Britton; "Mass for the Poor," by Eric Satie; "Ezekial Saw De Wheel," "Swing Low." "Ain't That Good News," all by Dawson; "De Camptown Races," by Stephen Foster, arranged by Lynn; "I Bought a Cat," by Copland and "Shvanda Polka," by Weinberger.

This is the first tour since 1954 when the choir traveled through the New England states and Washington, D. C.

Miss Nixon Resigns Journalism Post Feb. 1

Miss Elizabeth Nixon, associate professor of journalism, has been granted her requested release from contract effective Feb. 1, 1956, Dr. Will W. Orr announced this week.

Miss Nixon is currently on leave of absence from the college while she is directing a group of foreign journalists studying in this country under the auspices of the State department.

Miss Nixon came to Westminster in 1946. She previously taught at Northwestern university where she took both her bachelor's and master's degrees.

While here she served as Argo advisor from 1950 to 1956, served as technical advisor to Scrawl for several years, assisted in the News Bureau, sponsored the 30 Club and also served as advisor to Information Please.

Journalism as a major course was introduced after Miss Nixon came here. She was especially proud of the high placement record for the journalism graduates during her stay.

The journalism professor has wide experience in newspaper, book and magazine publishing. She was one time west coast editor of the Christian Advocate and worked on the staff of the Sioux City Journal.

A number of books, plays and several hundred feature articles were also written by her. With Dr. Amy Charles, associate professor of English, she now has a book ready for publication called The Church Goes to Press.

Miss Nixon is a member of Who's Who in the East, Who's Who in Commerce and Industry, Theta Sigma Phi, Kappa Tau Alpha, and Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism honoraries, AAUP and AAUW.

Two Speak on Christian Ed.

Two speakers will be on hand to present the program at the next Christian Service meeting to be held Tuesday, Jan. 10, at 7 p.m. in the chapel, announces James Mawhinney, president.

The topic of the group meeting will be Christian Education. Dr. Wayne Christy, head of the Bible department, will speak specifically about the Christian Education program sponsored by Westminster's own group. The aim of the phase of this program is to send student teachers into several district elementary schools to broaden and create interest in Christianity.

Mrs. Thomas Gregory, wife of Bible and philosohy professor, will speak concerning dealings with children while teaching Christian Education. She has had quite a bit of experience along this line.

The meeting will close by 7:45 allowing students to attend the music recital in the chapel.

Record Dance Tonight

The junior class will sponsor a record dance in Old 77 from 8:30 to 11:30 tonight. Admission will be 15 cents for stags and 25 cents per couple.

Mademoiselle Writing Contest Open To Women Students

Now under way is Mademoiselle magazine's College Fiction contest for 1956, open to any woman undergraduate under twenty-six years old who is regularly enrolled in a degree-granting college.

The two winners will receive $500 each for the serial rights to their stories and publication in Mademoiselle. Runners-up will receive honorable mention in the magazine, which reserves the right to buy their work at its regular rates. The results will be announced in the August 1956 issue.

Stories should run from approximately 2,500 to 5,000 words and each contestant may submit as many entries as she likes. Stories that have appeared in undergraduate publications are acceptable of they have not been published elsewhere.

Entries must be typewritten, double-spaced, on one side of the page only. All work must be clearly marked with contestant's name, age, home address, school address and school year. A manuscript-size Manila envelope, self-addressed and stamped, should be enclosed with all entries. Mademoiselle will assume no responsibility for manuscripts and will not return any stories received unless they are accompanied by a return envelope. Stories must be orginal and fictitious.

Judges of the contest will be Mademoiselle editors, whose decisions will be final. Entries should be submitted to College Fiction Contest, Mademoiselle, 575 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York, and must be postmarked no later than midnight March 15, 1956.

Registration Set For January 30-31

Directions for second semester registration on January 30 and 31 were anounced today by Dean John Forry.

Seniors, as of the first semester, will register from 9 to 10 a.m. on Monday, Jan. 30. Juniors will register from 10 to 11:45 the same day.

Sophomores who have filed a major sheet at the Recorders office, should register from 1:30 to 4 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 30. All sophomores who have not filed a major sheet will register with the freshmen.

Freshmen will register from 8:30 a.m. until 12 noon on Tuesday, Jan. 31.

Faculty members should be at the departmental tables at the times indicated above. There will be no scheduled registration for Tuesday afternoon, but faculty members will be available in their offices from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday so that those students who have not completed their registration can obtain signatures on their cards.

Unless there is a special reason for a change, students should plan to continue in the same section of such continuing multiple section courses as English, Bible and speech, Dr. Forry said.

Since grade summaries cannot be completed by the time of registration, some students may be asked to change courses after the close of the registration period, he added.

Graduate students will register on Saturday, Jan. 21 from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

A late registration fee of $5.00 will be charged beginning Wednesday morning, Feb. 1. Second semester classes begin that day.

Final examinations fo the first semester begin Friday, Jan. 20 and continue through Thursday, Jan. 26.

McGinnis, Eckman Take Sabbaticals

Two professors will take sabbaticals beginning next semester in order to travel and do further study in their fields.

Dr. Myrta McGinnis, professor of English, and Mr. Calude Eckman, professor of psychology, will take the one semester leave of absence privilege extended to all faculty members who have taught seven years or more at Westminster.

Dr. McGinnis plans to do research on Middle English literature in British libraries. Present plans call for her to sail March 2 and return sometime in August.

She will study in the libraries of Cambridge and Oxford and hopes to attend lectures at the Universities of London and Oxford. Dr. McGinnis will concentrate her study on Chaucer and Langland.

Mr. Eckman will be working toward his doctors degree in psychology. He plans to study at the University of Pittsburgh.

Ford Grant Nets Over $6000 Yearly

An increase of $6000 to $8000 each year in faculty salaries was made possible by the Ford Foundation pre-Christmas grant to Westminster according to Dr. Will W. Orr, president.

That is the approximate amount of annual interest return on Westminster's grant of $216,500 of the more than $500 million awarded to private colleges and universities, hospitals and medical schools throughout the country.

Since the grants are endowments, Westminster will not be able to use the money as cash. However, the sum will be valuable in raising the overall salary scale.

Upon receiving the news by telegram last Dec. 12, Dr. Orr said, "This is without a doubt the finest thing of its sort that has ever happened to free enterprise colleges. It is a tremendous boon to the entire free enterprise system in the United States."

"You cannot have free enterprise in business without free enterprise in higher education," he added.

According to the Foundation the money was awarded on the following basis: "A sum approximating its 1954-55 payroll for instruction in the liberal arts and sciences would be given to each . . . privately supported, regionally accredited, four-year college and university in the United States. The income from this endowment grant would be used for increasing faculty salaries."

A total of $210 million was awarded in 615 colleges and universities. A total of 57 educational institutions in Pennsylvania received varying endowments from the grant.

Hollen Heads New Campus Music Group

On Wednesday, January 4, 1956, the 180th Junior chapter of the Music Educators National conference was installed on this campus. This is an organization composed of music education majors.

Officers for this group were elected. They are: president, Darl Hollen; vice president, Marilyn Elkins; secretary-treasurer, Roberta Foster and historian, Florence Craig. These officers will meet to draw up a constitution and to form an advisory council with representatives from each class on this council.

Director Of School Of Dancing Gives Humorous Lecture

"It's A Date," a humorous lecture on the social graces and deportment, will be presented Thursday, Jan. 12 at 8:15 p.m. in the chapel by Mr. Russell Curry, director of the Curry school of dancing.

The school, started by Mr. Curry's mother and now headed by him has its headquarters in Arlington, Mass. and more than 30 branches throughout the country.

The lecture reportedly has been well received by colleges and universities throughout the country. It covers many phases of dancing and adds advice, especially for men, on how to conduct themselves in social graces and deportment. Mr. Curry gives his points emphasis by using humorous practical illustrations.

The lecture is one of a series sponsored by the college each year and arranged by Mr. Walter Biberich, professor of German.

Two more are scheduled this year with actress Mary Leader in "Women of Destiny" in February and Mr. Paul Cherney presenting "Exploring the Secrets of the Underwater World" for the final talk of the series.

One More Issue For Holcad Staff

Next Week's edition of the Holcad will be the final one for the present editorial staff. The new editor is expected to be named late next week by the Student Publications committee. Applications for various editorial positions may then be made to Mr. Charles Cook or the new editor.

Meanwhile, the date for application of Holcad editor-in-chief has been extended to Tuesday, Jan. 10, announces Dr. George Bleasby, chairman of the publications committee. Applications may still be obtained from Dr. Bleasby and be returned by next week.

Miss Nixon Resigns

We were going to print the following notice as an obituary with a black border on the front page, but we changed our minds.

"Died, suddenly, on January 5, at Westminster college, the journalism department due to the resignation of Miss Elizabeth Nixon, associate professor of journalism.

"Survivors include three seniors, nine juniors and a number of sophomore and freshmen journalism majors who are now faced with the problem of what to do next in their major field."

Miss Nixon was not well known outside the journalism department and probably few students were aware of her background and many accomplishments. She was not an exhibitionist, but did her work capably and quietly.

Seldom do you find a professor who was admired more by her graduates. They are almost unanimous in their respect, admiration and praise for the guidance she gave them in the journalism field.

A glance at the story on the front page reveals her vast experience in the field. Newspapers, book publishing, magazines, feature articles, commercial art . . . she knows them all thoroughly.

Most any Westminster journalism graduate in the past decade can boast that he has been prepared to compete with the graduates of any university or school of journalism in the country.

The present journalism students, however, fear for the future of the department. At present it is left without a full-time professor of journalism.

We want the department to continue strong . . . for the selfish reason that we enrolled as journalism majors knowing we would get a good education in that field, and also because we think it is a tremendous boon to the college's publications to have journalism students directing them.

But the department doesn't have to die. If the college hires a capable and competent full-time journalism professor to lead it we can continue to have the best course of its kind in the district.

For the sake of the present students and the ones planning to attend Westminster, we hope no time is lost in hiring a good replacement for Miss Elizabeth Nixon.

D. E. and M. V.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library, Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday, January 6, 1956 No. 12

EDITOR ..... Dean English
NEWS EDITOR ..... Ann Gamble
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
SPORTS EDITOR ..... James Falk
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Ann Price
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Suzanne Essinger
COPY EDITOR ..... Marcia Vandermast
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Stanley Caldarelli
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... Andrew McKelvey
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Judith Gray, Carole Hawthorne, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Barbara Judson, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Diane Oursler, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Carolyn Fisher, Sue Starn and Louise Yeaney.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Oh, I wouldn't worry too much about passing, miss . . . as long as I'm grading on the curve."

Signs of the Times . . .

Then and Now

By Scottie Price

History is a fascinating subject, especially if it is a study of some place or event with which you are acquainted. An interesting afternoon can be spent looking through the old catalogs of Westminster college and comparing them with the recent editions. If you think you have it rough, you should see what the poor students around the turn of the century had to suffer.

In the 1870 catalog, special attention is given to the "hangouts" of students, and taverns and groceries are condemned as "idle places of amusement and vice." (Those ads for Brown's market will just have to go!)

Up until the 1920's, women were required to bring bedspreads, towels, blankets, and napkin rings. Whoever invented the paper napkin certainly saved Westminster coeds from some extra baggage.

The 1919 catalogue states that "it is not the purpose of the faculty or administration to embarrass the students with multiple rules of conduct . . . All regulations for study and social life are to be viewed as helps in securing harmony or intellectual, social, and spiritual activity." It then proceeds to list its general rules, which include: the prohibition of secret societies, for fraternities ruin the scholarship of their members; quotes from noted people, including Ralph Waldo Emerson, to prove that smoking is injurious ("The young man who enters Westminster with more or less tendency toward the use of tobacco has thus a fair chance for changing his habits and entering the life of freedom for which the college stands"); a description of card playing as "intellectual gum chewing" or just plain vice to be shunned on a campus which stands for the higher things in life; and a grudging consent to a very limited program of dancing.

Talk about freedom for women! Under the heading "dormitory regulations" in the 1919 catalog we find the following: social calling is permitted on Saturday evening between 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.; social strolling, within the village limits, is allowed on Mondays between 2:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.; the rising bell rings at 6:50 a.m. "when the young ladies are expected to begin preparations for the day;" each girl must reports for all meals or have a valid excuse; no "young lady" can visit a restaurant except by special permission; rooms must be ready for inspection between 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m.; general cleaning of rooms has to be done every Monday; women are not allowed to leave the dormitory in the evening except for choir,

(Continued on Page 4)

Nurse I'm Worse . . .

The Pill Parlor

By Mary Jean Whitfield, R.N., and Betty Kortze, R.N.

"Morning to you! what can we do for you?" This is the familiar greeting of Dr. Frank McClanahan as he enters the weather-beaten door of the infirmary.

Few people realize what a usual day in the infirmary is like. Upon entering the "pill parlor," the patient is met by a tall medium, or small sized nurse and quickly escorted into the treatment room that usually has the familiar antiseptic smell of a doctor's office. Here, many complaints are heard, including: headache, cold, sprained ankle, "virus," growling stomach, inability to sleep, pre-exam nerves, homesickness, lovesickness, and sore throats. The complaints are treated accordingly by one of the following: red pills, green pills, heat lamp, whirlpool, good night's sleep, throat swab, and the famous "infirmary cocktail."

Not included under "services rendered" is the lovelorn clinic operated by the infirmary staff. Several times advice and assistance in writing a letter home has been given to an unhappy athlete.

Students are not the only patients. Members of the faculty and their families are also treated. When an intermuscular medication is prescribed for a pafulty member, the "shot" is usually administered by the nurse who has the professor for a class.

Frequently it is necessary to admit a student to the infirmary, and at times this presents somewhat of a problem. During football season movies of a previous game are shown to the members of the squad; consequently, when the quarterback was hospitalized with the "virus," the movies were shown in the infirmary with standing room only. On another occasion a member of one of the choral groups was admitted, so that night practice was held in the infirmary.

In addition to being a hospital, the infirmary is also the nurses' home. Entertaining a date can be quite a problem with three nurses and only one living room. This means first come first served, and the late comer is entertained in the doctor's office or the "measles room." As the nurses talk over the day's happenings each evening, they realize that every day offers new challenges that can be found only on a college campus.

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Dean English

After one look at the society page you'll agree, if all the Christmas diamonds given to Westminster girls were laid end to end it would be a back breaking job.

* * *

Want to liven up next week's house party? This is going pretty low for an idea: Pledges of one University of Southern California fraternity tossed a sewer shin-dig in a huge underground storm drain after convincing city and county authorities that they wouldn't endanger their guests' lives. Twelve members of the group spent a week cleaning and decorating the tunnel and engineering students built a four-foot dam to protect the area from run-off waters during the course of the dance. A large crowd attended and had a good time. The supreme compliment came from one coed who said, "I've never seen a cleaner sewer in my life." And she probably hadn't.

* * *

Pardon, But More Than Your Slip Is Showing: The New Castle News, in reporting the Poetry Reading festival winners giving their program to the Women's Club . . . "Robert Veon read Carl Sandburg's 'To A Contemporary Duck Shooter'."

* * *

Some days you can't make a nickel. A student at one of the large western universities, disturbed over his previous semester's grades, decided to take basket weaving for a snap course ,but two Navajos enrolled and completely disrupted the curve.

* * *

Things change very slowly around these parts. In regard to social life on the campus the 1918 catalog said, "The association of the sexes is guarded by such rules as will commend themselves to the wisest of parents." Brought up to date, the book three years ago had little change. "The association of men and women students is guarded by rules that will commend themselves to the wisest parents," it reads.

* * *

Followers of Titan football will be saddened to learn of the death of Tom Stewart who was killed in an automobile accident early in December. The big lineman from Beaver Falls worked his way into a starting position toward the end of the 1954 season, his freshman year. He dropped out of school at semesters last year.

* * *

A prosperous looking man driving a baby-blue Cadillac eased his car to a halt at a stop sign. A wise college guy, driving another of the leading grands, rattled up alongside and yelled out the window, "Hi, stupid, what quiz question did you miss?"

* * *

And in closing, this word for the day—If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs, chances are you just don't understand the situation.

Westminster male, describing girl he met over the holidays:

She This
Was Like
The At
Kind Look
Of You
Girl

News Headlines . . .

'No Tax Cut' . . . Ike

Fact Finding Board Urged to End Westinghouse Strike . . . Federal group attempts to end the 82 day strike as violence continues along strike front.

President Rules Out Tax Cut Now . . . Annual State of the Union message to Congress is read by clerk.

Pennsylvania House Gets 2% Income Tax Bill . . . House Democrats sponsored the measure to raise $210 million in the next 16 months.

Can't Beat Draft, Military Advises Nation's Teen-Agers . . . Odds show 7 of 9 qualified youths will serve their hitch before reaching 26.

President to Ask Surplus Crop Cut . . . Plan is expected to be sent to Congress Monday.

Virginia Aroused Over School Plan . . . State prepares for a constitutional referendum permitting the use of state fees for private schools to prevent integration.

Tokyo Rose to Be Freed From Penitentiary . . . American born women who attempted to weaken GI's via radio in World War II is near freedom.

No Hint Given of President's Plans for 1956 . . . In the nearly 8000 words of his State of the Union message, Mr. Eisenhower didn't mention his intentions, his illness, or even that this is an election year.

Pitt Puts Pressure On Titans Sat.

Locals Get Chance To Redeem Previous Loss

Although the odds-makers will probably give the nod to Pitt, Westminster's Titans are hoping to disappoint them and even up the series in their second meeting of the year with the Panthers tomorrow night at Westminster's field house. The game will start at 8:15 and the pre-lim will pit the baby Titans against the Panther cubs.

Pitt already holds a convincing 74-52 victory over the locals when the two teams clashed in the opening round of the Steel Bowl tournament. However Westminster seemed far from their usual self in that game, and tomorrow night will tell the tale whether Pitt was that much better, or whether the Titans really had a bad game.

In recent years, the Pitt-Westminster games have given spectators something to shout about. Last season the game went into overtime at Pittsburgh with the Titans finally edging out a 73-71 victory. The second time they met the Titans barely managed to down the Panthers 94-92 in the last few seconds of the game. The ball was rolling around the Panthers' rim as the buzzer blew. However, it fell the wrong way and the game ended in victory for the Titans.

Can Tie Series

The series began in 1922 with 36 games being played. The Titans lead the series 19-17, which means the Panthers can tie it up. The teams will meet once again in February at Pittsburgh.

Other games next week will see the Titans once again taking to the road, traveling to Berea, Ohio on Monday to battle with Baldwin-Wallace and on Wednesday at Youngstown to meet Youngstown college.

The Baldwin-Wallace series is new with only three games played to date. Westminster holds two wins of the trio. Last season the two schools won one game each.

Westminster managed to trounce Youngstown three times last season, but it may be a different picture this year. Youngstown has improved greatly, adding more heighth to their starting quintet.

Westminster holds a lop-sided edge of 23 wins against one loss in the 24 games played to date. Next Saturday the Titans will return home to meet St. Francis—minus Mighty Maurice Stokes.

Titan Swimmers Begin Tomorrow

Illness hampers the Westminster swimming squad as they prepare to open the 1956 season against Allegheny college at 2:30 Saturday afternoon in the Old 77 pool.

Despite his illness captain Fred Wagner is expected to be a standont point-getter tomorrow against the 'Gators. Sophomore Ken Wessel, however, will definitely not see action.

Three outstanding swimmers will be representing the Meadville school. Allan White, all district medal winner in the 440 and 220, Britt Paulson and Cox, one of the best breast strokers in the country, are expected to give the Titans plenty of trouble.

Westminster has not won a swim meet from Allegheny since 1953.

Swimming for the Blue and White, in addition to Wagner, will be Rick Aurant, Ron Booser, Bob Buckingham, Jim Corbett, Bub Grip, Jerry Long, Dell Johnson and Bob Stewart.

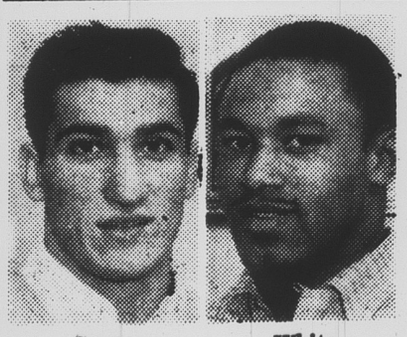

A diving exhibtion by Lee Africa, Mike Tomko and Gary Weidner is also scheduled.

White-Cortese 56 Co-Captains

Titan lettermen voted Vince Cortese and Bill White as co-captains for the 1956 Westminster football squad. Both men will be seniors.

Cortese, a junior journalism major from Sewickley has held the left end post down since coming to Westminster. Not only has he done that, but has managed to lead the ends in scoring for the three years he has been here. He is also one of the leading pass receivers of the squad.

Cortese, 6'1", 190 pounds played high school ball at Sewickley where he lettered three years and captained his squad in his senior year. He also lettered three years in basketball, and was named captain in his senior year.

Cortese White

As a climax, he lettered at baseball while in high school. He has also lettered at baseball at Westminster for the last two seasons. Cortese plays intramural basketball for Block "W", aiding them considerably last year as they took the Class A championship.

Bill "Whizzer" White, like Cortese has held his position down since he arrived at Westminster. He has played halfback-fullback since he has been here. White is well known for his prowress both offensively and defensively throughout the district.

White has led the Titan squad in yards gained rushing for the last three years. This season he was also the state's highest scorer and was placed on the all-state squad. White has also lettered in track for the last three seasons.

His high school days were spent at Blairsville, where he also lettered three years at football and was elected captain in his senior year. He played in the all-star game at Pittsburgh in 1952.

Westminster Finds Holiday Tourneys Too Tough; Loses All Tourney Games

Titans On Bottom Of Steel Bowl Heap; Bow Out Fast At Buffalo; Tops Tech In-Between

Apparently the holiday season wasn't enough, or was it too much for the Towering Titans as they came out on the very short end of their five game holiday schedule. They won only one of the five games played, and that was against Carnegie Tech in the Skibo's field house, between tournaments.

Westminster started the tough holiday grind by losing decisively to Pitt 74-52 in the opening game of the Pittsburgh Steel Bowl held at Pitt's field house. Without exaggeration, The Towering Titans played their worst game in recent years in the loss.

It was felt by sources that had they played even a mediocre game, the Titans could have been in the final with Duquesne. However that bit of speculation will be proven right or wrong tomorrow night at Westminster's field house when they meet the Pitt Panthers again. Jim Riley was Westminster's leading scorer with 18 points while Riser of Pitt led the field with 24 points.

Titans Improve

The next evening Westminster looked more like the basketball team they are capable of being when they were edged out 60-57 by Geneva in the last minute of play. The night before, Duquesne barely managed to tip Geneva by one basket.

George Strehler tied Geneva's Yukica for scoring honors with 18 points, while a total of six other men from the starting lineups scored 10 points or more.

The following Wednesday, the Titans had to fight from a nine point deficit to up-end the hustling Carnegie Tech Tartans 75-70. The Tartans jumped to a fast 12-2 lead and it looked as though the Titans were in for another trouncing, but George Strehler along with Harold Davis managed to perk the Titans up at the beginning of the second half and they came from nine points behind to lead the Tartans by 14.

The contest also displayed an abundance of blocking and tackling seldom seen even on a football field. Thirty-five fouls were called in the game with many more being overlooked. Davis and Stillson, both of the Titans, threw a few blocks which made the fans sit up and shudder and the Tartan players a little leery when they were going up for a layup.

Streak Ends

The one game win streak was quickly snuffed when Georgia Tech dumped the Titans 65-56 in the inaufuarl of the Queen's City Tournament in Buffalo. The game was very close up to the last four mintes when Georgia Tech took the lead to stay. Tech also went to the final only to be defeated by Xavier of Ohio.

In their final appearance in the tournament, the Titans bowed to Lafayette 72-63. Again, the game wasn't really decided until the last few minutes of play with Lafayette taking the lead and the Titans unable to catch them.

Doran and Davis tied for Titan scoring honors with 12 points each. The holiday wins and losses give the Titans a .500 average up to the Juniata game with four wins against four losses.

Burry Calls For Track Candidates

An important organization meeting has been called for all track lettermen and others interested in the sport for Monday, Jan. 9 at 7 p.m. in Old 77, announces Coach Harold Burry.

Plans for the coming spring season and the election of captain will take place. Last year's squad was undefeated in dual meets and won Tri-State honors at Allegheny.

Uncle Wanted Them

The 1942 basketball team won twelve out of nineteen games with several of the players leaving for the armed service during the season.

Titans Smash Lowly Juniata

Westminster's Towering Titans bounced back into the win column Wednesday night by downing hapless and hopeless Juniata college 76-54 before a small, quiet crowd of approximately 1000 spectators.

However, the crowd had very little to cheer about as the victory seemed inevitable after the first five minutes of play with the Titans moving ahead by nine points. The win put the Titans in the blue, but the victory proved absolutely nothing. Juniata, outclassed from the beginning, proved very little competition for the fast breaking Titans who took an early lead on Tony Stillson's jump shot. Juniata's Haneyelek dropped in a set shot and that was the only time in the game that the score was tied.

Early Lead

Stillson dropped in two more points from the edge of the keyhole and the Titans stayed comfortably ahead for the remainder of the game. From the beginning of the fracus, both squads looked highly unorganized, especially Juniata, and by the last five minutes, the ball was flying everywhere but on the basketball court.

The Titans, holding a comfortable 25 point lead in the last quarter couldn't seem to settle down to handling the ball and as soon as a Titan picked the ball up, it was flying wildly through the air and usually intercepted. Juniata did likewise, but they had good reason for trying to get the ball down court as fast as possible.

However, the many Titan errors were insignificant with such a vast point difference, but it could, and has proved costly in closer games.

George Strehler aided the Titans considerably by virtually controlling the Juniata bankboard, while Riley led the local scorers with a total of 17 points. Stillson followed him with 14, but Haneyelek of Juniata led both teams in scoring with 25 markers.

Earn Your Master's Degree

Plan Now for an Executive Career in Retailing

A one-year executive development program open to all A.B. and B.S. degree graduates with good undergraduate records. Curriculum includes executive direction in outstanding department stores in six major East and Midwest cities (with pay, minimum $450). You earn your Master's Degree at the same time. Co-ed. Scholarships. G.I. approved. Graduates are selectively placed before graduation. Next class begins Sept. 4, 1956. Apply now. Write for BULLETIN "C."

SCHOOL OF RETAILING
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH
Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

- Over Door Hangers
- Student Lamps
- Bed Lamps
- Electric Light Bulbs
  Daylight
  3-Way
  Flourescent
- Repair cord and ends
- Drinking glasses
- Coffee cups
- Plastic Juice Jugs

At Walker's Hdwre.

Across from the Bank

When in need of a tasty *SNACK

Stop at

THE GRILLE

We Specialize in Pizza

Taste Treats That Can't Be *Beat

WILMINGTON BAKERY

For A Variety of the Best in Foods For ALL Occasions

Shop at

Brown's Food Market

New... a comfortable collar you cannot outgrow

The new Arrow Lido shirt has no top button at the collar; your necktie alone closes the collar neatly. And even if your neck size grows, the "expandable" collar stays comfortable. Get yours today—wear it with a tie tonight—open at the neck tomorrow. Priced from $5.00.

ARROW
–first in fashion

SHIRTS • TIES • HANDKERCHIEFS • UNDERWEAR

SOCIAL WHIRL

New Year Reveals Many Engagements; Pitt Game Holds Weekend Interest

By Suzanne Essinger

Many things happened over the holidays: The New Year reveals many engagements pinnings and marriages, and also many students who have resolved to study and not to cut any more classes this semester.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Carol Fairlamb has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of Matt Cresse.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . Judy Spratt of Youngstown, Ohio has accepted the pin of Jack Sittig . . . John Kress has been elected Alumni secretary . . . The Christmas formal was held on December 16 at Squaw Creek Country club . . . Pledge officers include: president, Ed Sprague; vice president, John Whitney; secretary, Dale Miller; treasurer, Donald Scott and chaplain, Robert Kimpel.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . New officers are: president, Patricia Hayman; vice president, Marcia Vandermast; recording secretary, Charlotte Beltz and registrar, Jeanette Traendly . . . Ann McDowell is chairman of the chapel program . . . Harriett Wright was chairman of the party given at Overlook . . . New pledges are Nancy Griffen, Dorothy Kramer, Jeannette Mitchell and Nancy Tulenko . . . Aliceanne Rae has accepted the "A" pin of Kenneth Phillips of the United States Military Academy at West Point.

SIGMA NU . . . Charles Bartells is in charge of the house party to be held on January 13 . . . The chapter will hold a memorial service this Sunday.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Donna Werndli has accepted the pin of Richard Rausch . . . New pledge officers include: president, David Rankin; vice president, Hugh Ferguson and secretary, Robert Thompson . . . Kenneth Hofrichter and Ronald Rothermund visited the chapter at Tulane university last weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . . Miss Marjorie Schwegler, province president, will visit the chapter this weekend . . . Joan Thompson has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Howard Sleppy . . . Carol Dietz has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of William Moss . . . Wende Westinghouse has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of William Porter.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Virginia McMahon was crowned Sweetheart queen at the Christmas formal . . . Newly elected officers of the pledge class are Jack Mansfield, president; Jerrold Paul, vice president and Harry Humes, secretary-treasurer . . . Gwenn Hoffius and Andrew McKelvey were married in Passaic, N. J. on December 23 . . . Yvonne Picchiarini of Belle Veron has accepted the pin of Thomas Parks.

Engagements

McMAHON-HOPPER

Mr. and Mrs. John McMahon of Oakmont announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to Donald Hopper, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hopper of Bridgeville. Virginia is a sophomore secretarial student, and a member of Sigma Kappa sorority.

Hopper is a senior business administration major and a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

GAMBLE-COLLEDGE

The Rev. and Mrs. William B. Gamble of Pullman, Wash. announce the engagement of their daughter Ann, to Allen Colledge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Colledge of Library. Ann is a junior journalism major, and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is a social member of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Colledge is a senior physics major and a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

SNYDER-SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Snyder of Grove City announce the engagement of their daughter Catherine, to Wayne E. Smith of Wilkensburg. Catherine is a junior biology major and a member of Theta Upsilon sorority.

Smith, a senior at Grove City college, is a chemistry major. He is a member of Omicron Xi fraternity.

KEMP-STITT

Mr. and Mrs. David Kemp of Buffalo, N. Y. announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Gerald N. Stitt. Patricia is a sophomore elementary education major and a member of Beta Sigma Omicron sorority.

Stitt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Stitt of Buffalo, N. Y., and is employed by the F. N. Burt company.

NEFF-PILLO

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Neff of Chester, W. Va. make known the engagement of their daughter, Judy, to Richard A. Pillo, also of Chester, W. Va. Judy is a sophomore elementary education major and a pledge of Theta Upsilon sorority.

Pillo is a sophomore at Geneva college, and is majoring in industrial engineering.

NAGLE-ROBEDEE

Marion Nagle's engagement to James A. Robedee of Huntington, Long Island, N. Y., is made known by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. King, also of Huntington. Marion is a sophomore English major and a member of Sigma Kappa sorority.

Robedee, after serving with the U. S. Army is with Sports and Touring Inc. in Huntington. A summer wedding is planned by the couple.

SHOAF-VIERTHALER

Doris Shoaf's engagement to Richard J. Vierthaler, Jr., is made known by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Shoaf of Glassport. Doris is a senior elementary education major and a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Vierthaler, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Vierthaler, is a junior business administration major, and a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

AMENT-KERCHNER

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ament of Alliance, Ohio announce the engagement of their daughter Rita Ann to Rodney N. Kerchner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kerchner of Warren.

Rita is a senior elementary education major and a member of Theta Upsilon sorority.

Kerchner was a member of the 1955 class, leaving school in his junior year to join the Marine corps. A member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, he is now stationed at the Marine Air Station in Miami, Fla.

DOMIN-SCHILDKAMP

Shirley Domin's engagement to Donald Schildkamp is made known by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Domin of Monroeville. Shirley is a senior English major, and is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

MRS. STEVENS
CANDY
2 lb. metal boxes
$2.50
Fred Williamson's

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Thurs.—Fri.—Sat.
PEARL OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC
Virginia Mayo Dennis Morgan
David Farrar

Mon.—Tue.—Wed.
THE MARAUDERS
Dan Duryea Jeff Richards

Campus Calendar

Friday, Jan. 6
7-12 Beta Sig dinner party
8:30 Junior class record dance
Chapel, Sigma Kappa
Saturday, Jan. 7
Swim meet, Allegheny, here
Basketball, Pitt, here
10-11:30 Student Council record, Old 77
Sunday, Jan. 8
Vespers, Dr. Wallace Jamison
Monday, Jan. 9
Basketball, Baldwin-Wallace, away
8 Kappa Mu Epsilon meeting
Chapel, Dr.J. Lowrie Anderson
Tuesday, Jan. 10
8:15 Faculty Research club
Recital, Margaret Ihnat, Alberta Shafer
Chapel, Mr. Claude Eckman, "How to Review for Exams"
Wednesday, Jan. 11
Basketball, Youngstown, away
8:15 Kappa Delta Pi
YWCA
Chapel, Ferguson Hall
Thursday, Jan. 12
Scroll meeting
8:15 Russell Curry, "It's A Date"
Chapel, Mr. Kearney
Friday, Jan. 13
3:30-5 Sorority pledge tea, Ferguson hall
8:30 Fraternity house parties
Senate midnight movie
Chapel, Mr. Paul Brown

Donald, whose home is in Turtle Creek, is a student at the University of Pittsburgh and is employed by Westinghouse corporation.

BARULLINO-CALDARELLI

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barullino of Pittsburgh announce the engagement of their daughter Eileen to Stanley Caldarelli. Eileen is a senior at Penn High school.

Caldarelli, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caldarelli of Pittsburgh, is a junior business administration major. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

TAGGART-SCHUBERT

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Taggart of Emporium announce the engagement of their daughter Nancy Lee, to John Schubert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Schubert of Pittsburgh.

Nancy is a sophomore elementary education major and a member of Beta Sigma Omicron sorority.

Schubert is a sophomore history major at Tarkio college at Tarkio, Mo.

STEVENSON-STRYKER

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Stevenson of Cambridge, Mass. announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to Robert Lewis Stryker. Marilyn is a member of the freshman class and is a pledge to Quadrangle.

Stryker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil J. Stryker, also of Cambridge, Mass.

McCUNE-PIERCE

Mr. and Mrs. James McCune Jr. announce the engagement of their daughter Nancy, to Roger Allen Pierce. Nancy, who is from Penn Township, Pittsburgh, is a junior elementary education major and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Pierce, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Pierce also of Pittsburgh, is a senior architectural student at Carnegie Institute of Technology. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

HALEY-WARD

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Haley of Pittsburgh announce the engagement of their daughter Alice to James Robert Ward, son of Mrs. James W. Ward and the late Mr. Ward. Alice is a freshman secretarial major and a pledge to Theta Upsilon sorority.

Ward is a sophomore biology major at the University of Pittsburgh.

Make
One Stop For DRY CLEANING
and
LAUNDERING
LAUNDROMAT
Around the Corner
from the Show

Ihnat and Shafter Present Recitals

Margaret Ihnat, music major from Hamlin Station and Alberta Shaffer, from Avonmore, will present the first of the senior music major recitals this year on Tuesday, Jan. 10 at 8:15 p.m. in the chapel.

Margaret, a contralto, will be accompanied by Carol Gallwits, a senior music major from Irwin.

Alberta will play "Ombra Felice" by Mozart, "Fantasie in C Major" by Shubert, "Malaguena" by Albeniz, "Legende" by Albeniz, "Etude in D flat" by Liszt and "Rhapsody in E flat" by Brahms.

Numbers selected by Margaret are "Die Mainacht" by Brahms, "Gruppe Aus Dem Tartarus" by Schubert, "Maman, Dites Moe" by Weckerlin, and "Lullaby" by Moussorgsky.

The second part of her program includes "The Ash Grove" by Britten, "Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening" by Sargent, "Lonesome Grove" by Bacon, "Velvet People" by Bacon and "In the Woods" by MacDowell.

Ushers for the evening are Virginia Butler, Helen Tombor, Theodore Richardson and John Sittig.

KENNEDY-PIROSKO

Mrs. Mary C. Kennedy of Aliquippa announces the engagement of her daughter Mary to A/2C Joseph J. Pirosko Jr. Mary is a freshman English major.

Airman Pirosko is stationed at a Radar Bomb Plot in Pheonix, Arizona.

CHARLES-GILES

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Charles of Donora announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, to John William Giles III of Colwyn.

Sarah is a senior elementary education major and secretary of Kappa Delta sorority. Giles is a graduate of Westminster and was commander of Sigma Nu fraternity. He is now a junior at Princeton Theological seminary.

Publication Committee Names Douthett Editor

Jeanne Douthett, junior English major from Butler, has been named editor of Scrawl. The selection was made by the Student Publications committee and announced by Dr. George Bleasby, chairman.

Jeanne succeeds Marion McConnell and will edit both spring and fall editions of the literary magazine. She has previously served as staff member of the magazine and also worked on the Holcad.

Then And Now

(Continued from page 2)

YWCA, Mission Study, or Literary Society meetings (which is an improvement over the 1902 rule which permitted girls to be out only Tuesday and Wednesday evenings for the prayer meetings); lights had to be extinguished by 10:20 p.m.; and, believe me, the Sabbath was really a "Day of Rest."

Entrance requirements were rather rigid. Every candidate for admission was required to present a certificate of good character from some person known to the faculty, pass an entrance examination, pay his bills for one semester, and sign a pledge to obey college laws.

Many things may have changed since those days, but the propaganda technique is still the same. New Wilmington was described 35 years ago as a beautiful town, favored by a healthy climate, pure water (?), and natural gas. The village then had 2 whole miles of brick-paved roads, and there were through trains to Pittsburgh, New Castle, Oil City, and Buffalo. (Whatever happened to them anyway?) In addition, "the complete absence of demoralizing influences which characterize many of our larger cities makes New Wilmington a desirable location for college work" Hillside is pictured as a fine example of architecture, equipped with modern fixtures and decorated tastefully.

Yes, times change (thank goodness!). Fifty years from now, we can imagine a Westminster University coed strolling across campus in Bermudas at 2:30 a.m., cigarette in one hand and beer can in the other, commenting on how rough it must have been on the poor girls back in 1956! (Joke!)

50 million times a day
at home, at work or while at play

There's nothing like a Coke

1. You feel its LIVELINESS.
2. You taste its BRIGHT GOODNESS.
3. You experience PERFECT REFRESHMENT.

DRINK Coca-Cola

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

The Holcad

Vol. 76 No. 13 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, January 13, 1956

Appears In Concert

For three consecutive seasons Miss Lucile Cummings has been featured soloist at the Radio City Music hall. She will appear in the college chapel at 8:15 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 2 as part of the Artists Course, arranged by Mr. Donald Cameron, director of the music conservatory.

Lucile Cummings, Star Contralto, Appears In Artist Series February 2

Miss Lucile Cummings, contralto in concert, opera, radio and on the stage, will appear in the Artist Course at Westminster college Thursday, Feb. 2, in the college chapel at 8:15 p.m.

Miss Cummings has appeared recently in the leading role of Amneris in the New York City Center Opera company's production of "Aida" and for three consecutive seasons has been featured soloist at Radio City Music hall in the production of "United Nations," the "Nativity," and the "Glory of Easter Pageant."

In recent months she has appeared four times on the NBC Telephone Hour. Four years ago Miss Cummings sang the contralto solos in the "Verdi Requiem" as part of Westminster college's centennial celebration.

Student admission to the concert will be activity ticket number 1 from the new activity book.

Pi Sigma Pi Drive Reaches $318.50

Pi Sigma Pi's annual fund drive to buy books for McGill Library has reached $318.50, according to Carol Galbreath, chairman of this year's campaign.

All contributions are still being accepted and should be given to the chairman of the drive, Carol added.

Pi Sigma Pi wishes to thank the following campus groups which have contributed to the drive: Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Sigma Phi, Beta Sigma Omicron, Block W, Chi Omega, Cwens, Delta Phi Alpha, International Relations Club, Kappa Delta, Kappa Delta Pi, Kappa Mu Epsilon, Mortar Board, Phi Alpha Theta, Quadrangle, Sigma Kappa, Theta Upsilon, the Woman's Athletic Association and the Young Women's Christian Association.

ExpandedProgram Planned For WUS

An expanded week long program for the World University Service has been planned for next month by Student Council, Robert Veon, chairman, announced this week.

The program of "youth giving to youth" will be localized to our campus in a chapel program on February 8 with Student Council members and other students participating.

A national representative of WUS will speak in chapel February 13. A "penny walk" in the halls of Old Main with competition between classes is scheduled for the next day.

A program of lighting a candle for foreign students will continue from February 15 through 17. The taking in of money is scheduled for February 17.

Senate Midnight Movie Features "The Shrike"

This evening, Senate, the women's governing body, will sponsor their annual Midnight Movie held at the New Wilmington theatre.

Sarah Charles, social chairman of Senate, has made arrangements for the screening of The Shrike, starring June Allyson and Jose Ferrer.

Women attending the movie will have 2 a.m. permissions, Dean Martha Whitehill announced. Women should sign in at their dormitories at 11:30 p.m. and then sign out for the movie.

Policy Set On Outside Contests

A policy was set this week by the administration regarding student participation in any contest or performance not sponsored by Westminster college.

Beginning January 30, 1956, the following policy will apply: "Any student who takes part during the school year in any contest or performance unauthorized or not sponsored by the college will permanently forfeit the right to take part in any college performance, intercollegiate or intramural contest."

In addition the policy states, "The student (who does so) shall further lose any assistance granted (on any basis) by the college, retroactive to the beginning of the semester in which the violation occurs.

Psychology Prof Replaces Eckman

Mr. Chester A. Rininger, a graduate of Juniata college and the University of Pittsburgh, has been named as instructor in the department of education and psychology, announces Dr. Will W. Orr.

He will serve in place of Mr. Claude Eckman who has been granted a sabbatical for the second semester in order to do further work on his doctor's degree.

Mr. Rininger served for ten years as high school principal and supervising principal of schools in Bedford county. He also directed and taught at the Alfred university extension in Jamestown, N. Y. for two years and taught at Shorter college in Rome, Ga. He has also had teaching positions at Shippensburg and East Stroudsburg State Teachers colleges.

Lodie Asks Students To Claim Old Argos

All upperclass students who have not yet claimed their last year's Argo may do so next Wednesday afternoon, announces Milton Lodie, editor of this year's annual.

The books can be obtained in the Holcad office in the basement of the library from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Abey Photo Studios of Youngstown will take the remaining group and campus shots from 1 to 6 p.m. the same day Lodie adds. Persons are asked to watch the main bulletin board for the time of their group picture.

Student Publication Committee Names Jeannette Traendly Holcad Editor

Journalism Major Announces Jobs Open For All Editorial Staff Positions Next Term

Jeannette Traendly, junior journalism major from Larchmont, N. Y., has been named editor of the Holcad for the coming year by the Student Publications committee.

Dr. George Bleasby, chairman of the committee, made the announcement Wednesday.

Jeannette, a member of Sigma Kappa sorority, has served during the last semester as managing editor of the Holcad and previously worked as reporter and feature writer for the paper.

Traendly

She also has worked as Scrawl circulation manager and has written for the magazine.

The new editor and the present staff will choose the editorial staff that will begin work with the issue of Feb. 10.

Applications Open

Applications for the positions of news editor, managing editor, sports editor, feature editor, copy editor, society editor and business manager are now being received by the new editor and Mr. Charles Cook, faculty advisor.

Any candidate may apply, regardless of class or major. Applications should include the position desired and the journalistic experience of the candidate.

The job of the news editor is to assign and issue news beats weekly to reporters and direct the gathering of all news. He also works with the managing editor in choosing pictures.

Managing editors are charged with directing the taking of pictures and making engravings, the writing of headlines, page makup and additional duties.

Heads Sports Page

The sports editor is responsible for the sports page and works with the managing editor in securing pictures for that section.

The feature editor is responsible for the feature page and may contribute a regular column. The copy editor is in charge of all copy reading and proof reading. The society editor edits and writes the column to which all sorority, fraternity and independent groups may contribute. The securing of advertising is taken care of by the business manager.

McGill Presents Speech Recital

On Monday, Jan. 16, Elizabeth McGill will present her junior speech recital at 8:15 in the Little Theatre. The entertainment of the evening will include a short oral interpretation program by Elizabeth and a one-act comedy also under her direction.

Included in the cast of the play, "The Revolt of Mother," are Kay Ames, Betty Oursler, Janice Zima, Robert Clark, Dale Westerman and George Killa. The job of stage manager is being handled by Alan Ellis, while Joyce Guy is in charge of properties and also book holder.

No admission will be charged for this evening of drama. Everyone is invited to attend.

Do Angels Have Halos? . . .

Group Needs Religion Teachers

By Jill Clarkson

The following is a minutely detailed transcription of a dialogue between a student religious education teacher and a sixth-grade pupil at a neighboring school:

Teacher: Are there any further inquiries from the class at large regarding the infallibility of the Word of God, the nature of the Trinity, or the organization of the early church, which I have previously briefly summarized for you?

Student: Do angels really have halos?

Teacher: Although your question is not pertinent to our basic thought for study this afternoon and is completely irrelevant to the preceding text material, your question portrays a remarkable inquisitiveness into the realms of the afterlife, and would require delving into the subject from a superficial perspective, of which I am not wholly qualified nor capable of presenting to you at this time.

Student: Oh.

There were no further questions and the class was dismissed.

The quality of the aforesaid is unmatched in most of Westminster's religious education teachers. The college provides student teachers for the rural schools only on the fourth, fifth and sixth grade levels simply because few have attained such perfection as to be able to answer the difficult questions of a seventh or eighth grade pupil.

There are thirteen students who give one afternoon a week to learning from elementary school pupils. The program is sponsored by the Christian Service group, which is a Westminster college activity. Twice thirteen are needed, and the qualifications are easily matched. A person need only to have acquired an iron hand, no need for sleep and somewhat of an attraction for little ones.

The change of class schedules next semester and the ever present need for good substitutes means volunteers will be needed for next term. Why not see directors Eleanor Nye or David Hare for further details?

"Noah" Try-Outs Begin Tuesday

"Noah," by the French playwright Andre Obey, has been chosen for the next Little Theatre major production, director Mr. Donald L. Barbe announced. Anyone interested is invited to attend the preliminary try-outs which will be Tuesday, Jan. 17, and Wednesday, Jan. 18 in the Little Theatre.

Needed for the play are five men and four women for speaking parts, plus five women and three men to portray the unique roles of animals. Final try-outs will be Monday, Jan. 30, and Tuesday, Jan. 31. Those who make final try-outs will be notified.

For unusual entertainment, "Noah" will undoubtedly take first place, because it is a colorful presentation of the Old Testament story with a contemporary approach. It is a fresh and humorous allegorical comment on modern life—a fantasy based on the Bible story of the "Great Deluge." Play books are on reserve in the library for anyone wishing to read the play before try-outs begin. "Noah" is scheduled to be presented on March 12, 14, 15, 16 and 17.

Outstanding Visitor

A story made the rounds this week about a senior in the college who used his activity book for the first time in four years! We hope his is a rare example.

The plays, concerts, athletic events and other opportunities offered each year are an important supplement to the formal education we pay for.

An Artist Series performance scheduled for February 2 in the chapel is particularly worthwhile. Miss Lucile Cummings, outstanding contralto and star of opera, radio and television, will appear in concert that night.

Your activity book is the only admission charge. Don't miss it.

Our Final Word

They call these final words the "swan song." The last chance for the editor and his staff to spout off. The last chance to tell what they like, and what they don't like.

It's also a time to look back and see what, if any, accomplishments have been made during a year of expressing opinions each week.

Over the year we've tossed out our comments on over 40 topics. We feel some hit on very important issues like our thoughts on criticism and fraternity discrimination. We hope we caused some thoughtful examination of important issues.

Some have dealt with trivialities like our comments on dancing in the TUB or obtaining washing machines for the dorms. They have their place, too.

Holcad editorials have praised and criticized blood drives and books, jazz concerts and journalism departments, Mortar Board and migration day.

(If we had had more space perhaps we would have taken a violent stand for warm spring days, cancelled classes, cute coeds and midnight movies. The next time around we'd criticize rainy weather, boring professors, Monday mornings and early permissions, too!)

We've made mistakes both in fact and opinion during the year. But we're proud and thankful that we enjoyed the freedom of saying what we wanted in the manner we felt it should be said.

Always we wrote what we felt to be factual and fair. We wrote what we sincerely believed.

The help, advice and criticism we got was always appreciated. Our specific thanks are printed in another column on this page; many others go unspoken.

To the new editor and her staff we wish the best of luck. We think she'll find the job one that is full of hard work and headaches, but also with the opportunity to do a service for the school, to work with wonderful people and gain a lot of personal satisfaction and experience.

Working on the Holcad has been a great opportunity. We are most appreciative.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library. Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday, January 13, 1956 No. 13

EDITOR ..... Dean English
NEWS EDITOR ..... Ann Gamble
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
SPORTS EDITOR ..... James Falk
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Ann Price
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Suzanne Essinger
COPY EDITOR ..... Marcia Vandermast
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Stanley Caldarelli
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... Andrew McKelvey
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Judith Gray, Carole Hawthorne, Lois Helsey, Marcia Hicks, Barbara Judson, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Diane Oursler, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Catherine Townsend, Jaeque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Carolyn Fisher, Sue Starn and Louise Yeaney.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"On the other hand it's good to have a student like Worthal in class . . . it completes the other end of the curve!"

Things That Disillusion Me . . .

Coonskins And Finals

By Scottie Price

Almost every one of us has had some experience with disillusionment and discouragement. Remember the day that you discovered that there is no Easter Bunny and that the chubby old man with white whiskers and a red suit who visited you on Christmas Eve was really your father in disguise!

It is a terrible disappointment to find that your idols have clay feet. Take, for example, the case of Davy Crockett, legendary hero of the Western frontier. In reality, Davy was a bum! He ran away from home to avoid a whipping from his father, owner of a local saloon; and, after getting into a various assortment of trouble, he headed for the woods. He always returned there when the possibility of a steady job loomed on the horizon. He deserted his wife and children and hired a substitute to fight for him in the Civil War.

I hate to burn my coonskin hat, so I'm going to continue wearing it in honor of Daniel Boone, who I hope, was really a great Indian fighter.

Leaving the realm of pioneering on the early American frontier, we are constantly confronted by the frustrations and disillusionments of common everyday life. I had been under the impression that everyone is happy these days, but I guess I was wrong. Just look at the current record hits, for example, and see what is popular—"Sixteen Tons," "Chain Gang," "Ninety-nine Years in the Penitentary," "The Great Pretender" and "Cry Me a River," to mention a few. Talk about being morbid!

Glancing at the exam schedule, you are probably even more disillusioned if your finals are slated for the same time as mine. I didn't think it was possible that all the tests could come one right after the other, two or three a day, three days in a row. I keep telling myself that my average was too high anyway, but this argument is not especially convincing. One way to dodge this predicament would be to take only one course a semester. Of course, it would mean attending college for approximately twenty-five years, but think of the experience you could get.

This is supposed to be a sad article, and the main reason for this is that it is the last I will write as feature editor of the Holcad. As the final issue goes to print, I think of all the ideas I might have used and wonder why my mind was a blank so often. Anyway, thanks for putting up with me during the past year and may the next feature editor enjoy his job as much as I did. 'Bye!

Garden Of Eden? . . .

The Serpent Strikes

By John Specht

We are all aware that the nearest thing to heaven on earth is Westminster college. We might even go so far as to say that this seat of learning is comparable to the Garden of Eden itself. But every Eden has its serpent, and this one is no exception. The serpent comes twice a year in the form of the most exquisitely agonizing torture yet devised by man: final exams.

The learned professors who devise these things may be likened to the Spanish Inquisition, with the heads of the departments as the Lord High Inquisitors, and their henchmen as Under-Inquisitors.

Two Angels

The question can be viewed from two angles: that of the instructor and that of the student. Let's take the instructor first.

I can see him now, as he composes the test. He sits behind a huge glass-topped desk heaped with tomes of medieval lore. His eyes gleam with an unearthly and diabolic light, as he contemplates the fate of his poor helpless students. The end of his long tail twitches as he thinks of the joy of sharpening all his red pencils. The only illumination is a blood-red light which flickers upon the walls.

Then there's the student.

To begin with, the student is in no shape to take a test. He has been up until three o'clock the night before, indulging in the time-honored activity of cramming. In the morning he sees the book twisting and turning before his eyes, along with all the other spots.

Gets Door Open

He just barely manages to get the door open (it's a good thing the tests aren't held in McGill Library), and collapses in his seat in the dungeon (classroom).

Then, enter His Satanic Majesty, with piles of paper (white for most teachers, colored for Dr Hopkins, to match his clothes). The papers are passed out and the student runs his eye down the list of questions. And then he comes to a sickening realization: he's in the wrong dungeon! He's never had this course!

(Continued on Page 4)

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Dean English

With the end comes a time to review. It holds true in classes and writing columns, too. "All in the Family" is no exception. A check of the files shows that all this nonsense started back on December 3, 1954. Since then we've gone through three columnists, 30 issues, 227 tidbits and over 16,800 words in this space. And that's a lot of . . . ah . . . words.

* * *

Looking back over the year several things stand out in the mind of someone looking for small items of interest around the campus. Maybe some will interest you. Here, then, is our selection of the outstanding "ests" of the year:

Biggest disappointment in sports. The failure of the Titans to play Carnegie Tech at Forbes Field last fall. (Honorable mention: The current flop of the basketball team.)

Worst joke heard: Why did the cow want a divorce? Because she got a bum steer.

Biggest editorial disappointment: The prevailing ostrich attitude toward fraternity discrimination.

Best secular chapel: Mr. Morgan Barnes.

Best non- secular chapel: Rev Robert Meneilly, anytime.

Nicest discovery of the year for many upperclassmen: The large number of good looking freshmen girls.

Already known fact best clearly demonstrated again and again: A lot of Westminster guys don't like girls!

Least response to an editorial: The one in praise of Student Council. (Not one student even mentioned it.)

Biggest new idea: Student Council migration days.

Biggest event coming up: The Mock Convention in March.

* * *

It takes a lot of work, people and cooperation to put out a newspaper, especially when many of the people are trying to attend a few classes a week, too. Many thanks are due these folks.

* * *

Many thanks—

To a fine staff that spent many Wednesdays and Thursdays getting out the rag with no more reward than the personal satisfaction of accomplishment.

To Mr. Charles H. Cook, who was a wonderful help as advisor, but always realized we like to run our own paper.

To Mr. Vic Wanty of the News Bureau for invaluable pictures, contacts and story tips supplied generously each week.

To Don Patchel, our long-suffering photographer who remained The Patient One while giving us good pictures and meeting some outrageous demands.

To the reporters who covered a regular beat each week and got only a mention in eyestraining type in the masthead.

To the news tippers who supplied us with story leads . . . and they include the administration, faculty, students and friends.

To Mr. Harold E. Burns and the gang at the Globe who put the paper together for us. (They have long since gotten their rewards in laughs at some of the stupid things would-be journalists do!)

To the advertisers who make the financial burden a little easier and also give us less space to fill.

But most of all, to the kids who come up to us every Friday with the five magic words, "Where the heck's the Holcad?"

News Headlines . . .

School Aid Asked

Ike Asks $1¼ Billion School Aid . . . Funds would go only to districts making their own effort to speed up school construction in the next five years.

Consumer Tax Gains Ground In Pennsylvania Legislature . . . A 3% consumers' tax as a means of balancing Gov. Leader's $1.8 billion budget seems near, it was reported this week.

Ohio Supreme Court Agrees To Review Sam Sheppard Case . . . The same court refuses, however, to grant the 32 year old osteopath a new trial on grounds that new evidence has been discovered.

President "Runs" In Illinois, But Won't Tip Hand . . . Eisenhower neither assents nor dissents after his name is entered in the April 10 primary.

British Fly Troops To Cyprus in Mideast Crisis . . . Riots in Jordan bring this move for speedy strengthening of the mobile garrison.

Helicopter Hunts Three Protestant Missionaries . . . Air Force searches for the trio in Ecuador after fears mount that they were clain by Indians.

Clement Atlee Formally Bows Out of British Politics . . . Farewell comes as the Labor Party increases its attacks on Eden's government.

Record Cold Wave Hits Florida . . . The worst ice storm in recent years at the same time struck New York and the rest of the East coast.

Falk-Lore

By Jim Falk

Well here it is—the end—the last issue. The old go and the new come. Of course I'm referring to the switch of the Holcad staff, and along with that switch will come the new sports editor.

The last year has held much for Westminster — sportswise. Looking back on some of the headlines from the past year brings back more than enough moments which will long be remembered by many of the Titan athletes and students. Let's take a glance at some of the highlights.

"Green, Ricket Brothers Lead Victors As Dukes Nip Titans In Thriller." Who will, who could forget that game—a 55-53 hair raiser that had fans screaming until the final buzzer.

End Season

"Titans End Season; Sport 14-11 Record." It was a little close, but the Towering Titans ended their 18th winning basketball season in 19 years.

"Washabaugh Joins Hall Of Fame"—the highest honor which can be bestowed upon any coach and upon the school he coaches. A great honor for one of the winningest coaches in the states, and a great guy.

"Spring Game Ends In Scoreless Tie." Spring football ended with a bone crushing game which had everything but scores.

"Thinclads Snap Tartan's Win Streak." The Titans talent-loaded track squad whipped Carnegie Tech for their first loss in six seasons.

"Titans Capture Tri-State Track meet"—rated third, the Titans came in first.

Good Tennis Squad

"Titan Raqueteers End Great Season."—the best in years.

"Solid Defense Outstanding In 34-0 Win Over Grovers." The victory for the footballers broke a school record of eight straight wins.

"Titans End Second Undefeated Season"—All was quiet as the Titans ended a great undefeated football season.

There were many, many more great headlines—basketball, all the football games, baseball, the great tennis squad, the unbeatable track team, cross country, swimming, intramural clashes. I only wish I had enough room to run them all as a final reminder of a great Titan sports year gone by.

Now basketball season is in full steam and undoubtedly before this year ends there will be dozens of headlines and stories which will proclaim Titan power in district sports.

As for myself, it's been a real pleasure and lots of fun—and experience, bringing you what sports coverages we could. Of course, could. We did our best and hope we didn't please you all, but who you enjoyed it. So long from the 155 Holcad sports department.

TASTE TREATS
Like Mother
Makes WILMINGTON
BAKERY

For That Ideal Gift
it's
J. R. Meek, Jeweler
We also repair

SMART SHOPPERS . . .
Stop At
Brown's Food Market

Tankers Lose Opening Meet

Westminster's swimmers got the season off to a bad start last Saturday when they dropped the swimming meet against Allegheny college 53-22. However the loss can be chalked up to more than a few bad breaks which went against the Titans when Fred Wagner, captain of the squad and probably the most outstanding swimmer, was unable to swim in any of his specialties due to an attack of flu.

Ken Wessell, also a Titan swimmer was sidelined because of illness, and Tom McGrath another outstanding swimmer did not compete in the meet. With the loss of these three men, the Titans undoubtedly lost a number of first place votes.

The Titans failed to garner one first place in the meet, while two firsts went to White and Cox of Allegheny. The other first place votes were distributed among the remaining Gator swimmers. White's wins came in the 220 yard free style and 440 yard free style. He is an all-district medal winner in both departments. Cox's firsts were in the individual medley and 200 yard backstroke.

Westminster did manage to keep from getting totally blanked in the Titans were Bud Grip with a wins by copping the 400 yard free style relay. High point men for total of six points, followed by Bob Stewart with four points. Jerry Long followed them with three points. Long was the lead-off man in the winning relay team, while Fred Wagner was the anchor man in the only event won by the Titans.

The next meet for the Titans will be Saturday, Jan. 14, against Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh.

Youngstown Stops Titans, 80-77

At Youngstown on Wednesday night the Penquins, sparked by Bob Atterholt's 21 points and Herb Lake's 20, held off a second half rally by the Titans to squeek out their 80-77 victory.

Youngstown, a vastly improved quintet, quickly moved in front and by halftime led by 44-33. Rankin made 14 of Westminster's points, many of them in the closing minutes to keep the Titans from completely slipping out of the picture as the locals could not put on a sustained offense.

It was a different Titan squad that came out for the last half, however. Paced by Riley, Strehler and Stillson, they finally tied the game at 59-59 on Riley's drive-in field goal.

The Penquins quickly went ahead again and maintained a 69-63 advantage with six minutes left. Strehler then hooped two jump shots and Stillson a pair of free throws to knot the score.

Back came the Penquins to take the front spot again, and in the closing minutes Lake contributed four important foul shots and Paul Danilov a field goal to insure the triumph.

Essential in Westminster's second half comeback can be found in the scoring of the players as Titan leading point maker included Riley with 21; Rankin, 20; Stillson, 17 and Strehler, 14.

Tranter-Stillson, Titan Co-Captains

Tony Stillson and Ron Tranter, both senior business majors, are co-captains of this year's Titan basketball squad. Stillson is known for his ball hawking ability. Tranter, returning to the Titan squad after a two year sojurn in Uncle Sam's forces, is best known for his drive shots. Both men will see action tomorrow night against St. Francis at the Memorial Field house.

Westminster Falters In Final Minutes; Loses To Pitt And Baldwin-Wallace

Failure Under Constant Pressure Hurts Titans; Close Halftime Scores Turn To Near Routs

Misfortune continued to follow Westminster's basketball Titans as they dropped two more contests to college foes this past week; one to the University of Pittsburgh, 77-67, and the other to Baldwin-Wallace college, 94-82, to bring their record to 5-6.

Lack of rebound strength and the inability to play consistent ball for an entire game proved to be the downfall. Pitt's towering Panthers, led by Bob Lazor and John Riser, dominated the boards to help the Pittsburgh school in their triumph. Both tallied 21 points with several of Lazor's coming on tap-ins of missed shots and Riser contributing markers on drive-in baskets.

Strehler Rebounds

Westminster's Jim Riley made 20 points, 12 of them from the free throw line, while George Strehler contributed 16. Strehler did a workmanlike job in battling Pitt's tall men under the boards and Dick Jordon, while used only sparingly, made himself known.

Pitt started off the game as if they were going to have an easy contest as they held a 37-24 lead with five minutes to go in the first half. Then two field goals by Strehler, and one each by Harold Davis, Chuck Garrett, and Jordon closed the margin to a 39-38 Pittsburgh advantage at halftime.

But in the second half, the Panthers slowly pulled away after six minutes, and in the last few minutes employed a freeze with Titan players having to foul to gain possession of the ball.

Lose Again

At Berea, Ohio, on Monday night the Titans played good ball the first half in rolling up a 47-37 halftime advantage. Strehler and Dave Rankin, starting his first college game, bucketed 19 and 14 markers respectively, as the Westminster team looked like the Titans of old.

After the final half had begun, Baldwin-Wallace made a few mild spurts to draw within 5 points, but each time Tony Stillson or Rankin would tally vital points to pull the Titans out again. With 12 minutes remaining, Davis, who made only one field goal, but who had played a fine floor game and held down B. W.'s high scoring star, Len Roth, fouled out of the game.

Titans Fall Apart

Then with the scoreboard clock showing ten minutes to go and Westminster ahead by 67-58, the roof caved in. B. W. on a sensational drive scored 16 straight points to put the game out of reach. Three technical fouls called by the Ohio officials on which Wynn Hawkins, the Ohio team's high scorer for the night, made all three, and three quick fast breaks put B. W. ahead to stay.

Hawkins had 24 tallies to lead B. W., but Strehler paced all scorers with 27 markers. Rankin and the winner's Paul James were next with 22 points.

Compliments of
SHAFFER BROS.
Barber Shop

Girls' Basketball Tourney Begins

Sorority intramural basketball started this week with three games being played. The Actives played two games with the results as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Kappa Delta | 14 |
| Theta Upsilon | 12 |
| Sigma Kappa | 33 |
| Beta Sigma Omicron | 6 |

Pledges played only one game this week. The results of the game were:

| | |
|---|---|
| Beta Sigma Omicron | 21 |
| Alpha Gamma Delta | 19 |

PIZZA
Our Specialty
THE GRILLE
We Specialize in Pizza

Titans Host St. Francis

Locals Play W.&J. Here Tuesday Night

By Bill Morrell

Westminster will take on Saint Francis college in the field house tomorrow night. The Titans are winless in four straight games and will be trying to get a winning streak going for them while at the same time avenging the two defeats that they suffered at the hands of St. Francis last year. The Frankies will be playing without the services of their all American Maurice Stokes for the first time in four years.

Stokes at the present is playing professional basketball and was recently named the most valuable player in the National Basketball league. He will soon appear in the professional all star game.

The luck of St. Francis has been the same as that of Westminster so far this year. They have dropped six out of seven starts and aren't near the team they were last year when they finished second in the National Invitational tournament behind Duquesne. In the all time series play between the two schools, Westminster holds a slight edge in the win column.

Meet Prexies

The Titans will take the floor against Washington and Jefferson at Westminster's field house next Tuesday night. The Titans have had an easy time with the presidents in the past, winning 20 of the 33 games played between the two schools since 1921.

Last year the same Westminster team took two games from W&J, winning both by impressive margins. This could or could not be a clue as to how the game will turn out.

The usual five will probably start both games with the exception of Dave Rankin, a freshman from McKeesport, Pa., who recently broke into the starting lineup. With Rankin at the forward slot will be George Strehler. Riley will be at his usual center position, while Stillson and Davis will bring the ball up the floor.

Make
One Stop For
DRY CLEANING
and
LAUNDERING
LAUNDROMAT
Around the Corner
from the Show

VALENTINES
4 for 5¢
2 for 5¢
5¢ each
Fred Williamson's

Walker's Have It
—Plastic Garment Bags
—Wooden Suit Hangers
—Plastic Juice Containers
—Moth Crystals
—Soap Dishes
—Big Ben Clocks
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

SOCIAL WHIRL

House Parties Have Varied Themes; Senate Sponsors Midnight Movie

By Suzanne Essinger

Tonight Senate is sponsoring the midnight movie following the fraternity house parties. The 2 a.m. permission will give the girls a last "fling" before finals next week. Also scheduled for this weekend is the game with St. Francis tomorrow night.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . The theme for tonight's house party is "Friday the Thirteenth." It will be held at Russell hall . . . Election of officers will take place on Monday night.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Dorothy Spicker has accepted the Phi Kappa Tau pin of Robert Pierson . . . The pledges were honored at the annual dinner at the Mercer Moose last Friday . . . Constance Mohr has been appointed director of Sing and Swing for this year.

CHI OMEGA . . . Patricia Jenkins has accepted the Yale pin of William Liddle of Yale university . . . Alice Davis, ex-'56, and Robert Rylands of the University of Pittsburgh were married on January 7.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Alvira Whitley, ex-'58, and Ralph Straley were married on December 22 . . . Virginia Guthrie, ex-'57 was on campus last weekend.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . Tonight's houseparty will have a "Roman" theme.

Quadrangle . . . Elaine Jinks, '54 visited campus last weekend.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Nancy Griffin has been named pledge sports chairman . . . newly appointed officers are: Shirley Frazee, rush chairman; Nancy Zahn, social chairman; Joy Timmons, assistant social chairman; Mary Ann Kordich, assistant treasurer; philanthropy chairman, Aliceann Rea; historian and Triangle correspondent, Shirley McPherson; sports chairman, Sherry Franklin; house chairman Marynelle Dougherty and parliamentarian, Lorraine Wortman.

SIGMA NU . . . Alan Wheeler was elected president and William Pote was elected vice president of the pledge class . . . Charles Bartells is in charge of the father-son banquet to be held on February 2 . . . Dominick Mettica and Steve Prokopchak visited the chapter at Bethany last weekend.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Allen Kohl is in charge of tonight's house party. The theme will be popular records . . . The father-son banquet was held last Tuesday night . . . Harry Fisher, '55, James Holiday, ex-'57 and Walter Thompson, ex-'58 visited the chapter last weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . . The pledges are having a formal tea with the Alpha Gamma Delta pledge class on Friday afternoon . . . Marilyn Felton is co-chairman of the tea.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Lorraine Adams visited Alpha chapter at Syracuse university . . . Patricia Gunther visited Kappa chapter at Allegheny college . . . June Gunther, Nancy Petsinger and Ronda Vogan visited Sigma Phi chapter at Upsala college.

Navy Officers Interview Interested Seniors Soon

An information team from the local office of Naval Officer procurement will visit the campus on Friday, Feb. 10, 1956, to talk with senior men who may be interested in serving as commissioned officers in the Navy after graduation.

The Navy personnel will be located at the TUB from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In addition to its Officer Candidate (OCS) program which has been available since 1950, a new flight training program, the Aviation Officer Candidate (AOC) program, is available for qualified graduates. To allow men to report for active duty as soon as possible after graduation, seniors may apply for these two programs before their expected graduation date.

Any students who wish to discuss the various programs which the Navy has to offer have been invited to meet the information team.

Registration Dates Set For Second Semester

Registration for the second semester will take place Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 30 and 31.

Seniors will register from 9 to 10 a.m. on Monday. Juniors will register from 10 to 11:45 a.m. the same day.

Sophomores who have filed a major sheet in Miss Isebel Ramsey's office should register from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Others will register with the freshmen from 8:30 to 12 noon on Tuesday.

A late registration fee of $5.00 will be charged beginning Wednesday, Feb. 1. Second semester classes begin that day.

Mrs. Ray, Housemother, Resigns Due to Health

Mrs. Aimee C. Ray, residence director at Westminster for over six years, resigned this week due to illness, Mrs. Martha Whitehill, dean of women, announces.

Mrs. Ray was housemother at the Chi Omega house. She came to Westminster from the University of Pennsylvania where she held a similar position. Mrs. Frances Johnson of New Castle will replace her for the remainder of the current year.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Jan. 13
- 3:30 Sorority pledge tea, Ferguson hall
- Fraternity house parties
- Senate midnight movie

Saturday, Jan. 14
- Swimming meet, Carnegie Tech, away
- Basketball, St. Francis, home
- Block "W" record dance

Sunday, Jan. 15
- Vespers, Rev. Salvatore Migliore

Monday, Jan. 16
- 8:15 Junior speech recital, Elizabeth McGill
- Chapel, Dr. Herman DeHaas

Tuesday, Jan. 17
- Basketball, W&J, home
- Chapel, Mayor Edward DeCarbo, New Castle

Wednesday, Jan. 18
- 3:30 Mu Phi
- 5:00 W.A.A.
- 8:15 Pi Sigma Pi
- Phi Alpha Theta
- Swimming meet, W&J, away
- Chapel, Dr. Wallace Jamison

Thursday, Jan. 19
- 8:15 A.A.U.W.
- Chapel, Dean John Forry

Friday, Jan. 20
- Final examinations begin

Sunday, Jan. 22
- Vespers, Dr. Will Orr

Choir Adds Two Concerts To Tour

Two more concerts have been added to the 1956 tour of the concert choir, Mr. Clarence Martin, director, announced this week.

Thursday night, Jan. 26, the group will sing in New Castle at the First Baptist church and Friday afternoon, Jan. 27, at the Butler High school in Butler. The performance at Newville, Pa., has been cancelled.

Accompanying the choir members will be Mrs. Vernon Wanty, as chaperon, Mr. Arthur Birkby, organist and Mr. Donald Cameron, director of the tour.

The group leaves Friday morning, Jan. 27 and returns Tuesday morning, Jan. 31. Performances previously announced will be at Indiana, Pa.; Philadelphia; Wilmington, Del.; Arlington, Va. and Hagerstown, Md.

Kappa Delta Pi Elects Wilson President

Eleanor Wilson, junior elementary education major, was elected president of Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary, at their meeting this week.

Others elected were Alice Johnson, vice-president; Shirley Frazee, secretary and Barbara Farrow, treasurer. Mr. John Edwards, sponsor of the group, told of the past history of the local chapter.

Dr. Jamison on Radio In Panel Discussion

Dr. Wallace Jamison, chairman of the history department at Westminster college, will appear on Pittsburgh radio station KDKA, on its regular Sunday afternoon discussion panel as a panelist this coming Sunday.

The program is the Allegheny Roundtable at 6:30 p.m. at 1020 on the dial. "What is America's responsibility for bringing stability in the Middle East" is the topic to be discussed.

Appearing on the program will be Dr. Benjamin Shwadran, author of the recently published book, "The Middle East, Oil, and the Great Powers."

Others on the panel include professors from area colleges and Pittsburgh leaders in the Zionist movement.

Garden Of Eden

(Continued from page 2)

These questions surely aren't about something he has studied. But no, the hope fades. This is the room and these are the tests.

Time passes. Finally, the ordeal is over. We observe the student as he leaves to lick his mental wounds. There is a slight smile on his lips. He is reflecting upon all the classes he has attended for that subject. They weren't so bad—not bad at all. In fact, there were even some pleasant moments. No, he wouldn't mind at all having to take that course over again.

Here lies the author,
His neck they broke;
They didn't take it
As a joke.

They didn't think
His words were jests;
Now he is where
They make up tests.

Town Pledges $10,000

New Wilmington, a village of about 200 people then, pledged $10,000 toward the endowment of the new college in 1852.

College Conducts Self-Evaluation

Members of the administration and faculty of the college, along with other schools in the Middle States area, are conducting several self-evaluation studies, Dr. Will W. Orr announced this week.

Future plans for Westminster will he made on the basis of the results of the present study. Such self-evaluation is needed to cope with the increased enrollments expected in the coming years, administration officials explained.

A current study is being held by the administration in conjunction with outside expert opinion on the disposition of college expenditures.

Also currently in progress is a self-evaluation study by a faculty committee regarding intercollegiate athletic policies. And the graduate committee, with the assistance of other faculty members, is studying the graduate program objectives, practice and accomplishments.

Members of the science department faculty have prepared questionnaires designed to show the relationship between high school science courses and similar courses taught in college. Students will be asked to provide information to help the science professors in making this study.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Thurs.—Fri.—Sat.

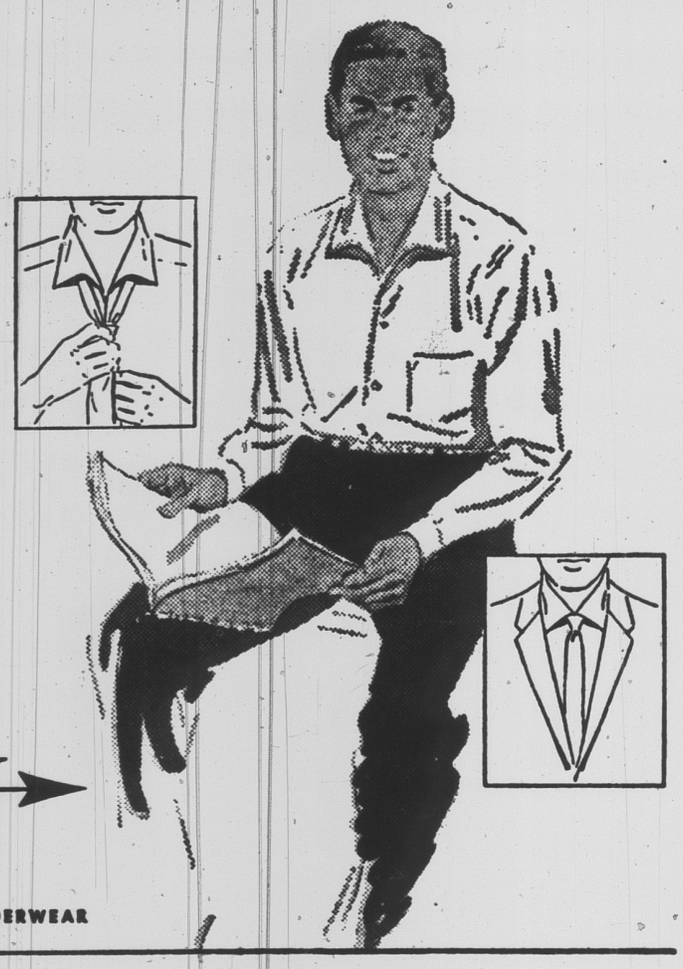

"MAMBO"
Robert Rossen
Silvano Mangano
Victoria Gassman

Mon.—Tue.—Wed.

"TO CATCH A THIEF"
Cary Grant
Grace Kelly

New . . .
a comfortable collar
you cannot outgrow

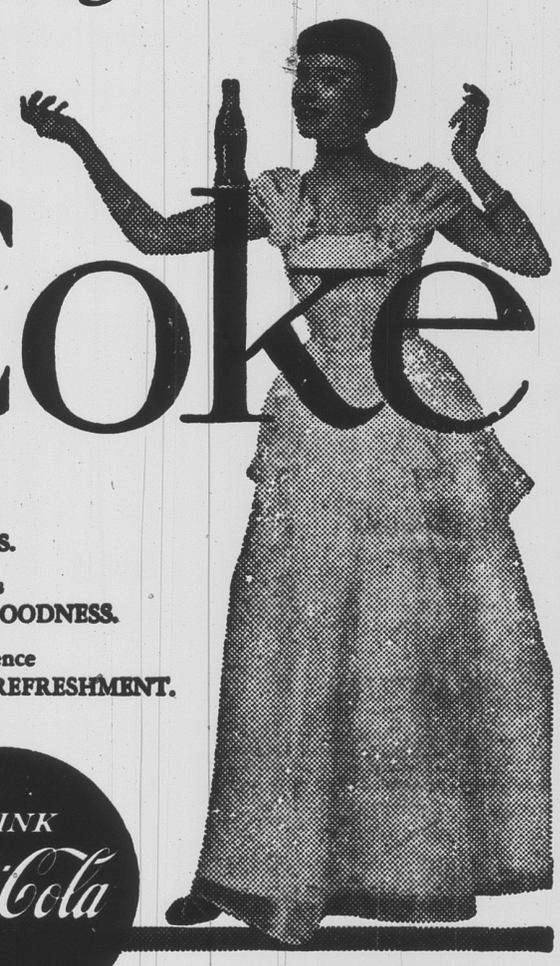

The new Arrow Lido shirt has no top button at the collar; your necktie alone closes the collar neatly. And even if your neck size grows, the "expandable" collar stays comfortable. Get yours today—wear it with a tie tonight—open at the neck tomorrow. Priced from $5.00.

ARROW
–first in fashion
SHIRTS • TIES • HANDKERCHIEFS • UNDERWEAR

50 million times a day
at home, at work or while at play

There's nothing like a Coke

1. You feel its LIVELINESS.
2. You taste its BRIGHT GOODNESS.
3. You experience PERFECT REFRESHMENT.

DRINK Coca-Cola

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

Weather: precipitation

The Holcad

The greatest college newspaper in Lawrence county.

Vol. 76 No. 14 Westminster College, New Wilmington. Pa. Friday, February 10, 1956

Dr. Bhatty Visits Campus From Pakistan Embassy

IRC, Phi Alpha Theta Sponsor Ambassador; Chapel, Lectures, Discussions Planned

Craig Cashdollar, acting president of the International Relations club, announces that Dr. Maqbool Ahmad Bhatty of the Pakistan embassy in Washington, will be on campus February 13-16. The theme of his visit will be "Pakistan—A Friendly Democracy."

Dr. Bhatty took his doctorate in economic geography at the University of Edinburgh in 1950. He obtained his Foreign Service training at Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Medford, Mass. in 1952.

In August of the same year he was one of the delegates from Pakistan to the International Geographical congress held in Washington, D. C. Prior to his assignment as Third Secretary of the Embassy of Pakistan at Washington, Dr. Bhatty was with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Commonwealth Relations, Karachi, as an officer on Special Duty.

Tuesday he will speak to both chapels and lead a round-table discussion at 4 p.m. in Ferguson lounge. IRC and Phi Alpha Theta will cosponsor an illustrated lecture by Dr. Bhatty on Wednesday at 8:15 in Room 116 of the science hall. Two colored movies on Pakistan will be shown and a question period will follow the movies.

Musser Serves As Field Representative

The executive committee of the board of trustees has granted a contract to the Rev. Paul M. Musser, '45, to serve as college field representative, starting February 1.

Mr. Musser's primary duties will be concerned with relations between the college and individual congregations of the United Presbyterian church. He will also assist with fund raising activities.

A graduate with an A.B. degreee from Westminster in 1945, Mr. Musser attended Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological seminary where he graduated with a B.D. degree in 1947. After graduation from seminary Mr. Musser served as a short-term missionary teacher of English in Assiut college, Egypt.

Presently Mr. Musser is serving as pastor of the Grace Community United Presbyterian church in New Kensington. Mr. Musser is married to the former Margaret Jane Newcomb, '45, the daughter of Dr. Thomas H. Newcomb, pastor of the Eighth United Presbyterian church in Pittsburgh. The Mussers have two children, Becky Sue and Paul Thomas.

Cast Chosen For Play, "Noah"

Mr. Donald L. Barbe has announced the cast for the forthcoming, major Little Theatre production, "Noah," by the French playwright Andre Obey. In the title role of Noah is Edward Terreri, with Kathleen McCoy portraying the part of Mama.

Cast as Noah's three sons are Thomas Parlette as Ham, Bruce Bowen as Shem and Dale Westerman as Japhet. Playing opposite these biblical sons are Jacqueline Walker as Norma, Elizabeth McGill as Sella and Jane Wilson as Ada. William Barbe plays the part of the hunter.

Chosen for the unique roles of the animals that can understand Noah's every action are Joyce Guy as the wolf, Wende Westinghouse as the monkey, George Lowther as the elephant, David Egner as the lion and Catherine Snyder as the bear.

At least two others will be needed to complete the cast of animals. Anyone interested is asked to contact Mr. Barbe.

Noah promises to be one of the most unusual and enjoyable productions ever presented at Westminster.

Performances begin March 12 and run through March 16.

Chemists Begin Study

Student cooperation is asked by the chemistry department in undertaking a study of the various aspects of the physical sciences. Students will be given a questionaire and are asked to fill it out as conscientiously as possible.

It is hoped this questionaire will reveal why more students do not study science, and help to find a way to encourage a larger enrollment in the science department.

Leader Presents "Women Of Destiny"

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, at 8:15 in the chapel, Mrs. Mary Leader will present a series of character sketches based on the lives of Biblical women entitled, "Women of Destiny." She adapted the poetic verse of the Bible into modern prose with the mood and spirit of Biblical times in her one-woman act.

The actress portrays the following four infamous women in Biblical history: Ruth, wife of Boaz; Hannah, mother of Samuel and wife of David; Herodias, temptress of John the Baptist and Magdalene. Mrs. Leader has done extensive research in the Old and New Testaments and has designed a long white sari and various headdresses to distinguish one character from another.

For the past twelve years, Mary Leader has been appearing in theatrical stock companies and on television. In the latter she has held roles in "Studio One," "Robert Montgomery Presents," "The Hallmark Theatre," "Mama" and many others.

On the stage she has played heavy dramatic roles in "Macbeth" and "Tobacco Road," romantic roles in "Romeo and Juliet" and "Cyrano de Bergerac" and light comedy parts in "You Can't Take It With You," "Ladies in Retirement" and "The Happy Hours."

MARY LEADER

Campaign Begins Monday

Give To W. U. S.

Making the first donation towards the $600 goal of World University Service is Harry Obley, assisted by George Strehler (l.) and Harold Davis. Patricia Kemp (l.) and Dianne Oursler are gathering up the money.

Council Places WUS Goal at $600

Contributions Aid Foreign Education

Monday, Feb. 13, launches the fund-raising campaign for World University Service. Chairman Robert Veon and his committee have set Westminster's goal at $600 for this year's drive.

In brief, WUS is engaged in a world-wide mutual aid program aiming to help needy students help themselves. Fifty per cent of the funds will aid students in Pakistan and the remaining fifty per cent will be added to the general fund of the organization.

Mr. Paul Denise, regional secretary in Philadelphia, will explain the national aspects of World University Service in chapel Monday. A contest between the four classes will begin Tuesday morning and will continue all day. The contest is in form of a "Penny Walk" along the corridors of the first floor of Old Main.

Friday the campaign will close with "ingathering" ceremonies. Envelopes will be distributed to the students who are directed by various social group and dormitory representatives. All checks should be made out to Craig Cashdollar, campaign treasurer.

WUS is laying the foundation for a better world by striving to secure international understanding. No barriers exist because of race, creed or nationality. It is a channel for international cooperation with thirty-eight branches in Africa, Asia, Europe, the Middle East and North America.

Committee members are Robert Veon, chairman; Virginia Dickson, Marian Wolk, Mary Lou Mansell, Craig Cashdollar and Harry Humes.

Kocher Announces New Restrictions

The use of the periodical stacks is now being restricted, announces Miss Mabel Kocher, librarian. The new restrictions are due to the number of magazines which have disappeared from the stacks during the past semester.

No student is to enter the stacks at the reserve desk. The assistant at the desk will get all periodicals for students who request them.

Seniors may obtain special permission to enter the stacks. This permit must be returned to the librarian when the student leaves the stacks. Special permission to keep a magazine out longer than overnight may also be obtained from the librarian, but not from the student assistant.

Brown Demonstrates Mathematical Coloring

Kappa Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary, held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, reports Perry Kirklin, president. Mr. Paul Brown, chairman of the mathematics department, gave a demonstration on the coloring of maps. He showed, mathematically, how five colors could be used in map coloring so that no color would be adjacent to itself. Refreshments were served by members of the group.

27 Register As New Stndents

Twenty-seven new students registered for the second semester at Westminster last week. Five were transfers from other colleges.

The new students are Gary Allen, freshman from Corapolis; Joselyn Druschel, freshman from New Castle; Joseph Fusco, freshman from Pittsburgh; Elizabeth Harre, Chatham college transfer from Kane; Robert Lavin, freshman from Niles, Ohio; James McClure, freshman from New Castle; William McConnell, freshman from Sharon; Bonnie Sue Nery, freshman from Cheswick.

Other new students are Nancy Reese, Ohio Wesleyan university transfer from Sharon; Howard H. Reynolds, Muskingum college transfer from New Castle; Burley Roberts, freshman from Weirton, W. Va.; Howard Tarabour, Hiram college transfer from Irvington, N.J. and Madolyn Watterson, Chatham college transfer from Darlington.

Special students are Robert Maw, full-time from Mercer; and Mrs. Marian B. Ringer, part-time from New Wilmington.

Students returning to Westminster are James Anderson, Poland, Ohio; Clyde Campbell, Jr., Connellsville; Samuel Clark, Youngstown, Ohio; Mary Erb, West Middlesex; John Ericson, Erie; Richard Gray, Jr., Pittsburgh; James Holiday, Monessen; Robert Leach, Pemberton, N. J.; David MacKenzie, New Castle; Martin Paulson, Sharon; Ralph Runkle, Coraopolis and Thomas Specker, Stewart Manor, N. Y.

Convention Needs More Delegates

At the close of registration yesterday, 125 names were needed to complete the state delegates to the Mock Convention, April 17-19. States which are still open are primarily mid-western and western.

Students who wish to sign for a delegation should contact William Jackson. An announcement will be made next week concerning I.O.U. payments.

Alaska, Texas, Pennsylvania and Michigan were among the first states to be closed. New York's delegates began slow but a sudden rush soon closed this state. George Merwin will serve as delegate to his home territory, the Virgin Islands.

State meetings will not begin for about two weeks. Committee chairmen for the Mock Convention are Donald Patchell, physical arrangements; Richard Newcomer, rules; Ann Price, public relations; Robert Peterson, budget committee; William Jackson, credentials and Donald Orr, resolutions.

Scrawl Needs Staff

Jeanne Douthett, editor of Scrawl, the college literary magazine, announces that there are openings on the staff. Those interested may obtain an application form from the editor or the English office.

Applications must be filed by noon, Wednesday, Feb. 15. Freshmen and sophomores are especially urged to apply.

Give . . . To Help Others

We Americans have always been criticized by foreigners for taking our good luck for granted. There is no doubt that we have advantages which are not within the grasp of people of other countries.

This is true in many respects of American living: food, housing, clothing and entertainment. Great importance is placed upon these needs and wants. However, education is perhaps the first step to these factors.

Most students also take educational opportunities for granted. In other countries students have a struggle to obtain higher education and, in many cases, for education of any degree.

This week we have a chance to help these students through the World University Service. Money is needed to aid in the alleviation of the inferior conditions in colleges and universities all over the world.

The funds collected will go towards improving living quarters, teaching facilities and purchasing books and supplies.

Not only is this money for physical aids, but it is hoped that it will help understanding among nations.

Monday Dr. Paul Denise will launch the drive and explain World University Service in relation to its national program. This will give students a broader idea of the work of the organization and how Westminster fits into the plan.

The rest of the week will be devoted to a class contest and "Penny Walk." On Friday all money and donations will be collected.

Because we believe this drive will aid foreign students and perhaps contribute ultimately to world peace, give to World University Service.

We Need . . . you - You - YOU

This year there appears to be a lack of interest in YOUR college newspaper.

Everyone likes to go to the TUB, pick up the Holcad, and enjoy its news, jokes, features and sports. However, very few students have enough interest to report or apply for staff positions.

News does not write itself. Not every news story is perfect in punctuation and spelling.

Students are needed to help as reporters, proofreaders and sports writers. Our sports editor is looking for an efficient replacement. Another vacancy is the managing editor position. Feature writers are necessary to vary feature material.

We hope that more students will try to support the Holcad, not only by reading it every week, but by serving on the staff.

This is your paper. Support it!

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday, February 10, 1956 No. 14

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
SPORTS EDITOR ..... James Falk
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Judith Gray, Carole Hawthorne, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Barbara Judson, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Diane Oursler, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Carolyn Fisher, Sue Starn and Louise Yeaney.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"You'd think they'd want a 'picture window' like that in the front of their house."

Who Goes Pogo! . . .

Convention In April

By Carolyn Jones and Dot Kelsey

'Twill be the 18th of April in '56
When the campus, afire with hot politics,
From 2 o'clock on till late in the night
Will filibuster, argue, wrangle and fight;
Each state pushing her favorite son
. . . . (finish the last line and win a nomination—
(it's awfully tough to write poetry after midnight)

You say you don't know anything about politics? Well, join the crowd, man—you're not alone. Everyone's in a hazy state (light mist to heavy fog—mostly heavy fog) about the mechanics of the forthcoming convention, so don't feel that you alone are unprepared to take up matters of national importance (so is us). That previous parenthetical phrase is not meant to indicate that we are backing Pogo again.

The point is, remains, and seems to be that (pardon us for including some irrelevant material) there is going to be some excitement hereabouts during the middle of April (17th, 18th and 19th, to be precise), and that concrete plans for political warfare have already been formulated. What we need now are delegates imbued with fervent party ("party-party?") spirit and that good old American faith in the common ideal of Republican administration.

This is as close to the real thing as most of us will ever hit. Six committees have been set up and are hard at work now making vital decisions for the basic foundations of our mock convention. Senator Duff has been contacted along with several other prominent personages (such as Milton Eisenhower) in an attempt to secure a keynote speaker for the first day. Many outside groups, including high school students, will be in attendance each afternoon and evening.

We might say that "it's the chance of a lifetime," that "it's the thing to do" or that "you'll never learn any younger" - - (and we will say it because it's true; and we're glad to see we did because we were going to anyway—but let's not get onto predestination).

Will Ike run? Who goes Pogo? What about Warren, Knowland and Nixon? Nobody knows, so jump on the bandwagon and come along! As our worthy chairman has so modestly inferred, "I come before you to stand behind you to tell you something which I know nothing about . . "

A Salute . . .

Cold Toast and Jelly

By Scottie Price

It seems that if you do anything fairly important you are rewarded—F. D. R. will be known by posterity for his profile on the dime—the John L. Lewis boys, the miners, Tennessee Ernie for "Sixteen Tons." However, on this campus there is a little group (pardon me "grup") of stalwart souls whose best contributions go unrewarded. This is the little "grup" of BBCTFT, alias, "Bringer-Backers of Cold Toast From Breakfast."

These are the brave, hearty souls who manage to keep their sleepy roomies and friends from starving during their morning classes. Of course, like other organizations, there are requirements for gaining admittance. These martyrs arise every morning at 6:15 a.m. and madly try to find a fairly closely matching ensemble in the dark, because if they put on the light their "Sleeping Beauty" room-mates will be disturbed. Slapping on lipstick or combing their crew-cut, they dash madly to beat the closing dining room doors.

Morning Dangers

If the candidate has to travel through the faint morning twilight to reach the dining hall, he receives special consideration for the dangers that he has to face—sheets of ice on campus sidewalks are hidden in the gloomy darkness and offer a wonderful bone-breaking spot for slick-soled Susies and Sams. Swish . . . around the Science hall, down the walk, around the circle and into the warmth of the dorm. With frost-bitten fingers our hero or heroine (as the case may be) unbuttons his coat and throws it onto a hook.

"Hey, waiter, don't shut that door, I'm coming."

'Round the corner, past the fruit (oops almost missed the half a grapefruit), no cereal and then comes the toast. Here is where our organization shines. While sweetly smiling at the dietician, we plainly remark to our neighbor,

"I'm just starving . . I better take six slices."

Intelligence Test

Grabbing one, two, three, four, five and six slices, as the dietician almost flips, we proceed to the jelly tray. This is where the members

(Continued on Page 4)

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Barbie Farrow

Well, the Mock Convention is really getting under way—with the chapel last week and registration for delegates this past Tuesday. By participating in the convention most students will obtain a better view of the running of a political party than they could achieve by reading a textbook. With all this activity going on, it looks like there will really be lots of fun and fireworks.

* * *

Speaking of political fireworks, Governor George M. Leader's secretary of the administration, Dr. James C. Charlesworth, caused quite a roar among Democratic politicians when he suggested that voters should be given intelligence tests before being allowed to vote. This will be an added boost to make children want to study. Can't you see yourself ten years from now saying to Junior, "You'll have to learn your lessons or you won't be able to vote."

* * *

Anther very popular guy with his sponsors will be Jack Barry, the announcer on "The Big Surprise." After awarding a 14 year old genius $100,000 for the right answers, he graciously ended his program by announcing, "Folks, be sure to miss our exciting program next week at the same time." Hey, Jack, Tom Bair is graduating this year, how would you like to announce the Titan basketball games on the P. A. system?

* * *

The Alliance college newspaper dropped a subtle hint to their student body in a recent issue. They announced: "The cheerleaders have started their fourth "rooting" season. When are the students going to start their "rooting" season?

It seems that members of our student body should also take a hint. We should yell for our team, whether they are 30 points ahead or 30 points behind. They are out there trying every minute and nobody wants to win more than they. Also, how do you think our cheerleaders feel when they yell by themselves? So, let's get out tomorrow night and really let the guys know that we are behind them 100 per cent of the time.

* * *

It seems that even though there are only 52 weeks in the year, there are about 1,052 different types of weeks. Now to add to National Pickle week, Fire Prevention week, etc., we are pleased to announce National Laugh week which will be observed April 2-8.

* * *

Attention all Seniors: According to a survey by the Director of Northwestern university's placement bureau, the college graduates of 1956 will find more jobs at higher salaries than at any other time in history.

* * *

In the Thielensian, the student newspaper at Thiel, it was noted that the men at Thiel prefer women from "Westminster, Grove City, Slippery Rock, Allegheny and Edinboro." I guess we're not the only ones to complain about the "circuit kick."

* * *

Do you realize how many Americans read the daily newspapers? During the year 1955, U. S. daily newspaper circulation reached a record high of 56 million copies a day. For our distinguished weekly, the Holcad, circulation is 1,300 copies weekly.

News Headlines . . .

U. S. Wins Ice Crowns

U.S. Takes Both Olympic Individual Ice Skating Crowns . . . With Hayes Allen Jenkins taking the Men's and Tenley Albright, the Women's titles, the U.S. became the first country since 1920 which has had both titleholders. This feat had previously been done by Sweden in that year; however, Russia won the unofficial team title.

FBI To Investigate Gas Bill Bribe . . . The Justice department has ordered a full FBI investigation of an alleged attempt to bribe Senator Francis Case, South Dakota Republican, in connection with the natural gas bill now up for vote.

Pittsburgh Elects First Woman For City Council . . . Mrs. Irma D'Ascenzo was rewarded for her 22 years of service to the Democratic party by being elected as the first woman on Mayor David Lawrence's nine member City council.

New Hopes For Peace in Westinghouse Strike . . . Both Westinghouse and the IUE have agreed to go back to work and continue talks for 90 days as proposed by the Federal Mediation service. When final arrangements have been made, this plan will go into operation.

State Tax Bill Rolls in the Huose . . . A compromise income, sales and gross receipt tax plan has gained momentum, and may be the solution of the state's financial difficulties.

Russia Protests Over U.S. Balloons . . . Russia has protested to the U.S. about weather balloons which have gone over Russian soil. The Reds claim that the balloons are being used for espionage. Secretary of State Dulles informed Moscow that we would give it friendly consideration.

Falk-Lore

By Jim Falk

Greetings—It's not often one gets the chance to write his swan song and then in the very next issue exasperate his former readers by coming up with another column. It seems there is an acute shortage of sports writing enthusiasts on campus. At any rate. no one wants to be sports editor. If you're interested, see me or Jeannette Traendly.

Gone Forever

Congratulations are in store for Walter Sylvester, Titan Football guard, who is about to "bite the dust" referring to his wedding tomorrow morning in Pittsburgh. According to the college hall reporter a shower is being planned in the near future in his honor—towels will be furnished.

We have a female sports yogi on campus in one Miss Barbara Farrow of Bryn Mawr. She guessed the outcome of the Geneva-Westminster game as 102-80 in favor of Geneva. She was absolutely correct. Last week, she guessed the outcome of the Baldwin-Wallace game as 88-84 in favor of the Titans. She was one point off—it was 89-84. Boy I'm going to take that little number to Santa Anita some time. We'll both come back rich.

The Block "W" dance was one of the best ever. Vince Cortese, head of the decorating committee, deserves much credit for a job well done. Incidently, it was the first time, around here at least, that a combo that size had its own traveling manager.

He tried hard to impress somebody, but impressed no-body, oft times coming out of his semi-seclusion to adjust the "mike" and eighth of an inch or climb up to the balcony seventy times, repeatedly checking the placement of the loudspeakers.

He asked Dick Uncapher where the outlet for the speaker cords were when they arrived. Dick smiled, as only Dick can do, and pointed straight up in the air. They were really up there, too—in an overhead socket. but Mr. Manager squinted his cold baggy eyes, broadened his custom made shoulders and said calously—"Cut that out." He digs Cordic too.

Small World

Just to show you how small the world is, in 1950 I was stationed at Cherry Point Marine Air base in North Carolina. I was fortunate, and perhaps lucky enough, to make the station football squad. One of my team-mates was a fellow named Chuck Nelson, formerly of Brown university and an all-Ivy league halfback. He was from New England, and when we packed our duffle bag for the last time, we never expected to see each other again. (Sad, isn't it?)

The other night, as I was watching the Titans beat W&J, I saw Chuck, somewhat older looking, sitting across the floor. To my surprise, he is W&J's assistant basketball coach and head football coach which explains his looking somewhat older. We had an old fashioned gab session about our old jarhead days. I wonder if he uses those sergeant major tactics on his squad.

From the way it looks now, the Titans will end up with a winning season after all—13 and 12 record.

P.S. Sports society note: At a recent meeting of College hall inhabitants, Al Polanec was elected head of internal security and phantom prevention department.

Davis Receives Award

Harold Davis, (second from right) junior business major, receives the Helms Athletic Foundation All American award for football from the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. Head coach Grover Washabaugh makes the presentation while coaches "Buzz" Ridl and Harold Burry look on.

Titans Narrow Won - Lost Column Shows 10-8 Record After B-W Game

Westminster's Towering Titans roll into their final few weeks of action sporting a 10-8 record to date, with four out of the remaining six games presenting more than formidable opposition. Geneva, Pitt and Youngstown will be three of the quartet, all with previous wins over the Titans this season, while Carnegie Tech will be the fourth member. Although the Titans own an earlier win over Tech, the game will be very tough.

In games played since exams and mid-year vacation started, the Titans have fared in the blue with three wins against two losses. The wins were over W&J, Bethany and Baldwin-Wallace while the losses were at the hands of Geneva and St. Francis.

St. Francis invaded Titanville, Tuesday, Jan. 14 and handed Westminster a convincing 89-76 setback. The game was a thriller up to half time with the score knotted 38 all. However, in the second half, the Frankies applied full pressure and took a fast lead—one the Titans were never able to overcome. Riley and Strehler led the Titans with 19 and 16 points, respectively. Frank Puschauver of St. Francis proved no pushover in garnering 29 points to lead all the scorers.

Two in a Row

In the Titan's last game before exams, they bounced back to defeat W&J 93-55. The Titans took an early lead and had very little trouble maintaining it throughout the evening, although W&J has a better than average squad this year. High scorers for the Titans were Strehler with 20 points and Riley with 18.

On Monday, Jan. 30, the Titans met Bethany in a return engagement and came close to being upset. The Bisons held a comfortable 49-40 halftime margin, but the Titans outhustled Bethany in the second half to pick up a 102-95 victory. Harold Davis led the Titan barrage with 18 points, while Rudy Yaksich dropped in 25 for Bethany.

The Titans then traveled to Beaver Falls, two days later, only to drop the contest with Geneva college 102-80. Again Harold Davis picked up high scoring honors with a total of 23 points while John Swogger led Geneva's scorers with 21 points. High scoring Billy Blair left the game early in the second quarter due to an ankle injury.

Upset B-W

The Titans returned home last Friday night to thrill a large crowd with an 89-84 win over Baldwin-Wallace. The Titans took an early lead and managed to stay ahead of B-W at half time 49-37. Not until the last few minutes was B-W able to narrow the gap, and they almost narrowed it to their favor. With a minute to go, Lengler of B-W missed an all-important foul shot which might have changed the whole scope of the game.

With a little less than a minute to go, the Titans did a superb job of freezing the ball, with Dave Rankin collecting two foul shots as the buzzer ended the game. Riley led Westminster with 24 points while Wynn Hawkins donated 23 markers for B-W.

Top Scorers

Top scorers for the Titans thus far this season are Jim Riley with a total of 274 points and a 16.1 game average. George Strehler has 259 points and a 15.2 game average, followed by Harold Davis and Tony Stillson. Davis has 176 points and an 8.5 average, followed by Stillson with 122 points and a 7.2 average.

George Strehler leads in the rebound department with an average of 11.9 per game. He is followed in that department by Harold Davis with an 8.9 game average.

S.N.Dominates Three Leagues

A glance at the intramural results over the past few weeks shows all three leagues dominated by the Sigma Nu squads. They are undefeated in all three leagues. The only other undefeated squad is the Sig Eps of the C league.

Sigma Nu's also placed three top scorers in the three leagues. Bob Davis leads the A league with 84 points while Bob Duvall leads the B league with 93, followed by second place Steve Kosko with 61.

Other high scorers are Vince Cortese, second place in the A league with 69 and Jim Falk leads the C league with 50 points. Teammate Dave Ammon and the Sig Ep's Wes Hyde are tied for second place with 32 each.

Standings of the Leagues

A League

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| S. Nu. | 5 | 0 |
| SPE | 4 | 1 |
| PKT | 2 | 3 |
| Block W | 2 | 3 |
| ASP | 2 | 3 |
| KAPS | 0 | 5 |

B League

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| S. Nu. | 5 | 0 |
| Globies | 4 | 1 |
| Block W | 2 | 3 |
| SPE | 2 | 3 |
| ASP | 1 | 3 |
| Vets | 0 | 4 |

C League

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| SPE | 4 | 0 |
| S. Nu. | 4 | 0 |
| Apes | 3 | 1 |
| Sackrats | 3 | 1 |

Six other teams have identical 1-3 records.

Penguins Seek Second Victory Over Westminster

Westminster faces tough Youngstown university tomorrow night at the field house in a return bout. The Penguins from Ohio downed the Titans in their last encounter at Youngstown 80-77 in a hard fought game. The Penguins led at half-time 44-33 but the Titans bounced back to tie the game 59-59 with ten minutes to go. However, the Youngstowners quickly went ahead again and stayed there.

The win for Youngstown earlier this season was the second time they have managed to dump the Titans in the 25 games played to date. Last season Westminster whipped Youngstown three times.

Formidable Tony Knott, Youngstown high scoring ace, will see plenty of action tomorow night. Knott has 2,058 points in his college career so far. He is one of 28 players ever to accomplish that feat.

A special feature at 7:30 before the game will be "The Whiz Kids" from Sharon Buhl Club under the direction of A. J. Record. The Whiz Kids will give a half hour show.

Wagner Breaks Pool Record in Lose to S. R.

Westminster's tankmen dropped another close decision Tuesday to the "Natators" from Slippery Rock 45-39. However, even in the loss, the Titans managed to garner some recognition when Fred Wagner, senior swimming ace, set a new pool record in the individual medley with a time of 2:01.6 minutes.

Three other Titans drew first place votes in the meet. They were Burdette Keppel, who finished first in the 200 yard back stroke; Herman Grip, who took first place in the 200 yard breast stroke and Ken Wessel, who cinched the 440 yard free style event. The Titans also took the 300 yard medley relay with a team of Keppel, Fred Wagner and Ron Booser.

Westminster fell down in two departments which led to their defeat. They gathered only one point against Slippery Rock's eight in both the 100 yard free style and diving events.

Slippery Rock also took the 400 yard free style relay. High scorers for the Titans were Grip and Wessel with six points each.

Jewelry—Watch Repair
J. R. Meek, Jeweler
We also repair

Berkshire Hose
Beautiful Sheer Grade
$1.00 a pair
Fred Williamson's

FOR A DELICACY
YOU WILL DELIGHT
Stop at the—
WILMINGTON BAKERY

For
Shoe Laces and Polish
SEE
DOC FUSCO
Bank Building

The Collegiate Place
To Stop and Shop—
Stop At
Brown's Food Market

PICK UP SERVICE
Campus Representatives
Ann McDowell
Fred Wagner
New Wilmington Cleaners
For Pick-Up Service
Call 3201

FOR A QUICK REFRESHER
ON A RAINY DAY
Stop at—
THE GRILLE
We Specialize in Pizza

Walker's Have It
Appropriate Valentine Gifts—
—Reverware
—Pyrex Ovenware
—Mirro Aluminum
—Rubbermaid
—Rodney Kent Aluminum Giftware
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

SOCIAL WHIRL

Sororities Hold House Parties Tonight; Theta Upsilon Donut Dunk Saturday --

By Dianne Oursler

Weekend activities begin this evening as the girls entertain the fellows with houseparties of varied themes. Saturday morning the TU's open their house to all sorority women for the annual Donut Dunk. Let's not forget the home basketball game with Youngstown, Saturday night and the Record Dance that follows.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . Lorraine Adams is in charge of Sing and Swing . . "On a Cloud" is the theme of the dance tonight, honoring the pledges. Dorothy Wallace is general chairman. Committee chairmen include: Nancy Sharp, decorations; Nancy Siehl, refreshments; Doris Barnshaw, chaperons and Ronda Vogan, entertainment.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Nancy Etzel is in charge of the "Valentine Day" house party, to be held at the Sigma Nu house. Sarah Haddad is working on entertainment.

CHI OMEGA . . The new officers for the coming year are: president, Sandra Keeley; vice president, Ann Price; treasurer, Jane Stewart; secretary, Suzanne Essinger; pledge mistress, Carol Roberts . . Salle Hamilton is chairman of the houseparty to be held in the TUB. Lois Heisey is in charge of the decorations . . Ann Price, Rebecca Wimer and Barbara Reynders visited the chapter at Ohio State recently.

KAPPA DELTA . . Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee, province president, is visiting Alpha Phi chapter this weekend. A tea will be held in her honor at 3:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon . . Erma Smith has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Jack Lewis . . Marion McConnell, '56, and Ronald Wolk, '54, were married on Jan. 28, 1956 . . Phyllis Holmes and Shirley Metzger are co-chairmen of tonight's houseparty.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . Donald Hudson has accepted a bid to membership . . Orville Harris was appointed director of Sing and Swing . . William Kness is social reporter for the Holcad.

QUADRANGLE . . Roberta Foster is chairman of the initiation banquet to be held at the Tavern, February 13 . . Patricia Anderson, ex '56 and Grace Dorman, '55, were on campus recently.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Joan Bodner is in charge of the pledge tea February 17 . . Betty Ann Thompson, '55, was here the past weekend . . Alice Ann Rea is general chairman of the houseparty, "Twin Heaven."

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . New officers for the ensuing year are: Allen Kohl, president; Jack Lewis, vice president; Gerald Schofield, recording secretary; Paul Kreiling, corresponding secretary; Harry Aurandt, historian; Joe Burns, guide; Merrill Giles, senior marshall; Michael Berg, junior marshall and Stanley Rackley, guard . . Miss Lucille Cummings was honored at a dinner at the house recently . . Returning to campus this semester are Thomas Specker, James Holiday and Richard Gray.

THETA UPSILON . . Mary Lou Mansell is in charge of the "Donut Dunk" Saturday . . Officers have been elected and they are as follows: Diane Levy, president; Mabel Jamison, vice president; Ruth Borell, treasurer; Roxanne Johnson, recording secretary; Alice Priest, corresponding secretary; Marda Mulqueen, alumni vice president; Helen Snyder, chaplain; Carol Downey, editor . . Janet Patterson has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Richard Randall . . Ruth Borell heads committees working on the houseparty, "Cupid's Capers."

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Robert Gardner was elected president for the coming year with Jack Rickard, vice president; Wayne Henderson, treasurer; Thomas McFarland, corresponding secretary; Louis Toporcer, recording secretary; Stuart Eddy, steward; Craig Cashdollar and David Marsico, prudential committee; Martin Wintermantel, editor; Edward Connolly, marshall; James McLean, historian and Dale Garver, chaplain. Installation of officers was held Monday . . Robert Campbell and Thomas Parks were elected I. F. C. representatives for the coming year . . Samuel Clark and Robert Leach have returned to the campus . . Allan Colledge has left school in order to accept a job with International Business Machines.

Engagements

RYAN-WAJTAS

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ryan of McKees Rocks announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Mr. Robert Wajtas of Berwyn, Ill. Patricia is a senior mathematics major and a member of Theta Upsilon sorority.

Wajtas is a senior at Carnegie Tech and is majoring in printing management. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

WORTMAN-EGLI

Mr. Ernest G. Wortman of Rahway, New Jersey, announces the engagement of his sister, Lorraine, to Richard Egli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Egli of New Kensington.

Lorraine is a junior speech major and a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. Egli, a Westminster alumnus, is doing graduate work in communications at Boston university and is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Feb. 10
3-5 Cwens freshman tea, Ferguson hall
Sorority house parties
Saturday, Feb. 11
Theta Upsilon donut dunk
Basketball, Youngstown. home
W.A.A. record dance
Sunday, Feb. 12
Vespers, Rev. Paul M. Musser
Monday, Feb. 13
W.U.S. week begins
Chapel, Student Council
8:15 Faculty Social club
Tuesday, Feb. 14
Chapel, Dr. Maqboll Bhatty
Swimming meet, Grove City, home
8:15 Mary Leader, "Women of Destiny"
Wednesday, Feb. 15
Chapel, Dr. Wallace Jamison
3:30 Mu Phi
5:00 W.A.A.
8:15 Pi Sigma Pi
Phi Alpha Theta
Basketball, Pitt, away
Thursday, Feb. 16
Chapel, Phi Alpha Theta
7:00 Senior movies
Campus club tea, Ferguson hall
A.A.U.W. senior women reception
Friday, Feb. 17
Chapel, C.Y.F.
3:00-5:00 Sorority pledge tea

Area Schools Conduct Self-Evaluation Study

Members of Westminster's administration and faculty, along with other schools in the Middle States area, are conducting self-evaluation studies.

A study is being held in conjunction with outside expert opinion on the disposition of college expenditures.

Another self-evaluation study is in progress by a faculty committee relative to intercollegiate athletic policies. Also the graduate committee, with the assistance of other faculty members, is studying graduate program objectives, practices and accomplishments. Future plans will be made on the basis of the results of the present study.

Members of the science department faculty have prepared questionnaires designed to show the relationship between high school science courses and college science courses. The students will be asked to provide information to help the science professors in making this study.

News Briefs

Dr. Norman Adam's 153 Bible class of Old Testament literature which met at 2:25 on Tuesdays and Thursdays, set a new record. The 14 members of the class didn't miss a single session of class during the entire semester. The record was completed on January 28 when all the students appeared to take the final examination.

Cold Toast

(Continued from Page 2)

of BBCTFB show their intelligence.

"Did Jane want apple or raspberry, or was it Susie who wanted no jam at all? Well, I'll take two of each and then they can fight over it—may the best man or rather girl win. Yes, cocoa, please."

Doing a regular circus balancing act, our members trot to crowded tables. Undaunted by staring eyes, we nonchalantly eat two pieces of toast and then discover, to our horror, that we just weren't as starved as we thought we were.

"Hey, waitress, could I please have another napkin. I can't eat all my toast and since it is cold, I'll take it back to my roomies. Thanks for the napkin."

Camouflage

Gently we wrap our prized possession, in order to make it look like a wad of Kleenex. Since we aren't allowed to take things out of the dining hall, we use camouflage, and always have a "code in da head" which requires a generous supply Kleenex.

Smiling sweetly at the head waiter, we promise to never take any more toast from the dining room—at least not until the next morning.

With jelly, sticky fingers, we fasten our coats and head home.

"Hey, roomie, get up!! I got you some toast so your stomach won't growl during chapel."

Even though this little article will never become as popular as "Sixteen Tons," at least the loyal members of BBCTFB or "Bringer-Backers of Cold Toast from Breakfast" have been praised.

Degitz Announces Tour to Washington

Phi Alpha Theta, national history honorary, will sponsor its annual tour to Washington D. C. this year, announces Gene Degitz, vice-president and chairman of this year's tour.

The group will leave Wed., March 7, and return late Sat., March 10. The fee of $21 includes transportation, hotel room and a four hour, sight seeing tour. Each person must make his own arrangements for meals.

Students Begin Practice Teaching

Seniors majoring in education went out into neighboring communities as student teachers Monday. Most of these people will be teaching for the next 12 weeks.

These seniors include Rita Ament, Barbara Bachman, Patricia Bowley, Betsy Breaden, Sally Charles, Nancy Conover, Mary Lou Dyke, Patricia Fitzgerald, Shirley Forsha, Mary Ann Gildersleeve, Ruth Girty, Dona Herr, Jane Longenecker and Leonard Milialcin.

Others doing practice teaching are Grace Offt, Mary Alice Paul, Nancy Petsinger, Marlene Rahenkamp, Barbara Rauschelbach, Jeanne Ray, Ruth Rose, Harry Senheiser, Mary Alyce Shannon, Jane Shelley, Doris Shoaf, Joan Smith, Ronda Vogan and Mary Lou Walker.

News Briefs

Dianne Oursler was recently elected as Ferguson hall's senate representative to replace Marjorie Harrison who is now living at the Chi Omega house.

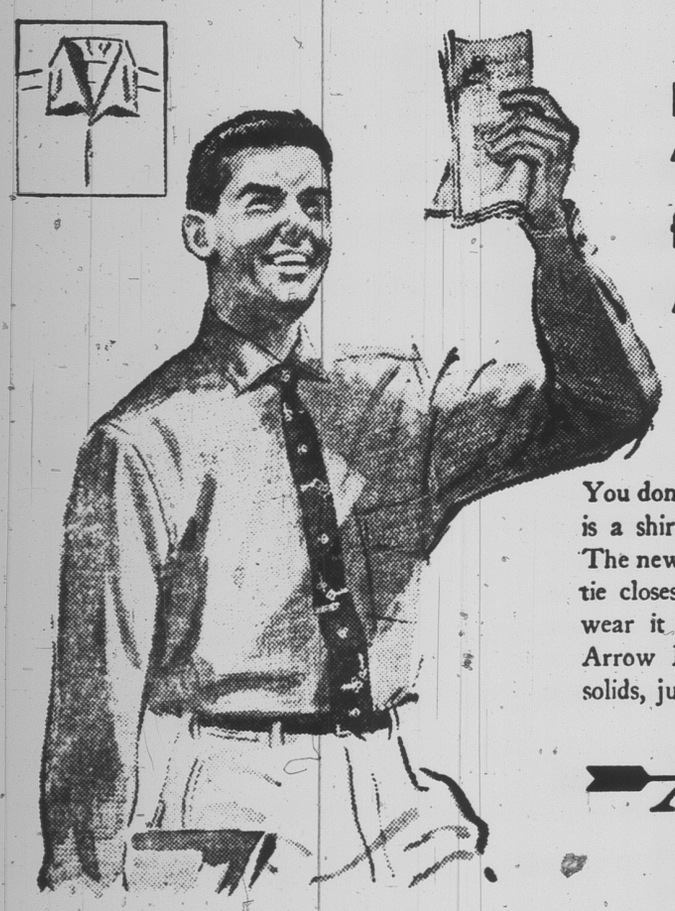

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. — Sat.
MARTY
Ernest Borgnine and Betsy Blair

Mon.—Tue.—Wed.
Mon. — Tues.
THE NIGHT OF THE HUNTER
Robert Mitchum
and
Shelly Winters

Thur. — Fri. — Sat.
SMOKE SIGNAL
Diana Andrews
and
Piper Laurie

It's an "open and shut case" for the ARROW Lido

You don't need a law degree to know that this is a shirt with real comfort built in. Why? The new Arrow Lido has no top button. Your tie closes the collar neatly, always. You can wear it open, too, and look just as smart. Arrow Lido in tattersalls, other checks, or solids, just $5.95.

ARROW
—first in fashion
SHIRTS • TIES • SLACKS

"Coke does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment . . . and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

DRINK Coca-Cola

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

Let's Go Titans!
BEAT GENEVA!

The Holcad

The greatest college newspaper in Lawrence county.

Vol. 76 No. 15 Westminster College. New Wilmington. Pa. Friday, February 17, 1956

Musser States N C C D Plans

Plans for National Christian College day, April 15, have been announced by Mr. Paul Musser, in charge of the program.

Letters have been sent to churches which may wish to participate in NCCD. Most of the congregations taking part will be concentrated in this area. However, some churches will be as far away as Boston.

All students who have participated in NCCD or may want to take part this year should contact Mrs. Whitehill, chairman of women speakers or Mr. Edwards, chairman of the men speakers. This should be done as soon as possible to determine how many students will be needed.

Other committee chairmen are: Dr. Jamison, materials; Miss Forsberg, faculty-staff speakers; Mr. Gamble, board-alumni speakers; Dr. Christy, faculty advisors; Mr. Cameron, musicians and Mr. Musser, assignments.

Additional chairmen of committees are: Dr. Woods, transportation; Mr. Barbe, radio-television; Mr. Wanty, publicity; Mr. Moorhouse, chapel program; Mr. Musser, dinner rally and David Abram, send-off.

Two Scholarships Set For 3-2 Plan

Two scholarships have been established for students of Westminster going to Lafayette college under the "3-2 Engineering program."

Beginning with the year 1956-57 and renewable the following year, students who will have completed three years of pre-engineering here in June of 1956 are eligible to apply. These students must be ready to take two years of chemical, electrical, industrial, mechanical or metallurgical engineering at Lafayette college.

The scholarships vary in amounts from $450 to $1,800. However, the actual amount will be determined by the financial needs of each student.

Applications must be sent to Lafayette college by March 15, 1956. For additional information contact Dr. Forry.

Karux Elects New Officers

Karux, campus association for preministerial students, had its election of officers Monday night, Feb. 13, at Dr. Orr's home.

William Bell, a junior from Fall River, Mass., replaced Robert Veon as president, Robert Wright is vice-president and David Abram is chaplain replacing Roger Kelsey and James Keefer. The original office of secretary-treasurer was split and Ronald Strahl acts as the new secretary while Neil Brown is treasurer.

Two new members were also initiated at Monday night's meeting. They are Richard Reynolds and Burley Roberts.

NAVCAD Team Interviews Students

Lt. Walter Weimer will be on campus February 22 and 23, with th NAVCAD information team, to explain the new air officers program and to interview those men interested in navy flight training.

Eligible young men may take the aviation aptitude test while the team is on campus. Only the mental exam is required for admission to either the naval aviation cadet program or the aviation officers program.

New Staff Members

New staff members serving on the Holcad for the remainder of the year are: (left to right) Thomas McFarland, news editor; Jeannette Traendly, editor; Barbara Farrow, feature editor; Nevin Morris, copy editor and Dianne Oursler, society editor. Not pictured are: Alan Wheeler and Robert Holmes, co-sports editors; Albert Canon, business manager and David Jaeger, circulation manager.

Nine Represent Westminster At Collegiate Choral Festival

Nine students will represent Westminster college in the Annual Festival of the Pennsylvania Collegiate Choral association at Drexel Institute of Technology, Philadelphia, February 25, 26, 27, 1956.

Nanette Ozias, Marlin Reynolds, Margaret Ihnat, Marilyn Elkins, Jon Berg, Darl Hollen, Elaine Shaw, Audrey Valentine and Orville Harris have been selected to sing in this chorus, along with choir members from 26 colleges and universities throughout the state.

Westminster's representatives will leave New Wilmington Friday, Feb. 24, and return Tuesday, Feb. 28. They will go by bus with chorus members from Slippery Rock State Teachers college. Mr. Clarence Martin, director of the college choir will accompany the group.

The chorus will present a varied program featuring works by Handel, Bach, Grieg, Beethoven, Mozart, Vaughn Williams and Rodgers and Hammerstein. Their directors will be Arthur E. Jones, Director of Music at West Chester State Teachers college; M. Clair Swope, Director of Music at Slippery Rock State Teachers college and Wallace Heaton, Director of Music at Drexel Institute of Technology.

Included in the program will be a tribute to Harl McDonald, former manager of the Philadelphia orchestra. Kenneth Goodman, Philadelphia organist will appear as soloist. Mr. Goodman has recently returned from a concert tour of Europe, during which he had the opportunity to visit and play for Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

The Monday night concert will be preceded by 18 hours of intensive rehearsal for the chorus. This festival will be similar to the band concert held in our field house last spring.

Tri-Beta Renovates Biology Museum

The Tri-Beta chapter is renewing the biology museum on the fourth floor of the science hall for the chapter's project this year. The museum will be cleaned and the empty cases will be filled with new specimens. Remodeling will be completed by Parent's day.

On Wednesday, Feb. 22, the museum will be opened to the college students from 1:30-4:30 p.m. As long as the students show interest, it will be opened every Wednesday at this time. It will also be available to the schools of New Wilmington.

Mu Phi Epsilon Elects Gardner President

Mu Phi Epsilon, music honorary, installed the following recently elected officers this week: Romaine Gardner, president; Roberta Foster, vice president; Elaine Shaw, recording secretary; Mary Alice Hakes, corresponding secretary and Georgia Dewar, alumnae secretary.

Other Mu Phi officers are: Sydne Falk, treasurer; Barbara Rankin, historian; Alice Priest, chaplain; Marjorie Ferree, warden; Marilyn Elkins, chorister and Florence Craig, publicity.

Seniors Enter Library Contest

Sixty dollars will be offered to seniors presenting the best libraries for the annual contest this spring. All seniors, who will be graduated not later than 1957, may compete by presenting libraries containing books acquired during their four years in college.

First prize for the best library will be $25 in books, second prize is $20 in books and third prize is worth $15 in books. Seniors are asked to begin preparing their presentations now.

A judge or judges not connected with the college will decide the winners.

ACS Hosts Speaker And Area Members

The Westminster affiliate chapter of the American Chemical society was host last week to the Penn-Ohio Border section of A.C.S. Mr. Lloyd Brower, jr., vice-president of the Jamestown Paint and Varnish company spoke on "The Chemical Properties of Organic Protective Coatings."

Dr. Roger Max and Dr. Herman DeHaas, both of the chemistry department, are members of the Penn-Ohio Border section. The meeting was held in the science hall at 8 p.m. Members of the local affiliate chapter served refreshments.

C Y F Conference Features Chapel, Devotional Service

"Toward a Deeper Christian Life" is the theme of the CYF conference to be held this weekend. The conference will be led by the Rev. Kenneth Hall of the Jefferson United Presbyterian church. Rev. Hall will speak to Westminster students in today's chapel. Tonight, there will be a party in the social hall of the United Presbyterian church, where all the meetings are to be held.

Saturday morning at 9:45, Bible study groups will be held under the leadership of John Reed, Diane Levy, Kenneth Wood and Daniel Migliore. At 10:30 a.m. there will be a devotional service when Rev. Hall will bring his first message, "A Humble Christian." Another devotional service will be held at 2 p.m. The topic will be, "A Fighting Christian."

In the regular CYF meeting at 6:15 p.m. Sunday, Rev. Hall will conclude the conference by bringing his third message, "A Balanced Christian."

Everyone is cordially invited to attend any or all of these meetings whether he is a member of CYF or not.

Three Instructors Teach Journalism

Courses in the journalism department for this semester have been divided among three instructors.

Mr. Vernon Wanty, director of the news bureau, is teaching the introductory courses and public relations.

The other two men in the department are part-time instructors. Teaching the advertising course is Mr. Irvin Eubanks, who has an advertising agency in New Wilmington. Mr. Thomas Wiley, instructor in Spanish and camera enthusiast, is the new photography instructor.

Joint Tri-Beta Meeting Held at Thiel College

The Tri-Beta chapter is going to Thiel college on February 22 for a joint meeting with Thiel's biology chapter and Grove City's biology club. This joint meeting is a tradition every year among these three schools.

The program will include a tour of the Thiel science department and a speaker. Twenty members including Dr. Simpson and Mrs. Frey will take this trip.

New Holcad Staff Commences Work, Announces Editor

McFarland, Morris, Farrow, Oursler Hold Positions

All staff positions on the Holcad have been selected for this semester with the exception of managing editor, announces Jeannette Traendly, editor.

Taking over the news editor's position for Ann Gamble is Tom McFarland, sophomore journalism major. New feature editor is Barbara Farrow, junior history major, who replaces Ann Price.

Two freshmen will edit the sports page. Co-editors are Bob Holmes, journalism major and Alan Wheeler, history major.

Replacing Marcia Vandermast as copy editor is Nevin Morris. Nevin is a freshman journalism major. An elementary education major, Dianne Oursler, takes over Susanne Essinger's position as society editor.

Albert Canon, junior business major, relieves Stanley Cardarelli in the business manager position. Taking over Andrew McKelvey's job as circulation manager is David Jaeger, junior business major.

News reporters for the Holcad are Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marsha Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy and Carol Kibler.

Others are Ann McDowell, Patricia McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.

Proofreaders for the Holcad are Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.

Cwens Hold Informal Dance

"Sweetheart Switch," an informal dance sponsored by Cwens, will be held February 24, at 8:30 p.m. in Old 77. The dance lives up to its name, because this time the girls will do the inviting.

Records by Les Elgart and Stan Kenton will put everyone in the mood for dancing. There will be entertainment at intermission, door prizes and refreshments. Admission is 50 cents per couple.

Mortar Board Continues Freshman Counselling

Kathleen Johnston, president of Mortar Board, has announced that this group will continue its counselling of freshman women which was begun last fall. A guidance session is planned for Monday evening.

The sessions will be held in the lounges of Browne and Jeffers halls. All freshmen women are urged to attend.

Variety Show Tryouts Held Next Week

Try-outs for two variety shows will be held some time next week in the radio studio. Solo, duet, trio and group singing and instrumental numbers will be accepted. The programs will be taped and broadcast along with two short plays which have previously been taped, "Sleeping Beauty" and "Rumplestilskin."

Those interested in trying out for the variety shows are advised to watch the speech bulletin board for further announcements.

Expansion - - - Aiming For The Future

Expansion is a characteristic which reflects a non-stagnant community, country or college. Because we must be aware of events in the twentieth century, it is necessary to keep abreast of the increasing pace which has been established.

Perhaps New Wilmington is a small community but, by all indications, it will not remain small for long. Westminster is catagorized as a small college. However, within the past several years a program of expansion has been planned.

Today, education has become paramount in importance. In business, as well as other fields, specific knowledge and degrees are extremely important when applying for a position.

If education is the starting place for a civilized and progressive country, plans must be made to accommodate the rapidly increasing numbers of students who plan to enter college. Not only should large universities continue to enlarge, but the smaller colleges must also plan to help in the estimated boom.

Because of the added importance and responsibility placed upon the shoulders of educators all over the country, everyone must be thinking of ways and means to help alleviate the growing problem. Universities have state aid and many alumni from which to draw funds. However, the resources of a smaller college are much more limited.

Westminster has, for some time, been aware of the need for expansion. A building program has been in effect for several years.

The most recent additions to the campus buildings were the field house, Russell dormitory and Freeman Science hall. These satisfied the immediate needs. However, Westminster's needs are becoming greater.

We have been informed of the new developments for the college. Galbreath hall has ceased to be a dream and is fast becoming a reality. The plans are made and the blueprints drawn. Now we are waiting for the final approval of the FHA loan.

The next project is the Fine Arts building. Because of the crowded conditions of the art, music and speech departments, it is imperative to look ahead to relieve this deficiency.

This project was started with the option on property which is needed to expand the present quadrangle and upon which the Fine Arts building is to be built. After obtaining this land, the concentrated planning will begin.

Eventually, plans will be made to erect another girls' dormitory and a student union building. Because Westminster is a growing institution, we hope all of the proposed expansion will be realized.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday, February 17, 1956 No. 15

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
SPORTS EDITOR ..... James Falk
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"I put a desk at both ends of the classroom. It confuses heck out of those students who always sit in the back row."

Generosity Plus . . .

For Other Students

By Bob Veon

If someone had walked up to one of us two weeks ago and asked the question, "Why contribute to World University Service?", we probably would have stuttered and stammered in our search for a reason why we ought to give. How many of us can honestly say that we had given much thought relevant to students in colleges and universities of less fortunate countries?

Yet, the support given our W.U.S. Campaign this week seems rather indicative that we are, in th ewords of John Donne, "involved in mankind."

We heard from one of our Foreign Faculty personnel, who was on campus last year enjoying the same things that we enjoy now and many times taking them for granted.

Today he teaches college men in a poorly lighted, dingy classroom so cold that he has to wear an overcoat to keep warm. He sleeps in an unheated dormitory with no hot, running water for a shower. Many of us on our campus have automobiles; he rides a bicycle because of the inflation in Pakistan's economy.

We gave to W.U.S. because one of our own stood before us and acquainted us with the discouraging and disheartening conditions of colleges and universities of her own native country of Jordon.

We gave because in Ewha's Women's university in Korea, the classes are held in huts made of crating lumber. The buildings have no window glass, no heat and no floors. The laboratory in which they work their scientific experiments has a canvas roof—and we looked about our own campus at the buildings and facilities we have. The furniture these Korean students have is what they make themselves. Their lunch is a bowl of cold rice, brought from home, mixed with hot water supplied by the college. It was concerning these students that President Dwight D. Eisenhower, upon returning from Korea at the close of 1952 said, "—the students of Korea will inherit the problems of tomorrow, and it is to them that we must look for the virile leadership that will shape her destiny along democratic lines."

I believe that in our giving this week to World University Service, we have earned, in a very real sense for ourselves and our college, the D. D. Degree—Dollars for Destiny.

Thanks . . .

To Our Guest From Pakistan

By Barbara Farrow

For those students who had the chance to personally meet our guest for this past few days, Dr. Maqbool Ahmed Bhatty of Pakistan, they discovered a delightfully pleasant young man. With his intelligence, sincere attitude and keen wit, it is possible to see why he has obtained such an important position at such a young age.

Most of us know very little about Pakistan. His visit certainly did awaken our interest in that new nation. During a recent discussion, Dr. Bhatty was asked the following questions, and these are the answers that he gave in synopsis form.

Q. Did the terrible floods in Pakistan during the past year seriously affect your economic system?

A. The flood waters did 360,000,000 rupees damage to government property alone. This would be equal to twenty billion dollars here. In three months, the main damage was repaired, but many funds that had been specified for other uses had to be spent. However, the disaster seemed to bind the nation closer together.

Q. Does the presence of Communist China and Russia on your borders bring about favorable Communist sympathizers?

A. In Pakistan the strong religious feeling has stopped the growth of Communism. However, when there were famines several years ago, there was an increase in pro-Red feeling. Fortunately, it was kept in check and the Reds won't gain as long as the government progresses.

Q. What is the form of government?

A. The government is patterned after the British Commonwealth. Every man and woman over twenty-one can vote for the representatives in their provincial assembly. The members of the central assembly are elected by the provincial assemblies. There is a new constitution being prepared which has a one house legislature with an equal number of delegates from East and West Pakistan. The president will be a figure-head. Most of the work will be done by the cabinet with the prime minister at the head. For awhile Pakistan was considering a two house legislature, but too many problems arose.

Q. What languages are spoken?

A. There are two native languages spoken in Pakistan and this has caused a problem. In West Pakistan they speak Urdu while in East Pakistan the language is Bengali. Both sections have kept their own language. English is taught in the

(Continued on Page 4)

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Barbie Farrow

World University Service week went over very well and lots of thanks should be given to Bob Veon, who was chairman of the very able Student Council committee. The penny-walk was a big success, since it made collecting money a pleasant, instead of painful, experience. In fact, students, who have never supported fund drives, were rushing madly to make change to push their class in front. Congrats, sophs, you led the way.

* * *

Speaking of money, we have all heard about balanced budgets and how important they are. However, it seems that the average Frenchman's budget is very much unbalanced according to the latest statistics. The average budget allows three per cent for housing, five per cent for health and nine per cent for alcoholic beverages. It is no wonder that their government is unsteady.

* * *

This week the chemistry department has been taking a survey on the interest and scientific background of students. They would like to find out why more students are not taking science courses. One reason for the lack of interest may be the long hours spent in labs. For four hours credit, you have to have three lecture periods and almost a three hour lab once a week. This problem does not apply only to Westminster, but to almost every other school. As my friends in high school used to say, "Why should I take science and have to spend all my free time in lab while my friends take easier courses and get as much credit as I for half as much work?"

* * *

In the recent issue of Chemical News there is an article about giving chicken feathers a permanent curl because the U. S. Army needs an inexpensive substitute for goose down to be used in sleeping jackets, life jackets and cold-weather outfits. By using a new chemical treatment this is obtained. Now I am waiting for the day when chicks will be wearing curled chicken feathers. Can't you see the ads now, saying, "Which hen has the Toni?"

* * *

The Woman's Student Government association at the University of Vermont recently passed a new rule which allows women students to smoke in their rooms in university dormitories and sorority houses.

The assistant dean of women found at a Chicago conference that fewer colleges throughout the country have separate smoking rooms and more colleges permit smoking in dormitory rooms.

Factors contributing to the change were the importance of study and consideration for college students as students.

Also this plan has indicated that more time is spent in study since study time is not lost in taking a break. Evidently, cigarettes have not caused housekeeping problems or fire hazards.

News Headlines . . .

Ike's Heart O. K.

Eisenhower gets medical O. K.—President Eisenhower, after extensive medical tests on his heart, was given the O. K. by his doctors to resume normal work.

Maclean and Burgess Appear in Moscow— Two British diplomats missing since 1951, Guy Burgess and Donald Maclean, turned up in Moscow and denied being Red spies. They said they didn't like the anti-Communist aim of the United States and Britain, but an ex-Red, Petrov, says they are Russian spies.

Twin brothers held in slaying—Fourteen year old twins, Thomas and Joseph Williams, are being held for slaying nine year old David Powell under the front porch of their Wheeling, W. Va. home. If premeditated murder is proven, they could get the death penalty.

Leader appoints fact-finders for strike—Governor Leader appointed two nationally-known arbitrators, David L. Cole and Dr. George W. Taylor, to conduct a fact-finding inquiry into the Westinghouse strike.

Adlai wants race issue taken out of politics—Democratic campaigner Adlai Stevenson wants the segregation issue removed from the presidential race because it is "too emotional."

Leader accuses three of toll bridge fraud—Governor Leader charges the present chairman and two former members of the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge commission with taking $84,209 from public funds to provide for lavish headquarters and parties.

Khrushchev says that war is not inevitable—Nikita S. Krushchev, Russian Communist party leader, recently re-wrote two major points of the Communist creed when he said that war is not inevitable and that Red revolutions may be achieved in some cases by parliamentary means.

Syndicate to buy Cleveland Indians for $3,961,800—A group headed by William R. Daley, and including ex-player Hank Greenberg, has formed a corporation to buy the Indians for $3,961,800.

Falk-Lore

By Jim Falk

I was quite honored and proud to be one of the guests of honor at a recent testimonial dinner given a friend of mine, all-American halfback Ed Vereb, from Maryland, by more than 600 residents of Hazelwood in Pittsburgh. Ed, at first buried under the heaps of publicity given Maryland's quarterback, proved to be the real mainstay of the squad—rewriting many Maryland records. He scored 96 points and averaged 5.7 yards per carry last season.

To show their appreciation, the residents of Hazelwood presented him with a check for five hundred dollars. He was also honored at the huge Dapper Dan dinner Sunday evening.

Celebrities Galore

There were many outstanding sports figures at the dinner. Bob Prince was MC and it was very evident that he is a far better MC than sports caster. A number of special guests were called upon to speak. There was Nick Skorich, Ed's former coach and now assistant with the Steelers. Pete Dimperio from Hazelwood and the great coach at Westinghouse high was also a guest. He was proud to see that Walt Sylvester, a former protege of his, was an all-state choice.

Another guest who paid tribute to Ed was a great sports figure. He was Julius "Moose" Solters, who was stricken blind at the peak of his baseball career. Moose left Hazelwood and played six years of minor league ball before becoming one of the bright stars in the majors. He was standing along the field during warm-up one day when a wild throw hit him squarely on the temple, blinding him and ending a great career. He never once gave up though, and is now a prosperous business man in Pittsburgh.

Bob Pelegrini, all-American center from Maryland was a guest along with Ed Fullerton—former Terp end and now an assistant coach at his alma mater. James J. Braddock was another guest along with Billy Conn, former Pittsburgh heavyweight. I was fortunate to have the seat next to him. Of course I kept my mouth shut.

Glick Clicks

Dusty Rhodes of the Giants was there and all present were treated to a look at the Steelers' bonus pick. Gary Glick was called on for a few words. The main address was given by Congressman Calvin D. Johnson.

Just a few local Hazelwood guests active in sports now included Joe DeFebo, head coach at Thiel; Bill Adams, quarterback at Carnegie Tech who we'll be seeing more of next year; John Mamajek, all-southern halfback at the Citadel and a former Steeler; Lou Rossi and Al Karpa, former all-district choices from Slippery Rock and coaching at Hickory high; Jim Reynolds, former all-district guard at Thiel, now coaching and Bob Sacco an all-city fullback currently at Central Catholic.

Titan Natators Drop Close One

By Harry Hardwood

The Titan swimmers are finding the going pretty rough so far this season. They are sporting a not too phenomenal 0-5 mark. Loss number five came at the hands of Grove City college last Tuesday at the Titan's pool.

However, the meet wasn't really decided until the last event with both teams needing the 400 yard free style relay to assure the win. The Grovers edged out the Titan relay squad of Long, Aurandt, Wessel and Wagner in 3:55 minutes.

Good Squad

The Grovers went into the meet a strong favorite sporting a three-one record. They took a total of five firsts out of the seven events, with Steller and Bowie splitting the first place votes. Steller took two, Smith took two and Bowie took one first place.

Westminster's first place men were Fred Wagner, who led in the 100 yard free style and Long, who captured the 60 yard free style. Wagner took second in the 220 yard free style while Long was second in the 100 yard free style. Keppel of Westminster was second in the 200 yard back stroke while Grip was second in the 200 yard breast stroke.

Meet Rockets

The Titans also took the 300 yard medley relay with a team of Keppel, Booser and Buckingham. The Titans should have a fair chance of copping their first win next Saturday when they meet Slippery Rock in a return match at Westminster's pool. The meet will be at 2:30 p.m.

Pitt Pulls Ahead To Up-end Titans

At Pittsburgh Wednesday evening, the Titans lost a tough game to the University of Pittsburgh Panthers, 77-71. Pitt came from six points behind in the second half to clinch the dull contest. Bob Lazor and John Riser led this comeback by dropping in 17 and 16 markers, respectively. Lazor finished the night with 25 tallies while Riser and Pegues who kept the Panthers in the ball game during the first half both had 19. Davis led the Titan attack with a total of 25 points.

The contest was close for five minutes in the first half until Westminster tallied eight straight markers with Davis and Riley each bucketing a field goal and two free throws. But Pegues personally kept the Panthers from falling further back as he contributed 13 markers and rebounded well. By intermission time, Westminster led by only a 31-29 count.

Ties Score

Pegues jump shot tied the score at the beginning of the final half, but two baskets by Davis and one each by Riley and Garrett soon found Westminster ahead 39-33. Riser then took over as he drove in for two buckets and sank a pair of foul shots to tie the score. Lazor put Pitt ahead for good when he tossed in a layup when left unguarded.

In the final minutes, Pitt began to pull away as Lazor and Riser hooped continous points, but a fielder and two fouls by Davis and Dave Rankin's three one-handed push shots brought Westminster to within a 69-67 deficit. However, Joe Fenwick's charity shot and three by Riser sewed up the game for Pitt.

Fishing Squad Seeks New or Used Coach

With the graduation of "Beaver" Lander, the 1956 edition of the Titan fishing squad is looking for a new coach. Anyone interested please call Al Polanec, the fishing team business manager. All aspirants who are better-than-average fishermen and are interested in trying out for the squad, please see Ralph Runkle or Bruce Wbann, this year's co-captains.

Titans Even Penguin Series

Westminster's Titans sailed into the blue column against Youngstown university last Saturday night when they pulled ahead of the Penguins in the last few minutes to win 95-82.

Jim Riley tallied 34 points to lead the Westminster offense while Harold Davis followed him with a total of 21 markers. Freshman Herb Lake, who has smashed Youngstown records for freshmen scoring honors, led the Penguins with 29 tallies followed by Tony Knott a close second with 25 points. Knott holds the all-time high for Youngstown scorers over a four year period with over 2150 points.

Fast Start

The Penguins got off to a fast start as Lake sank four free throws and Knott made a field goal before Tony Stillson broke the spell with a long set. The Titans soon caught up at 10-10 on a fielder by Strehler. After that it was give and go the remainder of the first half with the locals leading at halftime 47-45.

Riley and Lake were both hot in the early minutes of the second half as the Titan center drove in for several hoops, tapped in three rebounds and contributed six foul shots. Lake tossed in six field goals as the Titan defense was unable to check him.

Finally, Bob Doran hit four consecutive set shots to help widen the edge a little. He also engineered three fast breaks that helped set up baskets.

Last Minute Clincher

Youngstown, however, was still in striking range until the last few minutes when Lake and Mayberry fouled out. Davis, hot down the stretch, pocketed six points while Strehler drove in for two layups. Charley Garrett banked in a fielder as the buzzer ended the game.

Lost to Some Good Ones

Westminster's football team of 1914 had an outstanding season, winning five and losing only to Pitt, Penn State and W&J.

No Team in '44

There was no varsity football in 1944, but an unofficial touch football team played some games with neighboring college and won five out of six.

Geneva - Westminster Renew Age Old Rivalry At Fieldhouse

Ace Forward Billy Blair May Miss Encounter; Titans Look for Revenge After Earlier Losses

By Ed Terreri

The "Towering Titans" and the "Covies" from Geneva college will clash tomorrow night in what may well be the most interesting game of the season. It will be the third meeting between the two clubs this year.

In the two previous encounters, Geneva took a close one in the Steel Bowl Tourney, 60-57, then in the confines of their home court romped to a 102-80 win.

The revenge-minded Titans are looking forward to this third meeting. If the play of the local five continues to be as inspired as it has been in recent games, Geneva will be in for a rough night.

Keystone Kops

Both Westminster and Geneva have had good basketball teams in recent years, and a strong rivalry has grown up between players and fans alike. This rivalry has produced some rabid fans, notably from Geneva, of the siren blowing, bell ringing variety. Although this cacophonous type of rooting is not encouraged, some good loud cheering by Titan fans might be in order. Last year Oscar and company put on a Keystone Kop routine as they routed the siren blowers to the accompaniment of cheers, boos and catcalls.

On the home court, last season, the Titans won 85-82. In the return engagement Geneva came back with a 77-69 win. This game enabled Geneva to enter the N.A.I.B. Tourney in Kanses City, and the Covies hope to return this year. A Titan win will probably not hurt Geneva's chances of going to Kansas City, but it might take some of the lustre from the Gold and White and add to the prestige of the local five.

Old Rivalry

This rivalry between the two teams has historical roots, too, since Geneva was the first intercollegiate opponent faced by Westminster on the hardwood court. The first game was played in 1898, and since then the two teams have met 96 times with Westminster holding the edge, 52 wins to Geneva's 44. The score of that first game was 21-4 in favor of Westminster.

Both Westminster and Geneva will start veteran teams. The Geneva lineup will probably be the same five that started against Westminster last season. The latest report from Geneva is that Billy Blair, high scoring forward, will not see action and that the starting five will be Woodeshick, Pritchard, Yukica, Clark and Bernardi.

The Titans will go along with their usual starting five—Riley, Strehler, Davis, Stillson and Rankin. The game will begin at 8:15.

Sackrats Top Week's Scorers

By Emil Saloom

Three games featured the action this week in the Intramural basketball league.

In the A league the Kaps eked out a 34-33 win over PKT with Bill Czirjak leading the way with 11 points. SN held the league lead with a 6-0 record as compared to second place SPE's 6-1 record.

In the B league Bob Duvall scored 24 points pacing SN to a 67-35 win over SPE. Holiday led the Sig Eps with 13. This boosted SN's record to 6-0. The second place Globies scored their sixth win against one loss with a 51-33 win over ASP. Gibson and Stepnick split 24 for the Globies.

Another item of interest was the disbanding of the Vets, leaving the B league with only five teams. Psychological pressure combined with old age forced the Vets into retirement.

In the C league, the high scoring Sackrats went wild against the Alpha Sig's Hammers and racked up 71 points, scoring three points every minute, while the Hammers were just able to eke out 16 counters. The Sig Eps still have first place sewed up in the C league.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. and Sat.

SMOKE SIGNAL
Dana Andrews—Piper Laurie

Mon. and Tues.

THE PHENIX CITY STORY
Pulitzer Prize Winner

Thurs. Fri. and Sat.

TRIAL
Glenn Ford

Coming: LAST COMMAND

Washing – Drying
65¢ Per Load
Hours 9-5
Open Till Noon on Wed. & Sat.
LAUNDROMAT
Around the corner from the Show

PICK UP SERVICE
Campus Representatives
Ann McDowell
Fred Wagner
New Wilmington Cleaners
For Pick-Up Service
Call 3201

Having a Party?
Stop at the
WILMINGTON BAKERY
Cakes—Cookies—Cup Cakes
Decorated Especially for You

Walker's Have It
FOR BEDTIME SNACKS
—Juice Containers and Juicers
—Glass and Plastic Tumblers
—Coffee and Tea Cups with Saucers
—Hot Plates and Toasters
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

THE STORE WITH MORE
Brown's Food Market
Serving the Students With
GOLDEN DAWN'S
Fine Family of Foods

Nylon Knitting Yarn
New Colors
39¢ a Ball
Fred Williamson's

For a Coffe Break
During that Class Break
Stop at—
THE GRILLE
We Specialize in PIZZA

SOCIAL WHIRL

Two Groups Elect Officers; Sig Kaps to Honor Housemothers

By Dianne Oursler

Tonight's recreation will be left up to your own ingenuity since the Cheerleaders' Dance has been cancelled. However, Saturday finds a full agenda beginning with Sigma Kappa holding a breakfast for the housemothers. Also scheduled for Saturday is a CYF conference and a swimming meet with Slippery rock. Sigma Nu will sponsor a record dance after the basketball game with Geneva.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Tuesday evening, Dr. Bhatty of the Pakistan Embassy, and Dr. Edwards, of Westminster's political science department, were entertained at dinner. An informal fireside discussion followed the meal.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Marlene Wasser, Mary Lou Heilbrun, Joanne Snyder, Jane Crouch, Sarah Duff, Alice Johnson, Marsha Hicks, Nancy Taggart, Nancy Etzel and Jean Aungst attended the wedding of Barbara Glass last Saturday in Warren, Ohio . . . Activation ceremonies will be held tomorrow for Lynn Daugherty, Barbara Town and Joanne Snyder.

CHI OMEGA . . Additional officers have been named: Virginia Minor, rush chairman; Wynetta Schmidt, assistant rush chairman; Salle Hamilton, social chairman; Sharon Howell, assistant social chairman; Jacqueline Walker, alumnae chairman; Ruth Organ, vocations chairman; Jean Dieghan, personnel chairman; Elaine Beckett, assistant personnel chairman; Helen Kirkpatrick, activities chairman; Betty Wagner, chapter correspondent and Lois Heisey, Holcad reporter.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Officers for the coming year have been elected and are as follows: Erma Smith, president; Beverly Johnson, vice-president; Phyllis Holmes, secretary; Judith Maccubbin, treasurer; Donna Spate, assistant treasurer; Virginia Glenn, editor; Jeanne Douthett, social chairman and Beverly Bemiss, assistant social chairman . . . Barbara Estep Waughaman, '51 recently was appointed as a new member of the alumnae advisory board.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . Activation ceremonies were held for Thomas Tucker . . . Donald Hudson was pledged . . . Pressley Wilson is in charge of the Spring Formal . . . During his visit on campus, Dr. Bhatty was a luncheon guest.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Carol Dietz is in charge of the Valentine breakfast tomorrow for the housemothers . . . Nancy Nickel is chairman of Sing and Swing. Nancy Tulenko is assisting . . . Sandra Phillips, ex '57 was married to David Mink, '59 last month.

SIGMA NU . . Jack Hanna, '55, Art Schenk, '55, Robert Dean, '55, Jerry Neff, '54, Larry Pitzer, '53, Don Carroll, '53 and Gordon Arndt visited the chapter last weekend. . . William Stratton and Domenic Mettica spent the weekend at Kent State while James Osuna was at Carnegie Tech . . . Charles Bartells and Stanley Caldarelli are co-chairmen of the record dance tomorrow night. Francis Gardner and Alan Wheeler are working on publicity; Edward Wendell is chairman of the entertainment and William Freshwater heads the refreshment committee.

THETA UPSILON . . . Louise Yeaney, ex '57, was on campus last weekend . . . Sally Heckendorn has been chosen to direct Sing and Swing.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . New officers for Alpha Epsilon chapter are: Jacqueline Lytle, president; Betsy Walker, first vice president; Elizabeth McGill, second vice president; Lois Reed, treasurer; Betsy Hutcheson, recording secretary; Irma Allen, corresponding secretary; Jane Wilson, social chairman; Dorothy Kelsey, rush chairman; Doris Barnshaw, chairman of names; Dorothy Wallace, activities chairman; Polly Yaple, chaplain; Gail Olson, editor; Carolyn Dart, guard and Miriam Fox, scribe . . . Third grand vice president, Mrs. G. L. Glauner, is spending the weekend with the chapter . . . Recently the alumnae chapter presented the Mortar Board members with Alpha Gamma Delta cuff-links.

AAUP Chapter Elects Charles President

New officers of the Westminster College chapter of the American Association of University Professors are: Dr. Amy Charles, associate professor of English, president; Prof. Paul Brown, assistant professor and acting chairman of the department of mathematics, vice-president and Mr. Arthur Birkby, instructor in organ and composition, secretary-treasurer.

These officers were elected at a dinner meeting of the chapter, held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 7. Dr. Roger Max was in charge of the program. He led a panel discussion on the general topic of "Fellowships For Teachers."

Retiring officers are: Dr. Myron L. Simpson, president; Prof. Albert G. Sweetser, vice-president and Prof. Thomas R. Wiley, secretary-treasurer.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

Washington Trip Reservations Open

Reservations for the annual Phi Alpha Theta trip to Washington, D. C. are now being taken in the history office. There are only accommodations for 36 students, announces William Jackson.

The trip wil begin February 16 and students will return to campus February 24. The cost of the trip is $21. A down payment of $5 is required when signing up.

Thursday a tour of Congress is planned. In the afternoon students will take an extended tour of the capital. Friday the embassy of Pakistan will be our host at a tea, movies and a tour of the embassy.

Mrs. Whitehill has announced that women students planning to go on the trip must obtain written permissions from home. Blanket permissions will not be accepted.

News Briefs

Christian Service group will sponsor an all-college Mission Emphasis session on March 4, 5 and 6. Dr. Donald Black of the United Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, will lead the session. Dr. Black will speak to a total of six meetings during this period.

Lorraine Wortmann, a junior speech major will go to the Kappa Delta Pi national convention as a delagate from the local chapter. The convention will be held March 15, 16 and 17 in Stillwater, Okla.

Jackson Calls For 36 Convention Delegates

There are still 36 more vacancies in the delegations of the Mock convention to be held April 17, 18 and 19. If anyone wishes to be a delegate, contact either William Jackson, chairman of the credentials committee, or Barbara Farrow.

The IOU's will not be collected until the badges are handed out before the convention.

Caucus meetings will be held previous to the convention. These will help students become familiar with the procedure in the election of chairman and the other workings of the convention.

There is still no definite word about the key-note speaker, announces Ann Price, chairman of the public relations committee.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Feb. 17
3:30-5 Sorority pledge tea
8-12 CYF Conference, chapel

Saturday, Feb. 18
SK Breakfast for housemothers
10:45 CYF Conference, U. P. church
2:00 CYF Conference, U. P. church
Swimming, Slippery Rock, home
Basketball, Geneva, home
8-12 CYF Conference
10:30-11:30 Sigma Nu record dance

Sunday, Feb. 19
CYF Conference
Vespers, Dr. Will Orr

Monday, Feb. 20
Chapel, Dr. John Albright

Tuesday, Feb. 21
Faculty Research club
Chapel, A. A. Representative

Wednesday, Feb. 22
YWCA
Basketball, W & J, away
Chapel, Chi Omega

Thursday, Feb. 23
ACS
Chapel, NAACP speaker

Friday, Feb. 24
3:30-5 Sorority pledge tea
Chapel, Dr. Will Orr

To Our Guest

(Continued from Page 2)

schools and for the next twenty years it will be the official language. At that time, a plebescite will determine if the official language will be changed.

Q. Is there free enterprise?

A. Yes, but not many people have the money to run a business. The government has stimulated industry by giving aid and helping companies to prosper. Stock companies are formed and stock is sold. Thus, the people can become stockholders in companies the same as they can in the United States.

Dr. Bhatty was certainly a welcome guest and we hope he will again return to campus for a visit.

Most likely to succeed—in more ways than one

He rates a hand from his prof, not only for sinking the most buckets, but also for knowing how to pick his clothes. This Arrow University button-down shirt is beautifully tailored gingham in an authentic tartan, $5.95—also available in oxford cloth (choice of nine colors), $5.00.

When worn together with Arrow chino slacks, (pleatless front and back strap) they mark the influential guy on campus. Slacks, $5.95.

ARROW
—first in fashion
SHIRTS • TIES • SLACKS

"I feel like a Coke. Do you?"

Of course. 'Most everyone does—often. Because a few moments over ice-cold Coca-Cola refresh you so. It's sparkling with natural goodness, pure and wholesome—and naturally friendly to your figure. Feel like having a Coke?

DRINK Coca-Cola

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

Two More To Go!
Let's Win Them, Titans!

The Holcad

The greatest college newspaper in Lawrence county.

Vol. 76 No. 16 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, February 24, 1956

Senator Duff To Make Keynote Address

Alumni Meet For Workers Conference

One hundred alumni are expected here tomorrow for the fourth annual Alumni Workers conference. Class representatives and officers of district clubs will meet to prepare for the annual class competition in alumni giving and to make plans for spring chapter meetings.

The afternoon sessions will be held in the Science hall lecture room. Afterwards, the group will have dinner at Russell hall followed with a talk by President Will W. Orr. The day will end with the visitors attending the Westminster-Carnegie Tech basketball game in the field house.

The afternoon session will begin at 3 p.m. in Science hall 116 with Attorney Harvey E. Moore, president of the Alumni assiciation, presiding.

A panel discussion entitled "The Independent College and The Free Enterprise System" will highlight this session. Mr. Paul Gamble, Alumni secretary, will be moderator for the discussion. Members of the panel are Dr. Arthur L. Jensen, assistant professor of history; Mr. George Masterton, instructor in sociology; Dr. Charles P. Edwards, assistant professor of political science and Mr. Samuel H. Sloan, associate professor of economics.

The invocation and greeting will be given by Dr. James M. Ferguson followed with a welcome by Dr. Orr.

The Alumni Giving board and the Alumni council will then be introduced followed with musical entertainment by Barbara Rankin and Natalie Hodack, music majors.

At 4:15 p.m., following the panel discussion, the group will divide into two informal workshops. The class representatives workshop will be held in the Science hall lecture room with Mr. Paul Gamble presiding. Mr. Harvey Moore will preside over the district officers workshop in room 111 of the Science hall.

Problems involved in chapter activities will be discussed by the district officers. The class representatives will work on the giving program.

The representatives will be writing to classmates in behalf of the Annual Alumni Giving fund, which has goals for the year of $100,000 and 1500 alumni contributors.

Dinner at Russell hall will begin at 6 p.m. with an invocation by Dr. F. E. Vogan.

Instructors Course Begins In March

During the week of March 5 students may sign up to take the American Red Cross Instructor's course, announces the department of physical education. The instruction will be given at the Westminster pool.

Any student who has passed a senior life saving course within the past year is eligible. The sessions for this course will be scheduled in the evenings.

Going To The Sweetheart Switch?

Having a problem getting a date to the Sweetheart Switch, girls? Try this method. There seems to be no resistance from these boys. Pictured left to right are: Marilyn Felton, Edward Connolly, Robert Hill and Susanne Essinger.

Cameron Announces Plans For Chapels Featuring Mozart

Mr. Donald O. Cameron, Director of the Conservatory of Music, announces plans for daily chapel during the week of February 27. The week will be devoted to the performance of compositions by Mozart in observance of the bi-centennial of his birth.

Monday, Mr. Arthur Birkby will play at the organ the second movement of the Clarinet Quintet and Fantasia in F minor; after which Mr. John Huyck will sing Il Mio Tesoro, from the opera "Don Giovani." He will be accompanied by Mr. Birkby at the piano.

Chapel on Tuesday will consist of a condensed presentation of the opera "Bastien and Bastienna" with Mr. Clarence Martin singing the role of Bastien, with Alta Vogan and Betsy Shaffer double cast in the role of Bastienna and Fred Horst singing Colas. Lorraine Adams will accompany on the piano.

Wednesday, Miss Dorothy Kirkbride and Mr. Dallmeyer Russell will play Sonata for Four Hands in D Major; following which Miss Kirkbride and Mr. Cameron will play Sonata Number 4 for violin and piano.

Thursday, a special group will sing excerpts from the Requiem Mass in D minor, under the direction of Mr. Martin. Mr. Birkby will accompany the group at the piano.

Friday, Joan Newcomb, accompanied by Marilyn Elkins, will sing Alleluja. Orville Bickel, accompanied by Florence Craig, will play Concerto for Trumpet. Romaine Gardner, assisted by Roberta Foster, violinist, and accompanied by Marilyn Elkins, will sing L'amero. Margaret Ihnat, accompanied by Carol Gallwits, will sing Ombra Felice.

Those singing in the special group on Thursday are Margaret Black, Sydne Falk, Romaine Gardner, Carol Gallwits, Mary Alice Hakes, Joan Newcomb, Alta Vogan, Lorraine Adams, Margaret Ihnat and Roberta Foster. Others singing are Marilyn Elkins, Audrey Valentine, Fred Horst, Theodore Richardson, Robert Campbell, David Livingston, Mr. Huyck and Mr. Martin.

Seniors Present Music Recital

Two music majors will present their senior recital in the college chapel Thursday, March 1, beginning at 8:15 p.m.

Elizabeth Whittington, soprano from Buena Vista, will sing selections from Handel, Mendlessohn, Schubert, Sibelius and Wolf. Lorraine Adams will accompany Miss Whittington at the piano.

Two parts of the five-part program will be presented by Carol Gallwits, organ major from Irwin. Among Miss Gallwits' selections will be Bach's famous Passacaglia in C Minor.

Ushering for the recital are Roberta Smith, Dorothy Kelsey, Donald Baumann and Roger Kelsey.

Douthett Announces New Staff Members

Jeanne Douthett, Scrawl editor, announces that her editorial staff has selected four new staff members for the English literary magazine.

Betsy Hutcheson, junior English major; John Reed, senior English major; Ray Sphar, senior biology major and Tom McFarland, sophomore journalism major have been added to the staff.

Two other positions have been filled. New exchange editor is Margaret Burrus and new circulation manager is Ruby Parker. Replacing Dr. Myrta McGinnis as advisor to Scrawl is Mr. Paul Whitney.

Speaker Secured, States Meet For April Mock Convention

Senator James A. Duff has accepted an invitation to be the keynote speaker at the Mock Convention being held April 17, 18 and 19 in the Field house, announced Dr. Wallace Jamison yesterday.

Dr. Jamison sent a formal invitation directly to Senator Duff. Yesterday a telegram was received saying that Senator Duff had accepted the invitation and will speak at the opening session of the Convention.

Details of Senator Duff's proposed speech are not known.

Duff has been a strong supporter of Eisenhower ever since the move to "draft Ike" in the 1948 Republican convention. He was also one of the head men in the G.O.P. draft - Eisenhower - for - President movement before the Republican convention in 1952.

In 1948 at the Republican national convention that summer, Duff defied the powerful Pennsylvania Old Guard and risked everything in an attempt to stop Thomas E. Dewey. He advocated drafting Eisenhower. When Dewey was selected as candidate, Duff went down hill politically.

But when Dewey lost the election Duff bounced back strongly being elected to the U.S. Senate in 1951, beating the Democratic incumbent, Sen. Francis J. Myers, in the general election.

Senator Duff, at 63, was first elected to a political office in 1946 as governor of Pennsylvania.

He has been described as an independent, middle-of-the-road Republican who likes action and plenty of it, and who believes that it's results that count.

Editor Calls Meeting

A meeting of all Holcad reporters will be held in room 210 in Old Main Monday, Feb. 26 at 4 p.m., announces Jeannette Traendly, editor.

Anyone unable to attend should contact Thomas McFarland, Holcad news editor.

Organizations Plan Weekend of Activities

Among the many social activities listed for the month of March is the Greek Weekend, beginning Friday, March 16. Pan-Hellenic council and Inter-Fraternity council have planned all-college functions for the three days in which all Greek men and women will participate.

Friday night, the Inter-Fraternity council will hold their annual formal at the Cathedral in New Castle. During the dance one of the four fraternity candidates will be crowned I.F.C. king of 1956.

Colorful booths, entertainment and refreshments will turn Old 77 into a carnival scene for the Saturday night's entertainment. Each sorority and fraternity will handle its own booth. Prizes will be awarded for outstanding exhibits.

The Greek Weekend will end Sunday, March 18 when each sorority and fraternity will attend vespers in a body. The vespers topic will concern social groups at Westminster.

Alice Paul and William Jackson are directing plans for the weekend. Assisting the council presidents are committee chairmen James Dorsch, entertainment and master of ceremonies; Marion Wolk, clean-up; Frank Wilgocki, planning; Robert Detrick, publicity; Ralph Scott, fun house; Jean Aungst, food; Alfred Roe, finance; Harry Obley, tickets and Barbara Bachman, chaperones.

Sweetheart Switch Marks Leap Year

CWENS will present their Sweetheart Switch at College hall tonight from 8:30 to 11:30. The Switch is tailored for the big holiday girls can celebrate only once every four years.

Dancing will be to bands of today and yesterday, such as Glenn Miller, Stan Kenton and Les Elgart. Records have been selected by Jean Wilson.

Decorations were created under the direction of Carol Roberts to set the mood for the evening. Pat Kemp announces that there will be some "top-notch entertainment" including the "Hillsiders." Door prizes and special surprises have been promised. Beverly Bemiss is in charge of refreshments.

Informal-but-dressy clothes are preferred. Tickets can be obtained from Mary Lou Mansell for $.50.

Harris Calculates Pennies At 7,800

Orville Harris was the closest to the correct number of pennies donated in the Penny Walk conducted on February 14 as part of the W. U. S. campaign when he "calculated" the number to be 7,800 pennies. There was a total of 7,927 in all. The classes ranked as follows in the competition: sophomores, $28.09; freshmen, $24.81; juniors, $19.14 and seniors, $7.23. The juniors reached the final line first, then challenged the other classes by starting back again. At the end of the day the sophomores had surpassed the other classes. However, the freshmen were close behind.

Notice: As soon as the weather breaks the freshmen will get an opportunity to gain revenge on the sophomores. This spring another Penny Walk race will be featured . . . this time along the sidewalk from Old Main to the Library.

The members of the faculty raised $17 in nickles on Penny Walk day to bring the total of the day's activities to $96.27.

The candle and calculating project brought in $24.54. As of Thursday, February 23, the grand total raised by group contributions, individual envelope donations and the special fund-raising activities amounted to $447.12. Donations are still being accepted.

Honorary Sponsors Bake Sale Sat.

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary is sponsoring a bake sale at Sewell's Saturday morning from 9-12.

The bake sale is part of a campaign to raise money for the convention fund.

Apathy or Action Which do you Want?

Students, you have complained your last!

Never should there be another complaint about the administration, the faculty or the policies of the college. No complaints should be made about Student Council.

At Westminster there is a great apathy among students. You do not enter wholeheartedly into the activities of the college. This means anything which involves work and your valuable time.

Those who complain the loudest, who want the changes and who continue to gripe are the students who do nothing, absolutely nothing, to help in the expression of student policy. Whether you realize it or not, hot air never got a job done. It never improved a situation.

Always a few, a very few, do the work. Someone else has done more than his share. Well, all the someone elses are fed up. They should no longer have to carry the ball alone. You are just as much a part of Westminster as the other students. Don't you think its time for you to do your quota?

Student Council is your governing body. You want it to have power. You gripe that Student Council does nothing about certain problems. However, do you ever know just what is going on in Student Council? Do you know the topics which are brought up for discussion? Do you know the types of problems which can be discussed in these meetings?

If your answer is no to these questions you should try to find out the answers.

A handful of students are trying to represent you. They cannot do this if you are ignorant about their activities. They cannot represent you if they do not know how you feel about their problems.

Stop complaining to your friends. Complain where it will be heard by those who will be able to do something about it. If you don't know the answers, ask. Perhaps Student Council will be able to find out.

You will have to act if you want a change. No one is going to plead with you to go to Student Council meetings. It is your duty to go.

If you want Student Council to be the governing body you believe it should be, you will have to come out of your dreamy world and take part.

The Holcad

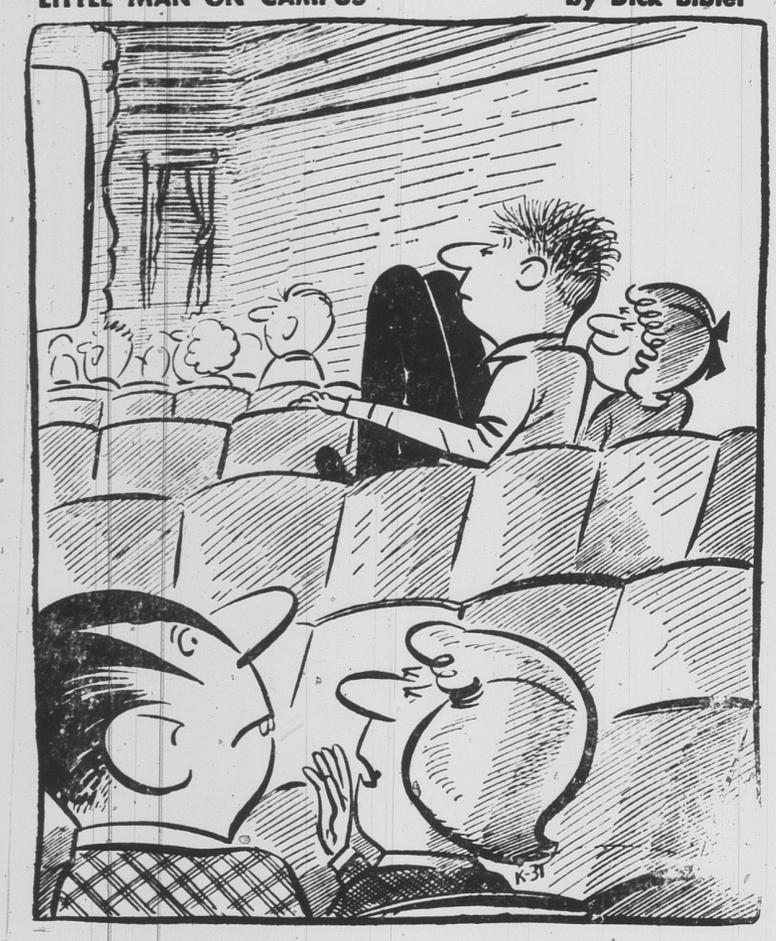

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday, February 24, 1956 No. 16

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

I see Freda finally got a date with her basketball player.

Indo-China Progresses . . .

University Booms

By Barbara Farrow

Many historians have predicted that the future of the world lies in the Far East. It has also been proven that a well-educated and contented people are the best defenses against Communism.

The education of the students in the Far East has been slow in developing on the college level. Most of the students have had to go to foreign countries to obtain the education that their own country could not provide.

Recently the University of Viet Nam in Indo-China has developed in this previously strife-ridden country. For many years the French had operated the French speaking University of Hanoi. In May of 1955 this university was turned over to the Viet Nam government and was given its present name. Now it stands as one of the biggest protection methods against Communism.

According to the Geneva agreement, the northern section of the university had to be brought to Hanoi. This influx of six hundred refugee professors and students seriously crowded the meager facilities available. There is a shortage of buildings due to the increased number of students and a lack of funds to provide housing for these poor refugees.

The school has very few laboratories, and the ones that they possess are not well equipped for research. The libraries are poor and incapable of maintaining a lending service. However, these problems are being eased by loans from friendly countries and organizations like WUS.

A school is never complete without a good faculty. To obtain good instructors, in addition to local Viet Nam professors, scholars from France, the United States and Australia have been added to the faculty. Of course this international faculty requires the use of three languages—Vietnamese, French and English. Even though most of the students can understand all three languages rather well, most of them attend classes with three dictionaries.

With these handicaps and problems, the University of Viet Nam promises to be the best defense against Communist aggression in that section of the Orient.

As citizens of the United States and contributors to WUS, we have helped Viet Nam and ourselves to fight the Red Plague.

Grapefruit Causes . . .

Trials and Tribulations

By Marion McConnell Wolk

When a group of heterogeneous college women (and most groups are heterogeneous, thank goodness) gather around a breakfast table, their conversation is likely to be incoherent, sparse, perhaps grumpy or, heaven forbid, cheerful—especially if some or all of them are eating grapefruit.

Now there are various species of grapefruit as well as of grapefruit eaters. Let us assume, however, that the grapefruit being consumed is the regular juicy, citrus-sour variety. And on this occasion, let us also assume that the grapefruit has been uncut—that is, no sharp little knife has made the triangular cut around each section of the friut to make the "digging out" process easier.

The adventurous, irritatingly chipper riser is the first to begin the scooping project. With a quick plunge of a determined teaspoon, this person, whom we'll call Connie, is successful in erupting what is commonly called a geyser, which unfortunately spouts to Connie's right-hand neighbor. This neighbor, soft-spoken Sue, hides a grimace as she quickly dabs the juice off a new yellow Christmas blouse. To Connie's disturbed and repeated cries of, "Oh, Sue, I'm sorry," Sue smiles forgivingly, at the same time making a mental note not to sit next to Connie at breakfast again.

Down at the other end of the table is pale-mouthed Jane. She's forgotten to put her lipstick on, or maybe she just didn't have time so early in the morning. Lids drooping and collar askew, Jane sighs as she glances at the belligerent-looking fruit on her plate. Finally she musters her courage and begins the struggle amid muttrings like, "What do those cooks think we are, barbarians?"

Betty Lou, who has the sniffles and an accompanying red nose, holds her grapefruit menacingly with one hand. "Now don't you dare squirt me. I'm only indulging for the sake of my health, believe me." With that she makes a valiant stab, successfully, and spends the next three-and-a-half minutes squinting and puckering as the fruit is masticated by dutiful jaws.

The remaining person at the table, Anne, has been fairly quiet all the while, only murmuring sympathies over Sue's grapefruit sprinkled blouse.

Grapefruit have their place of relative importance in college life. Like everything else, you have to take them with a grain of salt!

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Barbie Farrow

After the accidental drowning of an MIT freshman during a fraternity hazing stunt, the college students of today have been critisized by oldsters for being wild and unsensible. I know that it is impolite to contradict your elders, but I disagree. To back my statement that today's students are not wilder than those of yesterday, I would like to quote Lunt's History of England as he describes the 13th century university student. "The problem of discipline was difficult. There were no athletic sports, either intramural or intercollegiate, on which surplus energy could be expended. One result was the devotion of a good deal of energy to the hazing of freshmen and other forms of rough horseplay . . . which included much drinking and brawling." So I guess the modern day students aren't as wicked as they are pictured.

* * *

With the talk of politics being prevalent with conventions and primaries coming up, we often forget about the troubles of other foreign countries. When France's new premier, Guy Mollet, was greeted at a public appearance by a barrage of rotten fruit, he soon discovered that his peachy job had turned out to be a lemon.

* * *

Our sympathies should also go out to a Japanese counterfeiter who turned out a perfect batch of 10,000 yen bank notes. The job was excellent and he would have gotten away with it if he hadn't made one mistake—the Japanese government doesn't print any bank notes for sums higher than 1,000 yen. I guess he discovered that crime doesn't pay.

* * *

If this remarkable invention progresses to the domestic fields, the Americans of tomorrow won't be afraid of nosy neighbors, but will try to hide their secrets from the "creepy-peepy." What is a "creepy-peepy?" Well, it is a new portable TV station that the army has developed for use as a forward observer on the battlelines. After the camera is focused it will produce pictures for two hours and can transmit them for a mile. Can you imagine what would happen if this peeping Tom got on the open market? By a vast number of "creepy-peepies" mother could keep track of her whole tribe—including Pop.

* * *

Scientists have also just come up with a new "peace-of-mind" drug, promazine, which is used to calm agitated mental patients. I wonder if a milder form of this might be helpful for final exam nerves. They better hurry because six week tests are just two weeks away.

News Headlines . . .

Strikes Continue

State House Passes Income and Sales Taxes—Bipartisanship rode to victory in the House of Representatives to pass the income, sales and gross receipts tax package which Governor Leader has agreed to sign if it is passed by the Senate.

Twins Indicted for Slaying Friend—The fourteen-year-old twins of Wheeling, West Virginia, Thomas and Joseph Williams, were indicted by a grand jury for the slaying of their playmate David Powell.

New Floods Peril The Northwest—Heavy rains which have caused rivers in northern California and Oregon to rise, have renewed the flood threat to the same region that was devastated by Christmas week floods.

New Strike Talks Under Way—The Federal Mediation and Conciliation service started a new round of talks in Washington to seek a settlement of the 131 day Westinghouse Electric corporation strike.

U. S. Sends Arms to Saudi Arabia—The U. S. sent 18 Walker Bulldog tanks to Saudi Arabia after the shipment had been delayed by a temporary embargo set by President Eisenhower. Israel is also pressing for shipment of arms.

Santee Banned From Amateur Sports—The Amateur Athletic union banned star runner and Olympic hopeful, Wes Santee, from running in amateur meets because he accepted a $400 check.

U. S. Skaters Take Both World Championships—Sixteen year old Carol Heiss dethroned Tenley Albright for the women's championship to become the second youngest world champion in history. Hayes Allen Jenkins successfully defended his men's title with two other American skaters taking second and third places.

Pro-Western party holds in Greece—The pro-Western party of Premier Constantine Karamanlis held a majority of the parliament seats after Sunday's election. This is an encouraging sign in the fight against Communism.

Ike offers U. S. aid to Europe—President Eisenhower announced that surplus farm commodities will be made available to the people of Western Europe who are suffering from one of the coldest winters in history.

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

The record stands at eleven and eleven. This is how the slate has been marked so far this season for the current edition of the Westminster Basketball Titans. At first glance, there seems to be justification in the syndicated columnists calling our team the most disappointing one in the area this year. However, the record isn't as bad as it looks. Our losses, in nearly every case, have been by a margin of just a few points. In today's racehorse basketball, any margin less than ten points is negligible except in the won-lost column. A lead such as this can be built up in a matter of a few minutes by the team that gets the breaks and controls the ball right before the buzzer sounds.

Highpoints

We also won quite a few. By defeating such big name colleges as Baldwin-Wallace and Youngstown, we made sportswriters realize that we were a school to be watched. In defeating Waynesburg in a thriller on our own floor our basketball boys avenged the football Titans.

All our games have been great from the viewers standpoint. Even though we didn't win every one, the viewer could see that our boys were out there doing their best and that makes for good basketball. Probably the best moment of the season came in a game we lost. Big Jim Riley was the cause of it all when he barreled down the floor to bucket thirty-eight points against our old rival, Geneva, breaking the school record for the most points scored in a single game.

Future Prospects

Prospects for the next year look even better. Although we will feel the loss of five seniors, we will still have the majority of our seasoned players back with us. To add to this, we have our junior varsity from which to draw. Although sportswriters have played down our junior varsity squad, there are still some good prospects for our first team next year.

That about finishes our season. With the game on the twenty-eighth of this month, we will wind up our 1956 edition. Let's give the boys credit for doing their best and doing a great job with a tough schedule.

The second part of the sports column this week is being used to pay tribute to a fellow who has done a great job. For the past year or so Jim Falk has entered the editorial room of the Holcad each week to piece together the sports page. Being sports editor isn't an easy job. As a matter of fact, it is so big a job that it took two people to fill the vacancy left by our former editor. To make matters worse, these new editors are faced with a problem; we need a name for the column that will replace Uncle Jim's Falklore. Any suggestions that are offered during the next week will be greatly appreciated.

New Tread For Your Trod

SEE

DOC FUSCO

Bank Building

First of Riley's Points

Jim Riley (91) scores the first of his 38 points as he broke his own scoring record against Geneva.

Geneva Edges Titans; Riley Breaks Own Record

Geneva's Covenanters made an amazing comeback in the last five minutes to nose out Westminster 78-77 last Saturday night at the Field house before a crowd of 3000.

Trailing 69-59, they started a comeback consisting of deadly foul shooting and an all court press which befuddled the locals. It was climaxed when John Swogger drove in for an underhand layup with 12 seconds remaining for the winning points. This was the only time that Geneva led in the game.

Riley Breaks Records

The loss dropped Westminster's record to 10-11 while Geneva now sports a nifty 18-2 mark. Riley led all scorers with 38 points which, although a new Field house record, was overlooked in the defeat. The 38 tallies broke the school record set by Riley last year when he bucketed 37 against Carnegie Tech. Included among these tallies were 20 free throws, breaking the mark Riley made when he dropped 16 against Pitt last winter.

Titans Lead at Half

Westminster held the upper hand in the first half as they controlled the boards and shot 53 per cent from the field while limiting the visitors to six field goals. They drove to an early 12-8 advantage as Riley and Rankin tallied all the points; Riley 8, Rankin 4.

Geneva made numerous errors while the Titans played their best brand of ball exhibited all season. Rankin, Riley, Strehler and Davis were hot from all angles while Davis did a tremendous job under the Geneva bank board. The Titans left the floor at intermission leading by 40-27.

The Covies spurted briefly right at the beginning of the second half as the Titans cooled off from the field, but did make the free throws they got.

But soon the bombarding paid off, as Riley, especially, sank everything under the sun. With 14 minutes to go the Titans held a 56-38 margin. However, a factor that proved to be decisive toward the conclusion of the contest was that Davis, who had four personals on him, was permitted to stay in the game instead of being pulled and saved for the final moments when his efforts might have proved beneficial to Westminster against the full court press.

Geneva Fights Back

The Covenanters began the long trail back, but a Titan victory looked very possible even after Davis fouled out, because soon afterward Stan Yukica of Geneva also left the contest on personals. Into the game came Don Schena, another performer who was to play a major factor in the rally. Strehler and Tony Stillson, who had done a terrific job on defense were banished on personals not long afterwards. The ten-point lead remained with 5 minutes to go on the scoreboard clock.

The lead was quickly cut to five, but then Riley and Bill Pryor dropped in a pair of fouls and Dick Jordan tapped in a rebound to make the score read 75-67. Ken Woodeshick and John Swogger each sank two charity tries and Schena, with the full court press in operation, stole the ball and banked it through the basket for a 75-73 deficit.

Back came Riley with two free throws; however, one by Schena and two by Nick Tepavich cut the margin to one point. This set the stage for Swokker's winning bucket when Riley accidentally knocked the ball out of bounds giving the Covies possession.

The Titans still had time for Jordan to get off a desperate jump shot from the corner, but the ball hit the back of the hoop and was knocked out of bounds by a Geneva player as the final buzzer sounded.

Swimmers Sink Rockettes 45-30 For First Victory

On Saturday the Titan swimmers won their first meet of the season defeating Slippery Rock 45-30. High scorers for Westminster were Ken Wessell and Bud Grip with eight points each. Wessell piled up his points with a first place in the 200 yard breast stroke and a second in the individual medley.

Grip's points came on a win in the 440 yard free style and a second in the 220 yard free style. High man for Slippery Rock was McCorkle who won both the 100 yard free style and the 220 yard free style. Three of the Titans swam their last dual meet; these men are seniors who have but one more chance to swim for the Blue and White, that being at the Penn-Ohio championship swim meet.

The three seniors Tom McGrath, Ron Booser and team captain, Fred Wagner, piled up eleven points between them on Saturday. It is a tragedy that the team, which had such high hopes at the beginning of the season, was so stricken with sickness and injury they could not reach their full potential until the last meet of the season.

Other scorers for Westminster were Jerry Long, Burdette Keppel, Bob Stewart and Jim Corbett. The Titans took five individual titles and a first place in the 330 yard medley relay.

Titans Beat W & J; 80 - 52

Westminster displayed a strong offense in whipping Washington and Jefferson, 80-52, on Wednesday night at the losers' floor.

The Titans led right from the start as they held a 43-22 advantage at halftime. W&J played better ball for a majority of the second half, with their field goal percentage increasing, but in the waning moments the Titans poured it on to win going away.

Jim Riley's 24 points, George Strehler's 18 and Harold Davis's 16 featured for the victors. Top point-getter for W&J was Harry Sydor with 13 tallies.

Chi O's Take Lead In Intramural Tilts

Girl's basketball is shaping up into a close race. The standings of the top two teams are as follows:

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| Chi Omega | 3 | 0 |
| Sig Kap | 2 | 1 |
| Alpha Gam | 1 | 1 |
| Theta U | 1 | 2 |
| Kappa Delta | 1 | 2 |
| Beta Sig | 0 | 2 |

Chi Omega and Sig Kap lead the league with first and second places respectively. Kappa Delta, Alpha Gamma Delta and Theta Upsilon have one win apiece, while Beta Sig has dropped 2.

JEWELRY OF THE FINEST QUALITY

J. R. Meek, Jeweler

We also repair

SN Dominates Intramurals

In games played in the "A" league thus far this week, Block W beat Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Nu defeated Sigma Phi Epsilon and Block W edged the Kap's. In "B" league activity the Sig Eps turned back Block W, Alpha Sigma Phi beat Block W, and Sigma Nu won by forfeit over the Vets. The Sigma Nu's continue to dominate league play and are still undefeated in the inter-fraternity standings. Robert "Goose" Davis of Sigma Nu leads the "A" league in scoring with 126 points, and fraternity brother Bob Duvall leads the "B" league hoopsters with 125 counters. Wes Hyde of Sigma Phi Epsilon is leading the "C" league with 68 points. The standings through Wednesday are as follows:

"A"

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| S N | 8 | 0 |
| SPE | 6 | 3 |
| Bl. W | 5 | 3 |
| PKT | 2 | 6 |
| Kaps | 2 | 7 |

"B"

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| SN | 7 | 1 |
| Globies | 7 | 1 |
| ASP | 4 | 4 |
| SPE | 4 | 5 |
| Bl. W | 3 | 6 |
| Vets | 0 | 9 |

"C"

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| SPE | 6 | 0 |
| SN | 6 | 0 |
| Sacks | 5 | 1 |
| Apes | 4 | 2 |
| PKT | 3 | 3 |
| ASP | 2 | 4 |
| Hammers | 1 | 5 |
| Phi Pi | 1 | 5 |
| F. Hill | 1 | 5 |

Inter-fraternity standings

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| SN | 10 | 0 |
| SPE | 6 | 6 |
| PKT | 2 | 5 |
| ASP | 2 | 9 |

For Those Lenten Meals

A Complete Selection of Rolls

Honey
Maple
Cinnamon
Hot-Cross Buns

WILMINGTON BAKERY

Walker's Have It

FOR STUDY ROOM NEEDS

- Study Lamps
- Light Bulbs
- Extension Cords
- Triple Outlets
- Hangers Hooks and Tacks.

At Walker's Hdwre.

Across from the Bank

It's Shopping Time At

Brown's Food Market

For Those Midnight Snacks

THE STORE WITH MORE

Best Quality Basket

Weave Desk Blotters

ALL COLORS

10¢ each

Fred Williamson's

For a Coffe Break

During that Class Break

Stop at—

THE GRILLE

We Specialize in PIZZA

SOCIAL WHIRL

Cwens Dance Highlights Weekend; Additional Groups Name Officers

By Dianne Oursler

If you weren't aware that it is Leap Year, it is through no fault of the Cwens that you still don't know! The sophomore gals did a fine job of advertising their dance, "Sweetheart Switch," to be held tonight. It would not seem like a Saturday night without a basketball game followed by a record dance, and once again these are on the social calendar.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Officers elected on Monday night are as follows: Sarah Haddad, president; Alice Johnson, vice president; Nancy Taggart, corresponding secretary;; Barbara Rankin, recording secretary; Marlene Wasser, treasurer; Barbara Town, assistant treasurer; Lou Ann Purvis, chaplain; Emy Lu Fohrenbacher, warden; Patricia Kemp, rush chairman; Marsha Hicks, assistant rush chairman; Joanne Snyder, pledge trainer; Carolyn Jones, scholarship chairman; Jane Crouch, parliamentarian; Nancy Etzel, social chairman; Joanne McKinnon, assistant social chairman; Ruth Nichol, welfare chairman and Jean Aungst, Urn editor . . Joyce Gillespie, ex'57, Nancy Wiggins Carroll, '53 and Verlee Jones Clinefelter, '53 were on campus recently.

CHI OMEGA . . Installation of officers was held on Monday evening . . The pledge class is having a tea this afternoon with the pledges of Beta Sigma Omicron . . Phyllis Lincoln, '54, visited the chapter last weekend . . Ann Price went to Pennsylvania State university recently.

KAPPA DELTA . . Newly elected officers were installed Monday night . . . Appointed officers named are: Jane Williams, historian; Sue Starn, scholarship; Barbara Stott, activities and parliamentarian; Kay Loder, guard and social service; Beverly Bemiss, athletics and Julie Filer, sergeant-at-arms . . . Carol Fairlamb is chairman of the party to be held for the pledges on Saturday, March 10 . . Recent visitors were: Doris Langfield Doran, '54, Mary Armstrong Demvan, '54, Joyce Kirkpatrick '55, Jean McGeoch, '55 and Lynn Jones Sipe, ex'57.

QUADRANGLE . . New officers of the organization are: Roberta Foster, president; Barbara Asbury, vice president; Myrna Boal, corresponding secretary; Eleanor Nye, recording secretary and Nedora Campbell, treasurer . . Evelyn Dull is in charge of the record dance after the Carnegie Tech game Saturday night.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Jeannette Traendly visited Pennsylvania State university last weekend . . Helen Burry, ex'58, was here the past weekend.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Activation ceremonies were held last Monday for Howard Thomas . . Hugh Ferguson has been appointed comptroller of Pennsylvania Lambda chapter by the alumni board . . Weston Hyde was named athletic chairman while Paul Kreiling was appointed social chairman.

THETA UPSILON . . Appointed chairmen of various committees have been named: Margaret Bickel, scholarship; Joanne Gould, athletics; Carol Paulie, rush; Marilyn Elkins, social; Virginia Dickson, homecoming; Barbara MacGregor, historian; Marian Shenberger, guard and Sandra McCartney, fraternity study . . Helen Snyder is in charge of the activation dinner to be held at the Tavern on March 12.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . Carolyn Dart is the general chairman of the "Windy Whirl" dance to be held March 2. Miriam Fox is heading the decorating committee. Proceeds will go toward helping the cerebral palsey cause . . Odeil Addleman, '55, was on campus recently.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Wednesday night a Father-Son banquet was held at the Villa Nova in Farrell . . Jim Hall, ex'54, visited campus last weekend . . George Merwin, Robert Leach, Gary Weidner and Larry Bobst went to Upsilon chapter at Pennsylvania State university.

Engagements

DAVIS-PAXTON

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, of Mercer, announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley, to Norman Paxton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Paxton of Fredonia.

Norman, a sophomore, is a member of the junior varsity basketball team. Miss Davis is employed by the First National bank of Mercer.

Marriages

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glass of Warren, Ohio announce the marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Terrence G. Tyrrell of Vienna, Ohio. The double-ring ceremony took place February 11 at the First Evangelical United Brethren church in Warren, Ohio.

Barbara is a sophomore psychology major and a member of Beta Sigma Omicron sorority. Tyrrell will graduate from Case Institute of Technology in June, where he is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Debaters Compete In Tournament

Saturday, Feb. 25, the men's debate team of Westminster, accompanied by Mr. Melvin P. Moorhouse, will travel to Mount Mercy college in Pittsburgh for the Annual Debate tournament. Approximately twenty-five schools will be represented at this tournament.

Making their debut with the team will be Frank DeFelice and Vincent Julian upholding the affirmative on the question of guaranteed annual wage. Debating on the Westminster negative team will be Joseph McFate and Alan Wheeler, who also represented us at Kent.

The debaters will leave about 7 a.m. Saturday and will spend the day at Mount Mercy college.

Nineteen Seniors Begin Secondary Teaching

Nineteen seniors will begin practice teaching in area schools beginning Monday, Feb. 27. Robert Laird, started last week in Youngstown.

Those beginning are Paul Bohach, Shirley Domin, Janet Dumbaugh, Carol Galbreath, Ralph Hofrichter, Russell Holst, Betty Jane Howcroft, Kathleen Johnson, Carole Jones and Doris Piccino.

Others are Janet Reddy, Patricia Ryan, Donald Sheraw, Nancy Siehl, Roberta Smith, Marilyn Steadman, Tony Stillson, Margaret Williams and Marion McConnell Wolk.

Area schools in which the Westminster seniors will be teaching are Butler, New Castle, Youngstown, Farrell, Hickory, Sharon, Mercer, West Middlesex and New Wilmington.

R.C.A. Hi-Fi Record Players

RADIOS — PORTABLES

3-SPEED PHONOGRAPHS

SEWELL'S

We install Record Player Needles
Without Charge When Purchased Here

Campus Calendar

Friday, Feb. 24
3:30-5 Sorority pledge tea
8:30-11:30 Cwens informal dance
Saturday, Feb. 25
Alumni conference
Basketball, Carnegie Tech, home
10-11:30 record dance
Sunday, Feb. 27
Vespers, Dr. Wallace Jamison
Monday, Feb. 27
Chapel, Mozart Bi-centennial
Tuesday, Feb. 28
Chapel, Mozart Bi-centennial
Basketball, Gannon, home
Wednesday, Feb. 29
Chapel, Mozart, Bi-centennial
Y.W.C.A.
Thursday, March 1
Chapel, Mozart, Bi-centennial
4:15 N.C.C.D. meeting
7:00 I.R.C.
8:15 Recital, Carol Gallwits and Elizabeth Whittington
Friday, March 2
Chapel, Mozart Bi-centennial

Thielemann Wins Rotary Fellowship

Bruce W. Thielemann, a 1955 graduate of Westminster college, has been named one of 128 outstanding graduate students from 32 countries to receive a Rotary Foundation fellowship for advanced study abroad during the 1956-57 academic year.

Thielemann will receive a grant of $2.500 for the total of more than $300,000 awarded by Rotary for 1956-57. He is now studying at Pittsburgh-Xenia seminary for the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

In preparation for a career in the ministry, Thielemann will study theology at the University of Edinburgh in Scotland.

The Fellowships program was inaugurated in 1947 as one of Rotary's contributions toward the promotion of international understanding, good will and peace. To date more than 800 young men in women from 61 countries have been awarded grants for a year of graduated study in 40 countries. Total grants since 1947 are in excess of $2,000,000.

Test Applications Due Warns Dean

Mr. John R. Edwards, Jr., dean of men, announces that Selective Service College Qualification test will be given here April 19. Students must submit applications before midnight, March 5 if they wish to take the exam.

These exams provide local Selective Service boards with evidence so they may consider student deferments. Eligible students must intend to request deferment as a student, be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction and must not have previously taken the test.

Cooper Speaks At Faculty Research Club

"The Elizabethan Conception of the Universe" was the topic of discussion for the fourth regular meeting of the Westminster Research club Tuesday, Feb. 21.

Mr Sherod M. Cooper, Jr. discussed the topic at 8:15 in the faculty lounge of McGill library.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. and Sat.
"TRIAL"
Glenn Ford

Mon. and Tues.
LUCY GALLANT
Jane Wyman — Carleon Heston

Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
LAST COMMAND
Sterling Hayden — Ernest Borgnine
Richard Carlson — Anna Marie Albergetti

Coming: —
DESPERATE HOURS

Study Abroad . . .

Many Available Opportunities

Have you ever thought of traveling abroad and going to school? At one time or an other, most of us have considered it, but have crossed the idea off our future list because of financial problems. However, there are plenty of individual colleges and universities which offer scholarships to American students in addition to the world known Fullbright and Rhodes scholarships.

The Fulbright program is part of the international, educational exchange activity of the Department of State. It is financed through the use of foreign credits and currencies which have been acquired through the sale of surplus property abroad for educational exchange. Students are chosen on the basis of academic qualification, ability to work independently, stated purpose and the indispensible ingredient of personality. Students who go to small colleges are given the same consideration as students who go to large universities. Thus, a Westminster student with the same qualifications as a Pitt student would have as much chance to be chosen.

Contrary to public opinion, the Fulbright scholarship's primary purpose is not helping bright students get Ph. D's, but to give representative young Americans, who are qualified for further study, the chance to study abroad at a foreign university. Since this program was inaugurated eight years ago, 5,549 American students have gone abroad to study at universities in 27 different countries. In addition to the students, the Fulbright program provides grants for American teachers, professors and lecturers to go abroad.

The Fulbright scholarship is just one of thousands that are offered each year to American college students. If you are interested in becoming a foreign student for graduate work, you should consult the head of your major department or your advisor. They usually have all scholarship material—for home and abroad—for your major subject. Other scholarships may be obtained by writing to foreign universities. These scholarships are for student use and I can't think of any better student than a Westminster student to take advantage of them.

Five Attend Band Concert

Five students will represent Westminster at the Intercollegiate State Band festival March 17 at Mansfield State Teachers college, Mansfield, Pa. The representatives were announced by Mr. Donald O. Cameron, director of the music conservatory and president of the Pennsylvania Collegiate Bandmasters association.

Those students playing in the festival are Darl Hollen, cornet; Eric Wilson, baritone horn; Orville Bickel, trumpet; Nancy McCune, flute and Allan Kohl, saxaphone. Rehearsals will begin March 15 for the concert to be presented Saturday evening, March 17.

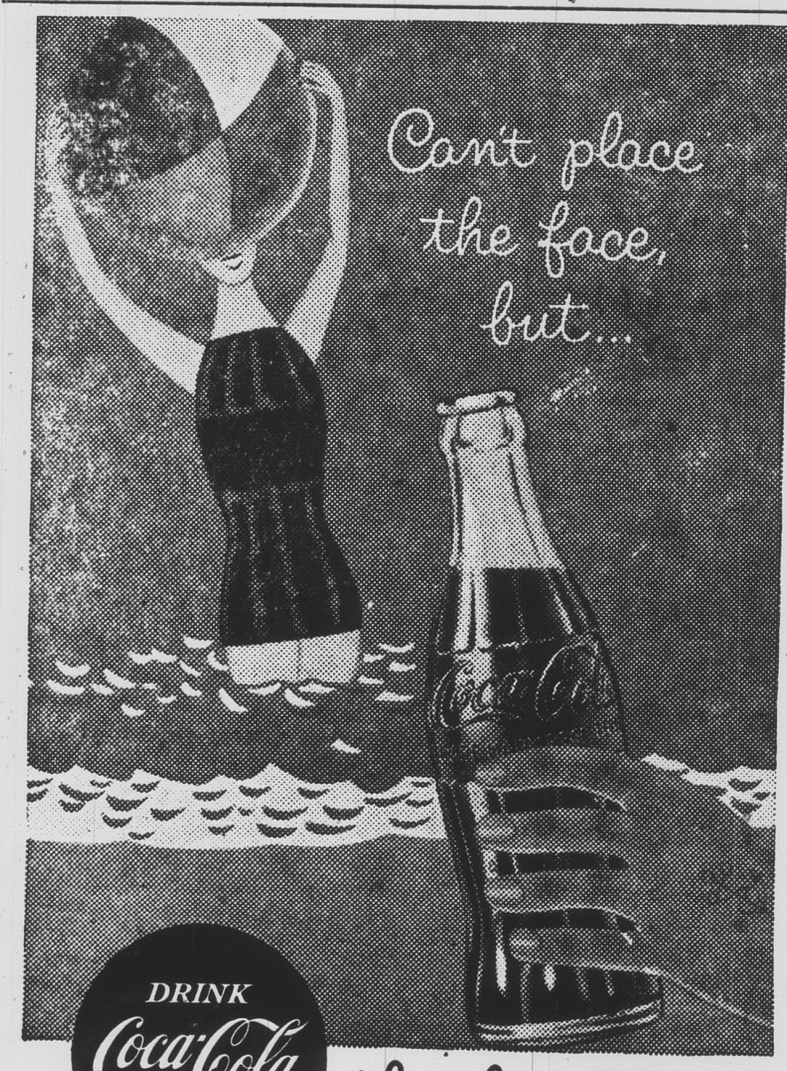

Last year Westminster was host to the festival.

Guest conductor will be Mr. Lee Chrisman of Boston university. Mr. Bertram Francis, director of bands at Mansfield, will be host director. Approximately twenty-five colleges of the state will be represented. Mr. Cameron will drive the group to Mansfield.

News Briefs

New officers of Delta Phi Alpha, German honorary, are Frank Wilgocki, president and Lorraine Wortmann, secretary. Plans for the semester include a German film and a spring picnic.

Miss Beulah Campbell, assistant professor of education, attended the American Association of School Administrators last week. Miss Campbell went with Mrs. Olive Hewitt, former member of Westminster's faculty, who is now teaching in New Castle schools.

the figure's familiar

... And familiar things are the best. Like Coca-Cola. Full of fresh, keen sparkle ... natural quick energy ... and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Have it whenever you like.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1954, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

All That Money!
W O W !

The Holcad

The greatest college newspaper in Lawrence county.

Vol. 76 No. 17 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, March 2, 1956

COLLEGE TO RECEIVE $150,000

P A T Students Complete Trip Arrangements

Final plans are being made for the Phi Alpha Theta trip to Washington next week. The group will leave from Old 77 Wed. March 7 at 10 p.m.

After checking into the Harrington hotel Thursday morning, the students will go to the capital where they will meet with Frank M. Clark, Pennsylvania's representative to the 25th district. Mr. Clark will provide tickets for getting into the senate and house of representatives.

A visit to the committees and a bus tour of the city will conclude the planned business of the day.

Friday morning the Westminster group will return to the capital for a visit with the senators and representatives and visit more committees. Following lunch, the Pakistan Embassy will entertain the visitors at a tea.

Saturday morning, another sightseeing tour of the city will be taken and the tour will end at noon when the group will return to campus.

Seldon Addresses AAUP Meeting

Dr. William K. Selden, executive secretary of the National Commission on Accrediting, was the speaker at a special meeting of the Westminster college chapter of the American Assoeiation of University Professors held yesterday in Browne hall lounge.

For the past several years the National Commission on Accrediting has been working to coordinate the activities of the various accrediting groups. Before coming to this position last June, Dr. Selden was president of Illinois college at Jacksonville, Ill.

He has also held various administrative posts at Princeton where he received his B. A., Brown and Northwestern and has acted as special adviser to the Department of Defense, the Ford Foundation's Fund for the Advancement of Education, the Association for Education in Journalism and the American Council on Education.

Costumes Are Hard Work

Miss Charlotte Forsberg, with her student assistants, is working on the costumes for the play "Noah." The costumes, which are the original designs of Miss Forsberg, are being sewed and fitted in time for the opening performance in the Little Theatre March 12.

Huyck Gives Voice Recital

Mr. John Huyck, tenor and instructor in voice at Westminster college will present a voice recital in the college chapel Tuesday, March 6, at 8:15 p.m. He will be accompanied by Mr. Arthur Birkby, also of the music department.

Mr. Huyck's program will include: Abendempfindung, An Chloe, Ich baue ganz, Mozart; Widmung, Dein Angesiche, and Die Rose, die Lilie and die Taube by Schumann. Other selections are Sonntag, Ruhe, Suessliebchen and Rothe Abendwolken zieh'n by Brahms; Le Faune, Beau Soir and Chevaux de bois by Debussy and L'invitation au voyage, Phidyle and Lamento by Duparc. The program will conclude with Time, a suite for voice and piano, by Olmstead.

Since his coming to Westminster in the fall, Mr. Huyck has been filing engagements as a soloist in the area. He is a member of the choir at the First Christian church in New Castle where Mr. Birkby is choir director.

Mr. Huyck came to Westminster college in the fall of 1955 from Keuka college in New York where he had been an instructor in voice and music appreciation.

"Noah" Sports New Look In Little Theatre Scenery

Tom McFarland

When Mr. Donald L. Barbe presents his Little Theatre production of "Noah" March 12 the audience will be in for a different sort of production than they are used to seeing on the stage

Obviously the size of the Little Theatre stage does not lend itself to elaborate scenes of Mount Ararat, a flooded world and dense forests, so a different technique is being employed by Mr. William Burbick, scene director. Scenes will be suggested in a way that one item will be used to represent the whole. For example, one tree may be used to suggest an entire forest and only the bow of the ark will be seen to suggest the entire ark.

In theatrical terms this type of staging is called selective realism. One should not be lead to believe that this means a realistic production for it is more like a story book would illustrate its story. The play itself will not be presented in story book fashion, however. Only the basic elements in the props are exaggerated and simplified leaving the rest up to the imagination of the audience.

A setting of this type hasn't been used for several years and involves a lot of work for the construction crews. Mr. Burbick's stage craft class is doing much of the set building.

Costumes, another important phase of the production, are being designed by Miss Charlotte Forsburg. The costume committee and Miss Forsburg have been busy sewing and fitting these costumes to the cast. Such a production deserves a packed house every night. Tickets go on reservation after March 5.

Students, Faculty Attend Pitt Clinic

Dr. Allan Schmuller and Dr. Lyman Van Houten, professors of psychology, and 36 students plan to attend a demonstration clinic at Western Pennsylvania Psychiatric clinc in Pittsburgh, March 16 from 3 to 5 p.m.

The demonstration will be sponsored by members of the University of Pittsburgh and the Western Pennsylvania Psychiatric clinic, who, on Feb. 24, invited Westminster students to attend.

Those planning to go include 20 students of abnormal psychology 16 members of the senior seminar psychology department and 2 members of the faculty.

Dr. McGinnis Sails For Study Abroad

Dr. Myrta E. McGinnis, professor of English leaves for England to do some additional research work on Saturday, March 3. She will sail aboard the Queen Elizabeth from New York.

Dr. McGinnis plans to do work on the reputation and influence of Piers Plowmen and also some study on the works of Chaucer. She will conduct her studies at the British museum and the libraries at Oxford and Cambridge universities.

Miss McGinnis has planned to do some traveling in Scotland and on the continent during her absence. She will return sometime near the beginning of August to take up her teaching post at school in the fall.

Prospective Seminary Students Attend Dinner

Pre-ministerial students interested in attending the Westminster seminary in Philadelphia met jointly with pre-ministerial students from Grove City college at a dinner at the Manse, Tuesday Feb. 28 at 6:30 p.m.

Rev. Robert Atwell, representative of the Westminster seminary, was guest. Nine students from Westminster and four from Grove City attended this dinner.

Manager Applications For Convention Due

Those persons interested in being campaign managers for the mock convention must have their applications in to the history office by noon, March 9. Students can pick up these applications from Dr. Wallace Jamison. Managers will be chosen from these applications and announced March 12.

Committees continue to make progress for the convention as all states have now held their caucuses and elected officers. Some of the state chairmen are Robert McFarland, New York; Eugene Degitz, Illinois; Jack Stewart, Ohio; Marilyn Stevenson, Massachusetts; James Riley, Tennessee and Craig Cashdollar, Washington.

Dr. Black Talks on Missions

Dr. Donald Black, executive secretary of the United Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions in Philadelphia, will be on campus this weekend. Sponsored by the Christian Service group, he will conduct various services and meetings.

On Sunday, March 4, he will speak at CYF at 6:45, his topic being "They Need Your Prayers," and also in Vespers on "At War in a Revolutionary World." Dr. Black will speak on "Beneath the Cross" at a meeting of Karux on Monday at 7 p.m., and he will also be the speaker at both of the daily chapels on Tuesday, March 6. "The Right Look in the Eye" is the title of Dr. Black's chapel talk.

Dr. Black's final talk will be at the Christian Service group Tuesday night. The subject of this message will be "The Demands of this Hour."

Miss Hazel Anderson of New York, who is affiliated with the National Council of Churches, will also be on campus to join Dr. Black with student conferences. Dr. Black and Miss Anderson will be available for conferences in the faculty lounge of the library immediately following the chapel periods on Monday.

Dr. Black is probably the most well-informed man on foreign missions in the United Presbyterian church.

Dr. Donald Black

Mrs. J.B. Mayne Leaves Money For Building

Westminster has received its largest individual gift in the history of the college. Mrs. Jessie B. Mayne of New Castle bequeathed in excess of $150,000 to be used either for establishing a chair in chemistry or for a new student union building.

If the funds should be used in the construction of the union building it will correspond to the present campus buildings in architecture. Features of the new structure may include sleeping accomodations for guests as well as a recreation center for students.

Board to Decide

Although the board of the college will meet today, Dr. Will W. Orr said he thought it would make its final decision in favor of a new student union building. The new building will be known as the "Walton-Mayne Union Building." If the board chooses the chemistry chair it will be called "The Walton-Mayne Chair of Chemistry."

The gift was left in memory of Mrs. Mayne and her late brother, William D. Walton, who graduated from the college in 1895. Previous to his death in 1953, Mr. Walton and his sister had discussed their plans to make a substantial contribution to the college.

Mrs. Mayne received the bulk of her brother's estate and she wanted to carry out her brother's wishes. For many years Mrs. Mayne, who had been a friend of the college and a frequent visitor, believed that the private college or university was a vital part of the training of young people, and help preserve the free enterprise system which is one of the nation's greatest assets.

Amount to Exceed $150,000

After several bequests to relatives and friends, Mrs. Mayne left the remainder of her estate to the college, an amount to exceed $150,000 revealed Alex Crawford Hoyt, president of the Union Trust company in New Castle, and executor and trustee named to the will. The will was filed in the Register of Wills office Wednesday.

Mr. Hoyt said that Mrs. Mayne's gift was the largest ever made to Westminster as far as he knew or was able to learn.

The Titan Union building, the present structure, was given out of Army surplus. Mrs. Mayne and the college authorities had discussed the need for a union building and she said that if during her lifetime such a building were not constructed, she was hopeful that her estate might provide one.

Editor Sets Deadline For Scrawl Entries

Jeanne Douthett announces that Scrawl contributions are now being accepted. Manuscripts may be handed to the editor at the Kappa Delta house or to Mr. Whitney in the English office. Deadline for contributions is March 24.

Manuscripts should be typed on regular typewriting paper and double spaced. The name of the contributor should appear only on a separate title page for convenience in judging.

He Needs Our Help . . .

Last Monday morning a car skidded on the ice hitting a utility pole. Marlowe Tolbert, on his way back to school from Pittsburgh with a friend, was thrown from the car. Today he is lying in a coma at Mercy hospital. It is reported that his condition is critical.

Latest report says that he is moving around a little and that he has opened his eyes but that he is not yet aware of anything around him.

When Marlowe does open his eyes and can understand where he is and what happened he is going to need all the moral support he can get.

We can give him that support. If every student on campus were to send a card or a note, Marlowe would find out just how many friends he has. Knowing his friends are with him may give him that extra bit of courage to fight his way back to recovery.

The address is simply: Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pa.

N. M.

What's The Decision?

We are very grateful to Mrs. Jessie Mayne and her brother, Mr. William Walton, for their generous donation to the college. Nothing like this has ever happened in the history of Westminster.

A far as you students are concerned, a new student union building would be your first choice as to the use of the money, because the TUB was constructed only as a temporary building and it has never really been adequate.

The size of New Wilmington does not lend itself to many activities for the students in leisure hours. If the board does recommend the gift should be used for the "Walton-Mayne Union Building," a recreation center would be a worthwhile addition.

Never Say Die . . .

"The show must go on" has come to be a familiar saying in entertainment circles. Trite as it may be, our music department showed some respect for the statement in their Mozart chapels this week. The first day's program had to be changed due to the illness of one of Monday's performers. The two replacements left one wonder how they could have done much better with the two days' practice still due them.

Two other annoyances through the week also failed to arouse the intended anxiety. The successful effort of the music department in presenting such a wide variety of entertainment surely deserved more than just mediocre attention.

T. M.

The Holcad

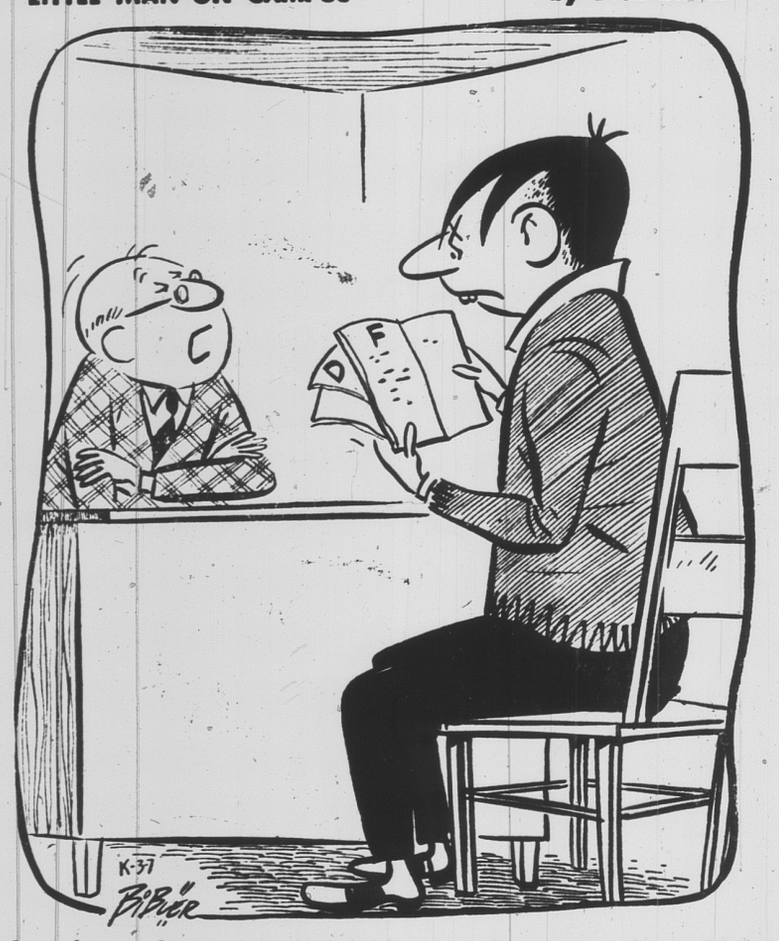

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday, March 2, 1956 No. 17

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"I thought perhaps you didn't know—there are three higher possible grades besides "D" and "F"."

Organizations . . .

Are Not Just Names

By Dorothy Kelsey

There are many clubs, organizations and honorary fraternities on campus about which most of us are completely ignorant. Often it is only the members themselves who have any idea what the purposes of their group are, while the majority of the students don't even realize they exist. Ostensibly, in the beginning each honorary or club had a reason for organizing. They may endeavor to arouse outside interest in the particular field of which they are a part, further their own knowledge and enjoyment or be of service to the school through their knowledge in that field.

The fact these organizations are relatively unknown can be attributed to a number of factors including lack of interest in the group among its members or poor publicity. It might be well for us to look around now and then to notice what these various organizations are doing to benefit Westminster.

One of the many honoraries which quietly go about giving service (usually taken for granted) is Beta Beta Beta, biology honorary. During the latter part of April, tri-Beta will sponsor the annual blood-typing program. It is no small task to undertake to determine the bloodtype of all those students who wish to find out. For one thing, it requires trained people to do the testing. This means that several students must receive instruction at a hospital in New Castle. It also means giving up valuable time each of the three days during the program. Yet Beta Beta Beta members urge every one to find out his blood type for his own safety.

The blood-typing done by Tri-Beta is just one example, used here because of its timeliness. There are many other groups which render service to the school in different ways. We hope there are no organizations, even if they are honorary organizations, which are "dead"—either not carrying out their original purpose or existing for purely selfish reasons. We would all do well to objectively examine what the groups to which we belong are doing of a constructive nature. Let's all look around and notice what others are doing for us and show them our appreciation.

Another Day . . .

What's To Be Done

By Barbara Farrow

What shall I do with it this morning? This is the question that most girls ask themselves as they stagger out of bed. Hair, those long, slender strands of matter that protrude from the scalp, are the biggest headache to guys and gals. They are supposed to be adornment to the human frame but more often they bring annoyment.

If you are a boy the problem of hair styles is easy. You either get a crew-cut or let it grow and comb it straight back. Then in a few years you won't have to comb it, just polish your bald dome and you are ready. Girls really have the problem. They can wear it long or short, curly or straight, up or down, with bangs or without bangs and left part, right part or no part.

Picking a hair style is a problem. Just because Mamie Eisenhower wears bangs, that doesn't mean that you can wear them. You have to consider the shape of your face, the texture of your hair, your height, your major, your grades, etc., etc. When once you get a hair style you become permanently associated with it. You are no longer known as Jane Jones but the tall redhead with the ponytail. When, after looking at yourself for months with the same frizz, you decide to change your hair style, it is a major issue. You have lost your identity. You are no longer the tall red-head with the ponytail but the tall red-head with the "I Don't Know What You Call It Hairdo." Boys can never figure out girls' hair styles.

It seems no matter what kind of hair we have, curly or straight, black or blonde, we are dissatisfied. Have you ever met a person who liked his own shade and style? Well, I haven't. If they have curly hair they moan because it doesn't curl in the right direction with New Wilmington's dampish weather and if they have straight hair, because it doesn't curl. If you have mousy blonde hair you would like to have red hair because it's unusual. And if you have red hair, you want black hair so that you can wear that beautiful red sweater that you got as a gift.

Then comes the problem of nightly pinups. These aren't pictures on the wall but a hairdressing method of twisting hair around a finger, pushing it to the head and firmly fastening it with pins and other ghastly hole-in-the-head makers. So far they have written songs about it and made some greasy ointments which guarantee

(Continued on Page 4)

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Barbie Farrow

Anyone who has gone to any of the Titan home games has seen the basketball talent of some mighty midgets. It has really been a pleasure watching those little kids practicing layups and passing. They are a group of fifth and sixth graders from New Castle where they play in the Midget league. Their instructor is Miss Jeanne Gilson, a teacher at the Highland avenue school. She has two teams—the High-Jets captained by Ronnie Jenkins and the Greyhounds captained by Bobby Flannery. They try to attend every game and last Saturday when Miss Gilson wanted to take them to her alma mater—Slippery Rock—to see a game, they asked to come and see the Titans instead. In fact our boys have influenced the Greyhounds so much that next year they are going to be called the "Titans." I bet we are the only college basketball team with a farm system.

* * *

LOST—one small, white, Little Ben alarm Clock. It was believed to have been lost somewhere in the balcony of the chapel, sometime on Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 1:15 and 1:30 p.m. Will the finder please contact anyone at 129 Waugh avenue. (P. S. I've slept through two 8 o'clocks so please return it immediately). P.P.S. The previous announcement was an unpaid ad.

* * *

With everybody talking about unions and strikes, it is timely to notice the following situation.

Sixty princes and princesses of Malaya have formed a union to protect their interests. They are afraid that the upcoming independence of Malaya will throw them out of a job. If they want work, I'm sure most Westminster students will have an extra term paper or two that they could write.

News Headlines . . .

Ike Runs Again

Ike Will Run Again—President Eisenhower says that he will run again for nomination, but that other candidates could still throw their hats in the campaign circle.

Three per cent Sales Tax Gains Momentum—Led by state Republican senators, the Pennsylvania legislature is pushing for the adoption of a three per cent sales tax to help the state settle its financial problem.

Italy's President Visits Eisenhower—President Giovanni Gronchi became the first Italian chief of state ever to visit the United States when he met with President Eisenhower in Washington. There he pledged deeper cooperation for peace with the United States' aid.

Khruschev Retained as Soviet Boss—The Soviet Communist party's Central committee kept the U. S. S. R.'s "Collective leadership" intact when it re-elected all 11 members of the committee's ruling Presidium and retained Nikita S. Khruschev as the party's first secretary.

Spring Training Starts in South—Yesterday the 16 major league baseball teams opened official spring training in preparation for the coming season.

Senator Kilgore Dies at 63—Senator Harley M. Kilgore, a New Deal Democrat for West Virginia, died after suffering a second stroke in three days. His death reduces the Democratic majority in the Senate to 48-47 but it is expected that Democratic Governor Marland will choose a Democrat as his successor.

Tornadoes and Dust Storm Kill 9—The first tornadoes of 1956 slashed through Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Texas leaving nine dead and scores injured.

Railroads Plagued by Accidents as 19 Are Killed—Six were killed when the Pennsylvania Railroad's "Embassy" crashed between Washington and Baltimore. 13 others were killed in a collision of two trains in Swampscott, Mass. An investigation has been ordered.

Korean Reds Submit List of U. N. Missing—The Korean Communists gave the United Nations military command a list and their explanation of what happened to 2,720 Allied troops who are still listed as missing. This is 22 names shorter than the official U. N. list.

Industrial Jobs for Women Rise—The number of jobs open for women and the demand for them has risen according to a U. N. survey.

Air Inquiry Starts—Five U. S. Senators have been appointed to a sub-committee to investigate the United States air strength and see if our defense is strong enough to defend this continent and then retaliate on the aggressor's homeland.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

The biggest boom introduced to basketball this past season was the widening of the foul lane to twelve feet. It was widened supposedly to cut down the effectiveness of the big man. The rule has been given the nickname of the "Russell Rule" in honor of Bill Russell, the six foot-ten inch giant from San Francisco university.

Failed To Stop Russell

If the rule was intended to cut down the effectiveness of this All-American it was a failure because big Bill has led his Dons to 21 straight court triumphs this season and 48 consecutive victories over a two year span. However, in general the rule has made it a little harder for the big man and a little easier for the small man.

The small man has a wider lane in which to drive and, even though today's "racehorse" basketball is primarily a big man's game, the small man still has a chance if he has great driving speed and a dead eye. Chet "the Jet" Forte of Columbia, who stands five feet nine inches, and Chuck Rolles of Cornell at five six are two outstanding performers in the Ivy league who prove that the little man is not yet completely finished.

Slowed Down Mikan

But back to the twelve foot lane—this rule was first adopted by the professionals primarily to stop George Mikan. It proved to be so successful that the colleges were soon to snatch it up when the big men started to completely dominate play. Russell was a big factor in the college coaches decision to widen the lane and decrease the scoring. The rule could be made even more effective if both defensive men were given inside positions, as in pro ball, that way every foul shot missed would almost surely be grabbed off by the defense.

24 Second Rule

The pros have a couple more rules that in a few years could improve the game on the college level. The 24 second rule is the most important. If you've watched the professional games on S turday afternoon, you've probably noticed the clock at the end of the floor and on the floor. This clock ticks off 24 seconds and if the team controling the ball fails to shoot within the allotted time the ball is given to the opposition. This rule eliminates freezing and creates higher scoring games.

Six Personal Fouls

Another rule which is of minor importance but would be a great help to some teams, especially Westminster, is the rule concerning personal fouls. In the professional ranks each player is allowed six personal fouls before being ejected from the game. These six personals instead of the customary five could make a big difference to the outcome of many games. It would have made a big difference for the Titans last week against Geneva.

I'm definitely in favor of these rules being adopted in college ball and I think the evolution of basketball in the next few years will have to include either one or both new rules mentioned above.

For A Loose Tongue,
A Weak Sole, or
Well Worn Heels,
See—
DOC FUSCO
Bank Building

Retiring Co-captains

Titans Slaughter Gannon For A Winning Season

The Titans ended their 1955-56 court season in fine style Tuesday night as they smashed the Golden Knights from Gannon 91-63. The visitors from Erie were completely outclassed in the opening minutes as the Blue and White jumped out to a commanding 23 to 7 lead. Except for a brief spurt in the opening minutes of the second half, Gannon looked like more of a match for our junior varsity than our varsity.

Ron Tranter, Tony Stillson, Bob Doran and Steve Prokopchak, the four graduating seniors who were playing their last game for Westminster, all saw plenty of action. Stillson scored 14 points and Tranter tallied 12 while Prokopchak added 5 and Doran 2.

The Titan attack was well balanced as six players hit double figures. George Strehler was high man with 16 points. Dave Rankin was right on his tail with 14 and Harold Davis and Jim Riley each had 12 apiece.

The Titans' entire squad saw action as they jumped off to a 40-21 lead at half-time. Gannon tried a comeback which brought them within 11 points in the third quarter, but the Titans caught fire again and continued to roll until the final buzzer sounded.

Westminster, by winning, ended the season with a winning record, 13 victories and 11 setbacks.

Baseball Lists 15 Tilts

Grover C. Washabaugh, athletic director of Westminster college announces the 1956 baseball schedule is as follows:

April 10—University of Pittsburgh Home
April 16—Geneva—Away
April 19—Alliance—Home
April 21—Allegheny—Away
April 26—Duquesne—Home
April 28—Clarion—Away
May 1 —Thiel—Home
May 5 —Washington and Jefferson Home
May 5 —Slippery Rock—Home
May 9 —Alliance—Away
May 12—Thiel—Away
May 16—Geneva—Home
May 18—Baldwin-Wallace—Away
May 23—Duquesne—Away

Sigma Nu "B" League Team Wins Title

Sigma Nu clinched the "B" league title by defeating the Globies in the first two games of a three game series. The Snakes poisoned the Globies 55-21 on Thursday after stinging the same team 52-40 the preceding day.

The Globies surprised SN in the first half on Wednesday by jumping off to a 19-9 lead but superior rebounding soon turned the tide.

Team members for Sigma Nu are Bob Duvall, Bill Duvall, Bill Freshwater, Steve Kosko, Bill Jackson and Stan Calderelli. For the Globies, Bill Stepnick, Acy Jackson, Harold Ifft, Gene Degitz, Dick Gibson and Clark Kennell took the floor.

"A" league playoffs will begin Monday as Sigma Nu takes the floor against either Block W or Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Sig Eps and Block W will play a sudden death game today for the chance to oppose the Snakes for the title.

Dry Cleaning Service
Now Available
Suits—$1.00
Blouses—.50
Trousers—.50
LAUNDROMAT
Around the corner from the Show

For The Fixin's of Midnight Snacks . . .
Instant and Fresh Ground Coffee
Whole tea and Tea Bags
Cocoa and Hot Chocolate
Shop at
Brown's Food Market
THE STORE WITH MORE

Clark's Chewing Gum
Budget Pack 50 Sticks
for 29¢
Fred Williamson's

Titans Fourth Quarter Rally Smashes Tech; 88-68

Blue and White Breaks Tie To Defeat Tartans for Second Time

By Al Wheeler

The Westminster Titans boomed down the boards once again to defeat the Carnegie Tech Tartans for the second time this year. The Pittsburgh Plaids bowed 88 to 68 to our boys in four periods of fast ball.

Things got off to a fast start in the first half. Freshman ace roundballer Dave Rankin paced the Towering Titans with sixteen markers. Jim Riley followed close behind with ten. The Plaids retaliated with great drives by Harry Rupert and expert rebounding by Alan Frank. The first half stayed pretty well tied up. Great shots by Rankin, Riley and Frank kept the fans on the edge of their seats as the half ended 38 to 40 in favor of the Titans.

Close Press

Westminster took the ball at the start of the second half. George Strehler suddenly caught fire with his jump shot, ending the game with a total of 20 buckets. Riley connected with a total of five foul shots to keep the Titans in the race.

Tech's Tartans with the help of Frank's rebounding held the contests to a virtual bottleneck until the early part of the fourth quarter when their ace fouled out. Without Frank, the Tartans had nothing. Valiant tries by Rupert and Boyd were not enough to stop the Titan advance.

Late in the fourth quarter the Tartans applied the now famous Geneva close press. This time, however, the boys were ready for them. With the addition of Ron Tranter, the team went wild to smash through to a finish. The Titans advanced from a 62-62 tie in the third period to a great ending by scoring 26 points to the Tartans' six in the final period.

Winning Season

The win for the Titans was their second of the season over the Engineers. It was also their twelfth conquest of the current season as contrasted to eleven setbacks. For the Plaids, it was their twelfth setback in twenty starts, leaving them with a losing season.

Jim Riley and Dave Rankin were high scorers for the Westminster squad by bucketing 22 points each. Strehler was second with 20 markers. Big gun for the Engineers was Alan Frank with 19, followed close behind by Rupert and Mocker.

JV Also Wins

The Junior Varsity squad defeated the Oil City "Y" five in a close preliminary bout. In the third quarter Oil City came within one point of tieing the score, 47-48. The Blue and Whites, however, etched out a margin in the final time to win 75 to 65.

Frats Here 35 Years

Westminster's Board of Trustees took action in June 1920 permitting fraternities to operate at the college.

Delicious Dunking
DONUTS
Coconut
Chocolet Covered
Powered Sugar
Apple Spice
Glazed
WILMINGTON BAKERY

. . . And familiar things are the best. Like Coca-Cola. Full of fresh, keen sparkle . . . natural quick energy . . . and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Have it whenever you like.
BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

SOCIAL WHIRL

All-College Dance Tonight in Old '77; Fraternity House Parties Saturday

By Dianne Oursler

For some students, making costumes took precedence over homework which will be abandoned to attend pledge dances and other dressy house parties this weekend. Consistent with Westminster weather, the dance tonight is entitled, "Windy Whirl." Alpha Gamma Delta is sponsoring this all-college affair.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Second degree ceremony was held Monday for: Lynn Caddick, Marjorie Dottling, Louise Dox, Georgia Ferguson, Pat Genge, Leonora Hoffman, Priscilla Hunter, Nancy McGavern, Esther McGeoch, Betty Oursler, Ann Risser, Leah Schill, Linda Strickler and Janice Zima . . . Audrey Valentine is to be Sing and Swing director with Judy Studley as accompanist . . Adell Parker and Virginia Guthrie, both ex '57, were on campus last weekend . . Jane Williams has accepted the Phi Mu Delta pin of Paul Stoerker, a student at Pennsylvania State university . . Pledging ceremonies were held this afternoon for Elizabeth Whittington.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . Officers for the coming year are: David Reed, president; Wallace Giffen, vice president; William Kness, recording secretary; Theodore Richardson, corresponding secretary; Fressly Wilson, treasurer; Gary Gardner, sergeant-at-arms and Thomas Parlette, chaplain . . Pledges are in charge of the house party on Saturday night. The theme is "Dogpatch" . . . The spring "Sweetheart Formal" will be held in the Pick-Ohio hotel in Youngstown with the Jack Lewis orchestra providing music.

QUADRANGLE . . Newly appointed officers are: Sue Quenon, historian; Romaine Gardner, reporter; Evelyn Dull, alumnae secretary; Lavena Clarke, altruistic chairman and Rachel Gibson, chaplain . . Officers were installed Monday night.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Ruth Schwitters Latta, ex '56, visited campus recently.

SIGMA NU . . "Greenwich Village" is the theme of the houseparty tomorrow night. Alan Wheeler is general chairman working with Don Wix on food; Jerry Myers, decorations and Glen Smith, entertainment. Brothers who visited the chapter the past weekend were: Robert Cipolla, '53, Art Schank, '55, Robert Dean, '55 and Jerry Shannon, '53.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Paul Kreling is in charge of the house party which will be the annual Sweetheart dance. Weston Hyde is chairman of the decorations. Kenneth Hofrichter, Ralph Hofrichter and Thomas Specker visited the chapter at the University of West Virginia.

THETA UPSILON . . Mary Margaret Moser Caldwell, '55, was here recently . . Joan Gould and Marlene McMasters spent last weekend at Pennsylvania State university.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . Lorraine Adams was at Northwestern university while Jacqueline Lytle visited Kappa chapter at Allegheny college.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Activation ceremonies were held Monday for Edwin Prophet and David Jaeger . . Ralph Benson is chairman of the pledge dance tomorrow night . . Nevin Morris, Carl Morris and Robert Klepser were on the Pennsylvania State university campus this past weekend.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Nancy Etzel is heading committees for the houseparty to be held March 9 at the Alpha Sigma Phi house . . Elaine Shaw has been elected scrapbook chairman . . Charlotte Hull Whiting, '54, was on campus recently.

Pitt-Xenia Hosts Karux Members

Thirteen members of Karux, campus pre-ministerial association, are guests today of President Addison Leitch at the Pitt-Xenia Theological seminary in Pittsburgh.

A dinner is planned for them. They will have an opportunity to see the school and discuss matters relative to their education with both students and faculty.

Naval Officer School Open To Graduates

The office on Naval Officer procurement, Pittsburgh, this week announced an increased input for the Officer Candidate school, Newport, Rhode Island, for the fiscal year 1957.

This training program prepares qualified college graduates for service as commissioned officers in the Navy.

Seniors may apply for the Officer Candidate program as early as six months before graduation at the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Old Federal Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa. They should first write for a more detailed summary of the program.

Selected candidates will report to school on June 11, August 13, and October 15, 1956. Early 1957 dates are January 2 and March 4. In order that they may be notified before graduation, men who will graduate in June are urged to apply as soon as possible.

Campus Calendar

Friday, March 2
8:30-11:30 AGD informal dance
Saturday, March 3
Swimming, Penn-Ohio meet, at Grove City
8:30-11:30 Fraternity house parties
Sunday, March 4
SPE sweetheart dinner
Vespers, Dr. Donald Black
Monday, March 5
Chapel, Mr. Heagen
4:00 A.A.U.P.
Tuesday, March 6
Chapel, Dr. Black
8:15 Recital, Mr. Huyck
Wednesday, March 7
Chapel, N.C.C.D.
3:30 Mu Phi
5:00 W.A.A.
Phi Alpha Theta trip
Thursday, March 8
Chapel, Beta Sigma Omicron
7:00 Scroll
8:00 Kappa Mu Epsilon
Phi Alpha Theta trip

Local Chemical Society Initiates New Members

Fifteen new members were initiated by the local affiliate chapter of the American Chemical society last week.

The new initiates are Nancy Marchese, Robert Klepser, Thomas Augustine, Barbara Fabian, Marilyn Felton, Dorothy Bush, Marcie Barrett, Roberta Demott, Dorothy Kramer, Jay Hutcheson, Howard Thomas, Mary Ann Kordich, Patsy Farrone, Richard Phillips, and Wayne Park. Each of the new members gave a short talk on a previously assigned element.

The meeting was also highlighted by reports given by three members on their summer jobs in the field of chemistry. They were Roberta Smith, Robert Gardner, and Robert Altman. Refreshments prepared by Mrs. De Haas and Mrs. Max were served.

Alpha Gam's Sponsor "Windy Whirl" Dance

The cerebral palsy fund will benefit from the "Windy Whirl" being sponsored by Alpha Gamma Delta tonight in Old 77.

Carolyn Dart is general chairman of the dance which begins at 8:30 p.m. Dancing will be to the college Combo. Admission to the informal dance is $1.00.

Jack Lynch Speaks At Iota Delta Meeting

Mr. Jack Lynch, New Castle, will be the speaker for the next meeting of Iota Delta, psychology honorary, announces Kathleen Johnston, president.

Mr. Lynch will speak about his work with juvenile delinquency in Pittsburgh. The open meeting will be held in science hall room 116 Thursday, March 8, at 8 p.m.

Politics Interests Everyone

By Barbara Farrow

We on the Westminster campus have decided to celebrate the coming presidential election by having a Republican Mock convention. Other schools are following our pattern and holding them also. However, one school, MacAlester college in St. Paul, Minn., is holding a Political Emphasis week rather than a mock convention.

Instead of trying to choose a candidate from one party, the students will nominate one candidate regardless of party affiliation for the presidency of the United States. They will also set up a party platform.

Why are the students holding this convention? They feel that the objectives are, first, to gain knowledge of the process of nominating a presidential candidate, second, to gain knowledge about the writing of a platform at a national presidential nominating convention and third, to become better acquainted with the current foreign and domestic issues and policies of our country.

Students will not register by states but will register by the candidate whom they wish to back. If a student is undecided, he may sign up as an independent. A minumum of 15 supporters must be signed up for a candidate before the backers will be given a state on the convention floor.

So far, the following candidates have been listed for consideration—Eisenhower, Stevenson, Warren, Nixon, Harriman, Stassen and Kefauver. Even though their convention is being held in a different manner, they, too, will learn about party politics. 1956 is surely going to be an educational year for Young America.

Library Adds Newest Books

Miss Mabel Kocher, librarian, tells of several books which have been added to the shelves of McGill library.

For those interested in poetry, there are two definitive works on Emily Dickinson, one a biography by T. H. Johnson and the other a collection of poems in three volumes. There is also a book of Amy Lowell's complete poetical works.

Two new novels now on the shelves are Marjorie Morningstar by Herman Wouk and Kenneth Roberts' Boon Island.

In trying to add to all sections in the library, two biographies have been added: W. G. McLoughlin's Billy Sunday Was His Real Name and Lincoln's Sons by Ruth Randall.

Radio Directing Class Schedules Auditions

Auditions for male and female parts in dramatic scenes will be held by the radio directing class Tuesday, March 6, in the radio studio at 1:30 p.m. The scenes will be cast and directed only for educational purposes, but all those who try out for parts will be kept in mind for future radio shows which will actually be broadcast.

The radio directing class is under the instruction of Mr. Barbe. It emphasizes the planning and directing of various types of radio programs. All students are urged to co-operate.

What's to Be Done? . .

(Continued from Page 2)

that you'll only have to set your hair once in a blue moon. So far, H2O is the best setting solution.

Hair costs money. We buy shampoos to wash it, rinses to rinse it, dyes and tints to tint it, creams to keep it in place, lanolin to keep it from getting brittle and permanents to keep it curly. And what does it do for us—well, it defies all our energy and plans and goes any way it pleases to be contrary. We hate it, swear at it and are at times proud of it, but wouldn't we all look funny if we ran around without it?

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. and Sat.
LAST COMMAND
Sterling Hayden—Ernest Borgnine

Mon. and Tues.
DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE
Dirk Bogare—Muriel Pavlow
A J. Arthur Rank Production

Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
CHIEF CRAZY HORSE
Victor Mature—Susan Ball

Coming—SINCERELY YOURS

Walker's Have It

FOR THE APPROACHING FISHING SEASON

- Tru Temper Rods
- South Bend Reels
- Heddon Plugs
- Resident and non-resident fishing licenses

At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

Just The Place . . .
. . . to meet and eat
THE GRILLE
We Specialize in PIZZA

An "Operator" par excellence

It's not just his suave "pitch"—he's got the inside track on style and value, too. Here, he sports an Arrow Gabanaro—the sport shirt that fits perfectly, in neck size and sleeve length. Gabanaro comes in a new lighter weight rayon gabardine . . . 13 solid colors. Now available in a new medium-spread collar. Just $5.95.

ARROW
CASUAL WEAR
—first in fashion

For discriminating tastes
The Tavern
Serving Hours
12:00-2:00 — 5:00-7:00
Reservations Advisable
Closed Tuesday
Mrs. Ernst Durrast
New Wilmington, Pa. Dial 3351

Get Your Tickets For "Noah" Now!

The Holcad

The greatest college newspaper in Lawrence county.

Vol. 76 No. 18 Westminster College, New Wilmington. Pa. Friday, March 9, 1956

Lecturer Shows Color Sea Film In College Chapel

A color film, "Exploring the Secrets of the Underwater World," will be shown by lecturer Paul Cherney Tuesday, March 13, at 8:15 p.m. in the college chapel. The program is part of the college lecture series directed by Professor Walter Biberich.

The film to be shown was made possible by the invention of the motion picture torpedo. This device pulls the photographer through the water while at the same time operating a motion picture camera.

PAUL CHERNEY

Mr. Cherney has helped develop the underwater camera which pictures the true colors of the sea bottom.

Included are scenes of the salvage investigations of a Roman galley which sank about 100 B. C., shots of marine life in color and pictures of Arab sponge divers who remain underwater without diving equipment for five to six minutes at a time.

Mr. Cherney, a graduate of the University of Vienna, was appointed technical advisor to the Submarine Research institute of Cannes, France in 1950. In this role he has brought about closer coordination in photographic research between the industrial centers of the world.

He is a major in the U. S. Air Force reserve and was Air Technical Intelligence Liaison officer to the RAF in the European Theatre during World War II.

Mr. Cherney is still retained as Consultant to the Department of Defense and frequently is called upon to survey important developments in cinematography and optics.

Miss Leona Westover Holds Speech Meeting

A speech-major meeting will be held Wed., March 14, at 4:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre. At the meeting Miss Leona Westover will discuss the goal, training and work of the speech correctionist. All those interested in speech correction are invited to attend.

An eighteen-hour course in speech correction will be offered starting next September. This course will qualify the student to enter and to carry on the programs of concentrated specialization offered in the graduate schools and clinics of the larger universities and will qualify him as a professional member of the National Speech and Hearing association.

The classes in this course will be under the instruction of Miss Westover and will be offered on an alternate-year basis. Some of the classes offered are: speech and hearing problems; anatomy, physiology, and neurology of speech and hearing; psychology of the speech and hearing handicapped; and clinical practice. A complete listing of the course and its requirements will be found in next year's catalog.

"Noah's" Cast

The cast of "Noah" is still working to present their opening performance Monday, March 12. They are, left to right, Bruce Bowen, Elizabeth Mcgill, Thomas Parlette, Jacqueline Walker, Dale Westerman, Jane Wilson, Edward Terreri and Kathleen McCoy. Tickets for all performances may now be reserved in the Speech office.

Doors Open Monday . . .

Little Theatre Presents "Noah"

By Jacque Walker

Starting Monday, March 12, the Little Theatre will fairly jump with activity. The excitement and anxiety of grease-paint and costumes will have taken its toll as the curtain rises on the first performance of "Noah."

If everything goes as planned, this excitement should move easily from the cast and crews to the audience, and by the closing of the first act, everyone should find himself well on the way into this glamorous world of fantasy. However, the keen observer will not fail to note the serious undercurrent and the deep-seated religious vein that runs throughout the entire show. Beneath the laughter, comedy, singing and dancing one will find himself enthralled in the beautifully poignant prayers of Noah and will surely gasp at the painful antics of the savage (played by George Lowther) in his portrayal of the terrible sins of the world.

The play begins happily enough with Noah (portrayed by Edward Terreri), Mama (Kathleen McCoy), Noah's three sons, Ham, Shem and Japhet (played by Thomas Parlette, Bruce Bowen and Dale Westerman, respectively) and three neighbor girls (played by Jacqueline Walker, Elizabeth McGill and Jane Wilson), embarking with the animals on God's ark in the hope of a brave new world. When at last the great rain is over, the grand beauty of the waters fills them with rejoicing and they dance with

(Continued on Page 4)

Production Crew Named For Play

Acting as stage manager for "Noah", Little Theatre production opening Mon., March 12, is Gerald Von Broock, with Sara Scott as house manager. Working behind the scenes between acts on the stage crew are Donald Hudson, John DeSantis and Jack Loeffler. In charge of properties are Nancy Wampler, Beverly Bemiss, Carol Roberts and Janice Zima. Rick Aurandt and Leah Schill are taking care of sound effects and music.

Sue Behrenberg, Jacqueline Walker and Peggy DePaulis are helping on the make-up committee, while Elizabeth Duff, Nancy Etzel, Mary Ann Kordich, Carol Jacobs and Joan Bodner are working with Miss Forsberg on costumes. In charge of lights are Ronnajean Hamilton and Daniel Leasure. Nancy Wampler is acting as call girl. Alan Ellis is production assistant for the show.

Debaters Attend Interstate Congress

One of the biggest events on the debate schedule for this year is taking place this weekend at Pennsylvania State university.

Five Westminster debaters and Mr. Melvin Moorhouse, debating coach, left yesterday morning for the 12th annual Pennsylvania Interstate Debaters congress.

Representing Westminster will be Nancy Griffen, Miriam Fox, Robert Peterson, Joseph McFate and Alan Wheeler. Mr. Moorhouse serves as parliamentarian for the congress.

Westminster is one of 17 schools attending this meet, Mar. 8-10. Approximately 125 debaters will represent schools including Navy, Rutgers, Pitt, Temple and Allegheny.

As members of the Job Security committee, Peterson and McFate will try to pass a bill on "Guaranteed Annual Wage," debating the matter in parliamentary style.

The Juvenile Delinquency committee, composed of Griffen, Fox and Wheeler, will present a specific bill on juvenile delinquency. Among other things advocated in the bill would be a law which would make parents equally punishable for crimes or misdemeanors committed by their children.

Miriam Fox and Nancy Griffen debated in orthodox style last night against the women's debate team of Pennsylvania State university. The twosome upheld the negative on the "Guaranteed Annual Wage."

A special plug was given the Mock Convention last night, too, when Bob Peterson, acting as Student Council president, was interviewed over the college radio station WMAJ.

Correction . . .

Send encouragement to Marlowe Tolbert at South Side hospital, Pittsburgh.

Board Members Elect Ferguson

At the annual meeting of Westminster college trustees last week, officers were elected as follows: Dr. James M. Ferguson, president; Attorney Clyde A. Armstrong, vice-president; Dr. J. Y. Jackson, secretary and Ross Ellis, treasurer. Executive committee members elected were Judge John Miller, Attorney J. B. Eichenaur, Attorney John McCalmont, John McCune, Rev. Howard McMurray, Dr. Robert French and Dr. James H. Blackwood.

It was agreed that as soon as funds are available the option is to be exercised on 35 acres east of Westminster's campus. The land is now owned by Fred Ruby and its acquisition is necessary to permit work to be started on the new Fine Arts building. Additionally, the board approved in principle that Brittain lake be enlarged to permit drainage of land south of the campus. This land would then be made available for building lots to permanent faculty members.

Dr. Will W. Orr, Westminster's president, reported that capital outlay for the past seven years is $1,557,076. Gifts from all sources in the past eight years total $1,293,211. This figure does not include the $150,000 recently left to the college.

The board appointed a committee headed by Attorney Thomas V. Mansell of New Castle to decide on disposition of funds to be received from the estate of the late Mrs. Jessie Mayne. Other members of this committee are Fred Allen of New Castle, John B. Lewis of Sharon, Mrs. Charlotte Logan Gregory of Mercer, Filmore Campbell of New Wilmington, Dr. Will W. Orr and Ross Ellis of Westminster college.

On the recommendation of Dr. Orr, John R. Edwards, Westminster's dean of men, was appointed associate director of admissions and will work with Dr. W. A. Johns.

Student Council Discusses Segregation

Segregation in Westminster sororities and fraternities was the topic of discussion at this week's meeting of Student Council.

Representatives of each Greek group gave local interpretation of its national policy concering segregation. Robert Peterson, president of Student Council, announced that discussion on segregation would continue in its future meetings.

Anyone interested in this question is invited to attend the meeting Tues., March 13, at 7:00 p.m. in the science hall lecture room.

Wednesday Marks NCCD Deadline

Assignments Available Announces Musser

Recruiting for the seventh annual National Christian college day will be complete by Wednesday, March 14.

A number of students, faculty and some alumni will go out April 15 to speak at 438 churches in approximately nine states. They will speak on behalf of the Christian colleges.

Still needed are students to speak on the "Value of Christian Colleges," said Rev. Paul Musser, director of NCCD. Also needed are musicians and car drivers. Students desiring to participate may sign up in the dean of men's office.

Assignments will be made before spring vacation to those signing up.

Each prospective speaker will have a faculty adviser and books and a syllabus are available on reserve in the library.

Seven cents a mile will be given to drivers for use of their cars. Driver sign-up slips can be obtained in all sorority and fraternity houses and in the TUB. The slips should be submitted to Dr. Robert Woods in the science hall.

A send-off banquet will be given on April 12, in Ferguson hall.

Now Hear This

Play

Miss Charlotte Forsberg announces try-outs will be held for the final Little Theatre production in the theatre, Tuesday, March 13, at 7:00 p.m. The play is George Bernard Shaw's "Candida." Books for the play are on reserve in the library.

Scrawl

Tried Scrawl-ing lately? Don't deprive your fellow students of the benefits of your literary talents. Good writers aren't always English or journalism majors. What Scrawl needs is diversified interests and viewpoints presented in a variety of styles and forms of writing.

Contributions for the spring issue of Scrawl are now being accepted by Jeanne Douthett at the KD house and by Mr. Whitney in the English office.

Orders

Attention Seniors: Orders for commencement announcements must be made by next week, March 12-15. Check the bulletin boards in Old Main for place and times.

Argo

Applications for the position of editor of the 1956-57 Argo should be submitted to Dr. Bleasby, chairman of the committee on student publications, on or before April 18. Experience on high school publications may be useful to the applicant but it is not essential. The editor receives three hours of elective credit for the work. Further information and application blanks may be obtained at the English office.

Master of Ceremonies Named for Program

Richard Newcomer, senior speech major from Brentwood, has been named this year's master of ceremonies for the annual Sing and Swing. Newcomer, former announcer for WKST radio station in New Castle, was selected by members of Student Council.

Virginia Dickson is chairman of Sing and Swing which will be held Saturday night of Parents' Weekend, May 5.

NCCD - - -
It's Getting Closer

It is time to sign up for National Christian college day. Speakers, drivers, musicians and faculty are needed to fill the applications of churches and to make the day a success.

The task is really not very difficult. If you believe in the Christian college and what it stands for, you will have no trouble in telling this to the congregation to which you are assigned. You don't have to be Sarah Bernhart or John Barrymore to talk. All you need is the will to help your college.

Don't say you can't think of anything to talk about. The NCCD committee is prepared to help you select your topic. After your topic is chosen material has been compiled from previous years to give you a start in writing your speech.

Drivers let's go! Without transportation how will the groups get to their destinations? Perhaps you can't talk like Winston Churchill, but your car can be of great service. This does not come out of your pocket. The college pays you seven cents a mile for gas expenses.

Tape recordings of the choir are being prepared and will be sent to various local radio stations. Other musicians have been requested by many congregations to participate in their services. It is hoped that more students will take an interest in this phase of NCCD.

Also, many faculty positions have not been filled.

The deadline isn't far away. Let's prepare for NCCD.

Smash Hit!
Coming Soon!

Have you reserved your theater tickets for the play, "Noah?"

From all indications—features, stories and gossip—"Noah" promises to be one of the outstanding productions in the history of the Little Theatre.

Perhaps you are afraid to attend a play which is being presented a little differently than the usual.

"Joan of Lorraine" was a little different, too—a play within a play. It was a hit on Broadway. "Noah" could be a smash hit at Westminster if the students would support it.

Reserve your tickets NOW!

The Holcad

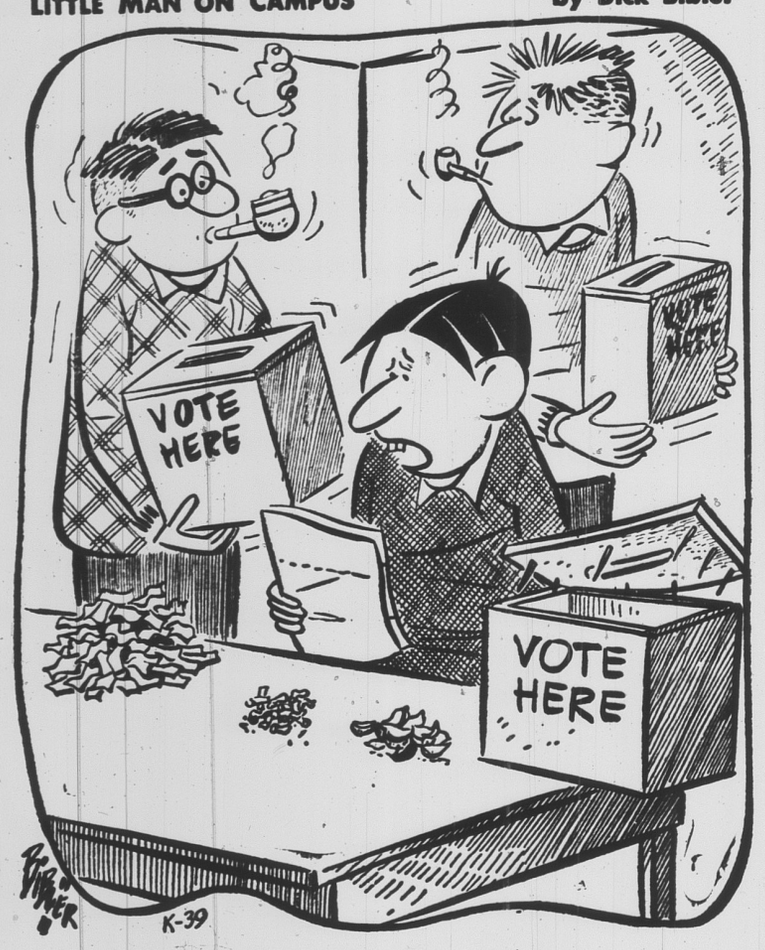

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday March 9, 1956 No. 18

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"48 gum wrappers, 12 cigarette butts, 8 orange peelings and 3 votes in this one—if you ask me there hasn't been enough student interest in campus politics this year."

Spring . . .

New Things Coming Up - - -

By Dorothy Kramer

March has always seemed to be the time for beginnings. In the time of Egyptians, Romans and Greeks, the New Year was marked in March. The presidents of the United States were inaugurated in March. It is the season for birth of new romances, new baseball teams and the sign of Aries in the Zodiac. It is the season when Mother Earth once more begins to bear.

All around the campus we are beginning to notice some signs of the renewal of nature and the rising up of the once seemingly dead plants. The most noticeable around the campus is the chirping of the birds, seeking their prey from the thawing earth. In the college woods, the skunk cabbage and elder are the first out. Forsythia also are about to start blooming anew. As you walk through the woods, you can't help noticing the unrolling fiddlehead ferns. It almost seems as if they are greeting the spring with reverence.

Elsewhere around the world spring is being ushered in with the blooming of the cultivated crocus and the nodding daffodil. Bloodroot in flower is a sign of the coming new season in rich open woodlands. The sap of trees rises to new heights, which soon will nourish the trees into blooming beauty. With a keen eye and investigating spirit, more marvels and surprises can be noticed.

Yes, spring sure does give birth to bluebirds, bumblebees and boys.

Horses?

They Don't Play Baseball - - -

By Bob Holmes

Since spring training started a few days ago, I think I'll make like a big sports writer and tell an interesting (?) story relating to spring training.

It took place a few years ago when Leo Durocher managed the New York Giants. The Giants were in spring training at Phoenix, Arizona and one afternoon a horse approached Durocher (Yes, a horse). The horse walked right up to Leo and asked if he could try-out for the team. Now Leo was a bit surprised, but since he was hard-up for a pennant contender, he consented to let the horse try out. He sent him to the outfield to shag some flies. Well, Leo hit them as high and as far as he could but the horse always managed to catch up with the ball and make the grab. After making the catch he would then uncork giant heaves to the catcher.

Because Durocher seemed to be pleased with his outfield ability, he brought him in to play third base. At third base Leo began knocking hard grounders at the horse. The horse would go deep to his left and deep to his right to make great stops, then throw perfectly to first.

Leo liked the job he did at third, but he didn't know whether he could replace Hank Thompson until he saw the horse bat. He sent him to the batting cage and Johnny Antonelli pitched to him. Johnny's first pitch the horse drove far over the left field fence and he did the same to the next ten pitches.

By this time Durocher began to see that this horse might make the team.

But he still wasn't quite satisfied. The horse pitched to Willy Mays and quickly blew three fast balls by him. Willy stepped in again, more determined than ever, but the horse snapped three straight curves that almost broke Willy's back.

Now Leo had just about made up his mind. However, he first wanted to see the horse run as fast as he could around the bases and slide into home plate. Well, at this the horse became quite indignant and he said, "Who ever heard of a horse running bases?"

As you may have guessed the horse failed to make the team. Leo Durocher wouldn't let anybody play on his team that would not hustle at all times.

(The above story was completely unpaid for. The facts are true and the name of the horse is being withheld because we don't want to embarrass him . . . you see, he is still horsing around in the Pony league).

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Barbie Farrow

Those of us who will be of voting age for the coming election should make sure that we are properly registered so that we can vote in November. Many people neglect to vote and take part in government. The effect of this has even been shown in campus elections. Do you realize the power of one vote? If Thomas Jefferson had received one more vote in the Electoral College in 1880, the election would not have been thrown into the House of Representatives; and one vote saved Andrew Johnson from impeachment. So get out and vote. You are the important vote.

* * *

Another school newspaper gave advice to its students in an article entitled "10 Ways to Get Through College Without Even Trying." To help our students, here is a short summary. 1. Bring the professor newspaper clippings dealing with his subject. (This isn't hard because he always thinks everything deals with his subject.) 2. Look alert and take notes eagerly. 3. Nod frequently and murmur "how true," 4. Sit in front of him if you are planning on staying awake. 5. Laugh at his jokes. 6. Ask for outside reading( this doesn't mean that you have to do it.) 7. If you must sleep, have somebody wake you at the end of the hour. (It doesn't look good to be still sitting there when the rest of the class has left.) 8. If you read another book than the textbook during class, match it well in size and color. 9. Ask only questions that you think he can answer. 10. Call attention to any article and book that he has written. Oh! by the way—These suggestions were written by professor Robert Tyson of Hunter college

* * *

A very ingenious student at Southern Technical institute came up with the scientific definition of a girl.

Symbol: WO

Accepted Atomic Weight: 120 lbs.

Physical Properties: Boils at nothing and freezes at any minute; melts when properly treated; very bitter if not well used.

Occurrence: Found wherever man exists.

Chemical Properties: Possesses great affinity for gold, silver, platinum and precious stones. Violent reaction if left alone. Able to absorb great amount of food matter. Turns green when placed beside a better looking specimen.

Uses: Highly ornamental; useful as a tonic in acceleration of low spirits, and an equalizer of the distribution of wealth. It is probably the most effective income-reducing agent known.

Caution: Highly explosive in inexperienced hands.

News Headlines . . .

View Dim On Strike

IUE Rejecting Peace Plan—A cloud of despair settles over the Westinghouse Electric corp. strike front as employees and employers await only a formal announcement by the key union that it will not accept a Government-sponsored settlement proposal.

Pittsburgh's Rivers May Hit Flood Stage— Due to the heavy rainfall the Ohio river is expected to go over the flood marker. Downtown the several roads and parking lots were closed because of floooding.

Confessed Slayer Faces Quiz—William Warnick, 59 year old construction worker, who already has confessed one slaying in Conway, W. Va. will be questioned about the murder of a West Virginia university English professor.

Sales Tax Faces Fight in Senate—A move to knock the Ohio stamp collection plan from Pennsylvania's new three per cent sales tax is under way in the Senate.

Families Flee Cave-in—An official state of emergency existed in Arnold when half block of homes sank slowly into the ground. Fourteen families were evacuated.

Ike urges Nuclear Ban—President Eisenhower proposed to Soviet Primier Nikolai Bulganin a ban on future production of nuclear weapons.

Arab Chiefs Join Crisis Parley—King Saud of Saudi Arabia flew to Cairo to join the heads of Egypt and Syria in a strategy conference that could determine whether there is to be peace or war in the Middle East.

Non-Segregation Edict Applies to Colleges—The U. S. Supreme Court states there is no segregation in any level of public education.

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

Westminster college's track season opens with a big bang this month with the possibility of several indoor meets, and the first outdoor tangle on April 17. With the advent of the 1956 Olympics in Australia this fall, track is becoming more and more important every day. Let's take a look at our team and their chances during the 1956 ash court season.

No Problem

Talent is no problem for the track Titans. Nearly everyone on last year's team will be back on the cinders again this year. The addition of several freshmen to the team should make it a cinch for the Titan squad to cop the Tri-State finals once again.

Coaching is no problem for the cindermen either. Back again to coach the squad is Harold Barry who led the team to Tri-State victory last year.

National Scene

Track is in the news everywhere. Indoor meets are being held all over the country. Foremost in the news about indoor meets is Wes Santee, who had his amateur standing removed by the A.A.U. Santee was suspended for life from amateur racing for cashing in on his expense allowances. Santee took the case to court. The court ruling is being withheld until all the evidence can be accumulated. Miler Wes is thus allowed to compete until the court ruling is handed down.

Olympics

Court rulings have nothing to do with the Olympics, however. Santee, probably the United States' best hope for the indoor mile, will not be allowed to compete in the Olympics. Not only that, but the Olympic Rules committee may decide against all who compete against Marine Santee. This was pointed out clearly last week when Santee ran the indoor mile in Madison Square Garden. He ran that one alone.

Elsewhere in Manthattan other track contests were taking place. Not content with the breaking of the four-minute mile, coaches and cindermen now look for new fields to conquer. Last week a new record appeared on the horizon. The U. S. Air Force's Parry O'Brien stepped before the New York Athletic club and put the shot for a new indoor record of 59 feet 4 1/2 inches. This shot-put record will probably stand for some time and gives fair warning of what to expect in Australia next fall.

Around The World

Manhattan is not the only place track is making news. Red China also vies for copy space. Time magazine tells us there is a new addition to the list of track and field events officially recognized by the Physical Culture and Sports commission of Red China—the hand grenade throw. The Red Chinese (and presumably world) record, as claimed in the commission's latest progress report; 225.99 feet.

The Winners

Pictured above are Fred Wagner, Ken Wessel, Jerry Long and Tom McGrath who broke their own record at the Penn-Ohio swimming championship at Grove City.

Riley Brings Scoring Total To 1388; Becomes Top Scorer in History

Every point Titan center Jim Riley scores next year will set a new Westminster record.

The high scoring record helped to bring honors to the 6'5" junior this week. Collier's Magazine gave him an honorable mention in their annual All-American team.

Riley, former McKeesport high school star, has tallied 1388 points in three years to set a mark no former Titan has equalled in four years of competition.

In addition he holds the all-time records for most field goals (418) and free throws (552).

Three players who graduated in 1952 follow Riley in total points. Pat King, of Connellsville, scored 1143 points in his four years, including 412 field goals. Johnny Abraham of Irwin had 1080 markers and Ed Halas of Ford City scored 1037 in four years.

In addition, Riley set the mark for most points per game when he scored 38 against Geneva college February 18 at Memorial Field house as the Titans went down to a 78-77 defeat. Riley held the previous mark at 37.

Pat King scored 1143 points in four years of varsity play. Johnny Abraham scored 1080 points and Ed Halas scored 1037 points during the same period. All three graduated from Westminster in 1952.

The Titans have enjoyed eight out of nine winning seasons. In the '48-'49 season, the Titans won fifteen and dropped eight. In the following years, they have sported 25-4, 22-6, 15-7, 17-6, 14-11 and this past season had a 13-11 tally. This series of winning season was interrupted only during the 1952-53 campaign when the Titans were hurt by the graduation of King, Abraham and Halas.

Ridl Announces Baseball Meeting

Buzz Ridl announces that all men interested in playing baseball this spring are requested to meet at the Field house Monday, March 12 at four p.m.

The baseball Titans play their first game against Pitt on April 10, at home. The coaches would like to get practice under way as soon as the weather permits.

Sigma Nu's Win 2nd Championship

Sigma Nu copped their second basketball championship this year by defeating the Block W team in the first two games of a three game series. The third game was not played.

The first game played on Monday was a thriller all the way to the finish. The Snakes took an early lead and held it all the way to the half. After half time, the Block W team came back to tie the score with set shots by Whann and drives by Cortese. Sigma Nu crept ahead in the final minutes, however, to win, 43-42.

The second game was more of the same. Block W held their own for awhile,, but slowly slipped behind the hard-driving Snakes to lose, 68-59. Al Roe, Bob Davis and Ralph Straley were high scorers for Sigma Nu.

Players for Sigma Nu are Davis, Roe, Straley, Don Sheraw, Bill Knab and Walt MacRae.

Taking the floor for Block W were Vince Cortese, Bob Bleggi, Bernie Taylor, Al King and Bruce Whann.

"C" league playoffs began Thursday of this week. The series highlights rivalry between Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Nu. Sigma Nu is seeking to sweep all three leagues, while the Sig Eps seek their first tournament title. Sigma Nu already has copped the inter-fraternity trophy by copping both "A" and "B" leagues.

For Sigma Nu in the "C" league playoffs will be Jack Heidish, Eric Wilson, Jim Dewar, Lee Africa, Bill Pickford and Bob Patton.

Pounding the boards for the Sig Eps will be Jay DeBolt, Wes Hyde, Dave Nicoden, Don McKee, Harry Obley and Dick Rausch.

Mermaids Attend Show

Terropin Club of Allegheny college has invited Westminster Mermaids to attend their water "Aqua Scents" which will be held Wednesday night, March 14.

Those Mermaids going are Martha Diez, Virginia Dickson, Carol Doutt, Doris Gething, Pat Jenkins, Kathleen Johnson, Roxanne Johnson, Sue Kingsley, Wynetta Schmidt and Jane Stewart.

Titan Swimmers Finish 3rd In Penn-Ohio Championships

Blue and White 400-Yard Relay Team Breaks Their Own Record Set in 1951

The Titan swimmers, who waited until their final dual meet of the season to find victory, came through with a fine showing last Saturday at the Penn-Ohio association swimming championships at Grove City. Westminster finished third of the eight schools entered and also set a new record in the 400-yard free style relay.

The relay team of Jerry Long, Tom McGrath, Ken Wessel and Fred Wagner swam the 400 yards in 3:50.3 to break their own record of 3:53.1 set back in 1951.

Two other records were broken in the meet, and one record was tied. Ray Cox of Allegheny broke his own mark set last year in the 200-yard back stroke when he swam the distance in 2:18.7. His old time was 2:19.6. Allegheny college's 300-yard medley relay set a standard in 3:04 beating Carnegie Tech's 3:10 set last year. Mark Morris of Case Tech negotiated the 100-yard free style race in 55.1 seconds, tieing Grove City's Lee Stellar's record.

Tom McGrath won a silver medal for his first place in the 50-yard free style. Tom swam the distance in 25 seconds. Fred Wagner won a gold medal for his second place in the 440-yard free style. Bowie of Grove City was the only individual to win two silver medals. He took a first place in the 220-yard free style and also the 200-yard breast stroke. Lee Stellar of Grove City also won two awards; a silver medal for his first place in the 200-yard individual medley and a bronze medal for his third place in the 100-yard free style.

Other finishers for Westminster were Wessel, fourth in the 220 free style, Long, sixth in the 50-yard free style and Keppel, sixth in the 220 back stroke.

Results of the meet follow:
First—Allegheny, 52½ points
Second—Grove City, 42 points
Third—Westminster, 38 points
Fourth—Case Tech, 34½ points
Fifth—Slippery Rock, 32 points
Sixth—Carnegie Tech, 28½ points
Seventh—W. & J., 13½ points
Eighth—Fenn, 9 points

Golf Schedule

April 10—Thiel, away
April 26—Slippery Rock, here
April 27—Grove City, here
May 4—W & J, away
May 8—Grove City, away
May 10—Allegheny Tournament
May 11—Carnegie Tech, here
May 15—Allegheny, away
May 17—Thiel, here
May 22—Youngstown, here

Track Schedule

April 17—Geneva, away
April 20—Slippery Rock, here
April 24—Carnegie Tech, away
April 28—Allegheny, here
May 5—W & J, here
May 9—Grove City, here
May 12—Tri-State meet, Meadville
May 15—Edinboro, here

Tennis Schedule

April 14—Slippery Rock, here
April 19—Hiram, here
April 23—Duquesne, here
April 28—Slippery Rock, away
May 5—W & J, here
May 8—Hiram, away
May 10—Carnegie Tech, away
May 15—Grove City, away
May 22—Grove City, here

Thiel Hosts WAA

W.A.A. will attend a play-day at Thiel college March 10. Basketball, swimming and table tennis are a few of the sports in which the girls may participate. Representing Westminster are Diana Black, Martha Diez, Pat Jenkins, Virginia McMahon, Connie Simpson and Glenna Weister.

FOR SHOE POLISH

AND LACES

SEE—

DOC FUSCO

Bank Building

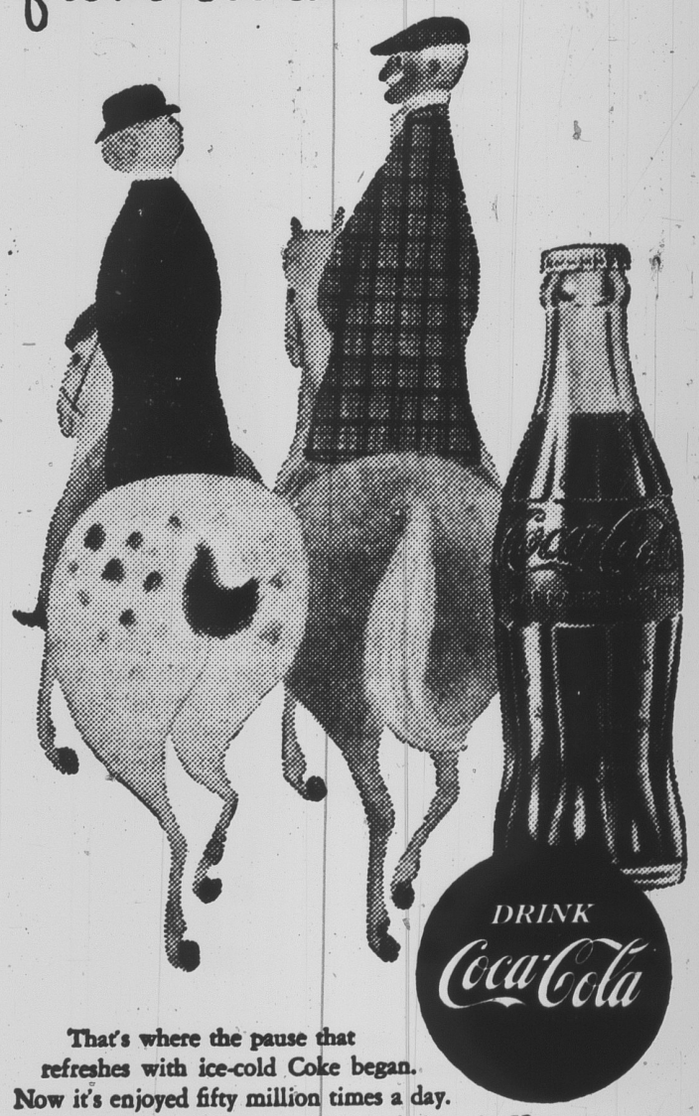

A COMPLETE SELECTION of Dinner Rolls
Both Whole Wheat and White
- CLOVER LEAF
- PARKER HOUSE
- SNAILS
- HAMBURG and HOT DOG BUNS

WILMINGTON BAKERY

FOR SOME FRESH FRUIT EACH DAY
To Keep The Flu Bug Away . . .
Shop at
Brown's Food Market
THE STORE WITH MORE

Clark's Chewing Gum
Budget Pack 50 Sticks for 29¢
Fred Williamson's

"9 originally came from Atlanta"

That's where the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coke began. Now it's enjoyed fifty million times a day. Must be something to it. And there is. Have an ice-cold Coca-Cola and see... right now.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

SOCIAL WHIRL

Houseparties Top Social Calendar; Thoughts Turn To Greek Weekend

By Dianne Oursler

Weekend entertainment will be highlighted by sorority houseparties tonight. Many of the couples will lose their inhibitions as they don costumes of outlandish fashion and, amidst the fun, everyone will capture the party spirit. Tomorrow morning, Theta Upsilon will hold a breakfast being given for the fraternity pledges.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . Domain conference was held at Ohio Wesleyan university last weekend. Attending were: William Braund, Lawrence Brooks, Raymond Heid, Donald Hudson, Howard Johnston, John McPherson, David Reed, Russell Stump and Pressly Wilson . . Officers for the coming year were installed Monday . . Pledge-active night will be held in Old 77 next Monday.

QUADRANGLE . . Eleanor Nye is chairman of the houseparty with Elizabeth McLaughlin working on entertainment; Nedora Campbell, refreshments; Barbara Asbury, decorations and Evelyn Dull, clean-up.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Tonight's houseparty has a "circus" theme, and the pledge class is in charge . . . Barbara Phillips, ex '58, visited campus recently.

SIGMA NU . . Activation was held on Monday evening for Roger Fry . . Build-a-booth committee for Greek weekend is headed by Stanley Caldarelli with William Knab, Francis Gardner, William Pryor, Edward Echnoz, William Pickford and Ray Harry assisting . . . Jack Heidish has been elected candidate for IFC king . . The spring formal will be held at the Butler Elks club. Charles Bartells is in charge of the dance . . William Jackson, assisted by Alan Wheeler, is Sing and Swing director.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Patricia Mele has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Michael Tomko . . Marilyn Steadman was chosen "Queen of Hearts" for 1956 at the Sweetheart dance last Saturday . . Thursday night a Father-Son banquet was held . . A Sweetheart dinner took place at the Tavern on Sunday . . Gerald Schofield is in charge of the chapter contribution to Greek weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . Carol Paulie is chairman of the fraternity pledge breakfast on Saturday . . "Komic Kut-Up" is the theme of the pledge houseparty. Pat Trosch heads the committees . . Diane Levy and Roxanne Johnson visited Pennsylvania State university last weekend.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . Judy Barrett is general chairman of the houseparty, "Hobo Haven," given by the pledge class. Committee heads are: Claire Davies, entertainment; Cynthia McKay, decorations and Roberta DeMott, refreshments . . Cerebral palsy victims will benefit from the sale of candy in the dormitories.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Darl Holland and Marlin Reynolds are directing Sing and Swing . . Bruce Giles is the chapter nominee for IFC king . . Peter Marshall, William Meyer, Mark Moore, William Stepnick and Richard Walker visited the chapter at Ohio State university . . Donna Morgan has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of David Jaeger.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Activation ceremonies will be held tomorrow morning for Beverly Bird, Lois Bent, Donna Boyle, Janet Long and Lorraine Mader. Activation dinner will follow at noon at the Tavern . . Barbara Tyrrell has been appointed sports chairman for the coming year . . "TV or not TV" is the theme of the houseparty tonight at the Alpha Sigma Phi house. Nancy Etzel is general chairman.

CHI OMEGA . . Barbara Caldwell has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of William Pryor . . Helen Kirkpatrick has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Henry Aurandt . . Diana Black visited the chapter at Ohio Wesleyan university last weekend . . Marianne Hoffman, ex '57, and Naomi Hogg, ex '56, were on campus recently . . . Pledges are having a dance tonight in Old 77.

KAPPA DELTA . . Susan Yeager has accepted the Chi Psi pin of Harry Millis, a student at Connecticut Wesleyan university . . . Leah Schill is chairman of the houseparty given by the pledges . . Saturday at 3:30 p.m., a party will be held for the pledges in celebration of White Rose week.

Dr. McGinnis Sails For British Isles

Dr. Myrta McGinnis, 243 North Market street, left Saturday for England to do research at English universities while on a sabbatical leave from Westminster college where she is a professor of English. She sailed aboard the Queen Elizabeth from New York City.

While there she will study in British museums and at Oxford and Cambridge universities in the field of Chaucerian influence. She will also travel in Scotland and in Europe prior to returning in August.

Campus Calendar

Friday March 9
Chapel, Mr. Barbe—Little Theatre
8:30-11:30 Sorority house parties
Saturday, March 10
T. U. Fraternity Pledge breakfast
8:30-11:30 Russell hall party
Sunday, March 11
7:45 Vespers
Monday, March 12
Chapel, Mock convention
8:15 Play, "Noah"
Tuesday, March 13
Chapel, Dr. Orr
8:15 Play, "Noah"
8:15 Paul Cherney, "Exploring the Secrets of the Underwater World"
Wednesday, March 14
Chapel, Browne hall
7:00 Y.W.C.A.
8:15 Play, "Noah"
8:15 Kappa Delta Pi meeting
Thursday, March 15
Chapel, Debate team
3:30-5 Campus Club tea, Russell hall
7:00 Senior movies
8:15 Play, "Noah"
A.A.U.W.
Friday, March 16
Chapel, Dr. Jamison
8:15 Play, "Noah"
Greek week-end

Roto Candidate Names Due Today

Today, is the deadline for submitting nominees to the annual Press campus queen contest, said Mary Lou Mansell, this year's chairman of the student council project.

A special committee of Student Council, Block W and Y.W.C.A. representatives will meet on March 10 to eliminate the group of nominees down to four candidates. A faculty committee will choose the final candidate.

Each year Roto magazine, Sunday supplement, sponsors this contest among tri-state colleges and universities. A picture of Westminster's queen selection must be at the Press by Monday, March 12. Pictures of all candidates will be published Sunday, April 1.

The campus cover girl will appear on the Roto cover Sunday, May 13. This year's winner will be chosen by four judges rather than by readers' votes as past contests.

Judges for the contest are: Lenore Brundige, Press fashion editor; Frederick Burleigh, director of the Pittsburgh Playhouse; Harold Corsini, photographer and Edgar A. Roth, art director of U. S. Steel corporation.

President's Death Shocked Town

New Wilmington was shocked in September, 1901, by the assassination of the nation's president, William McKinley, who was well-known in the community since his father operated the furnace on Furnace Hill for many years.

Little Theatre Presents

(Continued from Page 1)

exuberance around the deck in the dawn of a golden age.

In the midst of this overjoyed activity, one finds that a little bit of the vicious old world has crept aboard and threatens to make this glorious new age fall to pieces. Ham is the sore spot here. Not only does he cause doubt and taunt his shipmates with old fears and misgivings, he also burdens his father with sceptical questions.

It is at this point in the show that the animals (portrayed by Wende Westinghouse, Patricia Genge, Catherine Snyder, Nancy Reese, Joyce Guy, Helen Lemmon, Betty Oursler and Ingrid Clay) are cleverly worked into the plot. They are the best and only friends that Noah has left. Hence, he pours out his troubles and fears to them and they, trying their utmost to comfort their friend, respond in their most understanding growls.

Thus, "Noah" becomes the story of a kindly old man who grows lonely in his faith, pilots his craft safely to shore in the midst of doubts and is rudely deserted by the young folks the moment they set foot on solid ground once more. Although disheartened by the course of events, Noah, himself is left undaunted in his faith in God. Noah's appeal to Him for some sign of satisfaction provides a touching moment.

Andre Obey, the author of "Noah," is acclaimed as a fresh and versatile writer who is certain to leave his mark in the annals of French play writing. It would be impossible indeed to attempt a full assessment of his talent and contribution to the theater. Seeking a career as a writer, Obey began with short stories, turning next to journalism as a means of livelihood, doing some music criticism and sports reporting, adding finally, dramatic criticism. He next centered his efforts on novels until at last he focused his talents upon play writing. Meeting with success in this field, Obey continued along these lines and produced many different types of plays from tragedy to fantasy. Although Obey is the acknowledged creator of a number of fine productions, "Noah" is considered to be his masterpiece.

Combining the efforts of the outstanding abilities of Andre Obey with arduous rehearsals, well-planned scenery, and cleverly designed costumes, Mr. Barbe, his associates, and his cast hope to produce, through "Noah," a single effect upon the audience that will be remembered in the highlights of Little Theatre presentations at Westminster.

Ex Libris

By Beryl Rowland

Four new books have recently been added to the library. One is Campus Gods on Trial, in which Chad Walsh examines the confusing forces that influence campus thinking. He terms these forces "Gods of the intellect," and he shows exactly why they are inadequate to satisfy the needs of the college student.

Two biographies are among the new books this week. Thaddeus Stevens by Ralph Korngold is an exciting drama of Civil War days which shows the part Thaddeus Stevens of Pennsylvania played in the important issues of that time. The other biography is Gericault by Klaus Berger. Gericault was an artist of the nineteenth century, and this book reviews his life, evalutes his artistic achievement, and also contains illustrations of his works.

Math majors might be interested in Tobias Dantzig's The Bequest of the Greeks in which he gives the evolution of mathematics from B. C.

News Briefs

CYF will be under the leadership of Irma Allen Sunday, announces Dan Migliore, president. David Abram and Ted Richardson will speak on the theme, "The International Christian Language—Symbolism." Eleanor Wilson will be soloist.

Don't smoke in bed—the next ashes that fall on the floor could be your own.

JEWELRY OF THE FINEST QUALITY
J. R. Meek, Jeweler
We also repair

IT'S SPRINGTIME AND CLEANING TIME
BE READY FOR EASTER HOLIDAYS
New Wilmington Cleaners
CAMPUS REPRESENTIVES
● Fred Wagner
● Ann McDowell

Just The Place . . .
. . . to meet and eat
THE GRILLE
We Specialize in PIZZA

WILMINGTON THEATRE
Fri, and Sat.
CHIEF CRAZY HORSE
Victor Mature — Susan Ball
Mon. and Tues.
DESPERATE HOURS
Humphrey Bogart — Fredrick March
Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
SINCERELY YOURS
Liberace — Dorothy Malone
Coming:—FOX FIRE

Comfort has always been a college requirement

And, Arrow underwear offers pure comfort in any position. The Arrow Tee has a neckband that won't enlarge, keeps its good fit always. $1.25. Boxer shorts, with contour seat, in novelty patterns or solid colors give you style with no-bind wear. $1.50. Arrow Guards (knitted briefs), offer the same complete comfort as all Arrow underwear. $1.20.

ARROW
—first in fashion
SHIRTS • TIES
HANDKERCHIEFS • UNDERWEAR

Earn Your Master's Degree
Plan Now for an Executive Career in Retailing
A one-year executive development program open to all A.B. and B.S. degree graduates with good undergraduate records. Curriculum includes executive direction in outstanding department stores in six major East and Midwest cities (with pay, minimum $450). You earn your Master's Degree at the same time. Co-ed. Scholarships. G.I. approved. Graduates are selectively placed before graduation. Next class begins Sept. 4, 1956. Apply now. Write for BULLETIN "C."
SCHOOL OF RETAILING
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH
Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

Walker's Have It
"Plinkin" supplies for Your 22 Rifles or Pistols
● Hoppe's Cleaning Equipent
● Targets
● Short, Long, Long Rifle Shells and the New Remington "Rocket"
● Also Winchester, Remington, Mossburg and Savage Arms
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

VOTE
FOR IFC KING

The Holcad

The greatest college newspaper in Lawrence county.

Vol. 76 No. 19 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, March 16, 1956

Interviews For Service Jobs Begin Tuesday

Dr. Charles Edwards of the political science department has arranged with the state for Mr. Alexander J. Davit to visit Westminster Tuesday, March 20. Mr. Davit serves in the department as the Liberian desk officer.

The purpose of his visit is to interest students in Foreign Service and State Department careers. A series of group interviews will be held in the faculty lounge of the library Tuesday afternoon.

Seniors majoring in the social sciences, economics or business administration are urged to meet Mr. Davit to apply for the special examination to be given June 25 for entrance into the diplomatic corps of the Foreign Service. Anyone is welcome for an interview, however.

Students should sign up for these interviews with Dr. Edwards in the history office. Dr. Edwards also requests that students planning to make an interview pick up the literature on employment opportunities with the State Department prior to their interview. This literature may be obtained in the history office.

A native of Pennsylvania, Mr. Davit attended both West Chester State Teachers college where he received his B.S. degree and Temple university in Philadelphia.

His first job with the Foreign Service came in 1946 as Third Secretary and Vice Consul at Damacus, Syria. In 1949 he went to Port Elizabeth, South Africa as Vice Consul. From 1950 until 1952 he was Second Secretary and Consul at Tangier. Subsequently Mr. Davit returned to his present job in Washington.

Adams Gives Organ Recital

Miss Lorraine Adams, senior from Watertown, N. Y., will present her senior recital at the organ in the college chapel, Thursday, March 22, at 8:15 p.m. Miss Adams will graduate in June with a Bachelor of Music degree.

Miss Adams has selected the following music for her program: "Prelude and Fugue in G Minor," "Chorale Prelude on 'Lo How a Rose'," both by Brahms; "Chorale Prelude on 'Sleepers, Awake'," "Fugue a la Gigue," both by Bach; "Aria," by Peeters; "Trumpet Dialogue," by Clerambault; "Chorale in B Minor," by Franck and "Variations sur un Noel," by Dupre.

News Briefs

Kappa Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary, held its regular meeting last week. The meeting consisted of a discussion of two famous mathematicians, Ceva and Euler. Refreshments were served.

IFC King Candidates

Today the girls on campus will have a chance to vote for their favorite for IFC King. The king will be crowned tonight at the semi-formal dance to be held in New Castle. The candidates are left to right, Bruce Giles, ASP; Jack Heidish, SN; Robert Veon, PKT and James Riley, SPE.

Forsberg Names Candida Cast

Miss Charlotte Forsberg today made known the cast for Candida, final Little Theatre production of the season which she will direct.

Starring in the roles of Candida and Father Morell are Beverly Bemis and William Barbe. Donald Hudson has been cast as Marchbanks, John De Santis as Burgess, Neil Brown as Lexy and Joyce Guy as Proserpine.

Production dates for Candida are May 1-4. On Saturday, May 5, the play will be presented at 2:30 in the Little Theatre as part of the Parents' Day festivities.

A satire by Bernard Shaw, Candida is set in the study of the Reverend James Mavor Morell, St. Dominic's Parsonage, London, England. The time is October, 1894.

Dr. Jamison Speaks At NCCD Banquet

The send-off banquet which is to precede National Christian College Day will be held on Thursday, April 12 at 6:00 in Russell hall.

Dr. Howard N. Jamison, Jr., professor of English Bible at Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological seminary, will start the dinner with an important message. All speakers and drivers who are to participate in the following Sunday's activities are invited to attend.

Pan-Hell Holds Fashion Show

Pan-Hellenic council is sponsoring a fashion show featuring the styles of Bobbie Brooks. The show will be held in Old 77 Tuesday, March 20 at 8:15 p.m. The clothes will be furnished by Strouss-Hirshbergs in New Castle.

One member of each sorority and Quadrangle will model for the show. Not only will the fashions be for college students but for the misses group, too.

All fashions will be reasonably priced.

Honors Group Lists Forty-nine

Forty-nine students are listed in the Honor Scholarship group for the first semester, 1955-56, announces Dr. John Forry.

The sophomore class has 17 in the group and 15 seniors meet the requirements. Students must have made better than a 2.5 average for the semester in order to be on the list.

Seniors are Carol Galbreath, Janet Reddy, Daniel Migliore, Doris Piccino, Robert Pierson, Robert Peterson, Mary Lou Walker, Nancy Siehl, Lynn Daugherty, Marlene Rahenkamp, Lorraine Adams, Margaret Ihnat, Barbara Rauschelbach and Gail Cheetham.

Ten juniors are in the group. They are Diane Levy, Eleanor Wilson, Barbara Farrow, Roger Finlay, Ann Price, Robert Gardner, Perry Kirklin, Lorraine Wortmann, Marilyn Elkins and Elizabeth McGill.

Sophomores are Richard Dangle, Roberta Foster, Dorothy Kelsey, Carol Roberts, Kay Dierst, Mary Lou Mansell, Aliceann Rea, Joanne Snyder, Conner White, Jacqueline Walker, Bernard Taylor, Ruth Borell, Carolyn Jones, Wallace Giffen, Jean Wilson, Alan Ellis and Miriam Fox.

The seven freshmen on the list are Margaret Black, Esther Davis, Roberta Post, John Specht, Arlene Passacic, Ivor Thomas and Nancy Griffen.

Barbe Presents Speech Recital

William Barbe will present his senior speech recital April 6 at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre when he directs and stars in "Death of a Salesman" by Arthur Miller.

The five-scene production will consist of cuttings from the original play. Assisting Barbe as director will be Patricia Hayman.

Making his first appearance in the Little Theatre will be John DeSantis, freshman speech major, who will portray one of the minor roles. Others in the cast are Kathleen McCoy, John Loeffler, Donald Hudson and Ann McDowell.

Working on the production crew are Allen Ellis, lights; Olive Hunt and Ingrid Clay, props; Patricia Hayman and Leah Schill, sound effects and Barbara Bachman and Frank Wrill, stage. Ushers will be from the Sigma Kappa sorority. Admission is free and no seats are reserved.

Newcomer Directs Play, 'Submerged'

Richard Newcomer will present "Submerged," a one-act tragedy Wednesday, March 21 in the 4:20 Theater.

A senior speech major from Brentwood, Newcomer is directing the play as part of his speech seminar project. The action in the story takes place in a wrecked and submerged submarine.

Those in the cast are John Blamphin, Larry Bobst, Wayne Henderson, Jack Mansfield, Jack Rickard and Ed Towns.

Whitehill Announces Room Deposits Due

Mrs. Martha Whitehill, dean of women, asks that women students who wish to reserve a dormitory room for the 1956-57 academic year turn their name and a $15 deposit into the business office by April 17.

Drawing for choice of rooms will be held at a later date. Women planning to live in the sorority houses also must pay the $15 as no room can be reserved until the fee is paid.

Greek Weekend Begins Tonight

Events Feature Dance, IFC King, Carnival

Festivities for "Greek Weekend", sponsored by the Interfraternity council and the Pan-Hellenic council, will open tonight with a semi-formal dance at the Cathedral in New Castle.

Music for the dance will be provided by Jack Lewis' 12-piece orchestra from Youngstown, Ohio. All girls going to the dance have been given one o'clock permissions.

Some time during the evening an IFC king will be crowned. Each fraternity has a candidate. Posters, placed around the campus by the fraternities, advertised the candidates during the past week.

The candidates for IFC king are Bruce Giles, Alpha Sigma Phi; Jack Heidish, Sigma Nu; James Riley, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Robert Veon, Phi Kappa Tau.

Thursday, parades of cars carrying the candidates dressed in costumes wound around the campus and through New Wilmington.

Voting for the king by the girls will go on in the tower room of Old Main today beginning at 2 p.m. The polls will be open long enough to allow those girls returning from student teaching to vote.

Saturday night a carnival is to be held in "Old 77". "Try your luck" booths will be set up around the floor by each fraternity and sorority. The booths will be open at 8:30 p.m. and will be set up in midway fashion featuring "feats of skill and chance." At 10 p.m. they will be closed and the carnival-goers will be entertained by each Greek letter group.

The entertainment for the carnival will consist of many things usually seen at a carnival including fire-eating and barbershop quartets. A "fun house" will be set up downstairs in "Old 77". It will be dark and will work on the imaginations of those who go through.

Master of ceremonies for Saturday evening will be James Dorsch.

Those heading the committees for the carnival are Jim Dorsch, entertainment; Marian Wolk, clean-up; Frank Wilgocki, planning for booths; Elaine Shaw and Robert Detrick, publicity; Ralph Scott, fun house; Jean Aungst, food; Alfred Roe, finance and Harry Obley, tickets.

At chapel Sunday evening the fraternities and sororities will sit in special sections as individual groups. Dr. Will W. Orr will be the speaker.

Now Hear This

Mr. Conley Davies of the Pittsburgh YMCA and director of Camp Kon-O-Kwee will be interviewing college men for summer employment as camp counselors in the TUB from 12:15-4:00 p.m. Tuesday, March 20.

—o—

What is Scrawl?

Your magazine!

Who reads Scrawl?

You do!

Who contributes to Scrawl?

You should!

When?

Now—and until March 24

What?

Poetry, fiction, essays and true sketches

Where?

Leave manuscripts in the English office or at the KD house with Jeanne Douthett

—o—

Members of IRC who are interested in driving to Philadelphia on Friday and Saturday, April 6-7, to attend the annual conference of the Association of International Relations clubs, please get in touch with Dr. Charles Edwards.

Kreckowski Chosen Candidate

Joan Krechkowski, a freshman two year secretarial major from Glen Willard, Pa., has been chosen to represent Westminster in the annual Pittsburgh Press campus queen contest.

Joan was one of four finalists selected from a large group because they were photogenic. Other finalists were: Lorraine Wortmann, junior, from Orange, N.J.; Sherry Franklin, sophomore, from Mount Lebanon, and Julia Holstein, sophomore, from Grove City.

Mr. Galbreath, Mr. Wiley and Mr. Taylor were judges to choose the representative from the finalists.

Pictures of all the candidates in the tri-state area will be published in the April 1 issue of Roto magazine.

Letter to the Editor

The college board said in its recent meeting that the matter of setting the segregation issue should be left to the different social organizations.

This seems a proper procedure in settling the matter . . . but is it? We are informed in the Westminster college Bulletin 1954-55 that "Westminster is a church affiliated college", which "endeavors to perpetuate the ideals of Christianity". On page forty the Bulletin further states, "In conformity with the Christian principles upon which the College was established, Westminster requires the highest moral and ethical behavior among all members of the student body."

Applying this to the issue of segregation the board's lack of positive action seems to fall short of the goals. There are the further rules that drinking, gambling and dishonesty will be met with disciplinary action. How is it that the college can take a definite stand on these issues yet not do the same on an ethical problem that cuts across the Church's views? If they do not believe in segregation, which the college says they do not, why the failure to take a definite stand on this issue as they have on other issues?

The social organizations are to be admired. They have taken a definite stand on the issue. Segregation clauses are found in many of their constitutions and such clauses are carried out in actual practice.

It is hard to understand how the college can continue to teach Christian ethics and Bible classes when it refuses to take some sort of positive action.

Sincerely,
Robert Leach

Busy Time For Greeks

This is the first Greek Weekend for Westminster's students. Elaborate planning and much preparation has been taking place behind the scenes to make the program a success.

The dance tonight at the Cathedral in New Castle starts the weekend off with a formal note. Saturday the carnival will get into full swing with all the fraternities and sororities participating. Booths are expected to show much originality and ingenuity in planning and operation.

Finishing the festive weekend will be chapel Sunday night when all Greek organizations will attend.

It is hoped that this weekend will be a success and the tradition shall be continued.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday March 16, 1956 No. 19

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"The only clue I'll give you is that it came from the student cafeteria."

Playing Animals, It Ain't Easy

By Wende Westinghouse

By now, many of you have seen the play, "Noah," which is being presented this week. It is an unusual play, and we animals certainly hope you like it, because we put enough effort into it to move a mountain. Although you may not notice it, the apparent ease with which the animals perform their parts is accomplished only by the monumental efforts of the participants.

If you think the part of an animal is all play and no work, try hopping around for ten minutes in a squatting position and you will have a rough idea of the ordeals we are going through. Add to this a mask that prevents sight and breathing and a costume that prohibits actions, and you will have the complications that arise with being an animal.

Miscellaneous frustrations are: a loss of balance, claustrophobia, an all-around feeling of clumsiness and potential stagefright, resulting perhaps from knocked-down scenery, miscues or general faux pas.

Only by the utmost alertness have we animals been able to concentrate on the plot and if we have slipped out of character once or twice, we hope you have understood. Don't think we haven't enjoyed it, however. If I had it all to do over again I wouldn't hesitate and I think I could say the same for all the other animals.

Washington Walking Is No Fun

By Carol Dietz

Being lulled to sleep at 3:30 a.m. by the swaying of a bus in motion and by the melodious strains of an inch-long harmonica is an experience not shared by many. Many other long-wished-for experiences were in store for those eager souls who made the pilgrimage to Washington, D. C. last week.

An early-morning view of our capitol city is indeed impressive, and well deserves the remark of a visitor to the city in 1816 who described Washington as "the city of magnificent distances." (How well those of us who made the trip appreciate this remark!) Aside from ranking second in the world as the city having the most trees, the ration of taxis alone to the population is 1 to 8. Never be without a ride!

The visit to the Capiol building was quite enlightening. Although there were threats to use a .45 on the door at the bottom of the steps which led to the rotunda of the Capitol, we finally made the ascent of 180 feet. Some of the braver souls ventured outside, just beneath the statue of Freedom which crowns the rotunda, to view the circular plan of the city.

Down to earth once again we made our way to the Senate Chamber where the farm bill was, and still is, the issue at hand. We were made much more aware of the thought and discussion that goes into a bill so vitally important to our country's welfare. Senators Hickenlooper (Iowa), Humphrey (Minnesota), and Kefauver (Tennessee) each took his stand on the bill and the deciding vote by Nixon on Friday was interesting to see and hear.

Many other buildings, monuments and memorials attracted our attention during free time. The Smithsonian Institute was very fascinating. The 18th century apothecary shop, the Wright Brothers' "Kitty Hawk Flyer" and the desk on which Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence were noteworthy. Among other things of interest, though not of major importance, was Sherman's horse—rather well preserved! You never know just what you might run into! Or what might run into you!

A seven-minute stroll through the executive mansion revealed the extravagant furnishings and helped to impress us with the continual amount of care necessary to keep our capital as lovely as it is.

From the White House we went to the Pakistan Embassy where we were introduced to the minister from that country, and were served tea and cookies by our recently-acquired friend, Dr. Bhatty.

The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier was perhaps appropriate as a last place to visit before we left the city. A lone sentry stands guard before the tomb which was carved from a single block of marble. The words, HERE RESTS IN HONORED GLORY AN AMERICAN SOLDIER KNOWN BUT TO GOD, are inscribed on the rear panel. At Arlington, in peace, rest heroes of all our wars, without regard to race, creed, faith or color—a symbol of the American way of life.

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Barbie Farrow

Last week I had the pleasure of going to Washington, D. C., on the Phi Alpha Theta trip. Washington is really a beautiful city and it is very easy to see why foreign diplomats are so impressed with the huge public buildings. Another impressive experience was visiting the Senate during the heated discussion on the farm bill. It was especially interesting to see such personalities as Vice President Nixon, Senators Kefauver, Duff, Saltonstall, Smith, Barkley, etc. after having seen them many times on television programs and newsreels.

* * *

While in Washington, the group had the chance to go to Senator Duff's (our mock convention keynote speaker) office and talk to him. He briefed us on what was going on in many of the committees and in the Senate itself. During a lull in the Senate discussions, I was privileged to have a fifteen minute interview with Senator Margaret Chase Smith. With her vivacious personality and excellent congressional record, it is no wonder that she is seriously being considered as a vice-presidential candidate.

* * *

I have often wondered what many of our concert guests do when they are not visiting colleges. Do you remember Rafael Mendez, the trumpe virtuoso, who has played at our band concerts? It seems that Mr. Mendez took a European trip with his 18 year old twin sons, Robert and Rafael, and the three played concerts with Xavier Cugat. The twins, who are studying medicine at Stanford university, are both talented trumpeters and perform ably with their father.

* * *

Do you know what the difference is between a housemother and a game warden? . . . Well, a game warden protects wildlife and the housemother prevents it.

* * *

At another college, a student moaned as he looked over his semester's grades.

"You can't beat the system," he declared. "I decided to take basket weaving for a snap course, but two Navajos enrolled, raised the curve, and I flunked."

* * *

At Dickinson college, in Carlisle, they have started a new experiment—an honor dormitory. Twenty-nine senior girls with parental permission are taking part. Each girl will be on her honor to abide by all dormitory regulations. If at any time she violates a rule she is on her honor to report herself to the house director and the dean of women. It will be very interesting to see how it works out.

News Headlines . . .

Kefauver Wins Primary

Kefauver beats Stevenson in New Hampshire primary—Democrat Estes Kefauver from Tennessee defeated the 1952 unsuccessful Democratic candidate, Adlai Stevenson, in the New Hampshire Democratic primary. On the Republican side of the balloting, Eisenhower won easily with Nixon receiving a large vice president vote.

Margaret Truman to Wed in April—Margaret Truman, daughter of ex-president Harry S. Truman, has announced her engagement to E. C. Daniels, a 43 year old New York newsman.

Senate votes 100% wheat price support—The U. S. Senate voted for a 100 per cent parity support on all wheat grown for human consumption in the U. S., but rejected a similar amendment on cotton. This was a defeat for Ike's farm policy—the first on the farm bill.

Cyprus Hit by Riots—The British controlled island of Cyprus has been hit by anti-British riots. The islanders would like to join Greece rather than remain in British hands.

Ike O. K.'s Nixon as Running Mate—After Nixon's strong showing in the New Hampshire primary, President Eisenhower announced that he would be pleased to have Nixon as the vice president nominee.

Movie Censorship Ruled Illegal in Pennsylvania—The Pennsylvania State Supreme court declared that the Motion Picture Censorship act of 1915 is unconstitutional. Immediately, the Senate started action on a new state movie code.

Tokyo Rose' Deportation set for April 13—Tokyo Rose, the sultry voiced Japanese propagandist of World War II, has been ordered by immigration officials to leave the U. S. by April 13th.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

In less than a month, the 1956 baseball season will be inaugurated. None of us will know the actual outcome of this season until next October but a certain privileged few have found people crazy enough to give us a sports column in a school newspaper and so I, being one of the privileged few, will make my predictions for 1956.

Yankees will Repeat

First in the American league I'm going to play it real safe and pick the Yankees. Their one weakness is at shortstop. Phil Rizzuto must be replaced and Casey Stengel hasn't found a real hard-hitting replacement for him. However, the Yankees should still repeat without any trouble. They acquired Mickey McDermott to bolster their pitching staff and along with "Whitey" Ford, Bob Turley, and Tommy Byrne it should be the best staff in the league.

In second place this year will be the Detroit Tigers; led by the great hitting of Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn they will give a lot of clubs trouble. Their one question mark is the pitching department.

Chicago Much Improved

I'm going out on the limb picking the Chicago White Sox for third because of their many question marks but the acquisition of Larry Doby will give them the power they've been lacking for the last few years. The Sox should have the second or third best pitching staff in the league. They are by far the fastest team in the league and they'll run on you at any time.

I'm afraid the Cleveland Indians will have to be satisfied with a fourth place this year. Their pitching staff, with the exception of Herb Scorer, is getting older; Bob Lemmon, Mike Garcia, and Early Wynn are all over thirty and it's hard to say if they can get a good start in the spring. They lost a lot of power when they traded Larry Doby though they picked up a much needed shortstop in Chico Carosquel.

Despite the return of Ted Williams for another year, the Boston Red Sox will have to be satisfied with fifth place. Lack of consistent pitching will greatly damage the beantowners chances. Norm Zauchin is a great first base prospect in his second year of major league ball.

The rest of the teams in the league will be Kansas City, Washington and Baltimore in that order of finish.

National League Powerful

Now for the best league, the powerful National league. This is by far in my estimation the most colorful league, full of powerful hitters and good pitchers. In first place and repeating 1955's performance will be the Brooklyn Dodgers. I don't know where they'll find the pitchers now that Johnny Podres has been drafted but they always do and I feel confident that their superior power will carry them to the top of the heap in the national league. Who can top the sluggers' row of Roy Campanella, Gil Hodges, Duke Snider, Carl Furillo and "Pee Wee" Reese? My guess would be no one.

In second place will be the Milwaukee Braves. Their pitching staff is one of the best in the league and their ball club is well rounded in every respect, but they won't beat Brooklyn's power.

Phillies are Favorites

In third place will be my favorite team, the Philadelphia Phillies. Mayo Smith has many question marks. Will Curt Simmons regain form? Will Jim Greengrass' leg recover from an operation he had over the winter? Will Andy Seminich be able to hold up behind the plate? Will Stan Lopat be able to convert himself to an able fielding first baseman? Despite these many questions the Phillies have good power in Del Ennis, Stan Lopata, Greengrass and Gran Hamner. They also have the best pitcher in baseball, Robin Roberts.

In fourth place will be the New York Giants. They have plenty of power but their pitching is too questionable. If Johnny Antonelli returns to 1954 form they could be rough.

The fifth place Cincinnati Reds will have the same trouble as the Giants. The Reds will probably have the second most powerful team in the league with Ted Kluzewski, Gus Bell and "Smokey" Burgess, but they will lack consistent pitching.

The Cardinals will also have the hitting but absolutely no pitching. I doubt if they have a pitcher who can win 15 games with the possible exception of Harvey Haddix.

Pirates will Finish Last

The Chicago Cubs will finish seventh and the Pirates will occupy their usual position in the cellar.

My crystal ball is fading out so I guess that's all for now. Do my predictions agree with yours?

Chi Omga's Win Intramural Title

By Peggy Pharr

The Chi O's won the girls' intramural league basketball championship for actives Wednesday by smashing the Theta U's 40-4. Ruby Parker was high scorer for the victorious yellow jackets with 16 points.

In a Monday game the Sig Kaps defeated Alpha Gamma Delta in the pledge league 39-14. In the active league, Sigma Kappa edged the Alpha Gam's 24-23. The pledge league is a three-way tie between Beta Sigma Omicron, Sigma Kappa and the Independents.

By winning the basketball cup the Chi O's made it two in a row this year after winning the volleyball cup last fall. They have won that cup eight years in a row. Sally Hamilton and Helen Kirkpatrick were the captains of the victorious basketball team and both girls deserve a lot of credit for the fine job they did.

In a WAA playday at Thiel last Saturday our girls came up with an even record. They defeated Allegheny 18-12, lost to Clarion 23-22, and played a 14-14 deadlock with Thiel. Team members were Diana Black, Carol Doutt, Connie Simpson, Sally Hamilton, Phyllis Town and Peggy Pharr.

Sigma Nu Dominates Leagues To Win 'A' and 'B' League Titles

By Ernie Fraternity

Bob "Goose" Davis of Sigma Nu, Bob Duvall of Sigma Nu and Weston Hyde of Sigma Phi Epsilon won scoring titles in their respective leagues in the Intramural Basketball season which ended Saturday. Davis copped the "A" league title with 171 points, Duvall won the "B" league crown with 150 and Hyde took the "C" league leadership with 80. Sigma Nu dominated the "A" and "B" leagues this year. The "A" squad won the championship by defeating Block "W" in the first two games of a three game playoff. The "B" squad did likewise by knocking off the Globies in two straight.

In the "C" league the Snakes rallied late in the season to defeat the Sack Rats and the APES. They played Sigma Phi Epsilon for the title in a three game series. The first game was played Wednesday when Sigma Nu beat the Sig Eps 30-20. The other two games in the playoffs were scheduled for Thursday and Friday and results were too late for publication. In the game played Wednesday, the first half was a real thriller. The two teams traded basket for basket and as they left the floor at halftime the score read 16-15 in favor of Sigma Nu. The Sig Ep attack seemed to bog down in the second half and they were held to 5 points. Jim Dewar led the Snakes' scoring attack with 10 points while Jay Debolt was high for Sigma Phi Epsilon with 8 points. Team members were as follows: for Sigma Nu; Jim Dewar, Eric Wilson, Jack Heidish, Lee Africa, Chuck Besharo, Bob Patton and Roger Fry. Sigma Phi Epsilon performers were Jay Debolt, Wes Hyde, Dave Nicoden, Rod Heeter, Russ Holst, Don McKee and Dick Raush.

The league leading scorers finished in this order: In the "A" league, Davis was high with 171; Vince Cortese, 148; Bob Bleggi, 123; Bill Seidner, 107; Don Scott, 94; Ed Connolly, 94; Dick Randall, 89; Ron Gleckner, 84 and Jack Coleman, 84.

Bob Duvall led in the "B" league with 150 points followed by brother Bill with 96. Bill Stepnick had 87; Jerry Paul, 85; Bill Freshwater, 81; Hugh Ferguson, 77; Ray Leech, 61; Dick Gibson, 59 and Syl Miele, 57.

High scorer in the "C" league was Wes Hyde with 80 buckets followed by Dave Ammon with 65. Jim Falk had 63; Bob Buckingham, 39; Jay Debolt, 39; Gerald Von Broock, 34; Pete Houston, 34; Ken 46; George Kelley, 46; Dale Garver, Zahrobsky, 33; Jack Heidish, 33; and Bob Burez, 30.

The final league standings are as follows:

"A" League

| | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| S NU | 9 | 1 |
| Block W | 7 | 3 |
| SPE | 6 | 4 |
| ASP | 4 | 6 |
| PKT | 2 | 8 |
| KAPS | 2 | 8 |

"B" League

| | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| S NU | 9 | 1 |
| GLOBIES | 9 | 1 |
| ASP | 5 | 5 |
| SPE | 4 | 6 |
| BLOCK W | 3 | 7 |
| VETS | 0 | 10 |

'C" League

| | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| SPE | 8 | 0 |
| SACKS | 7 | 1 |
| S NU | 6 | 2 |
| APES | 6 | 2 |
| PKT | 4 | 4 |
| F. HILL | 2 | 6 |
| ASP | 2 | 6 |
| HAMMERS | 2 | 6 |
| PHI PI | 1 | 7 |
| PLEBES | 0 | 8 |

More Fun!

In the company of friends homeward bound you can make it a "party" all the way. There's room to roam, time to visit, and nothing to worry about.

More Comfort!

Restful coaches, loads of luggage space, refreshments and swell meals en route. No tough driving on crowded highways. No waiting for skies to clear. Yessir, the train is tops in transportation!

What Savings!

Give yourself a "Scotch treat" by teaming up with two or more friends bound for your home town. On trips of 100 miles or more, you'll each save 25% on round-trip coach tickets using GROUP ECONOMY FARES!* And here's another bargain! Round up 25 or more to travel long-distance together on the same homeward train. Then return singly or together, and you each save 28% of regular round-trip fare.

Except for local travel between New York-Washington and points east of Lancaster, Pa.*

See your travel or ticket agent NOW! Ask about these big money saving plans!

EASTERN RAILROADS

GIVE YOUR SHOES

NEW LIFE and NEW LUSTRE

SEE—

DOC FUSCO

Bank Building

Washing - Drying

65¢ Per Load

Soft Water Used

LAUNDROMAT

Around the corner from the Show

The Store With More

Brown's Food Market

Serving the Student With

GOLDEN DAWN'S

Family of Fine Foods

COLLEGE STUDENTS WANTED

MORE THAN 1000

RESORT HOTEL JOBS

— OPEN —

OUR LISTINGS GIVE COMPLETE INFORMATION ON ATTRACTIVE OPENINGS AVAILABLE TO COLLEGE STUDENTS FROM TOP A.A.A. APPROVED RESORT HOTELS.

WE CAN TELL YOU THE NAMES OF RESORT HOTELS WHO HAVE WRITTEN US TELLING OF THEIR NEEDS FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS THIS SUMMER AND THE TYPES AND NUMBER OF LUCRATIVE JOBS THAT THESE HOTELS HAVE OPEN FOR YOU.

THESE RESORT HOTELS WOULD LIKE TO HAVE YOUR APPLICATION SOON!

For Complete Information

Send Only $1.00 In Cash To

MR. ROBERT MILLER

College Information Service

Box 470 Greenville, Pa.

PENN THEATRE

NEW CASTLE, PA

Now Showing

FIVE DEAD MEN LED HIM DOWN A TRAIL OF NO RETURN!

Starring

RICHARD WIDMARK

DONNA REED

WILLIAM CAMPBELL

JOHN McINTIRE

A UNIVERSAL-INTERNATIONAL PICTURE

Starts Wednesday

Rebel Without Cause

and

Mr. Roberts

GREETING CARDS

FOR ALL OCCASIONS

5¢ and 10¢ each

Fred Williamson's

SOCIAL WHIRL

Westminster's First Greek Weekend Begins With Dance; Carnival Saturday

By Dianne Oursler

Excitement and the anticipation of becoming an active sorority member was climaxed this week as several groups initiated their pledges. As they put on their active pins, the gals realized that they must learn together the give and take that forms the foundation of sorority life. The first event of Greek weekend is the Inter-fraternity council formal tonight. The Greeks will join forces in presenting a carnival on Saturday night. Sunday evening the fraternity and sorority members will worship with their respective groups at Vespers.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Aliceann Rea is the general chairman of the party to be given for the children of the United Presbyterian home in Mars on April 6 . . Dorthea DeWitt visited the chapter recently.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . James Riley is the chapter nominee for IFC king . . Last weekend Weston Hyde and John Muth visited the chapter at University of Pittsburgh while Raymond Leech was on the Youngstown university campus.

THETA UPSILON . . Activation ceremonies were held for Dorothy Bush, Carol Dietz, Alice Haley, Marlene McMaster, Judith Neff, Janet Patterson, Nancy Sanner, Betsy Schafer, Anna Marie Schmidt, Beverly Sloan, Virginia Thompson, Phyllis Town, Patricia Trosch, Nancy Wampler and Wende Westinghouse . . Helen Snyder is in charge of the booth for Greek weekend.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . Irma Allen is general chairman of the Greek weekend booth . . Elizabeth McGill and Miriam Fox head construction and decorations respectively.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Nevin Morris was in charge of arrangements for the Son-Father banquet held Wednesday evening.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Charmaine Houston was activated last Saturday . . Marjorie Pharr visited the chapter at Thiel recently . . Janet Reddy went to Baldwin-Wallace last weekend . . . Marsha Hicks is the chairman of the entertainment skit for the carnival Saturday.

CHI OMEGA . . New Chi Omega actives are Constance Bumpas, Margaret Burrus, Elaine Beckett, Judith Gray, Linda Kraft, Sharon Howell, Margaret DePaulis, Ruby Parker, Janet Reese, Wynetta Schmidt, Arden Thompson and Marcia Trow . . Wednesday evening an activation dinner was held at the Tavern . . Barbara Reynders is entertainment committee head for Greek weekend . . . Diana Black, Carol Doutt, Salle Hamilton and Patricia Jenkins visited the chapter at Thiel college last weekend . . Ann Price, Ruth Organ, Myrtle Shaheen and Rebecca Wimer went to George Washington university recently . . The Chi Omega Easter egg hunt for faculty children will be held March 22.

KAPPA DELTA . . Monday afternoon activation ceremonies were held for Lynn Caddick, Marjorie Dottling, Louise Dox, Georga Ferguson, Patricia Genge, Leonora Hofman, Priscilla Hunter, Nancy McGavern, Esther McGeoch, Betty Oursler, Ann Risser, Leah Schill, Linda Strickler and Janice Zima . . Activation dinner was held at the Tavern on Wednesday . . Constance McHugh, ex'58, has accepted the Alpha Tau Omega pin of Miller Bushong of University of Virginia.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . Saturday marks the 50th anniversary of Phi Kappa Tau Founder's day . . Several new chairmen have been named: Orville Harris, music director; Lawrence Brooks, steward; John Stoyle, athletic manager and Russell Stump, reporter.

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment...and it's so pure and wholesome —naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY

COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

Campus Calendar

Friday, March 16
Chapel, Dr. Jamison
8:15 Play, "Noah"
Greek weekend, IFC dance
Saturday, March 17
8:15 Play, "Noah"
Greek weekend carnival
Sunday, March 18
7:45 Vespers, President Orr
Monday, March 19
Chapel, Reverend John Bert
Tuesday, March 20
Chapel, YWCA, devotional
7:15 Fashion show
8:15 Faculty Research club
Wednesday, March 21
Chapel, President Orr
3:30 Mu Phi Epsilon meeting
5:00 WAA meeting
7:00 YWCA meeting
8:15 Pi Sigma Pi meeting
Phi Alpha Theta meeting
Thursday, March 22
Chapel, Dr. Bleasby
3-5:00 Chi Omega Easter egg hunt
8:15 Senior recital, Lorraine Adams
Friday, March 23
Chapel, Choir
Fraternity formals
Saturday, March 24
Noon, Spring vacation begins
Tuesday, April 3
Chapel, Reverend Robert Mayo
Speech recital
Wednesday, April 4
Chapel, Reverend Robert Mayo
3:30 Mu Phi Epsilon meeting
5:00 WAA meeting
7:00 YWCA meeting
Thursday, April 5
Chapel, Reverend Robert Mayo
7:00 IRC meeting
7:00 Rho Gamma meeting
Friday, April 6
Chapel, Reverend Robert Mayo
Junior Prom, 12:30 permissions for women
Saturday, April 7
8:30 Fraternity house parties

Mu Phi Initiates Three Members

Mu Phi Epsilon held initiation Saturday for three members; Virginia Borden, sophomore from Reynoldsville, Constance Mohr, senior from Westwood, N.J. and Mrs. Gladys Washburn Fisher.

Mrs. Fisher is the wife of Westminster college board member Robert M. Fisher. She is a composer and author and received her A. B. and Bachelor of Music degrees from Mills college, Oakland, Calif. She has studied cello, organ and composition. Having served on the faculty of Indiana State Teachers college and Mills college. Mrs. Fisher is at present Director of Music at the United Presbyterian church of Indiana, Pa. Mrs. Fisher has held offices in many musical organizations, including the presidency of the Pennsylvania Federation of Music clubs.

Special guests at the initiation were Mrs. Elizabeth Storer Bothwell from Pittsburgh, who is the National Fourth Vice-President, and Mrs. Jessie Yahn, also from Pittsburgh, who is one of the three living charter members of Mu Phi Epsilon.

Girls . . . Be Ready
HAVE YOUR SPRING FORMAL CLEANED NOW!
New Wilmington Cleaners
CAMPUS REPRESENTIVES
● Ann McDowell

Pies - Pies - Pies
● Cherry
● Raspberry
● Apple
● Pineapple
MADE FRESH DAILY
WILMINGTON BAKERY

Alcohol . . .

You Make The Choice

By Robert Veon

We have all heard speakers who can quote "wet" statistics on the nation's crime wave, or tell us how our obituary lists have been perpetually lengthening because of the evil liquid alcohol. We hear the orator exhort negatively on this iniquitous beverage by the use of pious platitudes and emotionally gripping illustrations and analogies.

Two weeks ago it was our priviledge to have in Chapel two men representing the Alcoholics Anonymous group in Youngstown, Ohio. We were not stifled by statistics or canned analogies. We were not told about a "menacing evil," but a dreadful disease. I don't remember any preacher-phrases or pious platitudes in that chapel.

One speaker was 28 years old; he had only been sober for one year in the last ten. This sober year had been the one just past. His story was one starting with an ideal childhood and a fine family life. It contained two years of college which were terminated because he was too drunk to take the final exam. This particular person had enough courage and gumption that with a little help and (if you excuse the expression) guts, was able to rise from his state of degredation to one of respectability and decency.

Some day when you have a couple hours to spare, read Lillian Roth's autobiography, I'll Cry Tomorrow, (it's fast and interesting reading). Miss Roth tells her story factually and frankly. She doesn't want your sympathy. There may be times when you get a little sick at your stomach as this young woman's intimate fight against alcoholism and mental illness is revealed to you. She tells how it all started . . .

> "First it was beer; then bourban in orange juice." "Soon I was taking on a fifth a day, taking the stuff slowly, a drink or two every four or five hours. Then every three hours. Then two hours. Finally every hour."

I'll Cry Tomorrow reveals a person who had the stamina and "guts" we previously mentioned. We find Miss Roth coming out of her "hell on earth," that annihilating stagment cesspool in which she was attempting to live, to again be admired and respected.

Both these began with one drink, and they easily could have ended in another way!

Debate Team Members Travel To Pittsburgh

Tomorrow the debate team will take part in the Debate tournament at the University of Pittsburgh. The three members of the women's team, Miriam Fox, Nancy Griffin and Judy Gray, will debate the question for this year in the inter-collegiate debating—the Guaranteed Annual Wage. There is a fourth member of the team, also who will accompany the squad in this day-long event.

JEWELRY OF THE FINEST QUALITY
J. R. Meek, Jeweler
We also repair

SANDWICHES . . .
SODAS . . .
Some Place to go—
THE GRILLE
We Specialize in PIZZA

Committee Names Veep Candidates

Possible vice-presidential candidates have been named by the Mock Convention committee. They are: Richard Nixon, present vice-president of the United States; William Knowland, senator from California; Goodwin Knight, governor of California and Earl Warren, chief justice of the Supreme Court. These possible candidates are all from California.

Others are Theodore McKeldin, governor of Maryland; George Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury; Margaret Chase Smith, senator from Maine; Thomas Dewey, former governor of New York and Christian Herter, governor of Massachusetts.

The committee also announces that campaign managers are to receive thirty to forty dollars for campaign purposes. The campaign will commence April 3.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. and Sat.
SINCERELY YOURS
Liberace - Joanne Dru

Mon. and Tues.
UNCONQUERED
Gary Cooper - Paulette Goddard

Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
FOX FIRE
Jane Russell - Jeff Chandler

Coming—Artists and Models

Walker's Have It
SPRING SPORT SUPPLIES
● Dunlop Tennis Balls
● Wilson Golf Balls
● Louisville Bats
● Wilson Softballs and Baseballs
Now Available—
Resident and Non-Resident Fishing Licenses
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

For discriminating tastes
The Tavern
Serving Hours
12:00-2:00 — 5:00-7:00
Reservations Advisable
Closed Tuesday
Mrs. Ernst Durrast
New Wilmington, Pa. Dial 3351

THE CAMPAIGN IS ON
ELECT THE BEST!

The Holcad

THE CAMPAIGN IS ON!
ELECT THE BEST!

Vol. 76 No. 20 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, April 13, 1956

Cashdollar Elected President In Recent Council Elections

Craig Cashdollar, junior history major from Bradford, was elected president of Student Council and the regular council meeting on April 10.

Eugene Degitz was elected vice-president, Virginia Dickson, secretary and David Marsico, treasurer. These officers have served as council representatives this year and participated in student government functions.

Craig Cashdollar is taking over Robert Peterson's office as president. He has been on the prudential committee of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity, treasurer of interfraternity council, Phi Alpha Theta treasurer, counselor at Russell hall and a member of Beta Beta Beta. He also holds a board job at Hillside.

Eugene Degitz is also a junior history major and from Oakmont. He is head waiter at Hillside, vice-president of Phi Alpha Theta, a participant in intramural basketball and a counselor at Russell hall.

Virginia Dickson, new council secretary, is a sophomore sociology major from Phillipsburg, N. J. and a member of Theta Upsilon sorority. This year she has served as Cwens president, Mermaids treasurer and has been active in Y.W. C.A., choir and intramural sports.

David Marsico, council treasurer, is a sophomore from Arnold, and studying business administration. Among his activities are football, intramural sports and prudential committee member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

Lorraine Adams Accepts Fulbright

Lorraine Adams, senior organ major from Watertown, N. Y. has been selected for a Fulbright grant to study music and pipe organ at the Royal Flemish conservatory at Antwerp, Belgium.

The scholarship is part of the International Educational Exchange program of the U. S. State department. The grant covers the cost of all transportation in the U. S., the host country and the international travel, tuition, books and incidental allowance plus 90,000 francs for maintenance allowance.

Lorraine will have one week of orientation at Brussels beginning in September. At the conservatory, she will study organ with Flor Peeters, famous Belgian organist and composer.

A member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, Lorraine has been organist-choir director at the Neshannock Presbyterian church for the past three years. She has studied organ in New York with Claire Coci for the past four summers.

King; Queen To Reign At Freshman Dance

A freshman king and queen will be chosen to highlight the "April in Paris" dance to be held tonight at 8:30 in Old 77.

Candidates for queen are Priscilla Hunter, Jacqueline Adams, Georgia Ferguson, Carol Dietz and Phyllis Town. King candidates are Jerry Meyer, James Dewar, David Rankin, Robert Wright, Jack Mansfield and Donald Scott.

Admission to the dressy dance will be 60 cents per couple.

Lorraine Wortmann Plans Speech Recital

Miss Lorraine Wortmann, a speech major from Rahway, N.J., will present her junior recital on Monday, April 16, at 4:15 in the Little Theatre. The theme of her recital is: "What do you mean 'Love'?" Miss Wortmann's program will be one of oral interpretation, including both poetry and prose.

McKee Is Named History Chairman

Dr. Will W. Orr announces that Dr. Delber L. McKee has been appointed chairman of the department of history, political science and sociology at Westminster beginning the academic year 1956-57. He will succeed Dr. Wallace Jamison who is joining the faculty of New Brunswick Theological seminary, New Jersey.

Dr. McKee is now serving as assistant professor of history. He joined Westminster's faculty in the fall of 1952.

He graduated cum laude with a B.A. degree from Hastings college in 1946. He obtained his M.A. degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1947, and his Ph.D. degree from Stanford university in 1953. Dr. McKee has also studied at Harvard university and the University of Washington.

Before coming to Westminster he taught for three years at Simpson college, Indianola, Iowa. During World War II Dr. McKee served with the U.S. Air Force as a Japanese translator and cryptanalyst.

Forry Releases Bulletin Revisions

The 1955-56 Westminster college bulletin is now available in the admissions office announces Dr. John Forry, academic dean.

Students are asked to pay special attention to the college calendar appearing in the front of the book. Thanksgiving vacation begins after Wednesday classes, Nov. 21 and ends Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 8 a.m.

Six new courses are listed in the various departments in the new catalog. Several other courses have either been dropped, changed in credit hours or extended to two semesters.

The biology department lists two new courses. The courses taught by Dr. Bijjani are Biology 257, Introductory Entomology and Biology 352, Human Genetics and Eugenics.

A new course in American Colonial History, 361 will be taught by Dr. Jensen.

The business education department offers a new one hour course in business arithmetic, 151 and a one hour course in personal typewriting, 113. These courses will be taught by Miss Hileman and Mr. Galbreath.

A two hour course, Introduction to Linguistic Science, 351 will be offered in the language department by Mr. Turner and Mr. Wiley.

After reading the bulletin students who have any questions should contact Dr. Forry.

Debate Team Finishes Year At Dickenson

The debate tournament being held today and tomorrow at Dickenson college, Carlisle, is the final session of the year.

Debating for Westminster on the affirmative side will be Frank DeFelice, Vincent Julian and Judy Gray. Nancy Griffin and Miriam Fox will take the negative side of the guaranteed annual wage topic.

Jamison Accepts Position In N.J.

Oldest U.S. Seminary; Has Enrollment Of 70

Dr. Wallace N. Jamison, chairman of the history department and dean of the chapel, has accepted a position with the New Brunswick Theological seminary as adjunct professor of church history.

DR. WALLACE N. JAMISON

The seminary is the oldest in the United States and under the control of the Reformed church in America. It is located on the Rutgers university campus, New Brunswick, N. J. The seminary has 60 to 70 students, library of 90,000 volumes and five full time professors. There are a number of visiting lecturers.

Dr. Jamison came to Westminster in 1951 from the United Presbyterian church at Indianola, Iowa. He graduated from Westminster college in 1941 and from Princeton Theological seminary. He received a Ph. D. degree in church history from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. During World War II he served as a chaplain in the United States Navy.

Dr. and Mrs. Jamison will move to a 14 room house in New Brunswick late in July with children Robert, 7; Kathy, 10; Mary, 4 and James 4 months.

Dr. Orr Announces New Professor

President Will W. Orr has announced that Dr. Joseph R. Henderson will be a professor in the department of education and psychology at Westminster beginning with the academic year 1956-57. He will replace Ernest L. Saul, associate professor of education and psycology, who will soon retire.

Dr. Henderson is now chairman of the social science division and professor of sociology and psychology at Union college, Barbourville, Ky., where he has been since 1948.

Prior to his present job he was for three years director of the Reformed Church Mission school at Annville, Ky. He taught one year in the United Presbyterian Mission school at Ezel, Ky., and for six years was teacher and principal in Indiana county, Pa., public schools. Dr. Henderson spent four years with the U. S. Army in World War II.

He holds a B.S. in Education from Indiana State Teachers college, and the M.S. and Ed.D. degrees from New York university. He has also done graduate work at Pennsylvania State university, the University of Pittsburgh and Columbia university.

Mrs. Henderson is the former Elizabeth Elder of Rochester Mills, Pa. They have four children: Kay, 10, Paul 6, John ,5, and Nancy, 3.

NCCD Dinner Address Is Given By Dr. H. Jamison

Students To Speak At 185 Churches Sunday; Programs Include Speeches, Special Music

Dr. Howard Jamison, Professor of English-Bible at Pittsburgh Xenia Theological seminary delivered the keynote address at the dinner rally at Russell hall last night, touching off the weekend's activities for National Christian College day.

Between Friday evening and Sunday morning approximately 200 students will leave to present five, seven, ten and twenty minute talks to 185 churches as far distant as Cleveland, O. to the west, Niagara Falls, N.Y. to the north, Quincy, Mass. to the east, and Little Falls, Va. to the south. Special music of solos, duets and quartets will be provided at several churches; some students will take charge of complete church services.

Departure for Buffalo and points in the East will take place Saturday morning. Those leaving Sunday morning will be served breakfast between 6 and 9 a.m. at Ferguson hall. Drivers are requested to meet outside Old 77; names of drivers and times of departure are posted on the bulletin board outside the college office. Mr. Paul Musser has asked that each driver turn in his driver information card by Monday, April 16. In the event of accident enroute, riders are to call Dr. McClanahan at 2652.

In addition to the plans for the seventh annual NCCD, Workers On Wheels projects, which have been functioning all year, will continue to be presented in the form of youth rallies. Saturday, April 14 is a full day for these projects, when many students will be going to Erie, Albany, N.Y., Delaware, New York City and Boston.

Duff To Deliver Mock Convention Key-Note Address

Senator James H. Duff gets the Republican Mock Convention under way Tuesday, April 17 at 8:00 p.m. with the key-note address.

Students wishing to attend the convention in a delegation should have paid their 50 cents registration fee before the vacation. Convention buttons are being passed out by state chairmen to those who have paid the registration fee.

Several states still have openings for those students who did not sign up for a delegation. William Jackson, chairman of credentials committee, or any state chairman has the information on these openings.

Campaign managers for the Mock Convention are Robert Leach for Thomas Dewey, Jack Shepherd for Dwight Eisenhower, Jon Berg for Earl Warren and Barbara Farrow for Margaret Chase Smith.

Others are Robert Altman for Theodore McKeldin, Craig Cashdollar for Richard Nixon, Alan Wheeler for Senator Duff and Harry Senheiser for Milton Eisenhower.

WKST, New Castle, will cover the events at the Mock Convention. Newspapers and other radio stations have been contracted to supply more publicity for the events.

Visiting groups from high schools and members of local Republican organizations have been invited.

Oratory Winners Go To Nationals

For the second successive year, Westminster college placed first in both men and women's oratory at the state finals held last week at Bucknell university.

Carol Roberts, sophomore from Kenmore, N. Y. won in the women's division with her speech, "Who So Would Be A Man." Carol asks for more individualism and less intellectual conformity in her speech.

Winning in the men's division, Daniel Migliore indicated in his speech, "The Cult of Neutrality," that a definite stand is not taken on important issues. Migliore is a senior from Pittsburgh.

On April 26-28, the two representatives will travel to Northwestern university for the national contest. Mr. Melvin Moorhouse will accompany the two as coach.

Library Contest Plans Announced

Seniors entering the library contest should have their list of books turned in to either Miss Dorothy Kirkbride or Miss Mabel Kocher by noon, April 18.

Miss Harriet Loubach, the reference librarian of the University of Pittsburgh, will be the judge. She will be here all day to have conferences with the contestants.

The winners will be announced April 27 at a tea which is to be held at 4 p.m. The books will be on display in the exhibit room April 25.

Now Hear This

Drawing of numbers for women's room assignments for next year will be held in Ferguson hall Monday, April 23, at 4 p.m.

Room selections for juniors and seniors will be made in Ferguson hall Tuesday, May 1, at 4 p.m. Sophomores will select rooms Wed., May 2 at 4 p.m. A $15 room deposit must be paid in order to select rooms.

* * *

Tickets for the play "Candida" and the Mermaid show to be given Parents' day will be available in the Dean of Women's office after Mon., April 16.

* * *

Applications for editorial and business positions on the 1956-57 Argo annual are still being accepted by Mr. George Masterton, adviser.

Work on the Argo staff offers students an opportunity to gain experience in writing, copy reading, photography, page make-up, advertising, business management and the problems of printing and engraving.

No experience is necessary. Students may inquire at the English office for further information.

Eichenauer Bible Exam To Be Given Monday

The annual Eichenauer Bible award examination will be given Monday, April 16, at 7 p.m.

The extensive examination on Bible content and history is a three hour test and will be given in room 203. Two cash awards of $65 first prize and $35 second prize will be made on the basis of achievement.

All students are eligible to enter this competition with the exception of previous winners. Students now in school who have been winners are James Keefer, Dan Migliore and Roger Finley.

Those planning to take the test should inform some member of the Bible department by April 13.

They're Off for NCCD

Extensive preparations for National Christian College day have been proceeding for many months. Much time and effort has gone into this program by Mr. Musser, the NCCD committee, faculty and students.

Teams of faculty and students will leave for their various destinations throughout the weekend to take part in many church services in the surrounding area and as far away as Boston. Participants will give speeches and present musical arrangements as part of the program.

NCCD is almost here. Let's make this National Christian College day the most successful.

Campaigning Has Just Begun

The Mock Convention which has been going at such a slow pace for the last couple of weeks seems now to be picking up some much needed speed. However, attendance at the delegation meetings cannot be termed enthusiastic.

Delegation chairmen have been heard to complain that no matter how many notices they post, they have very seldom had all the delegates at any one meeting.

To know what is going on at the convention and to have a feeling of direction, it is very necessary that the delegates meet with the rest of their members to decide on a plan of action.

The convention is going to be enjoyable to all who participate. It will be much more enjoyable to those who have been participating right along in the time before the convention begins.

To prevent much confusion in a normally confusing activity, get into the spirit of the convention and find out what's going on. You'll find it not only educational but entertaining as well.

N. M.

Congratulations . . .

We wish Craig Cashdollar much success as well as congratulations in his new position as Student Council president.

Representing the whole student body is not an easy job and often a thankless one. We know that Student Council will continue to serve the student body as commendably as it did under the leadership of Bob Peterson, retiring president.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Vol. 76 Friday, April 13, 1956 No. 20

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Class—the odds are 40 to 1 that someone in here will flunk, unless of course, he should decide to drop this course."

Caged . . .

In The Land of Drizzle

By Carol Hawthorne and Nancy Tulenko

Somewhere in the learned land of Drizzle lies a strange and unique animal community. Here resides a select breed of beasts, transported from their native jungles in order that they may be trained to replace worn-out, degenerate circus performers. Upon arrival, the two sexes instinctively desire to integrate, but they are quickly segregated and led by zoo keepers to separate cages.

After a vigorous training session under the surveillance of whip-cracking trainers, the animals are permitted to intermingle in a small open-air arena until the time arrives when the head zoo-keeper decrees that the female cages shall be shut. At this time, every female must return to her quarters to be locked in for the night, while the male is free to roam surrounding pastures. A severe punishment is inflicted upon the female who returns late—she is "caged" and must forfeit her arena privileges.

At first, the sight of smaller, immature animals romping about unconfined, causes the female to roar and shake her cage bars in fury. But eventually she begins to realize the futility of her demonstrations, and her complaints dwindle to an occasional, hopeless whine. The male, secure in his freedom, appears for the most part to be indifferent to the plight of the female. A few, however, in whom the mating instinct runs strong, growl and gnash their teeth in violent frustration as the zee-keeper slams the door of the female cage in their drooling faces.

Occasionally, a bit of diversion brightens the monotony of the imprisoned female. Once, not too long ago, a herd of male animals engaged in a wild stampede upon the female cages. Much private property was stolen and was buried in nearby grazing lands or else strewn carelessly along local hoof-beaten paths. Zoo-keepers and trainers alike were incensed by this insurrection, and the most rebellious males were sent back to their former untamed jungle life. There was some discussion of the possibility of a similar female stampede, perhaps in the wild hope of securing a similar "punishment," but due to the careful vigilance of the zoo-keepers, this rebellion never materialized.

Strange controdictory standards of modesty exist in this menagerie. Females desiring to romp over the meadows are forced to don ground-length blankets even in sweltering weather, as the sight of sparsely clad females is believed to detract from the respectibility of the institution. Males, however, are permitted to roam the woodlands with the hides almost totally exposed to the elements.

Upon comparing the learned land of Drizzle with our own human society, we are struck by the startling contrast between two cultures. Female persecution, so apparent in the land of Drizzle, is virtually unthinkable in our society—if these inequalities were permitted to exist, the righteous indignation of freedom-loving people would demand that such appalling conditions be obliterated immediately.

Sometimes . . .

Life Is A Song

By Nancy Nichel

If you attend that annual function called Sing anw Swing, you will probably see me standing in front of our group waving my arms madly. If you think the director has an easy job, let me tell you something.

By 4:30 our 4:15 practice begins. After listening to at least eight excuses why people aren't at parctice (this is a good day), we're ready to sing. Turn to page 3 and everyone sing her note. That's a fine chordbut you're all supposed to be on the same note. We finally get started and by the third measure everyone is singing. No, no, second sopranos, F sharp and G—altos, D sharp not C. Secoond sopranos alone.

By straining mye ears I can almost hear their sweet little voices. Everyone, top of page six, fourth measure, first note, "By the way." I give the downbeat and what do I get—nothing! Well??? "Where are we?" I repeat, counting to ten, top of page six, fourth measure, first note, "By the way." Everyone singing. And we're off—oh, brother, we sure are off—key, that is. Please, pain in my head, go away.

About 5:25 everyone starts looking at her watch and I decide to make one last try. After three false starts (each time I stop them I get that "did I sing something wrong" look), they're singing—a little flat maybe, but singing. If that soprano doesn't stop screeching, I'll—I announce practices for the next week, close my ears to the groans and excuses and collapse. But take note, Audrey, Sally, Connie, Rainie, and Helen—I've just begun to fight!!

Tidbits . . .

It's All In The Family

By Barbie Farrow

Just a month and a half ago everybody on campus was deeply saddened when they learned about Marlowe Tolbert's serious automobile accident. You will be glad to know that Marlowe went home from the hospital last week and is getting along fine. His friends report that he seems to have fully recovered. Keep up the good work Marlowe. We want to see you back on campus.

* * *

The "hoop-de-rah" of the convention really started when the campaign managers and their various shows took over chapel on Tuesday. If this is any indication of what is to hit the field house next week, I would suggest that the maintenance department bolt the roof down a little tighter. With bathing beauties and German bands in chapel, I won't be surprised in the least if somebody doesn't bring a real live symbol of the Republician party—an elephant.

* * *

Plenty of classes take field trips, but the geology class is the one that is really going places. Last Saturday they went to the vicinity of Warren, Ohio and in the next few weeks they are going to visit Penn State and Niagara Falls, N. Y.

* * *

Have you noticed the faint odor of paint in Old Main. If you haven't, you must have lost your sense of smell. Refurbishing the paint was a good idea. Besides making a change of scenery in the classes, it will really look nice when we entertain parents and guests on Parent's Day. It's a lot of work to be done while school is in session. Remember to keep it nice and avoid marking the paint.

* * *

Spring has really come to campus. Did you catch sight of one of the honorable members of Wednesday night's chemistry class strolling around in his Bermudas? Very chic.

* * *

With all the high school students running around last Tuesday afternoon, there were quite a few crazy incidents. One group of boys stood and watched the girl's basketball game at Old 77. Instead of going inside, they stood out in the middle of the street and only saw the limited distance of action that the open door would allow them to see. First, one would make a break for the door and then a restraining hand would pull him back out again. Evidently, they had not heard of the friendly "Westminster Spirit" and were afraid we'd bawl them out.

News Headlines . . .

Clash in Near East

Israel, Egypt Jets Clash—Israel president Ben-Gurion fears an Egyptian invasion. One Egyptian plane reported shot down.

Pittsburgh Smog Control Story Seen on British TV—A 30 minute film showing how Pittsburgh eliminated its smog problem was shown on British TV last night. The British Parliament is again to debate smoke control laws. 4000 Londoners were killed in four days by smog last January.

'Old Main' Burns at Kiski—A fire swept the historic Old Main building on the Kiski prep school campus yesterday. Damage was estimated at $250,-000.

Philadelphia Warriors take NBA crown—The Philadelphia Warriors defeated the Fort Wayne Pistons four games to one in the best of seven games National Basketball league championship.

U.N. Secretary General Flies to Mideast—Dag Hammerskjold flies on a dramatic peace mission to the Middle East to talk with disputing Arab and Israeli leaders.

Israel to Reserve Action in the Gaza Strip—The U. N. truce chief in Palestine, Major General Edson L. M. Burns, conferred with Israel Premier David Ben-Gurion about the fighting on the Egyptian and Gaza border. Ben-Gurion said that Israel must reserve the right to take what action it deems best if Egypt fails to come up with a guarantee to refrain from hostile acts.

N. J. Governor Fails to Back Kefauver—Governor Robert Meyner after conferring with Kefauver announced that he would not support one candidate, but that his state should elect whom their delegation will support.

Riesel Regaining Sight—Victor Riesel, the labor columnist who had acid thrown in his face on a New York street, is slowly regaining his sight. Undaunted by the incident, he has announced that he will continue to oppose mob violence and activities.

Grace Leaves for Monaco—Movie Star Grace Kelly left with her family aboard the S. S. Constitution for the trip to Monaco where she will become the bride of Prince Ranier III.

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

It was raining at Melbourne last week. The track at Melbourne's Olympic stadium was soaked. On that rain-soaked track World Champion Miler John Landy figured to run his favorite distance in no better than 4:04. But as he breezed past the three-quarter mile mark he heard his time announced as 3 min. flat. He decided to turn it on, and finished the final quarter in a blazing 58.6 seconds to break the 4 minute barrier for the fourth time in five races. The 3:58.6 second time is 0.6 seconds off Landy's world record.

To run a four-minute mile for four out of five tries is an amazing feat in itself. Landy, however, would have had a much better record if he had not stopped to help a fellow runner in his last race. He ran that one in 4:05.

His 3:58 record for the mile will probably stand for some time. Landy, himself is somewhat of a freak. His lung area is larger than that of most people, and he breathes a bit differently also. Physicians have said that the mile can be run much faster than Landy's record, but his record will stand until that faster miler comes along.

Speaking of the Olympics at Melbourne, Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic committee and the world's number one defender of pure amateurism, sounded off on the subsidized athletics of the USSR. He was forced to make this statement by the advance alibi making of the critics who fear that Russia's state-subsidized athletes may whip the U.S.'s expense account amateurs at the Olympics in Australia next November.

Mr. Brundage said that champions are not made by subsidies or training camps but by diligence and intelligence. . . It is not the strength of other people that we in the U.S. need fear. It is our national complacency. . . If Russian success in the Olympic games arouses us . . . it will serve a useful purpose.

It is the opinion of many people that Mr. Brundage has assumed the position of an ostrich with his head in the sand. It is common knowledge that without proper training facilities and adequate equipment, no country can turn out Olympic material. Things have gone far enough. Either we start to support our athletes with state funds or get Russia to stop their subsidization.

Yes, Mr. Brundage, Russian success in the Olympic games will serve a useful purpose: to advance the tenets of state controlled athletics and Communism over those of the free world.

Returning Lettermen for Titans 1956 Baseball Season

Players shown are, first row, left to right, William Duvall, Pitcairn; Sylvester Miele, Swissvale; Steve Kosko, Neville Island; Tom Parks, Charleroi; Tom Duda, Pittsburgh and Wally Young, Bethesda, Md. Second row, Coach Buzz Ridl; Captain Steve Prokopchak, Butler; Robert Duvall, Pitcairn; George Strehler, New Castle; Bill Knab, Pittsburgh and Norm Paxton, Fredonia.

Westminster Titans Conquer Panthers, 15-8, Strong Hitting and Tight Pitching Earns Victory

The hustling Titans started their 1956 season off with a bang Tuesday by smashing the Pitt Panthers 15 to 8. The Blue and White, who had seven returning veterans in the starting lineup, started the assault early by scoring four runs in the first inning. After Norm Paxton had retired the Panthers one-two-three in the top of the first the Titans went to work.

George "Tookie" James, freshman catcher, started it by drawing a walk. Steve Prokopchak, team captain, was safe on an error by the Pitt second baseman and Tom Parks singled to left. With the sacks jammed and none out, George Strehler sent the three runners scampering for pay dirt with a long double to right-center. He too crossed the dish when the catcher threw wildly past third base. This ended pitcher Gilmore's turn on the mound before he had retired a batter. He was replaced by Carl Lindstrom.

The Panthers received two gift runs in the second inning when Paxton hit three consecutive batters and Bill Duvall, Titan second sacker, threw wildly past first while trying for a double-play. Lindstrom held the powerful Titans at bay and the Panthers came within one run in the fourth when Joe Walton, who played end on Pitt's football team, put one of Paxton's tosses in the lake for a four-bagger.

The Titans moved out to a three run margin in their half of the fourth on singles by James and Prokopchak, a walk to Parks and a two run single by Strehler. But the never-say-die Panthers again struck back and tied the score in the fifth. Two errors by first-baseman Parks, a pair of walks and a bloop single by second baseman Bieno deadlocked the tilt at 6 all.

At this point Bob Duvall took over the pitching chores for Westminster and Barrickman, Pitt's third pitcher, was hurling for the visitors. At this point the fabulous Mr. James put the game on ice with a grand slam home run. The big blast followed walks to Don Wix and Vince Telesco and a fielders choice single by Bob Duvall. Tookie stepped to the plate as cool as a cucumber and sent Barrickman's first pitch splashing into Brittain lake. The Panthers got homerun crazy in the sixth as Cost and Fedor connected back-to-back to narrow the margin to 10-8.

But this time it was Steve Kosko who came through and belted the horsehide out of sight in the lake with a man on. Before the inning ended the Titans had built up a seven run pad which Duvall never relinguished as he pitched air-tight ball the rest of the way.

The diamond men proved their power by doling out fifteen hits. Five of which went for extra bases, homers by James and Kosko and doubles by Kosko, who had two, and Strehler. Kosko was the biggest gun for Westminster getting four hits.

The Titans will strive to cop their second win of the season tomorrow at Slippery Rock.

Hitters Duels Highlight Start Of Intramurals

By Ernie Fraternity

The intramural softball season is now in full swing. Despite the cold winds and snows which postponed its start for ten days, the games seem to be rolling right along according to schedule and the playoff dates have been set for May 22 and 23.

In the Blue league the Globies and Block W are waging a great battle for first place. Block W is undefeated in three games while the Globies are unbeaten in two. Block W has beaten Sigma Phi Epsilon 11-6, Sigma Nu 11-2 and Alpha Sigma Phi 14-6. The Globies have beaten Sigma Nu 18-4 and the Sig Eps 8-5. It looks like these two teams will make it a great battle for the Blue league championship. In the White league Sigma Phi Epsilon is on top of the heap with two victories without a setback. The Sig Eps have beaten the Apes 16-2 and Phi Kappa Tau 23-11.

From the sound of the scores mentioned thus far you can imagine that pitching duels are few and far between. Bob Bleggi, of the Globies, is leading the Blue league in both hitting and pitching. He has won two ballgames without a defeat and sports a hefty .800 batting average. He has made eight hits in ten trips to the plate.

Hugh Ferguson of Sigma Phi Epsilon is leading the White league in pitching with a 2-0 record and Max Burns and Ken Zahrobsky both of SPE have made eight for ten and are batting .800.

SEE—
DOC FUSCO
He'll Heal
YOUR Heel
Bank Building

JEWELRY
OF THE FINEST QUALITY
J. R. Meek, Jeweler
We also repair

Earn Your Master's Degree
Plan Now for an Executive Career in Retailing
A one-year executive development program open to all A.B. and B.S. degree graduates with good undergraduate records. Curriculum includes executive direction in outstanding department stores in six major East and Midwest cities (with pay, minimum $450). You earn your Master's Degree at the same time. Co-ed. Scholarships. G.I. approved. Graduates are selectively placed before graduation. Next class begins Sept. 4, 1956. Apply now. Write for BULLETIN "C."
SCHOOL OF RETAILING
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH
Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

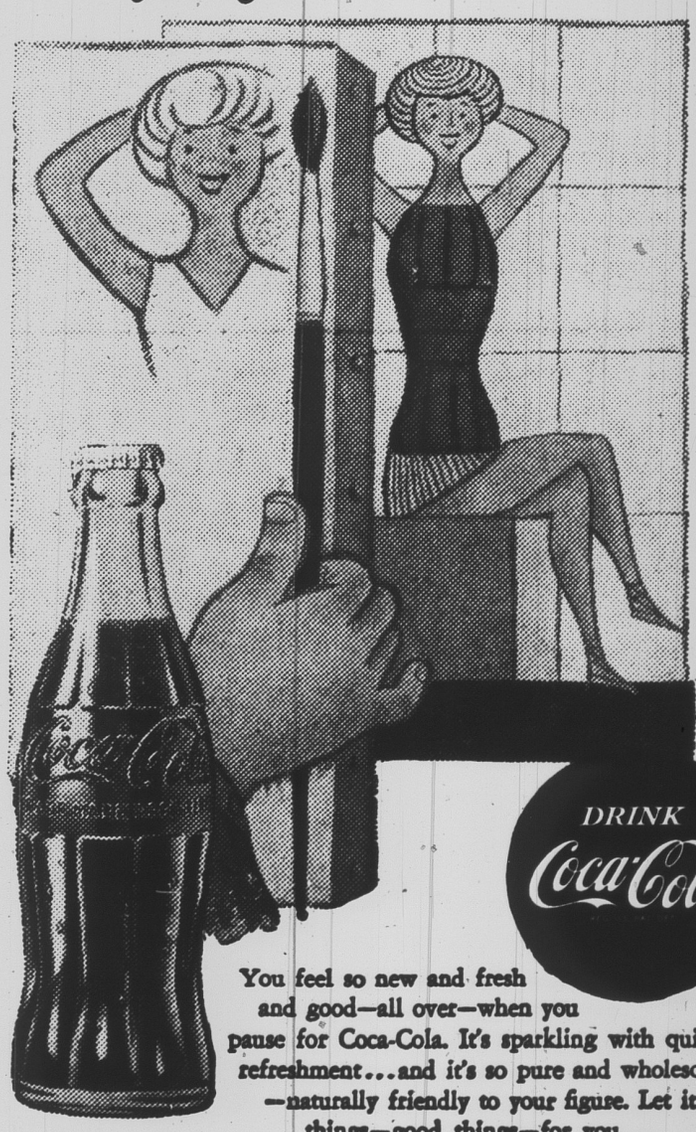

Oven Fresh Daily For You
- Cookies
- Cream Puffs
- Cup Cakes

WILMINGTON BAKERY

Washing - Drying
65¢ PER LOAD
Hours 9-5
Open till Noon on Wed. and Sat.
LAUNDROMAT
Around the corner from the Show

Winterize Your Woolens BEFORE Storing Let
Kay's Cleaners
Preserve that Just Bought Finish

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment...and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

From Soups to Nuts . . .
. . . it's
Brown's Food Market
The Store with More

Womens Summerette Shoes
New Styles - New Colors
$3.98 to $4.50
Fred Williamson's

SOCIAL WHIRL

Frosh Class Holds Dance Tonight; Two Sororities Activate Pledges

By Dianne Oursler

Mild spring weather tends to rejuvenate our spirits as the baseball season begins; dusty tennis rackets are dug out and golf strokes improved upon. However, if you are tired of April in New Wilmington, the freshman class is setting the scene tonight for an April evening in Paris. Don't forget to support the tennis team in its match with Slippery Rock on Saturday.

SIGMA NU . . Newly elected officers are as follows: William Jackson, commander; William Pickford, lieutenant commander; Eric Wilson, recorder; William Pryor, treasurer; George Strehler, marshal; John Heidish, chaplain; Roger Fry, reporter; William Moss, alumni contact and Edward Echnoz, assistant treasurer. The new officers will be installed Monday night. Activation ceremonies will also be held on Monday night with an activation dinner following at the New Castle Elks.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Activation ceremonies were held for James McCreedy . . Jay DeBolt, John DeSantis, Richard Haizlett, Kenneth Hofrichter, John Fedunok, Robert Thompson and Alfred Thompson visited the chapter at Miami university recently.

THETA UPSILON . . Betsy Schafer was chosen "Ideal Pledge" . . Patricia Trosch was awarded the "Scrapbook Award" . . Margaret Bickel visited California State Teacher's college recently . . Judith Neff heads the committees for the houseparty next weekend.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . Activation ceremonies were held Saturday for the following: Marcia Barrett, Sue Bechtel; Nancy Beistel, Margaret Black, Jill Clarkson, Claire Davies, Roberta DeMott, Martha Getz, Joyce Guy, Carol Maurer, Cynthia McKay, Elaine Morris, Roberta Post, Lee Rapp, Tonya Stanfar and Alta Vogan. A luncheon at the Tavern followed activation . . Appointed officers were announced at this time: Lee Ann Weigel, librarian; Joyce Guy, altruistic; Miriam Fox, Homecoming and Patricia Gunther, sports chairman.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Initiation ceremonies were held Monday night for Richard Aughenbaugh, Ralph Benson, Lawrence Bobst, Samuel Clark, William Jack, Robert Klepser, Jack Mansfield, Peter Marshall, William Meyer, Carl Morris, Nevin Morris, Jerrold Paul, Richard Walker, Dale Westerman and Gary Weidner . . Theodore Taylor and Jerrold Paul visited the Epsilon chapter at Ohio Wesleyan university while William Beveridge, John Blamphin and Jack Mansfield were on the Baldwin-Wallace campus last weekend.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Pledges are in charge of the next houseparty . . Barbara Town is chairman of decorations; Sarah Duff, refreshments and Beverly Bird, entertainment.

CHI OMEGA . . Janet Reese has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Stuart Eddy . . The Patroness tea will be held today at 4:00 p.m. . . Susan Essinger, Velma Harl, Marjorie Harrison, Lois Heisey, Sandra Keeley, Marguerite Mershimer, Ann Price, Janet Reese, Jane Stewart and Helen Tombor attended a tea at the Pick-Ohio hotel in Youngstown last Saturday. The guest speaker was Miss Elizabeth Dyer, national president.

KAPPA DELTA . . Newly appointed officers are as follows: Betty Oursler, guard; Janice Zima, magazine chairman; Leah Schill, press book; Lynne Caddick, historian; Linda Strickler, social service and Leonora Hofmann, alumnae chairman . . Lynne Caddick recently accepted the pin of Harry R. McConnell, Midshipman of the United States Naval academy, Annapolis . . Jeanne Douthett and Jean Wilson are co-chairmen of the houseparty.

QUADRANGLE . . Elizabeth McLaughlin is chairman of the spring dinner dance . . Romaine Gardner is in charge of the "Sit and Sip," a party that Quadrangle is holding for all sorority women on April 20.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Glenna Weister was pledged Monday. New active members are: Barbara Boswell, Betty Jean Casebar, Joan Bodner, Diana Eubanks, Dorothy Kramer, Carol Kibler, Joanne Heesom, Virginia McMahon and Sue Thomas. Dinner is being held at the Tavern . . . Debora Phelps, ex-'57, and Wayne Walker were married in February . . Charmaine Wiker, ex-'57, has accepted the Lambda Chi Alpha pin of Denton Karter of Franklin and Marshall college . . A bake sale will be held at Sewall's tomorrow morning.

Engagements

SPICKER-PIERSON

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Spicker of Greentree announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Robert Pierson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Raymond Pierson of Mt. Lebanon.

Dorothy is a two-year secretarial major and a member of Beta Sigma Omicron. Pierson, a Phi Kappa Tau, will graduate this June with a business major.

RAY-SAMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Medred of Erie are making announcement of the engagement of Jeanne M. Ray to David H. Sampson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sampson, Verone, New Jersey.

Jeanne is the daughter of Mrs. John Medred and the late Charles T. Ray. Sampson is a senior business major and member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

BAKER-PELZNER

The engagement of Barbara Lee Baker to Adrian Pelzner is made known by her mother, Mrs. May L. Baker of Ocean Grove, New Jersey.

Barbara, a graduate of the class of 1955, was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. She is presently teaching in the elementary school system in Ocean Grove. Mr. Pelzner is a graduate of the University of Arizona.

HODACK-SCHENCK

The recent engagement of Natalie Ann Hodak to Arthur C. Schenck is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hodack, Sr., of Albion. Schenck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Schenck of Erie.

Natalie is a senior in the music education department and a member of Kappa Delta sorority. Her fiance is a 1955 graduate of Westminster and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He is now employed as supervisor of elementary music at Elmwood school, Garfield Heights, Ohio.

Campus Calendar

Friday, April 13
Chapel, Tap Day
3:30-5 Chi Omega Patroness tea
8:30 Freshman dance, "April in Paris"
Saturday, April 14
12:30 Campus Club luncheon
T. U. Children's party
Baseball, Slippery Rock, away
Tennis, Slippery Rock, here
Sunday, April 15
National Christian College day
Vespers, Dr. Jamison
Monday, April 16
Chapel, T. U. devotional
AAUP banquet
Tuesday, April 17
Chapel, Mortar Board
Mock Convention
Baseball, Geneva, away
Track, Geneva, away
Wednesday, April 18
Chapel, Mr. Burbick
Mock Convention
3:30 Mu Phi Epsilon meeting
5:00 WAA meeting
8:15 Pi Sigma Pi meeting
Phi Alpha Theta meeting
Thursday, April 19
Chapel, Dr. Jamison
Mock Convention
Tennis, Hiram, here
Golf, Thiel, away
AAUW

Supervising Teachers To Attend Luncheon

The elementary supervising teachers of the area will be entertained at the Tavern for a Saturday luncheon April 28. The teachers are the ones under whom Westminster's student teachers are working for 12 weeks.

Club Reorganizes After Five Years

Within the past month, Westminster college added another club to its large number of social and academic organizations. Previously organized in 1948, but dissembled in 1951 because of lack of interest, the Physics club has been reorganized.

A committee under the chairmanship of Rudolph Davidson is preparing a constitution for approval. Officers for the club have been elected. They are Joseph MacKenzie, president; Roger Finley, vice-president and Wallace Giffen, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Robert Woods and Dr. John G. Albright are advisors.

The first of the club's open meetings was held Tuesday night and featured a lecture on "The Principles of the Cyclotron" by Dr. Hinman, experimenting with high energy radiations at the cyclotron in Saxonburg, who explained the theory, application and mathematics of the cyclotron. He also discussed the uses of the particles produced and showed slides on the construction of the cyclotron.

The Physics club is planning a field trip to this cyclotron or "atom-smasher" in Saxonburg. It is dismantled once a month and only at this time can it be observed.

Wagner To Reign As May Queen

Bettie Wagner, junior from McKeesport, Pa. has been chosen to reign as Westminster's May Queen for 1956. She will be crowned on Alumnae day, June 2, by last year's queen, Mary Lou Walker. Last year's court will take part in the ceremony.

The queen candidates, all members of the junior class, were nominated by members of Student Council and YWCA and Bettie was elected by a vote of the student body.

Bettie is an elementary education major and a member of Chi Omega sorority. In addition to being in Mermaids for two years, she has been a member of WAA for three years, serving as secretary last year and president this year.

She is secretary of the junior class, a member of Student Council and Pan-Hellenic council, and has been on Senate for two years. Bettie has also been active in the choir, YWCA, FTA and the chapel committee.

Members of Bettie's court are Jean Aungst, elementary education major from Floral Park, N. Y.; Diane Levy, business major from Punxsutawney; Phyllis Holmes, elementary education major from Whitinsville, Mass.; Catherine Snyder, biology major from Grove City; Dianne Oursler, elementary education major from New York City and Audrey Valentine, music major from Summerville.

Ex Libris

By Beryl Rowland

Four more books have been added to our ever growing library. One is a historical novel, Andersonville, by MacKinlay Kanter. The story takes place in Georgia during the Civil War, and it shows the effect of war on a typical family of that time.

An autobiography by Guthrie McClintic, Me and Kit, gives an insight into the lives of great stage personalities of our time. Gutherie McClintic,well-known director and husband of Katherine Cornell, tells the story of his long struggle to success.

The Moth and the Star is the biography of Virginia Woolf by Aiteen Pippeth. It portrays the strange personality of a famous writer whose real self is little known to her readers.

The library has acquired a book which contains a collection of poetry, prose and songs from American history dating back to 1455. The American Treasury, selected, arranged and edited by Clifton Fadiman, is composed of six thousand selections from over one thousand authors, all of which are a part of our Americen heritage.

Radio Class To Record Convention Proceedings

During the three days of the Mock Convention, the radio production class and several of their aides will be kept busy carrying out their plans for recording the highlights of the convention. These tape recordings are to be broadcast April 18, 19 and 20 from 8:30 to 9:00 p.m. over station WKST in New Castle.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. and Sat.
MAN WITHOUT A STAR
Kirk Douglas - Jeanne Crain

Mon. and Tues.
FRANCIS IN THE NAVY
Donald O'Connor - Francis

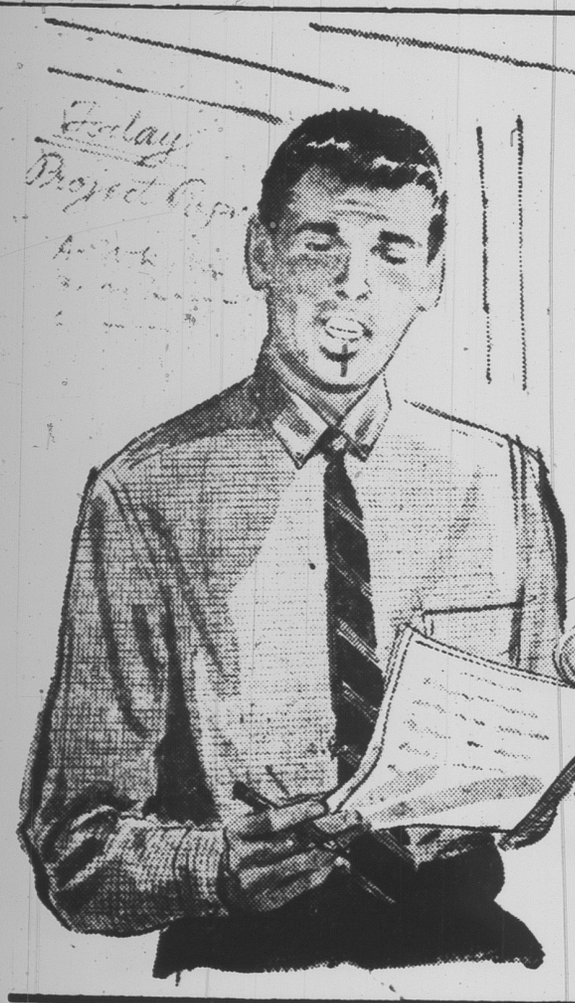

Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
RANSOM
Glenn Ford - Donna Reed

COMING—
FEMALE ON THE BEACH

Walker's Have It
For The Sportsman And The Athlete
- Resident and non-resident fishing licenses
- Cortland Tennis Rackets
- Dunlop tennis balls

Springtime is Funtime
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

Springtime is Soda-Time At the GRILLE
The COOLEST Drinks in Town

Check this new collar style —the ARROW Glen

Here's a broadcloth shirt with features that please the college man with an eye for style. The collar, (button-down, of course), is a shorter, neater-looking model. The fine broadcloth cools you throughout the warm days ahead. The trim checks are available in 7 color combinations, including blue, tan and grey. $5.00.

And, an Arrow repp always sets off an Arrow shirt just right. Tie, $2.50.

ARROW
—first in fashion
SHIRTS • TIES • SLACKS

For discriminating tastes
The Tavern
Serving Hours
12:00-2:00 — 5:00-7:00
Reservations Advisable
Closed Tuesday
Mrs. Ernst Durrast
New Wilmington, Pa. Dial 3351

The Holcad

Vol. 76 No. 21 Westminster College, New Wilmington. Pa. Friday, April 20, 1956

Honoraries Tap New Members

Mortar Board Gets Nine Junior Women

Tap Day was observed during the regular chapel periods Friday, with Kathleen Johnston in charge of the program which was identical in both chapel periods except that Mortar Board was tapped in the morning and Cwens in the afternoon.

The new members of Mortar Board tapped by Kathleen Johnston, president, are Irma Allen, Marilyn Elkins, Barbara Farrow, Christina Jovzeh, Diane Levy, Beth McGill, Catherine Snyder, Marcia Vandermast and Lorraine Wortmann.

Virginia Dickson tapped for Cwens. The new members are Ann Aichner, Marcie Barrett, Margaret Black, Lynne Caddick, Betty Jean Caseber, Jill Clarkson, Marilyn Felton, Phyllis George, Clara Gillis, Nancy Griffin, Deanna Humphreys, Chiquita Johnson, Patricia Mulloy, Barbara Post, Alta Vogan and Janice Zima.

Alpha Psi Omega and Masquers speech honoraries, were represented by Bill Barbe who announced that new Alpha Psi Omega members are Audrey Valentine, Beverly Bemiss, Barbara Haldy, Barbara Bachman, Bruce Bowen, Edward Terreri, John Loeffler, Thomas Bair, Alan Ellis, Frank Wilgocki and Donald Hudson.

Included in the new members of Masquers are Roberta Smith, Catherine Snyder, Jacqueline Walker, Nancy Wampler, Sue Behrenberg, Betty Oursler, Patricia Hayman, Richard Aurandt, George Killa, Milton Lodie, George Lowther, Thomas Parlett, Kay Ames, Nancy Conover and Joyce Guy.

Julia Holstein, Olive Hunt, Betsy Hutcheson, Carol Jacobs, Constance Mohr, Ann Price, Marilyn Pringle, Nancy Reese, Barbara Reynders, Carol Roberts, Lillian Sablack, Robert Winter, Dale Westerman and John DeSantis are also new Masquers.

Those persons tapped by Dan Migliore for Pi Sigma Pi, the scholastic honorary, are Irma Allen, Barbara Farrow, Roger Finlay, Robert Gardner, Betsy Hutcheson, Perry Kirklin, Diane Levy, Eliza-

(Continued on Page 4)

1956 Westminster Mermaids

Participating in the Mermaid show, "Aquarama," to begin Monday night are: front row, M. Jeckel, R. Johnson, D. Levy, C. Doutt, P. Jenkins, P. Black and M. Gould. Second row, M. Diez, M. Elkins, R. Borrell, S. Kingsley, J. Timmons, J. Stewart, A. Metzler, J. Smith and V. Dickson. Back row, N. Conover, L. Wortmann, N. McGavern, K. Johnston, president, B. Reynders, C. Fairlamb, C. Mohr and W. Schmidt.

Mermaids Give Water Show In Old 77 Monday

"Aquarama" Features Solo, Duet And Quartet

"Aquarama," a synchronized swimming show presented by the Mermaids, will open in Old 77 Monday night at 8:15 and continue each night of the week except Thursday.

The annual show this year offers a visit to countries throughout the world with seven group numbers and five specialties.

The 30 girls in the water show will perform a water ballet to music from Hawaii, China, France, Spain, South America and other countries.

Specialty numbers include a duet by Suzanne Kingsley and Constance Mohr and a trio of Martha Diez, Suzanne Kingsley and Wynetta Schmidt. A senior quartet of Nancy Conover, Doris Gething, Constance Mohr and Joan Smith and another consisting of Margaret Black, Virginia Dickson, Joan Gould and Roxanne Johnson will also present special numbers.

Kathleen Johnston, senior from Franklin Lakes, N. J., and president of Mermaids, will swim a solo performance to "Greensleeves." She has been responsible for the planning and production of the show.

Miss Marilyn Dimitroff, women's physical education instructor, is advisor to the show. Continuity was written by Aliceann Rea, manager is June Gunther and publicity is being directed by Nancy Conover.

Judy Morgan designed the scenery for the show with programs planned by Suzanne Kingsley and Peter Enroth. Alan Ellis is in charge of lights.

Thirteen Year Old To Present Chapel

Thirteen year old Joyce Reid, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Calvin Reid of Mt. Lebanon, will perform in the Westminster college chapel Friday, April 27, at the regular 10:45 a.m. and 1 p.m. chapel hours.

Already an established concert pianist, Miss Reid has performed for Pittsburgh audiences in Carnegie Music hall and Syria Mosque when she played for the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra Young People concert. She also played last summer with the Chautauqua Student symphony.

Rev. J. Calvin Reid is pastor of the Presbyterian church in Mt. Lebanon. The public is invited to the chapels.

Now Hear This

The April meeting of Kappa Mu Epsilon will not be held Tuesday, April 17, as scheduled. It will be held Monday, April 23, at the home of Mr. Merrill Palmer. All members should meet in front of Old Main at 8 p.m. for transportation.

* * *

The "Summer Session bulletin" for 1956 is now available for distribution in Mr. Johns' office.

* * *

Wednesday afternoon session of the Mock Convention will be televised Sunday at 11 p.m. on channel 27, WKBN, Youngstown.

Dr. Orr Receives Loan Approval For New Dorm

Dr. Will W. Orr received news early this month that final approval has been granted for Westminster to receive a Federal Housing administration loan of $803,000 for the construction of Galbreath hall.

Plans can move forward at once for erection of the new women's dormitory to be named in honor of Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, former president of the college.

Ground has already been cleared east of Browne hall for construction of the new dormitory and work on the project will begin as soon as weather permits.

It is hoped that Galbreath hall may be ready for occupancy by the fall of 1957.

Westminster Admitted To C.A.C. Association

Dr. Will W. Orr announces that Westminster college has been accepted for membership in the Association of College Admission counselors.

Headquarters of the group is at Miami university, Oxford, Ohio.

The objectives of the association are the promotion of ethical standards in college counseling, the development of closer cooperation between secondary schools and colleges, the maintenance of friendly relationships among its members and the maintenance of ethical standards in granting of all financial awards.

Deans Office Sells "Candida" Tickets

Tickets will go on sale Monday, April 23, and reservations may be made for "Candida," final Little Theatre production of the season. Miss Charlotte Forsberg will direct the play starring Beverly Bemis and William Barbe.

Opening Tuesday night, May 1, "Candida" will run four days for the student body. Students are urged to reserve seats now in the Speech office.

The fifth performance will be held Parents' Day, May 5, at 2 p.m. Only parents will attend this performance. Students can pick up tickets for their parents in Dean Whitehill's office.

Miss Forsberg announces the following crews for the play: John Loeffler, stage manager and Kathleen McCoy, stage crew. Louise Dox and Carol Remondelli will be in charge of costumes.

Other crews are: lighting, Julia Holstein, George Lowther, Ingrid Clay and Jacque Walker; properties. Janice Zima, Nancy Wampler, Ruth Organ and Lillian Sablack.

Frank Wilgocki will be house manager and Carol Roberts, bookholder. In charge of make-up will be Sue Behrenberg and Sue Sloan. Sound effects will be handled by Leah Schill and Sara Lee Scott.

Mu Phi Epsilon Presents Recital

Mu Phi Epsilon, music honorary, will present its annual recital Tuesday, April 24, at 8:15 in the college chapel. Sydne Falk, treasurer of the organization, is in charge.

The program will include Florence Craig playing "Rhapsody in F Minor. op. 11, no. 2" by Ernst von Dohanyi; Romaine Gardner singing "The Little Shepherd's Song" by Watts and "Swans" by Kramer and Barbara Rankin playing "Concerto in A Minor" (allegro) by Vivaldi.

Others in the program are Virginia Borden singing "Lullaby" and "The Unforseen" both by Scott; Lorraine Adams playing "Chorale in B Minor" by Franck; Sydne Falk singing "Come Away, Death" and "Blow, Blow, Those Winter Winds," both by Quilter; Roberta Foster playing "Impromptu" by Faure and Margaret Ihnat singing "Music When Soft Voices Die" by Quilter and "Take Joy Home" by Basset.

The performers are all members of Mu Phi Epsilon. The girls recently tapped for the group will be ushers for the recital.

Music Students Attend Conference

Thirty-one members of the newly organized Music Educators National conference, student chapter, No. 180, recently visited the 9 a.m. rehearsal of Midwestern District Choral festival, April 7. Mr. Cameron and Miss Peabody accompanied the group.

The festival was held this year at Mercer with Mr. George Strickling as guest conductor. Mr. Strickling, a music educator, conductor, composer and arranger, is at present choral director at Cleveland Heights high school.

For the past ten years he has conducted the Cleveland Lutheran A Cappella choir which has toured both the United States and Europe.

Formal Reception Held In Honor Of Seniors

Seniors will be guests of honor Thursday night when the senior reception is held in Ferguson hall beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Dress for senior women is formal and for senior men, either tuxedoes or dark suits. Seniors are asked to report for the reception by 8:15 p.m.

All faculty and students are invited to attend. Attire for these guests will be formal for women and suits for men.

John Reed Accepts Assuit Position

Westminster's latest contribution to the faculty of Assiut college in Egypt is John Reed, an English major from Zionsville. He plans on teaching English at Assiut, but has agreed to do any extra-curricular work that is necessary.

JOHN REED

John is not the first member of his family to do missionary work. His parents are at present working in Asmara, Eritrea.

The teaching post at Assiut is open every third year. In order to receive the foreign teaching position, the applicant must first be approved by the religious life committee here at Westminster; then by the Board of Foreign Missions of the United Presbyterian church. After that, the prospective teacher applies formally and is accepted or rejected by the candidate committee of the Board.

John will be leaving for his job sometime late this summer. He is taking the place of Kenneth Gordon, also a Westminster graduate, who is now teaching English at Assiut and also directing the school's physical education program.

It's All Over Now . . Even The Shouting

It's been a three day holiday at the Republican Mock Convention. It's been a dazzling combination of a Mardi Gras, Fourth of July and a three ring circus. The convention attire ranged from hairy-legged Floridians in Bermuda shorts to freckle-faced milkmaids from Wisconsin. Shell-shocked delegates ran for cover as firecrackers threatened to cave in the left side of the gym. IKE supporters scaled perilous heights to aim "rolls of streamers" at the Dewey rooters.

The real purpose of the Mock Convention was lost in the midst of confetti, banners and parades. Too much time spent in preparing floats, and devising "cute" campaign slogans resulted in an indifferent or ignorant attitude on the part of delegates as to actual campaign issues.

Most campaign managers lacked, for the most part, sufficient interest in the qualifications of the candidates they nominated to lead our nation; rather they appeared overly concerned with attaining votes by display and exhibition.

If the Mock Convention is to serve as an educational background to national politics, it might not be too infeasible to expect that the delegates possess at least an inkling of why they are supporting their candidates.

During the nomination speeches, the only opportunity offered to learn the candidate's platform, an atmosphere of boredom and disinterest prevailed throughout the convention hall. Apparently delegates were too engrossed in getting out their pots and pans.

We cannot say that we haven't gained anything from the Mock Convention because we certainly have. We've gained weight from all the popcorn, we've gained signs to pin on our bulletin boards, and many of the delegates have gained laryngitis, especially the delegate from Kentucky, from calling "point of order" so often. All in all, the Mock Convention was a howling success.

Could this be a true reflection of the national convention?

C. H. — C. R.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 76 Friday, April 20, 1956 No. 21

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

Assignment . . .

At The Last Minute

Barbie Farrow

Feb. 1, 8 a.m.—Professor Goulash hands out the syllabus for Upper Slobbobian history, 992. "Attention class. As you can see on page 96 of your syllabus, you have a 20,000 word written lesson to be handed in on April 20th. It will be due no later than 4 o'clock."

March 20, 8 a.m.—"Class, remember you have exactly one month until your written assignment is due. There are only six books in the library and there are 20 students—you better hurry."

April 19, 8 p.m.—Our student Ike Duff meets fellow Upper Slobbobian history student, Dewey Warren, who is frantically writing in McGill library. "Hi, Dewey, watcha doing? We didn't have anything for Upper Slob did we?"

"Sure, Ike, don't you remember that 20,000 word paper is due tomorrow."

April 19, 8:01 p.m.—"Miss Kocher, do you happen to have the six books that are on reserve for history 992?"

"Sorry, Ike, but they have all been signed out."

"Can you give me the names of who has the books?"

April 19, 8:10 p.m.—Ike is running toward Russell hall in search of three books. "After Russell, I'll have to go to the Kappa Sig, Nu Sig and Kappa Delta houses. I just gotta get those books."

April 19, 8:15 p.m.—Knocking on the door of Russell 591 "Hey, Tom, can I borrow that book which we need for the Upper Slob paper? I've been so busy that I haven't had a chance to get it done."

The occupant of 591 is in a similar position and can't give Ike his book.

April 19, 9 p.m.—Ike has wearily returned with a book to his room and begrudgingly begins work.

April 19, 10 p.m.—Pacing the floor our hero has gotten a brilliant idea. Clutching a pack of easy-erase paper, he races to his typewriter and starts pounding. No time for outlines, note cards, first drafts, revisions or final drafts.

April 19, 11 p.m.—1,500 words down only 18,500 more. The hours pass by.

April 20, 3 a.m.—Two minute break for milk. Now have 10,000 words. Doing great if the arms don't give in.

April 20, 7:55 a.m.—Made it. 20,000 words. Now to staple it and run to class."

April 20, 8:02 a.m.—"Here's my paper, Professor Goulash."

"Class, I am proud of you. Everyone got his paper in on time. I am proud of you. Now, today we will discuss the reawakening of Upper Slobbobian literature."

April 20, 8:07 a.m.—The rattle of shores drifts to the front of the room. Our hero has fallen asleep. The big reawakening will occur at 8:50 when some kind friend will awaken him and slowly steer him to his bed in the dorm. He has worked hard and his mission is fulfilled.

Spring . . .

Is The Season Of Love

by Scottie Price

If you will pardon a cliche—spring has spung; and it seems as though at Westminster the young men's fancy has turned to thought of politics, though being around the field house for the late evening sessions may have given them other ideas. Yes, love springs eternal on our fair campus and the current signs of the times bear witness to this fact.

For instance, did you ever glance at the back booths in the TUB? Sometimes the scene is quite interesting. Oblivious to the sounds and sights going on around them, our young lovers are completely enraptured with each other. Hands clasped, they sit gazing into each other's eyes and dreaming the dreams that only young love knows. Criticize them if you will, but these children are happy.

Then there are the intellectuals who regard TUB-love as the lowest type of relationship and seek companionship on a higher level. They want to associate with members of the opposite sex who have similar academic and recreational interests as they. You may see these couples on the tennis courts, buried in the stacks or playing in the conservatory.

Some students are possessed with a visible animal love. This consumes much of their time and energy, but they find it fascinating. Yes, just ask any field biology student to show you his collection of birds, bugs, snails, mice or alligators, and he will be delighted to comply. Also, notice with what tender care other future biologists handle their cats or frogs, affectionately naming them Sue, Johnny, Jerry or Maybelline. It really hurts these students to have to dissect the heads, limbs and visceral organs of their little pets.

(continued on page four)

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Well, by this time everybody is mighty exhausted with the many activities of the convention. The gang really got in the swing and went all out to make it a success. Did you get a good look at the two harems—Harold Davis and his Georgia Peaches and Bill Jackson and his Wisconsin Milkmaids. That's the life.

* * *

I think I have found another distinctive feature of New Wilmington. No other place can possibly have such changeable weather. It is possible here to get sunburned one day and have a case of snow blindness the next.

* * *

A big thanks should be given to Bunny Traendly, Ann Gamble, Nevin Morris, Tom McFarland and Marcia Vandermast and the Globe Printing company for spending many hours putting out the extra convention issue of the Holcad. With so much going on they had to spend many late hours getting it to press.

* * *

Fraternities and Interfraternity councils do a variety of work on different campuses, but probably the oddest fraternity job was done on the Florida State university campus at Tallahassee. The dean of men asked the fraternities to break up an organized ring which was at work distributing final examinations. Last semester seven different exams fell into the hands of students before the tests were given. The black market was getting $10 per exam before the fraternities knocked it out of existence.

* * *

All over the nation, most families seem to place a great emphasis on television. Meals, bedtime, studying time and housework are regulated by the television schedule. Even in college we all plan to watch certain shows at our fraternity or sorority houses. Surprisingly, a national poll of college students voted by a 3 to 1 margin that they would give up television before giving up newspapers. Most students seem to feel that newspapers give them a fuller, more complete and more detailed coverage of news and events.

* * *

Here is a recipe for enjoying life which the Alma college Almanian gave to its students.

INGREDIENTS

1 cup of friendly words
2 heaping cups understanding
4 heaping teaspoons time and patience
pinch of warm personality

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MIXING

Measure words carefully. Add heaping cups of understanding. Use generous amounts of time and patience. Keep temperature low. Do not boil. Add dash of humor and a pinch of warm personality. Season to taste with SPICE OF LIFE.

News Headlines . . .

Ike Asks For Farm Aid

Ike Asks for Farm Aid After Vetoing Farm Bill— President Eisenhower in a nationwide TV and radio broadcast explained that he vetoed the farm bill because it would harm the farmers more than help them. He urged Congress to enact swiftly a new payment-in-advance soil bank program which could give participating farmers an extra 500 million dollars this crop year.

Pittsburgh Man Goes on Trial for Perjury — Ex-Army Lieut. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh went on trial in Washington, D.C. on a count of perjury. In March 1953, Icardi testified at the hearing of the death of his superior officer, Major William V. Holohan, which occurred during World War II. The Army claims to have proof that Holohan was shot on Icardi's orders, although he claims that he was killed by a Nazi.

Israel Insists that Egypt Lift Suez Ban — Israel gave Dag Hammarskjold a formal demand to Egypt to lift all restrictions on Israeli shipping through the Suez canal.

Tornadoes Hit Alabama — 18 people died and more than 200 were injured when a disasterous tornado swept into the outskirts of Birmingham, Ala.

Bradley Says that Third World War Will Start With a Sneak Attack — Former General Omar Bradley told a Senate group that the Third World War will start the same as Pearl Harbor—with a surprise attack. At the present time there is only one country capable of such an attack—Russia.

Strike and Robberies Mar Kelly-Ranier Marriage — A threatened strike of British press representatives and four jewel robberies totalling $75,000 cast a shadow over the merriment surrounding the marriage rites of actress Grace Kelly and Prince Ranier which were held at Monoco's Cathedral on Wednesday and Thursday.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

The AAU, after raising a big stink over Wes Santee, is now trying to stop Wilt "the Stilt" Chamberlain from playing basketball at Kansas university.

Wilt, the 7 foot 1 inch wonder from Philadelphia, supposedly accepted money to play summer basketball under an assumed name. I can't say whether or not the charges are correct, but I can say that if Wilt is not allowed to play next year, the basketball fans of the United States will be robbed of seeing the fabulous Chamberlain perform. Wilt could become the greatest college basketball player of all time.

Broke Scoring Record

He broke every scoring record at Overbrook high school in Philadelphia and showed promise of doing the same at Kansas U. He played for the freshman team at Kansas; and when they played their varsity, they beat them. They beat a varsity which was one of the best in the middle west section.

A jammed house watched Wilt perform that night, and they were all amazed at his tremendous agility. Ex-Coach of Kansas U., Adolph Rupp said that all he needed was Wilt, three girls and a Phi Beta Kappa man to have a winning season.

Scored 91 Points

In high school, Wilt scored 91 points in a single game as his Overbrook squad trounced Roxborough 126-23. I have seen Wilt play in scrimmages and games and I can assure you that he is not an awkward, gangling goon. He has the agility of a much smaller man. He has a good hook shot and a fair jump, and occasionally he'll take a one hand jump from outside.

The favorite offensive play for Overbrook was a shot from outside which was purposely short. Wilt would leap high in the air and tip the ball in. Don't think it was easy for the opponents to shoot because every shot that wasn't looped would be batted away by the giant Chamberlain. His giant arms almost reached the edge of the rim without jumping. I saw one game he played against West Philadelphia in which he got tired of dunking the ball in an ordinary fashion; so he leaped high in the air and dunked the ball with one hand and caught it before it left the basket with the other and then dropped gently to the floor.

Offered 106 Scholarships

When Wilt decided to go to college, he received 106 scholarship offers. Some schools even offered to take Wilt's high school coach along to coach Wilt in college, but Kansas won out.

They got Wilt because they worked on his mother and told her not about his basketball opportunities but abuot the opportunities of gaining a good education and a good job after graduation. Wilt did not have to worry about grades either because he was a B student in high school.

Received Instruction from Johnston

During vacations, this past winter, Wilt worked out with the Philadelphia Warriors, professional basketball champions, and received expert instruction from Neil Johnston, who led the National Basketball association in scoring in 1954 and 1955.

The Warriors want Wilt when he graduates from college and some basketball followers say he would play professional basketball right now without college experience but the AAU has made Wilt's future doubtful and their decision will have a big effect on next year's basketball season.

Trackmen Beat Geneva, 81-50

ERNIE'S QUIZ...

By Ernie Fraternity

1. What National league pitcher has won over twenty games for six consecutive years?
2. Who was the rookie of the year in the National league last year?
3. Who are the rookie managers in the National league this season and what teams do they manage?
4. Who am I? I switched to the National league this year after an illustrious career with the Boston Red Sox in the American league. I am now 39 years old but I have always been a great relief pitcher.
5. Who am I? I won a pennant in Brooklyn and I was a great winner in the minors but my present team finished seventh last year.
6. What American league rookie pitcher set a record for strike outs for rookies last season.
7. Who led the major leagues in home runs last year? How many?
8. How many pitchers in the major leagues won 20 games last year? Name them.
9. Who holds the highest lifetime batting average?
10. Who am I? I recently broke the world record in the 1,500 meter free style. I swam for Cortland State Teachers College.

TEST YOUR SKILL—

8 out of 10 — Major leaguer; 7 out of 10 — Minor leaguer; 6 out of 10 — College player; 5 out of 10 —High School; 4 out of 10 — not too good; 3 out of 10 — no comment!

ANSWERS.

1. Robin Roberts
2. Bill Virdon
3. Fred Hutchinson, St. Louis
   Bill Rigney, New York
   Bob Bragan, Pittsburgh
4. Ellis Kinder
5. Chuck Dressen
6. Herb Score
7. Willy Mays, 51
8. Robin Roberts
   Don Newcombe
9. Ty Cobb
10. George Breen

Titan Rackets Edge Rockets In Close Match

In the first tennis match of the season the Titans led by Frank Marsico, Dale Garver, Warren Gardner, Don Hoover and Roger Findlay defeated the Slippery Rock Rockets by a five to four margin. Marsico, playing first singles, opened the match by defeating Bier of Slippery Rock 6-4 and 9-7. Team captain Bob Pierson had trouble with Harper in the second singles for the Rockets and he was defeated in three sets 3-6, 7-5 and 6-4. Warren Gardner, freshman, looked sensational in his first start as a Titan when he knocked off Adamson 6-2 and 6-3.

Bill Porter and Andy McKelvey were the only losers among the singles performers for the Titans as Bill was set back 6-3 and 6-4 by Snare, and Andy was downed 3-6, 6-3 and 6-4 by Martin. In doubles competition Garver and McKelvey beat Perason and Martin 5-7, 6-3 and 6-4 and Marsico and Pierson lost to Bier and Harper 6-1 and 6-4. At this point the score was tied at four all. However, Hoover and Findlay saved the day with a 6-3, 7-5 win over Adamson and Mattys.

THE QUESTION IS . . .
Whether Your Leather Will Weather the Spring for the answer, see
SEE—
DOC FUSCO
Bank Building

Duvall Goes Route As Titans Beat Slippery Rock

Bob Duvall, George Strehler and Steve Kosko were the big guns as Westminster's baseball team won their second consecutive game of the season by defeating Slippery Rock, 8-4, last Saturday on the losers' diamond.

Duvall Goes Distance

Duvall went the full nine innings as he allowed nine scattered hits and fanned eleven Rockets. He also added two hits which helped his cause. Strehler and Kosko had three and two hits respectively, as each of them slammed triples in the big four-run uprising in the first inning.

For Slippery Rock, who scored two runs in the first and two in the seventh innings, Fred Clark hit two triples. The second should have been a home run but he missed third base as he rounded the bag and the umpire called him out when the alert Titans appealed the play.

Petro Gets In Jam

The Rocket pitcher, George Petro, was in and out of trouble as he gave up eleven safeties and four walks in his seven innings on the mound. Westminster scored early as Strehler tripled home Steve Prokopchak and Tom Parks. Prokopchak had walked and Parks had singled sharply to right. Kosko's long three base hit over center fielder Bowen's head plated Strehler and Titan shortstop scored the fourth run of the inning on a wild throw.

Rockets Scored Pair in First

Slippery Rock struck back fast in the first on a single, Clark's triple to right and a single by Weller to left for two markers. Duvall steadied down after the opening outburst and had the Green and White eating out of his hand except in the seventh when they added their final two tallies. Two fluke singles and a pinch hit double resulted in the two scores.

Duvall drove in a Westminster run with a single in the fifth and the final three runs came in the sixth frame when with the bases loaded George James sent one man home with a sacrifice fly, an error plated the second and the third scored on Prokopchak's drive into center field.

The Titans, with a break in the weather, will make their next start tomorrow when they tangle with Allegheny at Meadville.

Firsts By DeBolt And Scungio Secure Blue & White Victory

Coach Harold Burry's thinclads opened their bid for a second straight undefeated season with an easy 81 to 50 victory over Geneva at Beaver Falls Tuesday afternoon.

Intermittent rain and snow storms slowed down the times but failed to stop the Titans as they piled up nine first places to Geneva's four.

Jay DeBolt and Joe Scungio were the leading scorers for the Titans, each taking two first places. DeBolt was first in the low hurdles at 13.8 seconds and also the high hurdles at 16 seconds, while Scungio took initial places in the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard race. The time for the 100 was 10.5 which is not a great time on a good track, but taking into consideration the condition of the track at Beaver Falls, it was a great showing for the freshman from New Castle.

The mile was won by Don Sheraw. His time was 4.44.8. Homer Weaver of Geneva was second and Don Jackson of the Covies finished third. Bill Jackson of Geneva won the 440 in 0.54 with Bill Pote of the Titans finishing second and Bill Moss third.

Scungio was followed in the 100 by John Walker and O'Data of Geneva. DeBolt was followed in the 120 high hurdles by Brower of Geneva and Jack Mansfield of Westminster. Mansfield finished second to DeBolt in the 120 low hurdles. The 880 was won by Jim Osuna with a time of 2.06.5. The two mile run was won by Bill Jackson, Geneva's leading scorer, but Jerry Paul, Titan freshman, was only five yards behind Jackson at the finish. Jackson's time was 10:48.

Jay DeBolt was high scorer with 10½ points for the meet. Scungio of Westminster and Jackson of Geneva each scored 10 points apiece. All three won two events apiece but DeBolt took a tie for third place in the high jump whicr gave him the extra one-half point.

Walker, Davis Lead Field Events

In the field events Harold Davis took first place in the discus with a heave of 123 feet. The pole vault ended in a three way tie between Bill Seidner and John Shaeffer of Westminster and McCracken of Geneva. All three reached ten feet. Jim McCreedy finished second for Westminster in the javelin.

The Titans swept the broad jump one-two-three. Walker was first with a jump of 21 feet 3½ inches, Harold Davis was second and Bill White third. Ed Towns won the high jump with a jump of five feet five inches.

The next meet is scheduled for this afternoon, when Westminster meets Slippery Rock on the Titans' home field. Slippery Rock won their first meet last Saturday beating Carnegie Tech.

Enjoy the Baked-fresh
Goodness of Cake
● Layer Cake
● Loaf Cake
● Coffee Cake
WILMINGTON BAKERY

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment...and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

HOLLYWOOD'S QUEEN GRACE SHOPS AT MONACO . . . but WESTMINSTER'S QUEEN BETTIE SHOPS AT
Brown's Food Market
The Store with More

Men's Rubber Sole Sport Shoes
$8.00 Value
$4.95
Fred Williamson's

SOCIAL WHIRL

All-College Dance, Track Meet And House Parties Climax Busy Week

By Dianne Oursler

After a week composed of color, campaigning and costumes, the fast pace of college life continues with no "breathers" in sight. It's a good thing that education isn't all books! Friday there is a track meet scheduled here with Slippery Rock and that evening Kappa Delta Pi is presenting an all-college dance. Sorority gals will entertain their dates on Saturday night at the final houseparties of the year.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . Saturday night's houseparty theme is "Central Park." Mary Diehl is in charge of decorations; Sue Bechtel, entertainment and Lee Ann Weigel, refreshments . . Luncheon is being served on Saturday at the Tavern to celebrate International Reunion day . . Lee Ann Weigel was elected house president . . Mary Diehl visited the chapter at Allegheny last weekend.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Wayne Henderson will be the representative of Alpha Nu of Alpha Sigma Phi at the National convention to be held in California . . . John Schaffer was on the Baldwin-Wallace campus recently.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Cay Townsend visited the chapter at Pennsylvania State university last weekend . . Tomorrow night's houseparty will have a Hawaiian theme . . The Parents' day luncheon will be held at the Neshannock Presbyterian church.

CHI OMEGA . . Sarah Hamilton was in charge of the Patroness Tea last Friday . . Barbara Caldwell heads committees working on the houseparty which is a weiner roast . . Cory Ann McClure, ex-'58, visited campus last weekend as did Suzie Weller, ex-'55 and Barbara Shingler, ex-'59 . . New officers have been named: Lois Heisey, treasurer and Marcia Trow, reporter.

KAPPA DELTA . . Erma Smith attended the Kappa Delta sorority workshop at the University of Pennsylvania last weekend . . The houseparty Saturday night will have an "international" theme . . Sandra Haupt Stewart, '55, was here recently.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . Dave Abram has been appointed chairman of the Public Relations committee and Wallace Giffen is the new alumni secretary . . Thomas Tucker, John Stoyle and Larry Brooks visited the Epsilon chapter at Mt. Union college.

QUADRANGLE . . Rachel Gibson is the chairman of the picnic to be held next month . . Roberta Foster was named chairman of the Parents' day luncheon to be held at Ferguson hall . . Past members that recently were on campus are: Kay Fairlamb Bailey, '53. Marybeth McIndoe Calkins, '54 and Grace Dorman, '55.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Patricia Hayman, Shirley Frazee and Jeanette Traendly will attend the convention in Glenwood Springs, Colorado in June . . Betty Jeayn Caseber was named "ideal" pledge . . "Harmony and Contrast" is the theme of the houseparty for which Nancy Zahn is chairman . . Shirley McPherson and Virginia McMahon are co-chairmen of the Parents' day luncheon . . Debbie Phelps Walker, ex-'57 was on campus recently.

SIGMA NU . . Activation ceremonies were held on Monday night for the following: Richard Cain, William Cziriak, Thomas Duda, Anthony Janicik and Charles Meuser. Others were Argyle Robinson, Glenn Smith, Edwin Watson and Alan Wheeler . . Newly appointed representatives to Interfraternity council are William Storey, William Pickford and William Jackson . . Sandra Huffman has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of Francis Gardner.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Louise Zumpe recently accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Stanley Rackley . . Hanry Aurandt has been selected Sing and Swing director . . Michael Tomko visited the chapter at the University of Pittsburgh last weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . Marilyn Elkins is in charge of the Parents' day luncheon that will be at the Humes hotel in Mercer.

Students Elect Councilmen Tues.

Elections for next year's Student Council representatives will be held Tuesday, April 24.

Those juniors nominated at class elections to appear on the ballot are: Carol Dietz, Phyllis Holmes, Sandra Keely, Nancy McCune, Ann Price, Nancy Zahn, Louie Toporcer, Dave Hartkopf and Frank Wilgocki.

Sophomores nominated are Sandra McCartney, Ruby Parker, Carol Paulie, Carol Remondelli, Harriet Wright, Edward Eschnoz, Robert Leach, Russell Stump, Gerald Von Brook and Martin Wintermantle.

Nominated from the freshman class were Jacqueline Adams, Sue Bechtel, Lynn Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Sarah Duff, William Beatty, John Blamphin, Jack Mansfield and Steve Weeks.

The names of those students who served on Student Council this year appear on the ballot automatically. They are Jean Aungst, Audrey Valentine, Betty Wagner, Mary Lou Mansell, Dale Garver, Patricia Adams, Richard Cain and Harry Humes.

Schwartz Announces CPA On Campus

Mr. Paul Schwartz assistant professor of business administration, announces that Mr. Kenneth Johnson of Pittsburgh will be on campus Monday, April 23, to speak to business majors and others interested in accounting.

Mr. Johnson of Lybrand, Ross Bros. and Montgomery, national CPA firm, will speak in room 207 at 3:15 on the subject "My First Three Years in Public Acounting."

The speech is one of the four topics being presented this year by the Pittsburgh chapter of the Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs.

Bowling Green Hosts Tri-Beta At Convention

Last weekend three members of Beta Beta Beta attended a sub-regional convention. It was held at Bowling Green State university of Bowling Green, Ohio.

The weekend was filled with scientific sessions, speakers, a field trip and reports of other chapters. These reports promoted an exchange of ideas. There were also groups from three other states who attended this convention. Those who attended from our chapter were Raymond Sphar, Donald Baumann, Lynn Daugherty and Dr. Simpson, head of the biology department.

Tri Beta To Sponsor Blood Bank Next Week

Beta Beta Beta will sponsor for the fourth consecutive year a blood typing test. This test determines blood type, the RH factor and the approximate hemoglobin count.

The records from these tests have been used a number of times in emergencies in order to save confusion. The students are requested to sign for an approximate time on the list provided on the biology bulletin board on the third floor of the science hall. The days and hours for the blood-typing test are as follows:

April 25—3-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m.
April 26—3-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m.
April 27—3-5 p.m.

Campus Calendar

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Friday, April 20
Chapel, Dr. Orr
Track, Slippery Rock, here
8:30 Kappa Delta Pi all-college dance

Saturday, April 21
Baseball, Allegheny, away
8:30-11:30 Sorority houseparties

Sunday, April 22
7:45 Vespers, Dr. Orr

Monday, April 23
Chapel, Dr. Christy
8:00 Kappa Mu Epsilon meeting
8:15 Mermaids

Tuesday, April 24
Chapel, Shaler High school choir
Track, Carnegie Tech, away
8:15 Mu Phi Epsilon recital
8:15 Mermaids

Wednesday, April 25
Chapel, Little Theatre
Tri Beta blood typing
7:00 YWCA
8:15 Mermaids

Thursday, April 26
Chapel, Cwens, devotional
Tri Beta blood typing
8:15 Senior reception

Friday, April 27
Chapel, Miss Joyce Reid
Tri Beta blood typing
Golf, Grove City, here

President Announces Student Council Agenda

At a special meeting of Student Council, Craig Cashdollar, president, presented an agenda concerning segregation which will be adopted for discussion at the next meeting.

The agenda reads as follows:

1—Is there a need for the problem of segregation to be discussed on Westminster's campus?

2—Does Student Council have the prerogative to discuss this problem?

3—Should Student Council use its jurisdiction? Or, could other groups do it better?

4—What would be the goals of Student Council if it took action?

5—What would be the means to accomplish these goals?

Although the administration policy concerning participation in off-campus contests was discussed, further discussion will be held at the next meeting.

Westminster is sending four delegates to the N.S.A. convention (concerning student government) to be held April 27-29 at Pennsylvania State university.

Interfraternity Elects Jay DeBolt President

Jay DeBolt of Sigma Phi Epsilon was elected president of Interfraternity council for the coming year at their meeting Wednesday, April 18.

Elected to the office of vice president was Thomas Parks. Other officers are Hugh Ferguson, secretary; Robert Campbell, treasurer and Frank Wilgocki, representative to the student conduct committee.

The electing group consisted of three representatives of each of the four fraternities on campus, one being the president of his organization.

Phys. Ed. Department Announces Schedule

The physical education department announces the following schedule for the use of the tennis courts the remainder of the semester.

Girls' physical education classes will use all courts Monday and Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. and on Tuesday and Thursday from 9:00 to 10:45 and 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The tennis team will use courts 1 and 2 Monday through Thursday from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

SPRING SPECIAL
Men's Suede Jackets
$7.00 Value for
$5.50
New Wilmington Cleaners
CAMPUS REPRESENTIVES
● Ann McDowell

Mock Talk . . .

By Tom McFarland

The "Miss Americas" from New Jersey, resplendent in formals for opening night, certainly didn't keep their glamorous title for very long. Their Wednesday night garb of dungarees and shirt tails leaves one wondering if the title they were out for the second night might have been "Mess America."

There was so much hot air blown around during the hour-long platform debate for atomic energy control that even the flowers on Maryland's hats began to wilt.

The proposal to build a bridge to Hawaii sunk, pineapples and all, deep into the Pacific ocean. Looks like our vitamin C will have to come from Florida oranges.

No wonder the IKE men were throwing the toilet paper around so freely during the Eisenhower demonstrations. Even a Sears Roebuck catalog has merit over that pulp.

It occurred to someone that some of those messages of "official business" passed to those cute-looking pages by all-male delegates might have verged on the monkey business.

The most suspenseful moment in the first balloting for the presidential candidate was when the New York delegation changed one vote to MacArthur.

What a coincidence that George Merwin would choose a pure white suit to wear as a delegate to the Virgin Islands.

With our winter weather the Georgia delegates changed their motto to "Harold Davis and His Frozen Peaches."

The Michigan delegation strove to be unusual. What other state would abstain 19 votes from the first presidential balloting plus have a chairman clad in shocking pink?

Pilgrims are pretty progressive now-a-days. Priscilla would turn over in her grave if she had seen her state of MASS. represented by a bermuda-clad chairman. Worst of all, what would Miles say way back in Cambridge?

Honoraries Tap

(Continued from Page 1)

beth McGill, Ann Price, Bruce Whann and Eric Wilson.

Roberta Foster announced the new members of Mu Phi Epsilon, music honorary. They are Margaret Black, Betty Jean Caseber, Gail Cheetham, Sheila Evans and Nancy McGavern.

Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism honorary, tapped Sue Essinger, James Falk, Ann Gamble, William Kness, Jeannette Traendly and Marcia Vandermast.

Other honoraries announced the names of members who have been initiated during the year.

Robert Wright tapped for Karux. Those new members taken into Karux were William Beveridge, John Blamphin, Neil Brown, Robert Kimpel, William Meyer, Dale Miller and Robert Palisin.

Others are Richard Reynolds, Burley Roberts, Edward Sprague, Ronald Strehl, Laverne Thomas, Allan Wheeler and Robert Wright.

News Briefs

Carol Paulie was elected president of YWCA last week. Carolyn Jones is the new vice-president, Glenna Wiester was elected secretary and Chiquita Johnson, treasurer. Installation of officers will be held April 25. Mrs. Will Orr will speak at the next meeting.

Springtime is Soda-Time At the GRILLE
The COOLEST Drinks in Town

Erroll Garner Plays At Grove City

Erroll Garner, rated the finest pianist in the popular field today, will appear at a jazz concert Monday, April 23 at 9 p.m. at Grove City college.

The concert which will be held in the Arena of the new Recreation building will provide area music lovers with a fine evening of music.

Garner's appearance is being sponsored by the senior class of the college and tickets may be purchased in the Westminster Book store or at the door at $1.50. All seats are general admission and district students and other Garner fans are expected for the affair.

At 34, Pittsburgh-born Erroll Garner has been a member of the roster of legendary jazz greats for almost two decades. Garner began playing professionally when he was seven years old. By the time he was thirteen, he was playing at dances and in night clubs.

In his early twenties Erroll took the Garner legend from Pittsburgh to New York. It was during this period that he won the title which has clung to him since, that of "Mr. Piano."

Acknowledged as the most pronounced contemporary jazz piano stylist, Garner also is a composer. This is most unusual inasmuch as Erroll does not read music; he plays by ear and is self taught.

Garner's concert stature is becoming world-wide. Since his solo concert debut at Town hall, New York, in 1950, he has appeared in major concert halls throughout the United States and Canada. His audiences range from the most extreme jazz enthusiasts to pop fans and "long hairs."

Spring Is The Season

(Continued from Page 2)

Yes, spring is a wonderful season—a time for renewing old friendships and making new ones. After all, when the sun is shining and finals aren't scheduled for another month, who can possibly be mad at anyone?

KDP Members Sponsor Inaugural Sock Hop

Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary, will sponsor a Victory dance based on the theme of the Mock Convention.

The dance, The Inaugural Sock Hop, will be held in Russell hall tonight from 8:30 to 11:30. Admission will be 35 cents a couple or 25 cents stag.

There will be entertainment and refreshments.

WILMINGTON THEATRE
Fri. and Sat.
RANSOM
Glenn Ford - Donna Reed
Mon. and Tues.
TEXAS LADY
Claudette Colbert - Barry Sullivan
Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
NOT AS A STRANGER
R. Mitchum - F. Sinatra

Walker's Have It
Complete line of Archery Equipment
● Pearson Bow and Arrow set. 25-40 lbs.
● Finger Guards
● Arm Guards
● Quivers
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

The Holcad

Vol. 76 No. 22 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, April 27, 1956

Council Gives Its Ideas On Contest Policy

During the regular meeting of the Student Council called to order by President Craig Cachdollar on April 24, two issues that had been pending were unanimously voted upon. The council's attitude toward the administrative policy concerning participation in off-campus contests was composed and presented by Marion McConnell Wolk.

Her report reads as follows:

Student Council understands that Westminster college has adopted this policy (1) in order to supervise the academic pursuits of those who might jeopardize their grades by participating in contests unauthorized by the college and (2) in order to protect the name of the college from misrepresentation resulting from misconduct by students in contests without permission.

Although we of Student Council understand and respect the motives behind this policy, we feel that its far-reaching implications are dangerous.

1—We feel that it is implied that college students are not capable of budgeting their own time out of the classroom.

2—We feel that this policy covering all students is unfair because the problem that precipitated the policy affects only a small percentage of the student body.

2—We feel that the problem will not be solved by simply limiting student freedom in the contest area —the real problem is a social one, and there are too many wide-open areas for this to be a logical policy.

4—Because one of the reasons for initiating this policy was that students were doing inferior work in the classroom as a result of participation in unauthorized off-campus contests, we feel that a satisfactory approach can be made in the classroom—in that the professor as a remedy can give the student his choice: to do adequate work in class or expect to fail the course. Here the choice is primarily in the hands of the individual.

5—Although we certainly support the administration's policy for students on probation, we feel that when a student has shown enough maturity and responsibility to be in acceptable academic standing, he also is able to properly conduct his leisure time. Therefore, although it is generous of the college to assume a guiding or watchful attitde toward the student whose studies are weak because of con-

(Continued on Page 4)

Dr. Edwards, Terreri Participate In Panel

The Spring Conference of the Citizenship Clearing House for Western Pennsylvania will hold a meeting on April 28 at Indiana State Teachers' college.

Edward Terreri, sophomore political science major from New Castle, will take part in one of the many panel discussions. Dr. Charles P. Edwards will moderate the panel whose topic of discussion is "Political Party Differences."

American Chem. Society Elects Toporcer Prexy

The local affiliate chapter of the American Chemical society recently elected new officers.

Louis Toporcer is the new president replacing Perry Kirkland. Alan Ellis is vice-president and Richard Dangle is the new treasurer replacing Sarah Haddad and Frank Dickson respectively. Jean Wilson was re-elected secretary of the society, and Barbara Fabian is the new historian.

Mortar Board Members

Pictured above are the new members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary who were initiated recently. They are, left to right: Irma Allen, Catherine Snyder, Elizabeth McGill, Marcia Vandermast, Lorraine Wortmann, Barbara Farrow, Diane Levy, Marilyn Elkins and Christian Jouzeh.

Oratorical Champs Attend National At Northwestern

Pennsylvania state oratorical champions Carol Roberts and Daniel Migliore left for the national oratorical contest, composed of twenty-two states, on Wednesday. The contest will be held at Northwestern university in Illinois until Saturday.

Miss Roberts will decry the conformity of intellectualism with an oration entitled "Who So Would Be A Man;" Migliore will point out the overabundance of scientific fact with lack of sufficient conviction to take a stand, with "Cult of Neutrality."

Debate coach Mr. Melvin Moorhouse will accompany the couple and judge the western division of the contest.

IRC Members Take Field Trip

Students of the political science department will take a field trip to Pittsburgh May 3 for the Sixth Annual Forum on World Affairs.

The session will be held all day Thursday with lectures by prominant dignitaries. India's ambassador to the United States, Mr. Mahta will speak on the topic, "How to Win Friends and Influence Neutrals." Former American ambassador to the U. S. S. R., Kennan, will also speak at the forum on the topic "Can We Do Better Than Co-Exist?"

Because of the trip, the IRC meeting, formerly scheduled for May 3, will take place May 10. If any IRC members are interested in going on the trip, they should contact Dr. Edwards in the history office.

Dr. Christy Announces Bible Exam Winners

Dr. Wayne Christy, chairman of the Bible department, announces Eleanor Nye and Thomas Beech as first and second place winners of the Eichenauer Bible examination.

A junior music education major from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, Eleanor receives the $65 first place award. The $35 award goes to Tom, senior bible-psychology-philosophy major from Wilkinsburg.

Ten students entered the competition held last week.

Someone Said . . .

"All Men Are Children

By Emy Fohrenbacher and Doris Barnshaw

. . . and happy women are mothers to them." Starting Tuesday, May 1, we shall have a "mother" (Beverly Bemiss) on our campus with two such "children."

The purpose of Candida (pronounced like Canada with an extra "d") visiting Westminster is to put the mighty males of this institution in their proper places. (A-hem!) The two male characters (Bill Barbe and Don Hudson) in this play, called Candida, present a contrast between adolescence and manhood.

Candida's primary aim is to fulfill the duties of the ideal "mother" by indicating the pathway that leads from youth to maturity without disillusioning her admirer. This art has been mastered and is practiced widely, yea, even around our own Quad. (Under these circumstances aren't we fortunate that "children" still love their "mothers"?)

Throughout the play Candida makes it evident that she belongs only to herself and will not choose one of the two men. Others in the cast are John DeSantis, Joyce Guy and Neil Brown. Carol Jacobs is the bookreader.

The performances, directed by Miss Charlotte Forsberg, will be given at 8:30 May 1 (semi-formal dress) and at 8:15 May 2-4. A special Parents' day presentation is scheduled for 2 p.m. May 5.

Get out your cradles guys, "mother" is coming!

Radio Production Class Records Convention

Tapes of the convention were heard over WKST last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings under the title "Convention Highlights," thanks to the work of the Radio Production Class who recorded each afternoon and evening session of the convention. After editing the tape and supplying narration to link the various events, the tape was cut-down to fit a half-hour program and sent to the radio studio. Each one in the class spent six to ten hours on each recording.

The purpose of the coverage was to fulfill the requirements of a project for the class, which was to cover a special event. Members of the class who were active in the project were Richard Newcomer, William Bovard and Thomas Bair. Members of the Radio Fundamentals class who helped with the project were Richard Aurandt, George Killa, John Loeffler, Gerald VonBroock and Donald Hudson.

Students Elect Council Members

Six Student Council members were re-elected in the elections held this week. Six new members will fill their position next year.

Jean Aungst and Betty Wagner were re-elected to council by the juniors. New members representing the junior class are Phyllis Holmes and Louis Toporcer.

Sophomores re-elected Mary Lou Mansell and Dale Garver as representatives, adding Carol Paulie and Robert Leach as new members.

Lynn Caddick and Richard Cain will serve a second year on Student Council. New freshmen representatives are Jacqueline Adams and John Mansfield.

Robinson To Address Accounting Students

Mr. H. N. Robinson from the Ernst and Ernst accounting firm of Pittsburgh will be on campus Monday to give the second talk to accounting students.

Mr. Robinson will speak on "Common Problems of Bankers, Controllers and C. P. A's" Monday April 30 at 3:15 p.m. His talk will be the second given here of the "case-study" program sponsored by the Pittsburgh chapter of the Pennsylvania Institution of C. P. A.

Schwartz, Sweetser Attend Conference

Mr. Paul Schwartz and Mr. Albert Sweetser of the business department attended the second conference of teachers of business and economics at Pittsburgh last weekend.

The Saturday session, sponsored by the University of Pittsburgh, was composed of morning and afternoon conferences and lectures.

Also associated with the conference are Carnegie Tech, Duquesne, Penn State and the University of West Virginia.

Vandermast, Canon Named Argo Editors

Marcia Vandermast and Albert Canon have been named co-editors of the 1956-57 Argo by the publications committee this week, announces Dr. George Bleasby chairman of the committee and head of the English department.

Marcia is a junior journalism major from Pittsburgh. She is associate editor of this year's Argo and also managing editor of Scrawl. For the past three semesters she has served as copy editor on the Holcad. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority.

A junior business major from West Middlesex, Canon is presently serving as business manager of the Argo and the Holcad. He has had experience editing his high school yearbook.

Orr's Bible Class Receive Awards

Dr. Orr's Bible class awarded books last Sunday as a reward for fifteen weeks consecutive attendance

Each recipient chose his book from the following: Halley's Pocket Bible Handbook, Westminster Bible Dictionary, The Gospels (J. B. Phillips translation) and Abringdon Bible Commentary.

Those receiving books were Shirley Ross, Carol Najpaver, John Specht, Verne Thomas, Lael Holman, Phyllis George and Nancy Griffin. Others were Clara Gillis, Dave Gray, Esther Davis, Carolyn Jones, Thomas Parlette, Dianne Oursler, Patricia Kemp, Janet McConahey and Irma Allen.

Geneva Accounting Club Hosts Students, Faculty

Seven business majors and two faculty members attended the "alumni night" at Geneva college last week when the Geneva accounting club presented past members to lecture on their experiences in accounting since graduating from college.

Attending were William Braund, William Stepnick, Dean Haney, George Kelley, William Pryor, Norman Paxton and Edward Echnoz. Members of the business department attending were Mr. Paul Schwartz and Mr. Albert Sweetser.

Now Hear This

The tennis team uses the courts from 3:30 to 4:30 every day and uses court number 1 after 4:30.

-o-

Women students will choose rooms for the 1956-57 school year next week. Juniors and seniors will select Tuesday, May 8 at 4 p.m. and sopohomores will choose Wednesday, May 9 at 4 p.m.

-o-

Don't forget to make reservations for the Little Theatre production of George Bernard Shaw's Candida. There are still openings for May 1-4 at 8:15. Stop by in the speech office soon.

-o-

Fifteen high schools in this area will see a sneak-preview of Candida this Monday night, April 30.

-o-

Dr. Charles P. Edwards announces the filing date for the Foreign Service examinations is May 11. The tests are to be given June 25 of this year, but it is necessary to file applications by May 11.

Opinions Are For All

The Mock Convention has been over one whole week!

There are those who gained much from an educational standpoint. There are those who had a good time. There are those who were not interested at all. There are those who gained nothing.

If you wanted to learn about convention procedure, you had an excellent opportunity. If you wanted a good time, you were bound to find it among the parades and fanfares. If you did not care, there was television. If you gained nothing, you missed a free chance to improve your political knowledge.

Someone said it takes all kinds to make a world.

Everyone is entitled to his or her opinion of the success or failure of the convention. It appears that this is sometimes forgotten in the quiet discussions on the evaluation of the convention.

It seems there are some people who are quite disturbed about last week's editorial. This editorial was the authors' impression of the convention.

Is an opinion an opinion if it is not expressed? Perhaps there has been a mistake in the Constitution of the United States, but there has been a strange rumor going around for a long time that the people of this country have the right to express their thoughts.

In this week's Holcad there is a letter to the editor which is in opposition to last week's editorial.

Now both sides have had their say.

The Mock Convention definitely was not a failure to those who benefited from it. Most of the proceedings were taken seriously and many people put in long hours to make it worthwhile. The convention was not a spur of the moment whim, but it had been in the planning stage for many months. You wanted the convention so you worked for it. If you didn't, perhaps you missed something.

This year's convention is over. There will be other years and other conventions. Or at least there should be.

Perhaps it would be wise to sit down, take a deep breath and give some thought to the good and bad points of the convention. Nothing is perfect. But imperfections can be corrected.

Look ahead to the future. Give some ideas which will help those who will be participating in the next Mock Convention. Even begin to think about the possibility of keeping the political ball rolling on campus with a Mock Legislature in two years.

At this, yet the pros and cons call it quits!

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 76 Friday, April 27, 1956 No. 22

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

In answer to the question posed by the author of last week's article—Yes, our Mock Convention was in the main a true reflection of the national convention.

Perhaps the author is living under the delusion that American politics are conducted in a sincere, serious, and completely scrupulous manner. Unfortunately, this is not the case as even a casual study of U. S. History will show. Bargaining, for votes, reciprocal agreements, and much "get on the bandwagon" type of campaigning are all common components of the party conventions.

If you watched the televized sessions of the '52 nominating conventions, you would have observed that the delegates did not often have the right attitude during speeches and so forth. Parades were executed there with enthusiasm, however, and confetti and streamers were strewn all over. And if you think that dirty politics were being played during caucuses at the Mock Convention, you might read about some of the political deals that have been put through on a national level. One thing lacked at Westminster—there was no booze in the backrooms (as far as I know).

America's government is as fine as any in the world, yet there are naturally elements connected with it that we do not like. We, as voters, can work for reform; but we cannot change the mechanics of the Mock Convention until we change the mechanics of the national ones.

Another criticism of the author seems to be that he (or she) derived no benefit from the affair. The answer to this must be obvious—"You get out of something exactly what you put into it." It has to be admitted that many people did not have much knowledge of parliamentary procedure nor of national issues. However, the Mock Convention served to stimulate interest in these important matters; and several delegates, especially the gentleman from Kentucky, deserve a word of praise for their political ability and acquaintance with Robert's Rules of Order.

Evidently, the author was one who "sat on the bench" during the sessions. Unfortunately, many students were in the same boat. We hope that the Mock Convention showed these people how little they know about our government and that they will strive to keep up with the times from now on.

It is too bad that there could not be a Mock Convention held every year. If there were one being held in '57, the author of last week's article should be appointed national chairman. Anyone can criticize, but I would like to see if this person would be willing to spend the time and energy in doing something constructive.

A. P.

What . . .

A Book Collector?

By Dean English

Mr. Quigley was a book collector. Nobody could remember when he began his collection, but it had slowly and steadily been built into the best in the country.

Adding to the collection brought him the happiest hours of his lonely life. Often Mr. Q. drove many miles for groceries just for that purpose. He always went 50 miles out of his way for gasoline and his tank was only three fourths full when he returned, but he built up his books so he was happy.

Quigley changed dentists and butchers and garbagemen and taxi companies because the regular ones refused to help him increase his collection.

Just to see an opportunity to add to the books was enough to make Quigley's heart pound fiercely, his mouth grow dry and his hands perspire freely.

Build, build, build and save, save, save. Always striving for a bigger collection. Never giving up a book. These were Quig's ideals.

It was a secret how many books the old man had. Some people said it was 1,000; others swore he had ten times that many.

They were piled in neat and high stacks throughout the Quigley home. No one but Quigley himself knew how many there were, but even he agreed that if he parted with them he would get a treasure of gifts in return.

Then Quigley died suddenly.

But Mrs. Quigley thought of a way to make one last big addition to her husband's book collection.

And sure enough, above the door to the funeral parlor, in beautiful blue neon lights, were the words that guided the old man throughout his life and led him to his great hobby.

There embossed in gold on the side of the expensive coffin, was the magic sentence that once made his heart pound fiercely, his mouth grow dry and his hands perspire freely.

There it was, just as Quigley had seen so many times before on stores and gasoline stations and bakeries and dentists' offices and bars and churches and delicatessens and lunch rooms and taxis and department stores.

There were the four magic words that Quigley had lived for: We Give S & H Greenstamps.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Grit our teeth, stick out a finger, ouch!! Have you gotten your blood tested by Beta Beta Beta? As Theodore Roosevelt McKeldin stated in chapel, "it might save your life." They will even let you know if you are low in the red corpuscle count. With all the work and apparent fatigue on campus, there will probably be a mass run on Thompson's drug store for tonics.

* * *

Have you seen the crazy-looking little object sitting on the science hall roof. It is a telescope which has been put up by Dr. Albright and his class of budding astronomers. After looking at the moon the other night there were quite a few comments.

"Where's the face?"

"Somebody told me it looked like green cheese, but it looks more like white plaster."

* * *

About once a month there is a mass exodus uptown at approximately 5:30. The fellows in the eating club at the Grille swear that they are being invaded by all the girl's dorms. Well, they are right. All someone has to do is announce "liver, for dinner tonight," and every girl starts counting her pennies. If she can muster up enough for a sandwich uptown, she joins the exodus with 99% of the dorm. Thank heavens it isn't served more often or we'd all be broke.

* * *

It was really a pleasant surprise the other night to see a certain smiling face enter the library. Welcome back Marlowe, we missed you.

* * *

There is one sport in this country which hardly gets newspaper mention. It is the sport of cricket which is played quite a bit in Eastern Pennsylvania. The Haverford college team is starting its 93rd intercollegiate cricket season. It looks like they should be mighty strong with eight returning lettermen out of eleven players and A. Brain as coach. The coach is better known as Arthur Brain who serves as visiting professor of Latin.

* * *

The Far Eastern History class the other day had a treat when Dr. Delber McKee played some authentic, long-playing records of Kabuki music. Kabuki is the Japanese version of shows like South Pacific and Guys and Dolls. After hearing this group, you really appreciate Spike Jones—even at his worst he would sound like a symphony orchestra playing Brahms.

* * *

The kindergarten students the other day had as their guest, Siggy, a tiny bunny. After spending one morning with his hosts and hostesses he did what most kindergarten teachers have wanted to do at one time or an other—he went home and died. Memorial and funeral services were conducted by Nancy Zahn.

News Headlines . . .

Pennsey Voting Light

Vote Lightest in Decade in Pennsylvania — In the primary held on Tuesday, Eisenhower led Stevenson in the balloting. Senator James H. Duff was also successful in obtaining the Republican nomination for re-election as U. S. Senator.

Khrushchev and Bulganin Visit England — The two top Russian leaders have been visiting England during the past week. At a party the other night, Khrushchev lashed out and condemned the British of piggish treatment.

Margaret Truman Marries — In a quiet church wedding in Independence, Mo., Margaret Truman became the bride of newspaperman, E. Clifton Daniel, Jr.

Syria Promises Cease-Fire — The Syrian government gave United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold an agreement to stop border firing. He then headed for Jordan to continue his peace mission.

Nixon Campaign Manager Named in Graft Probe —Murray Chotiner, the 1952 campaign manager, has been mentioned by a Senate investigating committee as being involved with a Brooklyn, N. Y., clothing manufacturer who has been accused of stealing government materials.

General Motors Should Cut Prices — The Senate's "Big Business" subcommittee stated in a staff report that the extremely high profit of General Motors calls for price cuts to consumers.

Daylight Savings Time Begins — This Saturday night most of the United States will move their clocks ahead and go on Daylight Savings Time.

11 Year Old Boy Kills Family — An 11 year old boy in Mansfield, Conn., killed his mother, father and brother because they spanked him.

Westminster Downs Tartans, 78-53

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

The Hollywood baseball club, of the Pacific Coast league, is a most unusual institution. It fills its fans with inverted loyalty. A year or two ago, when it finished the season last as usual, with a safe, snug hold on the bottom of the ladder, the fans got together and tossed the team a banquet. It was an elaborate fling with several liquid courses. The world of sport was favorably impressed by this true-blue gesture, for the Hollywood club was a cellar club in every sense of the term, never faltering for an instant in its zeal to support the rest of the league upon its spine.

It's not every baseball town where such a thing could happen: a testimonial dinner to a tail-end team. But there was a reason in this case, and a glance at the guest list reveals it. The fans of the Hollywood ball club are all comedians. I mean, that is the way they make their living. The rooting body consists almost entirely of Marx Brothers, Ritz Brothers, and Joe E. Brown, with here and there a Hope and a Benny.

Comedians Gag

It is well known that no comedian can resist a dinner invitation which gives him a chance to gag-in the professional meaning of the word—across the remains of the banquet fare. At the banquet, the loyal fans arose one by one and delivered gags about cellar ball clubs, filling the word "Hollywood" into material on cellar clubs originally written by Abner Doubleday in 1839, when it had 'em in stitches, and slightly revised for mixed parties by the National commission in 1908.

There used to be a dangerous tendency in baseball to pass comedians and other actors into the ball parks of the country on the sly. Once inside the park, they sped like homing shoats for the press box, where they took up most of the seating space and directed dirty looks at reporters who hit the typewriter so loud that the guests could not hear themselves speak—a fate generally conceded among actors to be 7.5 degrees worse than death.

Union Forms

This situation became so acute in New York City at one time that it led to the formation of a union, the Baseball Writers Association of America. In the Polo Grounds many years ago, a Chicago baseball historian, Mr. Hughie Fullerton, one day found the press box pews covered with cured ham, that is to say, with visiting Thespians. Mr. Fullerton approached his usual seat and tapped its tenant on the shoulder.

"My seat," he remarked.

"Have you tried the bleachers?" said the incumbent, an out-size comedian.

"Nope," said Mr. Fullerton loyally. "I think I'll stick to the old location."

So saying, he perched himself upon the actor's lap. The incident caused much annoyance on Broadway, but it also sparked the resistance of the baseball writers to poaching and led to the creation of their guild, which contains a charter article stating that actors must stay out of the press box. Years later some Brooklyn ballplayers challenged the encroachment of Mr. Daniel Kaye, another comic, upon their clubhouse, and one way and another resistance has stiffened steadily. It will not do to relax now.

Blue And White Rally In 9th Inning To Down Alliance College, 10-8

Upset minded Alliance college gave the undefeated Titans quite a battle last Friday as the Blue and White was forced to rally in the ninth inning to win 10 to 8. Trailing by three runs as they came to bat in the top of the ninth, the never-say-die Titans scored five times to bring home the bacon for the third successive time this season.

The Alliance pitcher beat himself by allowing three walks and hitting a batter in the fatal ninth. The winning blow, however, was delivered by Don Wix who singled with the bases loaded and two down in the ninth. Glenn Smith, freshman right fielder, gave the fans thrills earlier in the game by parking two long drives in the lake for home runs. His four baggers came in the second with no one on and in the fourth with two on.

Norm Paxton was the starting pitcher for Westminster but he was rocked for seven runs in five innings and Bob Duvall pitched the rest of the way to gain his third consecutive win of the season Bob has allowed only six earned runs in 22 1/3 innings and has pitched in every game that the Titans have played.

Alliance started the scoring with a run in the initial inning. A double by Betkoski and single by Gaglione pushed across the counter but the Titans scored the tying run in the second on Smith's homer. Alliance again came back in the third to score four runs and move into a commanding lead. They put together five singles for the runs.

The Titans again fought back to tie in the fourth when Steve Kosko was hit by a pitch, Bill Duvall got on base on an error, Tom Parks batted in one run with a single and Smith cleared the sacks with his second homer of the game.

Alliance made the score seven to five in the fifth on three singles and a walk and this ended Paxton's turn on the mound. He was replaced by Duvall, who was touched for a run in the eighth, but the Titans pulled it out in the ninth. Thus far this season, George Strehler is the leading Westminster batter with six hits in eleven trips to the plate. Kosko is second with six for fifteen.

The Titans played Geneva Thursday but results were received too late for publication. The game with Duquesne scheduled for last Tuesday will be played May 2.

Hiram Defeats Local Net Men On Home Court

Westminster's Tennis Titans suffered defeat at the hands of the Hiram racquet squad as they bowed 7-2 last Thursday. Only the fourth man on the team, Andy McKelvey could come through with a win in the singles, as big guns Marsico and Pierson went down swinging.

In the doubles matches, Finlay and Hoover were the only pair of the six netmen who could come through with a win as the powerful Hiram squad swept nearly everything in sight. Marsico lost his first two matches to Mittelbusher of Hiram 6-4, 6-4. Pierson took three sets to lose his match to Miller of Hiram, 8-6, 4-6, and 6-1.

In the doubles matches, it was nearly the same story. Pierson and Marsico bowed to Mittelbusher and Miller 6-1, and 6-3, Garver and McKelvey bowed in the second match to Walker and Temple of the Ohio School. Finlay and Hoover saved the day for the Westminster squad by defeating Shaffer and Ludlum of Hiram 6-3, 2-6, and 6-4.

Final tallies showed Westminster on the losing side, five points in arrears. The record now stands at one and one in two outings for the local netmen.

Intramurals Continue

Due to rain, snow and cold weather the intramural softball program is not being completed as speedily as possible. To date Block W is ahead in the Blue league with a 4-0 record.

In the White league Sigma Phi Epsilon, led by the great pitching of Hugh Ferguson and the hitting of Ken Zahrobsky, is undefeated; they also have a 4-0 record. The Sig Eps are undefeated in interfraternity play.

Westminster Wins Eight Firsts Defeating Engineers At Tech

Titans Take All Three Places In Discus Throw; DeBolt And Sheraw Garner Firsts To Aid Win

By Al Wheeler

Carnegie Tech went down to its second defeat in four outings at the hands of the Westminster track Titans last Tuesday in a dual meet on the Tech Tartan's home grounds. Jay DeBolt was high man as Westminster topped the Engineers 73-58. DeBolt captured both hurdles events and tied for a third place in the high jump as the Titans combined for eight first places, one first place tie, six second places, four third places, and two ties for third place. This was the Titans third match without defeat.

Don Sheraw of Westminster won the mile run in 4 minutes, 43 seconds. This was the third time Sheraw has won the mile run this year. He was followed home by Bryant and Ottervik of Tech. The 440 yard run went to Swaney of Tech, followed by Acy Jackson of Westminster in second place and Suggs of Tech in the number three notch. Time for the 440 was 43.1 seconds.

Top honors were taken in the 880 yard run as Wittman of the Engineers led the field with the time of 2 minutes 5.5 seconds. Sheraw of Westminster took second place followed by Bryant of Tech.

Westminster took both first and second places in the 220 yard dash as Tom McGrath ran the race in 23.0 seconds followed by Joseph Scungio of the Titans in second rating. Third place went to Smith of Tech.

The Track Titans did not fare so well in the long distance race. The Westminster team was barely able to eke out third place in deference to the 10 minute, 28.1 second pace set by Bryant of Tech. Second place in this event was garnered by Olds of Tech.

Jay DeBolt revenged the loss of the 2 mile event by taking first place in both the low and high hurdle events. DeBolt set a fast pace as he boomed through the lows in 13.0 seconds and the highs in 16.8 seconds. Second place in the lows was taken by Hudak of Tech, while Mihm captured another second place for the Engineers in the high hurdles.

Tech's team for the mile relay smashed the Titan's baton carriers in a fast 3 minutes, 45.6 seconds. Members of the winning team were Bryant, Suggs, Swaney, and Heinecke. Running for Westminster were Wagner, A. Jackson, Pote and Moss.

In the field events, Westminster took four firsts, and tied twice out of six possible placings. In the high jump, big Ed Towns cleared 5 feet 9 inches to force Franks of Tech into second place. Tying for third place in this event were DeBolt of the Titans and Hauser of Carnegie Tech.

Recker of Tech took first place in the shot put with a maximum throw of 39 feet 6 and 1/2 inches, topping an ailing Bill Jackson by a narrow margin. Ken Wood of Westminster placed third.

The javelin throw was copped for Westminster by Jim McCreedy with a throw of 157 feet 6 inches. Frick of Tech took second place, edging out Polaski and Hayden, also of Tech, who tied for third place.

John Walker was a cinch to win the broad jump with his 21 ft. 2 in. leap. He was followed in distance by Smith of Tech in second place and Davis of Westminster in the number three spot.

The Track Titans took all three places in the discus throw. Bill Jackson was first with a throw of 115 feet. Davis and Woods took second and third places, respectively.

Bill Seidner tied for first place honors in the pole vault event with Templin of the Engineers. Schaffer of Westminster and Hamilton of Tech tied for third. The winning height was 10 ft. 6 in.

This win was the third without defeat for the Westminster squad. Previous defeats were handed by the home team to Geneva and Slippery Rock earlier in the season. Right now the team is looking forward to their fourth meet of the season with Allegheny on Saturday.

If You Want It—

We'll Bake It.

WILMINGTON BAKERY

Artists of the Oven

Even Horses Get New Shoes in the Springtime—What About You!

SEE—

DOC FUSCO

Bank Building

JEWELRY OF THE FINEST QUALITY

J. R. Meek, Jeweler

We also repair

For The Little Gifts That Mean a Lot—

Stop At

Kay's Cleaners

The Little Shop Around the Corner.

THE STORE WITH MORE

Brown's Food Market

Serving The Student With GOLDEN DAWN'S Family Of Fine Foods

MOTHER'S DAY CARDS

5¢ and 10¢

Fred Williamson's

Flash CLEANERS

FLASH Cleaning is Quality Cleaning At Its Best

NOW OWNS AND OPERATES

The New Wilmington

LAUNDROMAT

A Complete One-Stop Service

1-Day Dry Cleaning Service
Free Moth Proofing
Shirt Laundry
1-Hr. Laundry Service

SOCIAL WHIRL

Water Show Highlights Weekend; Thoughts Turn Toward Parents' Day

By Dianne Oursler

Tonight and Saturday evening graceful mermaids offer you a trip around the world via "Aquarama," the 1956 water ballet presentation. Saturday afternoon Alpha Gamma Delta sorority will hold a party for the children of the Mercer home. Song leaders are stocking up on the aspirin supply as rehearsals for Sing and Swing become more concentrated and a final attempt is made to improve the monotones. Don't forget last minute plans for the big Parents' day weekend.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Graduating seniors and Sally Musson and Kay Barrett were initiated into the alumni chapter following the luncheon last Saturday . . . Nancy Siehl, the senior with the most activities, will have her name added to the cup in the chapter room.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Joanne Snyder and Barbara Town are in charge of next year's Homecoming decorations . . . Elaine Shaw visited Lehigh university last weekend.

CHI OMEGA . . . Pat Mulloy is the new chaplain . . . Gretchen Shumacher Watkins, ex '55 was here last weekend . . . Diana Black Marjorie Delavern, Carol Doutt, Judy Gray, Patricia Jenkins, Suzanne Kingsley, Ann Metzler and Wynetta Schmidt visited the chapter at Kent State college this past weekend.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Second degree ceremonies were held on Monday for Judith Studley and Arlene Sylvester . . . Esther McGeoch visited Pennsylvania State university and Carol Fairlamb and Susan Yeager were on the Kent State college campus . . . Beverly Johnson has been elected rush chairman and Louise Dox is her assistant . . . Linda Strickler is chairman of the Chifdren's party to be held May 12 . . . Marjorie Dottling visited Purdue university while Betty Oursler was at Hanover college in Indiana.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . The annual Father-Son activation banquet was held on Tuesday . . . Activation ceremonies honored Leon Ackert, George Killa, John Logan, Dale Miller, Robert Palasin, Gene Sommers, Edwin Sprague, and Ben Weimer. . . David Abram has been appointed pledge master.

QUADRANGLE . . . Romaine Gardner is in charge of the altruistic program at the Elmira Old Folks home in New Castle on May 14 . . . Myrna Boal visited Slippery Rock college . . . Grace Dorman was on campus last weekend.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Barbara McCaw, traveling secretary, was on campus this week . . . Shirley McPherson and Virginia McMahon are general co-chairmen of the Parents' day luncheon; Lorraine Wortmann and Charlotte Beltz are in charge of food; Sherry Franklin, decorations and Dorothy Kramer and Carol Dietz, clean-up . . . Barbara Phillips, ex '58 was on campus recently.

SIGMA NU . . . Francis Gardner is in charge of the Parents' day dinner at the Neshannock Presbyterian church . . . William Jackson, Mattison Cresse, William Pryor, Carlton Swanker and Eric Wilson will represent Epsilon Psi chapter at a divisional meeting which will be held at Carnegie Institute of Technology on Sunday . . . Roger Fry, William Moss and William Pryor are heading committees working on the spring picnic which will be on May 19 . . . John Cluss, divisional commander, was here last Monday.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Activation ceremonies were held Sunday for: Thomas Augostine, William Beatty, John Coleman, John DeSantis, John Fedunok, Hugh Ferguson, Richard Haizlett, Maurice Hartman, Rodney Heeter, Robert Holmes and Donald Hoover. Others initiated were David Rankin, Joseph Scungio, James Skidmore, Robert Sola, Benjamin Stegenga, Robert Thompson, Alfred Thomson and William Vance . . . Activation dinner was at the Mercer Moose on Thursday . . . Albert Fletcher, '55 visited the chapter last weekend.

Snacktime Is Anytime At the GRILLE

It's the Greatest Place to go.

SPRING SPECIAL
Men's Suede Jackets
$7.00 Value for
$5.50
New Wilmington Cleaners
CAMPUS REPRESENTIVES
● Ann McDowell

Campus Calendar

Friday, April 27
Chapel, Miss Joyce Reid
8:15 Mermaids
Saturday, April 28
2-4 Children's Party
Baseball, Clarion, away
Track, Allegheny, here
Tennis, Slippery Rock, away
5:30 Tri Beta Picnic
8:15 Mermaids
Sunday, April 29
Vespers, Sr. William McLeister
Monday, April 30
Chapel, Mr. Robert F. Galbreath
8:15 Play, Candida
Tuesday, May 1
Chapel, Phi Kappa Tau
Baseball, Thiel, here
Tennis, Allegheny, away
5:15 Mu Phi Epsilon Picnic
Faculty Social club banquet
8:15 Play, Candida
Wednesday, May 2
Chapel, Dr. Joseph Hopkins
3 Mu Phi Epsilon meeting
5 W.A.A. meeting
8:15 Play, Candida
Thursday, May 3
Chapel, New Castle High School choir
I.R.C. trip
4 A.A.U.P.
8:15 Play, Candida
Friday, May 4
Chapel, Lady Margaret D'Arcy
Baseball, W&J, here
Golf, W&J, away

Masquers Present Oscars At Banquet

Oscar awards for the best actor and actress as well as the best supporting actor and actress for this year's major Little Theatre productions will be presented at the coming Masquer banquet in May.

The installation ceremony will be held for members of Masquers and the national Alpha Psi Omega honorary with Elizabeth McGill in charge.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. and Sat.
"NOT AS A STRANGER"
Robert Mitchum Frank Sinatra
Mon. and Tues.
"FEMALE ON THE BEACH"
Jeff Chandler-Joan Crawford
Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
Walt Disney's
"AFRICAN LION"

(Continued from Page 1)

tests, we feel that it would develop more individual maturity and self-respect to be responsible oneself for one's budgeting of study, leisure, and contest time with no pushing or coddling. If a student cannot muster enough self-discipline to keep himself in college, is he college material?

6—If students participating in outside contests should, however, disgrace the name of the college, we point out that some sort of social probation already established should result as punishment. We feel that effective disciplinary measures for handling such cases already exist and can be merely extended to cover misconduct in contests.

Thus students still could exercise self-discipline in deciding what they may or may not do in their spare time, but it also would be known that disgraceful behavior would result in some form of probation.

It is obvious in this statement, we fell, that we wish to place more sense of responsibility and encourage more maturity on the party of our students.

Barbe Presents Recital For Mercer Women

The women's group of Mercer has requested a special presentation of William Barbe's senior recital to be held Tuesday, May 8 at 8 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

Approximately one-hundred seats will be available, free of charge, to any student or faculty member who wishes to attend.

Walker's Have It
MOTHER'S DAY—
Just 2 Weeks Away.
● Pyrex—in colors
Cassarol-Refrigerator sets
Bowl Sets
Coffeemakers
● Revereware
Tea Kettles
Sauce Pans
Skillets
● Plastic Ware
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

For discriminating tastes
The Tavern
Serving Hours
12:00-2:00 — 5:00-7:00
Reservations Advisable
Closed Tuesday
Mrs. Ernst Durrast
New Wilmington, Pa. Dial 3351

Just look around campus. You'll see that the "custom" details of this Arrow University shirt are definitely "college correct." The box pleat, the soft-roll button-down collar, and the back button are basic requirements. In 9 solid colors, this is the oxford shirt for you. Wear it with comfortable Arrow Bermuda shorts. They're poplin, and available in 6 colors. Shirts, $5.00. Tie, $2.50. Shorts, $5.00.

ARROW
—first in fashion
SHIRTS • TIES • SLACKS

From any angle—
it says "College man"

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it."

DRINK Coca-Cola

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment... and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

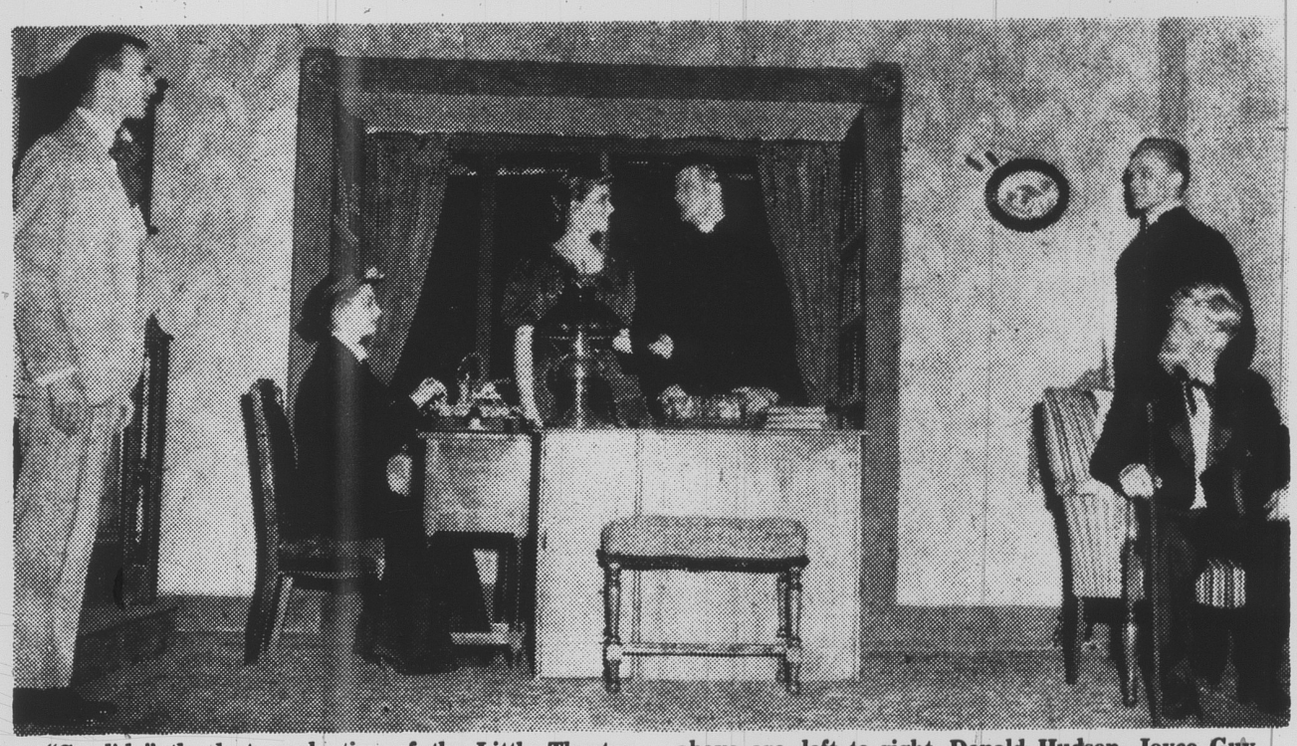

The Best College Newspaper In Lawrence County.

The Holcad

WELCOME PARENTS!

Vol. 76 No. 23 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, May 4, 1956

"Candida" And Her Players

"Candida" the last production of the Little Theatre this season, which has been running all week, will be presented for the parents tomorrow. Pictured above are, left to right, Donald Hudson, Joyce Guy, Beverly Bemis, William Barbe, Neil Brown (standing) and John DeSantis.

Sing And Swing Plans Complete

Entertainment Features College Quartet, Dance

General chairman Virginia Dickson announced today that plans have been completed for the annual Sing and Swing to be held at the Memorial Field house at 8:15 p.m.

Richard Newcomer is master of ceremonies for the evenings entertainment concluding Parents' day. Judges are Mr. Edwin Lewis of New Castle, Mr. Louis Krepps of Geneva college and Mrs S. Philip Kniseley of the University of Pittsburgh. Judith Morgan is chairman of the decorations.

Entertainment for the intermission features Gail Cheetham dancing to "Scheherezade" and the new college quartet composed of William Barbe, Howard Sleppy, William Jackson and Robert Campbell accompanied by David Livingston.

This year ten Greek letter organizations have entered the contest. Two trophies will be awarded, one for the outstanding sorority and the other for the winning fraternity.

Plans Progress For Alumni Day

The golden-anniversary class of 1906 will be honored guests at the annual alumni luncheon at Russell hall on June 2, 1956.

Members of the class will receive 50-year diplomas, and alumni-accomplishment awards will be presented to two members whose names are to be announced at the luncheon. A business meeting will follow, during which officers and trustees will be elected.

The afternoon events of June 2 include the ground-breaking ceremony for Galbreath hall which is to be held at 2:30 p.m. The Westminster band has scheduled a concert on the south terrace at 3:15 p.m., to be held in the field house in the event of rain. The May queen will be crowned in a ceremony at 4:30 p.m.

Alumni classes ending in the numbers one and six have planned evening dinners following which "Death of a Salesman," William Barbe's senior recital, will be presented in the Little Theatre at 7 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Dr. R. Lamont Speaks In June

The 1956 Baccalaureate service will be held June 3, at 7:45 p.m. in the sanctuary of the United Presbyterian church. Dr. Robert J. Lamont, pastor of the Sixth Ave. First Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, will deliver the sermon.

Dr. Brutus Abd al-Malik, an ordained United Presbyterian minister in the Egyptian Synod of the Nile, has been asked to speak in the Christian Association service at 11 a.m.

The college choir will sing "The Passion of Our Lord" by Carl Heinrich Graun at 3 p.m. Sunday under the direction of Clarence J. Martin. John L. Huyck will be tenor soloist with Arthur A. Birkby accompaning.

Dr. Lamont has served as a national missionary in Tennessee, as Professor of Temple University School of Theology and on the General Council of the General Assembly.

Dr. Abd al-Malik is currently doing research at Hartford seminary for a revision of the the Protestant Arabic Bible.

Who Stole Webster?

The office of the Dean of Men aod Women hasn't been the same since someone walked off with the Webster Collegiate Dictionary laying on the desk in the outer-office. Will the pilferer please return the guide book pronto.

Mershimer, Mohr .. Give Program

Seniors Marguerite Mershimer and Canstance Mohr will present their music recital Tuesday, May 8 at 8:30 pm. in Wallace Memorial chapel.

Marguerite Mershimer, pianist, will present Sonata, Opus 26 by Beethoven; "Chorale-Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach-Bauer; "Jesus-Rummel, The Son of God" by Back-Rummel, Nocturne in G. Minor, Opus 6, No. 1 by Abram Chasins and Clair de Lune by Debussy.

Constance Mohr, Mezzo-soprano, will sing "Ombra mai fu," a recitative and aria by Handel; "Seit ich ihn Gesehen" by Schumann; "Der Ring" by Schumann; "Die Nacht" by Richard Strauss; "Zueignung" by Richard Strauss; "Nadeschda" by A. Goring Thomas; "Go 'Way from My Window" by John Jacob Niles; "Take My Mother Home" by Hall-Honnson; "Waillie, Wallie" by Tom Scott; "Velvet Shoes" by Randall Thompson and "Thy Sweet Singing" by Clarence Olmstead.

Miss Mohr will be accompanied by Marilyn Pringle.

Neidrauer Directs 'The Finger of God'

The Finger of God, in one act, will be presented in the Faculty lounge as a 4:20 Theatre production today at 3 p.m. The drama, presented in arena style, is directed by Jack Neidrauer, senior speech major from Silver Creek, N. Y.

The cast for the play includes Daniel Leasure, a psychology major in the roll of Mr. Strickland, Marsha Hicks, an English major as the office girl and William Bovard as Benson the butler. Linda Maslanik, biology major, is in charge of make-up. All are from New Castle.

The play deals with a lesson in honesty. Strickland, a successful business man, plans to steal the company funds but his true honest character wins through the wisdom of an intervening office girl.

Seating will be limited to approximately twenty.

Migliore Wins Award And Contest

Senior Daniel Migliore has just been informed of winning a competitive scholarship held under the auspices of the Danforth foundation. Migliore just last week captured third place in the 82nd annual Men's final contest of the Interstate Oratorical association held at Northwestern university.

The Danforth scholarship has been set up to assist students with high scholastic ability to continue their studies toward a Ph. D. and college teaching with a Christian emphasis.

The scholarship can be used in the United States or in Europe and was awarded to approximately 45 students in the nation out of 1400 who applied. Migliore plans to study first at Princeton and then abroad.

At the oratorical contest, Migliore placed among the fourteen orators chosen for the finals in national competition. His topic was "The Cult of Neutrality."

A similar competition was held there also for the girls in the 21st Annual Women's final contest. Carol Roberts, a sophomore from Kenmore N. Y., was among the fourteen women orators chosen to compete for national honors.

Turner Receives Danforth Award

Dr. J. Hilton Turner of the Department of Languages has been accepted for membership in a special program on "Christian Foundations for College Teaching" which will be held at Union Theological seminary, July 9-27, 1956. His expenses while there will be covered by a scholarship from the Danforth foundation.

This is the second fellowship of this type Dr. Turner has held since coming to Westminster. During the summer of 1953 he studied linguistic science in its relation to the teaching of Latin at the University of Michigan on a grant from the Carnegie Corporation.

Epsilon Phi Elects McDowell President

Epsilon Phi, romance language honorary has elected the following officers: Ann McDowell, president; Marlene Wasser, vice president; Miriam Fox, secretary and Frank Wilgocki, treasurer.

The chapter is planning a gathering of all Epsilon Phi members May 16 at the home of Miss Alice Ligo, faculty advisor.

Chapel Opens Parents Day

Activities Include Play, Luncheons And Games

Parents' day festivities open tomorrow morning with the chapel program in Wallace Memorial chapel at 10:45.

Dr. Will W. Orr will preside over the morning chapel program and be assisted by parents and students. The vesper choir will sing "By the Waters of Babylon" by James, and "The Lord is My Shepherd" by Clohey.

All parents are invited to a brief prayer service immediately following in the Little Theatre. Carol Paulie, president of Y.W.C.A., is in charge.

Luncheons in the dormitories are scheduled for 12:30. Sororities and fraternities will have their own dinners and luncheons for their parents.

Starting off the afternoon activities is the tennis match against W & J at 1:15. The baseball team will meet Slippery Rock at 1:30. At 2:00 the track team faces W & J.

A special performance of "Candida" will be presented in the Little Theatre at 2:30 and Mermaids will present their "Aquarama" at 2:00 in Old 77.

Parents and students are invited to Mack Manse, home of Dr. and Mrs. Orr at 4 p.m. for a reception. In case of inclement weather, the reception will be held in Ferguson hall lounge.

Tri-Beta will run the blood typing for parents from 1:30-5:00. Biological exhibits will be shown in the science hall, social studies exhibits in McGill library and the chemistry and physics departments will hold open house. Chaperoned students will be welcomed to visit the girls' dormitories from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Marriage Is Theme For Chapel Series

Next week a series of programs on the theme "Courtship and Marriage" will be offered to Westminster students. In addition to two different chapel programs each day, there will be private conferences held in the faculty lounge and special evening talks by members of the faculty and administration. The program for the week is as follows:

Monday—
10:45 "When is Love the Real Thing?" Dr. Jamison
1:00 "What is the Christian View of Sex." Dr. Jamison
2-5 Private conferences, Dr. Jamison

Tuesday—
10:45 "Intimacy, Morals and Manners" Mr. Edwards
1:00 "Courtship" Mr. Masterton
2-5 Private conferences, Mr. Edwards
7-8 "What Fellows Look for in Girls" Dr. Jamison-Ferguson

Wednesday—
10:45 "Who Will Be Boss?" Mr. Edwards
1:00 "Living as Cheaply as One" Mr. Masterton
2-5 Private conferences, Mrs. Whitehill
7-8 "What Girls Look for in Fellows" Mrs Whitehill-Browne hall

Thursday—
10:45 "Mixed Marriages" Dr. Adams
1:00 "How to Handle Disappointment" Dr. Jamison
2-5 Private conferences, Mr. Masterton
7-8 "Pre-marriage Clinic" Dr. Adams-Browne hall

Friday—
10:45 "Relative Privacy and Relatives" Dr. Jamison
1:00 "Spiritual Foundation for Marriage" Dr. Adams
2-5 Private conferences

Mrs. Catherine Wood Marshall Speaks at June Commencement

Catherine Wood Marshall, the wife of the late Peter Marshall, will be principal speaker at Westminster college's Commencement June 4, announces President Will W. Orr.

MRS. CATHERINE MARSHALL

Mrs. Marshall wrote A Man Called Peter, the biography of her husband, the former chaplain of the United States Senate. After becoming a best-seller, the story won acclaim as a motion picture and since has been reproduced as a play.

She has also written and edited a number of devotional books.

Catherine Marshall was born in Johnson City, Tenn. and attended Agnes Scott college. It was there she met the Rev. Peter Marshall, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church in Atlanta, Ga.

After their marriage in 1936 the Marshall's moved to Washington, D.C. where Mr. Marshall served as pastor of the New York avenue Presbyterian church. In 1947 he was appointed chaplain to the Senate and served in that job until his sudden death two years later.

Parents . . . We Welcome You

Westminster students would like to extend their greeting to all parents who are with us this weekend.

We have been planning for a long time to make this day, Parents' day, a day which you will remember.

It is always enjoyable to visit campus at any time to see what the students are doing. However, it is also nice to meet other parents and to see Westminster when it is groomed for just this occasion.

This visit will see each room spic and span. Not only have the students been cleaning their rooms and houses, but the campus buildings have received an extra polish.

These are the external features of Parents' day. Much other preparation has been going on to make this day a success. Committees have been at work planning the special Sing and Swing program. Students, too, have been practicing to make this competitive event the most enjoyable in history. Each organization also hopes that it will win the rewarding token in the way of the cup.

Special performance of the play and the Mermaid swimming show have been scheduled to give an idea of the various activities of the campus life.

The teams of baseball, track and tennis will show the athletic phase of Westminster. It is hoped that the Titans will be the ones on top.

This is for you, parents. We hope you will find it worthwhile.

Congratulations . . . For Achievement

Westminster has had an honor bestowed upon one of its students, Dan Migliore. Congratulations to Dan for winning third place in the men's division of the Interstate Oratorical contest held at Northwestern university.

Dan should also be congratulated for being awarded a scholarship from the Danforth foundation. This is to be used to continue his study for a Ph. D. degree here and abroad.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 76 Friday, May 4, 1956 No. 23

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR ..... Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR ..... Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

Parents' Day . . .

Means Spring Cleaning

By Myrtle Shaheen

. . . Hey roomie . . . guess what . . . I just got a letter from my mother . . she's coming up for Parents' Day . . . yea, tomorrow . . . with my Dad . . . oh no . . . this room . . . we'll have to clean it . . . mother's particular about things like this . . . better start from scratch . . . you do your side . . . I'll do mine . . . so what if your side's bigger . . .

. . . What should we do with all these shoes and slippers under our beds . . . the closet isn't big enough . . . well, maybe if we took that paper machette piano out . . . you know . . . the one we swiped from the Sigma Sigma house at Homecoming . . . that No Parking sign could go too . . .

. . . Better dig out those dresser scarfs your mother sent last fall . . . it's a good thing we never used them . . . I could just see us finding time to wash them now . . . hey, whose sorority paddle is that on the window sill . . . what do you mean you don't know . . . don't be so lazy . . . wipe the dust off and find out . . . while you're over there . . . take those room failure notices off the bulletin board, please . . . and where can we hide those bottles . . . mother musn't ever suspect. . .

. . . Do you think we should wash the windows . . . maybe we'd better . . . mom might want to see those unusual spring snow flurries I've been writing about . . . guess what I just found . . . that blue willow dish of your mother's . . . gee, there's still some frosting on it . . . just like cement . . . well, what'd ya expect . . . it's been here since November . . . guess you'd better wash it . . . so what if I ate the cake . . . it's your mother's plate. . .

. . . Do you remember who's turn it is to dust off the light . . . I know, but the ceiling doesn't count . . . remember . . . well, the rule book has lights on the inspection list . . . maybe if we just keep them looking out the window . . . our mothers, natch . . . they'll never notice. . .

. . . Just got a terrific brain storm . . . you'll go absolutely "gung ho" . . . we could happen to have those advanced badminton tests laying on our desks . . . our only A's in college . . . it would make a good impression . . . R-I-G-H-T . . . I'm sick of cleaning . . . I know we just started, but . . . our mothers are coming tomorrow . . . we shouldn't be too tired . . . we'll never enjoy their company . . . come to think of it . . . my mother's happiest when she's cleaning . . . so's yours . . . well . . . what are we waiting for . . . let's go to the TUB!

An Afternoon At the Desk, or . . .

I Am A Proctor

By Dot Kelsey

. . . Though everyone is a parctitioner in the field of communication, we are not all equally aware of the . . .

R R RINNNNNNNG . . .

"Hello; Hillside . . . No, I'm sorry; nobody by that name lives here. Maybe she lives at Ferguson. Oh, you tried there. Have you tried Jeffers? Oh. Browne? Oh. You're welcome. Goodbye.

. . . we are not all equally aware of the complexity of the process. Communication begins with contact between . . .

"No, I haven't seen your disecting kit. Where did you leave it? Oh. When? Well, maybe the janitor threw it out over Christmas vacation. Yes, I'll ask him."

. . . begins with contact between two parties, but contact does not necessarily result in . . .

What? Oh, hello."

. . . result in communication. There must be a transmission of . .

"Yes, you may see the paper. Here."

. . . a transmission of meanings before communication has taken. . .

R R RRRINNNG . . .

"Hello; Hillside. I'm afraid she has a class now. Will you call again, or shall I take a mesage? Yes, I'll leave a note. You say that if she doesn't come back in 10 minutes, have her call you at the Tub until 4:00; but if she does get back before, go to the library. However, if she has the book, call you at the Art Lab. You won't be there after 6:00. Yes, I think I have that. Thank you. Goodbye."

. . . before communication has taken place. This is achieved in a process involving alternate and reciprocal . . .

"No, the packages haven't come in yet. They come about 2:00."

. . . alternate and reciprocal stimulation and response among organisms. This is, we acquire the tools. . .

"No, I'm sorry; I don't have change for five dollars. No, I don't even have a quarter. No, I don't have any money at all."

. . . we acquire the tools of communication and the habits of their uses in a two-way process that involves the response. . .

"No, the mail hasn't come in yet."

. . . that involves the response of other people to our behavior . . .

"Sorry, I don't know what we're having for supper."

. . . behavior and our response to theirs . . .

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

After looking over the campus and noticing that the trees have not really come into full bloom, you can tell that spring has been a little late. In my view, the best measurement of spring is Brittain lake. Here it is the first week in May and no nature boy has gone for a swim. Usually by now the old swimming hole would be in full action.

* * *

Most colleges have quite a few veterans on their enrollment lists now. One college, Ventura college in California, has even adopted a G.I. lingo for campus ideas. So here goes.

Teacher's Lecture—Propaganda
Sleepy Student Trying for Back Row of Classroom—Maneuvers
Sleepy Student Hidden Behind Textbook—Camouflage
Ventura college—Fort Knowledge
Morning Rush for Excused Absences—Sick Call
Teacher—First Sergeant
Freshman—Recruits
Sophomores—Old Timers
Third and Fourth Year Students—Veterans
Graduate Students—Career men

* * *

Several months ago we were in the midst of the annual book drive sponsored by Pi Sigma Pi and led this year by Carol Galbreath. As a result of the hard work by Carol and her "grup" they have earned $402.67 to be used for the purchase of new library books. With this money, over a hundred books will be able to be added to the McGill library. Many thanks should be given to the contributors—faculty, alumni, students and campus organizations.

* * *

One teacher at another college said he could always tell a student's college class by the way he answers a question that he obviously doesn't know.

The Frosh says, "I don't know."
The Sophomore, "I am not prepared."
The Junior, "I do not remember."
and The Senior, "I don't believe I can add anything to what has already been said."

What class do you belong to when you are put on the spot?

* * *

I guess we all read in Sunday's paper about the great showing of Walter Mangham, the New Castle star athlete who high-jumped 6' 9-3/4" in a track meet last Saturday. He is also a top notch basketball player. Couldn't some of you fellows from Newc use a little persuasion?

* * *

If the chapel program for next week was using the same lecture titles as the ones mentioned in Tuesday's chapel, the attendance takers would be out of a job. Everyone would be there.

* * *

Starting Monday we can all get back in our usual pace. No more Sing and Swing practices, rooms to clean and sorority and fraternity houses to polish up. Seriously, the whole student body hopes that parents and friends will enjoy Parents' day. The pleasure has been all ours in entertaining you.

News Headlines . . .

Senator Barkley Dies

Barkley Dies at 78—Former Vice-President Alben W. Barkley collapsed and died of a heart attack while giving the keynote speech at the Mock Democratic convention being held at Washington and Lee university, Lexington, Virginia. The funeral was held in Washington on Wednesday with burial in Paducah, Ky., yesterday.

Death March Sergeant Held — Staff Sergeant Matthew C. McKoen is being held on a manslaughter charge by the Marine Corps as a result of his forced night march which resulted in the deaths of six marines. The tragedy has caused a revision of the rules concerning the powers of drill instructors. Marine Commandant General Pate said that the corps had been lax in supervising drill instructors and started the clean-up movement by transferring Paris Island Commander, Major General Burger.

D.C. Voters Favor Adlai — In the first official voting in the nation's capital in 82 years, Adlai Stevenson was leading Senator Estes Kefauver by a substantial margin with votes still to be counted after Tuesday's primary election.

House GOP Backs State Tax Stamp Plan — The plan to collect the three per cent state tax by the Ohio system of prepaid stamps is almost assured of becoming effective July 1. The house Republicans voted in caucus to block a Democratic proposed amendment that would eliminate the start of the costly stamp system.

Marciano Retires — World Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano has announced that he will retire immediately. In retiring without suffering a defeat in the square circle, Marciano becomes the fourth boxer in history to do so.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

The track team goes after their eleventh straight victory in duel meets against W & J tomorrow. Three team members remained undefeated. Jay DeBolt is unbeaten in both the low and high hurdles, Don Sheraw is unbeaten in the mile and John Walker has taken four straight firsts in the broad jump. Watch these three win Tri-State crowns at Meadville next week. Jay DeBolt is team high scorer with 44 1/2 points in four meets.

Norm Paxton, the losing pitcher in Westminster's 13-6 loss to Clarion, beat the same Clarion team 14-1 last year and held them to three hits while striking out nine. Clarion can consider themselves the luckiest team in Pennsylvania. They beat the Titans on a Westminster off day and received some great breaks. Clarion lost to Slippery Rock 11-1 and Allegheny 3-0. The Titans downed Slippery Rock 8-4. This must prove something!

Bill Knab, who has been hampered by a sore arm so far this season, seems fully recovered and will be a probable starter against W & J today. The Westminster baseball team received a shot in the arm from the pitching of Glenn Smith against Thiel. Pitching depth has been the team's big problem this year but with Knab and Smith to take up the slack they should be well off from now on.

"The Westminster Jacking society" will meet at College hall tonight to consider new and original jacks for Parents' Day. Bruce Whann will preside over the meeting. The jacking forces will have to be split three ways for Saturday. It certainly is inconsiderate of the school to schedule a tennis match with W & J, a track meet with W & J, and a baseball game with Slippery Rock at the same time. Please have some consideration for the hard working jackers.

The Holcad orchid of the week is being awarded to "Shoes" King for his great catch in center field for Block W against Sigma Phi Epsilon this past week. "Shoes" dove for the ball, caught it, rolled over and raised it high above his head without losing his glasses. (He almost broke his neck.) The Westminster jackers gave him a standing ovation.

The tennis team ran into mother nature last Saturday and lost. While defeating Slippery Rock 3-1 the match was rained out. The team had previously beaten the Rockets 5-4 and lost to Hiram 7-2 and Duquesne 8-1.

The Globies beat Block W 9-4 Tuesday night and remained in first place in the Blue league with a 4 and 0 record. It is the second time this season the Globies have beaten Block W. Sigma Phi Epsilon still leads in the White league and in the Interfraternity standings.

Good 'N Sweet . . .
Danish Pastry
- Date Filled
- Pineapple
- Walnut
- Cherry

WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

DeBolt Wins Again!

Jay DeBolt, junior business major from Bridgeville, is unbeaten in the high and low hurdles. He leads the team in scoring with 44-1/2 points.

Clarion Beats Blue And White Nine; Smith And Echnoz Whitewash Tomcats

By Bob Holmes

The Titan diamondmen clash with Slippery Rock tomorrow for the second time this season. The Blue and White squad beat the Rockets 8-4 at Slippery Rock. A Parents' Day crowd will be on hand to watch the Titans try for their sixth victory in seven starts. Last Tuesday, Westminster romped Thiel 14-0. Glenn Smith in his first start for coach Buzz Ridl's men pitched seven innings of shut out ball against the Tomcats and Ed Echnoz finished the whitewash job over the hapless opponents.

Six In First

The Blue and White started off in the first inning with six runs. Don Wix started the big frame with a walk. Steve Prokopchak, Tom Parks and George Strehler followed with consecutive singles which accounted for two runs and Kosko walked to load the sacks. Tom Duda hit a ball right back to the shortstop which was bobbled and the third run crossed. At this point Bill Duvall singled to right and the fourth and fifth runs sprinted across the plate.

Smith then singled to score Duda but Duvall was thrown out at the plate trying to add another. Westminster had another 6 run inning in the fifth which included 3 Thiel errors and 3 bases on balls, a double by Wix and a single by Smith helped knock the Titans across. Westminster also scored single runs in the fourth and seventh innings. Smith was also the big man with the stick for Westminster, getting four for five. He is now batting a cool .454. Piai was the starting pitcher for Thiel.

Titans Lose At Clarion

The Blue and White nine went down to their first defeat of the season last Saturday as they lost to Clarion State Teachers' college 13-6, at Clarion. Norm Paxton, bothered by wildness and tough breaks, was blasted for four runs in the first inning. The Titans counted for three in the last of the first and Paxton settled down to pitch a good three innings. But the cork fell out in the fifth and Clarion hopped on Paxton for five runs, added four in the sixth when Smith relieved, but the Titan cause was lost.

Duvall Beats Geneva

The Titans had won their fourth in a row against Geneva the previous day 7-1. Bob Duvall pitched a masterful 5-hitter for his fourth victory of the season.

He had a shut out until the ninth inning when the Covies scored their lone run. Steve Prokopchak sparked the Titan attack with three for five and three R. B. I's. Steve, the team captain, is hitting .333 for the season.

The Titans scored two runs in the third, a single in the fouth, three in the seventh and added a final tally in the eighth frame. Woodeshick, Covie basketball star, did the hurling for Geneva.

To Nibble With That Novel . . .
Check Our Candy Counter.
- DanDee Potatoe Chips and Pretzles
- Daily Delight Assorted Nuts
- Complete Line of Chocolates and Candies

Brown's Food Market

Berkshire Hose
for Mother's Day
$1.35 a pair
Fred Williamson's

Titans Win Eleven Firsts; Swamp Allegheny, 111 to 20

By Al Wheeler

Westminster's thinclad Titans came through with their fifth win in four outings when they clashed with Allegheny's cinder men last Saturday afternoon. The undefeated Titan track team copped eleven firsts, two first place ties, and ten seconds to make the final score read: Westminster 111, Allegheny 20.

Jay DeBolt was high man for the Blue and White with two first place markers, and one first place tie. DeBolt was followed in second place by Don Sheraw with one first place and another tie for first. DeBolt is becoming more and more the man to watch as he has gone undefeated in all his meets in both the low and high hurdle events.

Sheraw Wins Mile

In the Track Events, Don Sheraw started things off by winning the mile in a fast 4:39 second time. He was followed by Jerry Paul of Westminster in second place, with Galbo of Allegheny taking the third notch. The 440 was also taken by Westminster as Acy Jackson boomed around the track in 53.2 seconds for first place, with Bill Pote and Bill Moss, also from Westminster, taking second and third places respectively.

Jay DeBolt took his first win in the 120 ard high hurdles with a :15.9 second time. He was followed by Warren of Allegheny in second spot and Walt McRae holding down the third spot. DeBolt also won the low hurdles event, with Jack Mansfield and Warren in second and third places respectively.

Sweeps 100

Westminster copped all three places in the hundred yard dash. Joe Scungio ran the race in a 10.3 seconds time. He was followed by Tom McGrath in second place and John Walker in the number three sector.

Jim Osuna captured the 880 honors for the Titans by running the distance in 2:04.6. Allegheny's Honse took second place while Clark Kennell of Westminster took third honors. 220 honors went to Allegheny as Kimmelman from the opposition's ranks ran the race in 24.5 seconds. He was followed by Bill Pote of the Titans in second place with Fred Wagner of the same team holding down the third tally.

The long distance men finished in a dead heat in the two mile run. Holding a three way tie for Westminster in the two mile event were Jack Stewart, Don Sheraw and Jerry Paul. Time for this event was 10:50.5.

Field Events Taken

The field events showed a clean slate for Westminster. Westminster took every first possible in the field events and followed through by copping all the seconds. Stan Caldarelli won the shot put event for the Titans with his throw of 38 feet, 4 inches. Second place in this event was taken by Ken Wood, also of the Titans. Wood made up for his second place in the shot put event by taking a first in the discus throw with a toss of 120 feet, 2 inches. Harold Davis of the Titans took second place in this event, followed by Chuck Beshero, also from Westminster in the number three notch.

Westminster was caught in a three way tie for first place in the high jump event. Davis and DeBolt tied Carmen from Allegheny with their jump of 5 feet, 7 inches. Pole vault was taken by the Titan's Bill Seidner with a vault of eleven feet. Second place was taken by the Westminster team's John Shaffer.

Jim McCreedy threw his javelin 155.2 feet for a first place spot in the Javelin event. Fred Wagner of Westminster took second place followed by Stirling of Allegheny in the third rating.

Broad jump was a snap to win with John Walker's leap of 21 feet 8 1/2 inches. Harold Davis of the Titans came in second, while third place went to Yeager of Allegheny.

This was the fifth win in five outings for the Burryites. Right now, the undefeated men are geting in shape for the meet tomorrow with W & J, and the Tri-State meet on May 12.

A Complete Line of Shoe Laces and Shoe Polish
SEE—
DOC FUSCO
Bank Building

Flash CLEANERS
NOW OWNS AND OPERATES
The New Wilmington
LAUNDROMAT
CAMPUS SPECIAL
ONE WEEK ONLY — MAY 4-12
MEN'S TROUSERS
or
LADIES PLAIN SKIRTS
39¢ 39¢
ALL WORK GUARANTEED
- 1-Day Dry Cleaning Service
- 1-Hr. Laundry Service
- Free Moth Proofing

SOCIAL WHIRL

Busy Weekend In Store As Students Honor Parents At Annual Event

By Dianne Oursler

As could be expected, the coming of Parents' day is noticed by the last minute rush to put rooms in tip-top inspection order, taking special care in dusting desks and books to prove they are in constant use. The weeks of late and long rehearsals for Sing and Swing will be climaxed tomorrow night as any musical inhibitions are abandoned and enthusiastic talent is demonstrated. Win or lose, your folks will consider you the best!

ALPHA GAMMMA DELTA . . . Lois Reed is general chairman of the Parents' day buffet supper to be held at the house. Betsy Hutcheson is in charge of food and Margaret Black will handle the serving.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Martha Nail has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Calvin McCracken . . . Edward Towns is in charge of Parents' day activities this Saturday . . . Robert Campbell is chairman of the serenade to be held May 16 and William Meyer will direct the glee club . . . David Jaeger recently visited the chapter at Purdue university.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Constance Mohr visited Kent State college last weekend . . . Eleanor Walls, '52 and Marie Aboulian Barbour, '54 were on campus recently . . . Barbara Tyrrell is in charge of the annual ice cream social to be held this year on May 16.

CHI OMEGA . . . Jean Dieghan visited Lehigh university and Linda Kraft, Constance Bumpas and Velma Harl went to the chapter at Kent State college . . . Salle Hamilton is chairman of the Parents' day luncheon being held at the Tavern Saturday . . . Carol Roberts visited the chapter at Northwestern university.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Patricia Adams was on the Springfield college campus while Priscilla Hunter visited the chapter at Duke university . . . Vail Watson, Jean Wilson and Jane Williams went to Pennsylvania State university last weekend where they visited the Kappa Delta chapter.

QUADRANGLE . . . Eleanor Nye is in charge of Quadrangle publications.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Alfred Thomson was chosen "Outstanding Pledge" of this year's class . . . Allen Kohl, Gerald Schofield and Hugh Ferguson represented the chapter at the District convention at Marshall college last weekend . . . A Parents' day banquet will be held at the house on Saturday.

THETA UPSILON . . . Marilyn Elkins is in charge of the Spring dinner dance on May 11 at the Mercer Moose. Corsages for the dance are optional. Sandra McCartney is chairman of the picnic to be held the following day at North Park . . . Carol Downey visited Lehigh university the past weekend.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

Fri. and Sat.
Walt Disney's
"AFRICAN LION"

Mon. and Tues.
"SUMMERTIME"
Katherine Hepburn — Rossano Brazzi

Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
"FOREVER DARLING"
Lucille Ball — Desi Arnez

COMING:—
"Benny Goodman Story"

Snacktime Is Anytime At
the GRILLE
It's the Greatest Place to go.

Walker's Have It
Mother's Day—
Now One Week Away
- Mirroware — Quality Utinsels in Aluminum and Stainless
- Rubbermaid — Best in Rubberware ofr the Home
- Kitchenware

At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

Campus Calendar

Friday, May 4
Baseball, Washington and Jefferson, here
Golf, Washington and Jefferson, away
C.Y.F. All-college social
8:15 Play, Candida
Saturday, May 5
Parents' Day
2:30 Mermaids
2:30 Play, Candida
Baseball, Slippery Rock, here
Tennis, W&J, here
Track, W&J, here
8:15 Sing and Swing
Sunday, May 6
7:45 Vespers, Mr. Mark Landfried
Monday, May 7
Chapel, Marriage clinic
Tuesday, May 8
Chapel, Marriage clinic
Golf, Grove City, away
Tennis, Hiram, away
8 Kappa Mu Epsilon
8:15 Student recital; Constance Mohr, Marguerite Mershimer
Wednesday, May 9
Chapel, Marriage clinic
Track, Grove City, here
5:45 Phi Alpha Theta banquet
Kappa Delta Pi meeting
7 Y.W.C.A.
10 Sigma Nu serenade
Theses due
Thursday, May 10
Chapel, Marriage clinic
Tennis, Carnegie Tech, away
3:30 F.T.A. meeting
7 I.R.C.
7 Scroll meeting
Honors convocation
10 Sigma Phi Epsilon serenade

AAUW Presents Music Workshop

The Conservatory of Music in conjunction with the New Wilmington branch of the American Association of University Women will present a Music Workshop May 9 and 10 in Ferguson hall lounge at 8:30 p.m.

The program will consist of a contemporary light opera in one act, Sunday Excursion, by Alec Wilder. The other half of the program wil consist of a group of Madrigal Singers.

The program is under the direction of Mr. Clarence Martin, and will feature the following: Mr. John Huyck, Mr. Martin, Lorraine Adams, John Bell, Romaine Gardner, Fred Horst, Margaret Ihnat Edward Kirk, William Meyer, Ruth Nichol, Eleanor Nye, David Sutton, Helen Tombor, Alta Vogan and John Walker.

Proceeds will go to the A.A.U.W. Fellowship program that makes awards to outstanding women scholars, both in the United States and abroad, who are trying to study in this country.

Tickets may be purchased at the door for 50 cents.

News Brief

Margaret Black, Betty Jean Casber, Sheila Evans and Nancy McGavern were pledged to Mu Phi Epsilon, music honorary, Wednesday, April 25.

Beta Beta Beta Gives Blood Typing Results

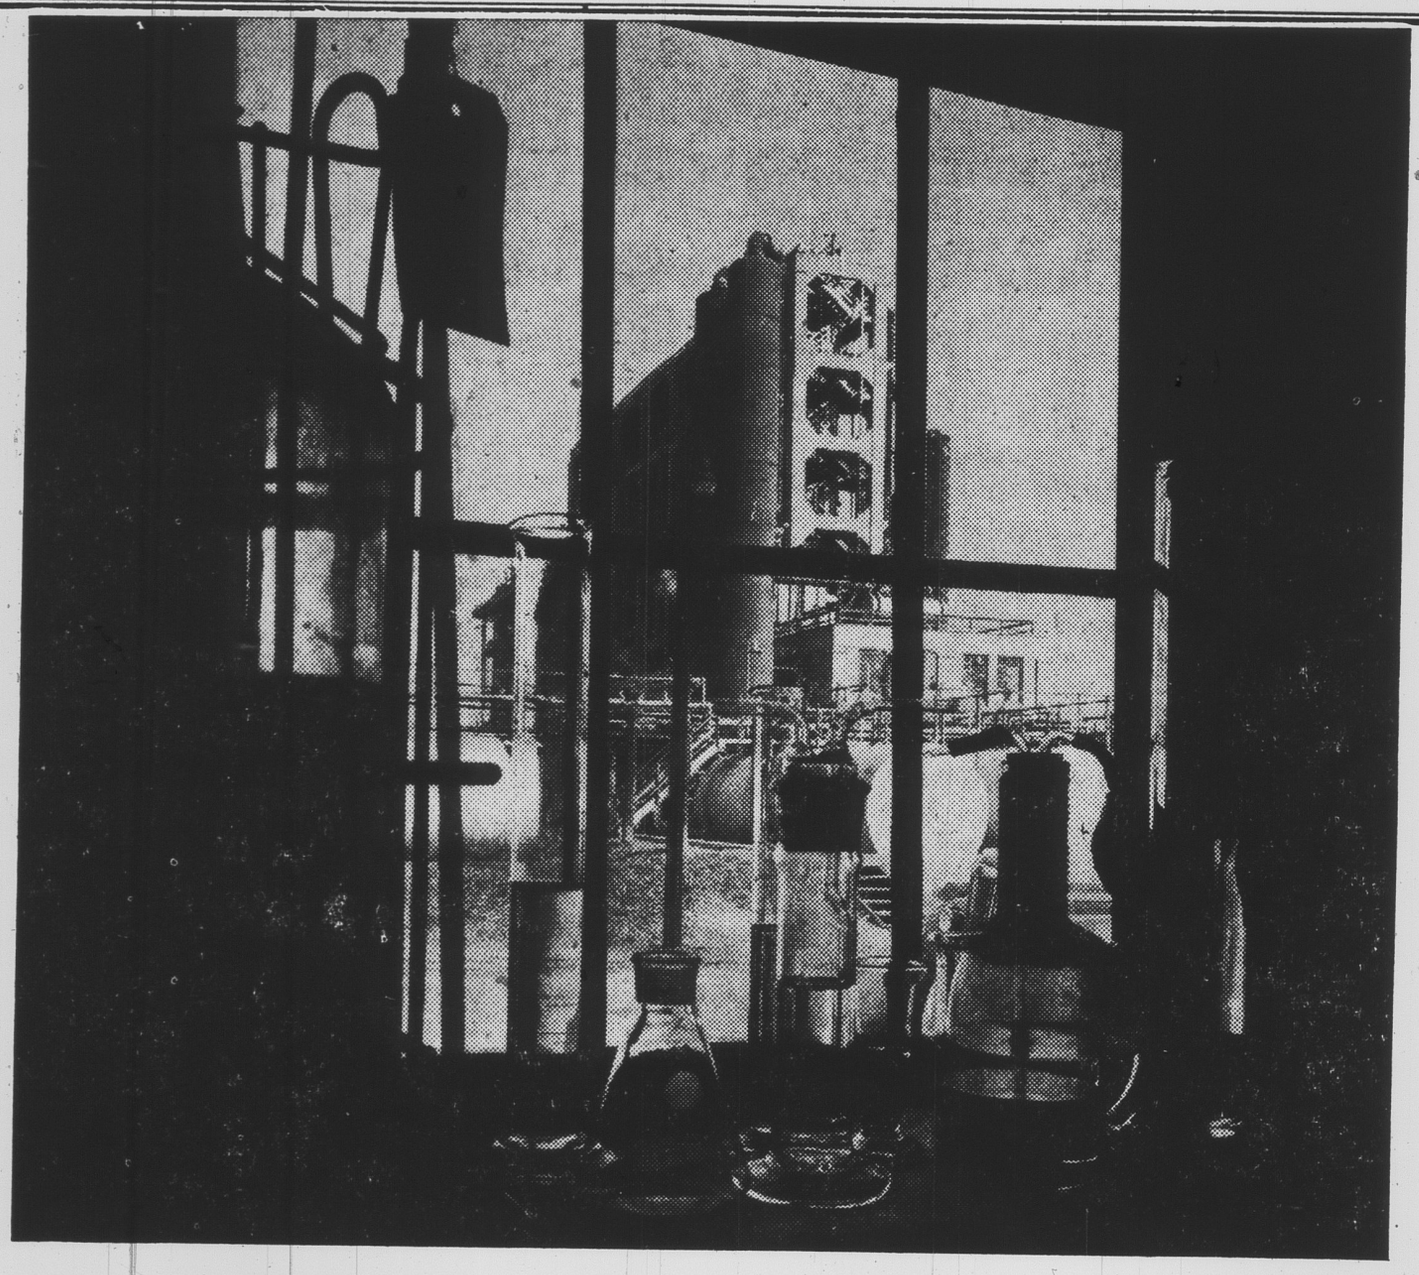

Beta Beta Beta, biology honorary, recently completed its program of blood typing, offered as a service to Westminster students. A total of 215 people took advantage of this opportunity. A record will be kept for each individual in order that he or she may receive blood or donate if an emergency should arise.

Lynn Daugherty, president of Beta Beta Beta, announces that the results of the survey reflect those on a nation-wide scale. Type O was found to be the most common, type AB being most rare. Approximately 15 per cent of our students have a negative Rh factor.

In four years of blood typing, only one case of AB blood has been discovered among our number. A rather unusual condition was observed in that a fair percentage of those typed showed a tendency toward anemia.

A special session of blood typing will be held on Saturday, May 5, from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Any parents of students or students who wish to take advantage of this service may do so in room 304 of the old science hall.

Typing will be done by members of the honorary trained last year at Jameson hospital, New Castle, and by students whom they in turn instructed. Constant supervision is maintained.

YOUR FUTURE—Chemistry and Koppers?

IN an age when most frontiers are shrinking, there is one that is constantly growing—the frontier of the chemist.

This frontier has been pushed slowly back ever since the days of the pioneer 18th and 19th Century chemists. Their theories, proved in laboratories, were made useful by the mechanical genius of engineers such as Heinrich Koppers, designer of the modern chemical recovery coke oven. These early scientists laid the foundation for the diversified chemical industry that has grown so rapidly in the 20th Century.

And what are the results? An industry that has helped mankind by developing entirely new and better products for more pleasant living; an industry that has extended the life of man by developing new or improved medicines; an industry that has extended the life of many materials, conserving our natural resources.

Your future? It's going to be touched by chemistry to an extent never dreamed of by earlier college classes. That's why a future in the chemical industry can be such a rewarding one for those who are not afraid of the challenge of responsibility, the new and the difficult.

In addition to chemicals and plastics, Koppers produces tar products, metal products, pressure-treated wood. It designs and builds coke, steel and chemical plants.

If you would like to know more about a future in chemistry or engineering with Koppers, contact your College Placement Director. Or write Industrial Relations Manager, Koppers Company, Inc., Koppers Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pennsylvania.

SEND FOR free 24-page brochure entitled "Your Career at Koppers." Just address your letter to Industrial Relations Manager, Koppers Company, Inc., Koppers Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa.

Consider a Career with Koppers

KOPPERS
KOPPERS
CHEMICALS & ENGINEERING

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 76 No. 24 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, May 11, 1956

Student Council Chooses Heads For Committees

Commitee chairman for the Student Council activities next year have been announced by Council president, Craig Cashdollar.

Chapel committee members will be Craig Cashdollar, Eugene Degitz, Jean Aungst, Richard Cain, Lynne Caddick and Virginia Dickson.

Mary Lou Mansell will be in charge of all-college Who's Who and Louis Toporcer assisted by Richard Cain is in charge of Hell Week.

Homecoming chairman will be David Marsico, assisted by Jack Mansfield. Betty Wagner is in charge of decorations; Phyllis Holmes, publicity ;Jacque Adams, queen and Jean Aungst, Sunday Vesper program.

Dale Garver will head the migration day activities and Carol Paulie will handle the Who's Who in American Colleges.

In charge of fund raising for World University service will be Robert Leach.

Student Council Offieers

Pictured above are the new officers of Student Council. They are, front row, left to right, Virginia Dickson, secretary and Craig Cashdollar, president. Back row, David Marsico, treasurer and Eugene Degitz, vice president.

Orr Gives Council Picnic At Manse

The annual picnic for Student Council members was given Tuesday evening by President and Mrs. Orr at Mack Manse followed immediately by the regular Tuesday night council meeting.

Virginia Dickson gave her report on Sing and Swing. Dr. Orr then offered the administration's aid in future years concerning the parking situation, ventilation of the field house and an increased seating capacity. Suggestions were made to be passed on to next year's Sing and Swing committee by members of Council and their advisers.

Craig Cashdollar then gave his interpretation of some Council rules and his opinion of the student government's power on campus, which propagated a discussion on the subject.

Diane Levy will serve as president of Senate next year. She was elected by the women on campus in April.

Two juniors recently elected to the student conduct committee by the members of this year's Senate members are Diane Oursler and Dorothy Wallace.

Beta Beta Beta Elects Altman President

Robert Altman was elected president of Tri-Beta at the meeting held this week. Altman replaces Lynn Daugherty.

Elected vice-president was Betty Jane Walker. Other officers are Roberta DeMott, secretary and Marlene Wasser, historian.

An active initiation was also held at this meeting. Those activated were Shirley Frazee, Daniel Leasure, Elizabeth McLaughlin and Ann Price.

Freshman Speech Semi-Finals Soon

Semi-final judging for the freshman speech contest will be held Tuesday, May 15 at 4:15 in rooms 108 and 109.

Mr. Melvin Moorhouse is directing the contest among all sections of the speech 114 classes. The winners of the semi-finals will be heard in chapel May 18, when a final winner will be chosen.

New Permissions

All women attending sorority Spring formals will have 1:30 permissions instead of 1:00 permissions as was first announced. This correction of the previously stated time comes through the Dean of Women's office.

Frederick Horst Wins Book Contest

Frederick Horst, Bible major from New Castle, has been named as winner of the senior library contest held April 27 in McGill library. He will receive $25 worth of books as first prize winner.

Second prize, $20 worth of books, went to Mrs. Marion M. Wolk, English major from Aliquippa. Third prize winner was Raymond Spharr, biology major from Charleroi, who received $15 worth of books.

Contest judge was Miss Harriet Laubach, reference librarian at the University of Pittsburgh.

Eight seniors submitted books to the contest.

The first rule of the contest is that the books submitted must belong to the contestant. The number of books is not necessarily the determining factor in choosing a winner. The libraries are also judged on the basis of the type of books, the owner's knowledge of the contents of the books and the general quality of the collection.

Campbell Attends Chicago Meeting

Miss Beulah Campbell, assistant professor of education, is attending the first annual meeting of the International Reading association at the Morrison hotel in Chicago today and tomorrow, May 11 and 12.

The theme of the program is "Better Readers for Our Times."

Outstanding educators and specialists in reading from all over the country are lecturing and discussing the important problem of teaching reading.

A few of the many educators attending this conference are Arthur I. Gates of Columbia university, William S. Gray of the University of Chicago, Gertrude Hildreth of Brooklyn college and Eleanor Johnson of Wesleyan university, who is editor-in-chief of the Weekly Reader.

Several others are Margaret McKim of the University of Cincinnati, Malabee Smith of New York university and Ruth Strang of Teachers' college, Columbia university.

Elementary Majors Secure Positions

"The 30 majors in elementary education have either made definite commitments for teaching positions during the next school year or have applications pending where it is quite certain they will be elected," reports Dr. L. H. Wagenhorst, chairman of the psychology and education department.

Group Elects Officers Tuesday

Election of officers for the coming year will be held at the regular meeting of the Christian Service group Tuesday, May 15, at 7 p.m. in the college chapel.

The final vote will also be taken on the proposed constitution. Every member of the Christian Service group is requested to be present.

Bair Produces One Act Comedy

Thomas Bair, senior speech major from New Wilmington, will present a one-act comedy, "The Woman Who Understood Men," Monday, May 14, which he directed as a seminar project. It is a "4:20 Theater" production to be held in the Little Theatre.

Included in the cast are Margaret DePaulis, a freshman from McKeesport; Kay Ames, a freshman from Dunkirk, N. Y.; Sue Behrenberg from Wilkensburg, also a freshman; Henry Aurandt, a sophomore from Edinburg and John Blamphin, a freshman from Kansas City, Mo.

Admisison is free and everyone is invited to attend.

Orr Announces College Gets History And Math Instructors

Two new instructors will begin teaching next fall filling in vacancies in the history and mathematics departments. James A. Duran, Jr. has been hired as instructor in the department of history, political science and sociology. Mr. James L. Smith will be instructor of mathematics and has also been appointed by President Orr as the new director of Russell hall dormitory for the next academic year.

Mr. Duran is a Phi Beta Kappa, member of Phi Alpha Theta, was a Fellow in history at the University of Illinois from 1950-51 and held a Travelling fellowship in history from 1955-56. In August, Mr. Duran expects to receive a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois. While at the university, he specialized in teaching Soviet history. He holds a B.S. degree from the University of Oregon.

Mr. Smith is a graduate of Taylor Allderdice high school in Pittsburgh. He was graduated from the University of Louisville receiving an A. B. degree with honors. He has a master of science degree in mathematics from the University of Pittsburgh, and has done considerable work towards his Ph. D. at that university.

From 1945-47 Mr. Duran served with the U. S. Army. He first served in Europe with the Combat Engineers and was later assigned to the Eurasian office of Assistant Chief of Staff in Washington, D. C., as an intelligence research analyst.

Mr. Smith entered the U. S. Marine Corps as a second lieutenant in 1951. After serving in Labrador, Puerto Rico and Korea, he was discharged in 1954 with the rank of Captain in the Marine Corps reserves. He is a member of the 6th 90mm Gun Battery reserve unit in New Castle.

Mrs. Duran is the former Elizabeth Chidester. She holds a B. A. degree from College of the Pacific, an M. A. degree from Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy and expects to have a Ph. D. in history in June of this year.

Mrs. Smith is the former Anne E. Wilson of El Paso, Tex. The Smiths were married in 1954 and have a one-year old daughter, Catherine Sue. They are members of the Third United Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh, where they direct the youth choir and work in the Sunday school. Mr. Smith was recently elected to that church's board of deacons.

Mr. Smith is also a member of the Mathematical Association of America.

Parents Vote To Organize League

Dr. Will W. Orr announced that on Parents' Day, parents voted unanimously to organize a Parents' league.

Seven directors were named as follows: Mrs. Jesse B. Bechtel, mother of Susan E. Bechtel, freshman from Drexel Hill; Mr. R. J. Studley, father of Judith Ann Studley, freshman from Bradford; Mrs. Frank W. Keeley, mother of Sandra Keeley, junior from Pitcairn; Mr. Robert A. McConnell, father of Janet McConnell, sophomore from Pittsburgh; Mr. Frank Finlay, father of Roger Finlay, junior from Pittsburgh; Mrs. Howard Guy, mother of Joyce Guy, freshman from Hudson, Ohio and Mrs. Alton Adams, mother of Lorraine Adams, senior from Watertown, N. Y.

The directors were requested to study, plan and report to Westminster parents on Parents' Day, May 4, 1957. They met following the general meeting and decided that each should study other college programs of a like nature. They will attend a fall planning meeting on Westminster's campus and a report will be mailed to all parents of Westminster students.

Adams Schedules Music Recitals

Fulbright scholarship winner, Lorraine Adams, has scheduled two organ recitals before Commencement.

The first, sponsored by the Youngstown chapter of the American Guild of Organists, will be given Sunday, May 13, at 4 p.m. The recital will be in Trinity Methodist church in Youngstown.

Sunday, May 20, at 3 p.m., Miss Adams will play in Northside Carnegie hall, Pittsburgh. In this recital she will be the guest soloist and will be assisted by a vocalist. Both recitals are open to the public.

Miss Adams, a senior organ major, will graduate in June with a Bachelor of Music degree. After her senior recital here on March 22, she presented a recital in her home town, Watertown, N. Y. on March 27.

Bovard Presents Speech Recital

"Child's play" is a term which can be applied literally to a recital being given next week by speech major William Bovard of New Castle.

He is presenting five children's radio plays which will be broadcast over WFAR Farrell, commencing Wednesday, May 16 through Tuesday, May 22. The series is entitled "The Uncle Bo Bo—Bloop" shows. The plays are gauged for the seven to ten year olds.

Uncle Bo Bo is played by Bovard. He also plays Bloop but with a different voice.

Bloop is a hypothetical dragon who was supposed to have been discovered by Uncle Bo Bo in the mountains of Tibet. Bloop is seven years old and weighs two hundred and fifty pounds.

Bovard has used a "Gimick" to see what the response will be for his shows. He has asked the children to send in for personal autographs of Uncle Bo Bo and Bloop.

The five fifteen-minute shows will be broadcast on five program days beginning next Wednesday. The shows, in order of their appearance, are: Jack and the Beanstalk, The Billy Goat and the King, Hansel and Gretel, The Long Bow Story and Rapunzel.

The cast for the shows include Jack Leoffler, George Killa and Julia Holstien. Killa will also be standard announcer for the five shows.

Keeps Word Understanding

Dr. J. H. Turner

Do you know what a phenome is? If you do not, or if you are naturally curious about language, or if you are preparing to do something which is especially concerned with language, either English or some other, perhaps you should think about enrolling in Linguistics 351.

LINGUISTICS is a new heading on page 97 of the catalog to cover a new kind of course This course, introduction to Linguistic science, will be different because it will not try to improve your use of English or teach you another language, but will try to help you understand just how language works. It will introduce you to one of the newest social sciences, descriptive or structural, linguistics.

Descriptive linguistics in its present form stems from a book published in 1933, but it has developed so rapidly that it was described five years ago by John B. Carroll, a Harvard psychologist, in a special report for the Carnegie corporation, as the most advanced of the social sciences and the social science whose status is closest to that of the natural sciences like physics and chemistry.

Mr. Carroll expressed the further opinion that linguistic science was as fundamental to the social and psychological sciences as molecular physics to the natural sciences. As a result of such recommendations the Carnegie corporation has made generous grants for the study of linguistics, one of which enabled me to spend the summer of 1953 at the University of Michigan.

The study of linguistics has also been actively supported by the United States government, especially the State department and the armed forces, by missionary organizations and by private firms who are interested in their personnel having the type of knowledge such a course will help one get.

Successful Marriage The Goal . . .

This week's chapels have been devoted to the problems of courtship and marriage.

Because of the variety of speakers, the programs were able to cover a wider field. Also, in this way we were able to obtain more than one opinion on many subjects.

Although some of the programs were not as serious as others, there was a definite point to be made by each speaker and each phase which was covered. Marriage is not a joke or should by no means be treated lightly. However, the lighter treatment sometimes makes us realize just how serious this part of life is.

Perhaps there were some things which you felt you already knew and thought that repetition was a waste of time. However, some things cannot be said enough. We might not realize that some of the little phases of courtship and marriage mean as much as they really do and through ignorance overlook them.

The chapels were presented with a serious and constructive purpose in mind. It was a topic which concerned everyone and the problems which were discussed were those which everyone at one time or another are bound to face. Those who attended the sessions seemed to realize this and received the talks intelligently and even discussed the topics with others.

Interest was on a decidedly high level because many students attended more than their share of the chapels. This has been a successful program. Perhaps it could be continued in the future by taking other problems of courtship and marriage which students could request.

Follow the Cindermen

Tomorrow the Westminster track team goes to Allegheny college for the Tri-State meet. The team thus far has done a superior job in taking high honors.

However, this is the big one! Our Titan cindermen are ready for the big event. They have done their part by staying on top. It is now time we showed them what we think of them.

Let's follow them to Allegheny and cheer them on in the style they deserve.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 76 Friday, May 11, 1956 No. 24

EDITOR — Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR — Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR — Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR — Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS — Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR — Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR — Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER — Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER — David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR — Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Oh, heck no—My mattress sags."

Music . . .

Many Different Tastes

By Dean English

In most homes the radio has been getting a long rest since television has drastically reduced its importance. But here at Westminster the reverse is true.

The average student doesn't watch TV much. Perhaps he sees a couple shows a week at the fraternity or sorority house, but there just isn't time . . . or the desire . . . to watch more.

Music on the radio, on the other hand, can be listened to while studying, reading or just living in your room. But most radio stations in this area aren't thinking about us or any other group of intelligent adults when they plan their musical programs.

If you listen to much radio you begin to wonder if the average listener isn't a 15-year-old with pegged pants and a duck tail haircut. The rock and roll craze has flooded the airwaves. It has overtaken the hit parade, juke boxes and every other mass music media.

But do you really believe "The Great Pretender" is the most popular piece of music in the entire United States in any given week? Is that what most Americans would actually consider their current favorite? Do adults really enjoy this music?

I certainly don't think so. And if not, why do we allow rock and roll to dominate radio music as it does? Certainly there are more people 20 and older than there are teen-agers. Yet this minority is dictating to the adults as far as radio music is concerned.

Rock and roll probably has its place. It can even be grudingly conceded that it isn't corrupting the morals and ruining the teen-agers of the country.

Parents were probably just as horrified a generation ago when youngsters were excited by the swing of the Goodmans and the Dorseys. We undoubtedly will survive. But meanwhile, what happens to the people whose wide range of tolerances just doesn't include the Crew Cuts or Bill Haley?

Unless your radio is getting different stations than mine you're finding it rather hard to find good music. If you like the classics you'd better be home for the Saturday and Sunday broadcasts from New York City because that's about all you'll get in this area.

Perhaps you have other tastes. Lovers of good jazz can find a couple of satisfying, but inconvenient, hours a week if they twirl the dial enough. Maybe you'd just like to hear some Broadway show tunes. Or even some "popular' 'music where you could decipher the words without buying the sheet music. Unfortunately your best bet is to buy a phonograph and a couple hundred records.

Rock and roll has its place in music just as Red Foley has his. Rodgers and Hammerstein, Mozart and Dave Brubeck have theirs. But at the present time it's dominating the air waves.

Isn't it time the radio gave appropriate time to the people who would rather hear Shirley Jones sing "If I Loved You" than Carl Perkins lamenting the mistreatment of a pair of blue suede shoes?

Summertime . . .

Everyone Scatters

By Barbie Farrow

"Summertime and the feeling is so easy," oops, wrong song. "The weather outside is frightful and the fire is so delightful, . . . Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow." Oops that's better. More like our weather.

Looking at the calendar shows us that summer is just around the corner after we cross the rocky old path of book reports and finals. Here, the frost is on the ground and yet my main worry is "Where am I going to work this summer." I guess many have thought about that problem already. Within a few weeks the Westminster family will be scattered to the far corners of the globe—working at various resorts and at home, traveling abroad or riding in convertibles to sorority and fraternity conventions. Well, if you are like me, you will become a part-time businessman or woman as the case may be.

What extreme honors does this classification give you? Well, you are entitled to rise early in the morning, gulp a breakfast as you fly down the street to the bus stop, get stuck in the eye with your neighbor's paper (we're too poor to buy one so we read his between stabs in the eye), arrive at work with a mob of people, punch a timeclock which never coincides with our watch, do piles of paper work, grab a hasty lunch, do piles of paper work, punch the stupid time clock which says 5 o'clock and our watch says 5:15, catch the bus, get stuck in the eye with the evening paper (still too poor to buy one for self defense), arrive home, eat supper and collapse in bed.

Why do we do this? Well, every week or every other week, they bring around little envelopes and all the troubles and dislikes are dispelled as the monetary dividend filters through our grubby little paws.

Twelve weeks of this and we are very glad to get back to school.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

"Fore" . . . duck your head and hit the ground. The Phipie after lunch golf team is teeing off on the quadrangle. Coming out of lunch at Fergie the other day, you would have sworn that you were in the middle of the Pebble Beach Golf course with the way those Ben Hogans and Slammin' Sammy Sneads were teeing off. When the ground crew gets around and has to replace those divots they are likely to be teed off too.

* * *

The New Wilmington theatre lost the chance to capitalize on the subject discused in this week's chapel series. They should have gotten the new movie "The Birds and the Bees" with "Lonesome George" Gobel.

* * *

I think everybody got a big kick out of Lady Margaret D'Arcy when she spoke in chapel last Friday. She also spoke last week at Chatham college in Pittsburgh as part of her American tour. She has worked as a journalist in South America, the East and West Indies, North and West Africa and nearly every country in Europe—even Russia. During the Second World War, she served as a Senior Commandant in the Motor Transport corps, and later worked with the British Broadcasting corporation. She is particularly interested in talking to young people since she has several children. She has written several novels and a book entitled A Book of Modern Prayers.

* * *

Well, What To Do With Your Parents Weekend (thanks Newc) is over and the old campus is back to normal—rain and clouds. Saturday afternoon was a big success as we whipped Slippery Rock in baseball and walked all over W & J in track. Saturday night, Sing and Swing was tops. Every organization can be proud of the way they performed, and many thanks should be given to the guys and gals who directed. The only complaint from the parents was, "Why didn't they pad the seats with foam rubber." If the large attendance continues, it will probably be necessary to open both bleachers for the guests.

* * *

With finals coming up, here is a little humor about exams. It was compiled by a student at Rensselaer Polytechnical institute and this is the reason that he is flunking his subjects. Upon campus, there is a select group of faculty who have banded together into a Flunk Students club. These are the by-laws of this fraternity.

1—Test questions on material in the main part of the text or given in lecture are too easy. Use items from footnotes, references and from books listed in the bibliography for all your quizzes.

2—Give tests either twice a term or twice a week. Announcing quizzes ahead of time is utter foolishness. You'll never flunk them that way.

3—Allot the students about half the time it would take you to do the test. Put the hardest question first and remember it's the answer that counts. Take off one and a half credits for numerical mistakes.

4—Unless you have a class of all "A" students (somebody has to flunk) never use a curve for marking. It's a sign of weakness.

5—Last, but definitely not least, remember our sacred motto: "They're here to work."

News Headlines . . .

U.S. Ahead In Air

Wilson Denies Air Power Lag — Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson struck out at critics whom he called "fear mongers" and denied that Russia is "far outstripping the United States in terms of air power," as he appeared before a Senate Appropriations subcommittee. He also announced that the Pentagon has ordered an increase in production schedules for the B-52 intercontinental jet bomber.

Big Steel Tax Cut Under Fire — The Allegheny County Tax board has received protests as a result of its assessment slash of $6,800,000 on machinery at the U.S. Steel's Homestead works. The Homestead Borough and School district will have to raise taxes 30% on small property owners to raise the $200,000 tax income that this tax cut removes.

CAB Investigation of Easter Crash Suspended — The Civil Aeronautics board investigation of the Easter evening plane crash at the Greater Pittsburgh airport which killed 22 persons was suspended until the pilot and co-pilot are able to leave their hospital beds to testify.

New Outbreaks in Middle East — The Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett informed United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold that there had been renewed outbreaks of violence along the Egyptian and Jordan borders.

New Navy Rocket Fired 117 Miles Into the Sky — The Navy announced that a new research rocket reached 117 miles at the White Sands Proving Grounds in New Mexico. Even though it did not reach the hoped for height of 185 miles, the scientists feel that it is a good step in the process towards developing the earth satellites.

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

With the Tri-State track meet coming up on Saturday, it is time to get out the listings and figure the team that will win. The big question is whether or not the Westminster Titans can repeat their win of last season at the Saturday session. Coach Harold Burry's men are plagued by injuries. The Blue and White's big record setters from last year, Walker and Jackson, are both dubious starters this year.

Another factor that could keep the Titans from winning this year is the power of Grove City and Carnegie Tech. Although the undefeated Westminster cindermen have taken both opponents this year, it is still doubtful that the Burrymen can accumulate the necessary number of points against the two combined forces to win the meet.

Baseball Drops

Baseball has taken another bad turn as Westminster dropped another game when they played W & J on our own field. Pitching has taken a turn for the better as Bill Knab has returned to the lineup with a new starter Glenn "Snuffy" Smith, t,o round out the pitchers' roster. Now, however, the hitting has slacked off. What has happened to the infield that was billed by experts as the best hitting infield in the state of Pennsylvania? Perhaps they have a psychosis against hitting the ball against other small colleges or were holding back for Parents' day.

Speaking of baseball, it wouldn't be a bad idea to look over the intramural softball rosters and pick an all star team from the motley ranks of the various fraternity and other groups that participate. Ferguson from the the White league, and Mettica from the Blue league would be my choices for pitchers, with a whole host to choose from for the other positions. It wouldn't be a bad idea to figure out such a list. Perhaps it could be arranged so that a game between all-star teams could be held towards the end of the season.

Bicycle Race

A third sport to be considered this week is the annual bicycle race held between the various organizations on campus. We pick Bernie Taylor as the probable winner of the five mile stretch because of his terrific conditioning and the fact that he has the only bicycle on campus. Losers in the event will be used as bait for the fishing teams whose first meet is coming up on May 22.

JEWELRY
OF THE FINEST QUALITY
J. R. Meek, Jeweler
We also repair

Perfect for Picnics
Oven Fresh Cup Cakes
- White
- Chocolate
- Fruit

WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Evening Wear Rental
White Dinner Outfit complete $9.50
Jacket only $6.50
Cummberbunds $1.00
New Wilmington Cleaners
Fred Wagner Campus Rep.

. . . We all Scream for Ice Cream!
- Pints, Quarts, Half Gallons
- Dixie Cups
- Ice Cream Sandwiches

ALSO—A Complete Selection of Toppings.
SEALTEST — That Is.
Brown's Food Market

Trackmen Tune Up For Tri-State Meet

Duvall Beats Slippery Rock For Fifth Win

By Bob Holmes

The Blue and White nine, led by the steady pitching of Bob Duvall, won the Parents' day game against Slippery Rock 7 to 3. It was the fifth win of the season for Duvall who has yet to lose.

Bob has allowed three earned runs in thirty-seven and one-half innings. Five errors and some erratic playing on the part of the Rockets paved the way for the Titan victory. With Slippery Rock leading in the last of the third inning, the Titans tied the score on a triple by Bill Duvall and a single by George Strehler.

Rocket Errors Help

The Rockets quickly fought their way back into the lead with two runs in the fourth but the Blue and White again tied on two walks and a pair of costly Rocket errors in their half of the fourth. After scoring a single run in the fifth on a triple by Strehler over the center fielder's head and a fielder's choice by Glenn Smith, the Titans sewed up the victory in the sixth. The Titans broke through for three runs on only one hit to assure the win. A single by Steve Prokopchak was the inning's only hit. A pair of errors and three walks gave the game to Westminster.

Titans Lose Second

The Titans were not so lucky on Friday, however, as they were beaten by Washington and Jefferson, 3 to 1. Bill Knab, in his first appearance of the season, pitched excellent ball and failed to allow an earned run but still went down to defeat as the Titan defense fell apart at times. Knab certainly deserved a better fate than he received in the best pitched game of the season thus far. He and John King of W & J both pitched scoreless ball for the first seven innings.

W & J broke the scoring ice with a two run splurge in the top of the eighth. A Westminster error, a single by Ron Pellegrini and a two-run-producing double by Bob Stacey pushed across the two tallies. The Titans came within one run in their half of the same inning when Steve Kosko was safe on an error by the W & J third baseman. Steve went to second on a single by Smith, advanced to third when James sacrificed and scored when Bill Duvall grounded out to the infield. W & J scored an insurance run in the ninth on a three base error by Prokopchak and a sacrifice fly.

Smith Leads Batters

Westminster has now won six and dropped two of eight ball games. Glenn Smith and George Strehler are the team leaders in batting with .428 and .421 respectively. The game with Alliance college scheduled for Wednesday was postponed because of rain.

Captain

Steve Prokopchak, senior business major, is the retiring captain of the Titan baseball squad.

Blue And White Net Men Lose Two

The Titan tennis team is definitely off to a bad season. This was pointed up as the raquet squad dropped two more during the last few days. They lost to Hiram 8-1 and to W & J, 6-3. Marsico and Pierson, the first and second men on the team for Westminster, dropped all four of their sets in the two meets.

In the doubles matches it was only the same tale over again. Here, only three of the matches were carried out to three sets. A realigning of partners after the W & J meet did not seem to do any good.

Against Hiram, the Blue and Whites managed to win one set of doubles. Pierson and Garver were the winners of that set and repeated their feat against Hiram.

Season's results for the netmen show one win and five losses. They have tied none and have let their percentage drop to a low .167.

Titan Linksmen Win Season's First

By Steve Prokopchak

After a slow start, the Titan linksmen finally came through with a hard earned victory over the wind-swept Greenville Country club by defeating the Thiel Tomcats by the score of 13-5.

The match was played over a very slow course. Although the weather was bad, some excellent scores were turned in. Bob Davis finished as medalist for the Titans with a 79, followed by Captain McKee's 81. The big point men for the Titans with three points each were Captain McKee, Chuck Garrett and Don Baumann. Steve Prokopchak followed with 2½ points.

Near Shutout

Tuesday afternoon the Titan golfers traveled to Grove City to play the Grovers over the Grove City Country club course. Captain McKee saved the Titans from a shutout by tieing the last nine giving the Grovers a 17½ to 2½ victory.

Captain McKee was low man for the Titans with an 81 but yielded medalist honors for the match to Wayne Smith, No. 1 man for the Grovers.

The Titan linksmen opened up their season by bowing to the Rockets from Slippery Rock 10-8. The golf team, composed of Bob mann, Chuck Garrett, Glenn McCracken and Steve Prokopchak, gave a good account of themselves in going down to defeat. The match was played in New Castle on a soggy course which raised the scores by several strokes. The big point men for the Titans were Don Bauman and Steve Prokopchak with 3 points each followed by Captain McKee with 2 markers.

Loses Third

The Titans traveled to W & J and lost their third match of the year which made their record won one and lost four counting an earlier loss to Grove City.

Injuries Fail To Slow Titans In Victory Over Grove City Trackmen Tuesday

Al Wheeler

The undefeated Track Titans boomed through with another win as they downed formerly undefeated Grove City in their fifth meet of the season last Tuesday. Jay DeBolt, Harold Davis and Joe Scungio were high men for the Titans with two firsts apiece to help make the score 75 2/3 to 55 1/3 in favor of the Westminster cindermen.

DeBolt set a new track record in the low hurdle event as he ran the heights in a speedy time of 13.5 seconds. A new track record was also set in the pole vault event as Hugo from Grove City jumped an 11'7" standard. Grove City also took second place in the event forcing Shaffer and Seidner of the Titans into a tie for third place.

Sheraw Wins Mile

Don Sheraw came back from his accident in the W & J meet to win the mile run event with a time of 4:44. Jerry Paul, also of Westminster, came in second in the event.

The half-mile run was taken by Jim Osuna, who came through with his best time of the season for the Blue and White. His 2:01.7 time was enough to force fellow Burryman, Mark Moore into a close second place. Larson of Grove City took third.

Scungio Gets Honors

In the shorter distance events, Westminster also came out on top. Joe Scungio topped Tom McGrath for honors in both the 220 and 100 yard dashes. Lightning Joe ran the shorter distance in 10.2 seconds and the 220 in 22.7. His time for the 220 was his best for the season, giving hope to his team mates for a possible sweep in the Tri-States.

Jay DeBolt boomed through in the hurdles as usual. His 13.5 second time set a local track record, while his 15.9 second time in the highs was one of the best for the year. Betty of Grove City took second place in the low hurdle event for his first defeat of the season.

Field Events

In the field events things were pretty even. Bill Jackson tied for first place with Grove City's man to hold his own in the shot put. Jim McCreedy threw his javelin 163' 6 3/4" to beat out Grove City's field of literal giants. Harold Davis took first place in the high jump with his height of 5'7". Davis also captured first place honors for the Burrymen in the broad jump with a leap of 19'9 1/8".

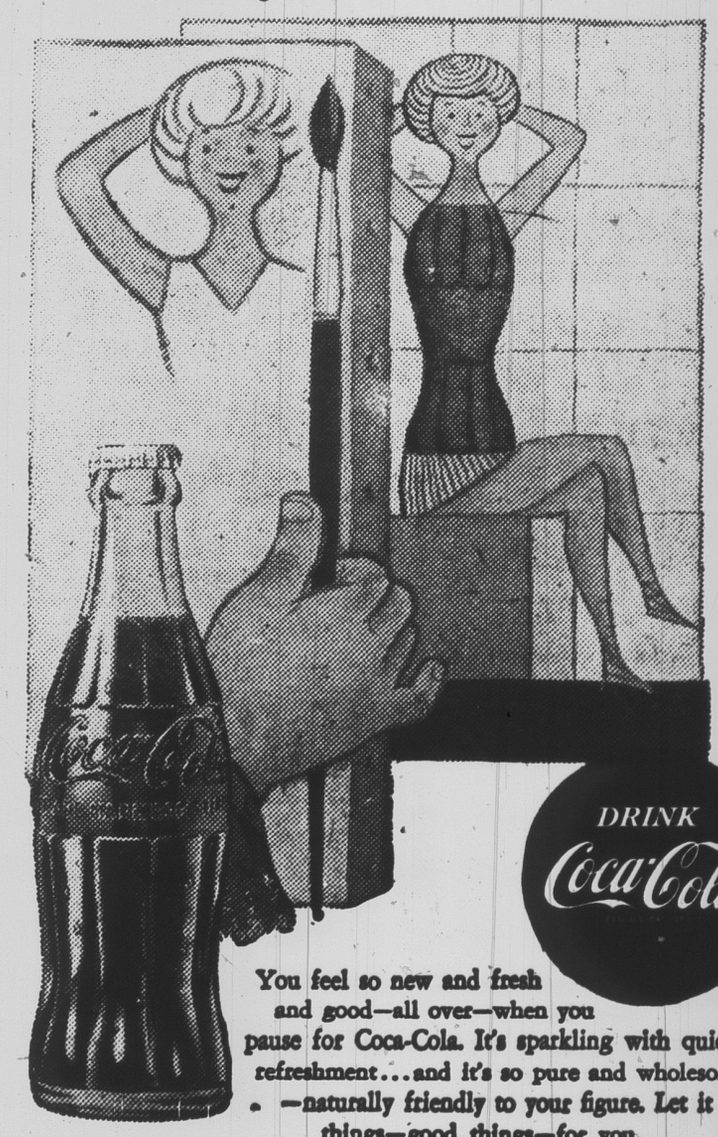

The win over Grove City coupled with the 101-30 defeat of W & J on Parents' day sets up the Titans for a possible win in the Tri-State meet at Allegheny tomorrow.

Globies Lose First To Sigma Nu, 6-2

The Globies lost their first game of the season to Sigma Nu 6-2 but still remain in first place with a record of 5 wins and 1 loss. They beat Sigma Phi Epsilon 10-6. Jack Niedrauer was the winning pitcher while Ron Rothermund lost.

Dom Mettica was the winner in Sigma Nu's victory over the Globies; Bob Bleggi lost. In the White league, Sigma Phi Epsilon remained undefeated by edging the Commuters 6-5. Hugh Ferguson was the winning pitcher.

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment...and it's so pure and wholesome —naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

SOCIAL WHIRL

Four Groups Hold Spring Formals; Picnics Scheduled For Tomorrow

By Dianne Oursler

Tonight begins the first round of spring formals as Alpha Gamma Delta, Beta Sigma Omicron, Theta Upsilon and Quadrangle co-eds give a last minute glance in the mirror and a final touch of lipstick in readiness for the big night. Pretty dresses, candlelight dinners, dancing, fun guessing what the favor might be and 1:30 permissions are the order for the evening. The girls again provide the entertainment of the day on Saturday with picnics they are having for their dates.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Margaret Black was awarded a prize for having the highest scholastic average of the freshmen . . Jane Wilson is in charge of the formal to be held at the Youngstown County club . . Sally Musson and Nancy Sharp are co-chairmen of the picnic at Pymatuning tomorrow. Serving on their committees are Lee Rapp, food and Jill Clarkson, recreation . . Mary Alice Davis, '55, Odiel Addleman, '55, Ann Gardner, '55 and Jean Hathaway, ex-'57 were on campus this past weekend.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Ralph F. Burns, executive secretary of Alpha Sigma Phi, visited the chapter Thursday . . Pledges from Davidson-Elkins college visited Alpha Nu chapter recently . . Richard Black, James Christopherson, Harold Kimmins, James Hall and Judson McConnell were on campus last Saturday.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . Phyllis George, Sandra Adamovsky, Ronnajean Hamilton and Mary Ann Herina were pledged on Tuesday . . Joanne McKinnon is in charge of the picnic to be held tomorrow at Mill Creek park in Youngstown . . Alumni Patti Black, Nancy Miller, Janet Giddons Clark, Ilene Drugmond Sands and Carole Lanese were here Parents' day weekend . . New officers of the Mothers' club are Mrs. Mader, president; Mrs. Nichol, vice-president; Mrs. Townsend, secretary and Mrs. Behrenberg, treasurer.

CHI OMEGA . . Helen Tombor was chosen as ideal senior and the ideal pledge of the year is Wynetta Schmidt. Best scrapbook award went to Elaine Beckett; honorable mention, Patricia Mulloy and Wynetta Schmidt . . Mothers' club elected the following officers: Mrs. Keeley, president; Mrs. Caldwell, vice-president; Mrs. Minor, secretary and Mrs. Walker, treasurer . . Margaret Knoer, Elizabeth Krout, Carol Williams, Nancy Cappel, Sue Connell and Gretchen Schumacher were on campus last weekend.

KAPPA DELTA . . Visitors on Parents' day were Betty Backe, Adell Parker, Jean McGeoch, Joyce Kirkpatrick, Joan Mangum and Phyllis Dolsen Watkins . . Jean Wilson visited Princeton university recently and Lynne Caddick went to the United States Naval academy at Annapolis . . Activation ceremonies were held Monday evening for Judy Studley and Arlene Sylvester.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . Thomas Tucker has been elected rush chairman for next year . . Bruce Thielman, ex-'55, visited campus over the weekend . . David Reed, president, has been chosen to represent Domain V at the national convention. Attending as alternate is Frank Wilgocki.

SIGMA NU . . Mary Jean Whitfield has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of Edward Wendell . . The annual picnic will be held on May 19 . . Spring serenade will take place on Monday night, May 21 . . Andrew Sands, Donald Drugmond, John Ross, Lawrence Pitzer, Robert Cipolla and Arthur Schenck were on campus last weekend.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Serenades were held Thursday night for Sue Starn, Erma Smith and Louise Zumpe . . Appointments have been made as follows: Howard Thomas, scholarship chairman; Robert Holmes, social chairman and William Beatty, chaplain . . Traveling secretary, Richard Whiteman visited the chapter this week.

THETA UPSILON . . New officers of the Mothers' club are Mrs. Mansell, president; Mrs. Priest, vice president; Mrs. MacGregor, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Heckendorn, editor.

SIGMA KAPPA . . The new officers of the Mothers' club are: Mrs. Nickel, president; Mrs. Kordich, vice president; Mrs. Beltz, secretary; and Mrs. Casbar, treasurer . . Betty Ann Thompson, '55, visited campus last weekend . . . Nancy Zahn is in charge of the Spring formal to be held at the Ellwood City Country club.

Engagements

JOHNSON-SHANE

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Johnson of Ardmore have announced the engagement of their daughter, Roxanne Grace to Samuel W. Shane Jr., son of Reverend and Mrs. Samuel Shane of Crafton.

Miss Johnson is a junior history major and a member of Theta Upsilon. Her fiance graduated from Westminster in 1955 and is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi. He is now serving in the United States Army.

Navy Had Program Here

In January 1943 the Navy established at the college a program for training Navy air pilots. The Navy cadets were stationed at "U. S. S. Hillside" where they lived, ate, and had classes under their own instructors.

Campus Calendar

Friday, May 11
Chapel, Marriage clinic
Spring formals
Alpha Gamma Delta
Beta Sigma Omicron
Theta Upsilon
Quadrangle
Saturday, May 12
Kappa Delta Children's party
Baseball, Thiel, away
Track, Tri-State meet, Allegheny
Sorority and Quadrangle picnics
Sunday, May 13
7:45 Vespers
Monday, May 14
Chapel, Mortar Board
5-8 Cwen's picnic
Tuesday, May 15
Chapel, E. Liverpool H. S. choir
Golf, Allegheny, away
Tennis, Grove City, away
Track, Edinboro, here
8 Senior recital—Natalie Hodack, Marilyn Pringle
10 Phi Kappa Tau serenade
Wednesday, May 16
Chapel, Kindergarten
Baseball, Geneva, here
3:30 Mu Phi Epsilon meeting
3:30-5 Beta Sigma Omicron Ice Cream social
5 WAA meeting
7 YWCA meeting
8:15 Pi Sigma Pi meeting
10 Alpha Sigma Phi serenade
Thursday, May 17
Chapel, Honors convocation
Golf, Thiel, here
WAA Senior hike
5:30 Cwen's banquet
AAUW meeting
ACS tour and banquet
6 Publications banquet

Wiliam Bovard Directs Milne Social Comedy

William Bovard, senior speech major from New Castle, will present "The Artist," a one-act duologue by A. A. Milne, as a "4:20 Theater" production Wednesday, May 16 in the Little Theatre. This play, a social satire comedy that revolves around a love jilt, is being directed by Mr. Bovard as his senior seminar project.

Cast as the young artist is Jack Loeffler a sophomore speech major from Cleveland, Ohio. Julia Holstein, junior speech major from Grove City, is portraying Bettine.

In charge of the lighting for "The Artist" will be Daniel Leasure and Olive Hunt will take charge of make-up.

Junior Class Elects Vierthaller President

Richard Vierthaller, junior business major from Pittsburgh, has been elected president of the senior class for next year.

Other officers elected were Donald Baumann, vice-president; Betty Wagner, secretary and Frank Marsico, treasurer.

Hodack, Pringle Present Recitals

Seniors Natalie Hodack, voice major and Marilyn Pringle, organ major, will present their recitals in the chapel Tuesday, May 15. at 8:15 p.m. Alberta Shaffer will be the accompanist for Natalie.

The program includes Handel's "Alma Mia," Cimara's "Fiocca la Neve," Respighi's "Nibbie," Boito's "L'altro Note in Fondo Al Mare," "Two pieces for Musical Clock," by Haydn and "Arrangements" by Clifford Shaw.

Other numbers are Brahm's "Choral Prelude on Low How a Rose," Hindemith's "A Sonata III," Verdi's "Addio del Passato" from La Traviata, Dr. Kramer's "How Like a Lantern," Rachmaninoff's "In the Silence of the Night" and Beach's "Ah. Love but a Day!"

Pi Delta Epsilon Takes Seven New Members

Pi Delta Epsilon, journalism honorary, held a meeting last week in the faculty lounge for seven new members.

Initiated as new members were Marcia Vandermast, Ann Price, Suzanne Essinger, William Kness, James Falk, Ann Gamble and Jeannette Traendly. Present members are Milton Lodie, Marion Wolk and Dean English.

The group also elected new officers who are: William Kness, president; Marcia Vandermast, vice president; Suzanne Essinger, secretary and Jeannette Traendly, treasurer.

Faculty members Dr. George Bleasby and Mr. Vernon Wanty attended the dinner following initiation.

News Brief

The following women will gain officerships on Pan-Hellenic council next term: Sandra Keeley, president, Jacqueline Lytle, vice-president; Patricia Hayman, secretary and Sarah Haddad, treasurer. Instead of holding an election to determine Pan-Hell officers the sororities follow the rotation system.

Council Announces Segregation Stand

Student Council has announced their latest stand on segregation. The statement, presented by Robert Peterson, Council member, was accepted by the members of Council. The statement reads:

It has been called to our attention that segregation still exists on our campus in the form of social discrimination which we unanimously believe to be an un-Christian and undemocratic practice. It has been pointed out in Council that since this practice affects the entire campus, we of Student Council are ultimately responsible for its correction according to the will of the campus. However, since this problem lies within the social organization, we feel that you of I. F. C. and Pan-Hellenic council can best handle it. We are of the opinion that this is primarily your responsibility; therefore, at this time we look to you for effective measures in dealing with it.

Jamison Presents Convocation Address

Those who have attained a 2.75 average or better in the spring and fall of 1955 will be honored at the annual spring convocation, Thursday, May 17.

Dr. Wallace Jamison will speak at the program which will be presented in the sanctuary of the United Presbyterian church. Scholarship cups and honorary fraternity prizes will be awarded at this time. Classes will be shortened to comply with the special chapel which is to begin at 10:30 a.m.

MEN'S SHORT SLEEVE
SPORT SHIRTS
$1.98
Fred Williamson's

Candies By Sotus
for Mother's Day
Complete Assortment
By Order Only.
Kay's Cleaners
The Little Shop
Around the Corner.

A Complete Line of Shoe Laces and Shoe Polish
SEE—
DOC FUSCO
Bank Building

Your Warm Weather Favorite Is Back
Tall — Cool — Tasty
ICED TEA
10¢
King Size
Try One Now — at—
the GRILLE

Walker's Have It
SHOWER GIFTS FOR THE BRIDE-TO-BE
- Rhodney Kent Hammered Aluminum
  Lazy Susans
  Serving Trays
  Carafes
- Wooden Salad Sets
- Hostess Sets

At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

WILMINGTON THEATRE
Fri. and Sat.
"FOREVER DARLING"
Lucille Ball - Desi Arnez
Mon. and Tues.
"LADY GODIVA"
Maureen O'Hara — George Nader
Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
Walt Disney's
"THE LITTLEST OUTLAW"
COMING:—
MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM

The new Arrow FREE-WAY puts "action" in a shirt . . .

Here's a knitted shirt just made for active sports (and lounging around, as well). The feather-light fabric is bias-cut for perfect freedom in any position. The back, cut longer than the front, lets the collar fit your neck just right. In 20 colors. Wear it correctly—with the Arrow Bermuda shorts (6 different colors)—and you've made the perfect choice for summer FREE-WAY, $3.95. Shorts, $3.95 up.

ARROW
—first in fashion
SHIRTS • TIES • SLACKS

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 76 No. 25 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, May 18, 1956

College Gives Law Degrees

At the Commencement ceremony at 2 p.m. on Monday, June 4, Mrs. Catherine Marshall, widow of the late Dr. Peter Marshall, will be the principle speaker.

Honorary degrees will be conferred on candidates as follows: Doctor of Divinity, the Rev. Butrus Abd al-Malik of the Delta Synod of the Nile of the United Presbyterian church; the Rev. Walker D. Brownlee, pastor of Hamburg United Presterian church in New York; the Rev. Frederick Miller, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Youngstown, Ohio and the Doctor of Pedagogy degree will be conferred on Albert Barnes Smith Jr., dean of the school of retailing of the University of Pittsburgh.

The Rev. Butrus Adb al-Malik is a professor and minister of 20 years experience. He is a graduate of Assiut college, and the Evangelical Theological seminary in Cairo. In addition to teaching in both institutions he has written numerous Arabic articles, an Arabic dictionary of the Bible and a catalogue of Arabic manuscripts at Princeton university. Dr. Abdul-Milik has a Th.M. from Princeton seminary and a Ph.D. from Princeton university.

The Rev. Walker Scott Brownlee is a graduate of Westminster college and holds a Th. B. degree. For 20 years he has served in the ministry and is currently pastor of the United Presbyterian church in Hamburg, N. Y. He also serves on the board of Pittsburgh-Xenia seminary.

The Rev. W. Frederic Miller has been active in the Christian ministry and the field of sacred music since 1930. He has held his present pastorate in Youngstown since 1951. From Otterbein college he received a B. A. degree and a B. D. and M. S. M. from Union Theological seminary. He is known nationally and internationally for work in church music.

Dean Albert Barnes Smith is a graduate of Westminster college and holds the Master of Letters degree from the School of Retailing at the University of Pittsburgh. He is a lifelong member of the United Presbyterian church and is an elder in the Second United Presbyterian church of Wilkinsburg.

Editors Name Argo Staff

All positions for next year's Argo staff have been announced by Dr. George Bleasby, with the exception of business manager.

Co-editors for the year book will be Albert Cannon and Marcia Vandermast. Betsy Hutcheson is to be the activities editor. Those on the activities staff are Susan Essinger, Dorothy Kelsey, Carolyn Jones, Lynn Caddick, Nancy Reese, Phyllis Holmes and Jill Clarkson.

Handling the sports section will be James Falk. Assistant sports editor will be Edward Sprague. John Blamphin is to be photography editor.

Faculty advisor for the Argo will be Dr. Norman Adams and Dr. Arthur Jensen.

Next Week's Chapels Honor Senior Class

Chapel next week in honor of the senior class will include programs presented by Dean John H. Forry, the junior class and the senior class. Chapel will be held in the morning only.

Monday morning's program will be led by the junior class officers. The senior class, with Dan Migliore as the speaker, will present a devotional chapel Tuesday.

The final chapel of the year will be presented by Dean Forry Wednesday.

Chemistry Award Winner

Senior chemistry major Robert Hunter received a first place $25 award this week at the Penn-Ohio Border Section of the American Chemical society. Hunter's talk was on the "Construction and Use of a Fractionating Column." He was in competition with representatives of Thiel, Youngstown and Grove City Colleges.

Scrawl . . .

A Play in Three Acts

by Sherri Grant

ACT I.

SCENE: A cold winter night. Outside, a heavy snow is falling. Old Main 210 is brightly lighted, and 12 people are silently reading. The rattle of pages being turned is the only sound for several minutes. This is a meeting of the SCRAWL literary staff. The editor finally breaks the silence.

"If you have all read all of the material, please pass in your rating sheets so we can get on with the business at hand."

Staff member: "I'm not done yet."

Several heads nod in agreement, and silence reigns again. Finally, it appears that everyone is finished.

Editor: "We will take these manuscripts by their code numbers and discuss them one at a time. Feel free in your comments. Let's start with 1A."

Staff member: "I don't like it.'

Second S. M.: "Me, either."

Editor: "Shall we vote? All in favor of 1A raise your right hands. All opposed. 1A is no longer with us. Next, we have 2A; that is the story about dogs. Any comments?

S.M.: "I like this tory. I think it should be printed, except that one place bothers me. The infinitive is modified by the subjunctive and the adjective follows the verb. Then, too . . . "

ACT II

Scene: Old Main 210. Two people sit working as the rain falls outside.

Editor: "How many inches do we need now?"

Managing Editor: "About 16 will do it. Where are you going to get that much more material?"

Editor: "Who knows? Maybe you can fill up some of the space with more pictures. Right now, I have to take this stuff to the Globe and to the judges."

ACT III

Scene: Old Main 210, today. The sun is shining, and the Editor sits at the desk writing. She reads from her paper.

"SCRAWL, the campus literary magazine will be published next week. Pre-sale subscriptions will be on sale in the dorms starting today, while the actual sale will begin next week."

The End

That is the end of the play, but here is the moral of the story. SCRAWL is coming, and it only costs 25 cents. Are you going to buy one? I hope so, 'cause then you can read another of my stories!

Summer School Schedule Released

Summer school for 1956 will include two sessions, the first six weeks, the second three weeks. Both sessions will feature graduate courses in education and related fields.

The first session, from June 11 to July 20, will feature a Little Theatre workshop in play production and a special workshop in teaching science in the Elementary school. The second session, July 23 to August 10, will include a Workshop in Literature for children.

The fifth annual Industrial Management conference will be held June 10 to 22 in Russell hall. Guest speakers will be brought in to confer with representatives from industries in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio. Director of the conference will be Mr. Samuel H. Sloan, associate professor of economics and business administration.

During the summer Westminster will also play host to a number of conferences including: the Institute of Theology, June 4-8; Sunset Hills Planning conference, June 9-10; Northfield conference, June 20-27; Pennsylvania State Christian Endeavor convention, July 9-14; and the New Wilmington Missionary conference, August 3-11.

Westminster Girls Vacation In Europe

Touring Europe this summer as leaders of a Girl Scout troop for New Jersey will be Nancy Conover and Nancy Zabel. They will sail on the Queen Elizabeth and will be gone for seven weeks. Others planning to spend part of the summer in Europe are Joan Smith, Jane Longnecker and Nancy Petsinger.

Planning to see another part of the world is Janet McConahey who will tour the Middle East for a month as a member of the Western College for Women seminar.

College Honors Students With Scholarship Awards

The Annual Spring Honors convocation was presented in a combined morning chapel program yesterday by Pi Sigma Pi, scholastic honorary.

Dr. Arthur L. Jensen, assistant professor of history, gave the opening address.

Scholarship cups were presented to the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and to the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. Mrs. Martha Whitehill, dean of women, made the presentation to Jacqueline Lytle, president of AGD and Mr. John R. Edwards, dean of men, made the presentation to David Reed, president of PKT.

Dr. John H. Forry, dean of the college, presented the Henrietta Lee scholarships which go to the four juniors who have received the highest scolastic average over the first three years of school. These awards of $100 each went to Diane Levy, Punxsutawney; Eleanor Wilson, Whitinsville, Mass.; Ann Price, Kenton, O. and Roger Finlay Pittsburgh.

Special awards were as follows: American Chemical society, Student Affiliate award, Perry Kirklin; Beta Beta Beta, Bernard Taylor; Delta Phi Alpha, Constance Mohr and Carol Galbreath; Eichenauer Bible award, 1st prize of $65, Eleanor Nye and 2nd prize of $35, Thomas Beech; Iota Delta, Glenn Flinchbaugh and Kappa Delta Pi,. Roberta Foster.

Kappa Mu Epsilon, Richard Dangle; Phi Alpha Theta, Daniel Migliore; Rho Gamma, Shirley Frazee and Erma Jane Smith; Scroll Freshman Writing award, Carol Roberts and American Association of University Women award, Ruth McCredie.

Jack Loeffler, the speech major award based on active work in the speech department which is given only to a freshman or sophomore; William Barbe, the junior-senior activities award for the junior or senior (not required to be a speech major) who has contributed the most in speech department activities and Alan Ellis, the A. T. Cordray Theatre award for outstanding work contribution to the theatre only.

Four students have received graduate fellowships and assistantships during the past semester. They are Lorraine Adams, Fulbright scholarship, Royal Flemish conservatory, Antwerp, Belgium; Daniel Migliore, Danforth Fellow, Princeton Theological seminary, Princeton, N.J.; Frank Dickson, assistantship, Vermont university and Robert Hunter, assistantship, Penn State university.

Pre-registration Begins Thursday

Pre-registration for the Fall term of 1956-57 will be held Thursday, May 24 for all students planning to return to Westminster.

Students should see their faculty advisers well in advance of registration. All classes registering this spring will be graduated under the curriculum requirements listed in the current catalog, pp. 43-46.

There is no pre-registration fee and registering does not bind the student to return to the college. All students must register under their present grade classification and at the following times:

Juniors, 9:00 a.m.; Sophomores, 10:00 a.m.; Freshmen and special students, 1:30 p.m.

All cards should be in the office of the recorder by 4:00 p.m. Those students planning to attend summer school are asked to indicate their choice of courses on cards available at the special table on the first floor hall.

Extra hours may be petitioned for at the time of registration. The petition, signed by the student's adviser, cannot be acted upon until the grade records of the current semester have been completed.

Several Faculty Members Accept New Positions

Westminster college will this year lose six instructors, one department chairman and one associate professor, one of whom will go on temporary leave of absence.

Sherod M. Cooper, instructor of English, will do full time graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania to fulfill the requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree. Mr. Cooper has been with Westminster since 1954.

Chairman of the history department and dean of the chapel, Dr. Wallace N. Jamison, who came to Westminster in 1951, has accepted the position of adjunct professor of church history at the New Brunswick Theological seminary.

George Masterton, who has been an instructor in the department of sociology since 1954, has accepted a position as instructor of sociology at the extension division of Rutgers university in Camden, N. J.

The mathematics department will lose Merrill C. Palmer, who will teach at Clemson college, South Carolina. Mr. Palmer has been an instructor at Westminster since 1952.

Retiring this year is Ernest L. Saul, associate professor of education and psychology. Mr. Saul has taught at Westminster since the fall of 1952.

Vernon Wanty, part time instructor of journalism, will go to Michigan State university to earn the degree of Masters in Journalism. Mr. Wanty has obtained a leave of absence from the college from September, 1956 to June, 1957.

Mrs. Helen D. Williams will leave her job as part-time instructor in the department of physical education to work as full-time supervisor in the physical education department at New Wilmington high school.

Instructor of English and German, Paul W. Whitney, will return to the University of Pennsylvania next year to complete the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. He has been with the college since 1954.

Peterson Releases Financial Report

Robert Peterson, ex-president of Student Council and treasurer of the 1956 Mock Republican convention, reports that the balance of the expenses of the year is $79.52. The National committee voted four to two to give the balance to the Student Union Building fund.

Revenue was obtained from the following sources: Jazz concert, $17.-63; contributions from students, $317.50; contributions from the college, $100.00 and profit made on concessions, $50.00. The total revenue is $485.13.

The expenses for the Mock convention were: buttons for delegates, $144.20; campaign managers, $152.73; Senator Duff—keynote speaker, $60.-00; physical arrangements $47.06 and miscellaneous $31.62. The total expenses are $405.61.

Forry Requests Grade Completion

Academic Dean John Forry announces that all incomplete grades from the first semester of this year must be removed before the close of the semester or an 'F' will be recorded. Students are referred to page 37 of the recent college catalog.

Are We Really Scholars . . . ?

In a few days another college year will be finished. For some it will mark the end of their college career while others will return to what we so ineptly term "the grueling grind."

In looking over the past year, most of us will agree, after some thought, that college life isn't quite as rough as we make it out to be.

In Honors Convocation chapel yesterday, Dr. Jensen in his address said that a college was a society of scholars. But are we really scholars? Do we really get out of college what we should? What we could?

We complain of studying and of tests and of the million other little things that often irk us. But how much easier do we think life will be when we graduate to begin working eight hours a day or to enter the armed services?

Then there will be no breaks at the TUB, no fraternity and sorority houseparties, no Saturday afternoon football games, no serenades or parties in the dorms.

The seniors, who in a few days will graduate, are soon to find the answer to these questions. Eventually all of us will. We will come to realize, after it's too late, that college wasn't so bad after all. And, perhaps we will wish that we had paid a little more attention in that history or English course.

But now, we are the all wise. However, we are not fooling anyone—only ourselves. We are not "scholars." How many students really study? How many really feel that they have done their best, in their major subject and other courses they have taken.

There cannot be many, looking at the number of honor students. Too many are extremely busy leading a "rugged college life" playing bridge in the TUB, or reading the latest "Life" or "Sports Illustrated."

This college life is really necessary to the survival of the fittest in the business world. Perhaps we do not realize that the piece of paper we will clutch in our hot little fists at commencement will mean a great deal to the prospective employer.

For some of us this is a time to get busy. Not only for this semester, but for the ones to come.

To the graduating seniors—good luck in whatever field you have chosen. For those who will continue let's set a goal to achieve in the college years which we have left.

The Holcad

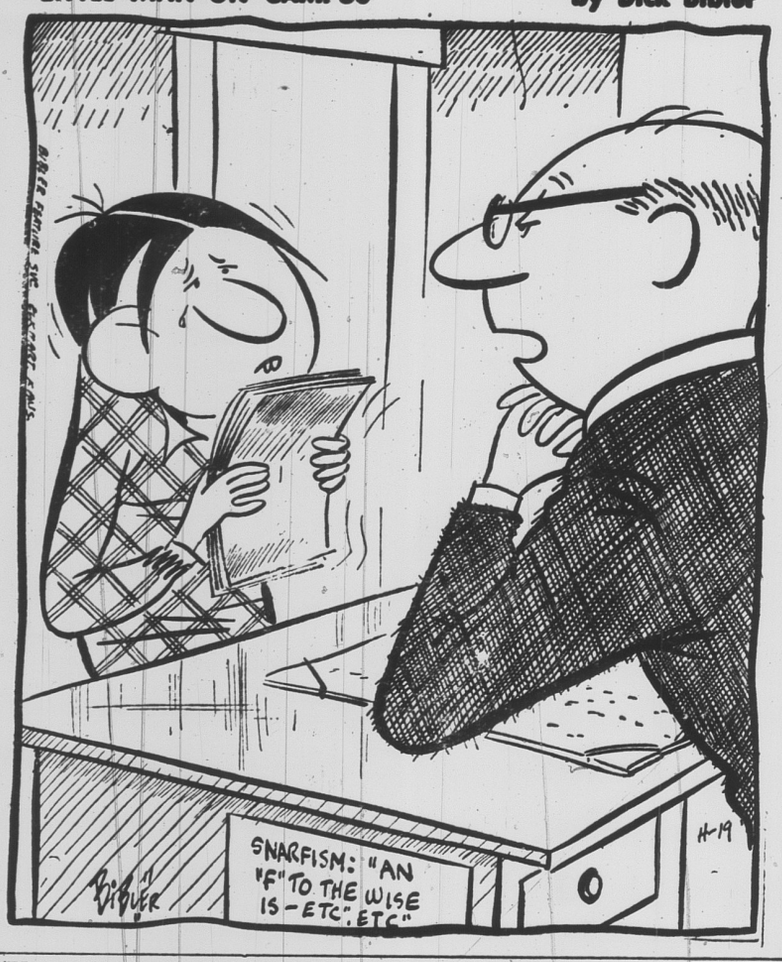

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 76 Friday, May 18, 1956 No. 25

EDITOR — Jeannette Traendly
NEWS EDITOR — Thomas McFarland
MANAGING EDITOR — Judith Maccubbin
FEATURE EDITOR — Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS — Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR — Dianne Oursler
COPY EDITOR — Nevin Morris
BUSINESS MANAGER — Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER — David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR — Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Your paper is obviously worth an "A" but that would suggest no room for improvement—So I feel you should have a "B"—Follow me?"

Birthday Party . . .

Or An Excuse To Eat

By Nancy Tulenko

In the distance feminine voices faintly penetrate the night air. A passerby, who happens by chance to approach the sounds, would notice that they originate in the second room from the left on the third floor of Hillside.

The brilliantly lit room reveals several bathrobe-clad coeds gesticulating animatedly, posing for pictures, or eating potato chips and cake. The pungent smell of freshly poped popcorn drifts into the evening breeze. Ecstatic laughter, snatches of "Happy birthday to you . . . " and periodical screeches intermingle with the murmuring din of voices—all filter through the opened windows.

The inside scene is merely a magnified view of the external observations. A closer study of the girls reveals that all are not bathrobe-clad; a few wear short, frilly nighties, while some are attired in men's pajamas, and others in bloomer-girl affairs with ruffly necklines and puffy pants. Each outfit, sometime during the evening, always draws a "Gee—what a sexy get-up!!" from one of the gang.

About seven or eight girls lounge on the two half-made beds, stuffing potato chips into their mouths; a few sit on the floor—close to the popcorn popper; one circulates with a slightly mashed birthday cake. A "Happy Birthday Jane" sign partially covers a paper monkey from last night's houseparty, candid photographs of the gang, a 1955 calendar and two Christmas cards from someone's "true love" which adorn the border of the bulletin board. A carpet of popcorn is strewn over the desk top and disarranged bookcase.

The general trend in conversation seems to drone along the "What the heck did you pull on your Bio exam?" line Every so often hearty felicitations ring out, followed by the tenth or fifteenth round of "For she's a jolly good fellow . . . "

That pungent smell of freshly popped popcorn is suddenly amalgamated into a nauseating odor of spilt perfume. The evening breeze, blowing through an open window, tries in vain to penetrate the odorous atmosphere. One of the girls grabs a dirty towel and mops up the cologne—a few jokes cracked about "Evening in Paris" are interrupted by the eleven o'clock chimes.

Most of the girls trail back to their rooms leaving a couple of unfortunate souls behind to clean up the mess. After everything is tidy, the "clean-up committee" orders two remaining girls, in the midst of a hot discussion on religion, out of the room and proceeds to bed.

From the outside of the dormitory the room is nothing more than a silhouette on the brick wall. Although animation has ceased for the evening; tomorrow night, same time, same room, another party will be thrown—not a birthday party necessarily, maybe just a celebration because one of the girls had been asked out by a campus dreamboat.

Water . . .

How To Find It

By George Lowther

Have you ever heard of a water dowser? Well, a water dowser uses a forked branch called a divining rod to find underground sourses of water.

Whether this is fact or fiction has often been debated. Some campus "scientists" were recently discussing the subject of water dowsing; some vowed that it was impossible while others said that they had seen it done. I happened along during this discussion and said that a divining rod would work for me.

I got a "Y" branch from a maple and it proceeded to turn in my hands, much to the astonishment of a few people from Missouri. One young "scientist" tried it himself, it worked! I hear he went back to his room and just about refused to talk about it.

Many people have dug wells at the direction of a dowser. The pumphouse location for Brittain lake was found by an Amish dowser.

Some dowsers prefer branches from certain types of trees such as peach, cherry or willow. Any type of wood will work for me. A bent piece of wire will also work, but only for certain people.

The Physics club had me demonstrate water dowsing for them. As the rod turned it splintered and peeled the bark. They could give no scientific explanation. Some force bent the branch to the ground.

Some people saw it work but didn't care to admit an unknown force was pulling the branch downward. I don't claim to have any magical, mystical power but the rod was turned by some force. Try it, see if you can explain it.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Congratulations are in order for the track team and their coach Mr. Burry for completing the second straight year without losing a duel track meet. For those who migrated to Allegheny last weekend, and there were quite a few, the Titans overcame tough opponents even though hampered by injuries and a slow track.

* * *

For giving us a Ford Foundation award of money this past winter, I think that we should give them something in return. As you probably all know, test models are run over hazardous tracks to see if they can stand the jars and jolts. Instead of having them build a course with ruts and holes, why don't we give them the stretch of Orchard Street around Browne Hall for a test course? Its qualifications are excellent—the best and biggest holes possible.

* * *

If any of our students get on the $64,000 Question and have to imitate Westminster chimes, they will probably miss and only win a cadillac. Kids, the proper tones are bong, bong, bong, bong, . . . not bong, clunk, bong, bong. Cheer up they may be fixed for graduation 1959.

* * *

I think everybody enjoyed the chapel presented by the Laura B. Turner Kindergarten on Wednesday. Especially the star singer who refused to sing. Mrs. Barber and the girls should be congratulated and praised for their quick action on Tuesday, when one of the little girls put her hand through a pane of glass. Their work saved a serious accident from becoming a tragedy. Congratulations.

* * *

This new raise in the Pennsylvania turnpike tolls will hit the chauffering service which is often conducted between campus and eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey. On the average tight Westminster student budget which has already been hit by a $100 a year tuition raise, the extra increase in toll will keep the travelers home.

* * *

About this time everybody is looking forward to the end of the year and the pleasant summer months ahead, but yet there is a note of sadness because of the seniors who are graduating or students who are going to leave for various reasons. To them, whether they are continuing school, going to new jobs or getting married, we wish them the best of luck and hope that they will return to see us again whenever possible.

* * *

To the rest of the "grup" who will be coming back next year—Have fun and see you in the fall.

News Headlines . . .

Turnpike Raises Toll

Turnpike Rates Raised—The tolls of the Pennsylvania turnpike will be raised effective May 25th. The target of the increased toll is particularly the truckers who use the turnpike during the mountainous stretch between Pittsburgh and Carlisle.

Rhee Re-elected in Korea—Syngman Rhee won his third term as president of the Republic of South Korea. The 81-year-old president was re-elected easily when his major foe, P. M. Shinicky of the Democratic party, died of a cerebral hemorrhage while campaigning on May 5.

British Laborite to Visit U. S.—Laborite Leader Hugh Gaitskell and his wife are paying a nine-day visit to the United States. Gaitskell is a guest of the International Ladies Garment Workers union and will address their convention at Atlantic City.

Jet Plane Hits Convent—A disabled jet plane plunged into a convent for convalescing nuns on the outskirts of Ottawa and caused an explosion and fire which killed approximately 15 persons according to first reports.

Nebraska Votes for Ike—Despite opinion that President Eisenhower had lost the farm vote because of the farm bill, he received strong support in this predominately farm state.

Steelworkers Ask Raise—According to reports, the United Steelworkers will ask the industry for a substantial wage increase and 21 other demands in 1956 negotiations.

New Castle Crash Kills Seven—In the worst Lawrence county crash in history on Route 422 near New Bedford, five members of the Markwell family of Niles, Ohio, and two New Castle men were killed. The five remaining Markwell children are in serious and critical condition in Jameson Memorial hospital.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

The third round of intramural play in the Blue league has been postponed. The league leadership this year goes to the Globies with a 7 won, 1 lost record. Many people (2) have requested that I try to pick an all-star team from this league and so I'll try. Some of the players I pick will be playing positions other than the ones they played during the season and I'll probably leave some of the better players out, but I can only try my best. Here it is.

1st. Base—Bill Pryor, S.N.
2nd. Base—Tony Stillson, Block W
S. S.—Al Polonec, Globies
3rd. Base—Ron Tranter, Block W
L. F.—Jay DeBolt, Block W
C. F.—Wes Hyde, S.P.E.
R. F.—Wayne Henderson, A.S.P.
C.—Bob Doran, Block W
P.—Bob Bleggi, Globies
P.—Walt Sylvester, Block W
P.—Dom Mettica, S.N.

We will also pick an all-star team for the White league and if it can be arranged, both teams will meet in the first annual Westminster Blue-White All Star game, May 22 at 6:30. The game will be umpired by the sports writers and all proceeds will go to the jacking society.

The White league All-Stars are:
1st. Base—Bob Klepser, A.S.P.
2nd. Base—Ken Wessel, A.S.P.
S.S.—Ken Zahrobsky, S.P.E.
3rd. Base—Martin Wintermantle, A.S.P.
R. F.—Jim Keefer, S.P.E.
C. F.—Ralph Scott, P.K.T.
L. F.—Jim Stoyle, P.K.T.
C.—Pete Houston, S.P.E.
P.—Hugh Ferguson, S.P.E.
P.—Bob Johnston, Commuters

All players selected are requested to contact either Al Wheeler or myself as to their decision to play or not. Alternates will be selected if those picked are unable to attend. This game could start a new tradition on Westminster's campus. This will be the last chance to see our senior softball stars in action so let's all turn out and support this All-Star game. I don't know if the A.A.U. would approve of our scheduling post-season games like this but we refuse to conform to their wishes in any case.

Congratulations are in order for Bob Duvall, Jay DeBolt and Joe Scungio. Duvall became the winningest pitcher in Westminster baseball history last Tuesday when he beat Alliance in relief. Bob is the first pitcher to win 6 games in a season. He is also undefeated in his last two years of college competition, winning nine in a row.

DeBolt finished this season undefeated by winning both low and high hurdle events of Tri-State last Saturday. He ran twelve races this year and was victorious in all of them. Scungio, freshman sprint man from New Castle, won the Tri-State title for the 100 yard dash in 10.2. He also finished second in the 220 yard dash.

We of the Holcad sports department name Jay DeBolt most valuable winner for 1956 and Joe Scungio most outstanding freshman. A lot of credit must be given to Harold Davis for his first place in the high jump at Tri-State. Harold had never topped six feet until this week when he tied Connie Polumbo of Slippery Rock with a jump of 6 feet 1 and 3/4 inches.

The track meet with Edinboro produced quite a number of surprises. Jack Barnes won the broad jump, Mark Moore won the mile and Acy Jackson finished second in the two mile. Walt McRay won the high hurdle event and Clark Kennel tied for first in the 880 while Bill Morrell pole vaulted.

Just Plain Good!
Home-made Breads
- White
- Whole Wheat
- Vienna
- Cream Breads
- Rasin Bread

Oven Fresh To You
WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Two-Time Tri-State Winners

Pictured above is the 1956 Westminster Track team which swept the Tri-State meet at Allegheny last week. Holding the trophies are, left, Joe Scungio and Don Sheraw. The track team also had an undefeated season.

Wolverines Hand Titan "Rackets" Sixth Loss In Row

The Titan tennis team changed their record for the worse last Tuesday afternoon as they dropped a match to Grove City's racquet squad. This makes the local netmen's record for the season stand at eight losses and one win. They have tied none and their percentage stands at .135.

Sbrocco and McMillan were the big guns for the Grovers as they defeated the first two men on the Titan team. Only in the doubles matches did the Blue and White gang come through as Pierson and Garver won their match.

A promise of a good match shows through when the Titans match Carnegie Tech next week. A revenge match will also be played with Grove City's Wolverines.

Titans Capture Tri-State Meet; DeBolt, Scungio, Davis Star

By Al Wheeler

For the second year in a row, the Titan Track team won the Annual Tri State meet held at Allegheny college in Meadville. The undefeated Burrymen took 64 place points to nudge out their leading rivals, Geneva and Slippery Rock. This is the highest team score on record in the Tri-State meet since its institution several years ago. As a matter of fact, no other team has even approached 50 points in the intercollegiate meets. Debolt, Scungio, Davis and Walker were high men for the Titan cindermen but the best all around athlete trophy went to Homer Weaver of Geneva.

Jay Debolt captured first place in both hurdle events. This was the twelfth time he had run in competition this year and was also the twelfth time that he had won. Jay was followed in the high hurdles by promising Walt McRae in fourth position and by Jack Mansfield in the low hurdles event taking fifth place.

Harold Davis came through with the surprise of the season as he jumped an almost record 6'1" bar to tie for first place jump in the high jump event. Davis also took second place in the broad jump, following Tri-state record holder John Walker who took first place for the Blue and White.

Lightning Joe Scungio took the hundred yard dash for the Titan thinclads with a comparatively slow time of 10.3 seconds. He also took second place in the 220 yard run.

The Westminster thinclads managed to garner points in all events. Their score might have been even higher if it had not been for some unfortunate disqualifications and pulled muscles in the morning races.

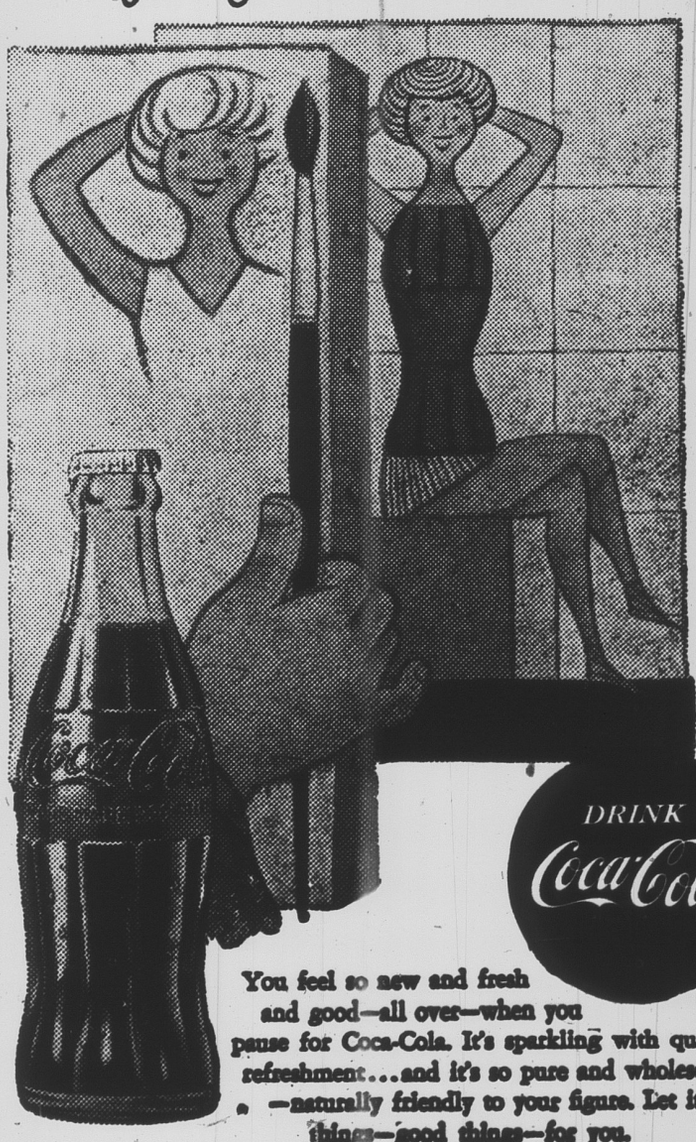

Final score for the various colleges stands as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Westminster | 64 |
| Slippery Rock | 45 |
| Geneva | 40 1/3 |
| Grove City | 32 |
| Carnegie Tech | 24 1/3 |
| W & J | 18 |
| Allegheny | 3 |
| Edinboro | 1 |

Westminster met last place Edinboro in a dual meet last Tuesday. Highlights of this meet were Acy Jackson's tremendous finish in the two mile and the senior relay team that ran against Edinboro and beat them in competition. However, this team just didn't have the stuff to compete against the regulars and finished a sorry second. This senior relay team was the same one that won the Tri-state freshman relay in their freshman year at Westminster. Final score of the Edinboro meet was 99-33 in favor of the Blue and White.

Track is now over for the year. Only two men will be lost over the summer due to graduation, so the Westminster Burrymen can hope for another undefeated season next year. The Blue and White has won the Tri-state meet for three out of the last six years and can probably do it again next year.

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment...and it's so pure and wholesome —naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

Titan Nine Edges Alliance In Twelfth

The Titan baseball team eked out a twelve inning win over Alliance college 7 to 6 last Tuesday at Alliance. The Blue and White squad has now won seven out of nine tilts.

It was the sixth win of the season for Bob Duvall, who relieved Norm Paxton in the ninth. He is the only pitcher in Westminster baseball history to win six games in one season and he is also undefeated over the past two seasons, having won nine games without a setback.

Duvall Also Hits

With the Titans leading six to five in the ninth Paxton walked the first batter and coach Buzz Ridl wasted no time in lifting the big right hander. Duvall, however, was not loose and walked three men to force the tying run over the plate. Duvall's single in the twelfth won his own game. After Tom Parks had singled and advanced to second on a wild pickoff attempt by the pitcher, Bob lined a single which broke the tie.

Alliance Scores First

Alliance started the scoring in the first inning with a lone run on singles by Socha and Gaglione. They added another in the second on a walk, a stolen base and an error by Don Wix. Paxton gained control in the third and held the Red and White scoreless for the next four innings.

Meanwhile the Titans built up a 4 to 2 lead. They scored once in the third when Wix walked, went to second on Paxton's sacrifice and scored on a single by Vince Telesco. Vince, playing his first complete game in right field, collected three hits in five bats.

Smith Hits Clutch Single

The Titans added three more in the fifth on a single by Paxton, walks to Telesco and Bill Duvall and a clutch single by Glenn Smith coupled with an error by the Alliance center fielder. Paxton again weakened in the seventh and Alliance tied the count at 4 but Westminster struck back in the eighth sparked by a three base hit by Tom Parks. After Parks' triple, Paxton singled him home, Bill Duvall walked and Steve Prokopchak knocked home the sixth run with a single. Alliance scored single runs in the eighth and ninth but the Titans' power turned the tide in the top of the twelfth.

Sports Briefs

Darrell Floyd of Furman, the nation's leading basketball scorer for the past two years, denies that he has committed himself to play a tour with the Collge All-Stars against the Globe Trotters.

* * *

The Pirates declined a trade that would send Bob Friend and Vernon Law to the Philadelphia Phillies.

Graduation Cards
5c and 10c
Fred Williamson's

ON A PICNIC WE WILL GO . . .
IF SO, GET COOKIES FOR DESSERT
by Nabisco
Sunshine
Archway
A COMPLETE SELECTION TO CHOSE FROM
Brown's Food Market

SOCIAL WHIRL

Last Round Of Formals And Picnics Before Students Begin Final Exams

By Dianne Oursler

Spring lowers the curve as co-eds seek that much coveted suntan and the tennis courts are constantly in use. However, suddenly there are countless last minute projects that must be done, reports to be written, book reviews to do and an endless number of chapters to read; all this before the inevitable judgement day, May 25! Tonight Sigma Kappa, Kappa Delta and Chi Omega are presenting their spring formals. To wind up the social calendar for the year the fellows are providing the picnic fare and fun on Saturday.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . New officers of the Mothers' group are: Mrs. Kenneth Barrett, president; Mrs. M. H. Barret, vice president; Mrs. Guilford Reed, secretary and Mrs. William Rapp, treasurer . . . Jill Clarkson was crowned pledge princess at the formal Friday night.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Monday night a smoker was held in honor of Dr. Wallace M. Jamison, ex-'39, Alpha Sigma Phi faculty advisor . . . Wednesday evening the brothers of Alpha Sigma Phi serenaded the following girls: Suzanne Essinger, Lois Heisey, Phyllis Holmes, Donna Morgan, Janet Patterson, Jacqueline Walker and Wende Westinghouse . . Richard Walker and Ralph Benson are in charge of the picnic to be held Saturday at Boardman park near Youngstown.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Lorraine Mader is in charge of the program to be presented tonight at the Mercer Old Folks home . . Alice Johnson is the chairman of the senior party to be held Monday evening . . Sandra Winburn, ex-'58, and Ralph Teslow will be married July 14 . . Chapter nominee for the Bernardin award is Alice Johnson . . The annual patroness picnic will be at the Hopkins' home on May 26.

CHI OMEGA . . Carol Brennamen Braund announces the birth of a son . . The formal tonight will be held at the Shenango inn. Sarah Hamilton is in charge of arrangements . . Marianne Hoffman and Doris Lloyd visited campus recently . . Wynetta Schmidt was on the Ohio university campus and visited the chapter there while Diana Black went to Allegheny college last weekend.

KAPPA DELTA . . Nancy Mcgavern received the award given to the pledge attaining the highest grade average . . Nancy Young, '54 was married to Donald Blanchard on May 12 . . Leah Schill visited Gettysburg college and Judy Maccubbin went to Cornell university last weekend . . Anne Risser is chairman of Homecoming decorations for next year.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . Serenades were held Tuesday night for Mary Ann Rose, Dorothy Spicker, Jane Stewart, Barbara Town, Barbara Webb and Carolyn Werner . . Russell Stump has been appointed house manager . . Gary Gardner is the assistant pledge master.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Harriet Wright is in charge of Homecoming decorations for next year . . Shirley Frazee will head committees working on the final rush party next fall . . Sue Thomas was on the Ohio university campus recently.

SIGMA NU . . William Storey is in charge of the food committee for the picnic on Saturday which will be held at Mill Creek park in Youngstown . . William Jackson is directing the serenade to be given Monday night.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Robert Holmes is in charge of the picnic tomorrow in Mill Creek park . . . Albert Fletcher, '55 and Osmund LeVines, '55 were on campus this past weekend . . Peter Houston and Kenneth Hofrichter were elected to the alumni board for next year.

Student Council News

At the regular Tuesday night meeting of the Student Council the members elected Dave Marsico to the Student Conduct committee and Louis Torporcer as their parliamentarian for the coming school year.

The proposed revisions of the Constitution were discussed and accepted by Council and will be voted on by the student body next week. Also in the way of new business Student Council moved and passed that a recommendation be made to the board that each student be assessed a dollar per year, inclusive in the activity fee, for the purpose of financing Council functions.

Freshman Present Winning Speeches

Freshman speech finals were held in chapel today. Participating in the contest were Lois Reed, Ray Preston, George James and Hugh Ferguson.

To qualify as a finalist, one representative was chosen from each freshman speech class.

Walker's Have It
CONGRATULATIONS
Class of '56
and to those of
'57 - '58 - '59
Have fun and see you this fall
Your
- Homeware
- Giftware
- Sportsware

Center
At Walker's Hdwre.
Across from the Bank

Campus Calendar

Friday, May 18
Chapel, Freshmen speech finalists
Sorority spring formals
Chi Omega
Kappa Delta
Sigma Kappa
Saturday, May 19
Fraternity picnics
Sunday, May 20
7:45 Vespers, Dr. Wallace Jamison
Monday, May 21
Chapel, Junior class
5:30 Kappa Delta patroness picnic
10 Sigma Nu serenade
Tuesday, May 22
Chapel, Senior class
Tennis, Grove City, here
6 Masquer's banquet, Criswell's
Wednesday, May 23
Chapel, Dean Forry
5:15 Mu Phi Epsilon, picnic
7 Y.W.C.A. meeting
Thursday, May 24
Pre-registration
Friday, May 25
Final examinations begin
Saturday, June 2
Alumni Day
Sunday, June 3
Baccalaureate
Monday, June 4
Graduation

Committee Forms Two Scholarships

Blue and White announces that a committee is being formed for establishing two memorial scholarships: one in science in memory of the late Dr. James A. Swindler, former chairman of the physics department; and one in liberal arts in memory of the late Miss Elizabeth Nixon, of the journalism department.

A meeting of interested alumni will be held in room 108, Old Main at 5 p.m. on Alumni day, June 2.

Temporary chairman of the committee is Mrs. Wilbur G. Dumbaugh, 565 1/2 West Brady St., Butler, Pa. The committee is especially anxious to have suggestions and comments from physics or journalism majors who will not be able to attend on that date. Mrs. Dumbaugh would like to hear from alumni regardless of whether or not they can contribute.

Bye Now . . .
Here's wishing you the best in Summer fun, with the hope of seeing and serving you again this Fall.
Work and play refreshed
With Iced Tea
the GRILLE

Have Fun . . .
Enjoy Your Vacation
This Summer —
But Be Careful.
Kay's Cleaners
The Little Shop
Around the Corner.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS

Re: Insurance Program for Summer Vacation Period
As indicated in your Student Health brochure, any student wishing to obtain Accident and Illness insurance for the summer months may do so at an additional premium charge of $3.00. Coverage would be exactly the same as that provided during the college year and outlined in your brochure.

The insurance would continue in force from Commencement to the opening of the Fall Semester.

If you desire to take advantage of this extension of coverage, simply notify the Office of the Business Manager at pre-registration time, May 24th.

Higham, Neilson, Whitridge & Reid, Inc.

For discriminating tastes
The Tavern
Serving Hours
12:00-2:00 — 5:00-7:00
Reservations Advisable
Closed Tuesday
Mrs. Ernst Durrast
New Wilmington, Pa. Dial 3351

Ex Libris

By Beryl Rowland

Three new books have arrived in the library for anyone who is fortunate enough to find time for reading as the semester draws to a close. If time is short for reading now, then maybe some of these books will provide entertaining summer reading.

Budd Schulberg, author of the screenplay On the Waterfront, has now written a novel entitled Waterfront. The novel depicts life along the New York waterfront with all of its violence and corruption. It tells of how a slum-reared Catholic priest struggles with the problem of applying Christianity to life in such an environment.

Politics In America by D. W. Brogan is a book which explains how the science of American politics evolved into what it is today. It explains how political institutions operate and it shows the worst as well as the best side of politics.

Ella Chalfant, a Pittsburgh librarian and historian, has studied the wills found in vaults of early American settlers of Allegheny county. From these wills which contain first-hand information on the society, business and personal lives of the early frontiersmen, she has written a revealing novel, A Goodly Heritage. It presents Western Pennsylvania history in an interesting and readable form.

The library also has a new book by C. S. Lewis, Surprised By Joy. In this book the author tells the story of his early life and of the molding of his character and personality.

News Brief

The junior class officers for next year are: Thomas McFarland, president; Acy Jackson, vice president; Ann McDowell, secretary and Doris Barnshaw, treasurer.

WILMINGTON THEATRE
Fri. and Sat.
Walt Disney's
THE LITTLEST OUTLAW
Mon. and Tues.
ALL THAT HEAVEN ALLOWS
Jane Wyman — Rock Hudson
Thurs.
THE STRATTON STORY
J. Stewart — J. Allison
Fri. and Sat.
MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM
F. Sinatra — Kim Novak

ARE YOU
(AND YOUR SHOES)
Ready for the Summer Fun?
IF NOT, SEE
DOC FUSCO
Bank Building

New Senate Members Elect Levey Presidnt

Recently Senate, under their new president Diane Levy, voted the following girls in to office for the coming year: Dorothy Kelsey, vice president; Ann Aichner, recording secretary; Carol Paulie, corresponding secretary; Dianne Oursler and Dorothy Wallace, student conduct committee representatives; Lorraine Wortmann, social chairman; Patricia Mulloy, treasurer and Marilyn Elkins and Joanne Snyder, judiciary committee.

On Monday night the following students were elected to Senate by the girls at their place of residence for next semester; Patricia Mulloy and Ann Aichner, Hillside; Mary Lou Mansell and Carol Paulie, Ferguson; Dorothy Kelsey, Alpha Gamma Delta House; Jane Stewart, Chi Omega House; Joanne Snyder, Beta Sigma Omicron House; Sue Starn, Kappa Delta House; Lorraine Wortmann, Sigma Kappa House and Marilyn Elkins, Theta Upsilon House.

More Fun!
In the company of friends homeward bound you can make it a "party" all the way. There's room to roam, time to visit, and nothing to worry about.

More Comfort!
Restful coaches, loads of luggage space, refreshments and swell meals en route. No tough driving on crowded highways. No waiting for skies to clear. Yes sir! The train is tops in transportation!

What Savings!
Team up with friends and enjoy these money-saving, round-trip bargains! GROUP ECONOMY FARES*—Save 25% when 3 or more bound for the same home town travel together both ways. Tickets good for 30 days. Grand if returning to summer school. COACH PARTY FARES—Savings of 28% when 25 or more travel together on going trip home. Return singly or together for summer school or fall semester.

*Except for local travel between New York-Washington and points east of Lancaster, Pa.

See your travel or ticket agent NOW! Ask about these big money saving plans!

EASTERN RAILROADS

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 1 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, Sept. 28, 1956

Fans Migrate For Season's Opener At Thiel

A quiet bliss will prevail over the Westminster campus tomorrow afternoon as seventy car loads of Titan fans migrate to the first football game of the season at Thiel college.

Several cars still have passenger room so that students who have not already signed up may do so on the bulletin board in Old Main.

Cars will leave the field house at 12:30 p.m. Those driving should meet at the field house no later than 12:15 in order that the cars can be lined up. Arrangements have been made for dorms to serve meals at 11:30.

Streamers for decorating cars will be given out at the field house. Tickets can be purchased at the game for 55 cents. Students must have their activity books along to take advantage of this price.

The motorcade will have a police escort through Mercer and arrive in Greenville at approximately 1:30 p.m. Freshmen, be sure to wear your "dinks."

Old 77 Activities Begin Tuesday

The women's physical education department announces the program for the coming year. Arrangements have been completed for the swimming schedule. Mermaids, the women's swimming group, will hold try-outs and the WAA volleyball games will be started next week.

Recreational swim for women will be held Tuesday from 3:30 to 4:30 and Wednesday from 3:30 to 4:30 every week beginning Oct. 2.

Sue Kingsley, president of Mermaids, announces that try-outs for the swimming club will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 3 from 8:15 to 9:30. All students interested in joining are asked to leave their names at the women's physical education office or with Sue Kingsley by Wednesday noon.

WAA president Betty Wagner requests all members of WAA and all freshmen who wish to play volleyball to come to Old 77 Thursday, Oct. 4 at 3:30. The meeting marks the beginning of the intramural volleyball season.

Debators Tackle Foreign Policy

"Resolved—that the United States should discontinue direct economic aid to foreign countries" is the issue that will be debated in colleges this year. The Westminster debate team begins the season Thursday, Oct. 4.

Former debaters participating this year are David Livingston, Alan Wheeler, Frank DeFelice, Vincent Julian, Marian Fox, Judy Gray and Nancy Griffin. Mr. Melvin Moorhouse encourages new debaters to sign up in the speech office.

The major event scheduled for this year is the Annual Novice Tournament to be held Nov. 3. Approximately fourteen colleges

George Bailey Presents Variety Show Tuesday

Mr. Walter Biberich, director of Westminster college's lecture series, announced the George Bailey show will be the second program of this year.

The performance will be held in Wallace Memorial chapel at 8:15 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 2. These programs are free to faculty, students and the public.

Bailey combines memory of names, music and magic in his performances. He is noted for his remarkable memory and ability to make music from a collection of musical glasses equipped with resonators. One of is favorite magical tricks is baking kies in a guest's hat and stealing hirt without removing his coat.

Swim Anyone?

Betsy Guthrie doesn't seem to be enjoying the prospect of a quick swim in Brittain Lake although the day is warm and the water tepid. Sophomores Lee Africa, left, and Warren Gardner seem pleased with their stunt and the thoughts of a wet "worm". Hell week activities will end tonight at Old 77 when upper classmen seek final revenge on the freshmen.

Tribunal Ends Frosh Stunts

"Cheer up freshmen, the worst is yet to come." Tribunal will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in Old 77. This is not the end of Hell week but just the beginning—for the freshmen.

Tribunal will climax two days of upper class classmen revenge on the new lower class of freshmen. Stunts and antics of the worms have highlighted the activities.

Louis Toporcer is in charge of the Hell week events and is assisted by Dick Cain. Louis said the program for Tribunal is "better than ever" and there are many "surprises" in store for everyone.

All freshmen are "requested" to arrive at Old 77 promptly. Freshman women may wear slacks.

YWCA Begins Drive For New Members

Cabinet members of YWCA met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Will W. Orr last Friday. After the meeting, dinner was served by Mr. Orr to the members of the Cabinet. The membership drive will begin shortly and installation of new members will be held Oct. 17.

GEORGE BAILEY

Faculty . . .

New Faces In 1956

We not only find new faces in the student body at Westminster, but fifteen new faculty members.

Dr. George W. Cobb, Associate English Professor, came to us from Tusculm College where he served fourteen years. Also he has taught at John Hopkins university, Oklahoma A&M, Friends university, Sacred Heart college and Lincoln Memorial university. He has written several published poems and sonnets. In addition to English, American and World Literature, Dr. Cobb has taught German and Greek. He is specializing in Old and Middle English Literature.

Miss Elizabeth Keen, instructor in the department of English and Journalism, has had vast experience in the field of journalism. She has worked in London and Paris with the New York Herald Tribune, served as night news editor for the Shanghai, China bureau of the United Press, spent World War II with the News Chronicle in Britain. At this time she was reporter and feature writer with the Chronicle. While on the Chronicle, Miss Keen interviewed many well known people including the late George Bernard Shaw, H. G. Wells, and Irish dramatist Sean O'Casey. Also she has traveled to 48 different countries.

The sociology department's Mr. Roger T. Wolcott holds a bachelor's degree from Cornell university, and his M.A. degree from Columbia university. He is now working towards a Ph.D. degree at Columbia.

The girls' physical education department has a newly appointed full-time instructor, Miss Jane Walker. She is a graduate of Nazareth college where she earned her B.A. and B.S. degrees in physical education.

Teaching English and Humanities for the first time at Westminster is Miss Mary Ellen Williams. She is a graduate of Marietta college and of Ohio State university, and is now earning her master's degree in English at Ohio State.

Mr. Charles Carlson has been appointed assistant professor in the de-

(Continued on Page 4)

'Underwater Whirl' First Cwens Event

The Underwater Whirl, to be held in Old 77 this Saturday, Sept. 29, will begin this year's Cwens' activities. The dance is open to all college students and will feature dancing to music by the Quintessents from 8:30 until 11:30 p.m. The dress is semi-formal. Tickets may be purchased from any Cwen or at the door. Friday afternoon the Cwens will be wearing their uniforms so that anyone desiring to buy a ticket may easily recognize them.

Scrawl Positions Open Douthett Announces

Applications are now being received for staff positions on the campus literary magazine, Scrawl, announces Jean Douthett, editor. Application forms may be obtained in the English office.

Upperclassmen interested in working on the magazine should have their applications into the English office by 4:00 p.m., Friday, Oct. 5. Any students interested in proofreading should see Jeanne Douthett.

The deadline for manuscripts for the fall issue of Scrawl has been set for Oct. 25. Two copies of each contribution of poetry or prose should be placed in the English office or given to the editor before this date.

Now Here This

"What is this Thing Called Prayer" will be the topic of discussion at the Christian Youth Fellowship meeting Sunday at 6:45 p.m. in the basement of the United Presbyterian church. Leading the discussion will be Doris Barnshaw and Jerry Paul.

Students interested in working for the Christian Service Group are asked to see any cabinet member or leave their names in the Bible office before Friday, Oct. 5.

FTA organizational meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 2 at 4:30, 403 Science hall. All education majors are asked to attend.

Orr Reveals Speaker For Convocation

Dr. W. George Crouch, chairman of the English department at the University of Pittsburgh, will be the principal speaker at annual fall convocation, Wednesday, Oct 10, at the United Presbyterian church, announced Dr. Will W. Orr.

A native of London, England, Dr. Crouch has been a member of the University of Pittsburgh's faculty since 1925. He also has taught at Pitt's Johnstown center, Juniata college, Shrivenham American university, England, and Army Command Schools in Europe.

Dr. Crouch studied for both his bachelor of arts and master of arts degress at Pitt. In 1937 he received his Ph.D. from Princeton university. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa and Theta Alpha Phi, honorary fraternities, and the American Association of University Professors, Modern Language Association of America, Society for the Advancement of Engineering Education and the National Education association.

He is the author of several books and magazine articles including "A Guide to Technical Writing", "Advanced Writing" and "Effective Bank Letters." During the Second World War, Dr. Crouch was employed by the War Department's Information and Education Section.

Dr. Orr said three persons will receive honorary degrees from the college at the Convocation Service. Westminster honor students will be presented by Dr. John H. Forry, acadmeic dean of the college.

Freshman Present "January Thaw"

The Little Theatre opens its 27th season Monday, Oct. 29 with "January Thaw' by William Roos. The cast of this 3-act comedy, adapted from the novel by Bellamy Partridge, is composed entirely of freshmen, and will be under the direction of Miss Charlotte Forsberg.

Heading the cast of characters for the initial production are John McCall in the role of Herbert and Jane Stewart portraying Marge. Alfred Horn will be seen in the part of Uncle Walter, with Gerald Trimble as Jonathon, Reid Clifford as George.

Bob Hull plays Matt, David Kromen is seen as Mr. Loomis and Joanne Bretsnyder as Sarah. Alice Westapal is cast as Barbara, Nancy Mason as Mathilda, Barbara Moorhouse as Freida, and Lois Brawdy will play Paula.

"January Thaw" will be presented in the Little Theatre Oct. 29, 30, 31 and also Nov. 2 and 3. For those interested in working on the various crews for the show, a list will be posted on the bulletin board outside the Speech Office in Old Main.

Air Guild Presents Children's Program

Collegiate Guild of the Air held its organizational meeting this week. Mr. Donald L. Barbe, chairman of the speech department, welcomed about thirty guests at the open house held in the radio studio of McGill Memorial library.

After a tour of the newly redecorated studios, Mr. Barbe outlined the program of the coming year. It was announced that tryouts will be held the beginning of next week for the casting of a children's show, the first scheduled broadcast of the season. Anyone interested in participating is asked to watch the speech bulletin board for details.

The next meeting of the Collegiate Guild of the Air is scheduled for Oct. 2 at 7:00 p.m. in the radio studio. Signing up for work in the broadcasting year is still possible. If you are interested, contact Mr. Barbe in the speech office before October 2.

Freshman Receive "Formal Orientation"

Hell week began with a bang at 8 o'clock yesterday morning with the freshman's fears realized and the upper classmen anticipating the opportunity to make the "worms" squirm.

From all indications the worms have not wiggled out of many errands, stunts and "magnificent schemes" which have been dealt out with much generosity by members of the other classes.

It is hoped that discretion and taste has been used in the type of requests asked of the freshmen. After all the "worms" are living creatures.

Co-operation has been running high among the freshmen. With this good attitude, Hell week has prospered and has been extremely enjoyable and a lot of fun for everyone involved.

Tonight is the highly formal and strictly official welcome and orientation of all members of the freshman class by honorable upper classmen. Freshmen cannot be considered the fourth class until they have fulfilled the requirements of which have been set forth by the planning board of Student Council. Tonight we will welcome you into the family.

Tribunal is one of the traditional events in the life of every college freshman. It is hoped that tonight will be among the memories of Westminster for you freshmen. If it isn't one of the happy memories, at least you will be able to recall Tribunal with a fair amount of vividness.

Frosh—this is your night—good luck.

All is not so degrading. The freshmen have shown their willingness to co-operate in Hell week but perhaps everyone is not aware of their attitudes in other phases of campus life.

The freshmen have been enthusiastic about participation in campus activities. They have been attending meetings and applying for positions on the college publications.

Interest is high now. Don't let it wane. Part of your college life is what you make it and how much interest you show in the activities. Upper classmen take note.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, September 28, 1956 No. 1

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR ..... Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Doris Barnshaw, Nancy Beistel, Lynne Caddick, Jill Clarkson, Ingrid Clay, Marynelle Dougherty, Carolyn Fisher, Emy Lou Fohrenbacher, Judith Gray, Lois Heisey, Marcia Hicks, Chiquita Johnson, Barbara Judson, Mary Kennedy, William Kness, Carol Kibler, Ann McDowell, Marie McGrath, Iris McKnight, Patricia Mulloy, Ruth Nichol, Nancy Nickel, Sara Portner, Lois Reed, Carol Roberts, Beryl Rowland, Leah Schill, Joan Smith, Linda Strickler, Nancy Tulenko, Catherine Townsend, Jacque Walker and Marlene Wasser.
PROOFREADERS—Barbara Farrow, Myrna Hugi and Betsy Hutcheson.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"I thot I'd be considerate and tell her that her hose were wrinkled—but she wasn't wearing hose."

Memories . . .

This Is Just The Beginning

By Kaula Svokos

What trials and tribulations the typical freshmen have at Westminster! Let's take, for example, the case of "Freda Freshman" and "Susie Suitemate," two rather naive young ladies who have a lot to learn yet. To put it mildly, they have been having a pretty hectic time these first three weeks of college.

It all began with the first day of Freshman Week, when Freda and Susie got off to a flying start by forgetting to set the alarm for 6:45 a.m. (Oh, well, they didn't want breakfast anyway—not much.)

Then a thing called the "freshran dink" was introduced to the girls. For some reason, they weren't too fond of this item. They noticed that people seemed to avoid the wearers of dinks, so they decided to do away with them. Freda "accidently lost" hers, but it didn't do any good. Wouldn't you know that some honest person would find and return it to her, so that ruined Freda's little scheme.

Like most girls, Freda and Susie love to talk. As a matter of fact they once became so involved in a conversation that they actually forgot about lunch. Ten minutes later, upon discovering this tragedy, Freda and Susie sneaked into the dining hall with much embarrassment, but too hungry to even care about it.

With the beginning of classes came more problems to the girls. The whereabouts of their classrooms still have them baffled. They run around the halls looking and acting confused, usually entering a roomful of men by mistake (?)

Then to top it all off, Freda and Susie must climb up to Hillside about "umpteen" times a day. This usually gives them pains in muscles they never even knew they had, and it makes them use "borrowed energy." The girls tried telling themselves, "It's level; it's level," but their legs just won't believe them.

These are just a few of the embarrassing and patience-trying experiences in the lives of two average (?) frosh girls. Does this remind you of your Freshmen Week?

Roving Reporter . . .

Quips And Quotes

By Bob Holmes

You men, women and freshmen who are reading this paper for the first time are witnessing another Holcad first. Your roving reporter is about to bring you famous quotes from on-the-spot interviews with the general reading public.

Our first quote is from Mary Lou Gung-ho, a teen-ager from New York. Says Mary Lou, "We need a man with lots of energy for the presidency, a man with the best interests of the people in mind. Let's nominate Elvis Presley for president." Well maybe that's not a bad idea, Mary Lou, remember Harry played the piano and he made the White House!

Our reporter was also on hand when baseball history was being made in Philadelphia. A Philly infielder had the dubious distinction of making four errors in one inning. After the game Alfred Counofski, Phil's shortstop, was quoted as saying, "Maybe I can't field but I can't hit either." Counofski was traded to St. Louis for Ken Boyer. Frankie Lane, general manager of the Cardinals, is said to be starting a youth movement and he insists that 25 year old Boyer is in the way. Counofski is 24½ so Lane has gained six months. This promises to be the best deal since Lane brought Bobby Del Grecco to St. Louis in returrn for Bill Virdon. Lane insisted that Virdon's eyes were going bad. They sure were.

Our reporter is now witnessing a reunion between a boy and girl who have not seen each other for many years. The boy is speaking. "Can it be true? Is this the same little girl I used to throw stones at? The same little girl whose pigtails I used to pull? The same little girl I . . . OUCH! Why'd you sock me?"

A lot of college boys claim that girls come to college only to get married but just the other day our reporter was on hand when a girl was saying "no" to a boy she was dating for the first time. The girl is speaking. "But' Darling . . . you're not talking sense! People don't get married the first day they've met! We . . . have to spend time together . . . get to know each other! Tomorrow we get married."

The other day our on-the-spot, roving, bird-nosed reporter was on the scene at an incident and for the first time in history failed to get a quote. Over by Galbreath hall the workmen were repairing a street. The steamroller was flattening out the asphalt and failed to see a small cat stroll into its path. Our boy tried to get a quote out of the driver but he just sat there with a long puss.

You think about that and I'll be back soon with more famous quotations. Write if you get work and hang by your thumbs!

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

As once again the Holcad goes to press, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome the new students and faculty and to say "hi" again to the returning students and staff. In case this is your first occasion at reading this column, it is strictly one of tidbits and opinions.

* * *

Having migration day the first football game of the season may become a tradition. The first game is always the hardest and the Titans will need lots of support despite what recent reports of certain Pittsburgh papers say. According to the Pittsburgh papers the Pitt Panthers were supposed to walk over the West Virginia Mountaineers. However, Pitt was fortunate that the Mountaineers had an erratic place kicker or they wouldn't have been winners by a 14-13 score

* * *

With the beginning of classes, most observers figured that the TUB's business would slacken off. However, Tubology 101 seems to be going full strength. Beware, those hours in the TUB may cost you necessary graduation hours. It has happened before and can happen again.

* * *

Have you seen the latest attraction on campus. In fact you are lucky to see her because usually there is a gang of twenty fellows hiding her pretty frame. What is she? Why she is the New Pin Pool Table. She certainly has captured the male population more than any girl. Meanwhile, back in the TUB, what has happened to Shuffle Bowling? It looks like it is out of date.

* * *

The freshman class has surely been good sports. They are wearing their dinks and look so collegiate. The innovations that have been used for ponytails are quite clever. One girl has cut a fair size hole in the back of her cap while others are wearing only half a dink. Also this year the freshman seem to take an interest in their dinks. In fact some of them who have mislaid dinks have put "lost" signs on the Old Main bulletin board. That is surely a switcheroo. As a whole the Frosh have taken hell week with lots of spirit except a few whose dignity was so great that they couldn't go along with the fun.

* * *

Comments from the east transept Balcony. "Have you noticed how regularly the faculty are attending chapel now that Dr. Orr is acting as Dean of Chapel." I sit in the west Balcony, I haven't noticed.

* * *

At this time, I think a word of thanks should be given to our large cheer leading squad of Harriet Wright and Sami McCartney. They will really have a huge job leading almost a thousand people in cheers.

News Headlines . . .

Ike Says: Farmers Have Future

Ike Calls For A "Full Share" For The Farmer In Prosperity—In a speech presented nationally on radio and television, from Peoria, Ill., President Eisenhower reports that his administration is opening up for farmers "brighter peacetime prospects than they have had for years."

Little Rock Crowd Applauds Stevenson's Integration Stand—Democratic presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson gained great support in this Dixie town as he pleaded with the people for a "law abiding" acceptance of the Supreme Court ban on race segregation in public schools.

Jordan Army Post Attacked By Israelis—In reprisal for a Jordan attack Sunday on an archaeological outing in Israel, Israeli troops early this week launched an attack on a Jordan army post.

Flossy Kills Nine Along Gulf Coast Before Blowing Out Over Georgia—Hurricane Flossy with 100 mile-an-hour winds swept into northwest Florida causing nine deaths and twelve persons missing. After damaging over two million dollars worth of oil drilling equipment located in the Gulf, she blew out over southern Georgia.

Suez Canal Dispute Expected To Cause Wrangle To Security Council—Two months after Egyptian President Nasser seized the 103 mile canal, the critical situation has been brought to the Security Council. With the Western Nations supporting Britain and Russia backing Egypt, the problem is likely to cause many hot words and trouble.

Babe Dietrickson Zaharias succumbs to cancer—The world's greatest woman athlete died Thursday in a Galveston hospital after her long fight with cancer.

TITANS SEEK FIRST VICTORY AT THIEL

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

As a starter for this column for the year, let's check the sport's scene and try to forecast just how the mighty Titan teams in the various sectors will stand up to competition and how they will compare to teams in the past. A survey such as this is possible because of the efforts of the coaches in getting their teams out early to start the long process of getting in shape.

Probably the first sport in everyone's mind is football. And the Titans should be first in everyone's league as well as in their mind. The Westminster gridders are in as good a shape as ever despite losing the use of Bill Freshwater and Jack Barnes for the first few games. Another thing in favor of a good season for the Titan gridiron men is that the two best games of the season will be played on our own home field.

Cross Country

Cross country is another sport on the immediate agenda. Although coach Dave Colton is looking forward to a mainly rebuilding year, the new additions to the team from the freshman class plus returning lettermen Jim Osuna, Acey Jackson and Pete Marshall should give the fans of this sport more than their share of thrills.

Basketball will be rolling around towards the end of November, with Coach Grover Washabaugh's boys looking better than ever. With four of last year's starting five back in the lineup, plus the addition of many freshmen, this team should provide Westminster college its best season in many years. Height is no longer a problem on the "Towering Titans" either, judging from the size of some of the newcomers.

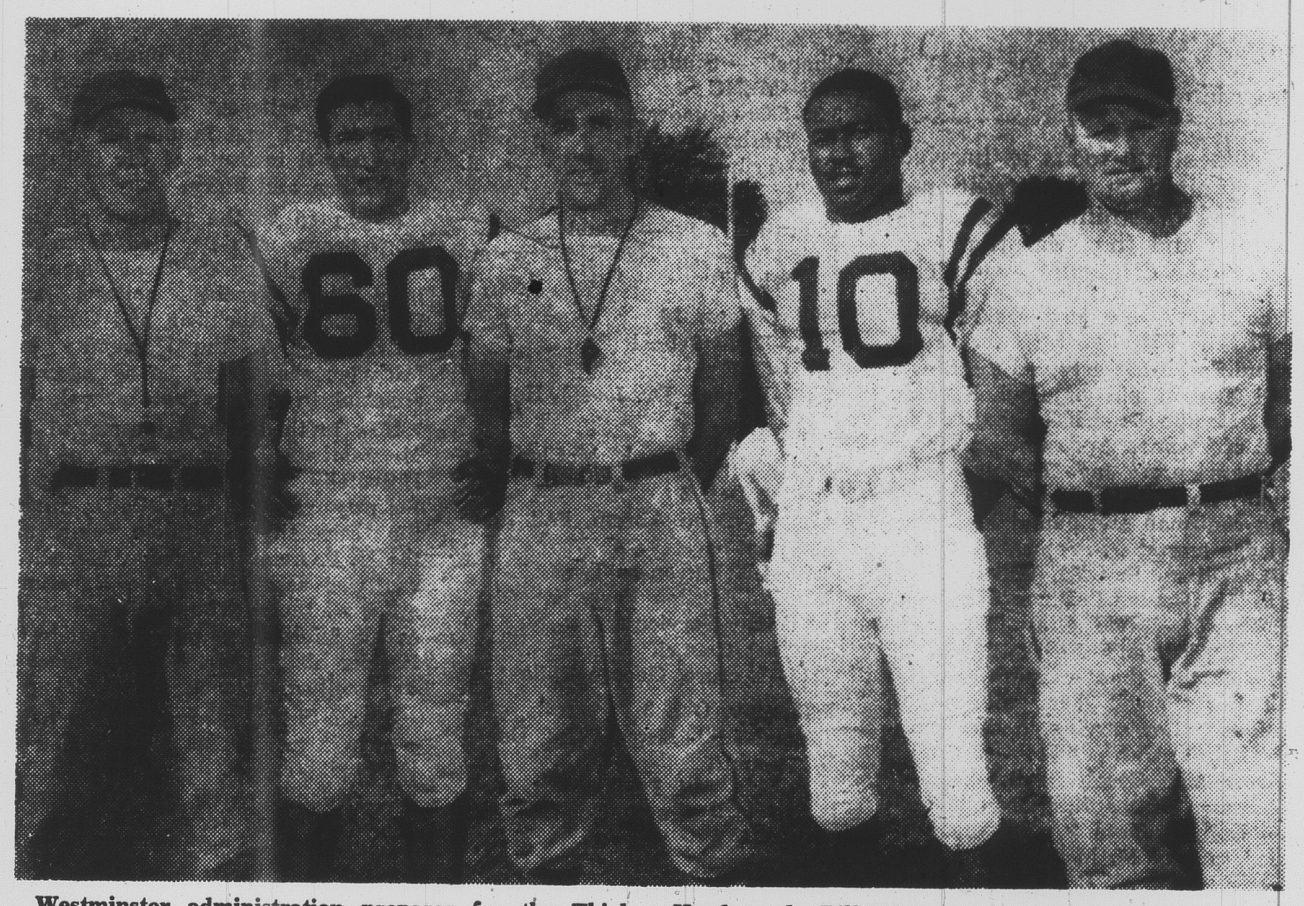

Titan cindermen should round out a winning season in the spring. Coach Burry's boys will be trying for their third straight Tri-State championship in a row. And with a little luck, they just might make it. Only five of last year's lettermen were lost through graduation. This left Westminster weak in only a few spots, spots which are more than filled by the second string men that are coming up.

Even baseball, which didn't do as well as it should have last year should shape up to a good season. Coach Buzz Ridl's boys have been out already, loosening up their arms, and looking over the prospects. With the addition of several longball hitters to the returning part of last year's team, we should see a good season if not the best in many years.

Well, tha's the sports picture as it will probably shape up this year. With a little luck and that extra push in the right places, Westmin- could see its best sports season ever. To give our boys that extra push, let's see our fans out at the meets, especially at Thiel tomorrow, on the annual migration day.

New Wilmington Cleaners
Now Featuring
A Complete
Selection Of RUST CRAFT
Greeting Cards

WELCOME BACK!
Remember—
For the Finest
Place To Meet
or Eat — It's
The Grille

Westminster administration prepares for the Thiel game Saturday. Left to right: Charles Ridl, assistant coach; Vince Cortese, co-captain; Harold Bury, Head coach; Bill White, co-captain; George Kamara, assistant coach

Adams To Head Tennis Contests

Dr. Norman Adams, Westminster tennis coach, announees plans for an all-college fall tennis tournament. There are three classes: men's singles, women's singles and a faculty competition—open to faculty men and women. Mixed doubles will not be scheduled unless there is sufficient demand. The athletic department promises trophies for student winners, and it is proposed that the three singles' finalists compete for a mythical all-college championship.

Those desiring to compete must sign up on the large bulletin board in Old Main, where the ladders will also be posted. Deadline for signing up is Tuesday, October 2, at 4:00 p.m.; the ladders will be posted on Wednesday; and the first round must be played off by Saturday, Oct. 6. Each subsequent round will automatically be closed following three days of playing weather and matches not played will be scratched.

Each player must provide a new set of balls, the set used in each match retained by the loser, and the winner taking the new set to the next match. All contests except the finals in each ladder are decided by the winner of the best two of three sets, and the finals the best three of five. Players are responsible for recording the results of their matches on the respective ladders posted in Old Main.

SATURDAY'S STARTERS

| Thiel | Position | Westminster |
|---|---|---|
| John Piai | R. E. | Vince Cortese |
| Bob Delett | R. T. | Joe Roman |
| Chuch Semroc | R. G. | Bill Morrell |
| Dick Mamajek | C. | Al King |
| Tom Green | L. G. | Jack Lewis |
| Jim Sisson | T. | Don Burdulis or Bernie Reilly |
| Bob Dean | E. | Jim Falk |
| Tom Detelich | QB | Harold Davis |
| Bob Hazel | HB | Jay DeBolt |
| Chuch Scofuri | HB | George James |
| Bob Weinzrtl or Don McCright | FB | Bill White |

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Sept. 29 | At Thiel |
| Oct. 6 | Grove City |
| Oct. 13 | At Bethany |
| Oct. 20 | Geneva (Homecoming) |
| Oct. 27 | Waynesburg |
| Nov. 3 | At Indiana S.T.C. |
| Nov. 19 | At SlipperyRock S.T.C. |
| Nov. 17 | Carnegie Tech |

We Repair and Clean All Makes of Watches.
J. R. MEEK
Your Local Jeweler

Titans Hope To Preserve Undefeated String At Thiel

Davis, White, Cortese, DeBolt Among Lettermen Returning for Fourth Season

By Bob Holmes

The powerful Titan eleven opens their season with Thiel at Greenville tomorrow. The Tomcats have already begun their 1956 campaign by edging St. Vincents, 14-12. This extra week of activity will be the only advantage Thiel will have over the Blue and White. There is a possibility that lettermen will fill every position for our Titans.

The only notable weaknesses are occasioned by injuries and lack of backfield depth. Senior center Bill Freshwater will miss the first two or three games because of a broken bone in his left hand. To compensate for this Coach Harold Burry has inserted junior Al King into Freshwater's slot. The center position is not at all new to King since he played it in high school and at Lafayette College before transferring to Westminster.

Robertucci Top Freshman

The injury to Jack Barnes's knee will sideline him for the season and this tragedy has depleted the backfield depth. Quarterback Harold Davis, fullback Bill White and halfback Jay DeBolt are well established, but that second halfback slot is up for grabs among three players. The leader for the position is Tookie James. Tokie saw a lot of action last year and he is our main hope for the current season.

Following closely behind James is Syl Miele, hard charging 180 pounder from Swissdale, who is also having leg trouble; the third member of the trio of would-be halfbacks is Angelo Robertucci, an untried freshman. Robertucci is very fast and hits hard for a 150 pounder but lacks experience. By the end of the season we may hear quite a bit about Robertucci.

The Thiel Tomcats have a series of games with Westminster which dates back to 1894. Since that year when the old Gold and Blue bit the dust 40-0, the Titans have won 25, dropped 14 and tied 7. The Blue and White has not lost to Thiel since 1950.

Last season Westminster opened their schedule at home by trimming Thiel 20 to 7. It was one of the best played games of the season and the Tomcats under Coach Joseph Di Febo will be trying to obtain that sweet taste of revenge tomorrow.

Saturday will be Westminster's annual Migration Day so let's all fill up those cars and go over to Greenville. I would like to see as many Westminster students in attendence as Thiel fans.

Football Tradition

For the freshmen who are not familiar or up to date on Westminster football tradition I will outline our record over the past few seasons.

In four years under coaches Harold E. Burry and Charles "Buzz" Ridl, the Titans have won 26 and lost only 3 with 1 tie. In the last three years they've won 20 and lost 1 with 1 tie. Since the team lost to Carnegie Tech 7-0 in 1954 the Titans have gone through 13 games without the taste of defeat. If it had not been for a tie played at Waynesburg in the rain and mud last year we would still have our undefeated, untied string intcat.

Some of our present players, such as Harold Davis, Bill White, Bill Freshwater, and Vince Cortese will go down as the greatest players in Westminster football history. Davis was named to the National Athletic Intercollegiate Assn. All-American team. White was the leading collegiate scorer in Pennsylvania with 72 points last year and averaged a little over 8 yards per carry.

Harrier Coach Plans Building For The Future

By Ed Spague

One of the new attractions in and around Titanland is Mr. David Coulton, director of the Westminster News Bureau. Dave comes to us after spending two successful years at Geneva as college news editor and coach of the Covies' cross-country squad, against whom we run on Oct. 9.

Before his arrival at Geneva, he was a writer for the Fairborn Ohio Daily Herald after serving two years in Uncle Sam's army. He is a graduate of Pennsylvania State university and is married, with two wonderful little girls making up the rest of the Coulton clan.

While at Westminster, besides being the news bureau director, Dave is to be coach of the Titans' cross-country team. In questioning him as to the success of the team, Dave believes the squad has a fine chance of coming out in the win column, even though this will be a rebuilding year, and that next year the Titans will be hard to beat. The team has eight dual meets and the Tri-state meet. The first is tomorrow at Pitt. The meet time is scheduled for 10:00 a.m. at Schenley park in Pittsburgh.

Season Begins Fall Intramural

Monday marked the opening of the Westminster Intramural football season. In the season opener Alpha Sigma Phi shut out Phi Kappa Tau 8 to 0. In a game played Tuesday Sigma Phi Epsilon trounced an inexperienced Russell hall team 32-6

Last year's winners Sigma Nu resumed activities Wednesday and defeated College hall 25-12. The Alpha Sigs and the Sig Eps played Thursday but results were received too late for publication.

3 New Majorettes Are Added to Squad

The majorette squad was selected on September 24. The new members are Connie Simpson and Sue Thomas, with Deanna Humphries serving as alternate. Joanne Gould will act as head majorette with Nancy Branscome and Marilyn Felton resuming their former positions.

PENN
NEW CASTLE, PA.
NOW SHOWING
FRIDAY thru MONDAY

FEATURE—Fri. 5:45 . . . 7:50 . . . 10:00
Sat. 4:35 . . . 6:25 . . . 8:15 . . : 10:10
STARTS TUESDAY—Ray Milland and M O'Hara in "LISBON" in Color

Anxious to serve you again . . .
. . . with the Finest in Food
GOLDEN DAWN
BROWN'S MARKET
If It's Golden Dawn – Its Good

SOCIAL WHIRL

Cwens Present "Underwater Whirl; Year's First Formal Dance

By Dianne Oursler

The kaleidoscope of school life comes into focus as harried frosh meet ferocious upperclassmen tonight at the traditional Tribunal. Saturday afternoon will find Westminsterites lending enthusiasm and spirit to the Titans and the migration day football game at Thiel college. The Cwens displayed eye-catching advertisements throughout the week as they invited fellows to whirl the gals at the "Underwater Whirl" on Saturday night.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Carol Gallwits, '56, Kay Barrett, '56 and Martha Getz, ex '59 were on campus this weekend.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Wayne Henderson represented Alpha Nu chapter at National Convention held at Carmel by the Sea, Calif., Sept. 6, 7 and 8. . . Thomas Porrett, ex '57 has returned to campus . . . Robert Leach, ex '58 is studying in Scotland this year . . . George Ferguson, Glen Flinchbaugh and John Howard visited campus last weekend.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Activation ceremonies were held for the following girls: Sandra Adamovsky, Sue Behrenberg, Sarah Duff, Clara Gillis, Ronnajean Hamilton, Mary Lou Heilbrun, Mary Ann Herina, Lael Holman, Deanna Humphreys and Cay Townsend . . . Joanne McKinnon was in charge of the picnic given for the new actives . . . Newly elected officers are: Elaine Shaw, warden; Carolyn Jones, rush chairman; Sue Behrenberg, assistant rush chairman; Clara Gillis, reporter; Penny Mader, sports and Ronnajean Hamilton, parliamentarian.

CHI OMEGA . . . Recently initiated members are: Nancy Branscome, Patricia Jenkins, Ann Metzler and Pat Mulloy . . . Renee Roberts Garrett, '55 and Peg Knohr, '55, visited the chapter while Arden Thompson, Patricia Jenkins and Helen Kirkpatrick were on the Thiel college campus . . . Barbara Powell, ex '59 has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Glenn Flinchbaugh . . . Sharon Howell, ex '59 has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of James McCreedy . . . Myrtle Shaheen visited the chapter at the University of Rhode Island . . . Mary Ann Rose is the newly elected treasurer.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Visiting the campus last weekend were Carole Jones, '56 and Jean McGeoch, '55 . . . Homecoming chairman will be Lynne Caddick . . . Esther McGeoch was recently named chaplain and Betty Oursler was elected assistant rush chairman . . . Phyllis Holmes will be in charge of the annual "Coffee Cozy."

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . The following men were activated this week: Neil Brown, Donald Hudson, Donald Scott and John Whitney.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Harriet Wright has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Jack Rickard . . . Nancy Zahn is the chairman of the Patroness tea Tuesday night.

SIGMA NU . . . Edward Saurman, John Schubert and Robert Wood were here last weekend.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Harriette Smith has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Paul Kreiling and Martha Diaz has accepted the pin of Thomas Augostine . . . New officers are: Jay DeBolt, Rush chairman; Weston Hyde, homecoming chairman and James McCreedy pledge master . . . James Alexander '54, William Fry '54, Robert Sherwin '54, Osmund LeVines '55, George Beam '56, David Gray '56, James Keefer '56 and Harry Obley '56 visited the chapter recently . . . Charles Powell has returned to campus after serving in the Army.

THETA UPSILON . . . Phyllis Town and Carol Paulie are co-chairmen of the first open house . . . Dolly LaCava, ex '58 was married to Guy M. McCrumb on September 22 . . . Dorothy Bush has been elected assistant treasurer . . . Barbara Symns, ex '59, recently was engaged to James McKenzie of Michigan.

Engagements

DOWNEY-McCLOSKEY

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Downey of Pittsburgh have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Donald O. McCloskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. McCloskey of Pittsburgh.

Miss Downey is a senior majoring in Elementary Education and a member of Theta Upsilon. Her fiance attends Lehigh university where he is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

MacGREGOR-JOHNSON

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. MacGregor of Pittsburgh announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to James D. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Birmingham, Ala.

Barbara is a senior Chemistry major and a member of Theta Upsilon sorority. Mr. Johnson is now serving in the United States Air Force at Syracuse university.

MORGAN-JAEGER

Announcement was recently made by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Morgan of Pittsburgh of the engagement of their daughter, Donna, to David Jaeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jaeger of Central Valley, N. Y.

Donna is a junior in the Business Education department. A senior in Business Administration, David is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

SHAW-THOMAS

Mr. and Mrs. S. Sydney Shaw of Pittsburgh, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elaine Claire, to William Gough Thomas, son of Mrs. Mary M. Thomas, also of Pittsburgh.

Miss Shaw is a senior Music major and a member of Beta Sigma Omicron and Mu Phi Epsilon.

Mr. Thomas is a senior in the Lehigh university school of Engineering and a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Sept. 28
Chapel — Student Council
2:30—MENC
3:30-5:00—Quadrangle party for Freshmen girls
8:30—Tribunal

Saturday, Sept. 29
Migration Day — Thiel
8:30-11:30—CWENS "Underwater Whirl"

Sunday, Sept. 30
9:45—Bible School
6:15—CYF
7:45—Vespers, Dr. Joseph Hopkins

Monday, Oct. 1
Chapel—Dr. Frank McClanahan

Tuesday, Oct. 2
Chapel—Dave Abram, Fall Retreat
7:00—SK Patroness Tea
Mu Phi Epsilon Party
Christian Service
Student Council
8:15—Lecture, George Bailey

Wednesday, Oct. 3
Chapel—Phi Kappa Tau Devotional
3:30—Mu Phi Epsilon
3:30-5:00—Sorority Open Houses
5:00—WAA
7:00—YWCA
8:15—Pi Sigma Pi
Epsilon Phi

Thursday, Oct. 4
Chapel—Dr. George W. Cobb
7:00—IRC
Alpha Psi Omega
7:00-8:30—Sorority Open Houses

Friday, Oct. 5
Chapel—Theta Upsilon Sorority
8:30-11:30—Junior Class All College Social

Music Educators Adopt New Constitution

Student Chapter 180 of the Music Educators Conference held their first meeting September 26, in the Conservatory of Music. The president, Darl Hollen, presided over the meeting in which the chapter formally adopted their new constitution.

Faculty

partment of Economics and Business. He is a graduate of Bard college and has his master's degree from Teacher's college, New York City. In addition to his business experience, he has taught in Florida Southern college, University of Rhode Island, and in the Richmond Professional institute of the College of William and Mary.

Appointed to the position of biology professor is Dr. Cleo Hummel. She received degrees from Bloomsburg State Teachers college, the University of Michigan and Cornell university. At the University of Michigan she served as a research assistant in the graduate school.

New in the history department is Mr. James A. Duran, graduate of the University of Oregon. Mr. Duran recently received his Ph.D. from the University of Illinois. While in the U. S. Army in Europe, Mr. Duran was assigned to the Eurasian office of the assistant chief of staff as an intelligence research analyst. Besides history, Mr. Duran is teaching political science and sociology.

Mr. E. Seaton Carney is our new professor in physics and chemistry. He holds an A.B. degree from Kalamazoo college, an A.M. degree from Clark university, and a Ph.D. degree from Brown university. Since 1954 he has been chairman of the department of chemistry and physics at Shorter college, Rome, Georgia. Previous to this Mr. Carney served as professor of chemistry at Seton Hall university in New Jersey.

Assistant professor in the conservatory this year will be Mr. Charles W. Forlines, teaching organ and serving as college organist. He holds an A.B. degree from Western Maryland college, a B.M. from the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago, and a master of sacred music degree from Union Theological seminary, New York. Mr. Raymond L. Ocock, a graduate of Westminster is serving as new organ instructor.

Mr. William A. Scheuerle, instructor in the department of English, holds a B.A. degree from Muskingum college and a M.A. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. James L. Smith is teaching math and also serving as house director at Russell hall. He is a graduate of the University of Louisville and has his master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Joseph Henderson and Mr. Joseph H. Wiehr are teaching in the education department. Mr. Wiehr, now working towards his doctorate in German, is also an instructor in the language department.

Thirty-Four Students Become Choir Members

The following freshmen have been selected as members of the Westminster college choir: Peggy Henderson, Carole Donges, Frances Beach, Marilyn Moyer, Judy Kaufman, Billie Jane Gamble, Susan Sheriff, Peggy Hawthorne, Letha Foss, Brenda Dorsch, Claire Porcello, Mary Ann Hudkins, Joan Meanor, Jane Barnes, Ruth Ann Falk, Harriette Illar, Joanne Brewer, Carolyn Brown, Helen Stevenson and Ruth Walker.

Others include Irene Fleming, Ken Carr, Cathaleen Falinner, Robert Barfaa, James Latimer, Bruce Kennedy, Barry Smith, Bill James, Don Lodge, Reid Clifford, Howard Jones, Vern Frame, Jerry King, Don Christensen, Bob Hull, John Mellinger, Bill Ward, Don Thomas and Bryan Kile.

Hunting Season Will Soon Be Here!

Walkers Have It . . .

- Resident and Non-Resident Licenses.
- Complete Selection of Guns and Equipment.
- Huntng Clothes

J. A. Walker Hdwre

Across from the Bank

For Complete SHOE REPAIR SERVICE at Reasonable Rates.

Fusco Shoe Shop

Bank Building

WESTMINSTER SWEAT SHIRTS

$2.50 each

Fred Williamson

BAKED GOODS

Made To Order For YOUR Party

WILMINGTON BAKERY

Artists of the Oven

RENT A NEW RADIO

Choose Any Color or Model

Only $1.25 to $2.50 per week

Rental may be applied to purchasing set.

R.C.A. Victor – General Electric

—SPECIAL—

Used TV Sets – $29.50 to 49.50

Phonograph Needles – Free Installation

Radio Tubes Tested Free

SEWALL'S

"I feel like a Coke. Do you?"

Of course. Most everyone does—often. Because a few moments over ice-cold Coca-Cola refresh you so.

It's sparkling with natural goodness, pure and wholesome—and naturally friendly to your figure.

Feel like having a Coke?

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY

COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 2 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, October 5, 1956

Forry Limits Wed. Classes To Half Hour

Three honorary degrees will be awarded at the annual Fall Convocation, Wednesday, Oct. 10 at 10:30 a.m., in the United Presbyterian church.

Classes will be shortened to provide extended time for the ceremonies, announces Dr. John Forry, dean of the college. Time changes are first period 8-8:30; second period, 8:35-9:05; third period, 9:10-9:40 and fourth period, 9:45-10:15.

Those receiving honorary degrees will be Miss D. Kuth Thompson, the Rev. D. Rayburn Campbell and the Rev. Robert A. Foster.

Miss Thompson, who has served 36 years as chairman of the chemistry department at Sterling college, Kansas, will receive a Doctor of Pedagogy degree. Doctor of Divinity degrees will be conferred on both Rev. Campbell and Rev. Foster.

Rev. Campbell, a 1924 Westminster graduate, is superintendent of the United Presbyterian Home for Children, Mars and Rev. Foster, who was graduated from Westminster in 1920, has more than 30 years service as a missionary.

Miss Thompson was graduated from Sterling College in 1918 and received her master's degree from the University of Kansas in 1920. A report of the National Academy of Sciences this year disclosed Sterling ranked 41st in the nation in the number of graduates who continued their education for Ph.D. degrees in chemistry.

Rev. Campbell attended the Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary after his graduation from Westminster. Rev. Campbell has been superintendent of the United Presbyterian home since 1947. Previously, he held pastorates in U.P. churches at Darlington, Universal, Prospect and Mt. Chestnut.

Rev. Foster, who now resides at 152 Waugh avenue, New Wilmington, hopes to serve another term in the mission field. He returned from the Christian Training institute, United Presbyterian mission, Sialkot, West Punjab, Pakistan. He served as principal of the Mission High school.

Rev. Foster attended the Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological seminary and received an M. A. degree in education from the University of Pittsburgh in 1930.

Nine students will be presented by Dr. John H. Forry, Academic dean of the college. These honor students maintained a minimum 2.75 average out of a possible 3.0 the last academic year.

Poetry Reading Festival Slated for Nov. 13

Dates for the annual Poetry Reading Festival have been announed by Mr. Charles Cook, Jr., chairman of the event. Interested students must sign up in the English office before Saturday, Nov. 10.

Preliminary readings will be held in the English office and adajacent rooms November 12 at 4:00 p.m. Final readings will take place in Ferguson lounge at a reception November 15 at 7:30 p.m.

Readings should range from five to seven minutes and aid in selection of a topic and poems will be given by the members of the English Department. Members of the festival committee are Mr. Cook, Dr. Cobb, Miss Williams, Mr. Burbick and Miss Betsy Hutcheson.

Each year the English department, with the assistance of Scroll, the English honorary, sponsors the Poetry Reading Festival to create an interest in poetry and to make the reading of poetry more enjoyable. Books of poetry especially inscribed will be awarded to the winners of the contest.

Let's Not Rush Into This

Sorority and fraternity rushing is now in full swing. Open houses at the sorority houses have been a busy time for the girls. The men, too, have begun their campaign to get to know the freshmen better. Here Sandra Keeley, left, president of Pan-Hellenic council, is showing Connie Boyson the rushing rules and regulations. Bob Coleman, left, seems to be getting information plus a look at a paddle.

Little Theater Presents Accent on Drama

By Jacque Walker

Gather around all you theater fans and lend an ear to some behind-the-scenes information that could mean a chance of a lifetime opportunity for all that hidden talent about campus.

"When shall we three meet again . . . " may become a by-word around these parts before too long if the enthusiasm felt in and around the Little Theater takes a firm hold and establishes with our student body an interest in unique and outstanding dramatic entertainment.

Now, then, are you even a little curious as to the purpose of all this chatter? Well it is no secret. Following in the tradition of such outstanding productions as "Twelfth Night," "Two Gentlemen of Verona," "Othello" and "Hamlet," the Little Theatre now presents one of the greatest of them—"Macbeth."

The play itself takes place in the gloomy and mysterious Glamis Castle steeped in ancient Scottish lore and intrigue. Within these feudal walls is depicted the drama of ambition gone wild in the heart and mind of a man spurred on by his ruthless wife. Lust for power poisons their thoughts, paving the way for the ultimate destruction of their souls.

Here is the portrayal of tragedy that encompasses every phase of human desire. Men matching wits and swords spell out a story of doom climaxed by their own devastation.

"Macbeth" is truly a man's play, dealing with men's passions and presenting a challenge to those who have wished to try their hand at real dramatic acting.

An opportunity to be a part of this classic theatrical production is being offered to you in the very near future. Outstanding character roles are available to anyone interested regardless of his previous theatrical training.

As mentioned, "Macbeth" is essentially a man's play. This fact alone should hold a basic appeal to those stout-hearted members of Westminster's male population. The title role alone (not to mention an abundance of other cast possibilities that are pertinent to the successful portrayal of the bloodthirsty plot) offers our men-about-campi the chance to prove their qualities of skill, keen wit, stamina, adventurous spirit, resourcefulness, etc., etc., etc.

The important point is that the directors of the Little Theatre are interested not only in a good audience but also in a good cast.

As the old saying goes, "Opportunity knocks but once." So—will we see you at try-outs?

Statistics Reveal Enrollment Jump

Final enrollment statistics for the 1956-57 college year report the registration of 1085 students at Westminster this semester. This is an increase of 60 students, or almost six per cent, over last year's second semester total of 1025 students.

This year the freshman class of 331 students is the largest at Westminster with notable increases in the junior and senior classes also.

A break-down of the complete enrollment is as follows:

155 seniors, 151 juniors, 227 sophomores and 331 freshmen. This also includes 12 special students, 182 graduates and 27 in the field of nursing. This year the men outnumber the women 557 to 528.

Now Hear This

All students who wish to try out for the tennis team are asked to report to Dr. Adams, this year's coach, Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 4:45 in Old Main room 201. Plans will be made for fall and winter practice and the spring season.

Tri-Beta reception for freshmen biology majors will begin at 4:15, October 15 in the small chapter room. Arrangements are being made by Dorothy Kramer.

Rho Gamma will hold a reception for freshmen and transfer business majors on Tuesday, Oct 9. at the home of Robert F. Galbreath.

Sophomores Hold Sock Hop In Old 77

The sophomore class is holding a Sock Hop tomorrow night from 8:30 to 11:30 in Old 77. If your shoes pinch, try the Sock Hop. It costs a couple only 50 cents and the lone wolf 35 cents.

Reservations Due Monday For Annual Fall Retreat

Robert L. Kelley Jr., Guest Speaker, To Give Four Messages To Group

Deadline for making reservations for the annual Fall Retreat to be held Oct. 13, 14 and 15 at Camp Lutherlyn in Prospect, Pa. is Monday, Oct. 8 in the Dean of Women's office.

The fee for the weekend is $3.50 which includes six meals starting with dinner Friday night and ending with the noon meal Sunday. Special rates have been arranged for students who will be attending only part o fthe retreat.

Guest speaker this year is the Rev. Robert L. Kelley Jr., the assistant professor of homiletics and languages at Pitt-Xenia seminary. Topics of his messages are "Applied Christianity", Friday; "Ambassadors for Christ", Saturday morning; "The City With Foundations", Saturday evening and "Key to Life", Sunday morning.

Arrangements for transportation for all students are being made by David Hare. When making reservations, state the time when you intend to leave so that transportation may be provided.

For those who are driving, directions are as follows :travel south on Route 19 to Route 422. Turn east onto Route 422 and travel approximately 10 miles to Prospect, Pa. (just beyond Garden Market). Watch for a sign indicating the right turn to Lutherlyn and the camp entrance is approximately two miles back from this point.

Women must obtain permission from home to attend the retreat before leaving campus.

Radio Workshop Plans Programs

WCRW, Westminster college Radio Workshop, begins the fall season with three scheduled programs over nearby radio stations, WPIC in Sharon and WKST in New Castle.

All shows are under the direction of Professor Donald L. Barbe of the speech and drama department. The first in a series of variety shows which include music, discussions, drama, etc. began over WPIC on October 16 with Bill Barbe's production of "Tell-Tale Heart." Announcer for the show was Bill Bovard while the script was written by George Killa. Technical director was Henry Aurandt.

Two new series are scheduled for WKST with the first being a children's hour entitled "Let's Make Believe" which will be broadcast every Saturday morning at 10:15 a.m.

The first of this series is "Jack and the Bean Stalk" produced by Bill Bovard. The second program over WKST will be a variety show starting on October 10 every Wednesday evening at 9:15 p.m.

Scrawl Material Directions Set

Manuscripts for Scrawl will be accepted in the English office, Old Main 215, until Wednesday, October 25, 1956, at 4:00 p.m. announces Jeanne Douthett, editor of Scrawl.

Directions for preparing Scrawl manuscripts are as follows:

1. Type two copies (one may be carbon).
2. Use only one side of regulation size paper (8 1/2 x 11).
3. Use double spacing with margins set to allow 56 characters to a line.
4. A separate title page which will include the writer's name, the title, the author, class (freshman, etc.), source of material (personal experience, etc.), and the approximate number of words should accompany the unsigned manuscript.

Three prizes will be offered including a general prize for the best writing in Scrawl a prize for the best non-fiction, and one for the best poetry.

Holcad Meeting Today At Four

All reporters and those interested in reporting for the Holcad are requested to attend an important meeting this afternoon at 4 p.m. in Old Main room 210. There are still openings for proofreaders and copy readers and positions will be filled at this meeting.

Juniors Sponsor Dance Tonight

Juniors will keep in swing with the football season by sponsoring a Titan Kickoff in Old 77 tonight from 8:30 until 11:30. All loyal Titan supporters may purchase tickets for 35 cents per person or 50 cents a couple at the door. The dress for this record dance is casual.

Those who wish to save their energy for the game may try their luck at the card and game tables. Entertainment, in form of a pep rally, will be led by cheerleaders Harriet Wright and Sami McCartney.

Mimzie Fox is in charge of decorations and Marlene Wasser will take care of the refreshments. Other committees include Dave Reed and Cal McCracken working on the physical arrangements and Ralph Benson on publicity.

Burbick Announces "MacBeth" Tryout Dates

Try-outs for "Macbeth" will be held Monday, Oct. 8 and Tuesday Oct. 9 from 7:00 to 9:00 in room 109 of Old Main, Mr. William Burbick has announced.

In order to assist the candidate in trying out, lines form the play that will be used for the major characters have been posted on the bulletin board outside the speech office. As soon as the play books arrive, they will be put on reserve in the library.

The cast calls for about six women and thirteen men, plus extras. All those interested are urged to attend try-outs. For further information keep checking the speech bulletin board.

Little Theatre Plans Four Productions

Another year of theatrical enjoyment is well underway as the Little Theatre begins its 27th season of dramatic entertainment. A four-star program will compose the 1956-57 major productions, Mr. William G. Burbick announced today.

Humor and lightheartedness will start the ball rolling on Oct. 29, 30, 31 and Nov. 2 and 3 with "January Thaw." Then tragedy will hold prominence with the presentation of Shakespeare's "Macbeth," a tale of unbridled ambition.

From Mar. 6 thru 10 comedy will step into the spotlight with the production of "Goodby, My Fancy." Finally, May 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 will bring to the attention of theatergoers "The Heiress," the drama of a woman's revenge, which will be presented arena style at College hall.

Movie Theater To Reopen Soon

Have you noticed how lonely it has been around New Wilmington these days? Haven't you missed Marilyn Monroe and Jeff Chandler and scores of other movie kings and queens?

There were several people who realized that before long the students would be wondering what to do on that Saturday night date without a car to get to New Castle and others who wished to get away from the books for just a little while.

Two enterprising young gentlemen on campus (Andy McKelvey and Dick Goewey) have done much investigating into the situation. They feel that the students should have an open movie house in the vicinity.

They also feel that the students should be able to see the better pictures which have come out of Hollywood in the last few years. It is not always easy to get the best but these boys have arranged for some of the latest pictures and some of the old favorites to be shown here.

We all want to see the good four star pictures. This, however, depends on how well the movies are supported after the theater is opened. Good pictures cot money and if there is little support of the project, there will not be enough money to obtain the pictures you want to see.

Perhaps you don't realize now how much you would want to go to the movies. There is not enough time to find out how you feel in a movieless town.

Now is the time to support the project. This is the time to find out to show the two students who are running the theater that you want movies in New Wilmington and that you want the best available.

There is a possibility that the theater will be opened Tuesday Oct. 9. providing that certain circumstances are cleared up by that time.

Announcements will be made as soon as the opening date can be arranged.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, October 5 1956 No. 2

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR ..... Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Nawww, he wasn't th' hero of th' game—he got his pants ripped off on th' last play."

To Those Who Have the Bug . . .

Try Color

By Bruce Bowen

Caurus winds and Jack Frost will soon be biting the air and bringing the campus foliage to its height of flush. Now is the time to load your camera with color film for the warm hues of the season.

Choose a day when the sky is deep blue and use it as a backdrop for the grey stone buildings and autumn leaves. About two hours before or after noon the sun is best situated to bring out the texture of the masonry with shadows.

For those early risers might I suggest some unusual and beautiful pictures in the rising fog. Several objects—buildings, trees, lamp post or roommate placed at varying distances give a wonderful 3-D effect. Exposure is tricky however, so take precaution.

With the proper amount of push, pull, begging and bribing one may obtain permission to climb Old Main tower for a maplike view of the campus and some wonderful shots. e sure that your lens is properly shaded from the glaring sun rays.

Finally, a word of advice to those yet confined to the monochromatic world of black and white. Film the yellow leaves with the sunlight coming from behind the tree, lighting up the foliage. Make sure that your camera is in a shadow of the tree and use a yellow filter if you have one.

Good luck and may you produce prizewinning snapshots for your memory album.

Europe . . .

Facinating Places

By Nancy Zabel

This past summer it was my job to be an assistant leader for twenty-two seventeen year old scouts who were touring seven European countries.

Women have always been kidded about taking excess luggage on either short or long trips. However, with our one suitcase and one sleeping bag, we were packed for seven weeks of touring. I challenge any man to pack with such effiency. With our friends waving goodbye on the New York dock, we set sail for Europe on the beautiful Queen Elizabeth.

We found many fascinating places in all of the seven countries we visited. Of course, Paris was the highlight of France. After touring France for a week, we headed south to the Italian Rivera and Rome. These places were even more breathtaking than the pictures in the travelogues.

Of all Europe, Switzerland was the most gorgeous spot. As our train traveled through the mountains, we noticed the little chalets and grazing lands nestled in the valleys and surrounding mountains.

As an extra side trip, two of us went to Heidelberg, Germany. Although we didn't speak German, we were only escorted from one train for having third class tickets and trying to ride on a first class train. This was a miracle when you consider that we had six trains to take! In Heidelberg we saw the famous castle and other interesting and famous places.

After a short stay in Belgium where we visited a private summer home, our tour took us to Holland. Here the big treat was a boat trip through the Amsterdam canals. Crossing the channel, we once again heard our native language for the first time in many weeks. I guess I felt more at home because I stayed with family friends who lived about thirty mile soutside of London.

The two things that stand out in my mind we are trying to talk sign language and eating foreign food.

My only regret is that I didn't have enough time to see Europe, but don't worry, someday I will go back, even if I have to make a raft and look for a good strong western wind to blow me across.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Sideline side-lights—Pulling out of Stewart field last Saturday afternoon after the game, our car passed a little boy pedaling down the street on his bike and shouting at the top of his lungs "Yea, Thiel. Westminster Stinks." Looking closer, we all noticed that he had a blue and white Titan streamer fluttering from his hip pocket. He must have liked us enough to have taken a souvenir.

* * *

Comments from tribunal—"It was the best tribunal in past years and showed that Hell Week can be fun when the upperclassmen use their heads and the freshman take the tasks in stride."

* * *

After last week's comment that the faculty are attending chapel more regularly than last year. One faculty member commented, "Well some of us are still following the habit of attending that we previously had." I surrender.

* * *

Speaking of chapel, it was very interesting to meet the new and old members of the college infirmary. By the end of the year, most of you will have had occasion to meet them personally.

* * *

A football weekend always brings back many of the old grads. Included in last weekend's array was Jerry Neff, capain of the 1953-54 basketball team; Ralph Veights, captain of the undefeated 1953 football team; Don Brown, captain of the 1954 football team; Walt "Ernie" Sylvester (did you dig that crazy hat), captain of the 1955 football team; and Tony Stillson, captain of the 1955-1956 basketball team.

* * *

Here is a fact that you should really remember: it did not rain in New Wilmington for one solid week.

* * *

Have you ever considered taking a job with the government which would require duty in a foreign country and a starting salary of $4,800. If you have, you will be interested in taking the foreign service exam in December. To create college interest a special agent of the State Department will be on Westminster's campus October 16th to tell about the job and qualifications. Here is the opportunity of a lifetime if you can pass the exam. And you can take my word for it, "The exam booklet is where they hide the $64,000 questions." I took it last June and it's a challenge and a half.

News Headlines . . .

Ike A Dodger Fan

Dodgers Win First of Series—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles were among some 34,500 spectators at Ebbets field on Wednesday to see the Brooklyn Dodgers take the first game of the World series from the Yankees with a score of 6-3.

Adali on Swing Through Pennsylvania—Adali Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, challenged Eisenhower's statements in speeches at Scranton and Pittsburgh. Stevenson called upon his hearers to vote for Democratic candidates to fill all government offices, as well as for himself.

Russia Accepts U.S. Invitation—USSR will send official observers to view at first hand the American political campaign and election. The observers will come here as part of the country's cultural exchange program with all expenses to be paid by U.S. government. The invitation was made with the desire to show democracy in action.

Strange Doings at Yalta—Khrushchev's meeting with Tito may be aimed at winning the Yugoslav dictator to a new union of the Soviet Union and its satellites. This presents an urgent problem to Eisenhower who must decide soon whether or not Tito will get continued aid from U.S.

Nixon Predicts GOP Will Carry Pennsylvania—Veep Nixon says that the GOP cannot afford to lose Pennsylvania in the coming election. He feels certain that the state will re-elect Duff as senator and will be a strong drawing-card in the November decision.

Adali Travels in Woodrow's Car—Adali Stevenson is traveling through the Keystone state in Woodrow Wilson's train car used in the campaign of 1912. Says Adali: "I am happy to take up where he left off."

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

Another subway series in New York. This world series business is getting to be old stuff to the Dodgers and the Yankees. At least it makes my first place predictions of last year come true. Now I'm going to make my series predictions.

I feel that the Yanks will win in six games. The pitching of Ford, Kusks, Sturdivant, Byrne, Larson and Turley will not give them much of an edge over Newcombe, Maglie, Erskine and Labine, but the hitting of Mantle and Berra in the closed-in right field confines at both Yankee stadium and Ebbets field should prove the difference.

Bench Makes Difference

Stengel can go to his bench when ever he has to and pull in a player that is almost as good as a regular. For example, he has Joe Collins, famed for breaking up close games, Enos Slaughter, the old pro, or Jerry Coleman. The Dodgers on the other hand are very dangerous in the clutch. They win when they have to and they proved it last week. This series is going to be a great one but I think the Yanks will win. What do you think?

The Titans are like the Dodgers. They come through when it counts. They looked very stiff in the first half but came through with three touchdowns in the first six minutes of the third quarter to win 27-21. A lot of Titan fans were unimpressed by the Blue and White showing in the first half but we must take into consideration the fact that this was our first game; plus the fact that Thiel was really up for the game. Every team we play this season will be "up" for us just as every team is up for Notre Dame on the national level. Grove City is a potential S.M.U. and they will be "up" to knock us off, but they just haven't got the material that S.M.U. had.

Titans Lose Lewis

The Titans will be missing another key lineman this week. Jack Lewis injured his shoulder on the first play of the Thiel game and will sit out the Grove City encounter. Bill Freshwater is expected to return to action next week at Bethany.

Dick Kadis, an end on the Geneva football team, was seriously injured in the Geneva-Waynesburg game last week. Kadis, a sophomore, collasped on the bus coming home from the game. His condition is listed as critical.

Bill White had a good start in defense of his state scoring crown. He tallied 12 points Saturday but teammate Harold Davis started a friendly and profitable competition by scoring 12 points also. Both men were prominent in the Titan triumph.

Walkers Have It . . .

Giftware for the home

- PYREX—oven and refrigerator ware by Corning
- KROMEX—Copper and Aluminum kitchenware
- RHODNEY KENT—Hammered Aluminum Giftware

J. A. Walker Hdwre

Across from the Bank

Footlong Hotdogs

30¢

good anytime . . . even breakfast

It's Foot Longs at the The Grille

Harriers Drop Opener To Pitt

Pitt Finishes Four In Dead Heat For Win

The season opened disasterously for the Titan harriers at Pitt last Saturday. The Panthers finished their first seven men before Pete Marshall crossed the finish line for Westminster . Acy Jackson placed ninth as the Blue and White went down 50 to 15.

This was the first meet for the runners under new coach Dave Colton, coach of Geneva's Tri-State championship team last year. He replaced Dr. Wayne Christy as coach.

Jim Moore, Vince Timon, Thornton Smith and John Christof finished in a dead heat for first place. Their time was 24 minutes and 33 seconds. Tom Jessop was fifth, Wendy Hartford finished six and Dale Fauser was seventh for Pitt. Marshall's time was 26 minutes and 21 seconds. He was followed by Acy Jackson, Jim McCreedy, Jerry Paul and Jim Osuna. Osuna is the only senior on the squad and was elected captain. The Titans face a very tough Geneva College squad at home Tuesday. Geneva will be led by Tri-State champion Homer Weaver.

The schedule: Geneva, Oct. 9; Oberlin, Oct. 13; at Grove City, Oct. 18; at West Virginia, Oct. 23; at Carnegie Tech, Oct. 26; at Slippery Rock, Oct. 29; Tri-State meet at Slippery Rock, Nov. 2.

STAR

HAROLD DAVIS

Tournament Matches Posted In Old Main

The all college tennis tournament is now taking place. Drawings are posted on the bulletin board in Old Main, together with the regulations to be followed.

The first round of the tournament should be completed by tomorrow and questions about procedure should be referred to Dr. Adams. It is requested that tournament matches receive preference on the courts.

the best in bottoms . . .

. . . for your shoes

Fusco Shoe Shop

Bank Building

Reliability at

Reasonable Rates

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Oct. 6 | Grove City |
| Oct. 13 | At Bethany |
| Oct. 20 | Geneva (Homecoming) |
| Oct. 27 | Waynesburg |
| Nov. 3 | At Indiana S.T.C. |
| Nov. 19 | At SlipperyRock S.T.C. |
| Nov. 17 | Carnegie Tech |

Sigma Nu Tops Sig Eps To Take Lead

The intramural football season finished its first two weeks of play and an interesting battle for the fraternity cup is shaping up between Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

In a game played Wednesday Sigma Nu edged the Sig Eps in a thriller 32-28. Two touchdowns in the last five minutes of play put the game on ice for Sigma Nu, last year's champions. The Sig Eps scored and converted with 50 seconds remaining but Sigma Nu held on to win.

In other games played since last Wednesday Sigma Nu defeated Russell hall 41-12, College hall beat Phi Kappa Tau 19-7, Sigma Phi Epsilon edged Alpha Sigma Phi 13-7 and College hall upset Alpha Sigma Phi 18-16.

Next week's schedule: Monday—College hall vs. Russell hall, Tuesday—Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Phi Kappa Tau, Wednesday—Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Russell hall, Thursday—Sigma Nu vs. Phi Kappa Tau, and Friday—College hall vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The Standings

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| Sigma Nu | 3 | 0 |
| Sigma Phi Epsilon | 2 | 1 |
| College hall | 2 | 1 |
| Alpha Sigma Phi | 1 | 2 |
| Russell hall | 0 | 2 |
| Phi Kappa Tau | 0 | 2 |

Lewis Injured; Titans Prepare For Grove City

The Titans will take the field for the first time at home tomorrow when they meet Grove City. The Wolverines, led by coach Jack Behringer have not had much football luck in the last two years but look for a spirited fight Saturday.

Last year's Grove City team won 2 and lost 5 and were romped by the Titans 34-0 in the Homecoming game at Grove City. But since the series between the two teams began Grove City has won 28, Westminster 26 and there have been 7 ties.

Few Changes in Lineup

Westminster should line up with Vince Cortese and Bill Moss as ends, Bernie Reilly and Joe Roman as tackles, Bill Morell and Al King as guards, Glenn Smith at center, Davis, White, DeBolt and James in the backfield. Al King will probably move to guard to replace the injured Jack Lewis. Glenn Smith will move into Al's center position.

Bill Freshwater was sorely missed at center for the Titans last week but he will be back in action at Bethany next week.

Grove City lost to Washington and Jefferson last week 21-12 and since W&J is listed as a weak team the Crimson are in for a tough time tomorrow.

farm fresh Apple Cider

65¢ gal.

remember . . . there's more for your money at—

BROWN'S MARKET

Titans Claw Tomcats 27--21 White, Davis Pace Attack

Westminster Rallies In Third Quarter To Down Upset Minded Thiel Eleven

By Al Wheeler

Three third period touchdowns were what it took for the Westminster football Titans to stop Thiel college Tomcats on their home field last Saturday.

Quarterback Harold Davis and fullback "Whizzer" White each scored twice for the winners. Hopkinson and Scafuri were top men for the Thiel gridders. Thiel's 27-21 defeat was their first of the season after beating St. Vincent's a week earlier.

Davis Scores

At the end of the first quarter Thiel was leading with a score of 8-0. Center Al King's pass over Davis' head, coupled with a thirty eight yard drive by the opposition tallied up a first quarter score that promised to be heard to beat. However, in the second period, Westminster's Harold Davis capped a 36 yard drive for six points, and Vince Cortese added his conversion for a halftime score of 8-7 in favor of the Tomcats.

STAR

BILL WHITE

The third quarter still had its tale to tell, however. At one point during the third sector, the Blue and White scored three markers in six minutes to roll the home team's score to 27. Two of these scores were 19 and 32 yard runs by White, while the other was a 12 yard drive by Davis.

Thiel got a third period score on Bob Hopkinson's two-yard drive and Scafuri went five for one in the final quarter for the Tomcats, but it wasn't enough.

Face Grovers Tomorrow

Tomorrow, the Westminster Titans face their second competitor of the 1956 season when they play the Grove City Wolverines here at Westminster's memorial field. The last time Grove City beat the Titans was in 1949 whe nthe Wolverines took a 33-20 decision. Since then, Westminster has won by 19-0, 27-13, 14-12, 20-14, 48-6 and 34-0 scores.

In tomorrow's game, the home boys will be favored. Grove City has its fourth new coach in four seasons. The latest edition, Jack Behringer, has a small squad of about 25 players.

The Titans, undefeated last year, also host Geneva in a Homecoming battle Oct. 20; Waynesburk, Oct. 27, and Carnegie Tech, Nov. 17.

"I feel like a Coke. Do you?"

Of course. Most everyone does—often. Because a few moments over ice-cold Coca-Cola refresh you so.

It's sparkling with natural goodness, pure and wholesome—and naturally friendly to your figure.

Feel like having a Coke?

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY

COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.

21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

SOCIAL WHIRL

Weekend Entertainment Includes Two Record Dances And Home Game

By Dianne Oursler

"Man is a social animal" and who knows it better than the Greeks and the frosh who have just completed the first week of formal rush. As they daily wish for the memory of Mr. George Bailey, these groups remember that it was once said, "A name is a kind of face whereby one is known!" Entertainment this weekend offers tired students a chance to dance right through Friday and Saturday as the sophomore and junior classes sponsor informal record dances on those nights.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Ann Eichner was pledged yesterday . . . Social privileges have been extended to Joanne Dewar, Janet McConahey and Marilyn Stetson . . Nancy Pierce was elected song leader for the year . . Jean Frarey was appointed editor . . Dorothy Wallace and Jill Clarkson were in charge of the open houses this week . . Ronda Vogan, '56 was on campus.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . Robert McFarland, Dick Newcomer, Dean English, George Ferguson and John Howard were on campus this past weekend . . Ken Wessel is in charge of homecoming preparations . . Robert Campbell is in charge of this year's glee club . . Robert Gardner and Ralph Benson visited the chapter at the University of Pennsylvania.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . Pledging ceremonies were held for the following girls: Sheila Evans, Betsy Harre and Madolyn Watterson . . Dorothy Spicker Pierson, '56 and Lahni Stainer, ex '59 were on campus last weekend . . Elaine Shaw visited Lehigh recently and Mary Lou Heilburn was at the Youngstown chapter . . Carolyn Jones had charge of the first open houses.

CHI OMEGA . . Wynetta Schmidt was chairman of the open houses this week . . Betty Houze and Nancy Worster were pledged yesterday . . Jean Deighan visited the chapter at Thiel . . Carol Roberts attended the National Convention at White Sulfur Springs . . Barbara Caldwell was on campus recently.

KAPPA DELTA . . Lynne Caddick visited the Naval academy at Annapolis last weekend . . Pledge and second degree ceremonies were held for Donna Morgan and Julie Holstein, respectively . . Visiting the chapter were Judy Kirkpatrick, ex '59 and Virginia Guthrie, ex '57.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . Richard Grove, national field representative for Phi Kappa Tau, was on campus this week.

SIGMA KAPPA . . Betty Jean Casebar will serve as sophomore representative to Executive council . . Ann McDowell has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Robert Altman. Ann recently visited the chapter at the University of Rhode Island.

SIGMA NU . . Glenn Smith has been named social chairman for this year . . Janet Loepp, student nurse at Shady Side Hospital, has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of Edwin Watson.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . Activation ceremonies were held Sunday for Charles Garrett, Richard Gray and James Holiday . . Robert Holmes is in charge of the Freshman Reception to be held this Tuesday . . Kenneth Zahrobsky, '56 visited the chapter last weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . Activation ceremonies were held Monday for Nancy Zabel, Marilyn Felton and Mrs. Ann Schafer . . Carol Downey visited Lehigh university last weekend.

Engagements

GREER-CLUNE

The engagement of Virginia Lee Greer to Patrick Francis Clune has been announced by her father, James L. Greer, of Sharon. Virginia is also the daughter of the late Mrs. Greer. She is a sophomore.

Mr. Clune is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clune Sr. also of Sharon. He is a freshman at Ohio College of Chiropody in Cleveland, after one year of pre-med at Mount Union College.

Rho Gamma Initiates Six Girls At Dinner

Rho Gamma, business honorary held an initiation and dinner on Sept. 27, at the home of Miss Elsie Hileman.

The girls initiated were Nedora Campbell, Ann Foster, Lois Reed, Alice Haley, Elaine Cook and Sandy Adamovsky. Miss Elsie Hileman, Miss Margaret Gamble and Mr. Robert Galbreath instructors in the business department, are advisors for the group.

Education Majors Attend Meadville Convention

The convention of the Association for Student Teaching will be held at Allegheny college in Meadville, Friday and Saturday Oct. 5 and 6. Westminster will be represented by Miss Beulah Campbell and fourteen elementary education majors of the senior class. They will participate in group meetings and discussions and will hear Florence Stratemeyer from Columbia university speak on "The Role of the Co-operative Teacher in the Student Teaching Program."

Beta Beta Beta Plans Pre-Med Conference

Beta Beta Beta is planning a pre-medical-dental conference tour of Hahnemann college and hospital in Philadelphia for Saturday, Oct. 27.

The main purpose of the tour is to offer an opportunity for pre-medical and pre-dental majors to have a discussion at an informal symposium and a tour of the college.

Hahnemann and Jefferson colleges of Philadelphia, Temple university Schools of Dentistry and Medicine, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine and Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania will also be represented.

Any pre-medical or pre-dental major interested in attending the tour should contact Dr. Bijjani, who has offered to drive the students to Philadelphia, Mrs. Frey or Bob Altman, president of Beta Beta Beta.

COLLEGE RECEIVES BEQUEST

A bequest of over $5,000 from the Estate of Miss Flora H. Lindley who lived in Washington, Pa. was recently received by the college. The money has been delegated to be used to help pay for two faculty houses erected during the summer.

Stationary and School Supplies
All Kinds
Fred Williamson

DONUTS
for your "coffee breaks"
- Cream Filled
- Glazed
- Cinnamon
- Chocolate Covered

WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Campus Calendar

Friday, Oct. 5
Chapel — Theta Upsilon sorority
8:30-11:30—junior class all college social
Saturday, Oct. 6
2:00 Football Grove City here
8:30-11:30 sophomore Sock Hop
Sunday, Oct. 7
9:45 Bible Class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers, Mr. Paul Musser
Monday, Oct. 8
Chapel—Dr. Woods
7:00 sorority and fraternity meetings
Tuesday, Oct. 9
Chapel—Dr. Norman Adams
3:30-5:00 Sigma Phi Epsilon reception for freshmen
5:00 Iota Delta
7:00 Mu Phi party
7:00 Student Council
7:00 CGA
Rho Gamma party
Beta Beta Beta
Wednesday, Oct. 10
10:30 Fall Convocation
3:30-5:00 sorority open houses
Thursday, Oct. 11
Chapel—Karux
7:00-8:30 sorority open houses
8:15 Kappa Delta Pi
Friday, Oct. 12
Chapel—Dr. Norman Adams
3:30-5:00 Pi Sigma Pi sophomore tea
Retreat

W.C.T.U. Sponsors Oratorical Contest

A state wide intercollegiate oratorical contest is being sponsored by the Pennsylvania W.C.T.U. October 16. The general topic of the speeches is "Beverage Alcohol and Its Attendant Evils." Winning speeches will receive awards of $50, $35 and $25.

Students desiring to qualify for this competition should contact Dr. Wayne Christy. A local preliminary contest to be held the week of October 8 will be judged by Mr. Melvin Moorhouse.

Rushing Starts; 135 Girls Sign Up

Sandra Keeley, president of the Pan Hellenic council, has announced that 135 girls have signed up for sororoity rushing this year. The first open house was held on Wednesday, Oct. 3 at 3:30 p.m. Pledging will be held on Friday, Nov. 2.

Degitz Announces Phi Alpha Trip Agenda

New York City and United Nations is the destination once again of the annual Phi Alpha Theta trip, announces Eugene Degitz president of the history honorary.

Students making the trip will leave campus Wednesday, Nov. 17. Open to all Westminster students, the trip will cost approximately $25 including hotel room, transportation and tours. Highlights of the tour will include attending General Assembly meetings, various committee meetings and a tour throughout the United Nations.

Pi Sigma Pi Elects Officers And Advisor

Chosen to serve as officers for Pi Sigma Pi for the coming year are: Perry Kirklin, president; Ann Price, vice-president; Barbie Farrow, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Arthur Jensen has been elected advisor for the group this year.

The group is beginning to make plans for their annual campaign to increase the book volume in the library, with hopes to eventually obtain a Phi Beta Kappa chapter on the campus.

C. G. A. Elects Hudson, President

Elections were held this week at the Collegiate Guild of the Air meeting in the radio studio. Donald Hudson was elected president, Chris Thompson, vice-president and Sandra Danno is the secretary-treasurer. Elaine Shaw was appointed musical director for the organization.

Mr. Donald Barbe, assisted by George Killa, Gerald Von Broock, and Rick Aurandt, demonstrated to the members some basic hand-signals and techniques essential for smooth broadcasting.

The next meeting of C. G. A. will be held Tuesday, October 16 in the radio studio at 7:00.

Galbreath Hall Work Progresses

Galbreath hall, the new dormitory for women, is progressing rapidly after several delays in the hopes that it wil be completed by the fall of 1957.

Construction costs are exceeding those first estimated. An additional $300,000 will have to be raised beyond the $803,000 federal loan and the money already contributed for the project by alumni and friends of the college.

The total cost of the building completely furnished including a central heating plant for the campus and centralized food service for all women will run close to $1,200,000.

Completion of the new building will give the college accommodations of 62 more women and 46 more men. Jeffers hall will revert to the use of men. Dining rooms in Browne and Ferguson halls will be converted into sorority rooms and additional dormitory rooms.

Galbreath hall is the first of three buildings planned for a new quadrangle opening off the east side of the present quadrangle. The Walton-Mayne Student Union building will stand across the new quadrangle from Galbreath hall and the new Fine Arts Building will be located at the east end of the new campus area.

Soloist Selected For Homecoming Concert

The Homecoming Concert will be held on October 21 at 3:00 p.m. in the chapel. The major work will be "The Requiem" by Gabniel Faure. Soloist for the occasion will be Mrs. Alice Long Walker, soprano soloist at the Shady Side Presbyterian church in Pittsburgh. She formerly taught voice at Westminster college. The tenor solo will be sung by John Huyck of the Conservatory faculty. Mr. Raymond Ocock will be the organist.

Cay Townsend Wins Scroll Writing Award

Dr. George Bleasby announced that Cay Townsend, a sophomore elementary major from Pittsburgh, has been chosen as the recipient of the Freshman Writing Award. The winner is selected by the English staff for outstanding writing in freshman English.

The award is in the form of a book presented by Scroll, the English honorary on campus. Cay is a member of Beta Sigma Omicron sorority.

Poly Sci Classes Schedule Speakers

State and minicipal government students will be hearing several speakers from the community throughout this semester. They include Mr. Frank W. Hill, assembly man of New Castle, Robert Jameson, New Sastle's city solicitor and New Castle's attorney, Mr. Thomas Mansell, a Westminster graduate. Also speaking are Youngstown's political editor, Mr. Clingan Jackson and Mr. Fillmore Campbell and Mr. Merle Hildebrand, former chairmen of the republican and democratic parties of Lawrence county.

Individual research projects concerning New Wilmington and New Castle governments will be worked out this semester by the class. David Livingston is taking the New Wilmington Planning commission as his project. Ralph Miles is working under the guidance of New Castle's Anthony DeCarbo on the office of mayor. Russell Stump is working on the city council and William Hrindack on the Lawrence county courts.

Phi Alpha Theta Sets N.Y.C. As Destination

New York City and the United Nations is the destination once again of the annual Phi Alpha Theta trip, announces Gene Degitz, president of the history honorary.

Students making the trip will leave campus Wednesday, Nov. 14 and return Nov. 17. Final arrangements for the trip, which will consist of visiting United Nations' sessions and guided tours of the U. N. building, are being made by members of the history honorary.

Any student interested in the tour should watch the Holcad for further announcements.

PENN
NEW CASTLE, PA.
Friday and Saturday
BORN TO ADVENTURE
Two daring people with a bizarre scheme... in a danger filled paradise!

Lisbon
NATURAMA
IN BEAUTIFUL TRUCOLOR
Ray MILLAND · Maureen O'HARA
Claude RAINS · Yvonne FURNEAUX
FEATURE TIMES
Fri. 5:40; 7:50; 9:55
Starts Sunday
"IT CONQUORED THE WORLD"
also
"SHE CREATURE"

Cleaning and Shirt Laundry
IMPRINTED CHRISTMAS CARDS
25 for $1.50 and up order early
KAY'S CLEANERS
Corner—Chestnut and Jackson—Phone 4531
Western Union Agency

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 3 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, October 12, 1956

WAA Conclave At Grove City

Four officers of WAA are attending the Pennsylvania Division of the Athletic Federation of College Women at Grove City college Oct. 12, 13 and 14. Voting delegates are Bette Wagner, president of WAA; and Sarah Hadad, vice-president. Sherry Franklin, treasurer; Dinah Black, secretary; and other members of the organization will also represent Westminster this weekend.

Miss Mary Jean Mulvaney, executive secretary of the National Athletic Federation for College Women, will be the main speaker of the conference. She will speak to the group on topics concerning the organization and operation of women's athletics associations.

Other features of the conference will be a fashion show sponsored by the local WAA, swimming symposium and a trip to the college outing club.

Forry, Edwards At Conference

Dr. John Forry, dean of the college, and Dr. John Edwards, dean of men, attended the Seventh Annual Pennsylvania Deans' conference this past week at Dickinson college in Carlisle.

The two faculty members were among 55 college officers from all over the state who attended the conference. Although academic deans have been a part of the conference, they are making plans to branch into their own organization.

Topics of discussion were advisor and counselling program, personnel problems involved in the "threatened" onrush of huge numbers of students, what does a dean do, freshman orientation, communication with students and student groups and student government.

Poetry Reading Festival Registration Continues

Preliminary readings for the Poetry Reading Festival will be held in the English office and adjacent rooms Nov. 12 at 4:00 p.m.

Students are asked to sign up now and select a subject and reading material. Readings should range from five to seven minutes and aid in selection will be given by members of the English department.

Now Hear This

Freshman biology majors are invited to the Tri-Beta reception Monday, Oct. 15 at 4:15 in the small chapter room.

Have you written your story or poem for Scrawl yet? You should sit down at that typewriter tonight because all manuscripts must be in the English office by Wednesday, Oct. 25 at 4 p.m.

Prizes will be awarded for the best non-fiction, best poetry and the best general writing. Better get your contributions in soon.

All who are interested in playing in a college orchestra are invited to come to room 17, Conservatory of Music on Wednesday, Oct. 17 at 4:00. Please bring instruments.

Cwens are taking orders for Homecoming mums. The cost is $1.00. Sign up in your dormitory or contact any member of Cwens.

Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity invites all faculty members to a tea on Tuesday Oct. 16, at 3:30. The tea will be at the Alpha Sig house at 129 Waugh Ave.

The Unnamed Man

Apologies are in order to Jay DeBolt who was one of the foursome in last week's rushing picture. Jay is president of Inter Fraternity council and was pictured at the right. Sorry, Jay.

Dance Co-Chairmen

Dance of the Year co-chairmen Jack Mansfield, left, and Dave Marsico, center and spectator Ralph Benson are pointing out the attractions of the Homecoming dance displayed outside Old Main. ictured on the poster is Jimmy Sedlar whose band will play from 9 to 1 next Friday night at the Scottish Rite Cathedral in New Castle. Boys, the tickets are now on sale for $5.00.

Rodent Revue

By Thesby L. Mouse

Hello there human people! Gee things are bubbling in the Little Theater these days with all the freshman actors running around. More than once I yanked my broken tail from under a heel just in the jag of time. I guess it's not their fault, 'cause they don't know about me. I'm the diminutive, devilish mouse who lives in the dressing room and writes rousing reviews of all the big plays.

I'll spring a trap if this first show isn't a tickler. Straight from the whisker, it will really make you have a bird. I got so excited the other night when the barn burned down (you'll hear all about this in the play) that I dropped my peanut butter cracker down the exit sign. Some of the story's so funny that the characters have to laugh.

That director lady, Miss - ah - ah - Iceberg or Forepaw or something-like-that sure knows her P's and Cue's when it comes to steering the stars to sanctioned success. Some critics stretch their praise like Kate Smith's girdle, but this Mus musculus is a real honest mammal.

Oh fudge with this review. Just be sure to get your tickets reserved in time so I'll see you there when the curtain goes up, (that's just an expression; it really goes sideways).

The show doesn't cost you students a cent; just an activity book ticket but please buy a COKE during intermission. Masquers-Alpha Psi Omega is selling them 'cause they sure need the money. Besides, I get two pieces of cheese for saying this."

Pi Delta Epsilon Holds Initiation And Dinner For Five Members

Initiation was held Tuesday evening for five new members of Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism fraternity. New members are Miss Elizabeth Keen, professor of journalism; Mr. Harold Burns, publisher of the Globe; Jeanne Douthett, editor of Scrawl; Ann Price, former feature editor of theHolcad and Albert Cannon, co-editor of Argo.

Following initiation and business meeting, a dinner was held for the new members at Criswell's, on the New Castle road. The group is making plans for the chapel program to be held Oct. 24.

MacCracken Visits Campus Next Week

Dr. Charles Edwards announces that on Oct. 16 John G. MacCracken, representative of the U. S. Department of State, Washington, D. C., will spend the day on Westminster's campus, one of the two hundred colleges selected for this tour.

Mr. MacCracken has served as Vice consul in Hong Kong and has been staff assistant to the director general of the foreign service. He will be here in connection with this year's foreign service examination to be given Dec. 8.

Juniors and seniors in the following fields are encouraged to take the tests: economics, business administration, accounting, history, political science and languages. Students who would like an interview with Mr. MacCracken will sign with Dr. Edwards, who also has available information on foreign service.

Committees Named For 'January Thaw'

Miss Charlotte Forsberg announced the crews and committees for "January Thaw" which opens Oct. 29. On the costume committee are Margy Steffler, Diane Bachellor, and Janet Moncrief. Nancy Wampler, Janice Zima and Pat Jenkins are in charge of properties and Frank Wilgocki will take care of music and sound effects.

On the make-up crew are Judy Spratt, Nancy Sloan, Sanny Mahood, Eleanor Paddock and Sue Behrenberg. In charge of the lighting for this first Little Theatre production will be Stewart Eddy, Bill James and Sally English. Donald Hudson will act as house manager and Joyce Guy is prompter.

Homecoming Weekend Will Feature Dances And Football

Jimmy Sedlar's Orchestra Plays At Scottish Rite Cathedral For Homecoming Friday

Jimmy Sedlar and his orchestra will be featured Oct. 19 at the annual Dance of the Year, the first event of the Homecoming Weekend.

The dance will be held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral in New Castle from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. All women attending the dance have 2 a.m. permissions, announces Mrs. Martha Whitehill, dean of women.

Tickets will go on sale starting Tuesday, Oct. 16 in the TUB at $5.00 per couple and they will be available at the door on the night of the dance.

As the highlight of the dance, a queen will be crowned during intermission. All men will vote for one of seven candidates put up by the six sororities and Quadrangle, Friday, Oct. 19.

Homecoming game between the Titans and Geneva is scheduled for Saturday at 2 p.m. in our stadium. At this time, awards will be presented to the winning dormitory, sorority and fraternity houses in the decorating competition.

Featured at the Homecoming supper Saturday at 6 p.m. will be the presentation of Alumni accomplishment awards to two Westminster alumni who have been outstanding in their professions. Also on the program are an informal report from President Will Orr and entertainment by student musicians. Next Tuesday, Oct. 16, is the latest date for reservations to be sent in. The price per plate is $1.50.

Climaxing two days of fun will be an Alumni-Student party at 8 p.m. in Old 77. This party, sponsored jointly by the Alumni and Student Councils, will include a student talent show, dancing and refreshments.

Comprising the schedule for Sunday, Oct. 21, are two special services. One o fthese will be a sacred concert by the college choir under the direction of Clarence Martin. The concert will be given at 3 p.m. in the Wallace Memorial chapel. Closing the Autumn weekend will be a special Vesper service at 7:45, also in the chapel. Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, Westminster's president during 1932 and 1946, will be guest speaker for the service.

Spiritual Week Features Yeates

Dr. Chester T. R. Yates, D.D., pastor of the Westminster United Presbyterian church, Des Moines, Ia., will conduct Spiritual Emphasis week at Westmnster this year.

The annual observance at the college will start with the vesper service, Sunday, Nov. 4, and continue until Communion meditation, Friday, Nov. 9.

The Westminster U.P. church was President Will W. Orr's congregation before he assumed the presidency of the college in 1949. It is the largest U. P. church in the country with a membership of about 3400.

Dr. Yates has served several pastorates includng the Third U.P. Church, New Castle.

He will conduct both morning and evening services, and will be available for student conferences in the afternoons.

Educators Attend Day Convention

The Mid-Western convention in education is being held today, Oct. 12, at the Cathedral in New Castle. Teachers, members of the administration in public schools and students from many areas are attending the day-long program.

At the morning session a representative from the U. S. Office of Education is scheduled to speak.

A speaker will be presented at each of the various luncheons that will be held throughout New Castle for the education departments.

In the afternoon group meetings are to be held. Also a display of material for curriculum and child literature from every major publishing company is planned.

Faculty members in the education department and most senior and junior elementary education majors are in attendance.

Fall Retreat Draws 108 To Lutherlyn

One hundred and eight students will be attending the annual Fall Retreat this weekend at Camp Lutherlyn in Prospect, Pa. This includes full time and part time retreaters.

An active program has been planned for the three days of the retreat. Rev. Robert L. Kelley, Jr., will be the guest speaker and topics of his mesasges are "Applied Christianity," "Ambassadors for Christ," "The City With Foundations" and "Key to Life."

Cheering Squad Adds Four Girls As Members

New faces have appeared on the cheering squad. They are Dixie Barbe, freshman from New Wilmington; Carol Paulie, junior from Oil City; Phyllis Towne, sophomore from Pittsburgh and Betty Jean Rowland, sophomore from New Brunswick, N. J.

The two other members of the squad are captain Harriet Wright, junior from Pittsburgh and Sami McCartney, junior from Oil City.

Moorhouse Announces Speech Convention

Melvin P. Moorhouse, instructor in the speech department, is attending the annual convention of the Pennsylvania speech association at Bethlehem, Pa.

Mr. Moorhouse, a member of the executive committee, attended sessions of a pre-convention meeting yesterday. The actual convention will hold its meetings Friday and Saturday.

Meeting concurrently with the Speech association convention is the Debating association of Pennsylvania colleges of which Mr. Moorhouse is the president. Saturday morning he will preside over the annual workshop, which is the highlight of the meeting. This year's debate topic will be the subject under discussion at the workshop, "Economic Aid to Foreign Countries." Two experts on the subject will be present and will lead panel discussion and question-and-answer periods.

Midwest Convention Meets In New Castle

Professor Donald O. Cameron, chairman of the music department, and three students are attending the Midwest district convention of the Pennsylvania music educators association today in New Castle.

The students, who are members of the newly-formed student Chapter No. 180 of the Music educators' National conference, include Barbara Rankin, Audrey Valentine and Elizabeth Whittington.

After lunch at the Castleton hotel the members will attend clinics on elementary education and on high school music education.

Give a Cheer For the Titans

Westminster is very fortunate in having a fine Cheerleading squad. The new members are working hard with the two former cheerleaders to make the squad really tops.

They are spending many hours perfecting the cheers and the complicated actions which go with them.

These girls are the leaders. They announce the cheers and start them for everyone to follow. But many are not following. The spectators are expected to cheer the Titans on to victory.

However, not many seem to know the cheers and even if they do they are not showing that they know them.

Although the Titans may be winning by a wide margin, that does not mean we should let the Cheerleaders do all the work. Give those girls your support.

Nose for News? Try Holcad Reporting

The Holcad still needs news reporters. It is difficult to gather the news of the campus and give adequate coverage of the activities without a number of reporters.

We want to serve the college and give the students and faculty the news. The Holcad is your newspaper and the eye of the campus. You would be doing yourself a service as well as your fellow students.

No experience is necessary. If you have the interest and the willingness to work, you are eligible. Please leave your name with Miss Keen in the English office.

Congratulations Honor Students

We would like to congratulate those students who were honored at Convocation this week. Few people on campus realize who have worked hard to obtain such outstanding grades.

To those honored students we say "Well done" and hope that you might be an inspiration to all of us.

There were a number of students who came very close to the high average last year and perhaps next year will be your time. Let's see more students honored at future Convocations.

The Holcad

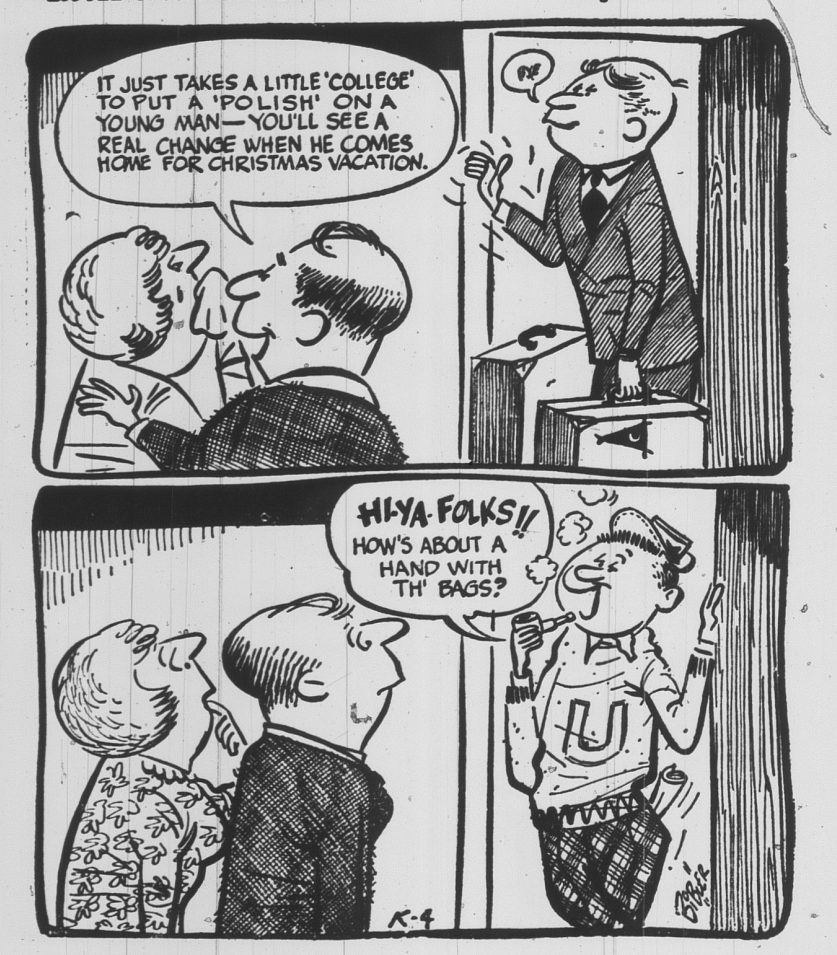

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, October 12, 1956 No. 3

EDITOR — Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR — Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR — Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR — Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS — Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR — Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER — Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER — David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR — Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR — Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

Girls . . .

Take to the Hill

By Carol Kibler

A common complaint on Westminster's campus comes from the girls who inhabit those dormitories known as Hillside and Jeffers. It seems that nature placed a small mountain on the southern end of our campus and fate placed two women's dormitories on top of it. Many students who are living on the hill for the first time have already begun to complain, but little do they know of what is to come.

On a warm autumn afternoon, a walk up the hill can be quite pleasant, but gang, wait until it snows! A brave soul starting out for an eight o'clock class on a snowy morning needs special equipment. Skis have proved unsuccessful because of the inability of most students to stop when they reach the bottom. Snow shoes have proved fairly helpful, but the problem arises as to what to do with them upon reaching Old Main. Actually the thing that will help more than anything else is plenty of padding in strategic places.

Have you noticed that the girls who live on the hill talk much louder than those who live on campus? They, of course, receive their volume from the greater lung capacity developed by their daily climb.

One good thing the climb has done is to gain recognition for Westminster college, or haven't you heard the rumor about the group of Westminster alumnae who are climbing Mount Everest? If they don't make it, it will not be due to a lack of mountain climbing practice.

New Profs Name . . .

Favorite Authors

By Robert Melder

English instructors as a rule are not very hesitant when selecting books and authors for reading. However, the four new members of the English department were quite reluctant to name a particular author and book that they enjoyed most but with good reason. The four instructors agreed that they had read many books and naming a specific book and author was very difficult. Each of the instructors did, however, name some of their favorites.

Miss Elizabeth Keen, an instructor in English and journalism, chose Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary as one of the books that she most enjoyed reading. She also remarked that some of Ernest Hemingway's earlier books were among her favorites. In addition to reading works by some of the great authors, Miss Keen has interviewed several great writers as George Bernard Shaw, H. G. Wells and Sean O'Casey. Miss Keen, a writer herself, has contributed articles to several of the leading magazines throughout the country.

Mr. William Scheuerle went back a hundred years to find his author and book. He chose Sarah Orne Jewett's The Country of the Pointed Firs, which he thought was a very relaxing book for the reader. Mr. Scheuerle is an instructor in English and humanities.

Miss Mary Ellen Williams picked Herman Melville's Moby Dick as her favorite book. John Milton's Paradise Lost was also high on her list for enjoyable reading. The blond instructor did some writing herself while in college. In fact, she won a literary contest with an essay on Herman Melville's Mardi. Miss Williams is also an instructor in English and humanities.

Dr. George W. Cobb chose a popular modern novel, The Egyptian, by Mika T. Waltari as one of his favorite books. He is also an avid reader of Shakespeare's plays. Inbetween Shakespeare, Dr. Cobb finds time to write poems and sonnets, some of which have been published. Dr. Cobb is an instructor in English.

Determining a favorite author and book seems to be more difficult than one may think. Students who feel bewildered when asked this question, should not become worried. It is usually a good sign that a great amount of reading has been done.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Everyone in town is plugging for the Wilmington theater and Dick and Andy. There was a good showing for "The Man Who Knew Too Much". That was quite a thriller and the movies which have been scheduled plan to be just as entertaining. If you missed them at home, here is your golden opportunity to see them, and if you have seen them, they are all outstanding shows and worth seeing a second time.

* * *

Last Saturday's football game at the college cost at least one innocent person a fine at New Castle Rotary Monday. Mr. Ross Ellis was fined because Westminster ran up such a high score against Grove City. His only defense was, "We didn't have a fourth team to put in."

—Stolen from the Globe

* * *

Hey gang, hows about going to Bethany and rooting the Titans on? It should be a rough game, the Bisons won easily over Thiel last Saturday. By the way, did you realize that only one college in the nation scored more than we did? And that was Oklahoma who beat Kansas State college by a 66-0 score

* * *

The annual tennis tournament is underway and Dean John Forry seems to be taking all his opponents fairly easily. We probably have the only tennis-playing dean of any Western Pennsylvania college.

* * *

The World series fever has gotten more people unerved. A KDKA announcer really fluffed the description of the Yankee batting power as he was describing their 9-0 seventh game win—"and the Yankees unloosened their sugging power." Another radio fluff by an announcer was—"The temperature is 60 and the humility is 75 per cent." I bet he suffered some humidity over that one.

* * *

We had no sooner started to walk all over Grove City when they brought out a sign reading "We may be small but we pay our own way." They must have anticipated the upcoming staughter.

That sign made my blood boil. Why shouldn't athletic scholarships be given? Students who have literary talents can win college educations by writing an essay on "What America Means To Me;" students who are musicians can earn scholarships by singing an aria or playing a concerto; and students who are artistic can win scholarships by painting a poster. Why shouldn't high school athletes be awarded the chance to pay for their college education through their athletic skills? It is just as much a talent as those mentioned above.

So Grove City why don't you spend a little more time making a football team and less on writing slogans. Oh, you may be able to win $10,000 if you can finish a sentence in twenty-five words or less for one of the soap companies.

News Headlines . . .

Yanks Win Series

Yank's Larson Pitches Perfect Game—Right-hander Don Larson pitched the first no-hit game in World series history and the first perfect game in baseball since 1922. Ironically, the losing pitcher was Sal Maglie, who had just two weeks before pitched a no-hitter against the Phillies.

Eisenhower Greeted by 150,000 at Pittsburgh—President Eisenhower flew into Pittsburgh Tuesday to present a nationally telecasted speech. Slamming Adlai's double talk on defense, he also charged the Democrats with political irresponsibility. Mrs. Eisenhower was unable to make the trip due to a severe cold.

Brink's Robbers Get Life Terms—The eight men accused of the $1,219,000 robbery at Brink's Inc. nearly seven years ago, received life sentences. They will be elibible for parole in 15 years. So far, only $90,000 has been recovered.

Adlai Stomps on West Coast—Hoping to pick up West Coast votes, Stevenson spoke in Seattle, Wash. Washington is a very crucial state since Republican bolter Wayne Morse is fighting a tough fight against Ike's former Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay for the U. S. Senate. Adlai hit hard at the Republican waste of natural resources under McKay and Eisenhower.

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

Now that the World Series is over, the lowly individual on Westminster's campus can settle back, relax, and slowly bring himself back to the local sports scene. Local sports have many attractions that the national scene lacks. For instance, to view our spectator sports you don't have to cut classes, and you don't have to sit in a small crowded room with your eyes glued to a television set, batting away flies and humans alike in order to get a better view.

On the local scene, football still remains king. With their 60-0 win over the Grove City eleven last week, our local Titans rack up another record, this time the highest score ever on Memorial Field. To the uninitiated this score may seem pretty impossible. However, the Grove City eleven was badly outmatched and outclassed in the struggle. Rumor has gotten around that they have even gone so far as to drop us from their 1957 itinerary.

Another Bracket

With the list of colleges that are dropping us growing steadily larger, it would seem that a complete revision of the team's schedule is a necessity. Some students have been overheard saying that we need to move up into another bracket, and play some tougher teams. With all this hue and cry being raised lately there are bound to be a few facts overlooked, however.

First of all, the Titans of 1956 are of a very different sort from the football Titans of a few years ago. The team's record speaks for that. Westminster now has the longest winning streak in its entire history, starting with the second game of 1954, and continuing to the present. We have the fortunate advantage of a combination of outstanding players and outstanding coach. Some day however, all this could and probably will change.

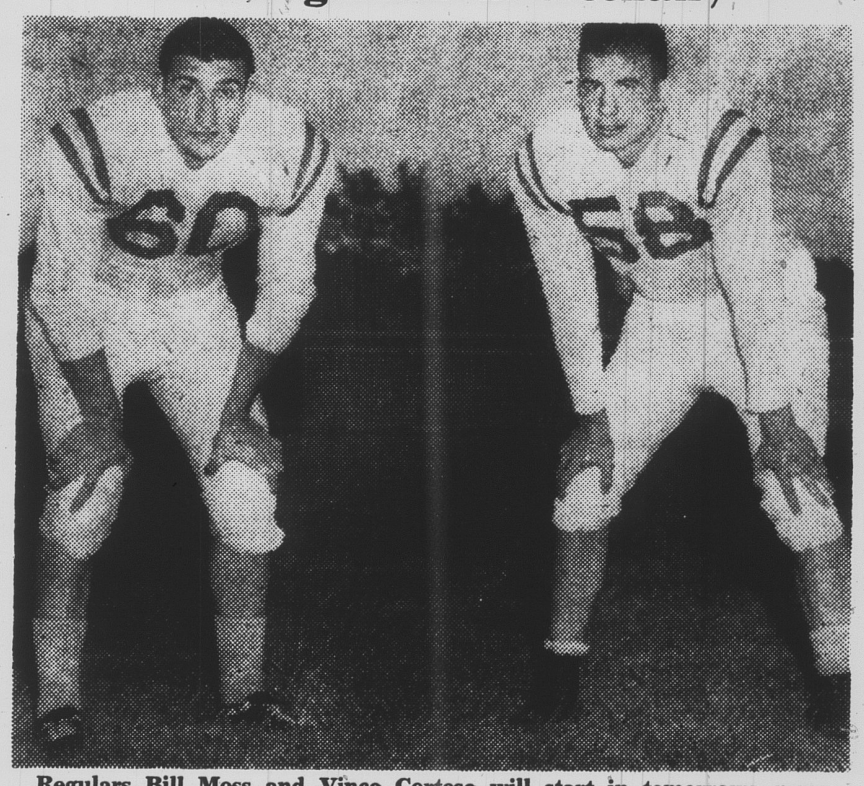

Next year, for instance, we could have a tough time against these very same teams we are smashing at the present. Not because our team is getting worse, or letting down, but because these teams we are facing are getting necessary experience. Grove City, for example, had seven freshmen on their starting lineup last Saturday. Someday, this same lineup could be pretty tough. This may sound funny to some of you, after last week's score, but Grove City has shown us how to play football in the past, and maybe they will again in the future. Grove City still holds the edge in the all-time series.

Secondly, our schedule has been revamped to take care of our recent team improvement. If Bethany is as good as their score in the Thiel game indicates, the Towering Titans may have a much different story on their hands than in last week's classic against the Grovers. Although the Titans are favored, maybe this will prove to the scoffers that our schedule can be just as trying, and our boys work just as hard to win as any team's anywhere.

We Repair and Clean All Makes of Watches.
J. R. MEEK
Your Local Jeweler

Tasty - Thirtt Quenching
Sodas
Milkshakes
Floats
All featuring Delicious BORDEN'S ICE CREAM
The Grille

Starting Ends at Bethany

Regulars Bill Moss and Vince Cortese will start in tomorrows game with Bethany at Wellsburg, West Virginia.

Geneva Smashes Local Harriers By 42-16 Count

By Ray Luber

The Titan harriers dropped their first meet on their home course to a strong Geneva team on Monday Westminster placed men fifth, seventh, tenth and eleventh, as they dropped the contest to last year's champs 16-42.

Homer Weaver placed first with a time of 28 minutes and 49 seconds as he set the first record on the Titan home field. Weaver was followed by Frank Brooker, Don Jackson, and Art Palenshat. Jackson and Palenshat were tied with times of 28 minutes and 50 seconds. Brooker crossed the finish line in 29 minutes and 21 seconds.

Acy Jackson's fifth place time was 29 minutes and 50 seconds. Jerry Paul crossed the line in 29 minutes and 21 seconds to take seventh place. Other Titans who placed were Pete Marshall, Jim Osuna and Jim McCreedy. The Blue and White face Oberlin here tomorrow.

The remaining schedule is: Oberlin, Oct. 13; at Grove City, Oct. 18; at West Virginia, Oct. 23; at Carnegie Tech, Oct. 26; at Slippery Rock, Oct. 29; Tri-State meet at Slippery Rock, Nov. 2.

STEVE KOSKO

the best in bottoms . . .
. . . for your shoes
Fusco Shoe Shop
Bank Building
Reliability at
Reasonable Rates

Basketball Candidates Report October 15

All basketball candidates are asked to report to the field house next Monday, October 15, at 8:30.

Candidates bring enough equipment to use on the gym floor that night.

All freshmen desiring to be managers on the basketball team are requested to report at the same time.

Titans Travel To Meet Bethany

First Clash In Two Years With Bisons

Westminster's football team makes its longest journey of the season this Saturday when it travels to Wellsburg, West Va., to oppose the Bethany Bisons.

The teams didn't play last season, but the Titans copped the last meeting in 1954, 34-7. Westminster also leads in the all-time series 14-7, with 7 ties.

Bethany Beat Thiel

It will be the third game of the season for both teams. The Titans beat Thiel 27-21 and Grove City 60-0, while Coach John Knight's squad beat West Virginia Wesleyan 27-6 and Thiel 31-6.

Last year the Bisons finished with a 6-1 record, one of the best marks in the district. Coach Knight has two fine halfbacks in seniors Dick Lash and Gary Gaydick. Quarterback Paul Hoffman, of Belle Vernon, is Bethany's best passer.

Burry Never Beaten

The Titans haven't lost to Bethany since Harold Burry took over as head coach. Burry's teams have beaten the West Virginians 33-0, 32-6 and 34-7. Bethany's last victory over Westminster was in 1940 when they dumped the Titans, 9-0. The rivals played a 7-7 tie in 1950.

Freshwater, Lewis Return

The Titans will be bolstered by the return of two injured gridders, Center Bill Freshwater, of Munhall, and Guard Jack Lewis, of Greensburg. Freshwater, a key regular for the past two years, broke his hand in pre-season scrimmage and has missed both games. Lewis hurt his shoulder against Thiel and missed last week's contest with Grove City. Jim Falk dislocated his arm in the Grove City game and will probably miss the rest of the season.

HAVING GUESTS FOR HOMECOMING?
MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW AT
MOTEL ELDORADO
2 miles East of New Castle on Rt. 422
12 Brand NEW UNITS
$5 single — $7 double — Phone OL. 4-6525
FREE TV and RADIO

Titans Slaughter Grove City; Establish New Home Record

First Play From Scrimmage Starts Scoring Martin, Davis, Bestwick Highlight Victory

By Bob Holmes

Westminster's undefeated Titans rolled over Grove City last week by a 60-0 count.

A pitifully weak Grove City team lost the game on the first play from scrimmage as Bill White took a handoff and sprinted 35 yards to paydirt. It was the third touchdown of the season for White. Harold Davis returned the opening kickoff to the Wolverine 35 and 15 seconds after the kickoff the Titans scored. Two minutes later George James scored from the two with Westminster's second score.

60 Points Record High

The 60 points scored by Westminster on Memorial Field are the most points ever scored by a single team on that field.

The most impressive part of the victory were the performances of freshman halfbacks Willie Davis and John Martin and freshman quarterback Bestwick. These three could all start for Westminster next year. Martin scored two touchdowns on sweeps of the Grove City left end and intercepted a pass to score a third.

Bestwick's first pass of the season carried 54 yards and a touchdown to Willie Davis.

Other touchdowns for Westminster were scored by Jay DeBolt, on a screen pass from Steve Kosko, and Angelo Robertucci.

Freshmen Impress

Coach Burry cleared his bench in order to keep the score down but the reserves would have nothing to do with that. All told Westminster used 25 players in the victory. Bill White picked up 92 yards in 6 carries for an average of 15.3 yards per carry. Grove City held up a banner before the game which read, "We may be small, but we pay our own way." I only have one thing to say about this, if Grove City always plays football the way they have for the past two years they need to start paying someone's way. Their performance last Saturday could be topped by some of the high schools in this area. Take nothing away from the Titans, however; they looked in top condition.

Bethany Tough

This week will be different down in Wellsburg, West Va., where Westminster plays Bethany. Bethany beat Thiel last week 31-6 and will also carry an unbeaten record into the tilt. It was the second triumph of the season for the Titans, and their 15th consecutive contest for the past three years without defeat.

Bill Freshwater and Jack Lewis return to action this week but Senior end Jim Falk dislocated his arm, and probably will be out the rest of the season.

Russell Hall Ties Alpha Sigma Phi

By Ray LUBER

Sigma Nu held first place in the intramural battle as they downed Alpha Sigma Phi 27-13 on Oct. 4. The victory gave the league leaders a 4-0 record as the third week of the season ended.

Two teams recorded their first victories of the season last week. Phi Kappa Tau defeated Russell Hall 8-6 on a touchdown and a safety. Russell Hall returned with a 26-20 victory over College Hall.

In other games played since last Wednesday Alpha Sigma Phi and Russell tied 20-20, and Sigma Phi Epsilon defeated Phi Kappa Tau 28-18.

Next week's schedule: Monday-Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Phi Kappa Tau, Tuesday—Russell Hall vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon, Wednesday—Sigma Nu vs. College Hall, Thursday—Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The Standings

| | W | L | T |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sigma Nu | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Sigma Phi Epsilon | 3 | 1 | 0 |
| College Hall | 2 | 2 | 0 |
| Russell Hall | 1 | 3 | 1 |
| Alpha Sigma Phi | 1 | 3 | 1 |
| Phi Kappa Tau | 1 | 3 | 0 |

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Oct. 13 | At Bethany |
| Oct. 20 | Geneva (Homecoming) |
| Oct. 27 | Waynesburg |
| Nov. 3 | At Indiana S.T.C. |
| Nov. 19 | At SlipperyRock S.T.C. |
| Nov. 17 | Carnegie Tech |

Starting Lineups

| Bethany | Position | Westminster |
|---|---|---|
| Urbanic | R.E. | Cortese |
| Duffee | R.T. | Roman |
| Joyce | R.G. | Morrell |
| Whitt | C | Freshwater |
| George | L.G. | Lewis |
| Irvine | L.T. | Reilly |
| Anderson | L.E. | Moss |
| Hoffman | QB | Davis |
| Lash | RHB | DeBolt |
| Gaydick | LHB | James |
| Spenski | FB | White |

WILMINGTON THEATRE
NOW SHOWING
Bob Hope... in a role that out-joys "The Seven Little Foys"!

Paramount Presents
BOB HOPE
EVA MARIE SAINT
GEORGE SANDERS
in
THAT Certain FEELING
with
PEARL BAILEY

Produced and Directed by NORMAN PANAMA and MELVIN FRANK
Screenplay by NORMAN PANAMA and MELVIN FRANK, I. A. L. DIAMOND, WILLIAM ALTMAN
Based on the play "King of Hearts" by Jean Kerr and Eleanor Brooke
COLOR BY TECHNICOLOR
Coming Tuesday—
"THE CATERED AFFAIR"
REMEMBER
only YOU can Make this Theater A Success

SOCIAL WHIRL

Quiet Weekend Ahead; Students Make Plans For Homecoming Events

By Dianne Oursler

Freshmen fellows and girls are helping to build the framework of a Greek year as they approach the threshold of pledgeship. "Informality with a smile" is the motto as upperclassmen entertain and become acquainted with the rushees. Interspersed among open houses and smokers students are driving nails and splashing paint as Homecoming decorations take shape. It seems that there should be more hours in the day as time, like a typical New Wilmington shower, quickly passes!

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Jacqueline Adams and Judith Barrett were initiated Monday night . . . Lee Rapp and Nancy Beistel were in charge of the open houses this week . . . Martha Getz, ex '59 was on campus.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Activation ceremonies were held Monday evening for: James Corbett, Herman Grip, Wilbur Book, Robert Wright, John Blamphim, Ted Taylor, John Shaffer, Les Giles, Mark Moore and Raymond Preston . . . Don Patchel and Don Hopper visited campus this past weekend.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Janet Gittings, '53 was on campus recently . . . Nancy Etzel was in charge of the open houses this week.

CHI OMEGA . . . Gretchen Shumacher Watkins, Ruth Girty Orr and Barbara Powell were here for the weekend . . . Nancy Lee Marchese, ex '59, is a Homecoming queen candidate at Pennsylvania state university.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Linda Strickler will be in charge of the Alumni Tea to be held on Homecoming day . . . Carole Jones, '56 Jean McGeoch, '55, Vail Watson, ex '58 and Barbara Wiseman, ex '58 were on campus this weekend.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . Thomas Tucker was recently elected as pledge master . . . Plans are underway for the oncoming houseparty reports George Killa and his social committee . . . John Stoyle is heading plans for Homecoming . . . A serenade will be given Thursday night for Marilyn Elkins.

QUADRANGLE . . . Mrs. Norman Adams and Mrs. Herman DeHaas have accepted the position of patronesses.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Aliceann Rea visited West Point last weekend . . Virginia McMahon, ex '58, was on campus last weekend.

SIGMA NU . . . Miss Sylvia Evosevich, senior at Women's college of University of North Carolina, has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of Thomas Duda . . . Miss Nancy Holmback of McKeesport has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of Argyle Robinson . . . Activation ceremonies were held Monday evening for the following: James Dewar, Walter McCrae, Glenn McCracken, Gerald Myers, William Stratton and Steve Weeks.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Arlene Pasacic has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Richard Gray . . . Gretchen Zilner has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Jack Coleman . . . John Muth, Howard Thomas, and Robert Holmes visited the chapter at Youngstown university last week . . . David Gray '56, George Beam, '56 and John Fedunok, ex '59, visited the chapter last weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . . Betty Howcroft, '56 was on campus the past weekend . . . Pledging ceremonies were held for Kay Ames on Tuesday.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Oct. 12
Chapel—Dr. Arthur Jensen
Pi Sigma Pi sophomore tea 3:30-5
Retreat

Saturday, Oct. 13
Football—Bethany, away, 2:00
Retreat

Sunday, Oct. 14
9:45 Bible class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers, Dr. Norman Adams

Monday, Oct. 15
Chapel—Rev. Talmadge Wilson
4:30 Beta Beta Beta reception for freshmen
7:00 Sorority and fraternity meetings

Tuesday, Oct. 16
Chapel—John MacCracken
U. S. State Department
3:30-5:00 Alpha Sigma Phi faculty tea
7:00-8:30 Sorority open houses

Wednesday, Oct. 17
Chapel—Student Council in Old 77
3:30 Mu Phi
5:00 WAA
8:15 Phi Alpha Theta
10:00 Alpha Sigma Phi serenade

Thursday, Oct. 18
Chapel—Dr. Hilton Turner
7:30 Scroll
7:00 Kappa Delta coffee cozy

Friday, Oct. 19
Chapel—Harold Burns
Dance of the Year

Changed Name in 1897

On May 3, 1897 an amendment to the college charter officially changed the name of the institution from 'Westminster Collegiate Institute" to Westminster College.

Invite Your Friends to Homecoming

Home Made Bread
-- Oven Warm To You --
Cream Style
Whole Wheat
White
17¢ unsliced
WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Walkers Have It . . .
For Your Study Needs
- Study Lamps
- Over-the-door hangers
- Extension Cords

Piper Electric Alarm
by
WESTCLOX
$3.95
J. A. Walker Hdwre
Across from the Bank

It's Crackers by NABISCO
Triscuts
Triangle Thin
Blue Cheese
Honey Grahams
The added touch for your favorite beverage
BROWN'S MARKET

PENN
NEW CASTLE, PA.

The BEST THINGS In LIFE ARE FREE
starring
GORDON MacRAE
DAN DAILEY
ERNEST BORGNINE
SHEREE NORTH
COLOR by De Luxe
—Next Attraction—
"SOLID GOLD CADILLAC"

Chemical progress is autoclaves, test tubes, distillation towers . . . hydrocarbons, heterocyclic compounds . . . processes, polymerizations, products.

But mostly, chemical progress is thinking . . . men thinking. Little men, big men, medium size men . . . in lab coats, business suits, overalls . . . all of them, always, thinking.

Thinking up new products . . . new ways to make chemicals and new ways to use them. Thinking up more comfort, more convenience, better health, for everyone.

Always, the old things have to be improved, and the new things have to be proved. It takes more thinking. The thinking never stops. And so chemical progress never stops. It's that way at Koppers.

You can be one of these men, thinking. You can create some of the chemical progress that's made at Koppers. The products are many . . . the opportunities myriad. Consider a career with Koppers; send the coupon today.

KOPPERS
KOPPERS CHEMICALS

Koppers Company, Inc.
Industrial Relations Manager
Dept. CN-116, Koppers Building
Pittsburgh 19, Pennsylvania

Please send the 24-page brochure entitled "Your Career at Koppers."

Name .....
School .....
Address .....
City ..... State .....

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 4 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, October 19, 1956

1956 Homecoming Queen Candidates

Alpha Gamma Delta

NANCY SHARP

Beta Sigma Omicron

CHARM HOUSTON

Chi Omega

RUBY PARKER

Kappa Delta

JULIE HOLSTEIN

Quadrangle

MYRNA BOAL

Sigma Kappa

SHERRY FRANKLIN

Theta Upsilon

CAROL PAULIE

Prof., Student Take Eight Month Tour

Dr. Myron L. Simpson, chairman of the biology department, and Robert E. Clark, a junior from Volant, will leave Oct. 26 on an eight month world tour.

Dr. Simpson and Clark will sail this month from New York City for Amsterdam, Holland on the first leg of their journey. Both Dr. Simpson and Clark are taking a year's leave from the college to make the tour.

In Holland they will board the ship M.S. Annenkirk of the Holland-East Asia lines and follow an intinerary which includes Casablanca, Marseilless, Genoa and possibly through the Suez canal, international politics permitting, or around the Cape of Good Hope, if not.

In addition they expect to visit Djibouti, Penang, Port Swettenham, Singapore and Hong Kong by Christmas. A month's tour of the Phillippines and Japan will follow. They will then return to Hong Kong for the trip back.

In early March they expect to reach Europe again and Dr. Simpson and Clark will make an auto tour of the continent before returning to this country May 5.

Nine New Members Chosen Mermaids

The following girls have been chosen as new members of the "Mermaids": Judy Spratt, Nancy Sloan, Dixie Barbe, Dianne McCollum, Linda Strickler, Mary Kay Griffiths, Ruth Peterson, Darla Gibson, Betty Oursler.

Present members of the group are Sue Kingsley, president; Carol Doutt, vice president; Joanne Gould, secretary; Wynetta Smith, treasurer; Jane Stewart, Roxanne Johnson, Diane Levy, Lorrie Egli, Betty Wagner, Marilyn Elkins, Ginny Dickson, Diane Black, Joy Timmons, Judy Gray, Anne Metzler, Pat Jenkins, Peggy Black, Sue Behrenberg.

Now Hear This

Applications are open for business manager in this year's Argo. Any person interested in this position should leave his name with Marcia Vandermast at the Sigma Kappa house or Al Canon at College hall.

—o—

There are only six more days until Scrawl manuscripts are due in the English office. If you are planning to enter the contest for the best campus writing, the deadline is Thursday, Oct. 25 at 4 p.m.

—o—

Don't forget to sign up for the Poetry Reading Festival in the English office as soon as possible.

Hudson, Walker, Valentine Assume Shakespearian Roles

Cast Begins Rehearsals Monday For First Performance In December

The final cast for the production of Shakespeare's immortal classic, Macbeth, has been announced by Mr. Burbick, faculty director of the play. Don Hudson will portray the leading role of Macbeth, the ruthless monarch driven by greed and ambition. The role of Lady Macbeth, his wife and partner in crime, has been given to a double cast, Jackie Walker and Audrey Valentine.

The supporting roles have been cast as follows: Jerry Schofield, MacDuff; Frank Wiljocki, Banquo; Dave Abrams, Duncan; James Dorsch, Malcolm; Dale Westerman, Donalbain; Bob Sola, Lennox; Dave Cramer, Ross; Wayne Henderson, Angus; Nanette Ozias, Lady MacDuff; Nancy Reese, Nurse; Albert Horn, Seyton and Fleance; Bill Cox, Sergeant; Bruce Bowen, Porter; James Dorsch, young Seward; George Lowther, Doctor; John Berg, a Lord; James Dorsch and Bill Cox, the Murderers; and Joyce Guy, Ann Price and Beth McGill, the Witches.

The first all-student production of the 1956-57 season, Macbeth is not the first Shakespearean play to be enacted in the Little Theatre. Four years ago Westminster students witnessed Hamlet and Othello, both of which were portrayed successfully. Rehearsals for this season's classic, to be presented from the 3rd through the 8th of December, will begin on Monday evening.

Parts are still available for five or six soldiers which have no dialogue. All those who are interested should see Mr. Burbick. They will not be required to attend rehearsal until two weeks before the opening date.

News Briefs

One hundred and thirty girls were installed as members of the YWCA for the coming year in a candlelight service held in the chapel Wednesday evening.

Attention Holcad Reporters

All reportinng assignments for Holcad reporters for next week will be posted today on the bulletin board outside the Holcad office in the basement of the library. Please check your assignment before Monday.

If possible leave news stories in the Holcad boxes Wednesday afternoon. However, all stories must be in by 7 p.m.

IRC Elect Officers; Plan For Telethon In Old 77

The International Relations club elected officers recently. Joanne McKinnon was elected president; Robert Palisin, vice president; Myrtle Shaheen, secretary and treasurer, Calvin McCracken. New members are Billie Gamble, Bruce Comstock, Helen Lemon and Bruce Ipe. Those interested in joining are invited to attend the meetings held on the first Thursday of every month.

The fall program includes an Election Night Telethon, which will be held in Old 77, Tuesday, Nov. 6. Chairmen of the committees for this event are Mary Ann Herina, decorations; Calvin McCracken, arrangements; Bob Palisin, publicity; Janet Long, entertainment and Ronnajean Hamilton, refreshments.

Seven Girls Vie For Queen Title To Reign At Homecoming Weekend

Ceremonies Take Place During Intermission At Dance of the Year In New Castle

One of the seven candidates chosen by the six sororities and Quadrangle will be crowned tonight during the intermission of the Dance of the Year at the Scottish Rite Cathedral in New Castle.

Voting by the men on campus will take place today from 9:00 to 3:30 in the tower room in Old Main where the pictures of each queen candidate will be on display.

of each candidate will be on display.

Queen candidate from Alpha Gamma Delta is Nancy Sharp, a junior elementary education major from Washington. Nancy is in concert choir, YWCA and FTA.

Charmion Houston, Beta Sigma Omicron's candidate, is a sophomore pre-nursing major from St. Mary's. She is in YWCA, plays intramural basketball and took part in the Mock Convention.

Chi Omega's choice is Ruby Parker, a second semester sophomore from Detroit, Mich. Ruby, an English major, is on the staff of Scrawl and Holcad and is active in WAA and YWCA.

Julie Holstein is the Kappa Delta's candidate. She is a senior speech major from Grove City. Julie is active in CGA, Masquers, YWCA and 4:20 theater.

Sophomore Myrna Boal from West Middlesex is Quadrangle's choice. She is a business education major and a member of FTA.

Sherry Franklin, a junior from Mt. Lebanon, is the queen candidate from Sigma Kappa. Sherry, an elementary education major, is vice president of her sorority, WAA treasurer and is active in intramural sports and FTA.

Representing Theta Upsilon will be Carol Paulie, an elementary education major from Oil City. Carol is presiednt of YWCA, corresponding secretary of Senate and a cheerleader. She is also a member of Student Council.

Tomorrow atfernoon President Will W. Orr will be master of ceremonies for the Galbreath hall dedication. It will start at 1 p.m. at the northwest corner of the new building.

The Titan-Geneva football game will start at Memorial field at 2 p. m. tomorrow. The queen and her court will be presented at halftime and prizes will be awarded the dormitory, sorority and fraternity houses judged best in the decorating contest.

The Alumni-student party will be in Old 77 at 8 p.m. tomorrow night. The party will feature dancing, a student talent floor show and refreshments.

Choir Presents Program Sunday

The sacred concert will be presented in the chapel at 3 p.m. Sunday. The 130-voice college choir, under the direction of Clarence J. Martin, will sing. Raymond L. Ocock, instructor of organ, will give an organ recital including compositions by Handel, Read and Dupre.

"Requiem" featuring Alice Long Walker and John L. Huyck as soloists will be presented. Mrs. Walker, formerly a member of the college faculty, is a soprano for the Shadyside Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh. Mr. Huyck has been a soloist at the First Christian church in New Castle.

A special vesper service in the chapel at 7:45 p.m. Sunday will conclude the weekend's events. Robert F. Galbreath, former president of the college, will be the guest speaker. His topic is, "Our Heroic Search."

Freshman Class Elects Bill Rankin President

Bill Rankin was elected by the freshman class to serve as president for the coming year. Other officers are Robert Alter, vice-president; Nancy Cunningham, secretary and John Walker, treasurer.

Freshman who will serve on Student Council this year are Nancy Beaver, Ben Fast and Robert Hull.

News Briefs

Phi Alpha Theta initiation ceremonies were held this week for Myrtle Shaheen and Ann Price. Officers were also elected which include Myrtle Shaheen, vice president; Ann Price secretary and Mary Ann Rose, treasurer.

Reservations Begin For 'January Thaw'

Starting Tuesday, Oct. 23, ticket reservations will begin for the first Little Theatre major production, "January Thaw." Be sure to stop in the speech office, room 110 in Old Main, to assure yourself of reserved seats for the coming performances. Activity tickets will admit students.

This all freshman show will be presented Oct. 29, 30 and 31 and Nov. 2 and 3. Don't forget to make your reservations next week .

Welcome Alumni For A Big Weekend

Autumn leaves and coolish weather plus posters and other reminders tell us that Homecoming has again rolled around for its annual visit.

This time of year draws alumni from the surrounding area and distant towns to Westminster to meet their friends and former classmates in the TUB to reminise about "the good old days" and to catch up on all the news of the past year.

Between the tales of who married who, who is working where and who is serving Uncle Sam, the alums will find that much has been planned to make this weekend very enjoyable.

The Dance of the Year starts off the weekend tonight with a formal atmosphere. Excitement will be at its highest peak during intermission when the one of the seven candidates vieing for the crown of mums and will be announced and honored.

Tomorrow the Titans will seek their fourth victory when they face Geneva college at Memorial field and during halftime the winners of the sorority and fraternity decorations will be awarded. Other events of the day include an alumni meeting and the dedication of Galbreath hall, the new women's dormitory. To climax the day, a dance will be held in Old 77.

Sunday afternoon a musical program will be presented in the chapel and a special service in Vespers.

Homecoming is a busy time and we hope everyone will enjoy all the events which have been scheduled.

The HOLCAD Makes History

The Holcad will take its place in history tomorrow. This year's issues of the campus paper will be placed in the cornerstone box of Galbreath hall at the dedication ceremonies.

We feel very honored and hope that when the box is found hundreds of years from now, the Holcad might be historically valuable.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, October 19, 1956 No. 4

EDITOR — Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR — Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR — Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR — Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS — Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR — Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER — Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER — David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR — Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR — Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Looks like an interesting news item, Professor Snarf—would you mind removing your shoe?"

Homecoming . . .

Everyone Gets In The Act

By Barbie Farrow

Once a year comes the big event in any college student's life—he participates in Homecoming or rather he is forced into participating in Homecoming. Whether he goes to the Homecoming dance or to the football game, his loyal fraternity brothers or sorority sisters make sure he helps to put together the Homecoming decorations.

To show you the average mess in any fraternity or sorority house let's visit the house of the honorable fraternity Eta Bita Pie with its fraternity decorations chairman, Joe Schmoo.

"Come on gang, we've got to get the backdrop ready. Right now it looks more like a backdroop. Listen Aloysius, I said to paint it brown not orange. Our red dragon will clash with orange and a dragon has to be red."

"Sorry boss, I would have painted it brown but we only have orange paint and I'm dead broke."

"Well, we do happen to have five hardware stores in this town and one of them will be kind enough to charge it—we hope."

"Hey Joe, don't you think we should have real live fire and smoke coming out of our dragon? I have my junior chemistry set here and there is a formula for making smoke. Here I'll mix ingredients five and six together."

"Everybody out of the house, a loose skunk must have gotten in. We'll have to spend the next week fumigating the house so that we can entertain on Homecoming day."

"Gee gang, I'm sorry about the smell. I forgot to read the small print which said the formula was also used for stink bombs."

"Camouflage everybody, there's a Nu Lamb coming up the walk—the one that always comes to see Socrates."

"Greetings, you want to see Socrates? Straight up the stairs and don't try to spy."

Finally Homecoming morning arrives and all loyal brothers are busy getting the dragon out for display.

"Hey Joe, our dragon sorta doesn't look like a dragon. It looks more like an elephant."

"Well maybe the judges will think it is an elephant, and not realize that it's a dragon."

"I'm sure they will, especially when our slogan says 'We're dragon out a welcome for you alums.'"

On these tender words of endearment—Homecoming comes to an end. Through sweat of brows and racking of brains they have worked together to the betterment of Eta Bita Pie fraternity.

New Poem . . .

The Wanderer

By Peggy Aubert

Yes, you there the man of the roads,

What sort of glory do you find in wandering.

You have left your home, you have walked out on your family.

With every turn in the road, you talk to a sinner.

They say your friends are the lowly.

Have you no honor, does not public disgrace bother you?

For days you have lived on other men's food,

You have taken it upon yourself to lead great mobs of the under-dogs.

Now you are dying and is there a friend to help you?

No, what man would care to help such a loathsome vagabond.

The man beside you, himself a thief, cares little.

And is he not like those you have called "friend."

Yet days, years, and centuries from now you will be remembered.

You shall die, so we may live.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

The big awaited weekend has arrived. To the visitors, alumni and parents—we hope that you will have a nice weekend. We enjoy having you. Besides seeing beautiful house decorations, the homecoming queen and her court, you will have the opportunity to see a top-notch football team in action—the 1956 Titans.

* * *

Everybody has heard about the big party weekends on other campuses. When one fraternity is throwing a big party—fraternity brothers turn up from far-away campuses. Well, the twelve frats at Amherst have toughened up on their policy for guests. There will be no open invitations, but a few guest cards will be issued.

* * *

Have you noticed how tunes will run in cycles? If someone writes a tune on a certain subject, everybody else tries to write one on the same subject. For many months, Patti Page's Allegheny Moon was a top hit. Now that it is dying out there is another moon song being plugged—Colorado Moon.

* * *

Coed Comment on last weekend.

"It was sure dead around here—everyone either retreated or migrated."

* * *

You have all probably heard about industrious students who get so wound up in their major that it is constantly on their mind. One good example of this was the chemistry major who wrote a term paper about Adam and Eve and during the whole theme referred to them at Atom and Eve.

* * *

The campus will take on a new look next week when the upper class girls and the freshman start talking again as rush dating starts. For the longest time it has looked like the two groups were anti-social, but it's just the rush rules.

* * *

There's a celebriety among us. Mr. Paul Gamble was named as the winner of the Depositors National Bank contest, "Why New Wilmington is the Biggest Little Town in Western Pennsylvania. Mr. Gamble, alumni secretary, was awarded a $100 savings bond.

* * *

The Pittsburgh Press described Saturday's game thusly—"That opened the gates for the Titans who saw five men thrown out of the game for unsportsmanlike conduct in a penalty-riddled first half." True there were five men thrown out of the game—two for the Titans and three for Bethany. The Press should know the facts before they print something. A gentle hint has been dropped that they plain don't like us.

News Headlines . . .

Two Planes Crash

Two Air Disasters—A military transport with 59 men aboard disappeared between England and the Azores. So far the wheels of the plane have been found but no survivors. Tuesday, a Pan American Airways Stratocruiser lost two engines and was forced to ditch next to the Coast Guard ship, Pontchartrain. Through expert skill, all 31 passengers and crewmembers were saved.

Navy O.K.'s Atom Cruiser—The Navy gave the Bethlehem Steel company the go ahead to start work on the world's first nuclear powered guided missile cruiser.

Autumn Storm Moves Up Coast—After striking Florida and hitting many costal towns with flood conditions, this storm moved up through the Carolinas.

Adenauer Fires Four in German Cabinet—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer fired four ministers including defense minister Theodore Blank in a cabinet reshuffle that could lead to a slowdown in West German rearmament.

Princess Margaret Visits in Africa—Princess Margaret on a royal tour visited Tanganyika where she met Francis Townsend, the brother of her former suitor Peter Townsend.

Swaps—The former outstanding race horse was injured on the track the other day and aggrevated his injury in his stall. For a time it was feared that he wouldn't live. A leg operation is scheduled, but if it is unsuccessful, Swaps will have to be shot.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

Someone once said that the only ingredients for a good football game were: (1) two well-matched teams, (2) a cow pasture, and (3) a beautiful Saturday afternoon.

Last Saturday afternoon we had ourselves a good football game. No one can deny the cow pasture, it was certainly present. Nor can one deny the presence of two well-matched teams, at least for three quarters. And the day was as beautiful a fall day as we have ever seen here in New Wilmington.

Out-numbered 15-11

But added to these three ingredients, just to make the game a little more interesting, you understand, were four blind mice. Despite the interference from these blind mice the Titans won. Their top conditioning paid off in the fourth period for 27 points and their third victory of the season. Early in the first quarter it became evident that the Blue and White were out-numbered 15 to 11.

Davis Ejected

Harold Davis was ejected from the game for trying to keep his head from being torn from his body. The four blind mice who held the questionable titles of Referee, Umpire, Linesman, and Field Judge continued their piracy for the remainder of the game with one penalty after another: pass interference, unnecessary roughness, and finally, deliberately trying to win. (This came after they had exhausted every other kind of penalty.)

I still haven't figured out why they stopped the game when we were moving for a touchdown with a few seconds remaining in the first half. It was probably because they wanted to give Bethany a chance to catch their breath.

I hope this group of refs never get a chance to break our undefeated record again. But they probably can't ref in this state because they got their license from the West Virginia Sears, Roebuck catalog.

Kadis Still in Coma

From referees to a more serious subject. Dick Kadis, Geneva's sophomore end, is still in a coma. Dick was injured in the Geneva-Waynesburg game three weeks ago. I know I express the feelingss of our students in hoping Dick has a speedy recovery.

Geneva has been playing Westminster since 1892. The Covies won that first game 42-0 and have continued to dominate the series until recent years—the Covies have won 33, Westminster 19, and 7 have been ties.

Middle Line Shines

I'd like to give credit to the middle of the Titan line, the boys who do the real work without much recognition. Bernie Reilley, Bill Morrell, Joe Roman and Jack Lewis have done a teriffic job this year. Perry Kirklin seems to be Coach Burry's number one line substitute and he has seen a lot of good reserve action.

LATE FLASH: It was just announced that the rough, tough Bethany Bisons have dropped Westminster from their 1957 schedule. Grove City has also dropped us, which means that we will have three holes to fill in next year's schedule.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Westminster 27 | Thiel 21 |
| Westminster 60 | Grove City 0 |
| Westminster 40 | Bethany 16 |
| Oct. 20 | Geneva (Homecoming) |
| Oct. 27 | Waynesburg |
| Nov. 3 | At Indiana S.T.C. |
| Nov. 19 | At SlipperyRock S.T.C. |
| Nov. 17 | Carnegie Tech |

Titans Jolt Bethany; Take 16th Straight

Outstanding Linemen

Don Burdulis and Joe Roman, top reserve tackle and starting tackle respectively for Titans against Geneva tomorrow.

White, Kosko Spark Offense, Fourth Period Rally Wins

By George King

Primed for an upset, a hard-bitten Bethany eleven stood up to its favored Westminster for a full three quarters, then crumbled helplessly in the fourth as four Titan touchdowns clinched a 40-16 victory, in a Kiwanian sponsored game at Wellsburg, West Virginia.

Fullback Billy "Whizzer" White tallied three times as they slashed through the Bison defenses for 123 yards to be the Titans leading ground gainer for the afternoon. However, it was the play of unheralded substitute quarterback Steve Kosko whose inspiring leadership and clever signal-calling seemed to ignite the spark that led to the Blue and White's rally in the final stanza.

Momentarily stunned by the ejection from the game of star quarterback Harold Davis, on what was unquestionably a highly erroneous and unjust decision, the Titans started slowly in a bitter hassle which saw tempers flaring on both sides.

Titans Down at Half

After Billy White scored early in the second period from the one yard line, the Bisons forged ahead by virtue of a safety and a touchdown by Bethany quarterback Paul Hoffman who scored from 1 foot out. The ensuing extra-point by tackle Dick Irvine completed the first half scoring and during the intermission the home team enjoyed a 9-6 edge over the highly rated White and Blue.

Bethany Holds Lead

Westminster opened the second half scoring as "Whizzer" White went 10 yards off tackle for his second tally of the day. Vince Cortese made good the placement and the Titans bounced back out in front by a 13-9 margin. However, this edge was only short-lived as Bethany doggedly fought back and recaptured the lead as Halfback Gary Gaydick took a pitchout on the 17 and threw to Jack Urbanic for the second Green and White score. Irvines placement was wide and the end of the third period saw the Titans on the short end of a 16-13 count.

The fourth quarter brought delight to Blue and White followers as a superbly conditioned Titan forward wall anchored by massive Joe Roman opened huge gaps in the Bethany line to free Titan backs as they started to roll their attack into high gear.

With play concentrating deep in Bethany territory, Titan tackle Perry Kirklin recovered Jay Debolt's fumble in the end zone to score what proved to be the winning touchdown. After Vince Cortese's placement, the charges of Harold Burry led 20 to 13.

Willie Davis Features

A blocked kick by Jack Lewis led to the fourth touchdown as freshman back Willie Davis, a dazzling change of pace runner, flirted with the frustrated Bisons while swerving 15 yards for a score.

Interceptions accounted for two more tallies as Billy White plunged over from the 1 yard line, two plays after Willie Davis ran back with a Hoffman aerial for 21 yards. The final touchdown came when freshman John Martin scored from the five yard stripe moments after a 19 yard pass return by Angelo Robertucci.

Oberlin Harriers Trample Titans

The Blue and White harriers suffered their third straight setback of the season at the hands of Oberlin Saturday. Jim Osuna finished second for Westminster as they dropped the meet 25-30.

Oberlin's Service finished in 28 minutes and 8 seconds to break the course record. The previous record was 28 minutes and 10 seconds set by Geneva's Homer Weaver. Oberlin's Meyerburg, Olsen, Takach and Lambor finished third, fifth, seventh and ninth, respectively.

Osuna's time was 28 minutes and 55 seconds. Acy Jackson placed fourth with a time of 29 minutes and 10 seconds. Pete Marshall, Jerry Paul and Gib McCreery placed sixth, eighth and tenth for the Titans.

The harriers met Grove City yesterday but results were too late for publication.

The remaining schedule is: at West Virginia, Oct. 20; Washington and Jefferson, Oct. 23; Carnegie Tech, Oct. 26; at Slippery Rock, Oct. 29; Tri-State meet at Slippery Rock, Nov. 2.

Undefeated S Nu Tops Intramurals

The undefeated Sigma Nu's swept two games last week to retain the leadership in the intramural league battle. The victories gave the Sigma Nu's a 6-0 record for the season. They downed Phi Kappa Tau 27-13 on Oct. 11 and topped College hall 26-6 Wednesday.

The Sig Eps held on to second place by defeating College hall 22-7 and crushing Russell hall 44-7. The two victories give the Sig Eps a 6-1 record.

In the only other game played Alpha Sigma Phi scored a one-sided victory over Phi Kappa Tau defeating them 47-13.

Next week's schedule: Monday—Phi Kappa Tau vs. College Hall; Tuesday—Russell Hall vs. Sigma Nu; Wednesday—Alpha Sigma Phi vs. College Hall; Thursday—Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Sigma Nu; Friday—Phi Kappa Tau vs. Russell hall.

The Standings

| | W | L | T |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sigma Nu | 6 | 0 | 0 |
| Sigma Phi Epsilon | 5 | 1 | 0 |
| Alpha Sigma Phi | 2 | 3 | 1 |
| College Hall | 2 | 4 | 0 |
| Russell Hall | 1 | 5 | 1 |
| Phi Kappa Tau | 1 | 5 | 0 |

Covies Next On List For Blue and White

Westminster, which now possesses the longest non-losing football streak in the State, places its undefeated mark on the block again Saturday afternoon when the Titans play host to Geneva in a Homecoming clash. The kickoff is slated for 2 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, at Westminster's Memorial Field.

Coach Harold Burry's squad extended its string to 16 with a fourth-quarter surge against Bethany at Wellsburg, West Va., Saturday.

But the Titans are well aware of the upset possibility such as ended Juniata's victory string Saturday. Juniata had compiled one of the country's longest winning streaks until it was beaten by Lycoming, 13-6, Saturday.

Covies Sport Winning Record

Geneva will provide the home team with plenty of competition. The Covies have a 2-1-1 mark this year and haven't lost since their opener to Baldwin-Wallace. Coach By Morgan has a rugged defensive team, sparked by All-State end Bob Prince, Vic Martinetti and Dick Pillo.

Last fall Westminster spoiled Geneva's Homecoming celebration with a 33-7 victory at Beaver Falls. The Titans hold a five-year winning streak against the Covies. Geneva's last triumph over Westminster was 18-13 in 1950.

White Has 36

Several of the leading scorers in the State will be in action Saturday. Westminster's Bill White, who tallied 72 points last year, has 36 this season. Geneva's Willie Taylor and the Titan's John Martin, both freshmen halfbacks, have each scored four touchdowns.

Probable Starting Lineups

| Geneva | Pos.s | Westminster |
|---|---|---|
| Price | LE | Cortese |
| Parobeck | LT | Reilly |
| Perrino | LG | Lewis |
| Sekeres | C | Freshwater |
| Francis | RG | Morrell |
| Pillo | RT | Roman |
| Martinetti | RE | Moss |
| Karas | QB | Davis |
| Mancini | HB | DeBolt |
| Taylor | HB | James or W. Davis |
| Gengarella | FB | White |

Woops

The HOLCAD sports department owes an apology to feshman cross country star Gib McCreery. The cross country stories published thus far have carried the name of Jim McCreedy. We made a boo-boo. Sorry, Gib.

Returns To Lineup

Bill Freshwater, senior center for the Westminster Titans, returned to the lineup last week against Bethany.

HOMECOMING SPECIAL
Oct. 22-27
2 pr. Trousers
or
2 Plain Skirts
CLEANED — PRESSED only
$1.00
Kay's Cleaners

Everyplace packed . . . after the Game
For the best in—
- Sandwiches
- Soft Drinks
- Ice Cream Treats

—Shop at the
WILMINGTON BAKERY

Round Out . . .
"The Weekend of the Year"
. . . with dinner at
The Grille
the Greatest place to Meet and Eat

For the most in Milage
— Steel —
HEEL GUARDS
10c – 15c – 25c
Attached While 'U' Wait
Fusco Shoe Shop
Bank Building

HAVING GUESTS FOR HOMECOMING?
MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW AT
MOTEL ELDORADO
2 miles East of New Castle on Rt. 422
12 Brand NEW UNITS
$5 single — $7 double — Phone OL. 4-6525
FREE TV and RADIO

Walkers Have It . . .
FOR BIRD, BUNNY or MONGOOSE HUNTING
- Ammunition
- Firarms
- Cleaning Sets
- Hunting Clothes
- Licenses

REMEMBER—
Turkey, Grouse and Squirrel Season
Opens Saturday the 20th
J. A. Walker Hdwre
Across from the Bank

SOCIAL WHIRL

"Dance Of The Year" Tonight Will Highlight The Homecoming Weekend

By Dianne Oursler

Westminster bids alums, parents and friends welcome to the 1956 Homecoming celebration. Lovely in the russet, red and gold of fall, the campus will see hundreds of people of varied walks of life.

Beginning tonight with the first rustle of a pretty co-ed's gown as she descends the stairs and until the final carload of tired visitors turns homeward, we hope the weekend will hold pleasant memories for everyone.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Marcie Barrett has accepted the United States Naval Academy crest of Midshipman Harry Walker . . . Patricia Gunther has accepted the Phi Kappa Tau pin of Ralph Scott . . . Lois Reed was in charge of the open house Tuesday night. Lois also heads committees for the "coketail" party preceding the dance tonight . . . Dorothy Wallace has charge of the breakfast to be held at the house on Saturday morning.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Edward Towns was chairman of the faculty tea held Tuesday afternoon . . . An Alpha Sigma Phi serenade was held Wednesday evening for Carolyn Dart, Martha Nail, Ann McDowell and Janet Reese.

CHI OMEGA . . . Sue Essinger and Jean Deighan visited the chapter at Thiel last weekend . . . Salle Hamilton, Connie Bumpas, Linda Kraft and Ann Metzler were on the Kent State university campus and Judy Gray spent the weekend at Waynesburg.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Activation ceremonies were held on Tuesday for Julie Holstein . . . Erma Smith and Judy MacCubbin visited the chapter at Bethany over the weekend . . . Lynne Caddick went to the Naval Academy at Annapolis this past weekend . . . Virginia Guthrie, ex '57 and Shirley Metzger, '56 were here recently.

QUADRANGLE . . . Lavena Clarke is chaplain for the semester . . . Roberta Foster is in charge of the freshmen party to be held Monday night . . . Evelyn Dull, ex '58 was on campus this week.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Iris McKnight was pledged last week.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Weston Hyde is in charge of Homecoming decorations . . . Howard Thomas has been appointed social chairman . . . Hugh Ferguson is chairman of the Homecoming dinner to be held at the house . . . John Muth and Hugh Ferguson visited the chapter at Pennsylvania state university last weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . . Sally Jamison, Marda Mulqueen and Marilyn Elkins attended the Northern Ohio state day convention . . . Pledge ceremonies were held Tuesday for Joan Newcomb . . . Alice Priest visited Carnegie Tech last weekend . . . Marda Mulqueen is in charge of the Alumni tea to be held Saturday . . . Marilyn Elkins and Virginia Dickson were co-chairmen of the open house this week.

Forry, Marsico Attain Finals

This year's faculty-student Tennis tournament has blown wide open in its closing phases. Booming Mole Marsico defeated fellow racquetier Dale Garver to gain a chance in the final playoff at Jumping John Forry. Dean Forry defeated Drs. Jensen and Edwards for his spot in the finals.

In the women's finals, Diana Black faces Wendy Westinghouse for the honors.

Diana Black is also paired with Andy McKelvy in the doubles tournament. The doubles tournament is not far enough along at this stage to report any outcome, but as of now it looks like the final playoff will be held between the teams of Black and McKelvy and the team of Ruby Parker and Frank Marsico.

News Briefs

The election debate in the form of a round table discussion, is scheduled for October 30 at 4:00 p.m. at the TUB. After the panelists express their opinions there will be an open discussion. Dr. Edwards, Mr. Duran and Dr. Jensen will assist the panel.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Oct. 19
Chapel—Harold Burns
9:00 Dance of the Year.

Saturday, Oct. 20
Homecoming
2:00 Football—Geneva, here
Beta Sigma Omicron Alumnae Tea
8:30-11:30 Alumni Dance, Old 77

Sunday, Oct. 21
9:45 Bible Class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers, Dr. Robert Galbreath

Monday, Oct. 22
Chapel—Quadrangle devotional
7:00 Sorority meetings
7:30 Quadrangle open house for Freshmen Women
Fraternity meetings
Smoker

Tuesday, Oct. 23
Chapel—Pi Delta Epsilon
4:15 AAUP
5:00 Iota Delta
7:00 Student Council
7:00 CGA
Smoker

Wednesday, Oct. 24
Chapel—Dr. John Orr
Smoker

Thursday, Oct. 25
Chapel—Miss Forsberg—Play
8:15 AAUW Reception for Senior Women—Ferguson hall
Smoker

Friday, Oct. 26
Chapel—Phi Alpha Theta
3:30-5:30 Campus club—Hillside
Fraternity House Parties

New York Trip Deposit Due

New York City and the United Nations is the destination once again of the annual Phi Alpha Theta trip. Students making the trip will leave campus Wednesday, Nov. 14 at 8 p.m. and will return to campus late Saturday, Nov. 17.

This trip will cost approximately $25 which includes hotel room, transportation, and tours. Highlights of the tour will include attending General Assembly meetings, various committee meetings and a tour of the entire United Nations.

The evenings are free so that th students may attend lectures, plays and movies. All women planning to make this trip must have written permission from home. All those who are planning to make this trip should turn in to the history office (room 306) a $5 deposit as soon as possible.

Phi Alpha Theta recommends that:

1. the approval of each instructor be obtained by the student; this is compulsory, for the instructor has the privilege of refusing to consider the U. N. trip an excused absence.
2. in order not to endanger their academic standing, freshmen cannot go on the trip.
3. a student have at least a 1.5 average before considering the advisability of the trip.
4. students with Saturday classes should not make the trip, so that no one will be absent two successive times from the same course.

Marine Officers Interview Students

A Marine Corps Officer Procurement Team will visit campus Oct. 24 and 25 for the purpose of interviewing undergraduates interested in obtaining a commission in the U. S. Marine Corps upon receiving their baccalaureate degree. The team, headed by Captain D. J. Hunter, includes First Lieutenant Bruce Ogden, Sergeant W. S. Crammer and Hospitalman Chief J. Goode, U. S. Navy.

The Marine Corps offers five basic officer training programs; four for male applicants and one for women. Outstanding features of the male programs include:

(1) Freshmen, sophomores and juniors enrolled in the platoon leader class attend six-weeks of training during two summer vacations at Quantico, Va.

(2) Seniors and graduates attend a ten-week officer candidate course after college graduation.

(3) No drills, meetings or other military activity during the school year.

(4) Selective service exemption.

(5) Pay received during training.

News Briefs

Initiation for new W.A.A. members was held on Thursday, Oct. 18. The following girls qualified: Ruby Parker, Sue Behrenberg, Mary Lou Heilburn, Clara Gillis, Harriet Wright, Betty Rushing, Marian Shenberger and Connie Simpson.

WILMINGTON THEATRE
2 Shows Nightly

FRI. & SAT.
— Double Feature —
"Dallas"
with
Gary Cooper & Ruth Roman
— Also —
"Autumn Leaves"
with
Joan Crawford

TUES. & WED.
"Miracle In The Rain"
with
Van Johnson & Jane Wyman

HI-LANDER THEATRE
New Castle, Pa.

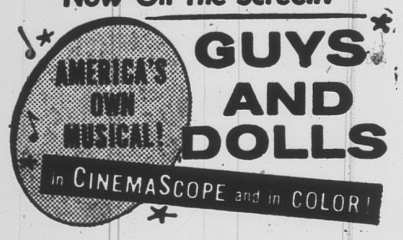

Now Through Saturday
DOUBLE FEATURE

— ALSO —

Starts Sunday
Now On The Screen!

PENN
NEW CASTLE, PA.
NOW SHOWING

Prices are going up everywhere but as a —
Special Service
FLASH CLEANERS announce NEW Student Rates
SUITS—$1.00 BLOUSES—50¢
DRESSES—$1.00 PANTS—50¢

SPECIAL—ONE WEEK ONLY
Skirts (Plain) – Pants
39¢
OFFER ENDS OCT. 26

Flash Cleaners
208 Vine Street

STUDENT SPECIAL
Limited Time Only
ACCURATE — USEFUL — AUTHENIC
INFLATABLE – PLASTIC
WORLD GLOBES
with attractive black, wrought-iron stand
$8.95
BROWN'S MARKET

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it?"

DRINK Coca-Cola

You feel so new and fresh and good — all over — when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment . . . and it's so pure and wholesome — naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things — good things — for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 5 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, October 26, 1956

Turner Seeks Two Candidates For Fellowships

The Danforth Foundation, an educational trust fund in St. Louis, Mo. invites applications for the sixth class (1957) of Danforth Graduate Fellows from college senior men and recent graduates who are preparing themselves for a career of college teaching, and are planning to enter graduate school in September, 1957, for their first year of graduate study. The Foundation welcomes applicants from the areas of natural and biological sciences, social sciences, humanities and all fields of specialization to be found in the undergraduate college.

President Will W. Orr has named Dr. J. Hilton Turner as the liasion officer to nominate to the Danforth Foundation two or not to exceed three candidates for these fellowships. These appointments are fundamentally "a relationship of encouragment" throughout the years of graduate study, carrying a promise of financial aid within prescribed conditions as there may be need. The maximum annual grant for single Fellows is $1800; for married Fellows, $2400 with an additional stipend for children.

A Danforth Fellow is allowed to carry other scholarship appointments, such as Rhodes, Fulbright, Woodrow Wilson, Marshall, etc., concurrently with his Danforth Fellowship and applicants for these appointments are cordially invited to apply at the same time for a Danforth Fellowship. If a man receives the Danforth Appointment, together with a Rhodes Scholarship, Fulbright Scholarship, or Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, he becomes a Danforth Fellow without stipend, until these other relationships are completed.

All Danforth Fellows will participate in the annual Danforth Foundation Conference on Teaching, to be held at Camp Miniwanca in Michigan next September.

The qualifications of the candidates as listed in the announcement from the foundation are: men of outstanding academic ability, personality congenial to the classroom, and integrity and character, including serious inquiry within the Christian tradition.

All applications, including the recommendations, must be completed by January 31, 1957. Any student wishing further information should get in touch with our Liaison Officer.

Poetry Reading Festival Names Eight Judges

The deadline for the Poetry Reading Festival is Novermber 10 at noon. Judges for the preliminaries have been selected. They include Dr. John Forry, Dr. Hilton Turner, Miss Alice Ligo, Mr. Thomas Wiley, Mr. John Huyck, Dr. George Bleasby, Mr. William Scheurle and Miss Elizabeth Keen.

All students interested in the festival are encouraged to go to the English office, room 212, Old Main, for further information about rules, type of selection and tryouts. Students entering must sign up in the English office.

Successful Dance

Student Council cleared $100 on the Dance of the Year.

Now Hear This

All chairmen, faculty advisors and committee members for Spiritual Emphasis Week are requested to give reports at a meeting this afternoon at 4:15 in room 116 in the Science hall

—o—

There will be a junior class meeting Monday at 1 p.m. in room 116 in the Science hall.

In case you haven't discovered it, the library will be open from 5:30 to 6:30 Monday through Thursday.

First Little Theatre Presentation

Watching John McCall, right, run through his lines for the forthcoming Little Theatre production of "January Thaw" are, standing, left to right, Al Horn, Robert Hull, Nancy Mason and sitting are Joanne Bretsnyder and Jane Stewart. Opening night for the all freshman presentation is Monday and the play will run through Saturday. Reservations must be made in the Speech office from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

'January Thaw' Opens Monday Night With All Roles Portrayed By Freshmen

By Jacque Walker

Feel like a few laughs to help overshadow those fast-approaching mid-semester blues? Or how about an evening's entertainment of good, down-to-earth fun? If either (or both) of these promising diversions appeal to you, your best bet is to head to the Little Theatre during the week of October 29.

In case you haven't discovered the exact location of our theatre, just follow the uproarious laughter (at approximately 8:15 and thereabout next Monday through Saturday) and presently you will come upon the gala presentation of "January Thaw" —the first major show of the season.

Seriously, though, people, I believe you'll find this all-freshman production well worth your while. Not only does "January Thaw" present an opportunity to show off some of the new found talent among our frosh, but is also affords you some light-hearted and gay entertainment.

Let me give you a slight rundown, as a sort of 'sneak' preview. Here we have a nice serene family scene focused against the quaint background of an old restored farmhouse. Did I say it was peaceful? Well, I'd better correct myself and add—for a brief time only! Before the action is too far underway, the Gage family find themselves trying to live under one roof (and retain their sanity at the same time) with an elderly, country-type couple and their Romeo of a son who have accused the Gages of assuming "squaters' rights!"

If you think you're confused now, just wait until the plot really begins to unfold! By the time all these unforgetable distractions force Mr. Gage away from writing his potential "best-seller" novel, and it is feared that his eldest daughter has eloped with the afore-said country-casanova, papa is tearing his hair and the audience should be convulsed with laughter! The factor that makes this hilarious comedy unique is that with all these fun-provoking incidents, it manages to retain its subtle humor.

The cast of this happy and very confused play includes John McCall and Jane Stewart as Herbert and Marge Gage; Joanne Bretsnyder, Lois Brawdy, and Alice Westapal playing Sarah, Paula, and Barbara Gage, respectively; Barbara Moorhouse as the Gage's independent maid Freida and Reid Clifford as George Husted.

On the opposing team (figuratively speaking, of course!) are David Kromer and Nancy Mason portraying Jonathan and Mathilda Rockwood, with Bob Hull as their son Matt.

Also in the cast are Scott Carter as Mr. Loomis, Al Horn as Uncle Walter, and Brian Gates as Carson.

"January Thaw," adapted from the novel by Bellamy Partridge, was written by William Roos, and is directed by Miss Charlotte Forsberg of the speech department. The show will be presented next week on October 29, 30 and 31 and November 2 and 3. Reserved seats are still available upon request in the speech office, room 110 in Old Main. And remember, your activity tickets are all you need to see "January Thaw."

Don't miss this chance to set in on one of the funnniest plays of the season. Let's see everybody at the "January Thaw" production next week!

Edwards, Jensen Assist Election Debate Panel

An election debate in the form of a round table discussion will be held in the TUB, October 30 at 4:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to share their opinions after the panel discussion. Dr. Edwards and Dr. Jensen will assist the panel.

News Brief

Dr. Cleo Hummel spoke to Tri-Beta Wednesday on the biology and ecology of some gall-producing midges. She also showed the group several slides and black and white prints on the same subject.

Six Tri-Beta Members Attend Med. Convention

Attending the Pre-Medical and Pre-Dental convention at Hanneman college in Philadelphia today and tomorrow are the following members of Beta Beta Beta: Bob Altman, Jack Rickard, Jim Casley, Frank Marsico, George Leak and Dr. George Bijjani. The purpose of this trip is to have interviews for entrance to the various medical and dental schools being represented at the convention.

Talent In Demand . . .

Anything for Laughs

By Scottie Price

You think you're funny?? Well, here's your chance to prove it. From October 15 through December 1 a search is being conducted in colleges and universities to discover the "Campus Cartoonist of the Year."

This is the first time that such a project has been attempted; and three of the world's top cartoonists—Groucho Marx, Steve Allen and Al Capp—are helping to sponsor the idea. Behind the whole contest is Box Cards, a national cartoon syndicate.

"Campus Cartoonist of the Year" contest judge Groucho Marx, left, and Box Cards president Bill Kennedy look over company's humorous greeting cards while discussing nation-wide college search for the number 1 campus cartoonist. Winner's first prize is a 7-day all expense holiday in Paris via TWA. Other judges are Steve Allen and Al Capp. Contest starts Oct. 15, ends Dec. 1.

General information, rules and entry blanks will be available in the bookstore, plus samples of Box Cards cartoons. This will enable the student to see the type of humor desired. Basically, plain sketches conveying modern humor are preferred.

Now check this!!!!! The winner will receive a free, all-expense paid seven-day vacation in Paris, France, via TWA Trans-World Airlines Super-G Constellation. How would you like to spend this Christmas vacation walking on the Champs d'Elysees, climbing the Eiffel Tower and touring other well-known places? Naturally, the winner will also get widespread recognition in newspapers, television, radio and magazines. Should a Westminsterite win, we might even give him a job on the Holcad!

So here's your chance—pick up that paper and pencil and get to work! There are a million-and-one possibilities for crazy cartoons right here at Westminster. Start racking your brains, kids, and you could achieve the title of "Campus Cartoonist for the Year."

McKee Plans Week's Chapels On Politics

Beginning Monday, Oct. 29, there will be a series of four chapels under the chairmanship of Dr. Delber McKee. The purpose of these chapels is to inform the students of the election and the issues.

Monday's chapel will be presented by Mr. Moorhouse and Dr. McKee speaking on "The Presidency and the Campaign." Tuesday, Dr. Jenson and a panel of Phi Alpha Theta and I.R.C. members will carry on a discussion of the campaign issues.

Chapels will be combined and held 12:30 Wednesday afternoon in the chapel. At that time Judge Walter Braham from Lawrence county court will discuss "Why I Like Ike", while Merle Hildebrand, chairman of the Democratic party organization, will speak on "Why I Like Adalai." To accommodate this afternoon assembly, the 11:15 classes will begin at 10:45 and lunch will be served at 11:50. The last chapel of the series will be held Thursday with Dr. Adams and Dr. Charles Edwards speaking on "The Christian and Politics."

WKST Features Student Broadcasts

A special Hallowe'en program will be broadcast over WKST New Castle, Saturday, Oct. 27 at 10:15 a.m. Lorraine Egli will be featured as the narrator. Her selection will include "Hallowe'en" by Elsie Thornberg, "The Witches" by Joan Ashurst, "Little Orphan Annie" by James Whitcomb Riley, and "Ichabod Crane's Ride" by Hawthorne. William Bovard, who is producing the show, will also be the announcer, with George Lowther acting as technical director.

On the following Wednesday, Oct. 31, at 9:30 p.m., another program will be broadcast over WKST New Castle. This show will be a discussion presented by the Political Science Department. Dr. Charles P. Edwards will moderate the panel, consisting of Ann Price and Glenn McCracken. Their discussion topic is "College Comment on the Campaign." Rick Aurandt will announce the show.

Cinemascope Comes To Town

It's coming. It will be here Tuesday. The Wilmington theater is getting CINEMASCOPE.

This is quite an occasion in the history of the town. First, the theater gets all the best pictures available for the regular screen. However, the small screen was limiting the choice of some of the more recent popular shows and the student managers of the theater want New Wilmington to have the best of all the pictures produced. Now Cinemascope will bring us the tops.

There is a four star line-up scheduled for the Wilmington theater which no one will want to miss. Tuesday the first showing of Cinemascope will be "The Eddie Duchin Story." Following this great picture will be "Carousal", "The Man in the Grey Flannel Suit", "Moby Dick", "Mr. Roberts", "The King and I" and "Bus Stop."

To guarantee excellent pictures in the future, we must support the theater now. For instance, take in the first movie tonight and you will be out in time to attend the house parties before they begin. See you at the Wilmington theater!

Be Informed And VOTE

Next week the history department, IRC and Phi Alpha Theta are sponsoring chapels to discuss the political campaign and the forthcoming presidential election.

Although many students have been following the political campaign, there are many who are not acquainted with the backgrounds of the candidates or their platforms.

For those of you who have a vote in the coming election you should try to find out all that is possible about the activities of this vital campaign year in order to vote intelligently.

If you are of voting age, you should know where you will vote. If you live too far from home to cast your vote on November 6, you must register for an absentee ballot.

This year is an important election year. Be informed and vote.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, October 26, 1956 No. 5

EDITOR — Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR — Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR — Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR — Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS — Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR — Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER — Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER — David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR — Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR — Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS — By Dick Bibler

Westminster . . .

Ring Out the Bells

By I. Emma Bell

Every college is known for some special trait—Pitt is known for the Panthers; Carnegie Tech for its Kiltie Band; Bethany for its prejudiced football officials; and Grove City for its splendid building built by the Pew oil millions. And what does Westminster have to show to the other schools? Well, we have our fabulous Titan football team and—oh yes, the Westminster chimes.

Have you ever felt that you are hearing bells in your ears. If you are in New Wilmington more than likely you are unless you are deaf. The Westminster chimes are famous the world over but there are undoubtedly a large bunch of students who don't actually care for them—for instance the nightly call of the carillion. Have you ever been studying in the library at seven when they turned loose? Believe it or not old McGill (he's the one hanging over the fireplace in the second floor reading room) is doing the rock and roll with each vibrating note.

Let's take a look at Fanny Freshman as she is studying for her civilization test. Parking herself on the couch she begins to study diligently at 6:45. She hasn't even discovered Cro-Magnon man before her deep concentration is shattered with the first loud bong. After counting off the seven bongs, Fanny returns to history or rather she tries to return to history. But, no, the bells start again, and this time they are playing songs. Thus her history book reads like this:

"A great civilization was created in Babylon . . . Oh My Dream Girl of Old Phi Tau . . . now the pharaohs of Egypt built the pyramids . . . . momma's little baby loves shortnin, shortnin, . . . . Egypt was divided into the lower and upper Kingdoms . . . . White Star of Sigma Nu, Bright star of Sigma Nu . . . . Assurbanipal had the first library . . . Red Sails in the Sunset, way out on the sea. . . The Greeks had a high standard of civilization . . . . Who says sweetheart to you; who calls you all his own . . . . Sparta was known for its militaristic attitude . . . My Sigma Phi Epsilon Sweetheart, wonderful Sig Ep girl . . . . Rome was founded on Seven Hills . . . Away in a manger, no crib for His bed . . . . Now in Rome there were the patricians, the plebeians, and the slaves . . . . The Bells of St. Mary's, Ah hear they are calling . . . . Then comes blissful silence and Fannie can get back to her lessons. But the Westminster chimes are part of Westminster so, "Ring out the Bells in Old Main Tower Again."

Strange Things . . .

Grounded Egg Beaters

By Koula Svokos

Strange things are happening around campus! There probably is some logical explaination for the pecularity which occurred last week, but who can explain it ? ? ?

It all happened last Tuesday evening as three Westminster women were enjoying their usual after-dinner walk. While strolling down New Castle street, they suddenly noticed a helicopter driving toward them! (Before jumping to any conclusions, hear this—the girls were quite sane at the time!)

Having seen the plane, each of the girls immediately shouted, "Do you see it too, or am I going crazy!" Then all they could do was giggle, as people often do in such a predicament. (Imagine what the pilot must have thought of them.)

What difficulties these three are having in their attempt to convince their friends that what they saw was not a figment of their imaginations! The average persosn, upon hearing this, suggests that possibly they merely saw a late model foreign car or it was just an optical illusion. The girls, however, insist that it was a genuine helicopter.

You can laugh if you wish, but what would you do if you were to meet a helicopter in the street? Maybe the best solution would be to ignore it, and not tell your friends about it! They would never believe you anyway.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Have you noticed how everything has sorta' slowed down. The six week tests, homecoming and sorority rushing have left everyone almost dead on his feet. The member of the faculty who shows the most fatigue is Dr. Jensen. His current event, Elizabeth Jean, is home from the hospital and he is missing his nightly eight hours of sleep. C' est la vie.

* * *

Last Tuesday was probably the best chapel held in ages as for student interest. In fact, it was so good that many people went back for a second showing at 1 p.m. Mickey Greco's technique and swing really won a place in the hearts of all music lovers. Assemblies of this type should be held more often. There is a lot of good talent on campus and the only audience is the four walls of the conservatory practice rooms. Thanks again Mickey for the wonderful chapel. We're all proud to have such talent in our midst.

* * *

Have you Heard?

Speaking of music, I saw in Dorothy Kilgallen's column the other day a piece about a new singing rage. He wears a turban, and his motions will make Elvis Presley seem like a choir boy. He bills himself as "Screaming Jay Hawkins." As Jimmy Durante would say, "Everybody's trying to get into the act."

* * *

Many jokes have been made about Westminster's rather humid climate. One person has suggested that Johnny Ray's "Walking in the Rain" should be selected as our alma mater. And wasn't it appropriate that the local movie was showing "Miracle in the Rain" after a rather soggy weekend?

* * *

Have you ever felt that everyone was looking at you? Well that must be the way the girls at Browne feel with workmen working just outside their windows. In a few weeks, those who room on the upper floors will be eye level with the new dorm. With all the noise and distraction, it will be a wonder if they can study at all.

* * *

Everybody just roared when the announcer at last Saturday's football game referred to Vince Cortese as "the captain of the Titan Union" . . I think we'll all admit that they work like a machine but they haven't gone union. Another interesting comment was made by Geneva's president when he said that he thought his boys were doing a good job of mopping up the field. I agree with him wholeheartedly and hope that Geneva will be just as willing to mop up the field house floor during basketball season.

News Headlines . . .

Hungary Rebels Against Communism

Civil War Breaks Out in Hungary—After just lifting pressure from a rebellious Poland, a civil war broke out in Communist controlled Hungary. Russian troops were quickly ordered to the scene to put down the uprising. These recent outbreaks behind the Iron Curtain show that the Communist position is anything but clear.

Eisenhower Against H-Bomb Ban—President Eisenhower said that in looking over the postwar history the United States would not even dare suspend H-Bomb testing without a system of dependable international disarmament controls. This is a complete reversal of Stevenson's stand on H-Bomb testing.

Arab Riots Hit North Africa—Widespread Arab riots broke out in North Africa after the French government had arrested five masterminds of the Algerian Nationalist rebellion. Three Frenchmen were killed in the outbursts.

Mellon Institute Going to Build $1,000,000 Radiation Research Lab—Mellon Institute, which it the oldest scientific research institute in the country, is going to build a million-dollar laboratory for their radiation research department in Export. This is the first major expansion of Mellon since it set up its present headquarters on Fifth Avenue in 1937.

Duff battles Democrats—Many political viewers feel that the Democrats have built up so much power that they will be able to wash Senator James H. Duff out of the Senate and replace him with former Mayor Joseph S. Clark of Philadelphia.

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

When Westminster gridders face the Waynesburg Yellow Jackets tomorrow, there may be many sad faces on Westminster's campus. Waynesburg may turn out to be one of the toughest competitors our team has faced in many moons. They are certainly better than their four losses and a tie this year show. Their record this year probably stems from their radical change from their traditional single wing layout to a slot T formation used by the Pittsburgh Steelers. The slot T consists of putting a halfback out on the right hand side of the line, thus putting out an extra man for a pass.

Doesn't Take Advantage

However, Waynesburg apparently doesn't take advantage of this particular formation. They are definitely not a passing ball club, throwing only twenty-four passes in their last two games. On running, they are a team to watch. With all their heavy players, one would suppose that their line is strong and slow. This is not true. Their line is strong. Their backs are fast, too. The lightest man on the team, Frank Gounder, had a long run last year that set up the tieing touchdown.

Traditionally, Waynesburg gets its players from the Pennsylvania coal mines. These particular people don't seem to care a whole lot about their other games, but are holding back for their tangle with the Titans. They and probably everyone else are out for our winning streak of seventeen games that now stands as the longest in the state. Last week Waynesburg lost to St. Vincent's as the Vincents came from behind to win. The week before they lost in the last thirty seconds.

Titans Favored

This year, Westminster is definitely favored over Waynesburg. We will be playing on our own field under better conditions than the mudhole court of the Yellowjackets. This notwithstanding, we will have a tough game.

Six Sororities Begin Volleyball Tournament

The round-robin inter-sorority volleyball tournament has gotten underway. The latest scores are:

| | |
|---|---|
| Alpha Gamma Delta | 17 |
| Beta Sigma Omicron | 42 |
| Sigma Kappa | 25 |
| Theta Upsilon | 29 |

No games were played this week and the volleyball games will not be resumed until November 5.

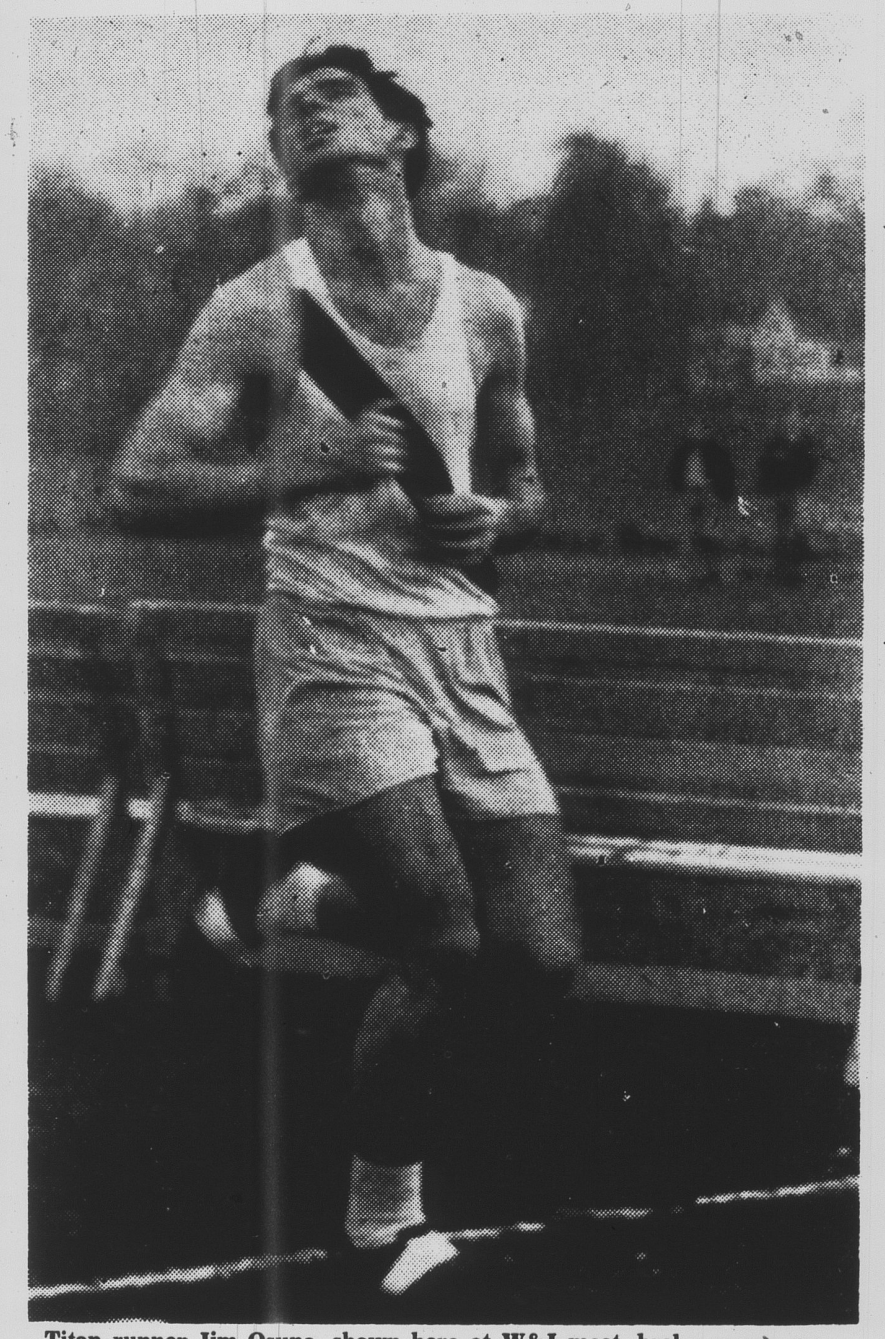

WE REPLACE OR REPAIR LENSES
J. R. MEEK
Your Local Jeweler

A Complete Selection of Shoe Polish and Shoe Laces
Fusco Shoe Shop
Bank Building

Pickle in the middle with the mustard on top . . . or anyway you like 'em.
It's "Footlongs" at
The Grille
They're the most

Westminster Wins 17th As Geneva Bows

Breaks Record

Titan runner Jim Osuna, shown here at W&J meet, broke course record at Grove City last week.

Titans Hosts To Yellow Jackets

Yellow Jackets Will Be Tough to Beat

Although Westminster's football team is undefeated and Saturday's opponent, Waynesburg, is winless, Titan coach Harold Burry is certain his squad won't be overconfident.

The grid records show Waynesburg has won 10 of the last 13 meetings between the colleges. The Titans won 20-0 in 1953, and there have been two ties in the last 13 games. Last fall the Yellow Jackets and Westminster battled to a 7-7 tie.

Tomorrow's contest will be at Westminster's Memorial field with the kickoff set for 2 p.m., Eastern Standard Time. Westminster officials expect another large crowd, including thousands of Synod Day visitors to the campus.

Waynesburg Ahead

Waynesburg holds a decisive 15-5-2 edge in the all-time rivalry which began in 1910. The last previous Titan victory before the 1953 game was in 1928 when Westminster won 13-0.

This fall Westminster has copped four straight to lengthen its non-losing streak to 17. The last Titan defeat was to Carnegie Tech in 1954, 6-0. Titan victims this year have been Thiel, Grove City, Bethany, and Geneva.

Coach John Popovich's gridders, who shared the mythical Class B championship with Westminster last season, have 4 losses and a tie this year. The Yellow Jackets have lost to West Liberty, Geneva, Kent State, and West Virginia Tech, while tying St. Vincent.

Big Line

Waynesburg has probably the biggest line in the district, averaging about 208 pounds. Heaviest regulars are end Bob Mazie, 215, and tackle Fran Danser, at 240 pounds.

Westminster's rugged forward wall played one of its finest games against Geneva. The Titans are anchored by end Vince Cortese, tackle Bernie Reilly, guards Jack Lewis and Bill Morrell and center Bill Freshwater.

Titan Harriers Win Number Two

W&J, Grove City Bow; Osuna Sets Record

It was a busy week for the Titan harriers as they picked up their first and second wins of the season.

On Wednesday the Titans defeated Washington and Jefferson 33-24 for their second victory of the year, as Blue and White harrier Jim Osuna placed first. Jerry Paul was second, Pete Marshall fourth, Gib McCreery fifth and Bob Patton twelfth.

Last Saturday at Morgantown the harriers upset West Virginia 28-27. Acy Jackson led the Titans with a third place followed by Marshall, Osuna, McCreery and Paul who finished fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth, respectively.

Prior to the two Titan victories the Blue and White suffered their fourth defeat of the year as Grove City downed them 32-23. Osuna set a new record on the Grove City course. Marshall, Jackson, Paul and McCreery rounded out the Titan scoring.

The remaning schedule is: Oct. 26 at Carnegie Tech; Oct. 29 at Slippery Rock; Tri-State meet at Slippery Rock, Nov. 2.

Davis And White Connect As Geneva Fades Fast 28 - 0

Alumni Get Thrill as Titans Come Through; Geneva Promises to Be Tougher Next Year

By Ray Luber

Westminster's Titans extended their phenomenal undefeated string to 17 as they crushed Geneva's Covies 28-0 Saturday.

Quarterback Harold Davis tallied what proved to be the winning score as he climaxed a 60 yard drive by the Titans. Vince Cortese converted the first of four extra points and the score stood 7-0 with only 2 minutes and 15 seconds of the first quarter gone.

Two More

In the second quarter the Blue and White pushed over two more touchdowns to boost the score to 21-0. Harold Davis went to the air as he engineered both scores. For the first TD he tossed a fifty yard pass to Titan end Vince Cortese. The play occurred on the seventh play from scrimmage and climaxed a 68 yard drive.

Halfback Willie Davis gave Titan rooters an amazing demonstration of broken field running as he scored the second TD of the period. Willie picked off quarterback Harold Davis' pass and eluded four Geneva tacklers before he finally reached pay dirt. Vince Cortese booted his third extra point and the Titans held a commanding 21-0 lead.

Covies Fall

The Covies threatened only once during the game and it came in the second period. They managed to penetrate to the Westminster 21 yard line but the Titans regained the ball on downs and ended Geneva's only scoring threat.

In the third period the Blue and White crossed the goal line for the final time. Westminster's leading scorer, fullback "Whizzer" White, pushed over from the one yard line. The play followed a 10 yard pass interference penalty against Geneva. The TD was White's seventh of the season.

Trouble

For a few seconds it looked like the fourth quarter would be a repetition of Westminster's memorable game with Bethany two weeks ago. Both benches emptied when Geneva's Bob Price tangled with Titan Chuck Powell. The officials checked any further action and the game was quickly resumed. The All-State end was ejected from the game.

Neither team scored in the final period although the Blue and White had an excellent chance. They had the ball on Geneva's one yard line but were unable to score. When the final whistle blew, Westminster's Titans had a 28-0 victory under their belt. The victory was a fitting present for alumni who were visiting Westminster for the annual Homecoming weekend.

Tomorrow the Titans host what could be a tough Waynesburg team. The Titans, however, are favored to extend their skein to 18 straight.

Sigma Nu Tops College Hall For Eighth

The past week's action in intramural football saw the undefeated Sigma Nu's win two games. They swamped Russell hall in a free scoring tilt 57-30 and downed College hall 26-6. The Alpha Sigs also won two games upsetting the Sig Eps 30-19 and defeating College hall 30-19.

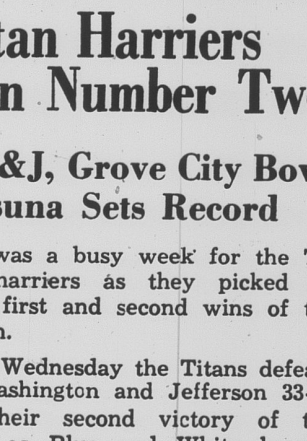

Next week's schedule: Monday—Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Sigma Nu; Tuesday—College hall vs. Russell hall; Wednesday—Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Phi Kappa Tau; Thursday—Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Russell hall; Friday—Sigma Nu vs. Phi Kappa Tau.

The Standings

| | W | L | T |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sigma Nu | 8 | 0 | 0 |
| Sigma Phi Epsilon | 5 | 2 | 0 |
| Alpha Sigma Phi | 4 | 3 | 1 |
| College hall | 2 | 5 | 0 |
| Phi Kappa Tau | 1 | 5 | 0 |
| Russell hall | 1 | 6 | 1 |

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Westminster 27 | Thiel 21 |
| Westminster 60 | Grove City 0 |
| Westminster 40 | Bethany 16 |
| Westminster 28 | Geneva 0 |
| Oct. 27 | Waynesburg |
| Nov. 3 | At Indiana S.T.C. |
| Nov. 19 | At SlipperyRock S.T.C. |
| Nov. 17 | Carnegie Tech |

the voiceless

your vote is your voice—don't lose it

YOU TELL THE WORLD . . . SEE YOU AT THE POLLS

Speak up, good and loud, November 6—and no one can ever speak down to you.

One thing we all know—every vote (yes, your vote) is vital. It shows the world how much we believe in this democracy we talk so much about. And it puts a plug in for peace.

Don't miss your say-so. Don't miss your vote—your voice is just as important as that of anyone else in the world.

HOLCAD
STUDENT COUNCIL
PHI ALPHA THETA

If It's Baked
We Can Bake it
Specializing in your Speciality
WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Walkers Have It . . .
FOR THE BEST IN Hunting Epuipment
- Woolrich Hunting Clothes
- Peter's Ammunition
- Winchester Firearms

REMEMBER—
Small Game
Opens Saturday 9 a.m.
J. A. Walker Hdwre
Across from the Bank

SOCIAL WHIRL

Fraternity House Parties Tonight; KD Sponsors Record Dance Saturday

By Dianne Oursler

Tradition took a reverse this week as Westminster sorority girls and rushees made "dates" for anything from an eight o'clock doughnut at the TUB to a peek at the campus kindergarten . . . "getting to know you, getting to know all about you!" However, the fellows will once again resume the role of asking as they open the houseparty season this evening.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Lee Rapp has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Herman Grip . . . Tonya Stanfar has accepted the Phi Kappa Tau pin of Don Scott . . . Chairmen for the final rush party are Peggy Black, Sue Bechtel, Elizabeth McGill, Polly Yaple and Irma Allen . . . Many alumni visited the chapter Homecoming weekend.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Andrea Williams, of Wooster college, has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Richard Augenbaugh.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Mary Lou Heilbrun accepted the Phi Gamma Delta pin of Walter King of Gettysburg college . . . Donna Boyle was in charge of the Homecoming breakfast and Jean Aungst was chairman of the alumni tea . . . Mary Albright, Janet Gittings, '53; Pat Bowley, Lynn Daugherty, Shirley Iffert, Marlene Rahenkemp, '56; Isabel Burkhart, Lanni Stanier, ex. '59; Pat Kemp, Emy Low Fohrenbacher, ex '58 and Verlee Jones, '52 were on campus this weekend.

CHI OMEGA . . . Ginger Minor has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of David Rankin . . . Salle Hamilton is in charge of the pancake breakfast to be held Saturday morning. Suzanne Essinger, Judy Gray and Elaine Beckett are committee heads. . . Ginger Minor is general chairman of the final rush party. Jean Deighan is in charge of decorations.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Beverly Bemiss has accepted the Phi Kappa Tau pin of Jack Loeffler . . . Jeanne Douthett is chairman of the record dance tomorrow night . . . Many alumni visited the campus this weekend and attended the tea held in their honor. Included were Barbara Wiseman, Carol Fairlamb, ex '58; Natalie Schenck, Marion Wolk, Barbara Haldy, Shirley Metzger, '56; Anne Risser, Judy Kirkpatrick and Patricia Adams, ex '59.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . George Killa is in charge of the houseparty in honor of the new pledges tonight. Among the alumni that were here last weekend were past presidents: Roger Kelsey '56, John Schmidt, '55 and William Meyer, '53.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . . Homecoming visitors included Virginia McMahon, Dixie Humphries, Ruth Latta, Jane Smith, Barbara Sampson, Pat Cowan, Jean Gresh and Dorothy DeWitt. . . . Iris McKnight has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Al Kohl.

SIGMA NU . . . Janet Bruder, sophomore at the University of Pittsburgh, has accepted the Sigma Nu pin of Richard Cain . . . Edward Echnoz was in charge of the smoker held Thursday evening . . . Glenn Smith heads committees for tonight's houseparty . . . Gordon Ardnt, Mattison Cresse, Thomas Finlay, Francis Gardner, Charles Lanigan and Jerry Neff visited the chapter last weekend. Also here were Alfred Roe, Steve Prokopchak, Richard Smith, Robert Speers, Carl Swanker and Roland Tallarico.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Howward Thomas is in charge of the houseparty Friday which will have a "Green Door" theme . . . Michael Tomko visited the chapter at the University of Pittsburgh last weekend.

Ex Libris

With the beginning of a new school term the thoughts of all Westminster scholars should naturally turn to their new books in the library this year. Everyone should find something he likes since there are several books of a variety of types.

One book of current interest is "The Inside Story" by Robert J. Donovan. Just as the title implies, this book shows life in the White house and behind the scene occurrences during the Eisenhower administration.

A new novel by Guy McCrone is "Charlotte and Dr. James" it is the love story of James Mennock, a young country doctor who became a great surgeon. Three generations of Mennock's family are portrayed in a setting of Scotland and London.

A biography which should be entertaining as well as inspiring is "To The Golden Shore," the story of Adoniram Judson, told by Courtney Anderson. Adoniram Judson was the first American minister to establish a mission in the East. He translated the entire Bible into Burmese and prepared the first English-Burmese dictionary.

Bible students may be interested to hear of the book by Mary Ellen Chase, "Life and Language in the Old Testament. She tells of the ancient Hebrews and their story tellers and poets in an engaging manner which makes them seem more human and interesting.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Oct. 26
Chapel—Phi Alpha Theta
3:30-5:30 Campus Club, Hillside
Fraternity House Parties
Saturday, Oct. 27
9:00-11:30 Chi Omega Pancake Breakfast
Football—2:00, Waynesburg, home
9:00-11:30—Kappa Delta Record Dance
Sunday, Oct. 28
9:45 Bible Class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers—Rev. Thomas Gregory
Monday, Oct. 29
Chapel, Dr. Delbert McKee
Mr. Melvin Moorhouse
4:30-6:00 Kappa Delta Rush Party
8:15 Play
Tuesday, Oct. 30
Chapel, Dr. Jensen
4:30-6:00 Sigma Kappa Rush Party
7:00-8:30 Alpha Gamma Delta Rush Party
7:00 Student Council
8:15 Play
Wednesday, Oct. 31
Chapel—Judge W. W. Braham
Merle Hildebrand
4:30-6:00 Chi Omega Rush Party
8:15 Play
Thursday, Nov. 1
Chapel, Dr. Norman Adams
Dr Charles Edwards
4:30-6:00 Beta Sigma Omicron Rush Party
7:00-8:30 Theta Upsilon Rush Party
7:00 IRC
7:00 Alpha Psi Omega
8:15 Lecture, Dr. A. R. Siebens
Friday, Nov. 2
Chapel, Spiritual Emphasis Committee
Sorority Pledging
8:15 Play

Sorority Rush Parties Scheduled Next Week

The sorority final rush parties are starting on Monday, Oct. 29. They are scheduled as follows:

Monday, Oct. 29, 4:30-6:00 Kappa Delta.

Tuesday, Oct. 30, 4:30-6:00 Sigma Kappa.

Tuesday, Oct. 30, 7:00-8:30 Alpha Gamma Delta.

Wednesday, Oct. 31, 4:30-6:00, Chi Omega.

Thursday, Nov. 1, 4:30-6:00 Beta Sigma Omicron.

Thursday, Nov. 1, 7:00-8:30, Theta Upsilon.

College Parents Schedule Meeting

At a recent meeting of the Westminster College Parents' league, the group voted to hold a Parents' Day Nov. 17, in addition to the Parents' Day in the spring.

Mr. R. J. Studley, newly-elected chairman, presided at the meeting held at the college.

The committee adopted five motions including:

(1) That a closer relationship be established between the college and parents of students.

(2) Parents be informed of the activities, policies and plans of the college.

(3) Parents be encouraged to transmit their opinions, ideas and suggestions to the college.

(4) To assist in bringing facts about Westminster to a wider audience of prospective students and friends.

(5) To establish and develop an annual fund program that will be added strength to the college.

The group voted to hold a committee meeting at 9 a.m., Nov. 17, to prepare a statement to be issued to all parents at the general meeting. The committee also recommended that a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer be elected at the first general meeting of the league. The group passed a motion to select a steering committee not to exceed 25 members to aid the executive committee.

Representing the college at the meeting were President Will W. Orr, Dr. John H. Forry, academic dean, and Paul Gamble, executive secretary of the alumni. Members of the executive committee present were Mrs. Jesse B. Bechtel, Mr. Frank A. Finlay, Mrs. Howard Guy and Mr. Robert A. McConnell.

Service Test Sets Deadline

College students interested in taking the Selective Service College Qualification test have until midnight, Tuesday, Oct. 30, to submit application, it was announced today by Lyle M. Spencer, president of Science Research associates, authors and administrators of the test.

The purpose of the testing program is to provide evidence for local Selective Service boards so they may consider student deferment for military service registrants.

To be eligible to apply for the test, scheduled to be given November 15 to college students in 900 test centers throughout the United States, Alaska, the Canal Zone, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, a student must intend to request deferment as a student, be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction and must not have previously taken the test.

Students interested in taking this test to qualify for possible draft deferment, in order to continue their college education, are urged to have their completed application postmarked no later than midnight, October 30. Applications dated after October 30 will not be accepted.

For additional information, applications and addresses of test centers, students should consult any Selective Service board.

HI-LANDER
THEATRE
New Castle, Pa.

Now Through Saturday

JOHN PAYNE
as "THE BOSS"
IT REVEALS EVERYTHING BUT NAMES!

Released Thru United Artists

Starts Sunday

TEEN-AGER FACES THE FACTS OF LIFE!
What was her secret?

M-G-M presents
JAMES CAGNEY
BARBARA STANWYCK
in THESE WILDER YEARS
WALTER HODGSON

Attention girls . . . .
SPECIAL
Sorority Jackets
49¢
Oct. 26-30 ONLY
Pick Up Service Monday
Ann McDowell
New Wilmington Cleaners

Important Announcement
WILMINGTON THEATER
Will Bring To Local Theater-Goers The Best In CINEMASCOPE
PICTURES
Beginning Tuesday, Oct. 30
With
"THE EDDY DUCHIN STORY"
Starring Tyrone Power and Kim Novak
TOMORROW & SATURDAY
"I'll Cry Tomorrow"
With Susan Hayward
— — A L S O — —
"Lawless Street"
Starring Randolph Scott

IF IT'S GOLDEN DAWN . . . .
. . . . IT'S GOOD
The family of fine foods
BROWN'S MARKET
. . . the Store with More

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it?"

DRINK Coca-Cola

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment . . . and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 6 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, November 2, 1956

Fifteen Seniors Selected For "Who's Who"

Fifteen seniors have been selected for the annual publication "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" announced Dr. John R. Edwards, dean of men, today. They include 10 women and 5 men students.

Honored Westminster men are David I. Abram, Des Moines, Ia.; Craig W. Cashdollar, Indiana, Pa.; William N. Jackson, Pittsburgh; Perry W. Kirklin, Ellwood City and Eugene P. Degitz, Oakmont.

Honored Women

Westminster women in the publication will be Lorraine M. Egli and Bettie J. Wagner, both of New Wilmington; Marilyn R. Elkins, Nazareth; Barbara A. Farrow, Bryn Mawr; Diane Levy, Punxsutawney; Elizabeth B. McGill, Oakdale; Dianne L. Oursler, New York, N.Y.; Helen C. Snyder, Grove City; Ann Price, Kenton, O. and Marcia A. Vandermast, Pittsburgh.

The selections are nationally made on high scholarship, activities, campus leadership, character, personality and promise of future usefulness.

Abram has been active in Beta Beta Beta, Christian Youth Fellowship, Phi Kappa Tau fraternity, and Christian Service. Cashdollar is president of Student Council, and a member of Phi Alpha Theta and the church choir. Jackson is president of Sigma Nu fraternity, and a member of the quartet, choir and track team.

Many Activities

Kirklin is a member of the football team, Block W, American Chemical society and Kappa Mu Epsilon. Degitz is vice president of Student Council, president of Phi Alpha Theta, treasurer of Christian Youth Fellowship and served as co-chairman of Spiritual Emphasis week.

Mrs. Egli is a member of Mortar Board, Mermaids, Masquers, Kappa Delta Pi and Alpha Psi Omega. Mrs. Wagner is secretary of the senior class, and president of the Women's Athletic association, Student Council, Mermaids and the Future Teachers of America. Miss Elkins is active in the vesper and concert choirs, Christian Service group, Mu Phi Epsilon, Kappa Delta Pi, Mortar Board, Cwens and Mermaids.

Miss Farrow

Miss Farrow is a member of Mortar Board, Women's Athletic association, Pi Sigma Pi, Epsilon Phi, Phi Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta Pi, and Holcad. Miss Levy participates in Senate, Mortar Board, Christian Youth Fellowship, Cwens and is a senior advisor.

Miss McGill is a member of Mortar Board, Alpha Psi Omega, Masquers and Pi Sigma Pi. Among Miss Oursler's activities are YWCA, Christian Youth Fellowship, Holcad, Senate and Future Teachers of America.

Miss Snyder is active in Mortar Board, Tri Beta, Theta Upsilon and Cwens. Miss Price is a member of Masquers, Tri Beta, Scrawl and Epsilon Phi. Miss Vandermast is president of Mortar Board, Argo coeditor, a member of Beta Beta Beta, Phi Alpha Theta and Pi Delta Epsilon.

Now Hear This

Assistant dean William Bruce of Harvard University Law school will be on campus Wednesday, Nov. 7, from 10 to 4 to interview those who are interested in Harvard. Students may sign up for appointments in the history office.

There will be an important business meeting of F.T.A. Tuesday, November 6, 1956 at 4:15 p.m. in the Science Hall, room 403. Prospective members should bring $2.00 dues.

They'er All So Nice

All rushees have had a hard decision in picking the sorority of their choice. The six sorority presidents are tempting Nancy Mason with their jackets and she appears to be giving each one the eagle eye. They are, left to right, Jackie Lytle, Alpha Gamma Delta; Irma Smith, Kappa Delta; Sandy Keeley, Chi Omega; Pat Hayman, Sigma Kappa; Diane Levy, Theta Upsilon and Sarah Haddad, Beta Sigma Omicron.

Sunday Vesper Service Opens Spiritual Emphasis Week Program

Dr. Chester Yeates, Guest Speaker, Conducts Group Discussions And Holds Conferences

Spiritual Emphasis week begins with vesper service in the Wallace Memorial chapel Sunday evening and will continue until communion service, Friday evening, Nov. 9.

Dr. Chester T. R. Yeates, D.D., pastor of the Westminster United Presbyterian church, Des Moines, Ia., will be the speaker this year.

Dr. Yeates, who succeeded Dr. Orr as senior pastor of the Westminster U.P. church, served as pastor of the Third U.P. church, New Castle from 1935-40. He also served a pastorate in Rochester from 1932-35.

Dr. Chester Yeates

During the week combined chapels will be held at 10:45 every morning. Monday through Thursday evenings, vesper services will be held in the chapel at 7 p.m. Topics for the morning and evening programs will be posted each day on the stand in front of Dr. Orr's office. To conclude Spiritual Emphasis week, Dr. Yeates will speak on "The Measure of Love' 'at the communion service Friday evening at 7:15 p.m. in the chapel.

In addition to these services, informal discussion groups are scheduled each evening at 10 p.m. in the dormitories. Monday evening, Dr. Yeates will talk to the men of Russell hall and Colloge hall in Russell hall; Tuesday evening he will be at Hillside to talk to the women of Jeffers and Browne; Wednesday, talks will be held for fraternity men at the Alpha Sigma Phi house and the final discussion group will be at Ferguson hall Thursday for the women of that dormitory and those of the sorority houses.

Pause for Prayer will be conducted each day at 1 p.m. in the chapel. At 4 o'clock hymns will be played on the chimes. Personal conferences with Dr. Yeates can be arranged from 2:30-4:30 each afternoon in the Faculty lounge by appointment. These appointments may be made in the dean's office.

Monday night, directly after Vespers, William Jackson will conduct a Singspiration in Ferguson lounge. Marilyn Elkins will be the accompanist.

Chairmen of the various committees are daily chapel, Bob Palisin; program, Lou Ann Purvis; ushers, Dave Rankin; publicity, Peggy Bickel; prayer, Bill Beatty; hospitality, Beverly Bemiss; personal conferences, Nancy Sharp; music, Nancy Nickel, communion, Jerry Paul and discussion groups, Bob Altman.

News Brief

New directors of Dr. Orr's Bible class are Ed Hartman, Barry Smith, Ron Opfer, Tom McFarland, Jill Clarkson, Clara Gillis and Betty Thompson.

Sorority Rushing Ends As 103 Women Pledge

Sigma Kappa Takes Largest Class With 22; Theta Upsilon Comes in Second with 21

Six hectic weeks of sorority rushing ended today at 1 p.m. when 103 girls accepted bids to the six sororities on campus.

Heading the list was Sigma Kappa with twenty-two new pledges. Alpha Gamma Delta received thirteen; Beta Sigma Omicron, fifteen; Chi Omega, seventeen; Kappa Delta, fifteen; Theta Upsilon, twenty-one.

New pledges at Alpha Gamma Delta are Jane Barnes, Joanne Brewer, Anita Cicciarelli, Peg Funkhouser, Billie Gamble, Virginia Henthorne and Nancy Hunt.

Also Bea Koenig, Marcia Mereness, Helen Stevenson, Koula Svokos, Janet Wilson and Sara Worsley pledged.

Pledging Beta Sigma Omicron are Frances Beach, Nancy Beaver, Kay Dagnon, Ruth Gittings, Peggy Hawthorne, Janice Hoag and Norma Laird.

Others are Linda Larcher, Marjory Lesnett, Meda McCrory, Barbara Robert, Adala Stearns, Rugh Walker, Jane Wood and Pat Wyle.

Accepting Chi Omega bids are Norma Alexander, Grtechen Ames, Lois Brawdy, Sandy Danno, Eleanor Ellis, Barbara Frey, Mary Ann Hoff and Pat Johnson.

Also Cathy Latimer, Cindy Lawton, Margi Magnotti, Pat Mourot, Ruth Peterson, Nancy Sloan, Judy Spratt, Linda Tweedy and Alice Westapal pledged.

New Kappa Delta pledges are Joan Action, Judy Allison, Janice Ferguson, Winnie Fuellgraf, Betsy Guthrie, Nancy Hied and Peggy Henderson.

Others are Judy Jones, Bobbi Lindsey, Melissa Mahood, Peggy Maloney, Phyllis Neeley, Claire Porcello, Jane Stewart and Pat Titus.

Sigma Kappa pledges are Eva Backstrom, Joanne Balo, Dixie Barbe, Thelma Blystone, Margaret Broderick, Sally Britt, Ann Carlson, Carol Cassarly, Nancy Cunningham, Brenda Dorsch and Carole Houk.

Also Jane Houtz, Judy Hoyle, Mary Ann Hudkins, Joan Kratchman, Barbara Lockwood, Nancy Mason, Marilyn Moyer, Cornelis Selden, Elaine Shirley, Sandy Sidler and Barbara Sprenger pledged.

Accepting Theta Upsilon bids are Diana Bachellor, Maryetta Baker, Ann Bolam, Connie Boysen, Joanne Bretsnyder, Clara Campman, Carol Coolsey, Beverly Crum, Carol Davidson, Marion Dewar, Ruth Ann Falk and Virginia Kaelin.

Others are Judy Kaufman, Martha Lewis, Jeanne Manton, Joan Meanor, Barbara Moorhouse, Susan Sheriff, Margy Steffler, Helene Turner and Alicia Williams.

Fraternities Receive 93 New Pledges

Ninety-three men accepted fraternity bids last week. Sigma Phi Epsilon led in number pledging with 36; Sigma Nu and Phi Kappa Tau each pledged 24 and Alpha Sigma Phi pledged 20.

Sigma Phi Epsilon pledges are James Anderson, James Barker, John Bestwick, David Broderick, William Campbell, Nicholas Contakos, John Dudiak, David Edwards, Paul Francis, Donald Gill, Edward Gregory, Terry Halupa, Jim Hanford, John Hanley, Dave Hubbs, Lee Hunter and Bruce Ipe.

Others pledging Sig Ep are Charles Lambert, Gibby Lewis, Ray Luber, William McConnell, Gib McCreery, Richard Manspeaker, James Maurer, Samuel Moore, Edward Neese, Homer Phillips, Angelo Robertucci, Richard Sharp, John Shattuck, Donald Tallarom, Lee Turner, John Vignovic, Robert Von Moss, Bradley Wallace and William Ward.

The 24 pledging Sigma Nu were Melvin Adramovitz, Robert Alter, William Armour, Edward Baloga, James Butterworth, Vern Frame, Joe Fusco, Carl Greco, William Heidish, William Klein, James Latimer and Don Lodge.

Other Sigma Nu pledges are Donald McCaig, John Mellinger, Bob O'Shea, Franklin Partridge, Jack Pogue, William Rankin, John Rehfuss, Burley Robert, Leonard Smail, John Stilley, Thomas Stilley and Richard Stone.

Those pledging Phi Kappa Tau are Fred Aey; Charles Barker, Bruce Bowker, Kenneth Carr, Donald Christinse, Reid Clifford, John Doncaster, John Ericson, Dennis Hiebert, Bob Hull, Bob Hunt, Bill James, Philip Jones, Bruce Kennedy and Byron Kile.

Others pledging Phi Tau were Gerald King, John McCall, John Middleton, Ronald Opfer, William Peirce, Gardner Stahlman, Don Thomas, Guyon Weirman and John Lees.

The 20 Alpha Sigma Phi pledges are Charles Butera, Ben Brenner, Robert Coleman, Bruce Comstock, Alan Ellis, Ben Fast, Brian Gates, James Himminger, Alfred Horn, Richard Kauffman and George Kurchinsky.

Others who pledged Alpha Sig are Thomas McCullough, Kent Mally, John Miklos, John Moore, John Nelson, Robert Sefton, Barry Smith, Gerald Trimble and John Walker.

Dr. Forry Announces New Absence System

Dr. John Forry, dean of the college, has announced the new three point system for excused absences. The system is now in effect and should be followed by all students in order to obtain credit for unavoidable absences.

First, all excuses must be legitiment. Only illness or death in the immediate family will be accepted.

Second, after an absence, students must report to the Dean Forry's office to pick up a card which contains your name, the date of your absence, the reason for your absence and the signature of the dean.

Third, this card must be presented to all the professors of the excused day and will also excuse you from chapel.

After the card is signed by all professors, the card must be returned to the dean's office where it will be kept on file.

Kappa Mu Epsilon Initiates Eleven Students

At the initial meeting of Kappa Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary, on October 24 plans were made for the initiation banquet which will be held at the Tavern on November 15.

An invitation to join the fraternity has been sent to each of the following studetns who have met the requirements: Marcia Barrett, Dorothy Bush, Marilyn Felton, John Mansfield, Robert Palisin, Jerrold Paul, Bernard Reilly, Patricia Trosch, Howard Thomas Jr., Charles Wierman and Wallace Giffen. Mr. James Smith, new instructor in mathematics was also invited to become a member.

United Nations Trip Deadline Today

Remember! Today at 4 p.m. is your last chance to sign up for the United Nations trip. Deposits for the trip will be accepted in the history office up to that time.

The trip is from November 14 to 17. All women must have written permission from home

Help Build Up The Library

Every year at this time, Pi Sigma Pi, scholastic honorary, begins a drive for book donations and funds with which to purchase more books and periodicals for the library. The goal for this year's campaign is $500.

Although the library has a capacity of 100,000 volumes, the present count is only 52,948. The members of Pi Sigma Pi are interested in building up the total number of books in order to establish a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa on Westminster's campus. Without a larger number of volumes, this is impossible.

Perhaps the new students do not realize or have not discovered that there are very definite inadequacies in certain departments in the library. It has been difficult through the years, since the library was destroyed by fire in 1927, to build up some areas.

Although there is a budget which provides for a yearly increase of books, this is not enough to make a sizeable jump in the total listing. The budget is limited and must cover all expenses of the library. This includes the replacing of magazines and newspapers which are taken from the library.

Because of the carelessness on the part of students in the care of magazines and newspapers, the money which should be spent to purchase additional books must be used for the replacement of periodicals. This seems like a waste of money and librarians' time. This needless waste of money reduces the allotted sum to be used in the purchase of reference books.

Students complain about the inadequacies of the library but you are the ones responsible, in some ways, for this situation. More care should be exercised by everyone when using any property of the library so that in the future the material will be available.

The librarians have found that articles have been clipped from the newspapers in the reading room. These newspapers are filed for reference and are of little value if they are cut up. Please do not use the library newspapers to complete your scrapbook.

The rules and regulations have been set up for your protection. Obey them.

Don't forget to give to the Pi Sigma Pi book drive.

The Holcad

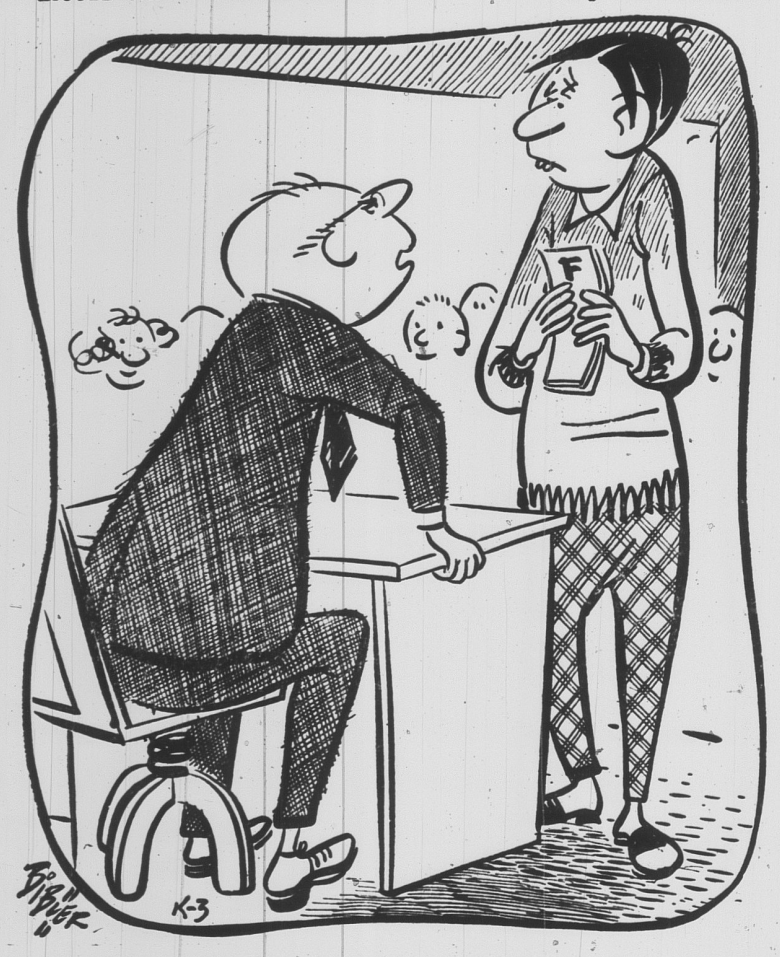

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, November 2, 1956 No. 6

EDITOR — Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR — Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR — Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR — Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS — Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR — Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER — Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER — David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR — Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR — Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"If you want to improve your daily papers, why don't you drop out of school for a few days?"

Background . . .

Of The Middle East Crisis

By Delber McKee

Editors Note: It isn't often that a feature is written by a faculty member. However, at the last possible moment, I asked Dr. Delber McKee, chairman of the History department, to discuss the background of the present middle east crisis. Because this topic is of interest to many on campus, we felt that the background on the crisis would be valuable in understanding the present developments.

One cannot possibly understand the present crisis in the middle east without going back at least to 1948 when Israel emerged after a short but bloody war with Egypt as a separate state. The present Egyptian president, Nassar, fought in that war and has waited for the day ever since when he could lead a better prepared Egypt back to crush Israel.

The other Arab states that surround the new state have also been hostile toward it. This feeling has been intensified by the flow of Arab refugees from Israel, embittered over discrimination and the loss of their homes in Israel. The belligerent attitude of the Jewish state has not improved the situation; conscious of its weakness in the midst of larger hostile neighbors, Israel has tried to compensate for its weakness by presenting a militant front. Nevertheless, it should be regarded as a little island surrounded by an Arab sea. The Arab states have never officially recognized its existence, and an uneasy truce, marked by constant raids by both sides, has continued over the last eight years. Only the UNO, backed by the moral support of the western powers, has prevented the outbreak of new conflicts in the area.

But more recent developments have weakened the restraining influence of the UN. When Egypt failed to get all of the arms that it wanted from the west, it turned to the USSR which is especially interested in the oil of the middle east. In flirting with the Communist Powers, Nasser antagonized the United States to the point where this country refused to supply a loan to Nasser for the construction of a huge dam at Aswan. Maddened by this, and particularly by the nature of the rejection, Nasser retaliated by nationalizing the Suez canal, a move that could not have been any better calculated to alarm and enrage the British if deliberately planned that way. The same act, as well as the belief that aid was being given by Nasser to the Algerians, also infuriated the French.

Although Egypt was left with few friends among the great powers, it could still count on the USSR—at least it could until the Russians became preoccupied during the last few days with the uprisings in Hungary and in Poland.

The breakdown of the truce in the middle east could have hardly failed to break down under the pressure of recent events. Israel had become increasingly restive over the recent Jordanian elections and the Egyptian buildup of strength with Russian arms. The British had seemed eager for any excuse to intervene against Egypt under a treaty right to reoccupy the Suez canal in case the canal was endangered. And the French had appeared willing to support the British in taking drastic measures.

With the Egyptians temporarily isolated, Israel judged the time ripe to embark on what resembled a preventive war, although it is called a "retaliatory action" by Israel. Rumors have it that the British knew Israel was planning the invasion and may have encouraged the step. Within a matter of hours Israel had advanced deep into Egyptian territory and had been joined not long afterwards by the British and French.

One cannot easily see how any nation can gain from the present conflict. The British may gain control of the Suez canal only to lose their precious oil and valuable property besides if the Arabs choose to destroy vital pipelines. Israel may win another little war but will still have to live with neighbors more hostile than ever. The United States and the Soviet Union face an alternative between another Korea and a destructive nuclear halocaust. Only a determined effort by both those powers has already indicated its strong desire to do so.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Welcome Estes . . . This is probably the biggest news that New Wilmington has had in a long time. A real live vice-presidential candidate has discovered us. He must be looking for the farm vote that Adlai is trying to take from Ike. After the chapel on Wednesday I'm afraid that Estes and his coonskin cap will still be sitting in Tennesee when Inaugural day rolls around. The Democratic representative on that panel was supposed to tell "Why I Like Adali". Until he was told he had one minute left, he still hadn't mentioned the candidate that he liked. Of course, we Republicans might be a bit prejudiced.

* * *

Have you seen a lost pig? Well, the girls at Ferguson and Hillside are looking for it. It seems that those poor kids are lacking in their pork diet . . . they have only had pork, ham, sausages, bacon and hot-dogs approximately fifteen times in the past ten days. What does a steak look like?

* * *

How do you like Westminster's little White House? The old TUB surely looks nice with its new coat of paint. The only drawback to the whole operation was that the TUB for the past week has been just full of flies. But I guess it is worth it.

* * *

After the many weeks of rushing and Homecoming, it will be a quiet rest during Spiritual Emphasis week. Every year, Spiritual Empahis week is a major part of the college life and every student should take time to attend some of these meetings.

* * *

In the past weeks when the Marines were in the TUB on their recruiting mission, I drew one conclusion from what I saw. Their strategy is all wrong. If they want to get girl marines they should send the fellows but if they want boy marines, they should send girl marines.

* * *

Do you realize that the New Wilmington Hallowe'en parade is a big thing for New Wilmington. The small-fry have a chance to win $16.00 worth of prizes for their costumes. This project has helped to cut down vandalism that is usually attributed to Hallowe'en fun.

News Headlines . . .

Trouble In Egypt

Egypt Giving Under Attack—After being bombed by French and British planes, the Egyptain Government is expecting a full scale invasion to be launched. Immediately Cairo broke diplomatic relations with Brittain and France which is just short of a full scale declaration of war. Brittain went on a semi-wartime basis when she announced that the B.B.C. hd reverted to the wartime practice of 9 p.m newscasts. They are also preparing to ration gasoline. Israel claims to have sealed off the Gaza strip.

Cardinal Mindszenty Freed by Rebel Troops—Hungarian rebel troops liberated Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, the Roman Catholic primate of Hungary who was arrested in 1948 by the Communist Hungarian government. He was serving a life sentence for treason and black market activities.

Red Flag Down in Hungary—Premier Imre Nagy announced that the Communist one-party system will be abolished and asked for the rebels to help prepare for free elections. The Reds have promised to move out.

Ike Cancels Campaign Trips Because of National Emergency—President Eisenhower cancelled his campaign tour because of the Mid-East Crisis. Meanwhile, Adlai Stevenson spoke to a huge crowd at Hunt Armory in Pittsburgh.

Marciano Visits Pittsburgh—Retired heavy-weight boxing champion admitted that he is very happy in retirement and is not planning on returning to the fight ring.

Kefauver Speaks in New Wilmington—Democratic candidate Estes Kefauver spoke to several hundred college students and townspeople today in New Wilmington, two days after Harrisburg approved a 2 million dollar building program for the New Wilmington School District. Accompanied by Governor Leader, the Senator from Tennessee praised the Democratic party's 'New America,' and advocated spending more money on schools than on war preparations. He also upheld Adlai Stevenson's stand on the H-bomb issue and criticized Ike's foreign policy.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

By Bob Holmes

Several months ago this article appeared in a Philadelphia paper datelined Little Rock, Arkansas. "The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) announced today its first annual football bowl game will be held Dec. 8 in War Memorial stadium. Executive secretary A. L. Duer said selection of the two teams will be handled by its nine member advisory committee."

The question has arrived; if Westminster can finish the season undefeated for a string of 21 games, will they get a bowl bid from the NAIA or any other bowl?

Many considerations would have to be made before an answer could be reached. First, the team would have to receive a bid. Then the school would have to give its permission to play in a post-season game. Thirdly, the players and coaches themselves would have to decide whether they want to play the game or not. Let's examine these three points carefully.

The first point is probably the most important. We have three tough games ahead of us, particularly the Carnegie Tech game. We will have to win all three to even be considered for post season play. Juniata played in a bowl last year but they had won 22 straight. (Lycoming stopped them at 25, 13-6, this season.)

Secondly, the administration would have to consent. They would have to weigh the publicity angle carefully. They would have to decide whether those extra weeks of practice would hurt the boys in their studies.

Thirdly, the players and coaches would have to make a final decision. Some of the key players we've talked to have said they would hesitate before backing a post season game. They would have to endure many more weeks of hard practice to keep in shape for the game, when their season would ordinarily be finished.

Westminster is a team which believes in top conditioning. Wind sprints and laps are daily practice routine. At the end of a hard eight game schedule the players are looking forward to the end of practice. It is certainly understandable if the boys vote against a bowl game, if they get a chance to vote.

Personally we would like to see the Titans continue on to 21 straight victories; we would like to see them receive a bowl bid. We think that the publicity gain would be valuable. But if the players get a chance to vote and they don't vote for it, we can see their point and understand it perfectly. We aren't the ones who practice for 2 or 3 hours every day.

INTRODUCING—
the S. S. S.
Super Steak Sandwich
50¢
A "SPECIAL" AT
The Grille

Walkers Have It . . .
FOR SHOWER—WEDDING
—ANNIVERSARY—
GIFTS
- Milkglass by Smith
- Glassware by Pyrex
- Kitchenware by Kromex

J. A. Walker Hdwre
Across from the Bank

Titans Enter In Tri-State Meet

Carnegie Tech, Geneva Also Enter At S. Rock

Westminster will be one of six cross country teams participating in the annual Tri-State harrier meet at Slippery Rock college today. The meet will be run over the Rockets' 4-mile hilly course.

Other teams in the affair will be defending champion, Geneva, Allegheny, Carnegie Tech, Grove City and Washington & Jefferson.

Geneva, which has won the past two years, is favored to repeat with a veteran undefeated squad. Homer Weaver, the Covies' sensational senior runner, has copped individual meet honors the past three years. He holds the course record of 20:02, set last year.

Other outstanding runners in the event will be Tech's Eric Ottervik and Larry Bryant, Geneva's Bill Jackson and Frank Brooker, Slippery Rock's Bob Dickinson, Grove City's Gene Isacco, W & J's Bill Milroth and Westminster's Jim Osuna. Slippery Rock's coach, Ford Hess, is director of the meet.

Other Titan runners competing will be Acy Jackson, Pete Marshall, Gib McCreery, Bob Patton, Jerry Paul and Dick Stone.

Titan Harriers faced two teams in the last week. Saturday, they faced Carnegie Tech and lost 38-20. Carnegie Tech boasted a team that was in good shape, and definitely more familiar wtih their own course. For Westminster, Osuna came in fourth, Paul came in fifth and Marshall came in seventh.

The second meet was with Slippery Rock at the Rock on Monday. Dickinson, who is favored to take the Tri-State championship, came in first. Jackson of Westminster came in second, Osuna of Westminster came in third and Marshall came in seventh for the Blue and White. The final score was 25-30 in favor of Slippery Rock.

The Titans are looking forward to the Tri-State meet today.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Westminster 27 | Thiel 21 |
| Westminster 60 | Grove City 0 |
| Westminster 40 | Bethany 16 |
| Westminster 28 | Geneva 0 |
| Westminster 42 | Waynesburg 7 |
| Nov. 3 — At | Indiana S.T.C. |
| Nov. 19 — At | SlipperyRock S.T.C. |
| Nov. 17 — | Carnegie Tech |

New Fashions For College Men

The hat is due for a revival as standard college wear, says PLAYBOY magazine in its September issue, which also predicts a return (believe it or not) of the double-breasted suit for the smartly dressed Man-About-Campus. Both items which had become virtually extinct, are now considered quite "shoe" by the avant garde on Ivy League campuses. "Shoe" is a new expression which describes the well dressed college man. The very "shoe" senior pictured above is wearing a narrow brim sport fedora and a sporty tweed single-breasted suit.

CARRY-ALL
ZIPPER BAGS
Big Values
$1.98
Fred Williamson

Starting Halfbacks

On the left, George James from Beaver Falls, Pa., who last week thrilled the crowd with his 65 yard punt return against Waynesburg, and on the right, Jay DeBolt, who has seen limited action since sustaining a pulled leg muscle at Bethany.

Titans Win Eighteenth; White, James, Morrell Star

Jackets Stopped By Strong Running Attack As Blue And White Avenges Previous Tie

With sophomore back George (Tookie) James and Old Reliable Billy White doing most of the damage, Westminster's devastating Titans voraciously tore into a variety of shoddy ineffective Waynesburg defenses to register a surprisingly easy 42-7 victory before an appreciative Synod's Day crowd of 3,500. The win helped the Blue and White to its fifth win of the current campaign and lengthened its string of consecutive games without defeat to eighteen.

The bitter taste of last year's 7-7 deadlock in their mouths, the vengful senior-studded charges of Harold Burry mercilessly beat down their heavier opponents in the first half and then relaxed to watch reserves toy with their winless foe after the intermisison.

Three quick first-period touchdowns, two by star fullback Billy White, provided the margin of victory that enabled the highly rated hosts to coast easily throughout the remainder of the contest.

James Sparkles

However, it was the slightly built James shining in the reflected light of more illustrious teammates who provided the impetus that set the Titans off to another Saturday win.

The 19 year old 155 pounder from Beaver Falls rushed for 68 yards in 10 carries, scored twice, once on a 65 yard punt return and threw in a scintillating 44 yard first period gallop to set up another tally for good measure.

White Scores Twice

The first Titan score came only 53 seconds after the opening whistle as White blasted over from the 1 yard line moments after James made his sensational dash to place the ball in scoring position. Vince Cortese, rugged Westminster end, made the first of his four successful first-half placements to give the home team a lead which they never relinquished.

The first Blue and White tally was quickly seconded by another as White sprinted 15 yards around end for his second score of the game, his ninth of the season.

James concluded first period activity by exploding 4 yards off-tackle for his initial score of the day.

The second period saw Quarterback Harold Davis, in the twilight of a brilliant four-year career, cap a 47 yard drive with a thrust from one foot out. Davis' tally closed out the first half scoring and gave the Titans a four touchdown bulge at the midway point.

Line Play Superb

But while the galaxy of lightning-fast Titan backs shredded the Yellow Jackets defense for 28 first half points, an outweighed Westminster line led by pivotman Bill Freshwater came in for its own share of applause by limiting the Orange and Black to only two first downs, as they consistantly up-ended Waynesburg backs leaving them but a scant 57 yards to show for their first 20 minutes work.

After the intermission, there was no scoring until the fourth quarter when James legged a Waynesburg punt back 65 yards. Freshwater's placement brought the score up to 35-0.

Despite the lopsided score, Waynesburg continued to pound away until finally the running of two smallish freshman halfbacks, Don Bartolomucci and Com Cappelli, brought the ball to rest on the Titan five. A stout Blue and White line composed mostly of untried freshmen yielded one lone yard in three plays from scrimmage before Capelli finally barreled over from the 4 on the final down for the tally. Bartolomucci's placement made it 35 to 7 with the Titans comfortably ahead.

Late in the fourth stanza, the rout became complete when reserve signal caller Steve Kosko bolted 3 yards into the end zone for the final six-pointer of the fracas.

PIES—Like Mother used to Make—
- Fruit
- Cream
- Pumpkin

WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Indiana Faces Westminster In Rugged Duel

First Meeting Of Teams Scheduled Tomorrow

Undefeated Westminster college's long non-losing streak faces another rugged test when the Titans travel to Indiana Teachers tomorrow for the afternoon football game.

The Titans, who have played 18 successive contests without a defeat have copped five straight this year. The Indians also have five victories, but have lost two.

Tomorrow's clash will be at Indiana's Memorial Field. It will be the first gridiron meeting between the colleges.

Westminster's diversified attack has shown tremendous power this year. The Titans have tallied 197 points in five games for a 39.4 per game average. Most of the scoring has been done on the ground, but quarterback Harold Davis has completed 10 of 22 passes.

Fullback Bill White is the Titans' leading scorer and ground gainer. The 180-pound senior from Blairsville scored two touchdowns in Westminster's easy 42-7 triumph over Waynesburg Saturday to give him 54 points this season. He has gained 457 yards rushing. Davis is runner-up in scoring with 36 points and is also the Titans' number one punter.

Coach Harold Burry's Titans have beaten Thiel, Grove City, Bethany, Geneva and Waynesburg. The Indians have defeated St. Vincent, California, Edinboro, Clarion and Lock Haven Teachers, while losing to Ball State and Slippery Rock.

Indiana's leading performers have been quarterback Norm Lewandowski and end Bob McFarland. McFarland, one of the leading scorers in the district, will get plenty of competition from Westminster's all-district nominee, Vince Cortese, of Sewickley. Cortese, senior co- captain end, has been a regular four seasons. He is a rugged defensive player, good pass receiver, and does the Titans' kicking off and placment kicking.

Alpha Sigma Phi Hands First Defeat To SN's

Sigma Nu finally tasted defeat in Intramural play this week as the Alpha Sigs beat them 19-13. The Sig Eps came within a whisker of beating them last Friday but Sigma Nu tallied in the closing minutes to win 20-19. In other fraternity action Wednesday Sigma Phi Epsilon beat Phi Kappa Tau 27-19.

In last week's top game, that 20-19 victory for Sigma Nu, Bill Pickford scored twice for Sigma Nu and Ray Harry once. The all-important extra points were added by Harry and Davis. Jack Coleman, Dick Rausch and Ron Rotherman scored for the Sig Eps. In the Alpha Sig victory over Sigma Nu, Jack Mansfield, Jim Dorsch and Bill Jack scored for Alpha Sigma Phi and Don Mettica and Steve Weeks scored for Sigma Nu. The final game of the season is Monday between Sigma Phi Epsilon and College hall.

Standings:

| | Won | Lost | Tied |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sigma Nu | 9 | 1 | 0 |
| Sig Eps | 6 | 3 | 0 |
| Alpha Sigs | 5 | 3 | 1 |
| College hall | 2 | 5 | 0 |
| Phi Tau | 1 | 6 | 0 |
| Russell hall | 1 | 6 | 1 |

Interfraternity Standings:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Sigma Nu | 4 | 1 |
| Alpha Sigs | 4 | 2 |
| Sig Eps | 3 | 3 |
| Phi Taus | 0 | 5 |

Shoes Dull and Drab
SHOE TINTING
and DYING
Fabrics and Leather
Fusco Shoe Shop
Bank Building

SOCIAL WHIRL

Freshmen Women Pledge Sororities; Girls Plan Houseparties Saturday

By Dianne Oursler

Last week freshmen fellows pledged the fraternity of their choice, and today the fall rush period closes as the girls proudly sport sorority jackets and pledge pins.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Pledging ceremonies were held Monday night for Ben Brenner, Charles Butera, Robert Coleman, Bruce Comstock, Allan Ellis, Ben Fast, Brian Gates, James Hemmeger, Alfred Horn and Richard Kauffman. Others include George Kurchinsky, Kent Mally, Thomas McCullough, John Mikles, John Moore, John Nelson, Robert Sefton, Barry Smith, Gerald Trimble and John Walker . . . Jack Rickard, Frank Marsico and Robert Altman visited the chapter at Pennsylvania State university last week.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Jo-Anne McKinnon is in charge of the houseparty to be held at Russell hall. The theme is "Capital Flight" . . . Nancy Etzel is chairman of the Pledge luncheon tomorrow at the Tavern . . . Sheilah Evans visited California State Teacher's college . . . Sue Behrenberg was on the Pennsylvania State university campus and Marlene Wasser, Donna Boyle and Sarah Haddd visited Youngstown and Rochester university campus', respectively.

CHI OMEGA . . . Ruby Parker is in charge of the house party tomorrow night. Markay Burrus heads the food committee.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Beverly Bemiss is chairman of the houseparty to be held Saturday night . . . Priscilla Hunter visited Duke university last weekend . . . Vail Watson was recently on campus.

QUADRANGLE . . . Ellie Nye heads plans for tomorrow night's houseparty . . . Janet Clawson and Roberta Foster are in charge of the freshman luncheon at Mrs. Adams' home Friday noon . . . Miss Walker is the new faculty sponsor for Quadrangle . . . Evelyn Dull, ex-'58 was on campus last Saturday.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Ann Thomas has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Don McKee . . . Shirley Frazee was in charge of the final rush party . . . Nancy Zahn is in charge of the pledge dinner to be held at the Tavern tonight.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Janice Bauer has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of James Holiday . . . Michael Tomko visited the chapter at the University of Pittsburgh last weekend . . . Rodney Heeter was on the Bucknell university campus recently.

THETA UPSILON . . . Margaret Bickel has accepted the Epsilon Pi Tau pin of Chuck Messner of California State Teachers college . . .

Nancy Wampler is heading committees for the houseparty this Saturady . . . Mary Lou Mansell is in charge of the pledge dinner to be held at the "Cozy Inn" Friday evening.

SIGMA NU . . . Mr. John Cluss, divisional commander, visited the chapter Monday . . . Pledging ceremonies were held Wednesday evening in the Neshannock Presbyterian church . . . Edward Echnoz was elected pledge master and William Storey will serve as his assistant.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . Pledging ceremonies were held Thursday night.

College Guild Presents Shows

Three radio programs are scheduled to be broadcast by several Westminster students within the next five days.

The first of these is the tale of "Cinderella" on the children's show, "Let's Make Believe." It may be heard over WKST (New Castle) tomorrow at 10:15 a.m. Comprising the cast are Jackie Walker, the narrator; Nancy Reese, Charlotte; Audrey Sprowls, fairy-godmother; Beverly Crum, Rose; Bob Holmes, coachman; George Lowther and Jerry Schofield, footmen; Rick Aurandt, prince; George Lowther, hearald; Don Hudson, counselor; and Bruce Bowman, emissary. The announcer will be George Killa; sound-effect man, George Lowther and writer, Bill Bouvard.

Gardner-Reynold's Hour will present a "Campus Showcase" program on WPIC (Sharon) Tuesday, Nov. 6 at 1:15 p.m. The following musical selections will be performed: "The Song Is You," by Romaine Gardner and Martin Reynolds, accompanied by Marilyn Elkins; "Someday My Prince Will Come"; "April in Paris" and "Thinking of You," played by Marilyn; "If I Loved You," sung by Reynolds; and "I'll See You Again."

Responsible for this program are Bill Bouvard, producer and announcer; Don Hudson, technician and George Killa writer.

The last of these three broadcasts is the "Westminster Hour" presentation, "Lygia," at 9:30 p.m. on WKST next Wednesday. Included in the cast are Don Hudson, narrator; Nan Ozias, Lygia and Elaine Shaw, Rowena. Producer and writer is Don Hudson; announcer, George Killa and technician, Jerry Vonbrock.

Early Co-ed School Here

The college was first known as the Westminster Collegiate Institute and was one of the first co-educational colleges in the country.

Campus Calendar

Friday, November 2
Chapel—Spiritual Emphasis Week committee
Sorority pledging
8:15 Play
Saturday, November 3
Novice Debate tournament
2:00 Football, Indiana, away
W.A.A. Hike for Freshmen
8:15 Play
8:30 Sorority House Parties
Sunday, November 4
Beginning of Spiritual Emphasis Week
9:45 Bible Class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers
Monday, November 5
Chapel—C. T. R. Yeates
4:30-5:30 Y.W.C.A. Tea for Spiritual Emphasis Week
7:00 Sorority meetings
Fraternity meetings
Tuesday, November 6
Chapel—C. T. R. Yeates
7:00 C.S.G.
7:00 G.G.A.
7:00 Student Council
10:00 IRC Election returns
Wednesday, November 7
Chapel—C. T. R. Yeates
5:00 W.A.A.
7:00 Mu Phi
8:15 Epsilon Phi
Thursday, November 8
Chapel—C. T. R. Yeates
8:15 Kappa Delta Pi
Friday, November 9
Chapel—C. T. R. Yeates

Twenty Colleges Attend Debate Conference Here

Westminster college will be host to 20 colleges tomorrow at the first major incollegiate debate tournament in the tri state area, announces Mr. Melvin Moorhouse, director of the debate squad.

Colleges participating in the tournament include Kent State, West Virginia, Lehigh and Carnegie Tech Last year's winner was Pitt women. The national debate question of the year is "Resolved—that the United States should discontinue direct economic aid to foreign countries."

Each college will participate in six debates during the three rounds. The schedule is as follows: first round, 10.00; second round, 11:15 and third round, 2:00. A luncheon will be served for the visiting debaters at Russell hall and trophies will be awarded the winners.

Plate Glass Lab Hosts Ten Science Majors

Ten science majors are spending today at the Pittsburgh Plate Glass laboratories in Springdale. Mr. Amon, Dr. Carney and Dr. DeHaas will accompany Bob Altman, Jim Baker, Bob Buckingham, Alan Ellis, Perry Kirklin, George Leak, Joe McKenzie, Frank Marsico, Louis Torporcer and Eric Wilson to the plant.

Today is College Preview day at the plant, and the boys will be the guests of the company. They will be shown the laboratories and will get ideas on how industrial research is done.

Magazine Publishes Article By Professor

Miss Gamble, instructor in the Business Education Department, has had her article entitled "How To Prepare a Reference File Box For Shorthand" published in the November issue of the Business Education World magazine.

The article gives and explains sources, methods, grading procedure, lesson planning, speed building and other important topics. They are explained so that the shorthand instructor will have them at her finger tips when she needs them.

College Students Think Ike Will Win Election

By a margin of almost three to one, college students feel the Republicans will take this year's presidential election. Were the students expressing their party preference, however, the Democrats would receive top billing, since another Associated Collegiate Press poll showed that 40 per cent of the college students considered themselves Democrats, 33 per cent Republicans and 27 per cent Independents or other.

Associated Collegiate Press gathered collegiate opinion on this preference by sampling from a representative national cross-section of college students. The following question was asked:

Who do you think will win the presidential election this fall, Republicans or Democrats?

The results:

| | Men | Women | Total |
|---|---|---|---|
| Republicans | 68% | 58% | 65% |
| Democrats | 21% | 28% | 23% |
| Undecided | 11% | 14% | 12% |

A large number of students considering themselves either Democrats or Independents feel the Republicans will win on November 6. For instance, a senior attending Juniata college considers himself an Independent but feels the GOP will win the election, and then adds: "I don't favor this result personally." On the other hand, few of the students classifying themselves as Republicans feel the Democrats will win.

The vast majority of students (regardless of their party preference) feel the GOP will win because of Eisenhower's personality and popularity. A Southeastern State college (Durant, Okla.) senior states simply: "Because of Ike's popularity," while a sopohomore at Tyler college (Tyler, Texas) says "Ike is still popular enough to win by his personality."

A few students pick the Republican victory because of economic factors, GOP past record and platform.

In contrast to emphasis placed upon the president's health earlier in the year, very few students even mention the issue in this polling. And there is not a single mention of the Democratic - Republican, war-peace issues, possibly indicating that college students consider it a phony and/or unimportant issue.

Students believing the Democrats will win November 6 have a variety of reasons for their choice although no single reason is mentioned very frequently. Here are several of the more typical responses. A graduate coed at the University of Wyoming (Laramie) thinks the Democrats will get more votes " . . . because the average American is tired of being squeezed already." And another freshman coed at Mississippi college states: "The public has seen what Eisenhower can and has done so I think the country's eyes will be opened and Stevenson will win." "The Democrats will take it because they have two strong men running instead of one strong and one weak man," says a senior at Ohio university.

Students who are undecided on the question generally echo the feelings of a junior coed at the Rochester Institute of Technology who thinks it will be a "close race." And a graduate student at Ohio university represents another segment of undecided opinion with this statement: "Both parties are pretty much on a par in this campaign."

Election Telethon Plans Complete

Final preparations are being made for the Election Night Telethon to be held in Old 77, Tuesday, Nov. 6. The Telethon will begin at 10:00 p.m. and go on until the election has been determined.

To gain admission, a ballot may be purchased for 25 cents. This enables each Westminster student to vote for the president and vice president, the Senatorial contests in Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio, and a student mayor and student constable of Westminster college.

There will be two 24 inch Miss America Philco T.V. sets, courtesy of Silman Electric company of New Wilmington, for those who wish to watch the results coming in from the national election. The votes will be recorded on a board and changed hourly as the results come in from all parts of the country.

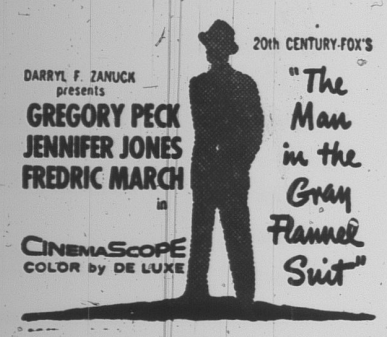

Students may play cards, games or dance while the votes are being tabulated. There will be entertainment from time to time to keep the affair in full swing. Mr. Donald W. Fox, Westminster graduate and candidate for Representative of the Pennsylvania General Assembly, is expected to be on hand.

HI-LANDER THEATRE
New Castle, Pa.

NOW SHOWING

NEXT ATTRACTION

WILMINGTON THEATRE
2 Shows Nightly

TUES. & WED.
THE MAN IN THE GRAY FLANNEL SUIT
Gregory Peck - Jennifer Jones

FRI. & SAT.
— Double Feature —
PARDNERS
D. Martin - J. Lewis
and
BATTLE CRY

ORDER NOW—
IMPRINTED CHRISTMAS CARDS
$1.00 – $2.95
Wrapping paper—ribbon
Sotus Christmans Candy
By Order Only
KAY'S Cleaners

the voiceless

your vote is your voice—don't lose it

Speak up, good and loud, November 6—and no one can ever speak down to you.

One thing we all know—every vote (yes, your vote) is vital. It shows the world how much we believe in this democracy we talk so much about. And it puts a plug in for peace.

Don't miss your say-so. Don't miss your vote—your voice is just as important as that of anyone else in the world.

YOU TELL THE WORLD . . . SEE YOU AT THE POLLS

HOLCAD
STUDENT COUNCIL
PHI ALPHA THETA

PUBLIC SERVICE ADVERTISING COUNCIL

A COMPLETE SELECTION OF CANDY
— featuring —
BRACH'S – CLARKS – HERSHEY
Packaged or Boxed
BROWN'S MARKET
. . . the Store with More

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 7 Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. Friday, November 9, 1956

Three Editors Attend ACP Conference

Three Westminster students representing the three student publications are meeting with 800 student editors at the Associated Collegiate Press convention this weekend at the Statler hotel in Cleveland.

Marcia Vandermast, editor of Argo; Jeanne Douhett, co-editor of Scrawl and Jeanette Traendly editor of Holcad will represent the college. Miss Elizabeth Keen, professor of journalism, will attend as faculty advisor.

Part of the agenda will be five short courses on newspaper, magazine and yearbook management. The courses are Newspaper Editors Short Course, Photography Short Course, Magazine Short Course, Yearbook Short Course, Makeup and Typography Clinic. Another part of the program will include the Newspaper Editorial, Yearbook Editorial, Yearbook Business and Newspaper Business.

Speakers for the general meetings include such men as Norman Isaacs, managing editor of the Louisville Times; Harold Baker, of Station WSM, Nashville, and John C. Maddox, executive vice-president and director, Fuller and Smith and Ross, Inc., New York.

Duquesne Wins Debate Contest

Duquesne university's debate squad proved victorious in this year's first novice debate tournament held last Saturday at Westminster. Placing 2nd and 3rd respectively were the teams from Lehigh and Slippery Rock.

All three squads won five out of six of their debates, but Duquesne accumulated the highest number of points in the numerical rating. The winning team was presented with a trophy by Mr. Barbe, head of the speech department.

Over 100 persons from 18 colleges were present at the tournament, consisting of judges, the debaters and a number of students auditing the debates. "Sixty Westminster students were on hand to greet them," stated Mr. Moorhouse, "acting as timekeepers and hosts. I wish to thank them for helping to make the tournament a success."

Student chairman of the conference was Dave Livingston, while his assistant was Miriam Fox.

Katherine Gibbs Offers Senior Scholarships

Two scholarships for the secretarial training course will be given by the Katharine Gibbs school to college senior women.

The scholarship consists of full tuition ($685) plus an additional cash award of $500. The winners may select any one of the four Gibbs schools in Boston, New York, Montclair or Providence.

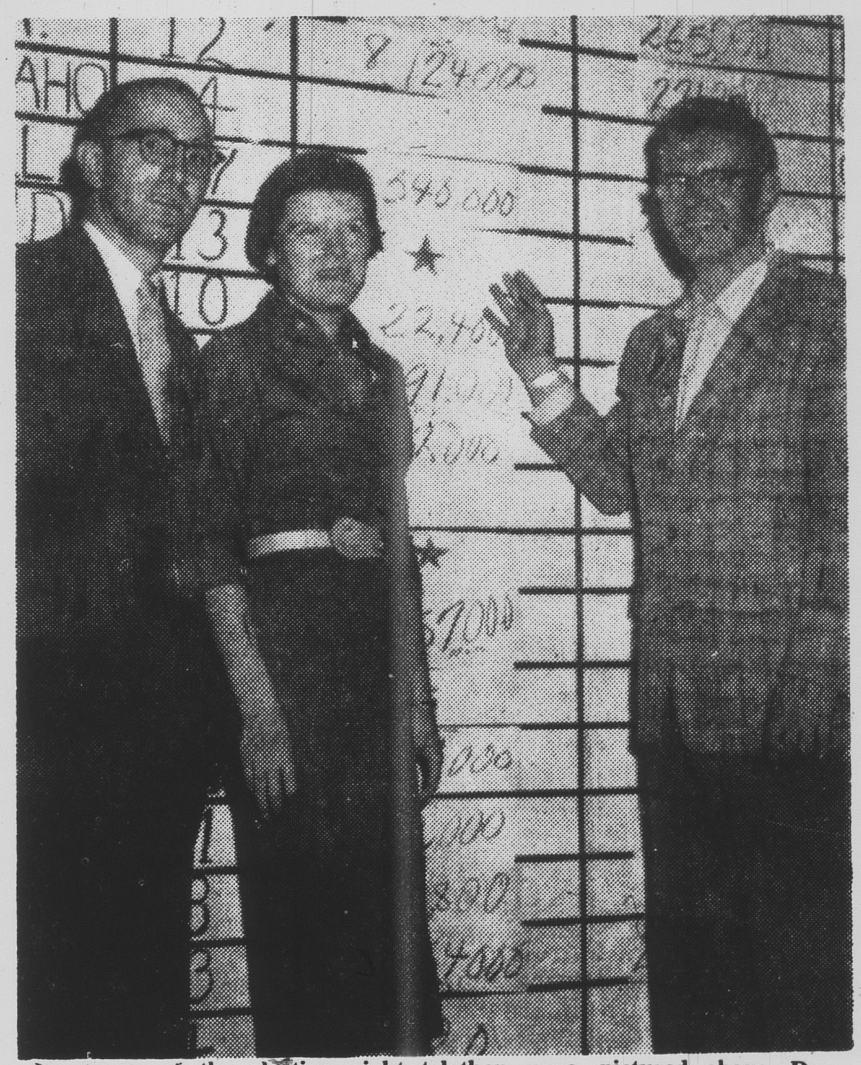

Winners are chosen by the scholarship committee on the basis of college academic record, personal and character qualifications, financial need and potentialities for success in business.

Interested senior women should inquire in the dean's office.

New College Quartet Members Selected

This year's college quartet is comprised of Ted Richardson, George Leak, Bob Campbell, David Livingston and Bill Jackson. Ted Richardson, a second tenor, replaced Howard Sleppy. The first tenor position held by Bill Barbe is now occupied by George Leak. The baritone slot occupied by Marty Reynolds was filled by Bob Campbell. The accompanist, David Livingston, replaced Bob Sleppy. Bill Jackson, who is returning for his third year, is the bass.

Another For Ike

In charge of the election night telethon were, pictured above, Dr. Charles Edwards, faculty advisor, Joanne McKinnon, president of I.R.C., and Calvin McCracken.

Election Telethon A Success Six hundred Thirty-two Attend

Telethon Features Mr. Donald Fox, Student Mock Election And Dancing

Dancing coeds, would-be-voters and x marked hands helped set the scene for the Election Night Telethon sponsored by I.R.C last Tuesday night. Over 600 students and faculty members crowded into Old 77 to watch the election trends.

The Telethon created much interest in the election results. Mr. Donald Fox, a Westminster graduate who is the representative from the second district to the general assembly in Harrisburg, was on hand to say a few words. Cal McCracken announced that the team of Eisenhower and Nixon beat the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket by virtual unanimity and that James Duff pulled a slight edge over Joseph Clark in the student mock election. Harold Davis, newly elected mayor of Westminster college, was introduced along with Jim Riley who was elected constable.

I.R.C. members wish to thank all the students and faculty members who helped to make the Telethon a success. A special vote of thanks goes to Dr. Orr, Dr. John Edwards and Mrs. Whitehill for allowing the Telethon to take place during Spiritual Emphasis week and giving late permissions to the women. The members would also like to thank Dr. Delber McKee and Dr. Charles Edwards for their help.

The committee chairmen were Mary Ann Herina, decorations; Cal McCracken and George Lowther, arrangements; Janet Long, entertainment; Ronnajean Hamilton, refreshments and Bob Palisan, publicity. The officers wish to thank Silman Electric company for the use of the two T.V. sets and the Chi Omega sorority for providing the big election board.

Dr. Charles Edwards feels that the Telethon aroused interest in the returns and provided a good way of following them. The students could be with each other in the atmosphere of history being made.

Some of the proceeds from the Telethon will be used toward the Pakistan Student Westminster scholarship. This is a joint project of the Pakistan government, Pan-Hel, I.F.C. and I.R.C. to help a Pakistan student study here next year.

I.R.C. invites anyone interested to come to the December meeting which will feature a movie about Woodrow Wilson.

Students Represent Twenty-Four States And Four Countries

A survey of the geographical distribution of Westminster college students made by the recorder's office reveals the enrollment includes persons from four foreign countries and 22 states.

Countries represented in the Westminster student body are Canada, Jordan, Korea and Venezuela. Two freshmen are from Venezuela and each of the other countries has one student at the college.

States represented in the 1085 enrollment figures include California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Pennsylvania has the most representatives with 393 men and 385 women for a total of 778 students. Ohio has 138 students New York 73, and New Jersey 39.

News Brief

Dr. Albright and Mr. Amon of the physics department will attend the annual meeting of the Western Pennsylvania section of the American Association of Physics Teachers tomorrow. This year the group will meet at Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh.

Poetry Reading Festival Deadline For Registration Is Saturday

Preliminary Readings Begin Monday; Finals Are Scheduled For Thursday

Tomorrow noon is the deadline for registration in the Poetry Reading Festival to be held in Ferguson hall lounge, November 15, at 7:30 p.m., announces Mr. Charles Cook, chairman.

Preliminary reading will take place Monday, Nov. 12, at 4:15 in the English classrooms. Participants should report to the English office by 4:00 for room assignments.

Eight finalists will be selected by the judges, who will include Dr. John Forry, Dr. George Bleasby, Miss Elizabeth Keen, Mr. William Scheuerle, Dr. Hilton Turner, Miss Alice Ligo, Mr. Thomas Wiley and Mr. John Huyck. Student chairmen who will preside over each classroom are Miss Irma Allen, Miss Doris Barnshaw, Dorothy Kelsey and Mr. John Specht.

First, second and third prize winners will be chosen from eight finalists. Judges for the finals will be Dr. Myrta McGinnis, Miss Leone Westover and Dr. Arthur Jensen. There will be brief musical entertainment, and refreshments will be served by the members of Scroll club. Master of ceremonies will be Mr. Robert Veon, first place winner in last year's contest.

The Poetry Reading Festival is under the sponsorship of the English department. This year's arrangements have been made by the faculty-student committee including Miss Mary Williams, Dr. George Cobb, Mr. Charles Cook, Mr. William Burbick and Miss Betsy Hutcheson.

Senior Speech Recital Tuesday

"Reflector," a senior speech recital, will be presented by Beth McGill Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

"Reflector" is a study in oral interpretation based on the belief that literature is the reflection of life, and in it we find our own thoughts and experiences mirrored. Excerpts from the compositions of such authors as Steven Vincent Benet, Carl Sandburg, Leigh Hunt, John Gunther and Catherine Marshall will be presented along with a portion of the King James Version of the Bible.

The selections will be varied in nature. There will be prose and poetry, serious and humorous, and one dialogue. Miss McGill will conclude the program with a scene from "Antigone," in which Tom Parlette portrays Creon.

Mr. Donald L. Barbe, head of the department of speech and dramatic art, is acting as advisor for the recital.

Assisting in the recital are Alan Ellis, stage manager; Joyce Guy, lighting technician; Irma Allen, house manager; Carolyn Dart and Diane Levy, ushers.

There will be no admission fee, and the recital is open to all students.

Extras Needed For 'Macbeth' Production

With the opening of "Macbeth," the second major Little Theatre production of the year, only a little over three weeks away, rehearsals are in full swing. However, there are a few vacancies in the cast. These parts are those of sword bearers, extras which require no speaking lines. If any men are interested in looking into this opportunity, please contact Mr. William Burbick in the speech office as soon as possible. This offer also includes those people who have previously spoken to Mr. Burbick about it.

In addition to regular evening performances, "Macbeth" will also be presented in several special matinee performances for high schools in the area. Invitations are now being prepared to send to the speech, drama and English classes of the surrounding schools.

Program Schedule Reset For Radio Guild

The radio play production of "Cinderella," previously scheduled for last Saturday, will be broadcast instead this Saturday, November 10, at 10:15 over station WKST in New Castle.

The next radio program scheduled is a Sports Interview Show on Wednesday evening, November 14 at 9:15 over WKST, New Castle. Mr. David Colton will interview coaches Harold Burry and Charles Ridl, along with the co-captains of the Westminster football team, William White and Vincent Cortese. The main theme of this interview will revolve around the prospects of the forthcoming game with Carnegie Tech and a possible bowl invitation. Rick Aurandt is the technician for the show, and Gerald Von Broock will be the announcer.

Field Trip Of FTA To Feature Special Classroom Displays

The sophomore, junior and senior members of F.T.A., accompanied by Miss Campbell and Mrs. Barbour, will take a field trip to Pittsburgh on Thursday, Nov. 15. While in Pittsburgh, they will have an opportunity to view replicas of classrooms of 1800, 1870 and 1890, and also modern classrooms and technical rooms which are part of a large display at the Pennsylvania Railroad station.

The members of F.T.A. will also have a chance to visit two special classes, such as a class in the Western Pennsylvania School for the Blind, or they may visit WQED, Pittsburgh's educational television station. A bus will leave from Old 77 at 7:30 a.m. Thursday and return to New Wilmington by 6:00 p.m.

Now Hear This

The November meeting of Christian Service Group will be Tuesday evening, November 13, at 7:00 in the chapel.

This meeting is designed to acquaint members of the various teams with each other and with their team leaders. Suggestions and materials for worship services, Sabbath school lessons, youth meetings, and recreation will be presented. A few of these suggestions will also be demonstrated.

Slippery Rock Migration Set

Students wishing to migrate to the game at Slippery Rock Saturday must line up at the field house by 12:45.

Dormitories have planned to serve meals early to allow those going to be on time. Cheerleaders will be at the field house to hand out streamers.

Those students planning to attend are urged to buy their ticket either Friday afternoon or Saturday morning in the Tub. Tickets purchased here on campus will be fifty cents. Full price will be charged for tickets purchased at Slippery Rock.

More New Developments

Last week we had an editorial about the needs of the library. The administration must have agreed with us because they have voted for a 50 per cent increase in the library budget.

This will help us to get more of the books which are necessary to achieve the goal for bringing a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa on Westminster's campus. The administration has done its part. Now it is up to us to help the library.

While the library will be getting new books for its shelves, plans are continuing for further development of the college. We have been watching the progress of Galbreath hall, but perhaps other construction on campus has gone unnoticed by many.

Bulldozers have been working at high speed to clean out the swamp in order to complete the area of Brittain lake. Because this is a swamp area, the land is not solid enough to be used for building purposes. Therefore, the only way in which the acreage surrounding the swamp can be utilized is to remove the top layer of debris and fill it with water.

Brittain lake will be greatly increased in size to the south but arrangements have been made to alter the lake in the left field corner of the baseball field. The filled in area will make it a little more difficult for baseball players to get a home run.

Faculty, too, may look forward to developments in housing. Land has been purchased on both sides of the road south of the monument for faculty building. A complete housing development will eventually be constructed on the east side of the road. These houses will be built and rented by the college. In the spring the first three of these will be started. On the west side of the road, land is available to any faculty member who wishs to build his own house.

Plans for the Fine Arts building, new TUB and another women's dormitory are still in progress. Westminster is preparing herself for the pressing demands made by the steadily increasing enrollment.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Your paper is obviously worth "C" but that would suggest no room for improvement—So I feel you should have an "F"—Follow me?"

NATO . . .

What It Means Now

By Barbara Farrow

"The parties will contribute toward the further development of peaceful, and friendly international relations by strengthening their free institutions, by bringing about better understanding of the principles upon which these institutions are founded, and by promoting conditions of stability and well-being. They will seek to eliminate conflict in their international economic politics and will encourage economic collaboration between many or all of them."

Thus states Article II of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization pact. Back in 1949, after the horrors of a Second World War, the northern European nations and the United States banded together for national security. They wanted to secure their freedom of thought, speech and action. By presenting a common front, they thought an aggressor would think twice before attacking them.

Certainly it is a military pact but more than that, it is a pact to help the member nations politically, economically and ideologically. Yet, the work of this pact has been seriously threatened by the middle east crisis. We have always said that we would help a country that has been invaded and we are also allied to fight with England and France.

Here is the problem: if we are to help the Egyptians we will have to fight against the British and French who are helping the Israeli cause. Thus, we would be fighting two nations that we are allied with in another pact. This would certainly cause a break-up of the NATO organization, an event which the Russians would welcome.

To better understand NATO, let's look back over this pact to see what good it has done the seven years that it has been in operation. All historians believe that economic prosperity insures strength and this is one of the chief objectives of NATO. If a government's economic foundation becomes rocky, the citizens of that country begin to question their political institutions and start to look around to see if another country has the solution to their problem. It is a dissatisfied people who fall prey to Communism and other rebellious ideas. We have

(Continued on Page 4)

Characters . . .

At The Football Games

By Koula Svokos

Did you ever notice the various characters who sit beside you at a football game? There are many varieties; see how many of these you can recognize.

First of all, there's "Loud Lloyd." His philosophy is that he should at least be heard if not seen. Hearing him yell out his tactics to the team, one would think that he was the coach. And if it weren't for Lloyd, how else would the referee know he was blind, and who would warn the opposite team not to make that touchdown. Even though Lloyd usually causes everyone to have broken ear-drums, his great school spirit makes him a very important character at games.

Then there's "Hungry Harry," with the hearty appetite. Whenever food in any shape or form is being sold, Harry wants to buy some. Almost every ten minutes, the people in front of him must pass money, merchandise and change between Harry and the men who sell anything from pretzels to hot dogs. It looks as if he either plans to go into the delicatessen business, or he's going to feed everyone at the game.

"Pretty Patty" doesn't go to see the game; she goes to be seen. During the most crucial moments of the game, she jumps up to shout a message to a friend who's sitting ten rows away. Patty goes steady with the star football player, and it's her job to inform everyone in the stands of this romance.

Another character you're likely to find at the typical game is "Ready Freddy." He comes prepared for any situation which may arise. Usually his equipment consists of an umbrella, raincoat, blanket, cushion, newspapers, program, binoculars and anything else to add to his comfort. These items occupy practically the entire row, but you have to give Freddy credit for "being prepared."

In any crowd you'll probably find a "Hilarious Larry." He's the clown who keeps the spectators entertained during the duller moments of the game. To add to the festivities of half-time, Larry might shower everyone with confetti, which he made by shredding his program into a thousand minute pieces. You can count on Larry to liven up a game; just think how bored you'd be without him.

Of course the names and characters just mentioned were intended to be fictitious, but who knows—they could be real!

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Well, Tuesday night's Telethon seems to have been a big success. The place was really jammed and the only criticism that I have heard was that they couldn't hear what was going on on the TV sets. A vote of thanks should be given to all the kids who worked hard to make it a success.

* * *

For those of us who went to the Indiana game, there was a lot of sideline color. In fact the biggest laughs were caused by some unsuspecting people. Probably the star of the show with the little mongrel puppy who took his bone and buried it on the fifteen yard line while officials and players were busy down at the other end of the field. The second amusing incident was the two young cowboys (about three feet tall) who walked from one side of the field to the other and were completely oblivious to the game.

* * *

Did you happen to read the note attached to the latest Student Council minutes? You should do so. It seems that the student body is neglecting to do their duty of cheering. Why go to a game and just sit like a mummy. Go and cheer! A good example of some college spirit was shown by the Indiana student body. They cheered for every little play and when they scored their only touchdown you would have sworn that they had won the game instead of being behind 54-7. Also, their band struck up a pep song every time there was a time out. Come on, Gang, let's support our team. THEY ARE THE ONES THAT ARE PUTTING WESTMINSTER ON THE MAP.

* * *

Caustic Campus Comments

Did you see the thrilling write-up that the Press gave us this past Sunday? Our "huge coverage" consisted of three sentences located on page five. If we beat Carnegie Tech, they won't even list our score, but if Carnegie Tech beats us they will put it in red letters six inches high. Small teams from down south that nobody has heard of rate front page billing. Who is Florida Tech?

* * *

Have you seen the art exhibit in the library?

* * *

Last Friday afternoon with the TUB filled with new sorority pledges and activities it was quite amusing to hear the different groups singing. However, the crowning moment was when a group of the boys got together and started to sing the Alma Mater. Everybody stopped singing sorority songs and sang the Westminster hymn. It was certainly a fitting end to competitive rushing.

* * *

Dr. Allen Schmueller, professor of psychology and head of the college testing department, has been offered the chance to lecture abroad under the Fulbright or Smith-Mundt Educational Exchange program. This program is offered to outstanding lecturers and professors who have printed textbooks. Dr. Schmueller has many of his texts used in large universities all over the country. If he decides to take this offer, he will teach in either Austria or Germany because of his knowledge of the German language. It is doubtful that Dr. Schmueller will accept this offer because of the unrest in neighboring Hungary.

News Headlines . . .

"Ike" Defeats Adali

Ike Wins By Landslide But Democrats Take Congress—Piling up the largest majority that any Republican presidential candidate had ever polled, President Eisenhower was easily re-elected. However, the great popularity of Ike was not enough to bring him a Republican Congress. In Pennsylvania, incumbent Senator James Duff, Republican, lost out in a close vote to Joseph Clark, Democrat, the former mayor of Philadelphia.

British and French Cease Fire In Egypt—After seizing effective control of the Suez Canal, the British and French forces declared a cease-fire. Egypt also announced that it would accept the UN request for a cease-fire if all foreign troops withdrew from Egyptian soil. The next step is to turn the control of the waterway over to a UN police force which is now being quickly organized.

Russians Crushing Revolt in Hungary—Against overwhelming odds, the Hungarian rebels kept fighting in Budapest. Though threatened with death, the rebels have vowed to fight until the last drop of blood. Most of the fighters are high school and college students. Finally, after several days of interment, a convoy of automobiles carrying Western diplomats was permitted to cross into Hungary.

Chicago El Crash Kills Seven and Injures 150—A rush-hour accident on the Chicago El has turned into a critical coroner's probe to find out why the accident should have happened. The scene was in one of the most congested business and residential sections in Chicago.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, November 9, 1956 No. 7

EDITOR — Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR — Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR — Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR — Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS — Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR — Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER — Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER — David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR — Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR — Charles Cook

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

Big men usually dominate football, but last Saturday we had a demonstration of what a little man can do. By little man, we are referring to Angelo Robertucci, one of the brighter stars on Westminster's horizon. Robertucci ran brilliantly through the Indiana squad for a 78-yard punt return, and carried the ball 58 yards on a screen pass. Definitely Robertucci is a player to watch in the future Westminster games.

—o—

The Monday Quarterback Club heard the officials' side of the story last week. John H. "Rusty" Coles, well known collegiate arbiter, and Carl Rebele, former National Football League official, were guests of the "Quarterbacks" at their weekly luncheon meeting in the Elks Club.

Coles and Rebele answered some of the members' questions on rules and agreed that there could be a few changes in the rules to help the game. "I'm just a spectator, now," Rebele added, "and am not worrying about any rule changes."

Coles claimed the Eastern Intercollegiate officials association has the best-trained officials in the country. He rated Syracuse's Jimmy Brown and Pitt's Joe Walton as two of the outstanding players in the east and added, "WESTMINSTER has a quarterback by the name of Davis who could make any college team in the country."

—o—

It seems as though everyone on campus is keyed to a high pitch as our all important game with Carnegie Tech looms closer on the horizon. Westminster will probably be favored to win, but the Techers will still be a strong opponent. The Tartans hope to spring a surprise on the Blue and White offensively, as they will probably switch to an "A" formation play to replace their usual split T. The "A' formation will appear somewhat similar to Westminster's short punt formation with Harold Davis in as tailback. This, however, should not prove any trouble to the home gang, who will probably enter the game still undefeated.

Westminster is heavily favored over Slippery Rock on Saturday, so it seems that all we have to worry about is the Tech game, and possibly a bowl game later in the year. Westminster is one of 19 small colleges across the country being considered for possible tourney play. Voting is going on now, and the results should be known very shortly.

INTRODUCING—
the S. S. S.
Super Steak Sandwich
50¢
A "SPECIAL" AT
The Grille

Walkers Have It . . .
FOR SHOWER—WEDDING
—ANNIVERSARY—
GIFTS
- Milkglass by Smith
- Glassware by Pyrex
- Kitchenware by Kromex

J. A. Walker Hdwre
Across from the Bank

Westminster Considered for Bowl Bid

Westminster's unbeaten football team is among 19 being considered for the first National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics bowl game.

The game, originally scheduled for Dec. 8 has been changed to Dec. 22, according to a United Press report from Kansas City, Mo.

Commenting on the story President Will W. Orr told the New Castle News, "I could not make an statement until we get a bid and study the terms of the bid." Orr added that the school would give the bid careful consideration" if it were received.

Coach Harold Burry told the News that he was "all for it." "of course, I am speaking unofficially," Burry added.

Youngstown University is also being considered for this bowl. The game played in Little Rock, Arkansas will be nationally televised and broadcast.

Geneva Harriers Win Tri-States; Titans Last

The Westminster college Harriers ended their season at the Tri-state meet last Friday. The blue and white finished a disappointing last but first year coach Dave Colton thinks the team has a good nucleus for next season.

Geneva college won the meet with 48 points, it was the third straight year that the Covies have won the Tri-state meet. Homer Weaver, top Geneva runner had his Tri-state winning mark stopped at three. He finished second behind Larry Bryant of Carnegie Tech. Bryant's time was 20.02.4. Weaver was followed by Arnie Olds, Bob Dickinson, and Eric Ottervik.

The first Westminster man to cross the line was Pete Marshall, fourteenth. Marshall, Acy Jaskson, and Jim Osuna will run in the Junior A.A.U. meet in Pittsburgh's Schenley Park.

Geneva, Carnegie Tech, and Grove City, the first three teams will recieve metals for their performance.

Lose Cup To SNu Sig Ep's Win Title,

Sigma Phi Epsilon waited until the final game of the season but they finally edged Sigma Nu 20-19 for the school intramural football championship. The win was small consolation for the Sig Eps, however, because the Sig Nu's still won the Interfraternity Cup.

Three touchdown passes by Jim Anderson won the game for the Sig Eps and it was also Anderson's jump pass for the extra point that proved to be the final margin of victory Hugh Ferguson, Rick Aurandt and Tom Sarver crossed the goal line for the Sig Eps and "Goose" Davis, Bill Storey and Dom Mettica scored for Sigma Nu.

Tuesday's meeting between the two fraternities was the third of the season. The Sigma Nu's had won both previous games by scores of 32 to 28 and 29 to 19 respectively.

Sigma Phi Epsilon won a chance at the title by downing College hall Monday. In other games played last week Sigma Nu downed Phi Kappa Tau 34-20 and Alpha Sigma Phi trampled Russell hall 41-18.

CARRY-ALL
ZIPPER BAGS
Big Values
$1.98
Fred Williamson

Top Reserve

Senior Perry Kirklin is Coach Harold Burry's top line reserve. Perry, a chemistry major, is also a member of "Who's Who in American Colleges."

Bookheimer Leads Rockets Against Titans Tomorrow

Coach Harold Burry is certain his undefeated Westminster football team won't be caught napping when the Titans invade Slippery Rock tomorrow afternoon.

Although Westminster has a perfect 6-0 record this fall and hasn't lost since 1954, the Titans will be eager to play the Teachers. Until Burry's gridders edged the Rockets 13-6 to end an unbeaten year in 1953, Westminster hadn't dumped Slippery Rock since 1934. Despite wins the past three years, the Titans still trail in the all-time series, 15-13, with 2 ties.

2-3 Mark

Coach Bill Meise's team has a 2-3 mark this fall, with wins over Indiana Teachers and Clarion and losses to Edinboro, Western Reserve and Geneva.

Statistics for the first six Titan games show the team is averaging 335 net yards while limiting opponents to 163.6. All-State fullback Bill White leads the Titans in scoring and total yardage. The 180-pound senior has 60 points and 581 yards rushing. Quarterback Harold Davis has tallied 36 points, and completed 15 of 30 passes. Sophomore George James, of Beaver Falls, is second in ground gaining with 286 yards in 51 attempts.

Rugged Line

Westminster's speedy backfield has been getting much attention, but the rugged Titan line has held six opponents to 5 points. Rival backfields have netted only 653 yards against the big forward wall sparked by end Vince Cortese, Sewickley, tackle Bernie Reilly, Conneuat Lake, guards Bill Morrell, Carrick, and Jack Lewis, Greensburg, and center Bill Freshwater, Munhall.

The Rockets, who gave the Titans a battle last year before losing 29-19, have several outstanding players. Tackle Don Heald, 200-pound senior, was an All-State Teachers Conference choice last year. Sophomore guard Bob Probst is regarded one of the best linemen in the district. Quarterback Jack Bookheimer of East McKeesport is a veteran in Coach Meises split-T attack.

PIES—Like Mother used to Make—
- Fruit
- Cream
- Pumpkin

WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Davis Throws For Three As Titans Down Indians

W. Davis, Moss, Martin Catch Passes; Robertucci Thrills Crowd With Long Runs

By George King

In the cool, methodical, almost business-like manner reflective of its earlier Saturday afternoon football triumphs, Westminster's high-scoring Titans took another great stride toward an undfeated season as they battered a lethargic Indiana State Teachers eleven in a most convincing manner for a stunning 54-7 rout at the latter's field.

The victory gave the Titans their sixth win of the current campaign while simultaneously enabling them to add another link to their unbeaten chain of football victories which now stands at nineteen.

While a fast resourceful Westminster line was smothering Norm Lewandowski, Indiana's much publicized passer, to break up the Big Red's vaunted air-lane attack, the Titans talented quarterback Harold Davis launched his own show of aerial artistry which saw him complete 5 out of 8 attempts for 125 yards and 4 touchdowns.

To supplement Davis' hurling, Westminster combined the crunching power running of Billy White with two lightning fast freshman backs, Willie Davis and Angelo Robertucci, who confounded the Indiana defense with several eye-catching runs.

No longer the early season second-half ball club which would founder in the early stages before exploding in the later portions, the proteges of Harold Burry slammed throuh for two first-period scores over the future teachers who were neither as impressive nor efficient as their smoothly coordinated 60 piece band.

The initial touchdown of the opening quarter came on a bit of tricky maneuvering by Willie Davis who shook off a host of would-be tacklers at the scrimmage line before loping the remaining 42 yards for the score. Titan center Bill Freshwater followed Davis' tally with the first of his five successful extra point attempts. In quick succession "Whizzer" White thundered 28 yards straight up the middle to the goal line for his tenth touchdown of the year to give the visitors a comfortable 14-0 edge.

Before the half ended, George James had smacked over from the 1 yard line for a third touchdown which was followed in short order by another which came on a 28 yard pass play from Harold Davis to reserve Halfback John Martin.

After the intermission, the Big Indians turned to a ground game in an effort to get their stalled offensive machinery in motion. However just as their passing attack was blunted in the first half so was their ground game in the closing quarters. Each time a potential ground gainer saw what seemed to be an inviting avenue through his opponents forward wall his efforts were nullified by a surging wave of Titan tacklers who limited the ever-wearying Indiana backs to a skimpy 95 yards for their afternoon's troubles.

But while the home teams surprisingly inept offense continued to remain bogged down, the beautifully balanced Titan attack resumed its march to their opponent's goal line as Harold Davis struck through the air to account for two 3rd period scores.

The first half saw Davis practically lay the ball in the arms of Bill Moss who never broke stride in picking up his first touchdown of the season on a play which covered 41 yards. The second was a bullet-like string pass to George James that was good for 24 yards and the Titan's sixth marker of the afternoon.

The final third quarter tally came on a sensational sprint by freshman Angelo Robertucci who retrieved an Indiana punt back on his own 28 to weave through a maze of tangle-footed opposition tacklers for 72 yards and the first of his two touchdowns. Robertucci also followed the touchdown with a successful conversion.

Robertucci, once more the man of the hour, scored the Titans eighth and final touchdown taking a 6 yard pass from reserve quarterback Steve Kosko.

Towering Titans Prepare For Season Opener

By Jack Heidish

As football season swings into its last few weeks, another favorite sport, basketball, has begun serious preparations for its campaign.

Benefitted by a new NCAA rule which permits practice to begin on October 15, Coach Grover Washabaugh has 19 candidates working out. Also four more aspirants will report on November 20—after the conclusion of the football season.

Among these candidates are 7 lettermen. They are Harold Davis, Tom Duda, Charley Garrett, Dick Jordan, Jim Riley, Dave Rankin and George Strehler. Several newcomers and performers from last year's junior varsity squad have made competition rough for those varsity berths.

Coach Washabaugh, beginning his 18th year as head mentor, has prepared a hard schedule for the team. Westminster fans will get a good line on how the Titans should fare after the locals have tangled with Akron university on December 1 and Pitt five days later on their opponents' home floors. Rumor has it that both these teams will have strong quintets.

Other powerful foes on the card include Baldwin-Wallace, Carnegie Tech, St. Francis, St. Josephs of Philadelphia, Youngstown, Geneva and Kent State. On the 21-game program are 9 home contests and 12 road battles.

The schedule:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Jan. | 5 | St. Francis, home |
| | 9 | Juniata, away |
| | 11 | St. Joseph, away |
| | 16 | St. Francis, away |
| | 31 | Youngstown, away |
| Feb. | 2 | Geneva, home |
| | 4 | Baldwin-Wallace, away |
| | 7 | Pitt, home |
| | 9 | Youngstown, home |
| | 13 | Waynesburg, away |
| | 16 | Millersville STC, home |
| | 20 | Geneva, away |
| | 23 | Carnegie Tech, home |
| | 27 | Gannon, away |
| Mar. | 2 | Kent State U., home |

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Westminster 27 | Thiel 21 |
| Westminster 60 | Grove City 0 |
| Westminster 40 | Bethany 16 |
| Westminster 28 | Geneva 0 |
| Westminster 42 | Waynesburg 7 |
| Westminster 54 | Indiana ST 7 |
| Nov. 10 ..... At | Slippery Rock S.T.C. |
| Nov. 17 ..... | Carnegie Tech |

Shoes Dull and Drab
SHOE TINTING
and DYING
Fabrics and Leather
Fusco Shoe Shop
Bank Building

SOCIAL WHIRL

Weekend Plans Include Migration To Slippery Rock For Football Game

By Dianne Oursler

With the welcome aspect of an uneventful weekend ahead, Westminsterites can blow the dust from almost-forgotten books. There might even be a letter sent home reading something like: "When I, good parents, was called to study . . ." instead of "In Westminster halls I danced a dance!" (All due apologies to W. S. Gilbert.)

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Roberta Post has accepted the Kappa Sigma Kappa pin of James Porter of Waynesburg college . . . Pledging ceremonies were held for seventeen girls last Friday: Jane Barnes, Frances Beach, Joanne Brewer, Anita Cicciarelli, Carol Davidson, Peggy Funkhouser, Billie Gamble, Virginia Henthorne and Nancy Hunt. Others were: Bea Koenig, Marcia Mereness Phyllis Neeley, Helen Stevenson, Koula Svokos, Ruth Walker, Sara Worsley, and Janet Wilson. . . . Nancy Sharp is in charge of the chapel program Monday.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Ronald Strehl and Acy Lee Jackson have accepted social membership.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Pledge ceremonies were held for: Nancy Beaver, Kay Dagnon, Ruth Gittings, Peggy Hawthorne, Janice Hoag, Norma Laird, Linda Larcher, Marjory Lesnett, Meda McCrory, Barbara Robert, Adala Stearns, Jane Wood and Pat Wyle . . . Mary Lou Heilburn visited Gettysburg . . . Nancy Beaver, Sarah Hadad, Marlene Wasser and Madolyn Watterson were on the Grove City college campus . . . Verlee Clinefelter, '52 and Barbara Tyrrell, ex '58 were here last weekend.

CHI OMEGA . . . Connie Bumpas has accepted the Alpha Tau Omega pin of David Jones of Albion college . . . Peggy and Patricia Knoer were on campus last weekend as was Barbara Caldwell . . . A pledge dinner was held at the Tavern last Friday evening honoring the new pledges. Salle Hamilton was in charge . . . The chapter will attend a tea today in Sharon being given by the Sharon Alumni . . . A pancake breakfast will be held tomorrow for the pledges . . . Officers of the new class are: Linda Tweedy, president; Sandra Danno, vice-president, Norma Alexander, secretary and Mary Ann Hoff, treasurer.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Beverly Johnson has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Les Giles . . . Jane Williams, ex '58 and Bobby Skiff McKissock, ex '54 were on campus last weekend . . . Joan Acton, Judy Allison, Janice Ferguson, Winnie Fuellgraf, Betsy Guthrie, Nancy Hied, Peggy Maloney, Claire Porcello, Jane Stewart, Pat Titus, Peggy Henderson, Judy Jones, Bobbie Lindsey, and Sanny Mahood were pledged.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . On Wednesday evening the Annual Father and Son banquet was held in Harlansburg. The twenty-four new pledges to Phi Kappa Tau were honored.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Pledging ceremonies were held Friday for Eva Backstrom, Joanne Balo, Dixie Barbe, Thelma Blystone, Joanne Bretsnyder, Margaret Broderick, Sally Britt, Ann Carlson, Carol Cassarly, Nancy Cunningham, Brenda Dorsch, Carol Houk, Jane Houtz, and Judy Hoyle. Mary Ann Hudkins, Joan Kratchman, Barbara Lockwood, Nancy Mason, Marilyn Moyer, Cornelia Selden, Elaine Shirley, Sandy Sidler and Barbara Sprenger were also pledged . . Mrs. Margaret Taggart, national secretary-treasurer, visited campus last week. . . Harriet Wright, Barbie Farrow, Sandy Sidler, Mary Ann Kordich and Dixie Barbe visited the chapter at Indiana State Teachers college last weekend . . . Jane Wahlin ex '57 visited campus last weekend.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Officers of this year's pledge class are: Gilbert Lewis, president; Donald Gill, vice-president and John Vignovic, secretary . . . Several members of the chapter visited the chapter at Indiana State Teachers college last Saturday. . . Joseph Burns visited the chapter at the University of Pittsburgh . . . Joseph McFate, 56 and Kenneth Zahrobsky, '56 were here recently.

THETA UPSILON . . . Pledging ceremonies were held for: Marian Dewar, Diane Bachellor, Maryetta Baker, Ann Bolam, Connie Boysen and Clara Campman. Also pledged were Carol Cooley, Beverly Crum, Ruth Ann Falk, Virginia Kaelin, Judy Kaufman, Martha Lewis, Jeanne Manton, Joan Meanor, Barbara Moorhouse, Susan Sheriff, Marjorie Steffler, Helene Turner and Alicia Williams.

Engagements

ROOP-SUTTON

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie F. Roop of Republic, Ohio announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Evelyn, to F. David Sutton, son of the Reverend and Mrs. Richard C. Sutton of Eighty Four, Pa.

Miss Roop is a senior elementary education major at Bowling Green State university, Bowling Green, Ohio. Mr. Sutton is a senior math major at Westminster college.

A June wedding is being planned.

Pictured above are the fifteen seniors chosen for Who's Who. Seated, left to right, Marilyn Elkins, Ann Price, Beth McGill, Marcia Vandermast, Dianne Oursler. Second row, Diane Levy, Lorraine Egli, Barbara Farrow, Betty Wagner, Catherine Snyder. Third row, Craig Cashdollar, David Abram, Perry Kirklin, Gene Degitz, and William Jackson.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Nov. 9
Chapel, Dr. C. T. R. Yeates
7:15 Communion Service
Saturday, Nov. 10
Football, Slippery Rock, away
Sunday, Nov. 11
9:45 Bible class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers, Mr. Biberich
Monday, Nov. 12
Chapel, Alpha Gamma Delta
4:15 Poetry Reading preliminaries
7:00 Sorority meetings
Fraternity meetings
Tuesday, Nov. 13
Chapel, Dr. Hopkins
5:00 Iota Delta
5:00-9:00 Tri-Beta Wiener Roast
7:00 Student Council
7:00 Future Teachers of America Initiation
8:15 Speech Recital
Wednesday, Nov. 14
Chapel, Cwens
7:00 YWCA
4:15 Pi Sigma Pi Tea
8:15 Phi Alpha Theta
Thursday, Nov. 15
Chapel, Mortarboard
7:30 Poetry Reading Festival, Ferguson lounge
AAUW Faculty lounge
Friday, Nov. 16
Chapel, Kappa Dtla
3:00-5:00 Campus Club Tea at Russell hall

Beta Beta Beta Initiates Three At Dinner Meeting

A picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Frey will precede the initiation ceremony of the new members of Beta Beta Beta on Tuesday, November 13.

The provisional members are: Kay Dierst, Miriam Fox, Mary Griffiths, Janet McConahey, Sharen McKenzie, Carol Najpaver and Claire Sode.

The following three members of the biology honorary are going active: Bernard Reilly, William Bell and Thomas McFarland.

What It Means

(Continued from page 2)

recently seen the effect of economical discontent in Poland and Hungary.

Right now, this is one of the problems faced in the middle east. Britain and France believe in the Israelian cause and the United States, though it is not committed to any side, is leaning toward the Egyptians. If these three nations can't get together, it looks like the NATO pact is in for a rough time.

Still, if the NATO pact does break up, it will have shown that member nations can work together. Do you realize that never before in the history of the world have countries worked together with such a degree of cooperation? And it is on this basis that the future of NATO will be determined.

WILMINGTON THEATRE
2 Shows Nightly
FRI. & SAT.
— Double Feature —
WARNER BROS. PRESENT
Battle Cry
CINEMASCOPE
WARNERCOLOR-STEREOPHONIC SOUND
STARRING VAN HEFLIN-ALDO RAY-MONA FREEMAN-NANCY OLSON-JAMES WHITMORE
RAYMOND MASSEY-TAB HUNTER-DOROTHY MALONE-ANNE FRANCIS SCREEN PLAY BY LEON URIS · DIRECTED BY RAOUL WALSH · ORIGINAL MUSIC BY MAX STEINER
— ALSO —
Paramount presents JERRY LEWIS and DEAN MARTIN in PARDNERS color by TECHNICOLOR VISTAVISION
TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY
20th CENTURY-FOX presents RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN'S CAROUSEL
COLOR by DE LUXE
MORE THAN YOUR EYES HAVE EVER SEEN! CINEMASCOPE 55
IN STEREOPHONIC SOUND

A COMPLETE SELECTION OF CANDY
— featuring —
BRACH'S – CLARKS – HERSHEY
Packaged or Boxed
BROWN'S MARKET
. . . the Store with More

"I feel like a Coke. Do you?"

Of course. Most everyone does — often. Because a few moments over ice-cold Coca-Cola refresh you so. It's sparkling with natural goodness, pure and wholesome — and naturally friendly to your figure. Feel like having a Coke?
DRINK Coca-Cola
BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 8 Westminster College, New Wilmington. Pa. Friday, Nov. 16, 1956

Parents Attend Meeting And Football Game

The Westminster college Parent's League will have an executive meeting at 9 a.m. at the college Saturday morning. All Westminster parents have been invited to meet in the chapel at 10:30. The committee will present recommendations for formation of the League and also elect officers.

The parents will be guests of the college at the Westminster-Carnegie Tech football game in Memorial Field Saturday afternoon.

Mr. R. J. Studley, chairman of the League's committee, will preside at Saturday morning's executive meeting. Mrs. Howard Guy is secretary. Other directors are Mrs. Jesse B. Bechtel, Mrs. Frank W. Keeley, Mr. Robert A. McConnell, Mr. Frank A. Finlay and Mrs. Alton H. Adams.

At a committee meeting last month the group passed five motions including a resolution calling for a closer relationship between the college and parents of Westminster students. The League also hopes to establish an annual fund program to aid the college.

Applications Available To Business Majors For Government Jobs

The U. S. Civil Service commission has announced that applications are still being accepted for accountant and auditor positions with starting salaries of $3,670 a year in various federal agencies in Washington, D. C., and throughout the United States.

To qualify, applicants must have had appropriate education or experience or possess a CPA certificate. Those who qualify on the basis of experience only will be required to pass an accounting test to demonstrate satisfactory knowledge of accounting principles.

Full information and instructions on filing application are given in civil service announcement No. 51 Revised which may be obtained from many post offices throughout the country or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C. Applications will be accepted until further notice.

Scroll Sponsors Movie 'Les Miserables' Tues.

The troubled life of the Frenchman Jean Valjean, will be portrayed in the film version of Victor Hugo's famous novel, Les Miserables, Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 7 p.m. in the Science hall. This is a romantic novel taking place in France during the early 1800's; it revolves around the exciting incidents in the life of Jean Valjean after he has served a 19 year prison sentence for stealing a loaf of bread.

The movie is being sponsored by Scroll, English honorary, and is open to all who wish to attend. A donation of 20 cents will be accepted to help defray expenses..

It is hoped that many students will take advantage of the opportunity to view this well known story.

Now Hear This

A bon-fire pep rally will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the field house to cheer the football team to victory against Carnegie Tech tomorrow.

Do you wish to have a chapel program during the week of November 27-30? If so, please contact Dr. Woods as soon as possible.

Sophomores must hand in their approved major sheets to the office by November 20.

All candidates for degrees during 1957 should sign for diplomas at the recorder's office at once.

Cheerleaders Practice Dancing, Too

The cheerleaders may be practicing for the dance Saturday night, but they don't want to be the only ones attending. For 25 cents stag and 35 cents a couple, you can dance from 8:30 to 11:30 in Old 77.

The cheerleaders pictured above are, left to right, Sami McCartney, Carol Pauly, Harriet Wright, Betty Jean Rowland, Phyllis Towne and Dixie Barbe.

Fifty-Five Cwens Arrive Here For 16th National Convention

Committees Schedule Panel Discussions, Meetings And Traditional Cwens Feast

Fifty-five Cwens and fifteen advisors and deans of women from 13 colleges and universities in the eastern part of the country are arriving today to attend the 16th National Convention of Cwens. Pennsylvania schools represented are Allegheny, Grove City, Penn State, Pitt and Carnegie Tech and other schools are from Mississippi, Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois.

The main purposes of the Convention are to exchange ideas, to become better Cwens and to learn how to become more successful in the individual chapters. The opening session is scheduled tonight at 7:15 in Old 77.

A discussion will be led by the national officers and will open the formal meeting period Saturday morning concerning the topic "Who, What, When, Where and How in Cwens?" After a coke break the meeting will resume with a panel discussion on "The Intangible Services of Cwens" led by Miss Helen Page, Dean of Women at Miami university.

The Saturday afternoon session will be a business meeting and the convention will end with the traditional Cwen's Feast at 6 o'clock at Hillside. The speaker will be Miss Helen Rush, Dean of Women at the University of Pittsburgh.

The national officers attending the convention are Mrs. Robert Angelo, president; Mrs. R. F. Cayton, vice-president and Mrs. Peter Guzak, secretary.

Visiting Cwens will be staying at Ferguson hall, Hillside dormitory, the Beta Sigma Omicron house and the Alpha Gamma Delta house.

Virginia Dickson is general chairman for the convention and other chairmen are Mary Lou Mansell, reservations; De Humphreys, room assignment; Marcie Barrett, registration and Clara Gillis and Bobbie Foster, ritual. Others include Carolyn Jones, Carol Roberts, Pat Mulloy and Lynn Caddick.

Madrical Singers Give Program In Pittsburgh

Madrical Singers and Barbara Rankin violinist will be going to Pittsburgh to sing at the Ben Avon Presbyterian church. They will sing for the Women's association's monthly meeting on December 6.

This group consists of the following:

Marlin Reynolds, Alta Vogan, Audrey Valentine, Peggy Henderson, Virginia Borden, William Meyer, Howard Jones, Donna Morgan and Mr. Huyck.

The group is under the direction of Professor Martin.

Bell Telephone Hosts Three College Profs

Mrs. Frey, Dr. DeWitt and Dr. Woods will be guests of the Bell Telephone company at the Castleton hotel in New Castle, Monday. An educational film, "Our Mr. Sun," will be shown to the guests. With this film the company will inaugurate a nationwide science series of television broadcasts.

The purpose of these broadcasts is to reveal how scientists work to broaden the horizons of man's knowledge anad to show how this knowledge is put to use.

Burbick Releases 'Macbeth' Crews

The crews for the coming Little Theater production of "Macbeth" are now completed, Mr. William Burbick announced today. Working on the stage crew are Jim Skidmore, Jim Caskey, George Lowther, Barbara Moorhouse and Jane Stewart. Those in charge of lights are Jane Wilson, Barbara Rankin, Eleanor Paddock and Stu Eddy.

The costume committee is composed of Esther McGoech, Beverly Bemiss, Mary Ann Kordich, Janet Moncrief and Carol Roberts. Audry Sprowles, Virginia Thompson and Gail Cheetham are in charge of the music and sound effects.

The handling of properties will be under the jurisdiction of Nancy Wampler, Kay Ames and Betty Thompson. Nancy Reese will act as prompter, with Leah Schill as call girl.

Sue Behrenberg, Lael Holman and Phyllis Neeley will be in charge of make-up. Stage manager for the entire production will be the duty of Alan Ellis.

The performances of "Macbeth" will run the week of December 3, Monday through Saturday night. Several matinees will also be scheduled. Tickets for the show will go on reserve the week after Thanksgiving vacation. Information concerning the exact dates and time for making reservations will be posted later.

Tri Beta Picnic

Plenty of good things to eat were served at the Beta Beta Beta picnic held at the home of Mrs. Frey, faculty advisor of the honorary and biology professor. Mrs. Frey is seated next to Robert Altman, president of the group, in the upper center of the picture.

Lorraine Egli Places First In Festival

Lorraine Egli was judged first place winner of the annual Poetry Reading Festival last night with her reading of Amy Lowell's "Evelyn Ray." Placing second and third were Jane Wilson and Joyce Guy.

The first place winer is a senior speech major from New Wilmington. Jane is a junior speech major from Masontown and Joyce is from Hudson, Ohio, also majoring in speech.

Other participating in the finals were George Lowther, Eleanor Nye, Dianne Oursler, Nancy Reese and Shirley Ross.

Master of ceremonies for the event was Robert Veon, senior history major and prospective seminarion from New Castle, and winner of last year's festival. Entertainment was provided by Marian Dewar, Romaine Gardner, Marty Reynolds and Christiane Jouzeh.

Judges for the festival were Dr. Myrta McGinnis of the English department, Miss Leone Westover of the speech department and Dr. Arthur Jensen of the history department.

Students Featured In Radio Skits

"Billy Goat and the King" is the name of the program to be presented tomorrow at 10:15 a.m. on "Let's Make Believe" over WKST. Bill Bovard, the producer, will also be the announcer, while Rick Aurandt will be the technician. Script writers are Scottie Price and Jackie Walker.

Next Tuesday, Nov. 20, over WPIC (Sharon), "Campus Show Case" will present a musical show, with Paul Gamble at the piano. George Lowther wrote the script, which announcer George Killa will read. Acting as technician will be Don Hudson.

Featured on the "Thanksgiving Program" on Nov. 20 will be Beth McGill, Julie Holstein and Lorraine Egli. The announcer will be Don Hudson; technician George Lowther and script writer, George Killa.

Student, Faculty X-Ray Scheduled For Monday

The State X-ray unit will arrive on campus Monday, Nov. 19 at 9:00 a.m. and will be at your service until 5:00 p.m. that afternoon. Faculty and their wives and students are asked to take advantage of this free X-ray program. Reports will be received as to analysis of each X-ray. Dr. McClanahan says "an X-ray will take five minutes of your time and guarantee you one full year of good health."

Music Educators Attend Harrisburg Conference

Pennsylvania's Music Educators association will hold its annual convention at Harrisburg this year. Eight members of the student chapter, 180 of the Music Educators National Conference and their two faculty sponsors will attend. These students and alumni of Westminster's music department who are teaching in Pennsylvania will be together at a Westminster table during the special alumni luncheon on Friday, Nov. 30. The convention will last until December 1.

News Brief

New members were taken into Karux at a banquet at Grange hall Monday, Oct. 21. The guest speaker was Rev. C. Kenneth Hall. Thirty-four people were present including ministers of the town and the college staff.

It Is Time For A Change

It was a very encouraging experience to attend the Associated Collegiate Press conference in Cleveland this past weekend. Eight hundred and seventeen members of newspapers, magazine and yearbook staffs from thirty-seven states participated in panel discussions and group discussions.

I was more than happy to see that there are students who are enthusiastic about their school publications. Although most of them had their problems, they were always working toward a solution, not only among the staff members, but with the whole student body.

In most of the schools, the positions on the newspaper were very competitive, even as far down the ladder as news reporters and proof readers. Other school newspapers, including those the size of The Holcad, had numerous students working on all phases of production.

These should be the attitudes of Westminster students toward The Holcad and other campus publications. Nothing can be done without your cooperation and interest, and particularly your participation.

During the discussion sessions, I gathered many ideas on make up, features and general style. Now, I would like to know your ideas, suggestions and dislikes on either newspaper content or campus problems.

There is much back seat driving going on around campus, but no one wants to take over the driver's seat or help the driver in any way. Your comments and complaints may be heard by writing a letter to the editor. Names will be withheld upon request, but all names will remain on file.

We would like to please the public and we would like to print the things you want to see. In addition, we want to know what you are thinking about and what your ideas are on politics, world affairs and campus affairs. Let us hear from you.

Next semester is just around the corner as far as a new regieme on the Holcad staff is concerned. No one is especially overjoyed to see The Holcad appear in the TUB every Friday before lunch, but when it is late, the indignant comments flow without restraint. What is going to happen to your newspaper next semester? Or haven't you thought about it?

The Holcad

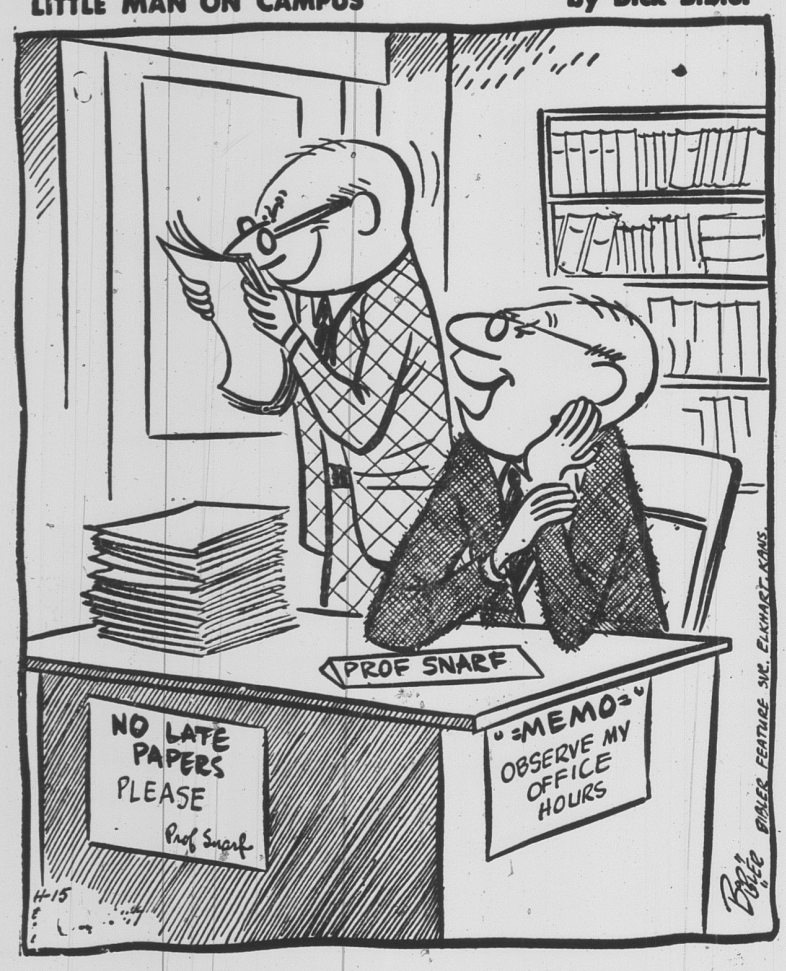

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, November 16, 1956 No. 8

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR ..... Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR ..... Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"I always write my term paper criticisms illegibly so th' student won't be able to take issue with what I say."

Fashions . . .

In Clothes and Music

By Bob Holmes

By special request our on the spot, roving, bird-nosed reporter is bringing you another special feature. More interviews with people in the know.

Miss Ivy Leager, famous French designer of men's clothes, has announced the absolute newest in campus wear. Miss Leager says, "The thing to wear in 1957 will be my newest creation, a belt with a belt in the back, also striped under shirts, and last, but far from least, striped, double breasted sport coats autographed by Elvis Presley."

Speaking of Elvis — we were talking to his agent the other day and he told us that the 'pelvis' had just been elected honorary president of all parent-teacher associations throughout the country. Elvis is also prominent among the group of famous singers now forming a new club, "The Society for the prevention of Cruelty to rock and roll singers in America."

Rock and roll is becoming very popular in Russia (the Russians claim they invented the style) and our reporter was on hand when Idiotsky McCrumsky recorded the first hit. The record was entitled, "The Great Purger". McCrumsky also recorded the first album which was called "Rock n'Rollsky around the Kremlin." The newest Moscow style is a straight jacket with a belt in the back and white buck hobnail boots.

Did you ever notice the words to these new popular record? No? Well dig this, "You ain't nothin' but a houn' dog. Cryin' all the time. Yes you ain't nothing but a houn' dog cryin' all the time. You never caught a rabbit so you ain't no friend of mine. Well they said you was high class and that was a lie. Yes they said you was high class and that was a lie. You ain't never caught a rabbit so you ain't no friend of mine." True Americana.

Night Lights . . .

In Professor Row

By Jill Clarkson

Deep into the night each Friday thin cackles of glee echo down Professor Row as pop-quiz papers are read and graded. Because students have been informed from arliest school days that to guess is more favorable than to leave blanks, the following gems have been unearthed:

History: (Questions dictated)

Question: Discuss the development of the culture of Samoa.

Answer: The first people on earth were the cave men. These men wore little clothing, if any, and were always cold unless they sat by the fire for long periods of time. But they found this to be very impractical. Some of the inhabitants on the southern coast of Polynesia held tribal counsels to disucss the matter. It was decided by one of the more practical natives that their whole problem would be solved if they would wear "some moah." Thus the culture of Samoa was created.

Bible 103:

Question: Discuss in full the reasons for David's character.

Answer: David had trouble sleeping in warm weather, and often he would go to the window and look out. He was quite a character.

English 101:

Define the following:

Untenable—not divisible by ten

Gruesome—a little taller than before

Libel—Can be expected to do almost anything, as in the sentence, "He is libel to go to the store any minute."

Biology 111:

Question: What are Golgi Bodies?

Answer: In the reptile age at the time of Cro-Magnon man, there roamed the earth around the vicinity of Texas and Maine an animal which closely resembled the Dinosaur, and which was called the Golgus, because he had a lot of gall to be plodding around in plain sight of mammoths and sabre-toothed tigers. These Golgi finally came to blows with the other reptiles because of a decided difference of opinion in State's rights, and soon became extinct. Archeologists who have searched for biological truths have come across the petrified remains of these Golgi and have named them Golgi Bodies.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Welcome to the Cwens from many campuses who are visiting us this week-end. We hope that your conference has been successful and that you found your stay on our campus pleasant.

* * *

You can't imagine how shocked the student body was when they read Sunday morning's paper and actually found our game written up on page two of the Press. Maybe they are beginning to see the light. Well, Press, thanks for finally giving us the write-up that we deserved. The cutest headline that I have seen recently was in Wednesday's Post Gazette—"Westminster Unbeaten, Untied, Uninvited—Yet!" The team can control the first two adjectives but other than that we will just have to sit back and wait.

* * *

Have you ever wondered how some of the people who are on these fabulous quiz shows get their knowledge. Well UCLA knows where Caryl and Sue Volkman, the beautiful blonde twins who had the category political parties on the "$64,000 Question" got their information. It was discovered that the girls had checked out quite a few books to bone up on their subject and owed the library quite a large fine. However, since it appeared that the girls had used the books well, the fine was cancelled. After all, they had only won $16,000.

* * *

For the kids who have complained about being crowded in rooms, take note. The University of Texas sent out room contracts to prospective students. This fall 16 more students than available beds showed up. The college with a red face explained that not as many students had cancelled room reservations as they expected. Meanwhile, back at the U. of Texas, sixteen students are still living in the dormitory halls.

* * *

The Gustavian Weekly of Gustavus college had a cute quote in its paper.

"We are fortunate at Gustavus to live in an atmosphere of liberal academic freedom. The best example of this is the fact that Reverend Esbjornson has a ball-point pen with the inscription "Compliments of Deac's bar".

* * *

Did you notice at the Slippery Rock game that the Titan fans outnumbered the Rocket fans during the last half. No wonder. With a team as hot as ours, a few cold wintry blasts couldn't put out the spirit. The kids really cheered for the first time in many games. With the way the underclassmen were playing, the seniors can rest more assured that the Titans will again put a formidable eleven on the gridiron in 1957.

* * *

Well, gang, that holiday spirit has certainly come around and everybody is eagerly looking forward to going home for a few days of rest and mother's good old home cooking. So here's wishing you a very nice Thanksgiving vacation. See you later.

News Headlines . . .

Hungary Strikes Against Russian Rule

General Strike Hits Hungary—After being beaten in their effort to gain freedom from the Russian dictatorship, the Hungarian nation of 10 million people started an almost complete general strike to achieve their ends. At the present time the only active resistance was reported at two factories on Csepel Island which the workers have turned into armed fortresses.

U.N. Police Force to Enter Suez Zone—A preliminary team of 12 U.N. truce observers have already moved into the 600 yard wide no-man's land in the Suez Canal zone. They are still awaiting the arrival of the U.N. police force which is assemblying at Capodichino, Italy. Egyptian President Nazzer insists that the U.N. has no duties in the canal zone, that British-French forces withdraw from Port Said immediately and that the U.N. force be confined to policing the 1949 armistice line between Egypt and Israel. These demands have helped to hinder the progress of the cease-fire.

Mexican Navy Fires on U.S. Shrimp Boat—The American boat Pescadora was fired on by a Mexican gunboat and its captain was critically wounded. The cause of the clash was the dispute over the limits of off-shore waters. The Mexicans claim sovereignty for 11 miles off-shore while the U.S. claims that Mexican control extends out only three sea miles.

Steelers Will Stay In Pittsburgh—Despite an attractive offer from Louisville, the Pittsburgh Steelers pro football franchise will remain in the Smoky City.

TITANS FACE TARTANS IN FINALE

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

Tomorrow marks the end of perhaps the greatest football season in Westminster history. The Titans have been working up to this big tilt with Carnegie Tech. A bowl bid may be in the balance, awaiting the outcome of tomorrow's game. Will Tech be tough? Sure they'll be tough but who can stop the Titan victory parade.

Titan Average 42

The Titans have scored 296 points in seven ball games for an average of 42 points a game, their opponents have scored a meager 51 points, an average of only 7 points a game.

The Tartans will face the Titans without the services of Tucci, their number-one quarterback. Tucci was so valuable to the Tech attack that with his injury the Tartans were forced to substitute an "A" formation for their regular "T." This arrangement was unsuccessful against St. Vincent last week since Tech lost 21-7. Since St. Vincent lost to Indiana and we beat Indiana by 47 points this should give us a tremendous advantage.

Most of the Titan seniors still have revenge in their hearts for the 1954 Tartan squad which beat the Blue and White, 6-0. Westminster has won twenty straight since this defeat.

Burry Ends Fifth Year

Head Coach Harold Burry will complete his fifth regular season as head coach at Westminster. His record includes 28 victories, 3 setbacks and 1 tie.

The impressive play of three freshman halfbacks has made the prospects appear bright for next year. Willie Davis, Angie Robertucci and John Martin are the three freshmen that will make up the nucleous for the 1957 backfield. George James, sophomore halfback, may make the switch to quarterback. Tookie is a fine passer. Jack Bestwick is a top freshman prospect for quarterback. With the graduation of both starting ends, Chuck Powell and Jim Dewar are top 1957 prospects.

Bernie Reilly will return to the right tackle slot and Bill McConnell and Ron Opher stand out among this year's tackle reserves. Ray Leach, Al King and Joe Fusco are prospects for a guard position vacated by Jack Lewis and Bill Morrell. Glenn Smith and Richard Gray will try to fill Bill Freshwater's shoes at center.

If next year's freshman class produces some good line prospects the Titans will continue their victory rampage. The team will lack depth, however, and the line will have to develop a great deal before next season's opening game. The thirteen seniors that are graduating will be sorely missed by Coach Burry.

Coffee

Cokes

or just idle conversation

The Grille

Walkers Have It . . .

FOR WARMER HUNTING

- Woolrich 100% wool Hunting Shirts
- Woolrich "Weatherized" Coats - Hats - Pants
- Ball-Band insulated Boots and Socks
- Jon-e Hand-warmers

J. A. Walker Hdwre

Across from the Bank

Fighting Titans

One of the action highlights of the game Saturday against Slippery Rock was Tookie James (36) trying to get away from the Rockets. Running interferance is Harold Davis (52) who completed four out of eight passes, including two scoring throws.

Blue And White Stomps Rockets 45-0; To Run Consecutive String To Twenty

Westminster's fabulous Titans racked up a definitely inferior Slippery Rock eleven last Saturday for their 20th straight win. When the dust had cleared at the end of the fourth quarter Slippery Rock's Teachers found themselves on the short end of a 45-0 score.

For the Titans the win at the Rock's Thompson Field meant another step closer to a bowl bid, and another feather in the cap of the local spheroid carriers as they saw their record for the past four years pushed to 27 wins, 1 loss, and one tie.

Titans Fourth Shutout

The Titans gained their seventh straight this season and their fourth shutout with 347 yards gained in rushing, and 165 yards in passing for a total of 512 yards covered during the span of the game. The opposing Teachers gained 40 and 42 yards rushing and passing respectively.

The Blue and White scored nineteen points in the first half and twenty six in the second half while holding the Rockets scoreless to keep their point average up to a godd solid forty two points per game. This loss for Slippery Rock meant that their record for the season took another slide downward to stand at 2 wins, and 4 losses.

Davis Throws Two

Harold Davis, Willie Davis, and George "Tookie" James were the bright lights for the Titan squad. Harold completed four out of his eight passes, including two scoring aerials, for one of the better games of his career. He also ran one across the line for another touchdown right before the first half concluded.

Amazingly fast Willie Davis covered a total of 132 yards of ground to add to his yearly total. He racked up two touchdowns, on 46 and 74 yard runs, to provide a pad against a possible Slippery Rock comeback. Tookie James caught two passes and carried them across the goal to account for the other two Titan Touchdowns.

Defense Stops Drive

Slippery Rock's Teachers provided a stubborn defense for the first twenty minutes of the game by stopping two massive Titan drives. However, Harold Davis' run for a score seemed to be the straw that broke the camel's back. It was a very different ball club that faced the Titans in the second half. The Titans literally pushed them over for four more touchdowns to make the score 45-0.

The lineups were as follows:

Slippery Rock: Ends—Harvey, Mattys, Rust and DeGrange; Tackles—Knabb, Heald, Barber and Patterson; Guards—Austin, Probst, Yanca, Katusin and Kolde; Centers—Lenosky, Kentzel, Hassinger and Schmelzer; Backs—Bookheimer, Stockhausen, McCracken, Angeloski, Hitechew, Tomko, Lampe, Copley and Reddinger.

Westminster: Ends—Cortese, Moss, Powell, Dewar and Edwards; Tackles—Roman, Reilly, Burdullis and Kirklin; Guards—Morrell, Lewis, King,and Fusco; Centers—Freshwater, Smith and Gray; Backs—H. Davis, W. Davis, James, White, Kosko, McCreedy, Miele, Martin, Robertucci and Bestwick.

Intramural Tourney Team Rosters Due

The intramural basketball tournament starts November 28. Teams will be entered in both A and B brackets Hand in rosters as soon as possible. The regularly scheduled season will get under way about December 10.

Track Club Finishes 2nd In Junior AAU

The Westminster Track club under the direction of Coach Dave Colton finished second in the junior A. A. U. meet at Schenley Park in Pittsburgh last Saturday. The team consisted of three runners from Westminster, five from Slippery Rock, two from Grove City, and one each from Geneva and New Castle High.

Central Catholic High of Pittsburgh won the meet; they are state Catholic chaps. Pitt freshmen were third. The race was won by Bob Carman, Carnegie Tech cross country coach. The 28 year-old Carman ran the 4 and 3/10 mile course in 22 minutes and 28 seconds, a new course record.

Paul Sanders from New Castle High, running for the Westminster club, finished second in 23 minutes. Paul is the state cross country champion. Bob Dickinson of Slippery Rock finished 10th for Westminster. Frank Brooker of Geneva was 16th' Jim Osuna was 17th, Acy Jackson was 20th, and Pete Marshall was 21st. There were 70 runners entered in the race.

Cracklin Good . . .
Home Made
PEANUT BRITTLE
50¢ lb.
WILMINGTON BAKERY
Artists of the Oven

Victory Over Tech May Mean Post-Season Bowl Game

By Al Wheeler

Westminster college officials anticipate one of the largest football crowds in several years at Memorial field when Carnegie Tech invades New Wilmington in hopes of halting the Titans' 20-game non-losing streak.

Tech leads in the all-time rivalry, 11-5, with 1 tie. Westminster won 6-0 in 1953, but lost 6-0 in the 1954 opener. Last year's scheduled game at Forbes field was cancelled because of bad weather.

The Tartans have whipped Johns Hopkins, Dickinson and W&J this year while losing to Buffalo, Temple, F&M and St. Vincent. They were the last team to beat the Titans before they started their 20-game win streak.

At least eight seniors will be in Coach Harold Burry's starting lineup. Several of these seniors were regulars in 1953 when the Titans opened the season with that 6-0 triumph.

Bill White, Westminster's leading scorer and ground gainer, was held to 28 yards rushing against Slippery Rock Saturday. But the Rockets' tight defense to halt White enabled quarterback Harold Davis and halfback Willie Davis to break loose for long runs. White has scored 60 points and gained 609 yards. Sophomore George James is runnerup with 43 points scored and 326 yards rushing.

Besides shooting for another unbeaten season and revenge for their last defeat, the Titans will be eager to enhance chances for a post-season game. Westminster is one of several teams under consideration for the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Aluminum Bowl at Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 22.

Ross Ellis, business manager, said reserved seats would be sold for the first time. Several hundred tickets will be available for $1.75 each. These can be purchased at the Sporting Goods Store, New Castle, or the Westminster business office.

Thirteen Seniors Bow In Tech Game

Tomorrow at 2 o'clock thirteen seniors will start play in their last game on Memorial field. These seniors have played on the greatest team in Westminster's history; they have compiled the greatest record. It will be a long time before their four year record is matched.

The first of these is Harold Davis, three-letterman. This will be the fourth year he has won a football letter. To add to his many honors he was named to the Little All-American team last year. The 22-year-old field general from Youngstown must be named to the All-time Westminster football team.

White Led State

Next is Bill "Whizzer" White, the Titans' hard charging fullback from Blairsville. Last year White led the state inscoring with 72 points, this season he has scored 60 points. Named all-state last year, he is sure to repeat this year. He is also a defensive standout.

Bill Freshwater will be sorely missed at the center position he has held down for the past three seasons. The 205 pounder from Munhall missed the first two games but has been a standout performer since then.

Kosko, Reserve Standout

Steve Kosko is the real team tragedy. He has played four years behind Davis at quarterback. He could probably start for any team in the district. Kosko played his greatest game at Bethany this year when he piloted the Titans to a well earned 40-16 victory.

Jay DeBolt is another four year man. He has been handicapped this year by a bad leg. The 21-year-old senior from Carrick High is the smallest member of the starting Titan backfield. He is 5'8", 150 pounds. A dangerous pass receiver as well as a speedy runner.

Cortest, Co-Captain

Vince Cortese is a rugged performer at the end position. The 200 pounder from Sewickley is an excellent pass receiver and blocker. He and Bill White were chosen co-captains by their teammates. He kicks the Titan extra points.

Bill Moss from Crafton is a hustling end with four years' experience. He got a full-time starting role when Jim Falk was injured. Moss is a fine defensive performer.

Jim Falk was an excellent end standout until a shoulder separation in the Grove City game sidelined him for the season. Jim served the Holcad as sports editor last year.

Roman, Immovable Force

Joe Roman is an immovable force at the tackle spot. The 230 pounder from Butler is an all-district candidate. He was one of the men who ripped those gaping holes in the opponents' line.

The top tackle reserve is Perry Kirklin, a member of Who's Who in American Colleges. Chemistry factors are as easily worked out as football plays to Perry. Another top tackle reserve is Don Burdulis from St. Casimir. Don returned from the army this year to resume the tackle position he held two years ago.

Morrell Brilliant

Jack Lewis, guard, from Greensburg has been a consistant performer despite injuries. The 185 pounder will receive his fourth football letter this year.

And Bill Morrell, last but far from the least. We think this man is the Titan lineman of the year. He has been an untiring performer for the Blue and White. The 195 pound, 21-year-old guard has been the unsung hero of many Titan conquests. This season was his finest of a brilliant four year career.

These thirteen men deserve ear-splintering applause when they return to the Memorial field bench for the last time tomorrow. They have been putting forth untiring effort into making our Titans the team they are.

Tomorrows Starting Lineups

| Carnegie Tech | | Westminster |
|---|---|---|
| Figery | LE | Cortese |
| Ramsey | LT | Roman |
| Capul | LG | Lewis |
| Temmel | C | Freshwater |
| Tachiavini | RG | Morrell |
| Chalupa | RT | Reilly |
| Cassett | RE | Moss |
| Muth | QB | Davis |
| Briner | LH | James |
| Majeski | RH | Davis |
| Quatse or Schmitz | FB | White |

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| Westminster 27 | Thiel 21 |
| Westminster 60 | Grove City 0 |
| Westminster 40 | Bethany 16 |
| Westminster 28 | Geneva 0 |
| Westminster 42 | Waynesburg 7 |
| Westminster 54 | Indiana ST 7 |
| Westminster 45 | Slippery Rock 0 |
| Nov. 17 ..... | Carnegie Tech |

Marsico Gains Title Of All College Champ

Results of the tennis tournament held during the past weeks are Frank Marsico, men's singles; Diana Black, women's singles; Ruby Parker and Frank Marsico, mixed doubles and Dr. John Forry, faculty champion. In a playoff after the completion of the tournament, Frank Marsico defeated Dr. Forry.

Trophies were presented to the winners at a chapel Monday by Dr. Adams, coach, who was assisted by Dr. Charles Edwards.

A tennis film will be shown Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 7:30 in room 116 in the Science hall. Everyone is invited.

SOCIAL WHIRL

Houseparties And Cheerleader's Dance Highlight Weekend Activities

By Dianne Oursler

The social calendar indicates a busy weekend as Westminster welcomes CWENS National Convention to the campus. Tonight the fellows will entertain their dates at the fraternity houseparties. Saturday we meet Carnegie Tech in football and that night the Cheerleaders will honor the Titans at a record dance in Old '77.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Lulu Good Vogelsang, national grand-president, will be on campus this weekend . . . New pledge officers are: Joanne Brewer, president; Janet Wilson, vice president; Nancy Hunt, secretary-treasurer; Billie Gamble, activities chairman; Peggy Funkhouser, social chairman and Ann Aichner, scholarship chairman.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Officers of the pledge class are: Robert Coleman, president; Barry Smith, vice president and Ben Fast, secretary-treasurer . . . Calvin McCracken is in charge of the houseparty to be held at Russell hall tonight . . . Robert Buckingham has accepted social membership.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Officers of the new pledge class have been elected and are as follows: Ruth Gittings, president; Nancy Beaver, vice president; Meda McCrory, secretary; Lin Larchar, treasurer and Barbara Robert, chaplain . . . Co-chairmen of the slumber party are Pat Disney and Meda McCrory . . . Janice Hoag and Adala Stearns visited Buffalo university while Betsy Harre and Carolyn Jones were on the Slippery Rock campus . . . Jean Aungst is in charge of Beta Sigma Omicron's chapel.

CHI OMEGA . . . Ruby Parker has accepted the Alpha Sigma Phi pin of Robert Gardner . . . Marjorie Harrison visited campus last weekend as did Ruth Organ . . . Elaine Beckett visited the chapter at West Virginia university.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Newly elected pledge officers are Peg Maloney, president; Peg Henderson, vice president; Judy Allison, secretary; Judy Jones, treasurer; Nancy Heide, activities chairman; Jane Stewart, scholarship; Bobbie Lindsay and Sanny Mahood, social chairmen and Peg Henderson, songleader.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . Jack Stewart, '56 was on campus over the weekend as was Ray Heid, '56 . . . William Seidner, '56 who was on campus recently, leaves this month for the Armed Forces . . . The following men were elected as officers of the new pledge class: Jack Lees, president; William James, vice president; Robert Hunt, secretary; William Pierce, treasurer and Ronald Opher, chaplain . . . John Stoyle is in charge of intramural basketball.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Patricia Stoops has accepted the Sigma Phi Epsilon pin of Robert Sola . . . "House of Blue Lights" is the theme for tonight's house party held by the pledges and supervised by Howard Thomas . . . Richard Whiteman, traveling secretary, visited the chapter last weekend . . . Kenneth and Ralph Hofrichter '56 and John Fedunok, ex '56 visited the chapter last weekend.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . New pledge officers are Nancy Mason, president; Jane Houtz, vice president; Joanne Bretsnyder, secretary and Barbara Lockwood, treasurer.

SIGMA NU . . . Pledge class officers are as follows: William Rankin, president; Leonard Smail, vice president; Robert Alter, secretary and James Lattimer, treasurer . . . Glenn Smith heads committees for tonight's houseparty which has a "Sadie Hawkins Day" theme . . . A buffet dinner will be served Saturday for parents and Sigma Nu members from Carnegie Institute of Technology.

THETA UPSILON . . . New pledge officers are: Alicia Williams, president; Barbara Moorhouse, vice president; Ruth Ann Falk, secretary; Connie Boysen, treasurer and Margy Steffler, chaplain.

Engagements

Valentine-Moore

Mr. and Mrs. John Valentine of Summerville, Pa. announce the engagement of their daughter, Audrey Eleanor to Donald Lee Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Moore of Roseville, Pa.

Miss Valentine is a senior music education major and a member of Kappa Delta sorority. Mr. Moore attends Clarion State Teacher's college.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Nov. 16
Chapel—Kappa Delta
3:30-5:00 Campus Club Tea
Cwens' National convention
Fraternity House Parties
Saturday, Nov. 17
2:00 Football—Carnegie Tech—Home
Cwens' National convention
Cheerleaders' dance
Sunday, Nov. 18
9:45 Bible Class
Alpha Sigma Phi Dinner for Sorority Presidents
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers—Rev James Manor
Monday, Nov. 19
Chapel—Beta Sigma Omicron
Sorority Meetings
Fraternity Meetings
Tuesday, Nov. 20
Chapel—Dr. Orr
7:00 CGA
7:00 Student Council
Scroll All College Movie
Wednesday, Nov. 21
Chapel—Dr. Orr
Thanksgiving Vacation Begins
Tuesday, Nov. 27
8:00 Classes Begin
5:00 Iota Delta
7:00 Student Council
7:30 Tennis Film
Wednesday, Nov. 28
5:00 WAA
7:00 YWCA
8:15 Delta Phi Alpha
8:00 Scroll
Thursday, Nov. 29
6:00 AAUP
Friday, Nov. 30
8:30-11:30 Senior Class (Mickey Greco)

Scandinavian Seminars Offer Low Cost Education

Applications are now being accepted from college juniors, graduates, adult educators and teachers for the 1957-58 Scandianvian seminars for a special fee of $900, which includes tuition, board and room, plus travel. Undergraduates may obtain academic credit by individual arrangement with their colleges for their junior year in Scandinavia.

These nine-month seminars afford mature students an opportunity to become a real part of the Danish, Swedish or Norwegian life and culture by living with two families for a month each, learning the language and studying it, also living and studying for six months with Scandinavian students in the famous Folk schools.

One of the nine months is reserved for a field trip during which the student may travel in all of the Scandinavian countries. Among the project which may be chosen for study are: adult education, the co-operatives, government, physical education, labor relations, arts and crafts, social welfare, history, literature and agriculture.

Further information can be obtained from the Scandinavian Seminars for Cultural Studies, 127A E. Seventy-Third street, New York 21, New York.

Kappa Mu Initiates Twelve New Members

Kappa Mu Epsilon, national math honorary, held its annual initiation banquet at the Tavern last night. New members include Marcie Barrett, Marilyn Felton, Patricia Trosch, Dorothy Bush, Jack Mansfield, Bob Palisin, Bernard Reilly, Wally Giffen, Mr. James Smith, math professor, Howard Thomas, Jerry Paul and Guy Wierman. All new members assumed a famous mathematicians name and gave a short biography and contributions to mathematics.

WE REPLACE OR REPAIR LENSES
J. R. MEEK
Your Local Jeweler

FOR PARTY-TIME . . . .
OR ANYTIME
SEALTEST ICE CREAM
and for the extra sweet sweettooth
Smucker's Topping — Daily Delight Nuts
BROWN'S MARKET
. . . the Store with More

WILMINGTON THEATRE
2 Shows Nightly
FRI. & SAT.
— Double Feature —
ON THE SCREEN! "Mister Roberts"
CINEMASCOPE WARNERCOLOR
PRESENTED BY WARNER BROS.
STARRING HENRY FONDA · JAMES CAGNEY · WILLIAM POWELL
— ALSO —
GARY COOPER · BURT LANCASTER
"VERA CRUZ"
SUPERSCOPE TECHNICOLOR RELEASED THRU UNITED ARTISTS
TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY
Original - Uncut Version
FRANKENSTEIN
AND
DRACULA

HI-LANDER THEATRE
New Castle, Pa.
NOW SHOWING
A GROWN-UP MOTION PICTURE FOR GROWN-UP EMOTIONS!
every daughter should see it every parent must!

starring
GINGER ROGERS
MICHAEL RENNIE
with MILDRED NATWICK
Produced by CHARLES BRACKETT
Directed by EDMUND GOULDING
Screenplay by WALTER REISCH and CHARLES BRACKETT

"Coke does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment . . . and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.
DRINK Coca-Cola
BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

SAVE 25% on your HOLIDAY TRIP HOME

GO BY TRAIN!
IT'S COMFORTABLE!
IT'S FUN!
AND WHAT SAVINGS!
You'll have more fun when the gang's with you . . . on the train! No worry about traffic delays. You can stretch your legs . . . visit with friends . . . really relax while you speed along your way!
And here's the way to stretch your allowance! Team up with two or more friends bound for your home town. Travel together both ways. On trips of 100 miles or more, you'll each save 25% on round-trip coach tickets using GROUP ECONOMY FARES!*
Or better still . . . COACH PARTY FARES! Round up 25 or more to travel long-distance together on the same homeward train. Then return singly or together and you each save 28% of the regular round-trip fare.
Except for local travel between New York-Washington and points east of Lancaster, Pa.*
See your travel or ticket agent NOW! Ask about these big money-saving plans.
EASTERN RAILROADS

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 9 | Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. | Friday, Nov. 30, 1956

Applications For Holcad Positions Due

Applications for editorial positions on the Holcad are now available to all students interested in working on the campus newspaper during 1957 and will be due in the Englsh office no later than Wednesday, Dec. 5.

Today at 4:30 in room 210 Old Main there will be a meeting at which the duties of each position will be explained.

Applications will be considered for the following openings: editor in chief, new editor, assistant news editor, copy editor, two assistant copy editors, sports editor, feature editor, feature staff, society editor, picture editor, advertising manager and circulation manager.

If you are unable to attend the meeting, leave your name in the English office and obtain an application.

Students' Theatre Guild Offers Plan To See Hit Plays

If you have $6.00, here is an opportunity to see six of the best plays ever to come from Broadway. The Theatre guild-American Theatre society and the Council of the Living Theatre, in cooperation with the Nixon Theatre, are inaugurating the "Student Theatre Guild."

This is a subscription plan being made available to juniors and seniors in high school and all college students, and was developed as part of the Pittsburgh Renaissance, which is designed to acquaint the students in the Pittsburgh area with the "Living Theatre."

The six plays include Judith Anderson in the New York success The Chalk Garden; Tennessee Williams' Cat on a Hot Tin Roof starring Marjorie Steele, Thomas Gmez and Alex Nicol; Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontaine in their comedy triumph The Great Sebastians; Ruth Gordon in The Matchmaker; Joan Bennett featured in the comedy Janus; and Vivian Blaine starring in the Broadway dramatic hit A Hatful of Rain.

Membership in the "Student Guild" is restricted to Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night performances only. You indicate the evening of your choice when sending us your check or money order for $6.00 per membership.

Make checks or money orders payable to the Theater Guild, c/o Nixon Theatre, 956 Liberty Ave., Pittsburgh 22, Pa.

Pittsburgh is the first and only city in Pennsylvania to have the "Student Guild." The only other city to have it is New York. Through the "Student Theatre Guild," area students will be able to subscribe to one of the most impressive series in the history of the Theatre Guild-American Theatre society, at a price that students can afford—6 plays for $6.00.

Now Hear This

The Physics club is sponsoring a field trip to the Westinghouse plant at Sharon Monday, Dec. 3. They plan to tour the transformer division. Any science student who is interested in going may contact any member of the physics department.

If you want to work on the Holcad in any editorial position first read the story at the top of this column then come to the meeting this afternoon at 4:30 in room 210 in Old Main.

Macbeth Is Seeing Double Again

Macbeth has enough trouble in Shakespeare's tragedy with ghosts without having two wives, too. However, Don Hudson, who portrays the male lead in the play, should not be too concerned about his two leading ladies, Jacqueline Walker, left and Audrey Valentine. The Little Theatre presentation will open Monday and will run six nights. This is the first Shakespearian production in several years and includes an all college cast of 30 students.

Shakespeare Returns Again To Little Theatre Next Week

Students Present Shakespeare's "Macbeth"; First Serious Production of the Season

"How now, what news?" . . .
"A drum! A drum! Macbeth doth come!"

That's right—the trumpets are blaring, the red carpet is being rolled out for the occasion, and the crowds are cheering the entrance of the 'Great Glamis!' It's only a matter of a few days until the doors of our Little Theater will swing open and invite everyone to enjoy and be thrilled by the stirring production of Shakespeare's "Macbeth."

The cast and crews, under the direction of Mr. William Burbick, have been under strenuous rehearsal for the past weeks and will be giving their next week to make this an outstanding production of the year.

For those who are not too familiar with the tragic plot underlying the play, here is in brief what will unfold before your eyes: Picture, if you will, a dim and cold stone castle in medieval Scotland; murder and intrigue lurking in every corridor; the clashing of sabres; the weird and uncanny appearance of supernatural creatures which seem to vanish into thin air; and two people caught in their own web of desire and ambition, discovering that they have trespassed that uncertain line of no return. If you can visualize all this, then you have a glimpse into the tense drama that is "Macbeth."

This, the second of the major Little Theater presentations, will open Monday evening, Dec. 3 at 8:15 and will run thru Saturday night, Dec. 8. In addition to evening performances, there will be three matinees: Tuesday, Dec. 4; Friday, Dec. 7 and Saturday, Dec. 8; plus final dress rehearsal tomorrow evening, December 1, which will be viewed by a high school audience.

In the lead roles are Don Hudson as Macbeth, and Jacqueline Walker and Audrey Valentine double-cast as Lady Macbeth. Miss Valentine will be seen in the role Saturday evening, Dec. 1; Tuesday matinee, Dec. 4; Wednesday night, Dec. 5; Friday matinee, Dec. 7 and closing night Saturday, Dec. 8. Miss Walker will perform Monday evening, Dec. 3; Tuesday evening, Dec. 4; Thursday evening, Dec. 6; Friday night, Dec. 7 and Saturday afternoon matinee, Dec. 8.

Others in the cast of "Macbeth" are Ann Price, Elizabeth McGill and Joyce Guy as the Witches, Gerald Schofield as Macduff, Frank Wilgocki as Banquo and the Sergeant, James Dorsch as Malcolm, Siward and 1st murderer, David Abram as Duncan and Robert Sola as Lennox. The part of Lady Macduff is played by Nanette Ozias, with Robert Rodeheaver as Macduff's son, and David Kromer as Ross.

Nancy Reese is cast as the Gentlewoman, George Lowther as the doctor, Wayne Henderson as Angus and 2nd. murderer, and Dale Westerman as Donalbain and Fleance. The role of the Porter will be played by Bruce Bowen, with John Shaffer as Seyton, Cathy Snyder as the Attendant, George Killa as the messenger, and J. M. Berg as a lord. The parts of the soldiers will be played by Don Hoover, William Ward and Robert Holmes.

Ticket reservations for "Macbeth" may be made at the Speech office, room 110 in Old Main. Activities tickets will admit students. All seats will be reserved, so be sure to sign up now.

IRC Meeting Features Woodrow Wilson Movie

A Woodrow Wilson movie will be featured at the I. R. C. meeting on Thursday, Dec. 6, at 7:00 in the Faculty lounge. Phi Alpha Theta will be guests of I. R. C. at this meeting. All members who have not paid their dues for the semester, and those wishing to join are asked to bring 50 cents. Following the movie will be a short business meeting and a Christmas party.

Parent's League Elects New Officers, Board of Directors

R. J. Studley, Bradford, was elected the first permanent president of the newly-organized Parent's League of Westminster college. Mr. Robert A. McConnell, Sharon, was named vice president and Mrs. Howard Guy, Hudson, O., secretary-treasurer. These three had been members of the temporary Board of Directors.

Other members of the executive committee named to permanent posts for the next year were Mrs. Jesse B. Bechtel, Mrs. Frank W. Keeley, Mr. Frank A. Finlay and Mrs. Alton H. Adams.

About 250 persons attended the meeting held in the Wallace Memorial chapel Saturday morning, Nov. 17. President Will W. Orr presided until Mr. Studley was named president. Dr. Orr spoke to the League about Westminster's football team and a possible NAIA bowl bid.

A motion was made and passed to have two Parent's Days annually at the college. Formerly, there was just one day in the spring.

The group adopted five motions established by the executive committee at a meeting last month. These points outline the aims and duties of the group including the establishment of an annual fund program that will strengthen the college. Other aims include establishing closer relationship between students, parents and the college; encourage parents to transmit ideas to the college; that parents be informed of the activities and plans of the college; and that the League assist in bringing facts about Westminster to prospective students.

The executive committee recommended the League's first project to be the furnishing of a recreation room in Galbreath hall, new women's dormitory presently under construction. The group suggested this room to be a memorial to the five students who have either died or been killed accidentally since Dr. Orr assumed the presidency in 1949.

The group also decided every parent of a Westminster student automatically becomes a member of the League. About 400 parents attended the Carnegie Tech-Westminster football game Saturday afternoon as guests of the college.

"Student March For Hungary" Rally Tonight

Westminster students will have the opportunity to participate in world affairs tonight. A "Student March for Hungary," sponsored by students in political science 251 class, will begin with a torch light parade at 5 o'clock at the TUB. The parade will form promptly at 4:55 and march to Old "77" where students will burn Khrushchev, the Russion leader, in effigy.

The student rally is being held for the purpose of raising funds for Hungarian students through the World University Service agency. After the burning, students will congregate in Old "77" to hear a Hungarian speaker and sign student petitions. Petitions signed by our students will be sent to Henry Cabot Lodge, head of the United States delegation to the United Nations; Sobolef, head of the Russian delegation; the speaker of the House; the chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations and Dag Hammarskjold, head of the United Nations.

These petitions will be read by their authors at the rally and will be circulated through-out the campus tomorrow, Sunday and Monday to be signed by Westminster students.

Chain letters will be sent to other schools in Western Pennsylvania to keep these petitions moving and to inspire demonstrations such as we will have tonight.

Ed Sprague is heading the committee in charge of the rally. The committee includes Sprague, Bob Palisin, Al Wheeler and Bob Holmes.

The Hungarians need our help. They are students just like us, fighting for the basic freedoms we have long enjoyed. Show your interest in Democracy in action by attending the Student March for Hungary. Tonight at the Tub, 4:55.

Pi Sigma Pi Launches Drive to Obtain Books For McGill Library

"Make Tracks to Pack the Stack!" Does this sound like the beginning of a freshman's theme? It isn't. This is the slogan for the Pi Sigma Pi Book Drive which will begin officially on Monday, Dec. 3.

The purpose of this drive is to increase the number of books in McGill library so Westminster may eventually have a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

When Betsy Hutcheson, the chairman of the drive, and Perry Kirklin, the president of Pi Sigma Pi, were asked to make a statement concerning the drive the only words they uttered were "Make Tracks to Pack the Stacks!" Let's help "Pack the Stacks" by either contributing books or money when a member of the group contacts you.

Collegiate Guild Gives Three More Programs On Local Stations

"The Emperor's New Clothes," a story by Hans Christian Anderson, will be presented by Lori Egli on "Let's Make Believe" tomorrow at 10:15 a.m. over WKST, New Castle. Bill Bovard is both script writer and announcer.

"The Paul Gamble Show" will be presented next Tuesday at 1:15 p.m. over WPIC. Paul Gamble, at the piano, will play "Jealousy," "Blue Moon" a medley of "Allegheny Moon," "Tea for Two" and "Tonight You Belong to Me." The announcer will be George Killa; technician, Don Hudson and script writer, George Lowther.

A musical show will be presented on Wednesday. Dec. 5 with Mickey Greco at the piano. It will be at 9:30 a.m. over WKST.

Fellow Students Need Our Help

Freedom is everyone's business.

This afternoon a rally will be held to raise money for Hungarian student relief. Perhaps some students do not realize just how important this help can mean to those who are fighting Communism. We may not be directly concerned with the situation now but—it could happen here.

Other colleges all over the country think this is an important cause because they have organized rallies and have raised thousands of dollars to help these foreign students who believe in the basic freedoms.

Also, these colleges have had petitions signed by the student body to protest the treatment and supression of the Hungarian people.

Arrangements are being made by Columbia and Yale to extend scholarships and aid to qualified Hungarian students among the 5,000 refugees who are now arriving in the United States by President Eisenhower's invitation. There will be many more who will have to be helped.

This is a worthwhile cause. SUPPORT IT. Someday it might be you.

Thanks For The Vacation

This year for the first time in several years Westminster had a Thanksgiving vacation. From the comments which have been expressed by the students since their return, it seems that this break in the schedule of study and routine was very welcome.

Although we will be going home again in another few weeks, it is generally felt that the vacation at this time is needed and should be continued.

For those who live in the surrounding areas it is not so difficult to get home for Thanksgiving Day, but for those who live in the New York area it is hard to make arrangements. For all concerned, we hope that this vacation will be given in the following years.

The Holcad

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, November 30, 1956 No. 9

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR ..... Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR ..... Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Have to give th' ole boy credit for trying to pep up a mighty dull course."

So . . .

Let It Snow

Last Monday or Tuesday when Westminster students returned to campus, they found streets, cars, houses and dorms covered with plenty of snow. To those who came from the north, this was rather an improvement, for they had witnessed much more snow than this at home during vacation. On the other hand, students living in the southern part of the country were shockingly surprised to behold such a sight, since they had seen little or no snow yet this season.

Usually there are various reactions concerning the first snowfall of winter. One either loves snow or he doesn't. Some say they must admit it's beautiful—only from the inside looking out. Then there are the nature lovers who face the outdoor world with much enthusiasm.

Quite often these are people who have spent most of their lives in or around Florida, and who saw snow only in the movies before coming to Westminster. Just mention snow and they are all set to go out and feast their eyes upon this glorious sight.

To those who have seen an overabundance of this form of precipitation, snow merely means a "pain in the neck"—or elsewhere! It causes one to slip and fall, to be a target for snowballs, to get his face washed the cool-and-cruel way, to get splashed with slush and to have to wear boots and other uncomfortable apparel.

Only one time a year is snow really appreciated by practically everyone—on Christmas Eve. But just notice what usually occurs on December 24—not even one single snow flurry appears.

Whether or not we are fond of snow, there isn't much we can do about it. Let's face it—wintry weather is here to stay till next April or May. So get out your sleds, skis and ice skates, and "let it snow!" You know you can't fight it, so try to enjoy it!

Letters to the Editor

This space has been reserved for student opinion. Obviously Westminster students have no opinions because this space is blank.

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Well, welcome back. It's good to be back on campus again but the little rest at home was badly needed. After five days of eating and sleeping, I'm well fortified for the coming three weeks which look pretty busy on the college calendar. However, just think, in less than three weeks we will be home.

* * *

Going down the turnpike was almost like a convention. Pulling into a Howard Johnson restaurant, you were sure to find one or two Westminster cars. At one restaurant, there were so many of us that a college fellow came over and asked me where we were all from.

I replied, "Westminster" and said "where are you from?"

He gave me a funny look and said "I won't tell you." He then went back to his friends and they proceeded to look at us as if we were from Mars. I wonder if they could have been students at Carnegie Tech or another school that our football team smashed?

* * *

Have you heard the definition for a pinning? It is a young lady or gentleman's social security.

* * *

Could I be mistaken or are the classrooms in Old Main getting colder and colder? A good warm coat certainly feels good during many classes.

* * *

I liked one write-up on the Carnegie Tech Kiltie band. It mentioned that the Westminster Titans stole the show on the football field but the Carnegie Tech Kiltie Band stole the show at half-time. I'll admit that the Carngie boys looked very nice in their little kilts and played very well, but our band didn't play so there was no competition. Have you ever heard of stealing something from yourself? But we'll forgive the Pittsburgh Press because that was the only bright spot of the day for the Tech lads and after all they did give us some space on the second page.

* * *

A new eating place has been discovered on campus. Seems as if one member of our "college family" doesn't like the dormitory chow. He was recently seen munching on a sandwich while studying in the library. Always something new and different!

* * *

The local cinema has had some great shows during the last few months. Now they are getting another first. The fabulous French production of "Diabolique" will be running Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Don't miss it kids, its wonderful . . . and scary, too.

* * *

So long for a while. This weekend I'm going to a Mortar Board Section meeting at Miami university, Oxford, O., with Marcia Vandermast, Marilyn Stetson and Miss Dimitroff, our advisor.

News Headlines . . .

Reds Tighten Grip on Syria

Russian Coup Feared in Syria—Growing tension in Syria threatens to develop into a Red controlled coup. Already the nation is controlled in Damascus by pro-Russian army officers led by Colonel Abdul Hamid Saraj. It is possible that the anti-Reds may appeal to Iraq for help against the Red menace.

Refugees Still Trickle Into Austria From Hungary—Within the last 24 hours 3,600 refugees have escaped from behind the Iron Curtain to swell the total to over 90,000. At the present time the Austrians are pleading for help with the overcrowding of their limited resources.

Venezuelan Plane Crash Kills 25—10 Americans including a promising St. Louis Cardinal farm team outfielder were killed when the four engined Constellation crashed into a cloud-shrouded mountain during a rainstorm.

Dorsey's Death Listed as Accidental—Tommy Dorsey, the Sentimental Gentleman of Swing, died of accidental asphyxiation. He was found dead in bed Monday afternoon.

Egypt Asks UN to Compel Withdrawal of Foes—Egypt demanded that the UN assembly today require a definite answer from Britain, France and Israel about their plans for total withdrawal from Egypt. If their answer is not satisfactory, Egypt suggested that the UN consider expelling them.

Swaps Selected as Horse of the Year—Swaps, who set four and tied a fifth world records, was voted Horse of the Year over his nearest competitor, Nashua. Swaps has been inactive since fracturing a leg.

DaFfY's DoPe

By Al Wheeler

It sort of seems funny not to hear any talk of the football team, and their tremendous feats on campus lately. Most everyone has heard by now of the loss of the bowl bid to St. Joseph's college in Indiana. At first this seemed impossible, as St. Joe's record for the 1956 campaign was eight won, and one lost.

Westminster, on the other hand seemed to have just what the doctor ordered. We had an undefeated season, and had lost only one game in the last four years. This, coupled with the fact that we had the explosive type ball club the board seemed to be looking for, should have made us sure candidates for the bowl crown.

NAIA Board

When it came right down to the wire, however, one thing stood in our way. The board of the NAIA that made the choice was composed almost entirely of midwesterners and westerners. The fact of the matter was that we just couldn't play politics with that kind of opposition. The midwesterners choice was St. Joseph's, and the westerners chose Montana State, while the Easterners were left out in the cold. This was probably Westminster's last chance for a while to compete in such a post-season game. The fact that we didn't get a bid should not diminish—the prowess of one of the greatest, if not the greatest, team in Westminster's history.

All Opponent Team

Thiel college has picked its annual all opponent team in football this year. The Thiel Gridders voted four Westminster college Titans to the all opponent team with three Hobart college Statesmen, two St. Vincent college Bearcats, and one each from Allegheny college, Washington and Jefferson college, and Bethany college.

Because of the tie that occurred in voting for the backfield positions, the Tomcats selected five backs. The voting went as follows; Left end . . Vince Cortese, Westminster; Left tackle . . . Leon Demalon, St. Vincent; Left guard . . . Burton Klinger, Hobart; Center . . . Jack Gysegem, Washington and Jefferson; Right guard . . . Jack Carman, Allegheny; Right tackle . . . Don Burdulis, Westminster; Right end . . . Andrew Urbanic, Bethany; Backs . . . Arthur Lambert, Hobart; Bill White, Westminster; Paul Bradiny, St. Vincent; Walter Harrison, Hobart and Harold Davis, Westminster.

Akron Looks Tough

I was paid a visit by four loyal Akron university fans over Thanksgiving vacation. The general consensus of their opinions was that Akron this year should be pretty tough. Only one player was lost from last years roster, and the Akronites are out to repeat last year's tremendous record. Although they felt that Westminster might give the outsized local boys a good game, they were pretty confident of winning. Sure would be nice if we could prove them wrong.

Walkers Have It . . .

For Christmas Needs . . .

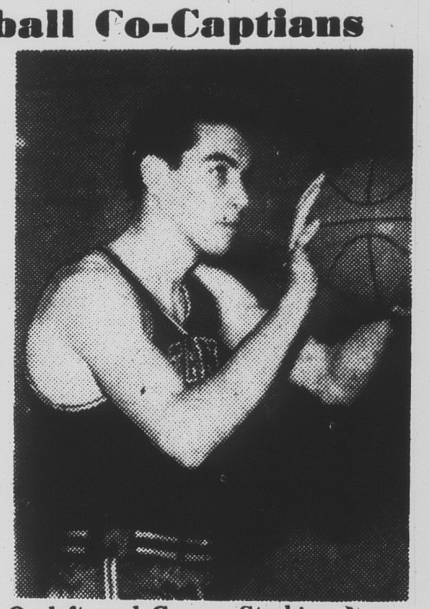

- Gift Wrapping Paper
- Spray Snow
- Colored bulbs
- Indoor and Outdoor Light Sets
- Plastic lite Murals

J. A. Walker Hdwre

Across from the Bank

1956-57 Basketball Co-Captians

Seniors Harold Davis, Youngstown, O., left, and George Strehler, New Castle, have been elected co-captains of the 1956-57 Westminster college basketball Titans. Charles (Buzz) Ridl, in charge of the Titan cagers during the temporary absence of Coach Grover Washabaugh, said the players were selected by vote of the varsity squad.

Pitt Panthers Return Four Regulars; Hennon, Ex-Wampum Star, May Start

Panthers Gain Height and Speed in Players; Expect to Improve Last Season's 15-10

The Towering Titans are looking at some rough competition this week and the University of Pittsburgh promises to be one of the strongest teams on the schedule.

Captain Joe Fenwick was the only starter to graduate and it looks as if Coach Bob Timmons will improve his 15-10 record of a year ago.

Don Hennon, 5-9, broke all state scoring records at Wampum High. He led Pitt freshmen in scoring last year.

Bob Lazor, 6-6, from Cononsburg is a senior. He will start at center for Pitt against the Titans Wednesday night.

Riser and Lazor Return

Returning from the 1955-56 squad are co-catpains John Riser of Washington and Bob Lazor of Canonsburg. Both these players seem ertain to break Ed Pavlick's record of 930 points established from 1952-55. Lazor has scored 804 points in two years while Riser has scored 751.

Chuck Hursh of Irwin and Julius Pegues from Tulsa, Okla., both juniors, are the other two rteurning regulars. Other returning lettermen are Howard Lester, Milan Markovich, John Laneve, Phil Kleiman and Barry Brautigam.

Hennon May See Action

Aleading sophomore likely to see action is Don Hennon of Wampum. Hennon was high scorer on the freshman team last year.

Pitt's overall record for the last three years is 34 wins and 40 losses. A lack of height and speed along with lack of experienced ball players have held the Panthers back. This year seems to be a different story. Bob Lazor, 6-6, will start at center ,Hursh, 6-4, and Riser, 6-4, will be the forwards with Pegues, 6-3, the top forward reserve. Hennon, 5-9 and Laneve, 6-0, will be probable guard choices.

Last year Westminster lost all three games with Pitt. They lost the first game in a Steel Bowl game 74-52, then they lost the two scheduled games by 77-67 and 77-71 margins.

Towering Titans Yield Height Advantage in Court Opener

Akron Has Nine Returning Lettermen From Team Which Won 18 and Lost 5

The Towering Titans basketball team of Westminster college will more closely resemble their nickname this season. When newly-appointed Coach Buzz Ridl unveils his 1956-57 quintet at Akron university Saturday ight, he will floor one of the tallest Titan teams in several seasons.

Probable Lineup

Westminster's probable opening lineup will include center Jim Riley (6-6), forwards George Strehler (6-4), and either Nick Johnson (6-5) or Dick Jordan (6-7). Guard Dave Rankin (6-3) also will add rebounding strength to the Titans.

Despite this tall array, the Titans will be smaller than the powerful Zips. Akron, which finished with an 18-5 record last year under Coach Russell Beichley, has a veteran and big squad. On the Akron roster are Fred Golding and Ray Pryear (both 6-7), and Dick Harrison, John Economou and Dave Wood (all 6-5). Coach Beichley has nine lettermen.

Fifth Position Undecided

The Titans' fifth starting position will probably go to freshman Chuck Davis (5-10), Uniontown, or veteran Harold Davis (6-1), Youngstown, O. Another possibility is freshman Ron Minnie (6-0), Monessen. Harold Davis, a regular the past three years, was late reporting because of football duties. Chuck Davis is rated one of the finest ballhandlers on the squad.

Saturday's game will be played at the Memorial hall court. It will be the opener for both teams.

Swimming Squad Elects Keppel And Buckingham

By Bill Rankin

This year's swimming team, coached by Mr. Harold Burry, has been practicing for several months in preparation for the coming season.

Two veterans from last year's squad, Burdette Keppel and Bob Buckingham, are the team co-captains for the 1956-57 season. Other upperclass squad members include Lee Africa, Jim Corbett, Herm Grip, Jerry Paul, Bob Stewart, Chris Thompson and Ken Wessel.

This year's team will also be strengthened by several promising freshmen. They are Bill Armour, Ben Brenner, Bob Colman, Tony Merino, John Rehfuss, Bill Ward and divers Mel Abramovitz and Paul Lococo.

The schedule for the 1956-57 season is as follows: Grove City, home, Dec. 12; Carnegie Tech, home, Dec. 15; Slippery Rock, away. Jan. 8; West Virginia, away, Jan. 12; Washington and Jefferson, home, Jan. 15; Penn away, Jan. 25; Slippery Rock home, Feb. 5; Allegheny away, Feb. 16; Grove City away, Feb. 23, Penn-Ohio association meet at Cleveland, Mar. 2.

Ridl Takes Basketball Reins For Season

Grover C. Washabaugh, director of physical education and athletics, head basketball coach, and chairman of the physical education department has been granted a temporary leave of absence.

Washabaugh, who came to Westminster in 1937, was recently released from the Jameson Memorial hospital. He spent eight days there recovering from an attack of virus pneumonia.

Washabaugh's assistant, Charles (Buzz) Ridl, will be in charge of basketball. Football coach Harold Burry has been appointed assistant director of physical education and athletics. Ridl, an assistant coach since 1949, has been directing the Titan cagers during Coach Washabaugh's absence.

Both Burry and Ridl are Westminster graduates. Burry, a member of the faculty since 1943, was graduated in 1935. Ridl received his degree in 1942. Dr. Orr said Washabaugh will return as soon as his health returns.

Westminster Players Roster

| Name | Ht. | Wgt. | Pos. | Class | Hometown | No. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Chuck Davis | 5-10 | 160 | G | Fr. | Uniontown | 55 |
| Harold Davis* | 6-1 | 185 | G | Sr. | Youngstown, O. | 45 |
| Willie Davis | 5-11 | 175 | G | Fr. | Uniontown | 29 |
| Tom Duda* | 5-11 | 170 | G | Jr. | Pittsburgh | 33 |
| Chuck Garrett* | 6-2 | 160 | G | Sr. | West Middlesex | 23 |
| Terry Halupa | 6-4 | 185 | F | Fr. | McKees Rocks | 17 |
| Nick Johnson | 6-5 | 185 | F | Fr. | Findlay, O. | 14 |
| Dick Jordan* | 6-7 | 230 | C | Sr. | East Liverpool, O. | 75 |
| Ron Minnie | 6 | 170 | G | Fr. | Monessen | 35 |
| Norm Paxton | 6-2 | 165 | G | Jr. | Fredonia | 39 |
| Bill Pryor* | 6-1 | 175 | G | Jr. | Weehawken, N.J. | 27 |
| Dave Rankin* | 6-3 | 170 | G | So. | McKeesport | 19 |
| Jim Riley* | 6-6 | 200 | C | Sr. | McKeesport | 91 |
| Bill Storey | 6-4 | 185 | F | Jr. | Chicora | 31 |
| George Strehler* | 6-4 | 190 | F | Sr. | New Castle | 43 |

*Indicates lettermen

Sig Eps, Harriers Win Tournament Openers 42-27, 37-13

The pre-season basketball tournament opened Wednesday with the Sigma Phi Epsilon "A" team crushing the Phi Kappa Tau's 47-27. In the "B" League game, the Harriers had little trouble in downing the Phi Tau's 37-13.

Scoring honors for the Sig Eps were shared by Coleman and Manspeaker who tallied 10 points each. Shalhman scored 10 points for the Phi Tau's to lead the team. At the end of the first quarter the Sig Eps held a 10-8 lead. The game remained close through the second and third periods but the Sig Eps broke loose in the final period to tally 20 points while limiting the Phi Tau's to only 4 points.

Other scorers for Sigma Phi Epsilon were Heeter, 7; Bestwick, 6; Powell, 4; Ruthermund, 4; Anderson, 4 and Ferguson, 2. Hyde, 2; Middleton, 6; Stoyle, 5; Carr, 4 and Opher, 2 tallied the other Phi Tau points.

The high scorer for the Harriers in the "B" game was Acy Jackson who sank 16 points. Jones and Hull each scored 4 points for Phi Kappa Tau. The Harriers gained a 5-2 edge at the end of the initial period and never relinquished the lead. They increased their lead to 13-6 at the half. The Harriers gathered 14 points in the third period and succeeded in holding the Phi Tau's scoreless.

Other Harrier points were scored by Kennell, 8; Wilsom, 6; Patton, 3; Stone. 3 and Colton, 1.

THIS WEEK'S BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Tomorrow night—Akron university (away)
Dec. 5—Pitt (away)
Dec. 8—Waynesburg (here)

the favorite Lunch . . .
Sandwiches and "Coke"
WILMINGTON BAKERY
Offering—
Fountain Service
Light Lunches

EARN YOUR MASTER'S DEGREE
AND PREPARE FOR
AN EXECUTIVE CAREER IN RETAILING

Comprehensive nine-month program for A.B. and B.S. graduates; emphasis on executive direction in major stores dovetailed with classroom work. Total pay for store work $450. Co-ed. Scholarships. Selective job placement before graduation. G.I. approved. Next class, September 3, 1957. Apply now. Write for Bulletin C.

SCHOOL OF RETAILING
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

SOCIAL WHIRL

Sorority Women Hold Houseparties Tomorrow Honoring Their Pledges

By Dianne Oursler

Caught up in the flurry of tests, term papers and thesis reports, Westminster fellows and gals will abandon studies this weekend as sororities open their houses to their dates Saturday night. Themes seem to run along a Christmas motif and many will honor the recent pledges.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Elizabeth McGill has received a diamond in her pin as the award given to the senior with the highest scholastic average . . . Carol Maurer is general chairman of the houseparty this weekend . . . Others on the committee are Alta Vogan, Dorothy Wallace, Miriam Fox and Peggy Black . . . Phyllis Neeley visited Alpha Mu chapter at Pennsylvania state university . . . Jean Frarey visited Gamma Epsilon chapter at the University of North Carolina.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Tomorrow night's houseparty will be held in Old '77. Nancy Etzel is in charge and announces that the theme is "Christmas Island." . . . Joanne Snyder won the 1955-56 pledge scholarship award . . . Edith Cleveland, Ronnajean Hamilton and Cay Townsend visited the University of Pittsburgh and Janet Long was on the West Virginia Wesleyan campus.

CHI OMEGA . . . The Christmas house party will be held at College hall. Janet Reese is general chairman. Suzanne Essinger is in charge of refreshments and Wynetta Schmidt is chairman of the entertainment committee. Myrtle Shaheen and Ruby Parker are working on decorations . . . Toni Ellis visited the chapter at Thiel college.

KAPPA DELTA . . . National Secretary, Mrs. O. W. Loomis, will be on campus this week. A tea will be held in her honor Friday evening. . . Pledging ceremonies were held for Kaye Johnson, Rose Mary Koonce, Eleanor Paddock and Jean Rowland . . . Jean Douthett is in charge of the houseparty in honor of the pledges . . . Chairman named for the Slumber party are: Jean Rowland and Janice Ferguson, entertainment and Barbara Lindsey and Judy Allison, refreshments . . . Recently visiting campus were Carole Jones, '56, Jean McGeoch, '55 and Barbara Wiseman, ex '58.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . .The following men will be activated tomorrow: James Caskey and John Ericson . . . George Killa announces the annual Christmas Dinner-dance will be held at the Squaw Creek Country club.

QUADRANGLE . . . New members are: Mary Ellen Snyder, Carolyn Brown, Esther Madory, Etta Mae Martin, Carol Donges and Marcia Kohen . . . Myrna Boal is in charge of the houseparty this weekend which will have a Christmas theme . . . Marcia Kohen is the new athletic chairman.

SIGMA NU . . . The Christmas formal will be held at the VFW in Irwin . . . James Osuna visited the chapter at Maryland during the holidays.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . The Father-Son banquet was held recently . . . Weston Hyde, Paul Kreiling, Charles Powell, Howard Thomas and Alfred Thomson visited the chapter at the University of Toronto . . . Joseph McFate, Harry Obley and Kenneth Zahrobsky, '56, were on campus.

THETA UPSILON . . . Janet Patterson heads committees for the houseparty tomorrow in honor of the pledges . . . Pledging ceremonies will be held this afternoon for Doris Van Cott . . . Phyllis Town visited Yale university recently.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Marcia Vandermast has accepted the Phi Kappa Tau pin of John McPherson . . . Mrs. Balzer, province president, will be on campus next week from Monday through Wednesday . . . Nancy Zahn is in charge of the houseparty, "Fantasy in Frost," to be given in honor of the pledges . . . Marcia Vandermast and Barbara Farrow are attending the Mortar Board convention to be held this weekend on the campus of Miami university, Oxford, Ohio.

Engagements

McMASTERS-PICKFORD

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McMasters of New Bethlehem, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marlene Joyce to William Thomas Pickford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pickford of East McKeesport.

Miss McMasters is a junior elementary education major and a member of Theta Upsilon sorority. Her fiance is a junior business administration major and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

WILMINGTON THEATRE

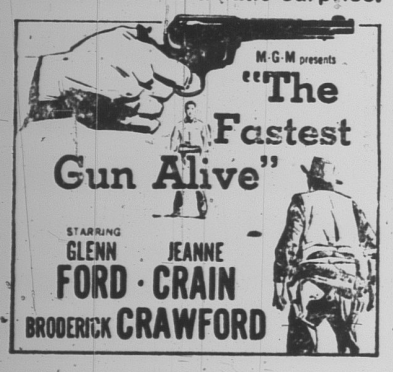

2 Shows Nightly

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
Nov. 30 & Dec. 1

— ALSO —

GRIPPING all the way and at the end a dramatic surprise.

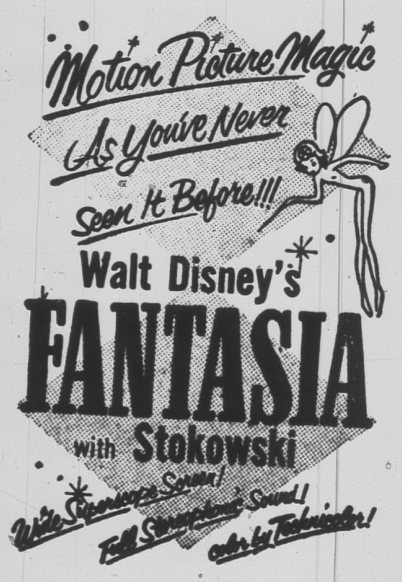

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

DIABOLIQUE

Any way you Read it . . . it means TERROR!
Do Not Tell The Ending

HI-LANDER THEATRE
New Castle, Pa.

NOW SHOWING

Campus Calendar

Friday, Nov. 30
Chapel—Dr. Woods
Saturday, Dec. 1
10:45 Christian Service Training program
Basketball, Akron, away
8:30 Sorority house parties
Sunday, Dec. 2
9:45 Bible class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers, Dr. Eugene Stone
Monday, Dec. 3
Chapel, Pi Sigma Pi book drive
7:00 Sorority meetings
7:00 Karux
8:15 Play
Fraternity meetings
Tuesday, Dec. 4
Chapel, Dr. Robert Foster
7:00 Student Council
7:00 CSG
7:00 CGA
8:15 Play
Wednesday, Dec. 5
Chapel, Harold Burry
5:00 WAA
5:00 Mu Phi Epsilon
7:00 YWCA
8:15 Epsilon Phi
8:15 Play
Basketball, Pitt, away
ACS meeting
Thursday, Dec. 6
Chapel, Sigma Nu
7:00 Sigma Kappa intersorority social
7:00 IRC Mock election
7:00 Alpha Psi Omega
8:15 Play
Friday, Dec. 7
Chapel, Alumni-Student panel
8:15 Play
8:30-11:30 Quadrangle all-college social
Sorority slumber parties

Co-Recreation Night Scheduled for Wed.

Co-Recreation Night will be held Wednesday, Dec. 5, 8:30 to 10:00. Swimming, volleyball, badminton and table tennis will provide the evening's entertainment.

W.A.A. is sponsoring the affair and will serve refreshments. Women have late permissions and may wear jeans or bermudas. Admission will be 15 cents.

News Brief

All freshman chemistry majors are invited to attend the meeting of the American Chemical society to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 5. On Friday, Dec. 7, the members of ACS are going on a field trip to Mallory Sharon Titanium.

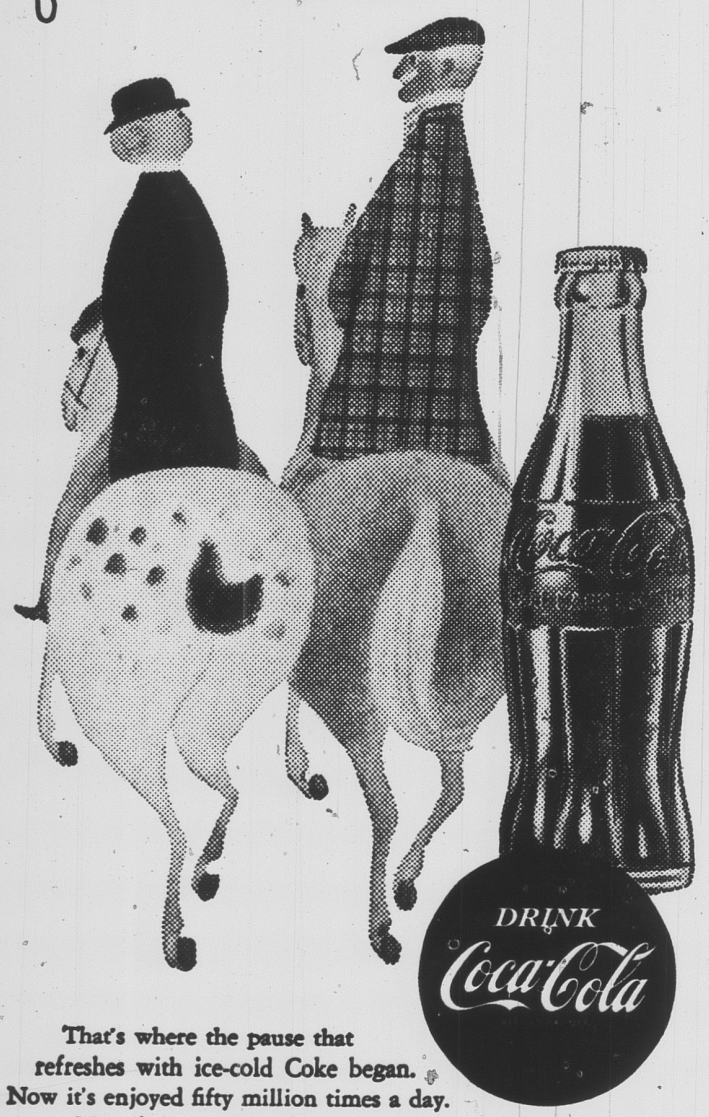

Dhyan McCollum, senior English major who attended American university in Beirut, Lebanon last year, will talk of her experiences at the meeting of the Kiwanis club at the Methodist church Monday.

Three Mortar Board members, Marcia Vandermast, president; Barbara Farrow, treasurer; Marilyn Stetson and Miss Dimitroff, faculty advisor left today to attend the sectional Mortar Board convention at Miami university, Oxford, Ohio. They will attend meetings and workshops Saturday after the opening banquet Friday evening.

the Convenient Christmas Cookie . . .
baked, packed and rushed fresh to you by NABISCO
featuring: Black Walnut — Chocolate Coconut
Sugar Wafers — Many others
BROWN'S MARKET
. . . the Store with More

"9 originally came from Atlanta"

That's where the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coke began. Now it's enjoyed fifty million times a day. Must be something to it. And there is. Have an ice-cold Coca-Cola and see . . . right now.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
21 S. Beaver St. Phone OL-2-3761
"Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

Ex Libris

By Beryl Rowland

A biography, Ring Lardner, by Donald Elder is among the new books found in the library this week. Ring Lardner was a baseball reporter, newspaper columnist, writer of short stories and a humorist. Elder, who is from Lardner's home town, Niles, Mich., begins with Lardner as the youngest of nine children. He then tells of his early years of sports writing and of his entire literary career with its tragic ending.

Stevenson's Letters to Charles Baxter, by Ferguson and Waingrow, is a collection of the letters which Robert Louis Stevenson wrote to his lawyer and friend, Charles Baxter. Stevenson and Baxter exchanged letters from their undergraduate days until Stevenson's death. They are the frankest of all of Stevenson's letters and they clarify many points in his biography.

Tombs, Temples and Ancient Art is a personal account by Joseph Linden Smith of his exploration in Egypt. For a half century he devoted himself to the task of bringing old Egyptian art back to life in the form of his own paintings.

An Historan's Approach to Religion by Arnold Toynbee is an intense study of history. Toynbee realized the importance of religion in the drama of the ages. This realization brought him to the question of what his own attitudes toward religion were. His book is an answer to this question.

New Castle Chorus Gives Seasonal Show

The Music Club chorus of New Castle will present "The Messiah" by Handel Sunday, Dec. 9 at 8 p.m. at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. The program is open to the public but contributions will be accepted to cover expenses.

This is the 18th consecutive presentation of the Christmas message and is sponsored by the New Castle Ministerial asosciation. In addition to the 200 local singers participating n the program, four soloists from Pittsburgh will be featured.

News Briefs

Twelve new members of the Pennsylvania Alpha chapter of Kappa Mu Epsilon were initiated into the fraternity at a dinner held at the Tavern recently.

The Snowtime Snack —
Hot . . .
Hot . . .
Chocolate!
. . . topped off with an oven-toasted Nut Roll
The Grille

Do Your Christmas Shopping Now At Fred Williamson

Shoes Dull and Drab
SHOE TINTING and DYING
Fabrics and Leather
Fusco Shoe Shop
Bank Building

The Westminster Holcad

Vol. 77 No. 10 | Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. | Friday, December 7, 1956

Students Support Hungarian Cause

Westminster's student march for Hungary is still on. The work is being backed by Student Council and the International Relations club. The proceeds from the record hop after the Waynesburg basketball game will be given to the Hungarian fund.

Petitions are being circulated in all the dorms and fraternity and sorority houses and everyone is requested to sign. It is hoped that our action here on the campus will inspire other students on other campuses to have demonstrations and drives such as ours.

The rally held last Friday evening was termed a moderate success by Ed Sprague, chairman of the committee. About 100 persons attended and heard a speech by a Hungarian doctor. Bob Palisin introduced the speaker, who stressed the need for sympathy on the part of Americans to the Hungarian cause.

The petitions were prepared and read by Ed Sprague and Bob Holmes. About $17 was raised at the rally for World University Service and the box has been placed in Old Main, in front of Dr. Forry's office for those who wish to contribute. Rev. White of the Presbyterian church attended the rally, as did Dr. Norman Adams of the Bible department.

Stanford Universitv Offers Large Journalism Graduate Scholarships

The Stanford University Department of Communication and Journalism is now receiving applications for graduate scholarships in journalism for the 1957-58 academic year. The scholarships carry stipends from $1,200 to $2,400.

Requests for particulars should be addressed to the Executive Head, Department of Communication and Journalism, Stanford University, Stanford, Calif. February 15 is the deadline for completing applications.

Two of the scholarships, with stipends of $2,400 each, will be awarded to Asians studying in this country and preparing to work in the Orient. In addition to these grants, for which no service or work is required, the department also appoints some research assistants.

News Briefs

Epsilon Phi, French honorary, held initiation Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Alice Ligo. Those who became members are Carol Roberts, Sue Bechtel and Sharon MacKenzie. Marlene Wasser was in charge of refreshments.

Pageantry in 'Macbeth'

One of the big scenes of "Macbeth" with all the pomp and formality is pictured above. Two more college performances will be given tonight and tomorrow night.

Quadrangle Sponsors Square Dance Tonight

This evening the Sadie Hawkins Day Square Dance will be held in College hall from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. A professional caller will be featured. Jeans are permissible for girls. The price of admission is 25 cents for a stag and 35 cents for drags.

Holcad Applications Still Available For Staff

Applications may still be obtained in the English office for those interested in working on The Holcad. The applications must be returned to the English office no later than Wednesday noon.

Editorial positions which are open this semester are editor in chief, news editor, assistant news editor, copy editor, two assistant copy editors, feature editor, feature staff, managing editor, picture editor, circulation manager and advertising manager.

Anyone interested in reporting or proof reading next semester may also sign up in the English office.

News Brief

Recently five pledges were initiated into active membership of Mu Phi Epsilon, the music honorary. They include Peggy Black, Betty Jean Casebar, Gail Cheetham, Sheila Evans and Nancy McGavern. A dinner at the Tavern followed the activation. Also, Joanne Snyder became a Mu Phi pledge.

"The Messiah" To Be Presented In New Castle

The Music Club chorus of New Castle will present "The Messiah" by Handel Sunday, Dec. 9 at 8 p.m. at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. The program is open to the public but contributions will be accepted to cover expenses.

Four soloists from Pittsburgh will be featured. They include soprano, Alice Andrews from the Fourth United Presbyterian church; Nancy Williams, contralto from Shadyside United Presbyterian church; and Robert Topping and Earl Corwin, tenor and bass respectively from the Sixth United Presbyterian church.

Mrs. William J. Caldwell, director of the chorus, is assisted by Edwin Lewis, organist from the First Methodist church, and Mrs. R. K. Allen, the pianist from the Second United Presbyterian church.

Cameron Attends Band Convention In Chicago

Donald Cameron, Westminster college band director, will be in Chicago Dec. 14 and 15 attending a convention of the College Band Directors National association. The purpose of this organization is to work for the betterment and improvement of bands and the music selections.

Cameron is chairman of the delegation from Pennsylvania. Meetings are held semi-annually.

Westminster Debate Squad Attends Pitt National Invitational Tournament

University of Southern California, Annapolis And West Point Among Other Contestants

Westminster's debate squad will face some of the top-flight teams in the country at Pitt this weekend in a national invitational tournament. Covering the largest geographical area of any tournament this season, the conference will include such teams as Annapolis, West Point, University of Southern California, Vermont, and three Canadian universities.

Representatives of Westminster's team, facing their roughest competition of the season, will be Dave Livingston, Alan Wheeler, affirmative; and Scott Conway, Neil Brown; negative. Mr. Moorhouse, debate coach, will accompany them, as a judge.

The tournament will consist of five rounds, two on Friday evening and three on Saturday. In cross examination style, the team will debate this year's question: The United States Should Discontinue Economic Aid to Foreign Countries. There will also be a banquet Friday evening for the attending teams.

The men of the squad are not the only ones who have entered competitive debating. Last Saturday, December 2, members of the women's team attended a tournament at Allegheny, of which Pitt was the winner.

Finishing with a score of three wins and three losses for the three rounds, the team of Nancy Griffin, Miriam Fox, Kay Dierst, Judy Gray and Esther Davis ranked with such teams as Penn State and Geneva.

C.G.A. Presents "Beauty And Beast" Over Station WKST

"Beauty and the Beast" will be presented on "Let's Make Believe," tomorrow at 10:30 a.m., over WKST, New Castle. The producer will be Mr. Barbe; the announcer, Chris Thompson; the technician, John Sharp and Joyce Guy and Robert Holmes will be in charge of the sound effects. The cast includes: Bill Bovard, Pat Jenkins, Nancy Reese, Lael Holman, Lori Egli and Julie Holstein, the narrator.

The winners from the Poetry Reading Festival, Lori Egli, Jane Wilson and Joyce Guy, will be broadcast over WKST at 9:30 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 12. Jerry Vanbrook is both script writer and announcer.

Field Director Needed For The Girl Scouts Of Shenango Valley

A position is at present open for anyone interested in professional work in Girl Scouting. The position is that of Field Director for the Shenango Valley Girl Scout association.

The requirements for this position are as follows: you must be a graduate of a liberal arts college; group leadership and camping experience are necessary; and you must be interested in and have the ability to work with people. A good salary is offered with opportunities for advancement.

For information write to Executive Director, Shenango Valley Girl Scouts, 66 Vine Ave., Sharon, Pa.

News Briefs

Washington, D. C. will be the location of the Modern Languages convention to be held during the holiday season. Westminster college is sending representatives Dr. George Bleasby, chairman of the English department, Dr. Cobb and Dr. Myrta McGinnis.

Now Hear This

Organizations or individuals wishing to present a chapel program during the week of Jan. 7 must give requests to Donald Cameron before Christmas vacation.

Don't forget to contribute to the Pi Sigma Pi book drive!

The annual formal Christmas dinners for the faculty and students will be held on Monday, Dec. 10, in Ferguson, Hillside and Russell dormitories. A typical Christmas dinner including turkey and cranberry sauce with all the trimmings will be served in a candlelight atmosphere. There will be entertainment in each lounge following the dinner.

F.T.A. will hold its Christmas party at Miss Campbell's home on Market street, Tuesday, Dec. 11 at 7 p.m. The program will be presented by Mrs. Rowland White.

Going to the Slumber Party . . . and the Day After

Letters to the Editor

Editor
The Holcad
Westminster College
New Wilmington, Pa.
Madam:

Your statement of last week was obviously very crass (and still is) since you were basing your conclusion on a fallacy or a false assumption. Westminster students do have opinions. We have very fixed opinions concerning certain subjects. You provide the subject. I'll provide the opinion.

Here's for freedom of the press!
Frank A. De Felice

---

Editorial

Answer to One Student's Opinion

Last week you may recall that The Holcad used a rather startling device to emphasize the fact that students have not taken advantage of their outlet for opinion, praise and gripes.

Apparently the device was not startling enough because the editorial mail bag held only one reply.

The writer of this week's letter thinks that Westminster students have opinions. I agree because I have heard them often. However, they evidently do not think much of their convictions because they will not let everyone hear what they have to say.

Contrary to the writer's statement, it is not the editor's job to provide a subject for those who wish to write letters to the paper. This would be dictation and would go against the policy of The Holcad. If you want freedom of the press, this is not the way to get it. The Holcad is freer than you think, and we would like to keep it that way.

It seems that an individual of college age should be able to find some subject on which to write. There are many things which one could use, either campus or world affairs.

If I were in a position to do so, I might write about the superb jobs the students did in the production of "Macbeth", the success of the co-recreation night, how I would like to see more foreign movies after seeing the suspenceful "Diabolique" or how I would like to have more heat in the third floor journalism rooms on cold, cold days.

This is still a free country and a free paper, everyone, so let's hear from you.

---

The Holcad

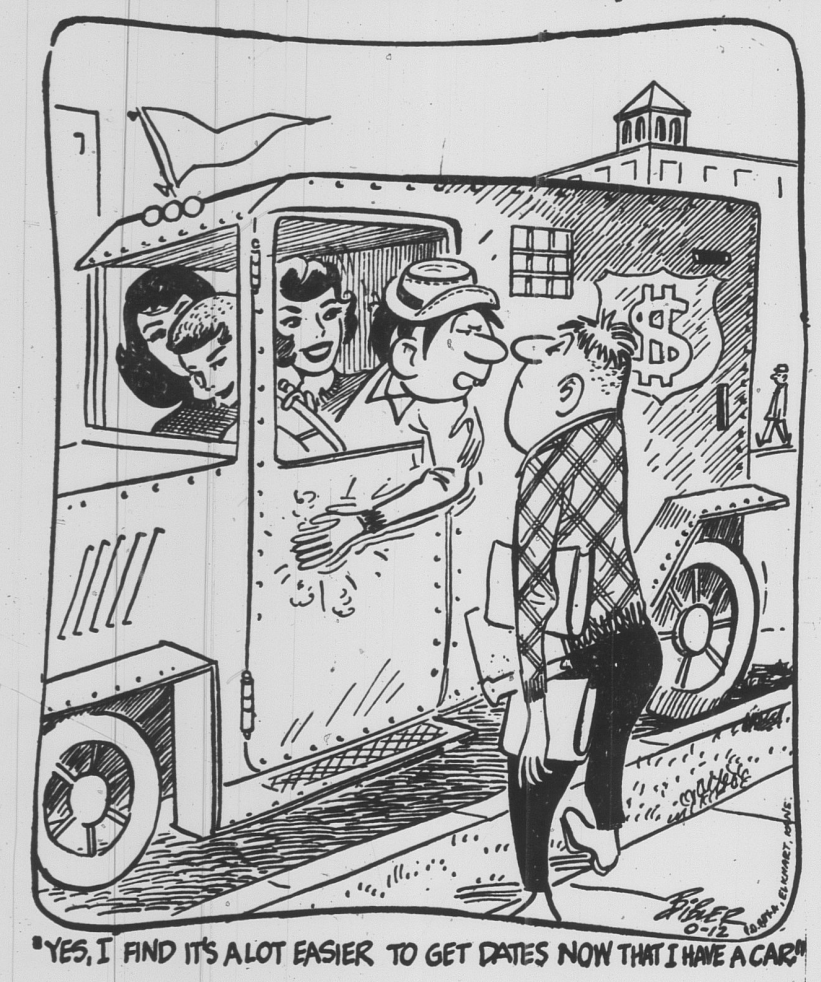

Member of Associated Collegiate Press
Served By National Advertising Service
McGill Memorial Library
Telephone 2755, Holcad extension

Published weekly during the college year, excepting recess periods, by the undergraduate students of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at New Wilmington, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $3 per year. Total circulation 1500 copies.

Vol. 77 Friday, December 7, 1956 No. 10

EDITOR ..... Jeannette Traendly
MANAGING EDITOR ..... Judith Maccubbin
COPY EDITOR ..... Carol Dietz
FEATURE EDITOR ..... Barbara Farrow
SPORTS EDITORS ..... Alan Wheeler, Robert Holmes
SOCIETY EDITOR ..... Dianne Oursler
BUSINESS MANAGER ..... Albert Canon
CIRCULATION MANAGER ..... David Jaeger
NEWS EDITOR ..... Arlene Pasacic
REPORTERS—Beryl Rowland, Koula Svokos, Lynn Caddick, Jacque Walker, Peggy Funkhauser, Bobbie Post, Carol Kibler, Bob Melder, Gloria Hugus, Judy Gray, Phyllis Neeley, Linda Strickler, Chiquita Johnson, Janice Zimma, Sheryl Neeley, Myrtle Shaheen and Nancy Nichol.
PROOFREADERS—Shirley McPherson, Betsy Hutcheson, Betty Rushing, Barbara Farrow, Jane Houtz, Joanne Bretsnyder and Sanny Mahood.
FACULTY ADVISOR ..... Charles Cook

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

A Visit . . .

From The House Mother

By Carol Kibler

T'was the night before vacation, and all through the dorm
Not a creature was studying, not even a bookworm.
Since yesterday the suitcases had already been packed,
And in the corner they neatly were stacked.
I and my roommate and all our friends with us
Had just settled down to listen to Elvis—
When from out of the hall came a sound to my ear,
Yet it was so faint one hardly could hear.
Right then someone told a really good joke,
So of the sound not a word was spoke.
From the hall came a knock so loud and clear
I knew in a moment it was House Mother dear.
The door slowly opened, a figure came in sight,
And sure enough, I had been right.
She was dressed in night clothes from her foot to her head
And the condition of her hair showed she had been in bed.
A little notebook she held tight in her fist,
For the dean she was making a list.
"Sally, Jean, I've got every name
She looked at the list and then us again.
Her eyes didn't twinkle, her dimples weren't merry,
But from rage her face was red as a cherry.
"Girls, what's the meaning of this, tell me precisely!"
"You ain't nothing but a hound dog," retorted Mr. Presley.
Silence prevailed as we looked at each other
We really had nothing to tell our House Mother.
Again our dear friend Elvis came through,
As he pleaded with her, "Don't be cruel."
Apparently though she had no intention
Of taking dear Elvis's valid opinion.
"There's only one thing to do that can be seen
You all must go and visit the dean."
With that statement she finished her work
And opening the door she turned with a jerk.
We heard her exclaim as she entered the hall
"I don't know what to make of this generation, not at all!"

---

Ads . . .

Out of the Ordinary

By Bob Melder

This year, cars have been talked about, advertised, and displayed, more than any other time in car history.

But with the modern changes in designs, and new color schemes, the dealers have a right to blow off some steam about their product.

On the other hand, what about the USED CAR DEALERS, who have to be content with the second best. Now more than ever they will have to offer a better grade of cars, better prices, and a better and more unique form of advertisement, to help sell their product.

Since used car dealers are so numerous, and scattered over such a wide area, some of the commuters from New Castle have offered their knowledge about some of the better buys in the surrounding area concerning the new trend in advertising, to those students interested in buying their girls a car for Christmas.

Here are some of the commuters findings:

Dave Bongivengo, a song and dance major found this bit of advertising; For sale. '47 Hudson. Should run. If not, would make a good chicken coop.

Joe Scungio, who is majoring in cutting classes, came up with this little ditty: For sale '49 blue Ford. We think its' blue, anyway. We haven't scraped the 2 inches of mud and fertilizer off it yet.

Gil Mason, majoring in caddying for golfers who hit over 190, had this piece of information: For sale. '47 Mercury. One good tire. Motor included. Fully equipped with strong tow chain.

Walt Flamino, a serious major in telling corny jokes, submitted this classic: For sale '48 Plymouth. Everyone has heard about the new Plymouth breaking the time barrier; well we have one that looks like it ran into the barrier.

We hope that we have helped you, in some way, to solve your shopping problem. In closing we would like to leave you with our only defense, in the form of a phrase that Will Rogers once said, "I only know what I read in the newspapers."

Tidbits . . .

Barbed Wire

By Barbie Farrow

Visiting on Miami's campus in Oxford, Ohio, last weekend brought some very interesting points of view. First, the women's dormitories have girl head waiters instead of the masculine touch, and second, they have three women's dorms in the same status as Galbreath hall. All in all, the conference was a big success, and while we were thrilled by the large Miami campus, it was a welcome sight to see Old Main as we came down the hill.

* * *

Our boy Elvis seems to really get around. A school board in upper New York agreed to let the students choose the name for their new $3,500,000 high school, but when early returns showed that the school was going to be named the Elvis Presley High school the privilege was withdrawn.

* * *

A fellow scribe in the Ohio State Lantern gave this description of a psychology professor. He's a man who enters a classroom and says "Good morning, students. You're fine, how am I?"

* * *

It was interesting to go through the Ohio Amish section. Going along Route 62 we ran into signs saying, "Caution, Horse Drawn Vehicles Area." Wouldn't it be a good idea to post signs around New Wilmington so that motorists who are passing through won't be surprised upon meeting a horse and buggy.

* * *

It is amazing that so many similar things can be going on on two different campuses at the same tme. Looking over the Miami university paper, I discovered that they had scheduled the play Macbeth, a co-rec night and a special program for Woodrow Wilson.

* * *

From the ACP Features service we find that a University of Texas coed has unintentionally scared away some of her dates lately. During enrollment she wasn't sure of her new phone number but decided to list it on her cards as she remembered it. The men who call her get a masculine sounding, husky-voiced answer. The Daily Texan advises date seekers to hang up promptly and informs them the unknown voice is the Austin chief of police. The coed used the chief's unlisted number by mistake.

* * *

Here are a couple for the boys.

MAN OF THE HOUR: One whose wife told him to wait a minute.

Adam was the first electronic engineer, mainly because he furnished spare parts for the world's first loud speaker.

The young man who just received his college degrees rushed out and said: "Here I am world; I have an AB!" And the world replied: "Sit down, son, and I'll teach you the rest of the alphabet."

---

News Headlines . . .

FBI Investigates Tennessee Riots

FBI Called In To Investigate Racial Riots In Tennessee—After a white minister was beaten while conducting Negro students to the Clinton, Tenn., high school, the school was closed Immediately Attorney General Brownell ordered that the FBI enter the case and arrest all people involved in the attack and the riots that have broken out quite often in this community.

Brooklyn Pier Blast Claims Ten Lives—A tremendous blast that rocked a flaming Brooklyn pier killed ten people, injured over 400 and damaged a large section of the Brooklyn waterfront. For awhile it was thought that the blast was caused by sabotage because a mysterious phone call to a New York paper had hinted that something big was going to happen on the waterfront. Right now, several probes of the blast are under way.

Adlai Counts Himself Out as '60 Candidate—Twice defeated presidential candidate, Adlai Stevenson, announced that he would not run again for the presidency. He said that he would return to his private law practice in Chicago.

Exodus From Egypt Begins—The British and French withdrawal has started in Egypt as the U.N. police force has taken up their posts in Port Said and in other sections along the Suez Canal.

Floyd Patterson Stops Moore—Twenty-one-year-old Floyd Patterson, a former Olympic contender, easily knocked out an aging Archie Moore to become the youngest heavyweighe champion in the history of boxing. Patterson immediately challenged Rocky Marciano to come out of retirement, but the former champ says that his retirement is permanent.

Holmes' Highlights

by Bob Holmes

The much publicized basketball career of Wilt "the Stilt" Chamberlain again began officially as he played his first college game for Kansas university against Northwestern. The seven-foot sophomore scored 52 points and gathered in 31 rebounds to set school records in both departments.

Before Wilt is done he will break every record in the book. The giant could play pro-basketball right now without bothering with college except that he wants an education. Chamberlain works out with the Philadelphia Warriors when he is home from school on vacations. He picks up valuable pointers from established pros like Neil Johnston and Paul Arizin and after graduation from Kansas the Warriors would certainly like to have him.

Wilt Scored 91

Scoring a lot of points is no new thing to Chamberlain. He once scored 91 points in one high school game. High schools play eight minute quarters so that means that "Stilt" scored 91 points in 32 minutes or 3 points every minute or a point every 20 seconds. This is tremendous when you consider that the other team had the ball once in a while and the final score read 128 to 23.

Another area star loomed into the basketball spotlight this past week. Don Hennon, of Wampum, the 5 foot 9 inch Pitt sophomore scored 34 points in his first varsity game against North Carolina State. Hennon hit ten straight long one-handers from outside and had 17 for 25 all told. He was high scorer for the Pitt freshmen last year.

Geneva Wins

Geneva began its season with an easy victory over Indiana State Teachers. Bill Blair led the scoring with 34 points. I guess he scores against everybody but us. In the three games against Westminster last year he failed to impress.

United States Wins

Bill Russell and company led the United States to an easy 89-55 victory over Russia in the basketball playoffs in Melbourne. The Russians were quite impressive in their first victory over Canada but basketball is an American game. The Russians have not even claimed to have invented it.

Russian women, built like Russian bears, are building up points in the unofficial team standings but the Americans are sweeping the track and field events, with the exception of long distance runs and are ahead in the standings. The worldwide contest of men against men, against time and against records is under way despite wars and tensions.

A-C League Rosters Due

All rosters for A, B and C leagues in intramural basketball must be submitted by this afternoon The C league will begin tomorrow. All C league games will be played on Saturday.

Walkers Have It . . .
for that Christmas "extra for Mom or Dad
- Rhodney Kent Aluminum $1-$5
- Beco Plastic Planters $1-$2
- Old fashioned Candy Jars 39c-$1.85
- Pyrex Ovenware $1-$5

J. A. Walker Hdwre
Across from the Bank

1956-57 Towering Titans

Members of the Titan basketball squad are, front row: left to right, Dick Jordan, Harold Davis, George Strehler, Charles Garrett and Jim Riley; center row: Coach Ridl, Nick Johnson, Willie Davis, Norm Paxton, Dave Rankin, Ron Minnie and Jack Heidish; top row: Bill Pryor, Tom Duda, Bill Storey, Chuck Davis, Terry Halupa and Bill Jack.

Akron Tops Locals; Strehler Gets 27

Six Point Margin Is Too Much For Titans

By Bob Holmes

The Akron Zippers used the foul line to good advantage last Saturday night and defeated the Titans, 81 to 75, in the court opener for both clubs on Akron's court.

Akron shot 56 foul shots and made 35 to offset the fact that the Titans outscored them in field goals 28 to 23. Westminster received only 29 fouls and made 19.

Although the game was tied four times in the first half, the Zippers pulled 12 points ahead, 35-23. The Titans roared from behind to tally 12 consecutive points and knot the count at 35. Chuck Davis hit for two baskets, Willie Davis, Harold Davis, Jim Riley and George Strehler hit for one each to tie the game with a few minutes remaining in the first half. Akron had only a slim 38-37 margin at halftime.

Strehler Shines

In the second half sparked by three buckets by Strehler and two by Harold Davis the Titans shot ahead 49-44 but Akron rallied to tie at 51. A field goal by Harold and a foul by Chuck Davis put the Titans ahead again by three but the Zippers fought back to tie the game at 55-55.

Willie Davis fouled out with 13:37 remaining in the game, Jim Riley also fouled out with 9:55 and Dave Rankin followed him to the bench with 6 minutes left to play. To make matters worse Chuck Davis and Dave Wood of Akron were thrown out of the game for fighting and the Titans were left under-manned. The score was 71 to 69 when Davis was thrown from the game.

Harold Davis Narrows Lead

With two minutes remaining to play Harold Davis dropped in two field goals to narrow the margin to 77-75 but the Zippers added two baskets in the closing minutes to win.

George Strehler was the top scorer for Westminster, hitting 13 of 20 shots and adding one foul for 27 points. Harold Davis had 18 points. Ray Pryear, 6 foot 7 inch center, was high man for Akron with 22 points and Dave Ondecker added 17.

The Titans were far superior to Akron from the floor. Westminster hit 28 goals in 67 shots for 42 percent. Akron had 23 goals in 73 shots for 31 percent.

THIS WEEK'S BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Tomorrow night—Waynesburg (Here)
Dec. 13 .....Slippery Rock (Away)
Dec. 15 ..... Baldwin-Wallace (Here)

Titan's Rally Falls Short; Loose Second Game To Pitt

Riser Is High Scorer Of Game With 20 Points, Riley And Harold Davis Are Close With 18

By Jack Heidish

Defeat marked a frustrating blow for Westminster's Titans in their first two games, but the signs for better things to come are evident. A strong Pittsburgh quintet had the scare of their lives before turning back Westminster, 64-54, Wednesday night at Pitt Field House.

Trailing by a 23-8 score midway in the first half, the Titans fought back to a 2 point deficit three times in the latter portion of the contest. Freshmen Chuck Davis and his brother, Willie, aided by strong second half performances of Harold Davis and Dave Rankin, were instrumental in the locals comeback.

Hennon in Check

Pitt's fabulous Don Hennon was held in close check by Harold and Chuck Davis. At times the Wampum flash played poorly although he wound up with six points near the end of the game. John Riser, the big 6' 4", forward from Washington was a constant thorn in the Westminster side in the last three years, as he tallied 20 points. His running mate, Bob Lazor, who held disappointing Titan center, Jim Riley to 2 free throws, followed Riser with 18 markers.

It was all Pitt Panther for much of the first half as Riser bucketed 11 points and Lazor, 12. Westminster's shooting was way off as the locals fired from too far outside and were out rebounded under the boards.

Titans Find Range

It took the Titans about 5 minutes in the second half before they finally began to find the performer for the night with 18 points sparking the comeback. Westminster crept as close as 44-42 46-44, and 48-46 but the Panthers refused to fold and kept the Titans from knoting the game. When the score reached 54-52, Pittsburgh went into a freeze and played for a good shot or a foul. This brought the final score higher.

Also evidenced in the final result was the fact that the Panthers had only one more field goal than Westminster, but were sharp shooters from the free throw line as they sank 22 fouls to the local's 14.

J. V.'s Loose

In the preliminary game the Titan J. V. squad, downed by 19 tallies at the half, made a strong comeback in the second half, but it wasn't quite enough as they lost by a 66-64 margin. A sloppy performance in the opening part of the game cost the little Titans a possible victory.

Arch Robinson and Terry Halupa each tallied 16 points to lead Westminster while Ron Minnie chipped in with 10 points.

It also marked the second defeat in two nights for the J.V.'s as a powerful West Virginia team won a 82-62 contest on Tuesday. John Martin was high point getter with 15 markers The Junior Varsity will play their next game tomorrow night when they will host the Slippery Rock reserves. Opening tip-off will be at 6:45.

the favorite Lunch . . .
Sandwiches
and
"Coke"
WILMINGTON BAKERY
Offering—
Fountain Service
Light Lunches

Little All-American Names Bill White

It was announced Thursday that Bill White, fullback from Blairsville, was named to the Little All-American second team. Harold Davis who made the first team in 1954 and 1955 was excluded from the 1956 selections.

| Westminster | FG | F | Pts |
|---|---|---|---|
| Strehler | 13 | 1 | 27 |
| Johnson | 1 | 0 | 2 |
| Riley | 3 | 5 | 11 |
| Jordan | 0 | 1 | 1 |
| H. Davis | 5 | 8 | 18 |
| W. Davis | 2 | 2 | 6 |
| Rankin | 0 | 2 | 2 |
| C. Davis | 4 | 0 | 8 |
| Akron | FG | F | Pts |
| Whaley | 3 | 4 | 10 |
| D. Wood | 2 | 3 | 7 |
| Golding | 4 | 3 | 11 |
| J. Wood | 1 | 0 | 2 |
| Pryear | 7 | 8 | 22 |
| L. Ondecker | 4 | 4 | 12 |
| D. Ondecker | 2 | 13 | 17 |

NAIA Selects District 30 All-State Team

Seven colleges are represented on the All-State National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, (NAIA) District 30 football team.

Cliff Aultman, athletic director of Geneva college and chairman of NAIA District 30, announced the selections made by the coaches and athletic directors of member schools. District 30 includes the entire state.

Powerful Westminster, the only undefeated team in the state, placed three players on the mythical first team. Lycoming and Lock Haven each had two men on the first eleven, while Geneva, Indiana Teachers, Waynesburg and Washington and Jefferson had one representative.

Harold Davis, the Titans' sensational senior quarterback, polled the most votes. Davis, 185-pounder from Youngstown, O., has been named to the NAIA All-State and Little All-American squads the past two seasons.

Other leading candidates included George Dintiman, Lock Haven's fine back, Bob Price, Geneva's outstanding end and Norm Lewandowski, Indiana quarterback.

Repeaters from last year's All-State team are Price, tackles Wilbur White, Lycoming and Ed Malanosky, Waynesburg, guard Ray Johnston, W&J, and backs Davis and Bill White, both of Westminster.

Westmnster also placed three players on the second team. Geneva, Lock Haven and Lycoming each added two players on the second eleven and Waynesburg and Clarion each had one gridder on the second team.

First Team

Ends: Bob Price, Geneva, and Bill Moss, Westminster.

Tackles: Wilbur White, Lycoming and Ed Malanosky, Waynesburg.

Guards: Ray Johnston, W&J and Frank Agnello, Lycoming.

Center: Dunsmore, Lock Haven.

Backs: Harold Davis and Bill White, Westminster, Norm Lewandowski, Indiana, and George Dintiman, Lock Haven.

Second Team

Ends: Vince Cortese, Westminster and John Lovre, Clarion.

Tackles: Bernie Reilley, Westminster and Dale Cochran, Lock Haven.

Guards: George Scott, California and Ed Yablonski, Geneva.

Center: Bill Freshwater, Westminster.

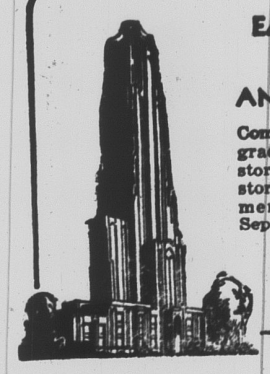

Backs: Bud Berringer, Lock Haven, John Grier, Lycoming, Frank Gounder, Waynesburg and Willie Taylor, Geneva.

A and B Leagues, Sigma Nu Teams Lead Elimination

Eight clashes took place in the A and B League intramural basketball tournament. In the two A games, the Alpha Sigs were defeated at the hands of the Sigma Nus 44-31 and the Sig Eps were downed 47-40 by the Phantoms. The losses suffered by both teams eliminated them from the tournament.

The Sigma Nus had little trouble in downing the Alpha Sigs although Towns for ASP was high scorer in the game with 15 points. High scorer for the Sigma Nus was Davis with 12 points. Other ASP scorers were Randall, 6; Henderson, 4; Kaufman, 4; Hartkopf, 1 and Klepser, 1. SN scorers were

(Continued on Page 4)

EARN YOUR MASTER'S DEGREE
AND PREPARE FOR
AN EXECUTIVE CAREER IN RETAILING
Comprehensive nine-month program for A.B. and B.S. graduates; emphasis on executive direction in major stores dovetailed with classroom work. Total pay for store work $450. Co-ed. Scholarships. Selective job placement before graduation. G.I. approved. Next class, September 3, 1957. Apply now. Write for Bulletin C.
SCHOOL OF RETAILING
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

SOCIAL WHIRL

Slumber Parties, Basketball Game And Dances Highlight The Weekend

By Dianne Oursler

"Turnabout is fair play," so the gals will squire the fellows to the Sadie Hawkin's day square dance tonight in College hall. Following this, sorority and Quadrangle members will congregate for their annual slumber parties. Saturday night Westminster meets Waynesburg in the first home basketball game of the season. Student Council will sponsor the after-game record dance.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA . . . Pledges are in charge of the slumber party with Peggy Funkhouser acting as general chairman and Anita Cicciarelli in charge of food . . . Betsy Hutcheson is general chairman of the all-sorority Christmas party. Chairman of the committees are: Lois Reed, Irma Allen and Marcie Barrett . . . Miriam Fox visited Kappa chapter at Allegheny college last weekend.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI . . . Calvin McCracken is in charge of arrangements for the Christmas formal which will be held in the Monongehela room of the Penn-Sheraton hotel in Pittsburgh. Brad Hunt and his Huntsmen will play for dancing . . . Dale Garver and Louis Toporcer visited the Alpha Sigma Phi chapter at the University of West Virginia last weekend.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON . . . Pledging ceremonies were held for Janet Dunklin . . Chairman for the Freshman pledge tea on December 15 is Norma Laird . . . Nancy Etzel is in charge of the slumber party for which the pledge class will provide entertainment . . Mary Lou Dyke, '56 was married on November 22, 1956 to Edwin Deal.

CHI OMEGA . . . Suzanne Kingsley and Barbara Frey are in charge of food and entertainment committees for the slumber party . . . Myrtle Shaheen, Ruby Parker and Carol Roberts visited the chapter at the University of Rhode Island . . . Linda Kraft was on the Western Reserve campus . . . Pledging ceremonies were held for Arlene Pasacic.

KAPPA DELTA . . . Lynne Caddick attended the Army vs. Navy game in Philadelphia last weekend . . . Pledges will sell cupcakes each Monday night in the dormitories for their pledge project.

PHI KAPPA TAU . . . John McPherson visited the chapter at Miami university last week.

QUADRANGLE . . . Nedora Campbell is in charge of the Sadie Hawkins day square dance tonight . . . Activation ceremonies were held for Janet Clawson Monday . . . Nedora Campbell visited the Ohio state university campus recently.

SIGMA KAPPA . . . Marcia Vandermast and Barbara Farrow visited the chapter at Miami university last week.

SIGMA NU . . . Edwin Watson and William Storey visited the Sigma Nu chapter at Bowling Green university last weekend . . . Thomas Duda visited the chapter at North Carolina state university recently.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON . . . Howard Thomas is general chairman of the Christmas formal. The dinner-dance will be held at the Shannopin country club in Pittsburgh . . Jay DeBolt represented the Inter-fraternity council at the annual convention in New York City last weekend.

THETA UPSILON . . Committee chairmen for the slumber party sponsored by the pledges are Diane Bachellor, entertainment; Kay Ames, food; Virginia Kaelin, decorations and Sue Sheriff, clean-up.

(Continued from Page 3)

Czujan, . Watson, 6 and Alter, 3.

High scorer for the Phantoms in the other A game was Whann with 17 points. He was also high scorer in the game. Bestwick tallied 9 points for the Sig Eps to lead the team. Other Phantom scorers were Cortese, 10; Bleggi, 8; King, 8; G. King, 2 and Mettica, 2. Anderson, 8; Manspeaker, 8; Rothermund, 6; Ferguson, 2; Heeter, 2 and Sarver, 2, scored for the Sig Eps.

In the B games, ASP downed SPE 45-38. Marsico, 16, was high for ASP while Sharp, 13, topped the Sig Eps. W. Duvall sank 14 for the Globies as they smashed the Kaps 55-20. Dewar, 5, led the Kaps. Sigma Nu crushed the Harriers 40-23. Mellinger tallied 19 for SNu and Leak sank 10 for the Harriers.

In other B games, Maurer and Kreling scored 7 as the Apes downed Furnace Hill 32-27. McConnell, 11, was high for Furnace Hill. Furnace Hill also downed ASP 27-24 while the Sig Eps edged the Globies 39-37.

Campus Calendar

Friday, Dec. 7
Chapel, Alumni-Student panel
8:15 Play
8:30-11:30 Quadrangle All-College social
Sorority slumber parties
Saturday, Dec. 8
8:15 Play
Basketball, Waynesburg, home
10:00-11:30 Student Council record dance
Sunday, Dec. 9
9:45 Bible class
6:15 CYF
7:45 Vespers, Ken Gordon
Monday, Dec. 10
Chapel, Senior class
Christmas Formal dinners
7:00 Sorority and fraternity meetings
8:00 Scroll
Tuesday, Dec. 11
Chapel, Dave Colton
5:00 Iota Delta
7:00 Tri Beta
7:00 Student Council
7:00 Future Teachers of America
Wednesday, Dec. 12
Chapel, Mr. Musser
YWCA caroling
Pi Sigma Pi
Thursday ,Dec. 13
Chapel, Hillside, devotional
Basketball, Slippery Rock, away
Kappa Delta Pi
AAUW, faculty lounge
Alpha Gamma Delta sorority party
Friday, Dec. 14
Chapel, Delta Phi Alpha
3:00-5:00 Campus Club tea
Senior movie

"Elvis 'Sends' Some Collegians;" Others Could Send Him . . . Anywhere

Minneapolis—(ACP)—Perhaps the most controversial entertainer in our country today is Elvis Presley. Much comment concerning him has been about his way of shaking, jiggling, etc. while he sings, and less about his actual singing voice. Comment has come from all types of people. He has been both hotly criticized and praised by the clergy, by politicians, by other entertainers, and by about everyone else who has heard him. And probably by some who haven't seen or heard him.

In order to get the collegiate slant on Elvis, Associated Collegiate Press asked the following questions of a representative national cross-section of college students:

DO YOU ENJOY LISTENING TO ELVIS PRESLEY?

The results:

| | Men | Women | Total |
|---|---|---|---|
| Yes | 35% | 44% | 38% |
| No | 54% | 46% | 51% |
| Undecided | 11% | 10% | 11% |

It is interesting to note that coeds are a bit more favorably inclined toward Elvis than college men. Just what this means, however, is open to speculation, especially since many of the coeds say they enjoy listening to Elvis but "can't stand watching him."

This ability to enjoy Presley's singing but not his looks is, however, not restricted to the coeds by any means. It is the dominant qualification of all students answering that they enjoy his singing. In fact, few students give Elvis an unqualified "OK." Typical is the response of a South Georgia College (Douglas) sophomore who says: "I like his voice but he is too vulgar to watch."

Here are a few comments by other students who like his voice, but ! . . A freshman attending the University of Denver says: "Some of his slower tempo songs are not bad, and he does have a fairly good voice minus the gyrations," and a Wake Forest College (Winston-Salem, N. C.) senior coed thinks "his voice sounds all right when he's out of your sight."

Some students do give Elvis 100% approval, however. "I think he is a talented singer" is the way a Tyler Junior College (Tyler, Texas) freshman puts it. And a Maryland University (College Park) junior has this interesting comment: "Some of his hits are very enjoyable. But many people who do enjoy him will not admit it for fear of degrading themselves."

Students answering NO to the question have a wide variety of comments as to why they dislike his voice. The most frequent remark is that Elvis lacks talent, or as a University of Wyoming (Laramie) sophomore puts it: "He is not a musician in any sense." Also frequent are comments that both his voice and actions are "repulsive."

"In very small doses he can easily be digested, but in large doses he upsets my stomach" is the feeling of a junior coed at Ohio University (Athens), while Wake Forest College junior says: "'Love Me Tender' is the only Elvis Presley song I like because it doesn't sound like him." And a University of Denver coed echoes another element of student feeling with this statement: "His appeal is too immature and emotional."

Actually very few students are without any opinion on Elvis. Many of those who are undecided on the question of his voice comment along the line of this statement by a University of Maryland senior: "Some of his songs I like, some I don't like."

Penthouse Apartment for Bachelors

Straight A's in surroundings like these would be a snap. The picture is taken from a sixteen-page full-color layout currently running in Playboy Magazine, which describes the ideal penthouse apartment where "young bachelors can live in masculine elegance". Playboy neglects to inform us how such a setup can be financed on a college man's income. Perhaps they plan to furnish do-it-yourself instructions in a later issue.

Beta Beta Beta Invites Students To Meeting

Beta Beta Beta, biology honorary, is holding an open meeting Wednesday, Dec. 11 in room 116 of the Science hall. Dr. Albright of the physics department is to be the guest speaker.

Dr. Albright's topic concerns an interesting project which he and hs brother have been carrying on for some time, the milking of spiders. The spider silk produced is used as crosshairs on bombsights, telescopes and other precision instruments. Dr. Albright will show slides to demonstrate his talk

Longest Term as Prexie

Dr. Robert Gracey Ferguson served the college as president for 22 years, the longest term of any Westminster president.

Students Attend Menonite Church

Any person wishing to worship at the Mennonite church just outsde of New Wilmington may do so this Sunday. Dr. Orr will spend part of his Bible class Sunday relating the background and history of the Mennonite denomination.

The group will leave from the chapel at approximately 10:30 a.m following the Bible class. Any person willing to take a car load should meet here at the same time.

Browne Hall Newc Gift

Browne Hall was erected in 1928 as a gift from the citizens of New Castle as part of the Diamond Jubilee program.

WILMINGTON THEATRE
2 Shows Nightly
FRIDAY & SATURDAY
Dec. 7 & 8
THE THRILLING LIFE-INSPIRED STORY IS ON THE SCREEN!
SOMEBODY UP THERE LIKES ME
From M-G-M
PAUL NEWMAN PIER ANGELI
— ALSO —
M-G-M's Awesome Thriller!
"FORBIDDEN PLANET" in COLOR and CINEMASCOPE
starring
Walter PIDGEON · Anne FRANCIS · Leslie NIELSEN with Warren STEVENS and introducing
ROBBY, The ROBOT
TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
Now On The Screen!
AMERICA'S OWN MUSICAL!
GUYS AND DOLLS
In CINEMASCOPE and in COLOR!

HI-LANDER THEATRE
New Castle, Pa
NOW SHOWING
IT RIPS OPEN THE HOT HELL BEHIND THE GLORY!
JACK PALANCE
EDDIE ALBERT
"ATTACK!"
It marches with the handful of great battle pictures!
Released thru United Artists

After the game,
Skating or Dance
For that "just right" Snack
it's
The Grille

Do Your Christmas Shopping At
Fred Williamson

FOR THE LITTLE GIFT THAT MEANS A LOT
J. R. MEEK
Your Local Jeweler

CHRISTMAS CANDY
The Most Complete Selection In Town
Boxed Chocolates
Packaged Hard Candies
Plus many, many others
BROWN'S MARKET
. . . the Store with More

RUNDOWN AT— the heels?
Step on it to
Fusco Shoe Shop
Bank Building